

Clan Cultivation 97

Chapter 97

The scumbags once thought that they could catch up with the masters with hard work.

But in fact, the scumbags work very hard, but they are still not as good as the masters.

Why don't you go to heaven?

Do not!

She is from Tianlinggen's family, she is born with Taoism, and she is the rhythm of God.

"Congratulations, you have become the eighth floor of the foundation building, and it is not far to come to the ninth floor of the foundation building. Tianlinggen, known as the son of the heaven, is said to have no bottleneck at all, and it will definitely become a major repair of Jindan. I think in a hundred years, you will be Surpassing Old Ancestor Jin. After all, Old Ancestor Jin is only a second spiritual root, not as good as your aptitude!"

Lu Xuanji sighed, his eyes full of envy.

In the past, when I was young and ignorant, I thought that Jin Dan was nothing, and Yuan Ying was nothing. Only when I got older did I realize how far away Zifu was.

"I'm just cultivating faster! After I become Zifu, I will find the source spirit for my brother. At that time, my brother refines the source spirit and turns it into a spiritual body. The future of Zifu can be expected." Ye Feixue said.

"Silly child, even the Golden Core cultivator can't ask for the original spirit, how can you get it!" Lu Xuanji laughed, breaking her fantasy and saying with a smile, "If you are really interested, if I am unlucky to sit Change. Don't be sad. If you are fortunate enough to pass the time of Da Luo, remember to resurrect me from the long river of time!"

Ye Feixue said: "When a person dies like a lamp goes out, how can there be reincarnation. If a person dies, how can there be a second life. Brother, don't fool me!"

Lu Xuanji smiled and said, "Da Luo, you can cross the river of time and change the past. Of course, in many moments, it is meaningless to change the past. Too strong, it cannot be changed; too weak, there is no meaning to change. I don't ask for anything else, If I'm in a sitting position, after establishing the Dao Da Luo, remember to resurrect me!"

Ye Feixue said, "Brother, you look at me too highly!"

Lu Xuanji suddenly looked at the void and said, "It is said that Daluo Jinxian can swim through the river of time and peep into the past. I can't say that your future body of the Daluo Jinxian level is peeping at us."

Ye Feixue said, "Brother, you are talking nonsense again!"

I feel that my brother has become stupid.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps came, and father Lu Jinwen appeared.

"Son, here's a good thing for you!" Lu Jinwen really wanted to speak, but saw a trace of embarrassment flashing in Ye Feixue's eyes: "Xiaoxue, I'm sorry here!"

"What happened to father?"

Lu Xuanji said uneasy.

"The Ye family wants to marry my Lu family, and you are the object of the marriage." Lu Jinwen said a little embarrassedly.

"But I already have a Taoist companion, and Xiaoxue is my Taoist companion."

Lu Xuanji frowned.

Lu Jinwen said: "The ancestor of the Ye family has already come to the door in person, and your mother is receiving it. Come and meet me!"

Ye Liuyun, the ancestor of the Ye family's Zi residence.

The Lu family was kind to him back then, and this ancestor was extremely grateful to the Lu family.

Over the years, he has protected the Lu family from some wind and rain.

Lu Xuanji said, "I didn't expect the joke to be true."

Last time in the private room, he was blocked by Ye Xue, talking about the marriage, he thought it was a joke, but he didn't think it was true.

"Husband, you go!"

Ye Feixue said calmly, but she was not at all calm in her heart.

"Ugh!"

Lu Xuanji had a big head and left with apology.

Ye Feixue leaned against the wall of the cave, her mind was heaving, and a trace of anger flashed in her eyes.

She was green.

But for all this, can I blame my brother?

can not!

It's all the fault of the Ye family.

When they got to the living room, their mother Ye Xinlan greeted the ancestor of the Ye family.

The mother, Ye Xinlan, was born in the Ye family, but belongs to the side branch.

The mother's aptitude is not good, she is only a five-spiritual root, and is a marginal figure in the Ye family.

Back then, when my mother married into the Lu family, it was calm.

Because of certain relationships, the Wu family, the Ye family, the Sun family, the Lu family and other families all had marriages at the bottom cultivators, and they were intertwined and closely connected.

Marriage is one of the important means to maintain mutual relationship.

"Meet Old Ancestor Ye!"

Lu Xuanji stepped forward and said respectfully.

"Yes, yes, the foundation is solid, the bone age is eighty-five years old, which is the third floor of the foundation, and an average of ten years to upgrade one level, but at the age of one hundred and forty, you can enter the ninth floor of the foundation, which is considered outstanding!" Ye Liuyun said. , a glimmer of admiration flashed in his eyes.

"Without him, I just consume more spirit stones!"

Lu Xuanji said frankly.

He has poor aptitude for the Three Spiritual Roots. Before his lifespan is exhausted, he can only enter the sixth floor of the Foundation Establishment. This is true. The premise is that you don't take medicine pills, don't refine spirit stones, you just rely on exhaling the outside world's spiritual energy.

But if it is krypton gold, the speed will be much faster.

Ye Liuyun said: "One of the ancestors of the main line of my Ye family said that I want to marry the Lu family. Similarly, the old ancestor Jin is also optimistic about your Lu family and cultivates your Lu family. These are the basis of marriage, I hope you will not refuse. "

When you open your mouth, you talk about entanglements of interests, not about feelings and affection.

"I already have a Taoist companion."

Lu Xuanji said.

"I know!" Ye Liuyun said, "But this will not delay our marriage Let me show you this!"

Saying that, he threw a booklet.

Lu Xuanji stretched out his hand to take the booklet and opened it subconsciously.

On the booklet, there are pictures of beautiful women and some information about them.

[Ye Xiqian: Three Spiritual Roots, seventy-five years old, the third floor of the foundation, the daughter of the head of the Ye family, a second-rank alchemist]

[Ye Xinyao, three spiritual roots, 100 years old, fourth floor of the foundation building, daughter of the second elder of the Ye family, second-rank array master]

[Ye Honglian, Three Spiritual Roots, 130 years old, the third floor of the foundation building, the daughter of the Ye family's collateral line, the second-rank talisman maker]

[Xiao Wanyu. San Linggen, one hundred and fifty years old, the fourth floor of the foundation, the daughter of Ye Jia Keqing, the husband of Lingzhi]

[Bai Mengxi, three spiritual roots, ten years old, three levels of Qi practice, daughter of Ye Jia Keqing, no specialties]

[Meng Hongchen, three spiritual roots, fifteen years old, fourth-level Qi practice, daughter of Ye Jia Keqing, no specialties]

Looking at it carefully again, the information on the ten women was recorded in the booklet, and there were accompanying pictures on it.

They all have amazing looks, outstanding temperament, and amazing charm. They are all three spiritual roots. The youngest is only six years old, and the oldest is one hundred and fifty years old. The lowest cultivation level is only the first level of Qi training, but the strongest one is the sixth level of foundation building.

It seems that those women with four spiritual roots and five spiritual roots are not worthy of being listed in the booklet.

Of course, there are no two spiritual roots, alien roots or the like.

"Senior, what does this mean?"

Lu Xuanji asked.

"These women are all unmarried women of the Ye family. They are all three spiritual roots, so it's not a humiliation for you!" Ye Liuyun said: "You can choose one person to be a Taoist companion from here!"
