

Clan Cultivation 53

Chapter 53

"Fellow Daoist, is there an enemy in there?"

the old man asked.

"Yes, the enemy is too strong, but I am unable to take revenge." Lu Xuanji sighed slightly, a trace of murderous intent flashed in his eyes, "Fellow Daoist, here are the wings of the foundation-building monster, the heavenly crystal, and the jade of good fortune. , The Tree of Vitality."

"The Wu family has the wings of the foundation-building monster, and the sky crystal, but it does not have the jade of fortune, the tree of vitality." The old man said, as if thinking of something, he couldn't help but smile: "The wings of the foundation-building monster are about five hundred Lingshi; Tianjing, worth 1,000 Lingshi. There is no such precious goods in this market, and you need to go to Wujiafang City to survive. You need to wait here for ten days before the goods will be delivered to your door."

"I understand this, then wait ten days."

Lu Xuanji nodded.

There are also grades in the square market. A small square market like this does not store valuable things, but mainly stores some items that are heavy, bulky, and cheap.

As for those small and expensive items, most of them are stored in the Wu family's treasury.

When a cultivator wants to buy it, take it directly from the treasure house and send a cultivator to deliver it.

"By the way, is there a library here? I like to read books, flip through some miscellaneous notes, travel notes, essays, encyclopedias, etc." Lu Xuanji asked.

"Yes. You need a spirit stone."

the old man said.

"Can."

Lu Xuanji directly took out a spiritual stone and placed it on the table.

"What do you call fellow Daoist?" Lu Xuanji asked: "Remember last time, the fellow Daoist who was sitting here was named Wu Yueqin."

"She, she went back to the clan to retreat. It is said that she is going to attack the foundation."

Speaking of which, the old man said, "As for me, my name is Wu Quanwen."

Entering the library, looking at the volumes of books, Lu Xuanji flashed a flash of joy.

Started to look through it, the phone was downloading.

Scrolls of books were downloaded to the phone.

These books do not deal with cultivation methods, and they do not deal with the arts of immortality. They are mainly based on monks' experiences and notes, but they can increase monks' knowledge and vision.

In half a day, the download was completed on the mobile phone.

Then I flipped through these books and added my knowledge.

About ten days later, the goods were delivered to the door.

"Fellow Daoist, check it out."

Wu Quanwen said.

Lu Xuanji checked carefully and found that there was no problem with the goods.

Pay the spirit stone directly, and then rent another refining room to start refining.

Cultivators have different realms, and so do magic weapons.

The magic treasures in this world are divided into three classes, spirit tools, spirit treasures, and fairy tools.

The first-grade spirit tool, second-grade spirit tool, third-grade spirit tool, fourth-grade spirit treasure, fifth-grade spirit treasure, sixth-grade spirit treasure, etc., correspond to the six realms of cultivators practicing Qi and transforming into spirits.

Among the spiritual tools, there are talismans inscribed. The more talismans there are, the more terrifying the power.

For a Grade 1 spiritual tool, there are one to nine talismans inscribed.

For second-grade spiritual tools, there are ten to thirty-six talismans inscribed.

There are thirty-seven to eighty-one talismans inscribed on the third-grade spiritual tool.

There are two core elements in refining magic weapons.

First, the choice of materials, the higher the grade of the material, the more talismans it carries, the more likely it is to refine a high-grade magic weapon.

Second, the choice of talisman. The more subtle the talisman, the more it can determine the performance of the magic weapon. The number of talismans also determines the grade and power of the magic weapon.

A low-level spiritual tool, even a cultivator at the first level of Qi training can refine it.

But the higher-grade spiritual tool, the more difficult it is to refine.

Therefore, in the world of self-cultivation, artifact refiners were born.

Specializes in refining magic weapons.

There are two kinds of magic weapons, one is the ordinary magic weapon, and the other is the natal magic weapon.

After an ordinary magic weapon is manufactured, its power and grade are fixed, and it is difficult to improve it.

But the natal magic weapon is connected by the cultivator with his own life, nourished with mana and qi and blood, which perfectly fits himself. Will make the magic weapon upgrade.

The nature of the talisman determines the function and performance of the magic weapon, and the quantity of the talisman determines the rank and power of the magic weapon.

Huhuhu.

The fire is burning.

Lu Xuanji took out the material, threw it into the refining furnace, and began refining the material.

The material is melting. First, impurities are removed. Then, the material is fused and turned into a whole, gradually turning into a sword embryo about three feet three inches long.

Sitting cross-legged on the jade bed, Lu Xuanji's whole body was surging with spiritual light, and his true essence surged out, forming a talisman the size of a copper coin in front of him.

The talisman is in the shape of a sword, like a knife, with flames surging on it, and it is outlined by thirty-six strokes.

Taking the soul as the pen and the real essence as the ink, connecting the vitality of heaven and earth, as real as fantasy, began to inscribe on the sword embryo.

Each talisman consumes a large amount of real yuan, and just burning one will consume one-fifth of the real yuan. But once the talisman can be placed on the sword embryo, the method will absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, and it will be harmonious.

After burning the three talismans, he ate a vitality pill to make up for the consumption of real essence, and continued burning.

In this process, there can be no negligence.

A slight negligence is the destruction of all materials.

About ten days later, a three-foot-three-inch flying sword appeared, with a red glow on it, as if a phoenix was soaring.

Li Huojian, casting completed.

There are thirteen talismans on it, which are considered as second-grade spiritual weapons.

brush.

Holding the Lihuo Sword, Lu Xuanji immediately felt that the Lihuo Sword was connected by flesh and blood, like a whole, like a part of his body.

This is the magic weapon of natal life.

If other magic weapons are always separated from themselves At this moment, the Lihuojian is only a second-grade spiritual weapon, but with the continuous nourishment of Lu Xuanji's blood and infuriating energy, the Lihuojian will continue to improve. . When he advanced to Zifu, Lihuojian would transform into a third-grade spiritual weapon; when he advanced to Jindan, Lihuojian would even become a fourth-grade spiritual treasure.

The essence of the magic weapon of natal life is to use the body to support the weapon.

With the advancement of the cultivator's cultivation level, it has led to the improvement of the magic weapon of life.

Next, he refined the wings of freedom.

The soul is the pen, the true essence is the ink, and the talisman is depicted.

One, two, three... Every time I draw one, I'm consuming my soul power and my true essence. After 52 consecutive drawings, a complete talisman is formed.

This time, the consumption will be even greater.

In the characterization, it must be done in one go, and there is no substitute for pauses, which consumes a huge amount of money.

brush!

Right here, the first talisman was engraved on the wings.

Continue to portray, finally completed.

These are a pair of blue wings, with talismans looming on the wings, which looks sacred and majestic, with the breath of the wind flowing on them.

It is already a second-grade spiritual tool, with fifteen talismans on it.

The next moment, Wings of Freedom appeared behind him.

Pushing his wings, he suddenly felt that the speed was extremely fast.

The next moment, the Wings of Freedom, Li Huojian, etc. were all collected in the dantian, and they were warmed with true energy and blood.

These two magic weapons are constantly absorbing the true essence of the body, thus reducing the speed of cultivation by a large amount.

Originally, it was estimated that it would take 12 years to upgrade to the first floor, but with the drag of two natal magic weapons, it may take 30 years to enter the second floor of the foundation building.

The training speed becomes slower.

But this is temporary, he has a big plan.
