Chapter: 661

Money Is Everything

It took Leon nearly an hour to take a shower. A few minutes later, it would be seven o'clock in the evening. Lydia had called Michelle several times, but she didn't care about being late for singing, but worried about whether something had happened inside the bathroom.

Michelle paced back and forth in front of the bathroom for a long time, and finally heard the sound of water stop. She raised her hand to knock on the door.

"Brother, are you done?"

"I am done." It was useful to take a cold shower. Leon had calmed down and blamed his dirty thoughts towards Michelle for being too abstinent for a long time.

Leon reached for a bath towel to dry his body. After putting on his clothes and trousers, he opened the door and saw that Michelle had changed her clothes. She wore a white T-shirt and a black pleated skirt, with her hair in a bun, which made her energetic.

He looked down and saw Michelle's bare legs. They were white and straight. Luckily he no longer had the evil thought.

Leon firmly believed that the unusual reaction today was because he had been abstinent for too long. If another woman flirted with him, he would think more.

However, he forgot that Michelle did not deliberately flirt with him, nor did he notice that he had regarded Michelle as a woman, not j Iready a glass of red wine in front of everyone on the table. Everyone raised their glasses and laughed.

As soon as the glass of wine reached his lips, Leon glanced at Michelle from the corner of his eyes.

'Michelle is good at drinking. She doesn't even hesitate, as if she was drinking water.'

After taking a sip, he put down the glass and reminded her in a soft voice, "Slow down. Don't drink so much."

"Hmm." Michelle put down her glass. She also drank up the wine in her glass, "Last time you didn't let me drink, which made me greedy. I have to make it up today."

Leon was at a loss whether to cry or to laugh. No one wanted to drink, people usually avoid drinking.

"Leon, don't worry. Michelle is really good at drinking. The alcohol content of red wine is low, and she can drink a bottle of it." Huan said with a smile.

Rainy added, "Michelle can drink liquor. In our dormitory, Michelle is good at drinking, I'm good at singing, Lydia is good at study, and Huan is good at getting money."

Leon felt that he might be old and couldn't keep up with the young people. He was confused.

"Money is everything." Michelle explained to him with a smile. Her warm breath sprayed on his face, like a thin feather inadvertently flipped.

Leon was a little stunned and smiled.

There was a knock on the door and a waiter came in with 10 glasses of milk. Huan was stunned and said, "I don't want milk."

"I want it." Although Austin's face was cold, his words were very warm. "Drinking is harmful to the stomach. Milk can form a layer of protection on the surface of the gastric mucus to reduce the stimulation of alcohol to the gastric mucus. Drink the milk first, and then drink wine."

"Thank you, monitor!"

"Thank you, Austin!"

Everyone took the milk with a smile. Austin looked at Michelle and reminded her, "Remember to drink a glass of milk before drinking in the future. If you don't drink milk, you'd better not drink wine."

Everyone in the class knew that Michelle had a good relationship with Austin, so they didn't think too much or pay too much attention to it. Only Lydia stopped drinking milk for a while and then slowly swallowed it.

Others might not know Austin very well, but she knew him very well. Austin would not refuse his classmates when they asked him for help. He would try his best to help them secretly, but he was not a person who would take the initiative to be good to his classmates and friends.

In the past three years, she had only seen Austin take the initiative to Michelle. It was not in public, but in a tortuous way like this, carefully sending milk to everyone.

The reason why Lydia could notice it was that she paid too much attention to Austin and she treated Austin in such a careful way.

In order to bring a bottle of water to Austin, she bought the water for the whole class, which was Evian min chelle prayed in a low voice.

Maybe God had misheard a word and pointed the bottle at her.

Michelle was speechless

With an evil look on her faces, Huan chuckled and said, "Let's make a choice. Truth or dare?"

After thinking for a while, Michelle said, "Big adventure."

"Take one of them and we'll check it for you. Don't break your promise." Huan pointed at the cards of the game.

Under the eyes of the public, Michelle hold her breath and took a card, and Huan took it in her hand. She opened it and shouted, "Kiss the first opposite sex on the right. Mouth!"

"Oh!" The crowd hooted one after another.

Rainy couldn't wait to ask, "Who is it! Who was the first opposite sex on the right side of Michelle! Right, which side is right? "

"Idiot!" Huan rolled her eyes at Rainy.

Lydia took a look at the first opposite sex on the right side of Michelle and said, "It seems to be her brother."

"Are you blind? It's Leon! " Aron was the happiest one among all the people today. Everyone present knew that Leon was not Michelle's brother. They all looked at Leon.

Leon blinked his eyes, confused.

When Huan finished reading, Leon knew it was him. His brain went blank in an instant, and his ears were red with blood. He didn't know it at all.

He involuntarily glanced at Michelle's lips and quickly moved his eyes away. At that moment, his heart suddenly accelerated, like a furtive thief who was afraid of being discovered to steal.

However, Michelle's pink and tender lips suddenly appeared in his mind, and his heart was full of expectation.

Both of them were stunned. Looking at the lively scene, Aron began to cheer up beside them. "Don't be coward" "Kiss" he heckled.

Michelle stood still. The noise around her ears became lower and lower, and her heartbeat became louder and louder. In the box, there was the smell of fruits and snacks, and the smell of alcohol. It is clear that that kinds of smell were thicker, but she could still smell the light fragrance from her brother.

Michelle was so anxious.

She couldn't show up!

"No." Michelle's chest heaved slightly, and she raised her hand to cover her mouth, rolling her eyes.

The music in the box was still playing. Sitting on the right side of Michelle, Leon heard what she said clearly. He suddenly felt a little disappointed.

He probably forgot that Michelle covered her mouth to block her heart. He frowned when he saw her raise her hand to cover her mouth.

Leon was speechless

So he was disliked?

Huan and the others had the same thought. They were surprised that Michelle disliked such a handsome man?

Was her head stuck by the door?

However, not everyone had the same thought.

Lydia hadn't recovered from the shock. Aron was too naughty.

emon..."

"Wait!" Aron couldn't stand it anymore, "You are talking about external conditions and internal conditions. Whether you have finished or not, just by these points you said, this man you want is inclined to be perfect. There is no such a person around us."

"Yes." Michelle smiled sweetly.

Her brother was such a person, and there are so many other advantages of him she hadn't found.

Aron didn't think about Leon. Although Aron called him "Leon", he didn't know Leon very well until today.

However, Aron associated these conditions with Austin who was sitting on the sofa. It was just a flash of thought, but according to the conditions, this idea was rooted.

Taking a stealthy glance at Austin, Aron found that he was tall, handsome, with long, straight legs, nice voice and kind. And he was willing to help his classmates, but it was not suitable for him to be gentle.

But some people were expressionless to the people around them, but very gentle to the people they liked!

'Maybe Auzzie is that kind of person,' Aron thought.

"Ouch!" Aron took a deep breath. He seemed to have discovered some big secrets.

Michelle was secretly in love with Auzzie!

Aron left with a look of understanding.

"Austin, do you see where Leon is?" Everyone was singing, playing games, and only Austin was sitting on the sofa playing his mobile phone. Michelle could only turn her head to ask him.

Austin looked up and looked over Michelle's body to the door, "He had went out to answer the phone."

"Okay." Michelle turned around and looked at the closed door. She took out her cell phone and made a call to Leon. Leon didn't answer the phone and reply a WeChat message, but there was no response.

She was afraid that something bad would happen, so she turned around and was about to go out.

"Are you going to find him? I'll go with you. It's not safe for you to go out alone." said Austin, stood up.

"Thank you, Austin." Squinting her eyes, Michelle smiled, revealing her two cute teeth. Austin's lips curled up slightly.

Seeing the two of them walking out, Huan, who was playing games, quickly stood up and followed them. She looked at the two of them with an extremely ambiguous look, "Where are you going? It's not that I don't allow you to stay alone for a while, but the Silverhall Nightclub is... "

ory. "We were singing outside. Leon went out after answering the phone, and he didn't tell me where he went. Then he couldn't be found. Wynn, do you know where Leon went? I can't get in touch with him."

"Why can't you get in touch with him? Did he leave without telling you?" Wynn who was on the other end of the line was surprised.

Leon was a very polite person. He would make it clear to others in person if he left halfway, whether it was a banquet or a dinner party. If it was too urgent to tell others face to face, he would ask someone to convey it.

He wouldn't leave secretly.

Wynn was nervous, but he managed to keep calm. "He didn't call me either. Don't worry. I'll call him first."

"Okay, I'll wait for your news." Michelle held back the tears in her eyes and hung up the phone.

Huan still found her eyes red, "Michelle, what's wrong with you? Why are you crying? Leon will be fine. Come here and give you a hug."

She quickly held Michelle in her arms and gently patted Michelle on the back. Michelle had held back her tears, but when Huan comforted her, her tears fell down.

"I don't know. I'm just afraid that Leon would suddenly leave like Nini, and then I won't be able to contact him."

Back then, the sudden disappearance of Nina had greatly shocked Michelle. Otherwise, she wouldn't have done such an outrageous thing as hitting John in the Time Group.

One will take desperate measures if pushed to the wall. It was the first time that Michelle had hit a person, and the person she hit was Mr. Shi, a terrifying man.

Even if Mr. Shi had tried his best to suppress this matter, Nina's roommates all knew that Nina had drowned to death. At that time, Michelle cried very sadly.

Michelle's parents were not in Lexington City, and it was summer vacation. Since the Lydia lived in other province, Michelle called her and Rainy.

When she and Rainy arrived at Michelle's home, they were almost frightened to see her swollen eyes. They took her to the hospital as soon as possible, fearing that she would cry blind.

But a few days later, Michelle became lively again and continued to talk and laugh with them.

This should be a good thing, but all her roommates were very flustered. What was more flustered was that Michelle said that Nina was still alive. When they asked her how she knew i ut Leon didn't answered it.

Wynn panicked. If anything happened to him, it would be a mess in C Island. Wynn called Bryant, but Bryant didn't answer after a long time, which made him want to curse him.

Of course, he didn't really curse him. Instead, he went straight to the point, "I can't get in touch with Leon. Has he contacted you?"

"Don't worry. He's fine. He left his phone in the hotel." Hearing Bryant's answer, Wynn breathed a sigh of relief.

"Where is he now?" Wynn's tone was much calmer. "Are you with him?"

"We are on our way to K City, someone saw Jon appear at an auction in K city. We are going there."

"Jon." Wynn snorted discontentedly and continued, "You can go there tomorrow. Why do you have to go there in the evening? You can ask me to go there. Why does he insist on going by himself?"

"Maybe he doesn't want to trouble you."

Wynn didn't believe what Bryant said. He knew that Leon couldn't wait to see Valerie. He got angry at the thought of it, but he couldn't lose his temper directly, so he said crossly, "Tell him that Michelle is looking for him everywhere."

When Wynn heard Bryant related his words, Wynn heard Leon's voice from the phone.

"I forgot to tell her. Please tell her don't worry about me and apologize for me."

"If you want to apologize, go by yourself." Wynn couldn't hold back the fire anymore. His voice was a little loud, causing people around to despise him.

"I'll ask Bryant to withdraw your information from the Internet. You don't have to sell yourself anymore." Leon said.

"Fuck!" Wynn cursed in a low voice. He felt he was spineless. "I see."

"Go and buy her a strawberry cake or strawberry ice cream. No, it's not good for a girl's health to eat too much ice cream. Don't buy cakes. If she doesn't eat it tonight, it won't taste good tomorrow. Go and buy strawberries." Leon enjoined carefully on the phone.

"Where can I buy strawberry at night?" Wynn pursed his lips. "Fine. I'll buy it if I can. Bye."

After hanging up the phone, Wynn turned around to look at the sugar daddy and left without reward.

He called Michelle and was surprised to know that she was on the third floor of Silverhall Nightclub.

According to the order of Leon, he went to buy strawberry, but the seller sent him a bunch of strawberry flowers, saying that it was used to coax the little girl.

. She suddenly frowned and said, "Hmm, this strawberry is so sour."

"Is it sour? Don't eat if you feel sour. Ask your brother to buy you a sweet one when he comes back. " Then Wynn left after saying it.

Watching him leave, Michelle pushed the door open and entered the room. Huan immediately ran over and asked, "Did you ask? Does your master have a girlfriend? Did you tell him that I want to know him? "

Michelle blinked her eyes and smiled shyly, "I'm sorry, Huan. I forgot."

"You forgot?" Huan was a little disappointed, but when she saw the smile on Michelle's face was a little different from usual, she quickly smiled and said, "Ah, it's okay. It doesn't matter. If you have time, tell him. Just send me his WeChat card."

"Okay, I'll ask him tomorrow." Said Michelle.

Since she couldn't get to know Wynn tonight, Huan had an idea. She put on a flattering smile and asked, "Michelle, can I have this strawberry?"

"Here you are. But it's sour." Michelle smiled and handed the bouquet to her.

She only wanted a strawberry, but got the whole bunch of flowers. Huan was so happy that she didn't care whether it was sour or not. She smiled and said thank you.

She took one and put it into her mouth. A sweet taste spread in her mouth. She was surprised and said, "Eh, it's not sour."

They were still having fun in the box. Austin received a WeChat message from his father, saying that someone had stopped their investigation and even warned him not to provoke Leon.

Austin replied indifferently, "Okay." Then he put away his phone and looked at Michelle, who was drinking after losing the game. Her face turned red, it was obvious that she was a little drunk.

There was no class in senior year of university. They were all busy with preparing for the postgraduate entrance exams or internship. They would meet until they go back to school for thesis defense before graduation.

The drunk Rainy hugged her roommates and cried for a while. Then she fell asleep in her boyfriend's arms.

Huan and Aron seemed to have a contest. They stood there, playing drinking games, and the others were watching them.

Leaning her head against Lydia's neck, Michelle said, "Lydia, I'm a little sad."

"Don't be sad. Everyone will come back when we graduate next June. We have to complete thesis defense and take graduation photos." Lydia patted her on the head and reached for the glass. The two cli put Michelle's hand on her face and said affectionately, "The first time I saw your master, I was obsessed with him. My heart has been beating and my face is red."

"But our hearts have been beating all the time. If we don't, we will die." Michelle said cutely.

Sitting in the front passenger seat, Aron couldn't help but look sideways at Michelle, and then smiled slightly.

Sitting next to Michelle, Lydia couldn't help but burst into laughter. Seeing that Huan was confused as if she didn't understand what they were talking about, Lydia explained to Michelle for her kindly.

"Huan means that at the first sight of your master, her heart beat faster and her face blushed, indicating that she likes your master or falls in love with him at first sight."

"Yes, yes, I fell in love with him at first sight." Huan stretched out her index finger and said, "I feel my heart was about to jump out. It beat so fast."

'Beat faster? As if it was about to jump out?'

Is this love?

I had this feeling more than once when I was with brother.

Michelle was stunned, 'So I like brother?'

The car of Zheng family stopped at the dormitory building. There were four people in the dormitory, and only two people, Michelle and Lydia, came back to live.

There was still a week before the school's full holiday. There were still a lot of people in the school, and there were also many people in the dormitory building, talking and laughing.

Michelle was always holding her roommate's hand, talking and laughing, but tonight she did not speak as usual, as if she had lost her soul.

The only person, Lydia, who didn't drink too much had already noticed it. She thought Michelle was drunk, because Michelle was quiet and obedient after drinking.

But she found that Michelle didn't walk unsteadily. Michelle knew she had to turn right without looking at the floor, instead of going upstairs directly to others' dormitory as before.

Lydia sensed that there was something wrong with Michelle, so she didn't make it clear on the way. She watched Michelle enter the dormitory. Lydia closed the door and poured Michelle a glass of hot water.

"Drink some water first."

Sitting on the chair, Michelle picked up the glass of water and put it against her lips, but she didn't drink it all the time.

t Michelle said.

The air in the dormitory seemed to be frozen.

After a while, Lydia came to her senses and looked incredulous. She was sure that she had heard it clearly and knew who Michelle was referring to, but she still wanted to confirm it. "Leon? Nina's brother? Do you like Leon, right?"

"I don't know, so I come to ask you. Do you think if I fell in love with Leon?" Michelle's eyes lit up.

"Oh..." Lydia suddenly didn't know how to answer. She had never thought about this before. It was true that the two of Michelle and Leon got along too well and there was no ambiguity at all.

"I don't know what happened between you two. I can't tell. How about this way? Let's see whether you miss him or not if you don't contact him for a month? Try to have physical contact with him again to confirm if you want more." Lydia suggested.

"Okay!" Michelle answered and smiled.

She was happy, but Lydia was a little worried. 'If Michelle really liked Leon, what about the monitor?

What if Leon doesn't like Michelle?

Secret love?'

Secret love was half sweet and half bitter. No matter how it tasted, one had to pretend that nothing had happened. Secret love was careful and humble.

The time Leon and others saw Jon was the third day after they arrived in the K City. That afternoon, the car stopped at the intersection of the busy street waiting for the green light. When Leon turned his head, he saw a cyan figure entering a cafe.

She wore a light cyan dress in a professional style, with soft long hair tied into a low ponytail. She had charming figure. Leon hurriedly got off the car, walked into the cafe and shouted, "Valerie."

Hearing this, the woman turned around and looked at him with a very complicated look. She smiled and replied, "Sir, you've mistaken me for someone else. I'm not Valerie Feng."

Looking at the face that resembled Valerie and the employee card in her hand, a hint of complexity flashed through his eyes. After a moment, Leon apologized politely and watched the woman leave with a cup of coffee.

After parking the car, Bryant met the woman at the door. He didn't look at the woman, because he had a good relationship with Valerie. He knew at a glance that she was not his sister.

Because of this, the expression in Leon's eyes became deeper and more complicated. Bryant came over and asked, "Where is she? Didn't you say that you saw Valerie?"

It seemed that Leon didn't hear him. Leon kept looking out, but Bryant didn't know what he was looking at. Maybe it was a passer-by.

Seeing that he was not in a good mood, Bryant asked worriedly, "What's wrong?"

"I got the wrong person. Bryant, she's not Valerie. I got the wrong person." Leon said with a fa

I have a holiday today. You all can get off work now." Baker raised his hand to stop her.

The secretary looked worried and had to go out.

There was a sound of packing outside, but soon it became quiet again and the employees left.

Baker stood up and was punched back by Bryant again. This time, he not only had nosebleed, but also had blood at the corners of his mouth.

"She's fine. At least she live a better life than living together with me. So you don't have to worry too much." Baker wiped the blood on his face with a tissue, and there was no complaint in his eyes.

Bryant's suit was in a mess because of the heavy blow. He straightened his clothes and looked at Baker coldly.

Leon looked over, "Where is she? Give us her address."

"I don't know." Baker took off his suit and looked honest.

But Bryant didn't believe it. He snorted, "How could you don't know where she is? How do you know she's living a good life?"

After a long silence, Baker said, "I really don't know where she is. She likes dancing and won't give up. You can find her by following this clue."

Bryant snorted again and Leon left unhurriedly.

Seeing that the man was about to disappear in front of him, Baker called him as he did on the C Island, "Bryant."

Bryant stopped for half a second and walked away without looking back. Then he heard Baker's choked voice behind him, begging him, "When you see Valerie, can you please convey a message to her? I bought her favorite ballet shoes and put them at home."

Chapter: 670

Leon What A Rogue You Are

Valerie was not in the K City, and her whereabouts were still unknown. Bryant had something to do at work and went back to the Lexington City on the second morning.

Leon wasn't in a hurry to go back. He stayed there for another week without any communication device. It was equivalent to losing contact for a week.

He was blaming himself. If he hadn't intervened, Valerie and Baker would have lived a happy and superior life, and they wouldn't have quarreled and Valerie wouldn't have been beaten because of daily necessities, let alone couldn't afford a pair of better dancing shoes.

Both the Feng family and the Qin family didn't dare to offend him. They were afraid of offending the royal family, so they could only let this poor couple live outside.

Baker slapped on Valerie's face. Leon made all Baker's efforts in the past year lost overnight. Without any complaints, Baker cheered up again, as if he had been beaten to the ground that day.

Later, Leon didn't move anymore.

When he came back to the Lexingport City, the first thing he did was to ask Wynn to continue to investigate the whereabouts of Valerie.

right?" Wynn gloated, "I don't know if she is angry or not. I only know that she cried that night when she couldn't find you. When I went to send the strawberry to her, I saw her eyes swollen like walnuts. Later, her roommate told me that she thought something happened to you, so she had cried too much that night. Her tears kept falling down. She had been worried about whether you had been kidnapped or not and whether you, without money, would starve to death or not."

Hearing every sentence Wynn said, Leon felt sad as if his heart was tightened by the thin iron wire, and his eyes became short. "Was she crying? Did she cry?"

"Yes, she was crying. You can't believe it, right? She laughed like a little fool every day. Because you left without telling her. She was crying out of breath." Wynn blamed him, "Don't you feel guilty? Let a little girl worry about you."

It really hurt.

But Leon seemed to be a little happy because of this. He didn't expect that someone would take him so seriously. But when he thought of Michelle's crying face, his heart suddenly ached.

Leon blamed himself, 'Leon, you are not a good guy. How could you let a little girl worry about you and cry?
