Chapter: 721

Met Valerie Again

At dinner, Valerie brought up the topic of Leon's birthday again, but was interrupted by Wynn.

"Didn't he say that he wanted to celebrate his birthday with someone else? Don't worry about it. "

The elegant smile on Valerie's face didn't change at all. "Miss Michelle can't come back on the day of Leon's birthday until the second day, so my idea is that we will celebrate it on the day of Leon's birthday, and he will celebrate it with Miss Michelle on the second day."

Taking a look at his sister, Bryant was a little surprised.

According to the recent observation, Valerie had a crush on Leon. 'Since she likes him, why does she allow him to be alone with another woman?

Women's hearts were really unpredictable.'

Bryant remained silent. Wynn asked, "Is my disciple still in another province?"

"Yes. She called me this afternoon and said that she would make it up for me on the second day. She even bought me an apology gift considerably." Every time Leon mentioned Michelle, his eyes were full of tenderness, and the smile at the corners of his mouth was unconcealable.

He looked at Wynn with a smile. "Do you know what gift she is going to buy for me?"

"Food? The specialty products of other province. " Wynn raised his eyebrows and said confidently, "I think it must be food."

"No." Leo

sy to arouse men's desire to protect her.

The clean smile made Valerie feel a little dazzling, as if to set off her scheming.

But she didn't forget why she came here.

"It's you!" Surprised and delighted, Valerie continued, "We just bought ties yesterday, and then flowers today. What a coincidence!"

Michelle also felt the same way. She looked at her happily and said, "Yes. Is your friend also celebrating birthday tomorrow? So does my brother. "

"It is not a friend, but an ex-boyfriend." Valerie bit her lips and smiled shyly, "We broke up for years ago. He has been looking for me for these years, and we didn't meet each other until last month."

She paused, only to find that Michelle didn't reject her to mention her own thing but listened carefully.

So she sneered in her heart, 'What a fool!'

Valerie continued, "Tomorrow is his birthday. I've been choosing the right gift, but I found that he lacked a suitable tie. I wanted to buy a tie to make him happy, so I wanted to compete with you for the tie yesterday. I'm really sorry for what happened yesterday."

"It's okay." Michelle asked expectantly, "Have you reconciled?"

It must be very sad to be apart for four years.

If she was separated from Leon for four years, she must be very sad.

Even one year would make her sad.

Bring Out The Crucial Point By Saying My Name Is Valerie

Valerie shook her head and smiled bitterly, "No. he didn't say anything. He just took me to Lexingport City and lived with me. My cousin said that he had been looking for me all the time and worried that I might not live well outside. After he took me back and lived with me, he had been good to me, but he never mentioned about getting back together. In fact, what happened that year was a misunderstanding. We have made it clear."

"Maybe he loves his respect. Men are all keen on their respect. Sometimes they just are too embarrassed to say that. He has been looking for you, taking you back and living with you. He is also good to you. He must like you in his heart." The proprietress listened carefully and said.

"Really?" Valerie's face lit up, not pretending, but from the bottom of her heart.

"I think what you said makes sense. You have experienced something, right?" Michelle nodded and said.

Michelle said sweetly, which made the proprietress burst into laughter.

"Well, should I send you the flowers tomorrow?" The proprietress asked Valerie.

"No, thanks. I'll buy it and take it away now. His birthday party is not in the Lexingport City, but the Hot Spring Resort in the D City. We're leaving later." said Valerie happily.

"Wow, the Hot Spring Resort. If you still want to buy flowers in the future, you liked about happened between her and Leon before was to draw a picture for Michelle, and now this sentence was the key point.

Valerie knew that Michelle knew her name, and she heard it from Wynn by accident.

Although Wynn hated her, she still wanted to thank him for helping her.

If Michelle didn't know that the person that Leon was in love with was Valerie, she would add "Leon is my-ex boyfriend", which would be deliberate.

Now she only needed to name herself, and Michelle could connect everything together.

The painting she carefully painted would definitely be vivid in Michelle's heart.

She couldn't get rid of it.

The smile on Valerie's face was wider than before, revealing her neat teeth. Her red lips and white teeth looked very bright, as if celebrating the joy of victory.

Michelle was stunned.

Before she could say anything, Valerie continued in a gentle voice, "My name is Valerie. I'm staying in the LC Hotel in Lexington City. Thank you for your help today. If you need any help, you can go to the hotel to find me."

After saying that, she drove away before Michelle could open her mouth.

Only Michelle stood still, listening to her words, "My name is Valerie."

Michelle shivered all over and her lips trembled slightly. The noon sun was blazing, making her face as pale as paper.

Keep Silent

Michelle had forgotten how she walked back.

In the past two days, except sleeping, she spent most of her time on the rooftop.

She went straight to the rooftop. Lydia and Huan were sitting on the newly bought swing chair to cool down. They stretched their legs and swayed gently in the air with the swing chair. The warm sunshine shone on their legs.

"Michelle, you're back!" Lydia bent her legs and stopped the swing chair with her feet touching the ground. She stood up and said, "The swing chair is done by me and Huan. Come and have a try. Don't remove these things after Leon's birthday. It's good to put them on the table."

Michelle answered in a low voice and low spirit.

"Come and play on the swing chair." Huan happily waved at her.

Lydia reached out to hold Michelle's hand. As soon as she touched it, she felt as cold as ice. She grabbed it and felt Michelle's fingers stiff.

Michelle's hands were always as soft as babies'.

"Why is your hand so cold? Did you catch a cold?" Lydia asked anxiously.

Lydia put her hand on Michelle's forehead and didn't feel hot, but saw her pale face.

Lydia knew that something must have happened. She looked back at Huan.

"What's wrong?" Huan also rushed over and touched Michelle's hand. It was really cold. "Oh my God, Michelle, say something. What happened? Is there anything wrong with you or n, so Leon kept calling you."

Michelle paused, "I'll call Leon back now."

She picked up the phone and stared at the familiar number for a long time. Then she took a deep breath and dialed back.

"Hello, Leon..."

"Michelle, where are you?" Before Michelle could finish her words, Leon asked anxiously on the other end of the phone.

Michelle opened her mouth slightly and almost blurted out that she was at home. Fortunately, she reacted in time and answered, "Spring City."

There was a moment of silence on the other end of the phone. Michelle asked in a low voice, "Leon, what's wrong with you? Keep silent?"

"Michelle, I'm also in the Spring City."

Michelle's breath paused, her almond eyes widened slightly, and she faltered, "Leon, I..."

"I just arrived. I asked your team manager and he said you were not in Spring City." Leon's voice was gentle, and she couldn't tell if he was full of joy or anger.

Michelle's mind was in a mess. She rolled her eyes and tried to figure out a solution. Suddenly, she heard a woman's voice from the other end of the phone.

"Is she out to play with her friends? But she didn't tell you."

It was Valerie.

Michelle's hand shook. It was Valerie's voice.

The voice lingered in Michelle's mind, and everything that Valerie portrayed had been wandering in her mind, even into the afternoon dream.

He Was Afraid Of Scaring Her Away

When Huan called Wynn in the afternoon, Leon was beside him. They had just arrived at the Hot Spring Resort.

Although Huan asked in a roundabout way, she could not hide it from the cunning Leon. He guessed that something had happened to Michelle.

They didn't know exactly what had happened, so they called Wynn to ask about the situation.

Leon had called Michelle several times, but no one answered. He was flustered. Wynn even mentioned the fact that Leon went to K City without telling Michelle and said that he deserved it.

Hearing it, a smile appeared on Valerie's face. She knew something important from Wynn.

All of a sudden, she liked Wynn.

So she didn't care that Wynn glared at her when she suggested to go to Spring City with Leon.

Although Bryant had arrived at the Hot Spring Resort for vacation, he had to work. Wynn stayed as a temporary assistant.

Leon and Valerie took several hours of flight to Spring City.

There was a reason why Valerie was so active even though she knew it was a waste of time.

At the beginning, she just wanted to leave Leon in the Hot Spring Resort and stop Michelle's birthday surprise.

Then she found that the Hot Spring Resort was not far from Lexingport City. They would

trict your freedom."

"Let bygones be bygones." Valerie smiled. She knew her goal was achieved.

Leon would think that she was worried about it as her brother so that she came to look for Michelle with him.

Now that she had muddled through, she had to go on with the topic.

"You like Michelle. Have you ever thought that she might only treat you as her brother?" Since Valerie couldn't stop Michelle, she could only stop Leon. "I heard something when you were talking on the phone just now. It seems that Michelle doesn't want to give you a tie. Have you ever thought about why?"

Leon curled up her fingers and thought for a while, "I don't know. I'll know when I ask."

"I don't think you should ask her directly." Valerie said calmly, "If I don't guess wrong, she didn't know what gifting a tie meant at first, but after she knew the meaning, she didn't intend to give it to you. If you ask directly, aren't you afraid of scaring her away? By that time, you won't even be able to see each other or contact anyone. "

He was afraid of it.

This was also a question that had been bothering Leon for a long time.

Valerie was just like a living example. Didn't she disappear all these years because she didn't like him?

It Turned Out That Leon Is A Rich Man

play_arrow

In the past two days, Lydia had been staying at Michelle's house.

The two of them lay on the same bed. Last night, Michelle kept talking to Lydia about the fact that Nina had also slept on this bed, and then she talked about the whispers between the girls.

But today, Michelle was lying on the bed silently, staring at the ceiling in a daze. Since she came back from the flower shop, her mental state had become more and more abnormal, but she was unwilling to say what she had encountered.

She kept silent, and so did Lydia.

After a long time, the two of them were not sleepy. Michelle's heart was full of sadness. She had another sleep in the afternoon, so she was naturally not sleepy.

Lydia kept thinking.

At first, she just had an intuition that Michelle's low mood had something to do with Leon, but now she was sure, because Michelle and Leon mentioned the tie when they called back.

Michelle didn't want to give Leon a tie.

"Why?" Lydia thought about it for a long time and finally asked what she was thinking.

She turned over, and there was a rustling sound of her body rubbing against the quilt in the quiet bedroom.

Michelle was shocked by the noise and asked in confusion, "What why?"

Her voice was soft, not as vigorous as usual.

"Why don't you gi

way.

"So Leon is pretending to be poor, right?"

Michelle nodded, "He is very rich, especially very rich."

"I see." If it weren't for the fact that he was very rich, how could he buy a bracelet worth eight figures so easily?

Lydia was shocked.

"Ask me if I will be angry if someone pretends to be poor and lies to me, right" Lydia said, "Then I'll ask you, will you be angry?"

"I don't know." Michelle lowered her eyes and twirled her fingers on the bracelet sent by Leon. She was very conflicted. "I'm angry, also not angry. But I don't know."

"Then think about it again." Lydia threw the question back. Looking at the depressed look on Michelle's face, she speculated, "So you don't want to give him a tie and you think that a tie of more than 1000 doesn't deserve Leon, right?"

"No." Michelle answered without hesitation, "My mother often tells me that as long as there is a heart for a gift, it will be good. I sincerely want to give him a tie to apologize. Even if he is very rich, it can't be said that the gift doesn't match him, and Leon won't say that. Leon is special... Good man."

At the moment of the pause, she remembered every word Valerie had said. She thought Leon was a very affectionate person.

'It is not because she was afraid that the cheap tie didn't match the identity of Leon, but because what?'

Lydia was even more confused, "Why don't you want to give him a tie? Huan said that giving a tie has the meaning of winning his heart. Leon asked you to give him a tie. I suspect that Leon really likes you."

"No." Michelle denied, "Leon doesn't like me as lover. He doesn't know what it means by giving a tie. If he knows, he won't let me give him this as an apology gift."

Lydia asked, "How do you know?"

Michelle answered, "Leon has watched my interview video."

Lydia asked in confused, "So?"

"So he doesn't know what it means to send a tie." After saying that, Michelle was even more dejected.

Lydia was a little confused. All her roommates had seen all the interviews of Michelle in her dormitory, but she said, "Leon has watched the interview video. Does it have anything to do with whether he knows the meaning of giving a tie or not?"

In the light, Michelle's eyes became dim. The next second, she covered her head with the quilt again and said in a muffled voice, "Leon has watched my interview video and knew that I like him, but he doesn't like me. He has someone he likes and has fallen in love with for many years. He asked me to give him a tie just because he happens to lack one. It's just a casual word."

heart.

In the morning, the flower shop sent flowers to her. She happily received and paid the money, held flowers one after another on the rooftop, inserted them into vases, and decorated every place.

Lydia had been observing her state all the time. Lydia was always a little nervous and found an opportunity to ask Michelle what she thought.

Holding Lydia's arm, Michelle rubbed her head against it and said with a sweet smile, "I wish Leon can find the one he liked again."

Her thoughts coincided with Lydia's. Lydia said, "Well, it's not necessarily to be together if you like someone, but..."

It was just like torturing herself to see the one she loved being with another person every day.

It was tough.

Sometimes, she got used to it.

"But what?" Michelle blinked her eyes with curiosity.

Lydia said euphemistically, "Just try to keep a distance. It's good for both Leon and you."

Michelle's fingertips were a little cold. She smiled and said, "I know. I don't want to celebrate his birthday anymore. Just give him a gift, an apology gift, and a birthday gift. You can go with me to choose one later."

Lydia hesitated, "Then why do you still decorate this place?"

"It's so beautiful." Michelle lied.

The decoration of the birthday party was full of her love for Leon. She wanted to keep it as long as she could.

Leon Is A Secret That She Can t Tell Anyone Else

play_arrow

On Leon's birthday, Michelle only sent him a WeChat message.

"Happy birthday to you, my good friend."

His words were so conventional that he didn't even add the most favorite tone word at the end. Instead, he added the two words "good friend", which seemed a little deliberate.

It was so unlike Michelle's style.

Leon's first reaction was that her phone number had been stolen and he dialed a voice phone number.

However, the voice call was rejected.

He was more convinced that someone had hacked her account, so he sent a threatening message.

Helplessly, Michelle had to reply with a voice message, "Leon, it's me. Happy birthday to you."

In fact, Michelle was not willing to send voice messages, just as she did not want to answer a voice call. She could talk and laugh happily in front of others, but she could not disguise herself in front of Leon.

The thoughtful words could hide her thoughts, but her voice couldn't. Even if it sounded very obedient, it was more reserved than usual.

Leon could tell that.

When he was about to call back to ask about the situation, Wynn walked up to him and said, "Mr. Shi said the

He added, "The person Michelle likes doesn't like her, right."

He said in a statement.

Lydia was shocked by Adams's oversight ability and finally understood why Michelle said that she would never hide anything from her parents, because it was impossible to hide it.

However, Michelle didn't hide it from them, nor did she tell them too much details.

Therefore, when she faced her mother's concern at night, Michelle only said that the person she liked had a girlfriend, but did not say who he was.

It was her secret that she liked Leon.

It was a secret that she couldn't tell anyone else.

She had too many common friends with Leon, and they were all very important friends, such as Nina, Wynn and so on.

If they knew it, she would be embarrassed.

Maybe no one would mention Leon in front of her. Even if she couldn't be with him, she didn't want to lose information about him.

And she didn't want to leave Leon's life.

However, her thoughts would always change, which was just her thoughts at this moment. On the second morning, when she accidentally saw the message in Lydia's mobile phone, she changed her mind.

Leon Bastard

play_arrow

In the morning, when Michelle opened her eyes, Lydia was washing her face and brushing her teeth. The sound of running water could be heard.

Lydia's cell phone was placed on the pillow and kept vibrating. It was then that Michelle woke up and fumbled for the cell phone with her sleepy eyes.

Both she and Lydia had recorded their fingerprints in each other's phone, so Lydia knew that the wallpaper of Michelle's phone had always been Leon.

When Michelle picked up the phone, she unlocked it easily. The light reflected from the screen of the phone made her squint. Indistinctly, she saw messages constantly beeping in a discussion group.

Even if she didn't see it clearly, Michelle knew that it was not her phone.

After a while, her eyes gradually adapted to the light. When she was about to put the phone back, she saw the word "Leon" by accident.

When she fell in love with someone, she would seize the first thing that had a little connection with him.

She heard the word "Leon" almost every day.

Because she always mentioned Leon, and her roommates had been worrying about her, always mentioning "Leon".

Michelle immediately sobered up and sat up.

She didn't mean to peep at Lydia's phone, but when it came to Leon, she couldn't help but want to see it.

ht the two of them would be together."

Huan texted, "The gentler a man is, the more possible he is a bastard. Call Leon bastard from now on."

Rainy texted, "Leon bastard."

Huan texted, "That's incredible. I thought he was good to Michelle originally. Leon is bastard and a bastard's good friend must be bad guy. I'm going to unfriend Wynn."

Rainy texted, "Even if you are angry, don't blame the people around. Don't you like Wynn?"

Huan texted, "I don't like him anymore. I already have a lover!"

In a fit of pique, Huan deleted Wynn from the list of friends and sent a message to Aron on WeChat, saying, "Both of us have to be responsible for what happened last night. Don't ignore it. From now on, you are my boyfriend."

She got a reply soon after she sent the message.

Huan had a boyfriend again.

What made everyone more excited was that Huan broke her promise that she would never fall in love with her classmates.

When Michelle heard the news, she was happy and regretful. In fact, she felt that Huan's temper was very suitable for her master.

However, Huan and Aron seemed to be more matched.

Since that day, Michelle had become more and more reserved in front of Leon. She didn't dare to act intimately with Leon or do anything suspicious.

She began to restrain herself, afraid of causing trouble to Leon.

Leon was really troubled by the restraint of Michelle.

The frequency of their contact was decreasing. Michelle no longer shared anything interesting with him as before, and even her good night and morning greeting were gradually decreasing.

It was not until what Valerie had said to him on the plane that Leon gradually came to his sense.

Michelle just treated him as her good friend and kept away from him because she had sensed his feeling for her.

Sometimes, Leon couldn't help wondering whether his love would only force people to leave.

'Is it the same case as Valerie, who forced him to let her go at the cost of her life at that time?

Will Michelle do the same?'

Taking advantage of Valerie's lesson, Leon didn't dare to act rashly. He was really afraid of frightening Michelle away.

In order to comfort her, Leon learned to step back, restrained himself from saying some ambiguous words and controlled their daily contact.

As long as she was still alive, as long as she didn't leave.

Therefore, the contact between the two was less.

The Feng Group's capital had been on the right track. Leon was very busy every day. The company's affairs were decided by Bryant, but they had to be approved by him.

too cold and no one takes off clothes for you." Joanna shook her hand impatiently.

Michelle pouted, "Oh. I'm sorry, Joanna."

"All right, all right. Just pack up and go now. It takes more than an hour to take the subway." Joanna didn't take Michelle's angry seriously.

Michelle smiled at her and brought a pile of snacks to her for apology before she went out.

It was late autumn and it was getting dark early. The night wind was a little cold.

Michelle couldn't help trembling.

She buried herself in training in the club and forgot to pay attention to the weather.

Even though Joanna reminded her to put on her coat, she looked a little thin compared with the pedestrians in overcoat at the gate of the theatre.

As soon as Michelle raised her head, she saw Leon. His handsome face was extraordinarily outstanding among the pedestrians. He was dressed in a dark suit and a bowtie, dressed like a gentleman.

The gentleman Leon also saw her and was walking towards her with a smile.

Like a warm wind at night, he gradually approached her and wrapped her up.

Michelle smelled his unique perfume.

At that moment, she seemed to have forgotten all the restrictions, and called him as sweet as before, "Leon."

Chapter: 730

Same Perfume As Leon s

It had been a long time since Leon heard her call him in such a sweet voice.

There was a long lost light in his amber like eyes, which began to spread in all directions. Leon lips raised a beautiful arc.

He really wanted to hug her, but he was afraid of scaring her.

After hesitating for a moment, he took back his toes and shook the bag in his hand in front of her eyes.

"Michelle, this is the perfume I promised to give you. I haven't had the chance to give it to you face to face. If I put it down again, it will be moldy." Leon said frankly.

Michelle took the bag, blinked and asked, "Will the perfume be moldy?"

She looked a little stunned and her eyes were bright.

Leon couldn't help chuckling. He bent his index finger and was about to touch her forehead, but Michelle took a step back and dodged.

Leon's hand froze in the air.

The cold wind had been blowing over his fingers at night, and his blood seemed to be frozen.

Many people came to the gate of the theatre one after another, and they could still hear their conversation.

Michelle and Leon looked at each other in silence.

Without looking at each other for two seconds, Michelle lowered her eyes in a hu er pale face. He immediately became nervous. "Why do you look so pale? Are you sick? Let's go to the hospital first."

"Go ahead. I'll stay and tell Valerie," said Bryant with concern.

As soon as Leon touched the back of Michelle's hand, Michelle withdrew her hand and raised her head to explain, "No, no. I'm not sick. I just feel a little cold."

Not only her body, but also her heart.

"You don't wear much clothes." Leon frowned, took off his coat and put it on Michelle. Michelle moved her body and tried to get rid of it.

Having experienced the first two times, Leon didn't give her a chance to break away. With a little strength, he trapped Michelle in the suit.

He was a little angry and said, "Don't move. You can wear it when I asks you to. Be good, okay?"

Michelle had no choice. She had to put her hand into the sleeve obediently.

The suit was full of the faint smell of Leon, and when she put on his clothes, she felt like two people's bodies were together.

His chest was against her back.

Just like taking a bus before, he protected her from behind.

Michelle's face turned red, which offset her previous paleness. It could not tell that she was shy at all.

He had been looking for Valerie for so many years.
