

Clan Cultivation 79

Chapter 79

In the garden, the flowers are in full bloom.

Ye Xue spoke loudly.

Old Ancestor Jin was silent, and said for a moment, "You and I are missed."

"Why not?"

Ye Xue asked unwillingly.

"Missing fate means missing fate. In the future, you may become Jindan, or even Nascent Soul, but this is not enough, we have no fate." Old Ancestor Jin said flatly.

Ye Xue asked unconvinced: "I heard that the ancestor is willing to accept a foundation-building cultivator with three spiritual roots as a disciple, why is he not willing to accept me as a disciple?"

"I have investigated that person, his qualifications are very average, he is only three spiritual roots, his bone age is already sixty-three years old, but he is only the second floor of the foundation building, which is very poor. The probability of Jin Dan is less than 1%, so what qualifications do you have to become a senior's apprentice."

Ancestor Jin said: "This is my reason. It is nothing to train a top genius to become a Jindan cultivator; but it is a great achievement to train a general cultivator to become a Jindan cultivator, but a Yuanying cultivator."

"When I accept apprentices, it depends on aptitude, but more on fate."

Ye Xue was a little unwilling, but she left anyway.

"It's ridiculous."

Looking at the female nun who was leaving, Old Ancestor Jin shook his head.

Drinking the spirit wine and eating the spirit fruit, Lu Xuanji felt that his cultivation was steadily improving. This improvement was not significant, but after taking it for a long time, his cultivation was steadily improving.

"Sure enough, eating spirit fruit and spirit wine is the king's way. As for taking medicinal pills, it's a side-by-side approach."

Lu Xuanji pondered while eating the spirit fruit.

Eating a certain spiritual fruit will not make the cultivator instantly improve to a small realm, but will turn into a gentle spiritual energy and be absorbed by the body. After taking the spiritual fruit for a long time, the cultivation level will steadily improve.

In the Hundred Thousand Mountains, many monsters don't know how to make alchemy, and they mainly cultivate elixir. When the elixir grows, if it is swallowed directly, the growth speed does not need to be inferior to that of humans.

After human beings encounter elixir, they are accustomed to refining elixir directly into elixir. The medicinal properties of elixir are concentrated in Chinese medicine. Of course, taking it will improve one's cultivation, but it will also cause certain damage to the meridians and the body due to the strong medicinal power. . Erysipelas will also precipitate.

Click.

At this moment, the door opened and a woman walked in.

Wearing a silver palace skirt, the round neck is trimmed with gold, and the skirt is dotted with stars, and she walks with brilliance, as if the stars are surrounded by the surrounding.

Her body is very tall, her proud body is looming, and her whole body exudes a noble atmosphere. At first glance, she is born into a big family.

With a veil on his face, he couldn't see his true colors clearly, but those deep eyes had a suffocating charm.

This is a stunning stunner, as long as you wave your hand, countless licking dogs will immediately come to the door.

Her licking dogs can line up from the south of the city to the north of the city.

The female cultivator looked at the front, her eyes as if she was looking at a monkey in a zoo, and after a while, a cold and charming voice sounded: "Fellow Daoist, can I sit here?"

"Casual."

As Lu Xuanji said that, he stepped aside and continued to drink the spirit wine.

Out of the corner of his eyes, he observed for a moment, and it was the convergence of light.

The second generation of Xiu can't be bothered.

At this moment, the nun was sitting next to him, less than three feet away from him.

Lu Xuanji frowned slightly, the distance was too close and he was a little uncomfortable.

The light fragrance comes, which has a charming and intoxicating effect.

The female cultivator asked, "Fellow Daoist, do you have a Daoist companion?"

Lu Xuanji said subconsciously, "Yes!"

The female cultivator asked again, "Why did you refuse Old Ancestor Jin to accept the apprentice?"

Lu Xuanji replied subconsciously, "Because I don't want to kneel to a woman."

But at the moment of answering, he subconsciously gave a shudder, just now he was hypnotized silently, said what was in his heart, looked at the female cultivator again and said angrily: "Senior is the ancestor of Zifu, why do you want to make fun of it? I'm a junior."

Silently hypnotizing a foundation-building cultivator, ordinary cultivators simply cannot do it.

But it is not too difficult for the ancestor of the Zifu.

"Fellow Daoist, is it the unicorn son of the Lu family, Lu Xuanji?" The nun asked with a smile.

"I can't talk about Qilinzi, it's just good luck."

Lu Xuanji said cautiously.

"You are indeed lucky. I wanted to worship Old Ancestor Jin as my teacher, but Old Ancestor Jin refused. Old Ancestor wanted to accept you as a disciple, but you refused." The female cultivator said, "In other respects, I am not as good as you. But luckily, I'm not as good as you."

Lu Xuanji was silent, his mind turned around.

The female cultivator said, "In Qingshui County, the Ye family and the Wu family have been married many times, and they have a deep friendship. I want to match up with a little Taoist friend. There are famous ladies in the Ye family who are similar in age to the Taoist friends, so they are suitable for marriage."

Lu Xuanji raised his head slightly: "Senior, I already have a Taoist companion."

"No problem, three wives and four concubines are nothing when a man is in the world. Only those monks who walk in the ruthless, ruthless, and Taoist ways don't care about the love between men and women. As for the monks in our family, we need to marry more wives and concubines, and accept more Taoist couples. Inherit the family. Otherwise, how can the family prosper if the population is thin."

The female cultivator said, "You can't control these things. I'll let Ye Liuyun talk to you later."

Lu Xuanji was uneasy, and he said, "Senior, what do you call him? What do you call the head of the Ye family?"

The female cultivator said: "I come from the main line of the Ye family, and my name is Ye Xue. Ye Liuyun should call me a little aunt. Back then, Ye Liuyun attacked the realm of Zifu, and it was thanks to our main line that we provided some conveniences. The marriage with the Lu family is friendly, Ye Liuyun I would love to!"

Lu Xuanji listened, and some information from the Ye family flashed in his heart.

In the Danyang School, the Ye family has one main vein and seven branches.

In the main vein, there are as many as nine cultivators from the Purple Mansion, where the ancestor of Jindan sits at the seat. The seven major branches are separated from the main vein, and all have Zifu masters sitting in them.

The relationship between the main vein and the branch is close, and the main vein also supports the branch.

Ye Xue, seems to be an ancestor of the main line of Zifu, and seems to have a lot of influence.

"Senior, I'm only three spiritual roots, only three layers of foundation building, it doesn't seem to be worth the effort of senior." Lu Xuanji said.

"You are really not worth it, but Old Ancestor Jin values you... I have observed you for a long time, but I don't see anything special about you. You are very ordinary. But come to think of it, Old Ancestor Jin's vision is not bad, and there is something special about you." Ye Xue said, looked up and down Lu Xuanji, shook his head and said: "Quan should be an investment. If you enter the Zi Palace in the future, my Ye family will make a profit; if you are dead, my Ye family will also lose. Not much."

"Senior's kindness, I have received it!"

Lu Xuanji said; "But I still want to become a cultivator of the Purple Mansion. For the time being, I don't want to break the body of pure yang, and I don't want to get involved in the entanglement of love between men and women!"

"Who has the time to have a romantic relationship with you, please be kind to me. Talking about love is too harmful to interests. Here we only talk about personal interests and family interests, not feelings!"

Ye Xue said indifferently, and began to calculate some entanglements of interests, "The situation of the Lu family is not good, the Wu family is eyeing your Lu family; there are even some people in the Ye family who are malicious towards the Lu family!"

Lu Xuanji frowned and said, "The rules of the Danyang faction are still there, they dare not take action!"

"Rules are not omnipotent. They can attack the Lu family within the scope of the rules." Ye Xue said, "The strong do not need a knife to kill."

Ye Xue said, stood up, and disappeared.

Lu Xuanji had a slight toothache.

I don't know how to evaluate it.
