Vol 2 Chapter 736: 33 days to treasure, achievement fairy

The Zifu world is very big, very big, much bigger than the earth in the previous life, and there are many different dimensions, or the cave world, or other underground worlds, etc., mixed together, it is very big.

But for the monks who have crossed the catastrophe, the world is still too small.

It only takes more than ten seconds to get from the world...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

"what?"

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.

He has transmigrated from a modern special soldier to a young master named Qin Hu, who is the head of the seven villains in the capital!

And this era called the Dayu Dynasty never existed in history.

Qin Hu's ancestor was one of the twenty-eight marquises of the four founders of Dayu. Three months ago, his father died of illness, and Qin Hu became the new champion marquis.

Qin Hu was spoiled by his parents since he was a child. He didn't like reading or practicing martial arts.

When he grew up, the family wanted him to take care of him, so they arranged a marriage. The woman was the eldest lady of Chen Guogong's family, named Chen Ruoli, a well-known lady, beautiful and intelligent.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, the later Qin Hu was almost useless except for being a dandy, and it can be said that he completely disgraced the champion Hou's family.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.

<https://>

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind with harsh whistling whistled across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu was not much better. The Pioneer Battalion marched 30 miles a day for the past few days. The job they did was to open roads and build bridges when encountering water, chop firewood, dig ditches and carry water, and build camps.

And for these two guys with thin skin and tender flesh, what would it be like if UU reading www.uukanshu.com stayed with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

It's just this suffering, he must bear it now, if he can't bear it, he will die too.

"give me."

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

That is, the current leader of the Pioneer Battalion. <https://>Want to read the latest chapters, please download the Haoyue Novel app, and read the latest chapters for free without ads. ### Vol 2 Chapter 737: Mythical big Luo

Looking at the current situation of the Lu family, Lu Xuanji's mind was fluctuating, and he said to himself: "Family cultivating immortality, family cultivating immortality, the concept of family is getting farther and farther away from me after all..."

The memory of the past is getting more and more blurred, and it needs continuous recall to gradually recall it.

What a sad thing! ...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

Vol 2 Chapter 738: eve of ascension

The eldest apprentice Zhao Qiwen is a long-lived body, and there is nothing special about the long-lived body. The only advantage is that the life span is ten times longer than that of a normal monk. The long life can continuously polish the foundation and continuously improve one's own foundation.

Other monks, on the road of cultivation, should pursue fast progress and stable foundation...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

Vol 2 Chapter 739: Ascension to the Immortal World (The Finale)

Latest website: Speaking of this, Lu Xuanji couldn't help laughing out loud.

Those little things in the past, now recalled, some are just a touch of warmth.

It's a pity that he is not anti-inflammatory, and someone is not Nalan.

Lu Xuanji said: "Here is this token!"

Saying that, a token landed on Ye Linglong's palm.

The figure flickered and disappeared.

Ye Linglong took the token, refined it, and immediately understood the information in it.

A token is a promotion quota.

In the endless turbulence of time and space, there is a cave that is ups and downs, moving and changing its position all the time. When the coordinates are not determined, it is difficult to capture its traces.

Around the cave, there are even more formations surrounding it, and a terrifying sword energy rising and evolving.

At this moment, a monk appeared in the void.

Lu Xuanji looked at the cave, and approached flickeringly.

At the moment of approaching, it exudes its own energy, and even a token emerges.

Above the cave, the light flickered and fluctuated, and a divine sense scanned it, as if it was determining something.

Finally, the light converges and goes away.

A guiding light came down and shone on Lu Xuanji's body.

Lu Xuanji didn't resist, and let the light guide him.

In the next instant, Lu Xuanji appeared in the cave.

The sky of the cave sky is high and far, vast and huge, and the fresh air rises; the earth of the cave sky is thick and long, and the turbid air sinks.

In the cave, there is a golden crow in the sky, which emits hot light and evolves into a round of sun; there is also a jade rabbit of will jumping, exuding a cold breath in the void, and evolves into a bright moon. The Golden Crow rises, the Jade Rabbit sets, and the sun rises and the moon sets, creating the day and night alternation of the cave world.

Above the sky, there are stars flickering, a total of 365 stars, the stars are flickering and changing, and the power of starlight descends.

The sun and the moon are rotating, and the stars are changing, which is not much different from the outside world.

On the earth, there are ravines, mountains, plains, valleys, lakes, mountains, etc. Many complex terrains are intertwined and fluctuate with each other. Because of the diversity of the terrain, the flora and fauna have also become diverse and rich.

Here, things grow fine hairs, there are various spiritual herbs, and spiritual medicines are growing.

There are various spirit insects moving up and down, nibbling on the elixir.

Another spirit bird was flickering and pounced directly down.

A pack of wolves is on the move, running and jumping. They are short in stature and light in weight, and they are reliable in large numbers. They walk from all directions, hunting and killing their prey; Culling up, speeding forward, he went straight forward to lock his throat and bite.

There are also elk eating wild grass on the grassland. While grazing, their eyes are looking in all directions, their ears are listening to all directions, and they are ready to run at any time.

Another blind man went directly to the hornet's nest and began to dig in, eating honey. But the hornet's nest exploded, and countless hornets were walking, hunting and killing quickly.

Another crocodile was lurking in the mud, motionless, lurking for two days in a row, blending with the surrounding mud, waiting for the prey to come; a red deer was approaching, cautiously approaching the river, and drinking water in the river .

The next moment, the crocodile jumped up and bit the red deer's neck; the red deer jumped directly to avoid the bite.

thump!

With a sound, the crocodile fell directly to the ground without biting its prey.

The four short legs were sliding and moving forward quickly, and the huge mouth was biting the red deer; the red deer was panicking, its body was trembling, and it was moving and running fast.

The crocodile is not as fast as the red deer. After a short run, it seems to be exhausted, and the speed begins to decline, so it can only choose to give up.

On the plain in the distance, a group of monks of the Feather Demon tribe gathered their wings and drove the cows, who were pulling the plow forward; the monks followed closely behind, spreading the seeds. There are also monks who are advancing behind, clearing the cultivated land and making the ground level.

There is a group of Yumo monks, walking among the mountains, picking tea leaves.

There is also a group of monks from the Feather Demon Race paddling boats in the lake, casting nets to catch fish.

They are all monks, but what about monks, they still have to work in the fields.

Another group of demon monks were walking in the spiritual field, taking care of the elixir.

A city was set up in the center, and monks gathered in the city, walking back and forth, buying certain items, or purchasing certain items.

With a flickering figure, Lu Xuanji landed in a certain cave.

At the entrance of the cave, a woman appeared, with white wings on her back, a tall body, long golden hair, eyes like stars, exuding a bright breath, and said: "You are here!"

Lu Xuanji said, "I'm coming!"

Shi Xue said: "Congratulations, you have finally broken the shackles and entered an unprecedented realm, and you are about to ascend to the fairy world!"

Lu Xuanji said: "Xiaoxue, come with me! When I ascend to the fairy world, I will take you with me!"

Shi Xue listened, but fell silent, and said after a long time: "Xuanji, the power of the Feather Demons is relatively weak, and I am not at ease. If I fly away, the Feather Demons may be attacked by powerful enemies. Disaster. I'm sorry, but I can't leave!"

Lu Xuanji said: "Xiaoxue, I can wait for you for a while!"

Shi Xue said: "I'm only on the seventh floor of Transcending Tribulation, and there's still a long way to go before reaching the peak of Transcending Tribulation! Not only that, I still have too many things to deal with!"

Lu Xuanji said: "Xiaoxue..."

Shi Xue said: "I'm sorry..."

Lu Xuanji sighed and stepped forward to hug her.

Shi Xue also took a step forward and hugged him directly, and the two of them were in close contact. Only this kind of intimate contact can reduce the sense of alienation, make each other feel close, feel that the world is real, and truly alive. Not living in nothingness, not living in a dream, but real existence.

Shi Xue said: "Xuanji, you should ascend to the fairy world first. I want to stay in the mortal world for a while, and after I pass a while, the Feather Demon Clan will stabilize everything, and then ascend again!"

Lu Xuanji nodded and said, "Okay, I'll wait for you!"

In the cave, the two merged together again, as if they had become a whole.

Three months later, Lu Xuanji got up and left.

In the void, the magic power is activated, and endless magical materials gather, and then the catastrophe is surging, the gate of the fairy world is opening, countless laws of the fairy world are flowing, and countless energies are gathering.

Boom boom boom!

The void is exploding, and the ripples of destruction are surging, wave after wave.

About ten years later, a sword appeared in the void.

This sword is dark golden, with dragon and phoenix runes flashing on it, space and ice secrets flowing on it, tyrannical aura is surging, exuding traces of destructive aura, it seems to be evolving into an endless destroy.

With a flickering figure, Lu Xuanji returned to the Feather Demon Cave again.

"This is?"

Shi Xue looked at this precious sword, his expression flashed with excitement, "Is this a fairy weapon?"

Lu Xuanji said: "Yes, it is a fairy weapon. At my level, ordinary fairy weapons are of little use to me. I can also absorb the energy and laws of the fairy world at will, and directly condense it into a fairy weapon. This Immortal sword, I will give it to you! The weapon spirit inside is still in its initial state, but you can carve dao patterns inside and refine it into a second soul!"

Shi Xue took the sword and said, "Thank you!"

As he said, dripping blood was refining, and at the same time, the laws of birth and death were running, completely refining the fairy sword.

Qi Ling was being born and directly became her second soul.

"Xuanji, I really miss you!"

"Xiaoxue, I also miss you!"

The two were in close contact again, inseparable, and I don't know how long it has passed.

Time was passing by, and after a long time, Lu Xuanji bid farewell and left.

Looking back at the Feather Demon Cave, I don't know when we will meet again next time.

...

Time is passing, in the blink of an eye, thousands of years have passed.

During these thousand years, many things have been arranged and processed.

The Lu family also handled it properly.

With the help of many elixir and elixir, the Lu family gave birth to three great powers who can overcome the catastrophe. Although their cultivation base is relatively low, they have the protection of the immortal array, and they also have the immortal artifact. They may not be enough to dominate the world, but It is more than enough to establish a big family in the state of Chu.

It is enough to stabilize one party and suppress the universe.

"receive!"

Lu Xuanji activated the secret technique, and about 100,000 monks were collected into the universe gourd.

Then, other magic weapons were operating, covering up the secrets and confusing the laws.

Immediately, the breath of these stowaways disappeared, and they could no longer be sensed by Tianji.

"Xue'er, Xi'er, let's ascend!"

Lu Xuanji said, grabbing Ning Xue and Jin Xi from left to right.

Ning Xue and Jin Xi nodded.

"open!"

Lu Xuan's body flickered, and he went straight to the Ninth Heaven. The aura on his body was exploding, urging mana to tear apart the void.

The void was torn apart, and a huge gate of the fairy world appeared. The gate of the fairy world stood there, exuding a majestic and huge aura, as if it was close at hand, and it seemed to be in an extremely distant direction.

Stimulating the spell, Lu Xuanji flew towards the gate of the fairy world with Ning Xue and Jin Xi.

Boom boom boom!

When approaching the gate of the fairy world, the void was resounding, and a huge catastrophe descended, constantly slashing, tearing, and destroying everything.

Lu Xuanji exhaled a breath of good fortune, the good fortune fluctuated like a dragon and snake, condensed in the void, and turned into a big umbrella.

The big umbrella exudes chaotic light, undulating up and down, constantly changing birth and death to resist the doom.

The catastrophe is continuing, and the bombardment continues.

This is the catastrophe of ascension!

From the mortal world to the immortal world, one has to go through a huge calamity, which is the calamity of ascension.

This kind of calamity is enough to make many monks who have crossed the peak of the tribulation perish.

But for Lu Xuanji, with just a little movement, he was able to resist the calamity and continue to walk towards the gate of the fairy world.

The void is changing, and time and space are fluctuating.

It seems to be just a moment in the past, but it seems to be thousands of years in the past, it seems to travel through endless void, through endless dimensions, from one dimension to another. It seems to have passed through the strange space barrier, passed through the huge space crystal wall, and entered a new world.

Level after level of ascension, life is sublimating, primordial spirit is sublimating, qi and blood are sublimating.

It seems that everything is changing.

It seems that entering a brand new world, the laws of space, time, five elements, yin and yang, creation, etc., are all new and different.

Everything is completely different from the world.

Buzz!

At this moment, the vast Tianxin consciousness turned into a huge flow of information, which directly surged towards the primordial spirit, impacting on the soul, and his head was aching slightly, as if it was about to burst. Not only that, the immortal energy of the fairy world is also surging like a tide, entering the body and transforming the body.

The body was torn apart, the bones were broken, and there were huge traumas in the internal organs, and the body seemed to be torn apart; the next moment, there was another huge vitality surging, and the wounded body was repaired. Healing.

Immortal energy continued to flow through the body, rotating between creation and destruction, transforming the body, and adapting to the fairy world.

At the same time, the laws of the fairy world are surging, entering his body one after another, transforming his body.

The laws of the fairy world began to replace the laws of the mortal world, and began to transform everything.

During such a transformation, Lu Xuanji's body was changing, adapting to everything in the fairy world step by step, becoming a citizen of the fairy world step by step.

At the same time, the thirty-three treasures are flashing, evolving into thirty-three black holes, which are constantly rotating and changing, constantly rotating, absorbing the consciousness of the fairy world, the vitality of the fairy world, and the laws of the fairy world. Constantly transforming and not transforming itself.

The precious light is flickering, the bright aura is flickering and bursting, and the aura of destruction is rising.

In such a process, the Thirty-Three Heavens Supreme Treasure is also transforming.

Among the Qiankun gourds, the one hundred thousand monks who smuggled into the fairy world are also being washed away by the vitality of the fairy world, constantly transforming themselves, constantly transforming themselves, and the essence of life is drastically improving.

After an unknown amount of time passed, Lu Xuanji opened his eyes.

At this moment, with a wave of his hand and a punch, his cultivation level increased by three levels.

Boom boom boom!

The void was resounding, hitting ahead, only to collapse a mountain top.

The space in the fairy world is extremely solid, and the matter is also extremely solid, and the damage caused by the corresponding spells and supernatural powers has also dropped a lot.

In the mortal moment, UU reading www.uukanshu.com He can smash a continent and destroy asteroids with a single punch; but in the fairyland, he just smashed a mountain.

The world is different, and the destructive power it causes is also very different.

Perceiving the void, Lu Xuanji felt that the void was extremely solid, and he could not fly.

He can only run on the ground like a mortal warrior.

"In the mortal world, you can only fly in the air when you reach the foundation establishment state. I don't know what level you can fly in the air when you reach the fairy world?" Lu Xuanji thought, "Immortal world, here I come!"

A new starting point, a new beginning!

PS: It's the finale, and I will update some episodes later, which can be regarded as a description of life in the fairy world. Next, focus primarily on new books.
