

Concubine 171

Chapter 171: The Relationship Might Fail

This was the greatest humiliation in Pei Huai's life!

Not being able to do it was a fatal blow to a man!

The strong body that he had been nurturing for 30 years had collapsed before he could perform?

...

Su Ji even said that she wouldn't leave him out of sympathy.

Pei Huai had never thought that his first time entering Su Ji's room would be under such circumstances. And they would be sharing a bed like sisters!

He sat back on the bed, took out his phone expressionlessly, and sent a message to his brother.

"If you have time tomorrow, I'll go to Huichun Hall tomorrow morning to get some medicine."

It was already two in the morning. Pei Song was preparing to go to bed when he saw the message.

"What's wrong?"

He realized he was ill in the middle of the night?

It was hard not to feel suspicious

Immediately after, he received a reply from Pei Huai.

"Su Ji is here, I can't talk about it now. I'll tell you when we meet tomorrow."

Pei Song immediately sat up on the bed.

It was 2 o'clock in the morning, and Pei Huai was with Su Ji!

**

Su Ji went into the bathroom to take a shower.

Pei Huai sent a message to Uncle He, asking him to stretch a pole out of his window and bring his clean pajamas over.

When he saw the message, he was terrified.

But he didn't dare to guess or ask, so he quickly got up and did as he was told.

Their bedrooms being so close to each other had its advantages.

Soon, Pei Huai received his pajamas. It was a pair of smooth black pajama pants.

When Su Ji came out, he went to the bathroom to change.

Su Ji's body was steaming with hot mist. She was not used to using the hairdryer, so she would dry her hair with a towel every time.

As she was wiping her face, she glanced at the bed and suddenly froze.

She remembered that before she went into the bathroom, Pei Huai's tie and their coats were thrown on the bed. The bedsheets were wrinkled, a few books were messily placed by the bed. There were empty wrappers and bottles everywhere. She did not have time to clean them up before she left the house that night. Slippers were scattered all over the place.

But looking at the room now...

Their coats were neatly hung side by side on the hanger behind the door. Pei Huai's bow tie had been tied up and hung together with his coat.

The slippers were arranged by the door

All the trash had been placed next to the door in a garbage bag. Half of the books that Su Ji was reading were now stacked together, from big to small. The bed sheet was flat and without a single wrinkle.

It was even cleaner than Aunt Wu's cleaning.

"..."

So this was why one wanted a housewife!

She lay on the flat bed and leaned against the headboard to look at her phone. She was sorting out the things she collected tonight and the two things she had to do tomorrow.

She was going to help contact a new spokesperson for her mother.

Sam was out.

She picked up her phone and sent Pei Xi a message.

[ "Do you have time tomorrow? I want to talk to you about something." ]

Pei Xi had told her that her phone would be on silent mode at night, so Su Ji's message would not disturb her. She could just reply when she saw it the next day.

However, not long after she sent the message, she received a reply from Pei Xi.

Just a minute ago, the Pei family members were all awake.

Pei Song and Pei Xi sat in the living room and sighed.

"No wonder Pei Huai keeps saying that he's not interested in women," Pei Xi said, "with his condition, he wouldn't be."

"Don't worry too much. We should be able to cure him."

1

Pei Xi's gaze was firm. "You must cure him! Otherwise, Su Ji will be so pitiful!"

Just as they were chatting, Su Ji sent the message.

When she saw Su Ji's message, she immediately replied.

[ "Yes! I'm always free for you! Why don't you bring Pei Huai home for dinner tomorrow? I'll ask the chef to make your favorite food!" ]

After waiting nervously for half a minute, a reply came.

[ "He shouldn't listen to what I want to say. Can we meet somewhere alone?" ]

She was afraid that the Pei Corporation would compete with her.

Pei Xi had completely misunderstood the situation.

Su Ji was so considerate! She didn't want to hurt Pei Huai's feelings.

[ "No problem. Just send me the address and time. I'll follow your schedule!" ]

Su Ji did not expect her to be so cooperative. She immediately set the time and place and thanked her.

[ "I'm lucky to have met you. Thank you for your help." ]

Pei Xi stared at the message of gratitude for a long time, and her heart skipped a beat.

Pei Song was nervous. "What's wrong? What did she say?"

"I have a feeling that their relationship is going to fail..."

1

Meanwhile...

About half an hour later, the bathroom door opened, and Su Ji naturally looked towards it.

When she saw Pei Huai come out of the bathroom in only a pair of pajama pants, she froze.

His shoulders were wide, and the muscle lines on his strong frame were very visible.

And his A-line abs...

Su Ji subconsciously swallowed. "Where's your top?"

No man had ever dared to be so presumptuous in front of her!

"I'm not used to wearing clothes when I sleep."

1

Seeing him walk to her side, slowly lifting the blanket and lying down beside her, Su Ji quickly shifted to the side.

"You're going to sleep like this?"

Pei Huai answered her with his actions. He lay down and even helped her turn off the bedside lamp.

After the lights were off, the room was quiet, and every breath was heard.

He laughed so quietly that it was not noticeable. "Since I can't get it up, why are you scared?"

Su Yi was silent for a moment before she got under the blanket.

Pei Huai was lying flat while her back was facing him.

Su Ji thought that she would be on high alert for the rest of the night, but in less than three minutes, her breathing became even.

The moment before she lost consciousness, she felt a pair of big hands under the blanket holding her.

Bit by bit, he tightened his grip.

**

The next day, it was a sunny morning.

Su Cunyi finished washing up, put on a formal suit, and was ready to go out.

When she passed by Pei Huai's room, he saw that his door was open.

Not only was the door open, but the windows were also open, and the curtains were not drawn.

The wind was strong, and the curtains were raised high.

Did someone break in?

Su Cunyi was a little worried. He entered the room cautiously, "CEO Pei?"

No one was there?

He left even earlier than him?

He wanted to help him close the window in case it rained.

But when he did that, he looked at the opposite window.

He greeted him with a smile, "CEO Pei, why are you..."

In the next second, his smile froze!

1

Chapter 172: The Mysterious Bracelet and the Couple Teams Up Again! (1)

Uncle He was too flustered last night and was afraid of disturbing CEO Pei, so he left in a hurry after delivering the things.

He forgot to close the window.

When Su Cunyi saw Pei Huai standing in his daughter's room and slowly buttoning up his shirt.

...

His precious daughter was sitting on the bed in her pajamas and yawning.

!!!

Su Cunyi was so angry that he ran downstairs with his briefcase and went next door angrily.

However, just as he rushed into the courtyard, he ran into Xu Mingzhi, who was practicing martial arts in the courtyard.

When Xu Mingzhi saw him, she picked up the stick beside her and pressed it against her chest. "What are you doing here? Where did you come from?"

Su Cunyi glanced at Pei Huai's house next door. He remembered that he could not expose the fact that he was staying there, so he pushed her away and said, "don't worry about how I got here. I saw..."

"You dare to peek inside?" Xu Mingzhi took a step forward with the stick in her hand. "I'm not in a good mood today. Don't make me fight you! Leave now!"

Su Ji took this opportunity to leave through the back door with Pei Huai.

Su Cunyi was extremely anxious, but with Xu Mingzhi in front of him, he could only watch the two of them leave!

**

In the morning, Pei Huai first helped Su Ji send the spiked drink to the laboratory before driving to Huichun Hall.

When he arrived, Pei Song had already prepared the medicine for him.

He even helped Pei Huai clear the area and ushered all the pharmacists from the hall into the room. He then personally received Pei Huai.

He couldn't let those people below know that his brother couldn't get it up.

Pei Huai lowered his eyes to look at the bag of medicine.

It consisted of herbs that could restore manlihood.

Huichun Hall was known for this prescription.

Pei Song would often prescribe this medicine to tycoons in their sixties who still wanted to have children at an old age.

"..."

"How did you know that I was going to get this?" Pei Huai's jaw tensed up.

Pei Song sympathized with him. "Don't be too stressed. Most of the time, it's just a psychological problem. Besides, the first time is..."

Pei Huai's face was as black as the bottom of a pot. "It's not what you think."

Pei Song did not argue with him. "Fine. It's not what I thought. Anyway, you should go back and take your medicine on time."

Pei Huai had finally gotten a girlfriend, and yet he encountered such a tragedy.

He wondered how the conversation between his sister and Su Ji would go today.

Can she help him get Su Ji back?

Pei Huai pinched the medicine bag in his hand. It was indeed a good prescription, but because of how strong the dosage that Su Ji gave him, he was afraid that this alone was not enough.

He walked around the counter and stood in front of the medicine cabinet that was as tall as the entire wall. After a moment of silence, he added a few more herbs.

Pei Song looked at him and was speechless.

It seemed like it was more serious than they had imagined!

Pei Huai packed the medicine. The simple act of tying a string looked like an art when he did it.

He glanced around the shop. "You didn't send Xingxing to school today? "

At the mention of this, Pei Song coughed, "I asked someone else to do it so I can help you."

Pei Huai raised his eyebrows, "someone else?"

Pei Song knew that he couldn't escape his brother's questioning. He leaned against the wall and said in annoyance, "yes, it's Sonya. She's his mother. Shouldn't she do her duty?"

Pei Huai smiled emotionlessly. "I was just asking. Why are you so anxious?"

"..."

He was tricked again!

**

Meanwhile, Pei Xi arrived at the private room an hour earlier than the agreed time.

It was the restaurant next to Kyokushin.

She remembered that the first time she met Su Ji was in this restaurant.

At that time, she had given Su Ji three precious books.

She told her that she wanted her children to have her surname.

When they left, many people in the restaurant were looking at them.

And with an inexplicable look of satisfaction.

However, it had been a long time since that incident, and Pei Xi believed that no one would remember it.

She took out a small box from her bag and weighed it in her hand. She didn't seem to be particularly satisfied.

She had never given any gifts to a pretty girl.

"Waiter!"

The waiter jogged over, "how can I help you?"

The waiter thought she looked familiar, but he couldn't recall who she was.

Chapter 173: The Mysterious Bracelet and the Couple Teams Up Again! (2))

Pei Xi passed the box to him and said, "I'm giving this gift to someone very important. I want her to have a spark in her eyes. Help me think of a way."

The waiter immediately understood. "Do you want to give this to your boyfriend?"

???

...

Without waiting for her to deny it, the waiter continued, "we're the best at this kind of thing. I guarantee that it'll make a grand entrance."

As time was of the essence, Pei Xi did not bother to explain to him. "Thank you."

The waiter nodded and opened the box. He looked surprised.

It was not a gift he expected.

But it didn't matter.

An hour later, Su Ji arrived at the private room on time.

Pei Xi smiled and greeted her. At the same time, she pressed the bell on the table. This was the signal to the waiter.

"Here, Su Ji."

Su Ji sounded cheerful, "when did you arrive?"

"Just a few minutes ago."

Su Ji pulled out a chair and sat down. "I'm here today because..."

Before she could finish her sentence, the door opened.

Su Ji turned around and saw two waiters pushing a big cake towards her.

The white cake was covered with edible pearls, symbolizing pure love.

There were two Cupid dolls holding love arrows on it, and they shot at each other's hearts.

"Sir, this is the surprise that your girlfriend has specially prepared for you."

As they spoke, the two waiters met Su Ji's beautiful eyes.

Although she didn't take off her mask, they could tell that she was a woman!

"..."

"..."

"..."

Everyone present was dumbfounded!

Pei Xi's mouth twitched as she reminded them, "where's the gift?"

She just wanted to give Su Ji a gift. Did they misunderstand?

The waiter remained calm and respectfully handed the cake knife to Su Ji. "Please cut the cake."

Although Su Ji did not know what just happened, it seemed like she could only start talking about business after she cut the cake.

There seemed to be something solid in the cake. The waiter, wearing gloves, took out a mysterious box from inside.

The box was opened and inside was a beautiful jade bracelet that looked very expensive.

"?"

Pei Xi gestured for the waiter to leave and smiled, "I already know about what happened last night. In any case, it was Pei Huai's fault. This is a small gift from me to you. I hope you can give him another chance."

Su Ji didn't expect them to find out so quickly, so she quickly declined. "No, no, it was actually my fault last night. You don't have to give me anything."

If she hadn't made such a strong tonic, Pei Huai wouldn't have experienced any side effects.

Pei Xi did not expect her to be so reasonable and generous!

She was extremely touched. "How can we blame you for this? You must accept the gift."

The two of them argued for a while and it looked like they were about to fight.

"Pei Xi, I actually have something I need your help with today."

Pei Xi replied, "put on the bracelet and I'll listen to you!"

Su Ji didn't know why she was so insistent, but it was important to discuss business, so she gave in.

The size of the bracelet was just right, as if it was tailor-made for her.

It was jade white and translucent, like an antique.

She liked it.

The waiter pushed the cake cart out and closed the door, trying to calm down their hearts that were beating wildly.

He remembered who these two women were. They look like a beautiful painting when they were together!

The last time they came, it was just sweet talk. This time, she had a bracelet that looked very expensive.

Could it be that she already had a child who had her surname?

In the private room, Pei Xi was relieved to see Su Ji accept the gift.

“Don’t say the word ‘please’ like you’re treating me as an outsider. Just tell me what you want. As long as it’s not about breaking up with Pei Huai, I’ll agree to anything!”

Su Yi was silent for a moment before revealing the purpose of this trip.

Pei Xi was quite surprised. She did not expect that apart from acting and calligraphy, she also knew how to do business.

She was happy to help. “It’s a small matter. Since you think so highly of my husband, I’ll help you ask. As long as none of his work conflicts with the Xu Group’s new energy project, it will be fine.”

Chapter 174: The Mysterious Bracelet and the Couple Teams Up Again! (3)

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and thanked her politely.

However, after thinking about it, she added, “actually, the Pei Corporation is also looking for a spokesperson...”

Pei Xi did not even hesitate for a second. “That is none of my business.”

...

At 1 o’clock in the afternoon, Xu Mingzhi came out of the study. She had changed into a formal suit and had light makeup on.

She was shockingly beautiful.

Wei Wei followed behind her, talking on the phone in a foreign language. “Of course, the Xu Group will consider continuing working with Sam first, but...”

On the other end of the phone, Sam's manager was very aggressive. He interrupted her, "I really didn't mean to interject, but Sam broke his arm coming here to meet with CEO Xu. He's in a very bad mood now. If the Xu group is not sincere, you should prepare the termination fee."

Wei Wei was patient. "I hope you won't be unreasonable and unforgiving. Although CEO Xu has decided to come back at the last minute, the project in Continent M will continue. It's just that the investment will be reduced."

When they reached the entrance of the first floor, Xu Mingzhi stopped and waited for Wei Wei for a while.

Although Wei Wei was capable, she was very passive.

Before she could even finish her sentence, Sam's manager hung up on her.

Xu Mingzhi asked, "he hung up?"

Wei Wei pursed her lips, "yes."

Xu Mingzhi tugged at the collar of her suit, her expression unchanged. "Let's meet there and talk later. At most, we'll terminate the contract."

Wei Wei agreed and went to open the door for her. She didn't forget to remind her, "boss, we're not in the right this time. Don't act rashly."

Xu Mingzhi frowned.

She didn't like the feeling of being controlled by others.

Wei Wei opened the door and was stunned.

"Ms. Su."

Su Ji had just returned.

When Xu Mingzhi saw her daughter, she smiled for the first time that day, "baby, where did you go today?"

I was talking to a friend," Su Ji replied.

Xu Mingzhi noticed something. "Baby, the bracelet on your wrist is..."

Yesterday, she didn't have this.

Su Ji was the apple of Xu Mingzhi's eye. Even if she only changed her hairstyle slightly, she would be able to notice it immediately.

The only people who would buy this for her was either her or Pei Huai.

Su Ji's hands drooped down without a sound, and her sleeves covered the bracelet. "I just bought it when I was shopping with my friend."

Xu Mingzhi was skeptical, because she seemed to have seen this bracelet at an auction in A City a few days ago.

It was said that it was dug out from the tomb of one of the princes from the great Shang Dynasty.

As it was related to the great Shang, she paid special attention to it.

However, most bracelets looked similar.

Wei Wei reminded her, “boss, it’s almost time to meet them.

Xu Mingzhi frowned. “Baby, mom might be home late today. If you want to eat anything, ask Aunt Wu to make it for you.”

Su Ji smiled and said calmly, “I’ll go with you.”

Xu Mingzhi smiled lovingly. “I’ll take you shopping next time. Today, I’m going to talk about business...”

Not only was it a serious matter, but it was also quite tricky.

Su Ji replied calmly, “I know. It’s about the contract with Sam.”

“?”

Xu Mingzhi turned to look at Wei Wei.

Wei Wei immediately stood up straight. “I’m sorry, I told her about it...”

Su Ji replied, “I forced her to. Please don’t blame her.”

The mother-daughter pair used to discuss business together. Since she knew about it, Xu Mingzhi did not try to hide it from her. “Alright, you can come with me then. The people there won’t speak nicely. You can sit behind me. Don’t worry.”

Su Ji smiled and did not say anything.

The three of them walked to the car, and Wang Zhicheng drove.

Su Ji was behind and sent a message to Pei Huai.

[ “How was it?” ]

1

Pei Huai replied with a voice message, “waiting for the test result.”

Su Ji could hear that he was drinking something.

[ “Thanks, I’ll get it from you later.” ]

[ “Send me the address. I’ll send it to you later.” ]

[ “Alright then.” ]

Sam was also heading to the agreed location. The people in the car were fearless and were discussing how to set the price later.

Sam's wrist was in a cast, and he looked like he had a stomach ache. The scene of the two people ganging up to make fun of him yesterday was still in his mind. "They better pray they don't see me again, otherwise, I'll make sure they suffer!"

He didn't know that he would be meeting them again soon...

Chapter 175: You're Welcome, Sister-in-law!

The two of them met in a private room at Four Seasons.

Xu Mingzhi was on time, but Sam was late.

In the private room, Xu Mingzhi glanced at the time. "Are they putting on a show? Wei Wei, we there is no need to discuss anymore. Just give them the check!"

...

Wei Wei was stunned. Just as she was about to tell the boss to calm down, Su Ji said, "mom, don't get too emotional."

Wei Wei heaved a sigh of relief. It seemed that it was the right decision to bring Su Ji along today.

She was the only one who could control the boss' temper.

However, she only relaxed for a second when she heard Su Ji say, "terminate the contract, but don't give them a single cent of the termination fee."

Wei Wei was speechless.

Ms. Su was more ruthless than the CEO?

Xu Mingzhi liked her daughter's suggestion. "I would like that too, but..."

Su Ji patted her on the shoulder. "They are the ones who need to pay for the breach of contract. You'll know in a while."

Xu Mingzhi was surprised.

Did her daughter come prepared?

Sam was not here yet. Su Ji sat in the room for a while and stood up. "I'll go outside and take a look."

Xu Mingzhi said, "baby, you can't tell left from right. Don't get lost..."

Su Ji's mouth twitched. No one knew this about her.

She didn't expect her mother to ruthlessly expose her.

Wei Wei: ￣へ￣)

Even Ms. Su had a weakness?

As if recalling some distant memory, Su Ji said, “that was a long time ago. Mom, don’t keep bringing it up. I can do it now.”

Su Ji walked along the corridor and went to the restroom to wash her hands.

She washed the bracelet under the water. Just by listening to the sound of the water, she could tell the quality of the jade.

Even in the great Shang Dynasty, this was considered very rare.

Just as she was thinking about it, Pei Xi called.

“My husband agreed. There’s no conflict between his endorsements, and he has time.”

Su Ji was relieved. “My brother-in-law will be fairly compensated.”

Since she considered Pei Xi her sister, it was natural for her to call her husband her brother-in-law.

However, when Pei Xi heard that, she said excitedly, “no problem! Sister-in-law!”

“...”

After she sorted out her thoughts, she realized that something was wrong.

Su Ji glanced at the bracelet on her wrist. “The gift you gave me today is too expensive. I’ll return it to you tomorrow.”

Pei Xi panicked when she heard this. “What are you saying? If you do this, it means you’re slapping me in the face!”

Su Ji accepted such an expensive gift, but she still felt like she had suffered a loss.

However, she didn’t refuse. “Alright then. Thank you.”

“You’re welcome, sister-in-law.”

After hanging up the phone, Su Ji raised her head and saw four or five fierce-looking foreign men standing in the mirror opposite her.

Her gaze fell on the cast on one of the men’s hands. Not only was she not flustered, she even smiled in a good mood. “Aren’t you the international superstar Sam? You didn’t have a cast at the bar last night. Did you fall?”

They finally came.

Today, Sam and the others had brought along an interpreter. The interpreter had a mustache and looked very cunning. He sneaked up to the group of people and translated what she had just said word for word.

Just by looking at his expression, one could tell how much he had exaggerated.

Sam’s expression darkened after hearing that.

When they saw Su Ji in the mirror just now, they felt that she looked familiar.

That pair of alluring eyes definitely belonged to the woman who had made him lose his mind in the bar last night.

They had been standing at the back and did not come forward because they wanted to see if Su Ji could recognize them.

Sam was a public figure. If Su Ji could not recognize him, he couldn't do anything.

However, now that Su Ji had recognized him, there was no need for him to hold back his anger.

Sam had been sent to the hospital in the early hours of the morning. He was in so much pain that his forehead was covered in sweat.

Not only that, but with his wrist injury, he had to decline more than a dozen jobs.

Heavy losses.

At this moment, Su Ji's calm expression made him even more furious.

He narrowed his eyes dangerously. "Pretty girl, are you here for business?"

Su Ji nodded, "yes."

To be able to come to a place like this, she should be quite high up in the company.

She must be from the public relations department.

Sam said, "do you dare to tell me which company you're from?"

If he knew which company she was from, he would be able to teach her a lesson without showing his face.

Su Ji replied, "you'll know in a while."

The translator explained it to Sam and the rest. Sam laughed sarcastically.

The manager looked at the time and reminded him, "Sam, we still have important things to discuss today. Don't waste too much time on her."

Sam licked the back of his molars. "When will you be done? Let's meet up for a chat after I'm done here."

"I'll be done the same time as you~" Su Ji gave him a piece of good news, "the man who was with me last night will be coming later. Shall we all have a chat?"

Sam's temples throbbed. "You two really know each other! It's great that he will be here, I was worried that I wouldn't be able to find him."

With a smile on her face, Su Ji lifted her chin in the direction of the private room. "Then, please."

Sam sneered, "don't run away at the last minute."

Su Ji replied, "whoever runs away is a loser~"

The manager led the way, and Sam stormed into the room.

At the door, Sam could not wait for his manager. He knocked on the door twice with his undamaged hand.

The manager reminded him, “although the CEO is a woman, she’s not someone to be trifled with. She has a bad temper, so you should be careful later.”

Sam was very conceited. “We’re the ones terminating the contract. We have control here. No matter how good she is, she has to bow at me. Just wait and see.”

The door opened.

In the private room, Xu Mingzhi paused and stood up to welcome them with a smile.

The manager was shocked and looked at Sam in disbelief.

Sam tugged at his suit arrogantly. “There’s no point in trying to please me. I won’t..”

Before he could finish, Xu Mingzhi walked past him and pulled a fair arm from behind him. “Baby! Why did you only come back now? I was about to go get you!”

It was Su Ji!

Sam’s mind buzzed. Due to the language barrier, he could not react in time.

“What’s their relationship?” He asked the interpreter with a pale face.

Just by spending a few hours with him, she could already understand what he meant by that sentence.

There was no need to wait for the translation. When Su Ji passed by him, she pronounced the word in his language perfectly, “mama~”

Chapter 176: I Also Need to be Compensated

“Pa!”

The documents in the manager’s hands fell to the ground.

Sam’s hands trembled.

...

Su Ji was CEO Xu’s daughter?

How could there be such a coincidence?

The manager gulped and asked in a low voice, “Sam, she doesn’t have any evidence of you from last night, does she? ”

Three minutes later, Su Ji played the recording of how Sam flirted with her last night and how he looked down on China.

The manager almost fell off the chair. He supported himself with both hands on the bench and kicked his legs on the ground before he barely managed to sit up.

He didn't expect that someone could do this in real life.

"Pretty lady, let's go to the booth over there. I'll treat you to a drink and apologize to you while we're at it," he said.

"You want to hit on her?"

"Then let's go together and see who can win the beauty's heart."

As the recording played, Xu Mingzhi crossed her long legs and arms. Her face was so cold that the air around her was about to freeze.

Finally, when she heard that he wanted to bring Su Ji back to Continent M, she slammed the coffee table!

The nuts in the snack plate bounced up a meter.

"Who the hell wants to take my daughter to Continent M? Say it again in front of me!"

The manager was so scared that he almost peed his pants.

Sam, who had been acting all high and mighty just a moment ago, lowered his head. He placed both hands on his knees and his legs shook.

"She can't see me, she can't see me..."

"Crack-"

The coffee table made of glass cracked in the middle.

"Pretty girl, you won't even give me this little bit of face?"

"I've already drunk so much, why don't you drink with me?"

Xu Mingzhi flipped the plate of snacks and threw it on Sam's head.

"What f * cking face do you have!!!"

"Woof! Clang!"

The plate bent to the shape of his head.

The pistachios fell into his shirt.

Sam sniffled. He had not been scolded to tears since he was three years old!

The translator shivered at the side, not daring to translate a word.

The manager saw that the recording was on autoplay and quickly turned it off. He immediately changed his attitude, "CEO Xu, it's a misunderstanding...it's all a misunderstanding. Sam really didn't know that she was your daughter. If he had known, he definitely wouldn't have acted like this. Why don't we forget about it this time? Sam will continue to be your spokesperson regardless!"

"Bullshit!" Xu Mingzhi glanced at Wei Wei sternly. "prepare to terminate the contract!"

Wei Wei replied, "yes, boss."

She grabbed the laptop from the side and her fingers quickly typed on the keyboard.

She was very capable and experienced.

As she typed, she glanced at Su Ji.

At first, she thought that Ms. Su asked about Sam out of curiosity, or out of concern for the boss.

They didn't expect her to take action without them knowing.

The manager was dumbfounded when he heard that.

Although he was very scared, he braced himself and said softly, "it's fine if you want to terminate the contract, but the fee..."

Su Ji said immediately, "as stated in the contract..."

The manager heaved a long sigh of relief.

"Give us a call within three working days," Su Ji added.

"???"

Wei Wei added, "slandering the country, using drugs in bars to hit on girls. You are the ones who breached the contract this time."

The manager clenched his knees tightly, his whole body trembling.

Xu Mingzhi pulled Su Ji's hand and said angrily, "promise mom that you won't do such dangerous things again! How could you go to that place alone?"

Su Ji replied, "I didn't go on my own."

"You're not alone?"

Sam, who had been scolded until he was crying, finally reacted. He wiped his tears and looked at Wei Wei angrily. "Don't you all slander me! At most, this recording is a slip of the tongue after getting drunk. Do you have any evidence? Where is it?"

"It's here."

Just then, the door of the private room was pushed open, and a tall figure walked in.

"!!!"

He would never forget that aura!

Su Ji had indeed said that the man who was with her last night would also come.

After Pei Huai entered, he looked for Su Ji first. Seeing that she was in a good mood, he continued.

"The test result for the drug." Pei Huai walked to the coffee table and looked at the big crack in the middle of the coffee table for a few seconds before throwing the report on it.

Xu Mingzhi's eyes wandered between Pei Huai and her daughter for a few seconds. "Baby, did Pei Huai accompany you?"

Su Ji said yes.

The manager's mind went blank as he looked at the report. He turned to Sam and said, "they have evidence. If we push it too far and they report it to the media, we'll lose more than we gain."

Sam was not satisfied. He wanted to make a fortune, but now they had to pay!

"But what about my wrist? Who's going to compensate me for that?"

"Don't worry. I heard that the Pei Corporation also wants us for their new energy project. Perhaps they'll even pay us more than the Xu Group."

Hearing this, Sam's expression became slightly better, but it was only slightly better.

He mimicked Xu Mingzhi and slammed his palm on the coffee table.

However, not only did it not have any force, but it also made his palm hurt.

Recalling the night before, he said fiercely, "so what? She didn't even drink last night!"

Xu Mingzhi held onto Su Ji's hand tightly. If her baby had drunk it, Sam would not even be standing here!

However, what he said was true.

Su Ji did not drink it, so there was no crime.

They had many ways to exonerate themselves.

Xu Mingzhi gave Wei Wei a look.

Wei Wei quickly thought of other methods.

At this moment, a deep voice sounded beside Su Ji.

I drank it," Pei Huai said indifferently, "and it caused damage to my body."

"???"

Pei Huai replied, "it might be permanent damage."

Xu Mingzhi was so shocked that she covered her mouth.

Pei Huai continued, "so, in addition to the compensation for the Xu Group, I also need to be compensated."

The manager asked, "why would the drug cause any harm to your body? "

Sam said, "and who are you? Why should I compensate you?"

He was now in Su Ji's hand because she was the daughter of the CEO of Xu Group.

But who was that man?

The translator guessed that Sam would ask him about it later, so he took a photo of Pei Huai secretly and searched it on the internet.

However, he had forgotten to turn on the silent mode. When the search results came out, the software read out Pei Huai's biography.

Everyone could hear it clearly...

"Pei Huai, male, 30 years old, CEO of the Pei Corporation. He has an elder sister Pei Xi, an elder brother Pei Song, and his grandfather..."

1

Chapter 177: How Are You Feeling Today?

Su Ji looked at Pei Huai in surprise. "You're already 30?"

The word "already" hurt him.

Pei Huai said seriously, "my birthday is at the end of the year. I'm actually 29 now."

...

Sam did not care if he was 30 or 29 years old.

Everyone was stunned.

The reason why the manager was able to remain calm earlier was because he thought he could work with the Pei Corporation.

But this person was the CEO of the Pei Corporation?

Sam's face turned pale.

He was just thinking that this scoundrel was trying to extort him.

He had taken the drug before, but he had never felt that it was harmful to his body.

Why would the CEO of the Pei Corporation want to extort him?

His drug had irreversible damage to his body.

Sam's blood stopped flowing, and his lips were so numb that he could not feel them.

He was dead for sure this time!

**

After leaving the private room, the situation took a turn.

The one who should be worried now was not the Xu Group, but Sam.

They had to pool all the funds they had on hand and compensate them.

They even had to beg the Pei Corporation to have mercy on them.

This was karma!

If Sam didn't try to play games, none of this would have happened.

After leaving Four Seasons, Xu Mingzhi looked at Pei Huai kindly, "is it true that there's something wrong with your body?"

"Yes."

How tragic!

Xu Mingzhi knew that he was doing this for her daughter. If it wasn't for him, her daughter's body would be the one that was harmed.

Xu Mingzhi would definitely repay his kindness. "Come home with us later for a meal..."

"Alright," he said.

Before she could finish, he already agreed.

Xu Mingzhi looked at him with heartache, then turned to Su Ji. "Baby, mom is leaving with Wei Wei now. You can go with Pei Huai and show him the way."

Su Yi was silent for a moment. "Okay, mom."

Pei Huai smiled subtly. He walked to his car and opened the door to the passenger's seat. He waited patiently for Su Ji to get in before closing the door.

Su Ji noticed that there was a black thermos in the car.

There was a faint smell of Chinese medicine.

"How are you feeling today?" She asked with concern.

"I don't feel anything for now."

"..."

She understood.

"You can do this!" Su Ji wiped the cold sweat from her forehead. "I'll help you find a way."

Pei Huai chuckled. "Don't worry, everything will be fine."

He did not need Su Ji to show him the way. Pei Huai knew that Su Ji did not sleep much last night. He helped her move her chair back. "Sleep for a while. I'll call you when we arrive."

Su Ji thought he was so considerate. "Thanks."

On the way back, they passed by a business district. The road was a little congested. Pei Huai let go of the steering wheel and followed the car in front of him very patiently.

He didn't honk. Although he didn't open the window, he was afraid of waking Su Ji, who was catching up on sleep.

Su Ji had already fallen asleep, Pei Huai's suit jacket covering her.

Su Ji's head was tilted to the side by the window. Pei Huai looked at her for a while, smiled, and turned Su Ji's head in his direction.

This way, he could see her.

She was pleasing to the eye.

Her gaze fell on Su Ji's bracelet. He noticed this bracelet just now.

He recognized it. It was the one Pei Xi had bought at the last auction. When Pei Xi brought it back, he did not think much of it. However, now that it was in Su Ji's hand, he felt...

At this moment, a commotion in front of him caught his attention.

It seemed like a few adults were surrounding a child.

That was why the already crowded business street was even more packed today.

Pei Huai got out of the car and closed the door softly.

HShe took two steps forward and saw the little boy who was surrounded by the adults. He was wiping his tears with his head lowered. He was holding a box of LEGOs in his hands, and the box was soaked in his tears.

The little boy's face was red from crying and he was very sad.

However, Pei Huai noticed that the child's clothes looked familiar.

"Little boy, are you lost?"

"Tell me your name. Do you have your family's phone number?"

"Who's this little boy wearing such expensive clothes? Why isn't there an adult around him? Aiyo, don't cry little baby, I'll give you candy."

A woman took a lollipop and handed it to the child.

Pei Huai took the candy first. He didn't give it to the child, but he thanked her politely. "Thank you, I'm the child's family."

It wasn't that he didn't trust the woman, but it was better to be safe than sorry.

The woman saw that Pei Huai was dressed decently and didn't look like a bad person. "Do you know this man?"

The little boy sniffled. He was really sad. He looked up and forced himself to see Pei Huai clearly through his teary eyes. The next second, he hugged his leg and cried even louder. "Uncle!"

It was Pei Xingxing.

Seeing that they really knew each other, the woman said, “you don’t have to thank me. But what kind of parent are you? He’s so young, and he’s alone on the streets. What if he meets human traffickers?”

“That’s right. The world is so unsafe now!”

“Some parents think that they can have everything just because they have money. They’re so irresponsible!”

“So what if he’s handsome! What kind of uncle are you?”

Pei Huai stood still for half a minute after being scolded.

Pei Huai knocked on Pei Xingxing’s head and reminded him, “let’s go. Stop acting.”

But Pei Xingxing was still crying.

It seemed that he was really sad this time.

He cried a lot, but he didn’t forget to use his sleeve to wipe the tears that fell on the LEGO box.

As the most precious young master of the Pei family, when had he ever cherished a box of toys so much?

Seeing him like this, Pei Huai furrowed his brows and patted the top of his head instead. His voice softened, which was rare. “What exactly happened? Tell me.”

Today, Pei Song had asked Sonya to send Pei Xingxing to kindergarten because he wanted to meet Pei Huai.

Pei Xingxing had always longed for his mother, and the two of them bonded. Sonya said that she would pick him up from school today.

After class ended, Sonya brought him to the shopping street to spend time together.

Sonya pushed back a job and tried to make it up to him as much as possible. She took him to eat ice cream, bought him LEGO, and even held his face and kissed him. “Xingxing, you are the most important person to me. I shouldn’t have left you behind.”

At that point, she was so emotional that she started crying. Pei Xingxing very sensibly helped her wipe her tears.

He didn’t care about the past, as long as his mother loved him now.

Everything had been perfect, and the mother and son had a great time.

On the way, a girl suddenly recognized Sonya and screamed excitedly, “you’re Sonya, aren’t you? I like you so much! ‘Midsummer’ is my ringtone now! Can I have your autograph?”

Pei Xingxing felt that his mother was very impressive and called out to her proudly, “mom! You have so many fans!”

Sonya’s face immediately darkened.

The fan said, “mom?”

Sonya was flustered. "I don't know him. He must have mistaken me for someone else."

1

Before the fan could react, she quickly pulled her to the side to give her an autograph!

The fans were so excited to finally get their idol's signature that they didn't care about the misunderstanding just now.

Sonya was afraid of being photographed, so she left Pei Xingxing on the spot and did not dare to show herself.

When Pei Xingxing heard his mother say that she didn't know him, he was particularly sad. After waiting for a long time and not seeing his mother, he finally couldn't hold it in and stood in the middle of the road, crying loudly.

He was already very sensible and didn't care that his mother had left him behind in the past, but today, she did it again.

1

His cries attracted many people, and Sonya did not dare to come out.

The people passing by thought that Pei Xingxing had lost his way, and that's when Pei Huai saw him.

Pei Huai's expression turned extremely cold.

He looked around and noticed a figure in the corner.

Sonya didn't dare to acknowledge her son, but she was also afraid that he would encounter bad people, so she was observing him in the dark.

Meeting Pei Huai's gaze, Sonya looked awkward.

Her expression seemed to be saying, "I'm really in a difficult position. CEO Pei, please understand and don't tell Pei Song about what happened today. Otherwise, he won't let me see my child again."

Pei Huai could guess what she was thinking. The next second, he took out his phone and called Pei Song. In front of Sonya, he said, "your ex-wife just left your son on the street alone."

2

Chapter 178: Love from His Future Mother-in-law

Pei Song had just finished examining the patient and stood up when he heard this. "What? Where's he now?"

Pei Huai replied, "he's with me and he's crying a lot. I'll send him to you later."

"...thanks" Pei Song said after a while, his knuckles turning white as he held the phone.

...

Sonya, who was not far away, heard Pei Huai's words.

She pursed her lips tightly and her hands were red.

Why did no one understand her?

2

Both of them were like this.

Did they think that she liked it when she saw her son crying on the street?

However, Pei Xingxing had been crying for his mother just now. If she went out, the news of her secret marriage and her son would be on the news headlines in less than half an hour.

At that time, everything would be over!

All her years of hard work had been in vain!

It wasn't that she didn't want to acknowledge her son, but she definitely had to find the right time, right?

1

She had been waiting here all this time because she was worried about him.

Pei Huai hung up the phone expressionlessly and did not look at her again. He pulled Pei Xingxing away.

No matter how many reasons Sonya had, he could not agree with what she had just done.

Apart from safety concerns, her actions just now would have a huge psychological impact on the child.

Had she ever thought about it?

Pei Huai walked to the car and knelt down. "Xingxing, don't cry."

He was still crying.

"Ms. Su Ji is sleeping inside. You'll wake her up if you cry."

It was as if someone had pressed the mute button on Pei Xingxing. With a whoosh, he immediately stopped crying.

Pei Huai narrowed his eyes.

Pei Huai opened the back door for him, but he did not get in. Instead, he pointed to the passenger seat.

Pei Huai didn't want to wake Su Ji up, so he had no choice but to gently open the passenger door for him.

It was only half open.

Pei Xingxing handed the LEGO box in his hand to Pei Huai and carefully reached for Su Ji's hand.

He touched it lightly.

He was really sad today, but he felt better after touching Su Ji's hand.

Pei Huai smiled. He lowered his head and saw Pei Xingxing asking him for the LEGO box.

The box had been crumpled, and there were tear stains on it.

Pei Huai handed it to him with one hand. "You like this so much?"

Pei Xingxing didn't reply. He obediently took the box and climbed into the back seat.

This was the first present his mother gave him.

He was the little young master of the Pei family, and he could have any kind of toy he wanted, but nothing from his mother.

Su Ji was in a deep sleep. Pei Huai made a trip to the Pei family's house and sent Pei Xingxing home.

When Pei Song and Pei Qingshen came out to pick him up, they also saw Su Ji lying in the passenger seat.

They looked at each other and smiled.

Everyone got in and out of the car quietly, so Su Ji did not hear anything.

She was now at ease with Pei Huai and was not wary of him.

On the way back, Pei Huai bought some fruits and gifts. It was his first time going to his girlfriend's house and he couldn't go empty-handed.

After a few twists and turns, the car finally arrived at Su Ji's home. Pei Huai then woke Su Ji up in a gentle voice.

Su Ji yawned.

The Pei family had seen her sitting in Pei Huai's car, but she did not know.

Because they took a detour, they could already smell the food when they reached home.

Su Ji sniffed and said seriously, "I'm hungry.

Pei Huai smiled and took his thermos. "Let's go."

After entering the house, Pei Huai explained to Xu Mingzhi why he was late.

Xu Mingzhi was especially nice to him and said that it was okay. "Don't buy anything next time you come. Don't be so polite."

Xu Mingzhi didn't need to ask to know what kind of side effects the drug had caused.

She was both worried and distressed.

Her heart ached for Pei Huai for having this problem at such a young age, but she was worried that if he could not be cured, should she persuade her daughter to break up with him?

It was a little unkind, so Xu Mingzhi temporarily put away this thought.

She asked Pei Huai and Su Ji to stay in the living room for a while. Although Aunt Wu was busy in the kitchen, she was still smiling and looking very enthusiastic.

This was the first time the young miss had brought a boyfriend home, so she had to show her best skills.

The madam had just ordered a few dishes, and she bought the freshest ingredients. There were some dishes that she was not very familiar with, but she would try her best!

An hour later, all the dishes were served.

Xu Mingzhi beckoned at them to serve the food. Then, she put his arm around Su Ji's shoulders and whispered to her, "baby, today's dishes were prepared by Pei Huai. There might not be anything that you like to eat. I'll get Aunt Wu to make it for you later."

Su Ji did not mind. "It's okay, mom. I'm not a picky eater."

Although Pei Huai would prefer his girlfriend to eat something she liked, he was in a good mood after being treated so nicely by his future mother-in-law.

He pulled out a chair and sat down.

Pei Huai smiled and looked at the dishes on the table, ready to compliment them.

Longan soft-shelled turtle soup, oyster stewed tofu, leek stir-fried geoduck, leek fried kidney flower buns...

As he looked at them, Pei Huai's smile gradually disappeared.

Xu Mingzhi glanced at him awkwardly and immediately said, "don't overthink it! These dishes have nothing to do with your condition!"

Pei Huai's mouth twitched slightly. "Thank you for your hospitality."

The family began to eat, and the atmosphere was warm.

Next door, Su Cunyi had deliberately returned home early today to ask Pei Huai what had happened last night and why he was in his daughter's room!

However, Pei Huai did not return for a long time.

He sat in the living room in a huff, his gaze sweeping out of the window.

From his position, he could see the dining room next door.

In the next second, his jaw dropped to the ground in shock.

Why was Pei Huai next door?

He even had a nice meal with his ex-wife and daughter?

On this side, no one noticed the resentful face on the window next door.

While they were eating, Wei Wei came over.

After sending Xu Mingzhi a few documents related to the contract termination process, she mentioned the new spokesperson.

"Tell me about the new spokesperson," Xu Mingzi said in a professional and efficient manner.

Wei Wei nodded.

As the two of them were talking, Su Ji suddenly said, "I've contacted a new spokesperson. I'll send the info to you later."

Xu Mingzhi was surprised. "Baby, you've also thought of a new spokesperson for me?"

Wei Wei was a little worried. She didn't want to reject her idea, but she was also afraid that it would not be suitable for the company.

"Ms. Su, is the person an artist from Blue Whale? Blue whale's artists are all pretty good, but because we were using a European spokesperson, it's best to have another European..."

Su Ji's expression was relaxed. "How about Bill?"

Chapter 179: How are You Going to Make It Up to Me?

Su Ji quickly glanced at Pei Huai.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that Wei Wei didn't make a sound for half a minute.

"Bill?" A hint of surprise flashed across her face. "You mean the Hollywood star, Bill?"

...

She suspected that it might be another person.

Before she went to see Sam, she had gone to Bill many times.

However, Bill didn't lack money nor fame, so he accepted jobs based on his mood.

He rejected her in the end.

"Yes. He agreed, but I was afraid that you wouldn't be satisfied, so I didn't confirm it with him yet."

This time, Wei Wei was really anxious. "Confirm it! Which phone number did you contact him with? It would be perfect if he could become the spokesperson of Xu Group!"

Xu Mingzhi looked at her daughter and smiled.

Wei Wei still couldn't figure it out. She wanted to know what she hadn't done well enough. "Ms. Su, may I ask how you convinced him? I've talked to him a few times before, but in the end, the reason he gave me was that he didn't even endorse his brother-in-law's products, so why should he endorse us?"

Su Ji glanced at Pei Huai again.

The "brother-in-law" looked at her with a relaxed expression.

Su Ji replied, "I asked Pei Xi to contact him."

There was a moment of silence at the dining table, and Wei Wei hurriedly saved her phone number.

Xu Mingzhi thanked Pei Huai gently. "Thank you, Pei Huai, for being okay with that."

Pei Huai smiled gentlemanly. "Don't worry. Actually, I've already found other candidates."

Su Ji was relieved to hear that.

Wei Wei's phone call with Pei Xi went smoothly, and the Xu Group was generous with the endorsement fee.

Before she hung up, Pei Xi had heard that Wei Wei was with Su Ji and asked her to pass on a message.

"Ms. Pei asked me to tell you that there will be an event for you tomorrow. You will be singing the theme song of 'The Billion Stars' with your colleagues at a brand launch.

It was a normal job, but Wei Wei's expression looked awkward.

This was because Pei Xi had been addressing Su Ji as her sister-in-law.

Wei Wei felt that it was better not to let the CEO know about this.

**

After the meal, Xu Mingzhi asked Su Ji to send Pei Huai off. She had too many things to do at the company, so she went back to the study to work.

Pei Huai was holding a thermos and standing in the courtyard with Su Ji.

Su Ji was enjoying the scenery and did not look at him.

Obviously, she felt a little guilty.

Pei Huai looked at her with a half-smile. "You said that you didn't have a candidate in mind. So you were afraid that I would compete with you?"

Su Ji touched the tip of her nose. "Business is business."

Pei Huai was just teasing her. He did have another candidate in mind.

Pei Huai took two steps forward. "Now that I've given my brother-in-law to you, how are you going to make it up to me?"

"Didn't you already have a candidate in mind?" Su Ji asked.

"I'm afraid that 'she' won't agree." Pei Huai sighed. "Can you help me ask 'her'?"

Su Ji was very forthright. "No problem, where is this person from and what's her name?"

"From China." Pei Huai grabbed the back of Su Ji's neck and pulled her towards him. He leaned down and kissed the corner of her lips. "Su Ji."

"Yes?" Su Ji thought he was going to tell her something.

When she spoke softly, there was an inexplicable gentleness.

Pei Huai smiled. "The spokesperson I have in mind is Su Ji."

"Cough cough cough cough cough cough cough!!!"

Upstairs, Xu Mingzhi, who was observing them from the window in the corridor, choked on her tea.

Wei Wei patted her back nervously. "Boss, slow down."

Xu Mingzhi took a long time to recover. "Pei Huai was probably just blowing sand out of my daughter's eyes, right?"

Without waiting for Wei Wei to answer, she answered her own question. "That must be the case!"

"..."

In order not to destroy the good image he had just built in his future mother-in-law's heart, Pei Huai drove quite a distance away from the villa area, pretending to be going home. Then, he went back to the building next to Su Ji's and parked the car in the garage.

Su Cunyi was sitting on the small single armchair in the living room that belonged to him. When he saw Pei Huai coming back, he had a lot of questions to ask.

"Nothing happened last night. I'm going up."

Before he could say a word, Pei Huai retorted with a single sentence.

Su Cunyi sniffed and smelled a faint smell of Chinese medicine.

**

The next morning, Zhang Guihua, who had vomited and had diarrhea for several days, was finally discharged from the hospital.

Su Qianrou and Su Junye had recovered at about the same time as her.

They took the car back to the Su residence. Zhang Guihua asked Aunt Zou and found out that her son had not returned home.

"He must be possessed!"

Ever since her return, nothing had gone smoothly!

She had abstained from meat and prayed to Buddha for a few months. How could this be?

Furthermore, she was hospitalized!

Aunt Cui was a little flustered now. She moved closer to Zhang Guihua mysteriously. "Old Madam Su, I think there's something weird about the eldest miss. When I went to get the medicine, she said that you would vomit and have diarrhea after taking the medicine, but this prescription was bought from the temple. There shouldn't be a problem. Why don't we treat her better in the future?"

After this incident, she was really a little scared.

However, when she saw that the old madam's expression was getting uglier and uglier, she did not dare to continue. Her voice was as soft as a mosquito's hum. "Anyway, I feel that every time we speak ill of the eldest miss, something bad will happen!"

"Nonsense!" Zhang Guihua said harshly, "do you mean that I should not believe in Buddha in the future and change my belief to Su Ji? I think you're also possessed! Bad things would happen if we say bad things about her? Then I'll say it! She, Su Ji, is the cursed daughter of that woman! She's our nemesis!"

"Swish..."

As soon as she finished speaking, a white ball quickly flew toward her.

Fortunately, Aunt Cui was quick to react and pulled her away.

The ball grazed the side of her nose and landed on the mailbox in front of the Su family's house.

With a loud bang, the mailbox's cover was smashed open.

A baseball rolled on the ground.

"Who threw tha ball? Are you okay? "

Zhang Guihua calmed down and suddenly laughed. "See that? I just said bad things about Su Ji. Did something bad happen? How superstitious!"

However, Aunt Cui noticed that there seemed to be a letter in the mailbox.

She took it and handed it to Zhang Guihua.

Zhang Guihua tore open the letter with an indifferent expression.

She took out a folded piece of paper and opened it. There were two lines on it.

[ "City A Supreme Court" ]

[ "Summon." ]

Chapter 180: A Small Valve has been Opened

**

Meanwhile, Pei Xi drove Su Ji to the brand launch.

As soon as she got out of the car, Meng Na and Pan Lian ran over to her with happy faces.

...

The first episode of "The Billions Stars" was very popular, and "Love Contract" was also at the top of the chart.

It even surpassed Sonya's "Midsummer".

Today's event was not hard for the girls, so they took it as an opportunity to get together.

The three of them changed into their costumes backstage. Su Ji was beautiful in light makeup.

Pan Lian was very curious. It was not the first time she had seen Su Ji put on makeup, but every time she saw it, she would still be amazed!

The makeup artist stuck a small white water droplet between Su Ji's eyebrows and did a simple blow-dry of her long hair. She looked beautiful and charming. If she changed into a traditional Han costume, she would look like a beautiful demoness that could destroy the country.

Pan Lian took a few photos of her, since they were asked to post on TikTok every once in a while to prevent their popularity from dropping.

Pan Lian openly rode on Su Ji's popularity.

However, she had to let her fans see how beautiful Su Ji was.

When she was checking the photo, she noticed the bracelet on her wrist.

The Pan family was a prominent family in A City, and Pan Lian often attended auctions with her parents.

When she saw Su Ji's bracelet, she found it familiar. "Where did you get this?"

Su Ji told her the truth. "Pei Xi gave it to me."

Pan Lian's mouth was agape for a long time, and she thought she saw it wrongly.

But if it was from Pei Xi, then it couldn't be wrong.

That was because Pei Xi was the one who won the bracelet at the auction that day!

"Pei Xi is so generous. She gave away something worth tens of millions just like that!"

Meng Na didn't listen to them at first as she was preparing for the song.

When she heard that it was tens of millions, she silently turned her head to them. "The PEI family is awesome!"

Su Ji had also guessed that the bracelet was not cheap. She looked at the bracelet with a dazed expression. "It looks antique."

Pan Lian said, "you have such good taste. It really is! I think I heard that it was dug out from the tomb of a prince during the great Shang period!"

"The Great Shang?" Su Ji's eyes were filled with suspicion. "Do you know which prince?"

Pan Lian replied, "No. You can ask an expert who knows about jade. My father knows someone who's very good at carving jade. That person is very knowledgeable in this area. As long as it's an antique bracelet, he can tell where it came from. I even heard that that person has recently appeared in the country."

"Do you have his contact information?" Su Ji asked.

Pan Lian smiled. "No...he's a mysterious person. Carving jade seems to be just a hobby. My dad doesn't know what his main profession is, but he's a very knowledgeable and powerful person. You can only meet him if you're lucky."

Meng Na said, "then how do you expect Su Ji to find him? "

Pan Lian said, "if my dad manages to contact him, I'll definitely tell you!

Su Ji thanked her.

She remembered that Pei Huai seemed to know a person who was very good at carving jade and charged a very good price.

The stone lion she gave to ". last time was carved by that person.

Pan Lian looked innocent and confused. "Why did Pei Xi give you such an expensive gift?"

Su Ji saw she was turning to a dangerous topic, so she changed it. "The photo you posted on your WeChat today said that your number one husband is coming to China. What does that mean? "

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh! You saw it too? My husband is coming to China! I entered the entertainment industry because of him!"

Not only was Pan Lian's attention successfully diverted, she also screamed in excitement.

It was as if a small valve had been opened.

Her dopamine soared!

Meng Na covered her ears and shouted at Su Ji, "she has a husband ranking list. There are more than 30 husbands in it now. It's ranked according to how much she wants to sleep with him! I heard that the person in first place accepted an endorsement in our country this morning and is coming to China!"

Pan Lian was still running around the room excitedly, as if she had been set on fire. Su Ji could only ask Meng Na loudly. "Then who's the first on her leaderboard?"

Who was so charming?

"Bill."

As soon as she said that, Pan Lian ran over and covered her mouth. "Don't call him by his name like that! You must call him Mr. Bill!"

Meng Na made a retching expression. "He is indeed very attractive, but you don't have to be so dramatic. I heard he's married."

Pan Lian said, "it's his freedom to get married! It's my freedom to love him!"

"..."

She didn't expect Bill's fans in China to be so crazy.

It seemed that she really had to thank Pei Xi for her help this time.

However, at the mention of this, she recalled what Pei Huai asked her the other day.

He wanted her to be the spokesperson for the Pei Corporation's electric vehicle.

As far as she knew, most of the car spokespersons were male stars, and the trend in China was to find European and American male stars.

But Pei Huai asked her instead.

Cool?

Su Ji raised her eyebrows.

At the brand launch, as soon as the three of them appeared, the fans who had been waiting for a long time immediately screamed.

The brand launch this time had a futuristic theme. The venue was dark, and the stars on the ceiling seemed to connect to the universe.

The fans all lit up their phones like lightsticks, forming a sea of stars.

Su Ji was quite moved. Although she used to have a lot of fans in the great Shang Dynasty, this was the first time she was loved for her singing and dancing.

After the performance, Pei Xi waited for Su Ji in the audience. "Sister-in-law! You have a phone call from CEO Xu!"

When she went on stage to perform, her phone was in her manager's hands.

"I'll be there immediately!"

As she walked towards Pei Xi, Meng Na and Pan Lian suddenly narrowed their eyes.

What did Pei Xi just call Su Ji?

Sister-in-law?

Su Ji had no idea what just happened. She thanked Pei Xi and picked up the phone.

"Hey mom."

On the other end of the line, Xu Mingzhi simply said, "baby, Ning Lihua's case is about to go to court. I just called Mr. Zhou, the lawyer that was introduced by Pei Huai and there were no problems. Mom just wanted to ask if you would like to appear in court."

Su Ji was an artiste now, so this kind of occasion was quite sensitive.

However, due to the uniqueness of the case...

"Does it make a difference if I appear in court or not?" Su Ji asked.

Xu Mingming replied, "the difference isn't that big. If you appear in court, Ning Lihua might be sentenced to five more years."

Su Ji smiled. "I'll go then."
