

Concubine 191

Chapter 191: A True Expert

Only then did Yang Xiaotao realize that there were other people around her, so she quickly shut up.

Su Ji coughed and grabbed her hand, which was rubbing her stomach, and pulled her to sit beside her. "I see that you are quite free, so I will give you a free calligraphy class."

Yang Xiaotao's face turned red as she was held in her arms!

...

The two of them quickly forgot what had just happened, but Tang Yimo did not.

She returned with a stiff expression. The other two newcomers also noticed that something was wrong.

"What's wrong, Yimo?"

"It's just a broken cup. The director won't scold you. Why are you so dejected?"

Of course, Tang Yichen knew Su Ji. That sister had been very popular recently.

Sometimes, when she posted a video, there would be comments from her fans saying, "I hope that Su Ji also makes a video like this!

She's the future Mrs. CEO?

Her heart that was newly in love was about to be crushed?

She pursed her lips, and her expression made one feel pity for her.

The other two newbies quickly surrounded her.

"Don't cry."

"What happened? Tell us! We will help you!"

Tang Moyi sniffled. "Do you know if Su Ji has a special background? "

1

The two of them looked at each other. They got along well with the rest of the crew and had learned a lot of internal information.

"Not really."

"Yeah, did you offend her?"

Tang Yimo shook her head. "Do you know if she has a backer?"

The two of them looked around and brought her to a place with fewer people.

"We've only heard about this, don't ever go and tell anyone."

“I heard that she’s involved with Blue Whale’s...Manager Ren.”

Tang Yimo’s heart clenched when she heard “Blue Whale”.

However, the moment she heard “Manager Ren”, her mood instantly brightened up.

So it was him!

The two newcomers saw that Tang Yimo suddenly cheered up. They also felt that it was quite strange.

However, it didn’t matter since she was successfully coaxed.

Tang Yimo looked at Su Ji, her expression completely changed.

She twisted her chin and looked at her in disdain.

She didn’t expect Su Ji to seduce the manager!

Besides, the CEO didn’t look like he had a girlfriend at all.

**

Pei Xi was the one who had brought lunch to Su Ji.

Su Ji looked at the boxes of delicious food and blurted out, “blargh ...”

Pei Xi, who was opening the lunch box, paused.

When she first saw the amount of food her brother had prepared for Su Ji, she had her suspicions. Now that she saw Su Ji retching, she was even more certain!

She whispered, “sister-in-law, are you pregnant??”

That smile looked sinister.

“...”

Pei Xi understood her expression and chuckled. “I’m just joking. By the way, I have something important to say. I have to go back to the company in the afternoon, so I won’t be able to accompany you. Bill will be here in a few days...”

**

The other two newbies were in the afternoon scenes.

Plot: Bai Yueguang took leave in the morning because she was pestered by debt collectors.

She heard that her father went bankrupt, the family was in dire straits, and her stepmother ran away with the money.

A huge debt fell on her, but she was no longer afraid.

She brought Xiaomei with her because she was her only friend.

The two of them depended on each other.

In the afternoon, when Xiaomei sent Bai Yueguang to the company, she was ridiculed by her colleagues.

Bai Yueguang's arm had been cut by a debt collector, but she did not want to be late, so she asked Xiaomei to bandage it for her and went to the office.

The first part of the scene was quickly filmed, and the next part was the highlight of the day.

Bai Yueguang and Shen Qianqian's superior, Ms. Feng, was played by one of the newcomers today.

On her first day of work, Ms. Feng was giving her trouble.

She handed a very important project to Bai Yueguang and Shen Qianqian so that they could complete it together.

Then, she secretly sabotaged the project.

Ms. Feng called the two of them to her office and interrogated them. She wanted to push the blame on Bai Yueguang through Shen Qianqian.

This was also the first direct confrontation between the first and second female lead in the film.

Because of sister Phoenix's instigation, there was a misunderstanding between the first and second female lead.

They thought that Ms. Feng was impartial by not giving any special treatment to Bai Yueguang even though she was the daughter of a rich family. Little did she know that Ms. Feng had long known that the Bai family was in dire straits. Furthermore, she and Bai Yueguang's stepmother were good friends.

So Xiaomei had to stand up for her best friend!

For this scene, the three of them would be fighting in the office. A strong confrontation.

The other two's lines were relatively normal, but Bai Yueguang's lines were very long because she had to defend herself. She would also use many technical terms, which sounded like a tongue-twister.

However, it was very important for Su Ji to film this scene well as it would portray the second female lead's character.

When Han Junlei was explaining the scene to them, Su Ji would mention her own ideas once in a while.

For example, when Han Junlei asked her to use both hands to shake Zhou Xuefang while she spoke her lines, Su Ji pointed out, "isn't my left arm injured? If the wound didn't open up in the plot, would it be better to shake her with one hand? "

Han Junlei looked at her, his usually stern eyes revealing a hint of admiration.

Zhou Xuefang looked into the distance with a cold expression.

She had tried Su Ji's lines before, and it was impossible for anyone to finish them all in one shot.

Therefore, Su Ji would definitely embarrass herself later!

Everything was ready.

Su Ji stood at the position Han Junlei had indicated.

Ms. Feng was the first to make trouble. She was full of emotions and made things very difficult, which was very annoying.

Zhou Xuefang defended herself. Then, both of them turned to look at Su Ji.

Following that, it was Su Ji's turn.

Su Ji slowly walked to Ms. Feng's desk and looked at the document. She tapped on it thoughtfully.

A few seconds later, when Su Ji raised her head again, the look in her eyes had changed.

She opened her mouth, and the words that came out of her mouth were not lines at all, but what she was thinking in her heart!

Zhou Xuefang stood opposite her and watched as Su Ji approached her step by step with a powerful aura. The lines that came out of her mouth were perfectly presented in a form that she had never expected.

Zhou Xuefang was dumbfounded.

Su Ji's lines had several paragraphs, each with more than 200 words.

Impossible!

Even if she managed to finish this part, she would definitely forget the next part!

It was impossible for any human to do that!

She stared at Su Ji without avoiding her gaze, and in her heart, she was chanting, "forget your lines! Forget them!"

Perhaps her wish had come true, as Su Ji really stopped.

She just looked at her and didn't say anything.

Zhou Xuefang was overjoyed. She had finally forgotten her lines!

The next second, she heard Ms. Feng's soft reminder. "Su Ji has finished her lines. It's your turn!"

Chapter 192: Falling Into Su Ji's Trap

"What?"

Zhou Xuefang was completely dumbfounded. She couldn't even remember what her lines were.

Ms. Feng sighed.

"Cut!" Han Junlei frowned and came over. "Xuefang! Su Ji finished her lines so well, but it's all wasted because you forgot yours! What's wrong with you? You can't even remember a single line?"

1

This was definitely the first time that Han Junlei had been so fierce to Zhou Xuefang. She could no longer maintain her composure.

The filming was interrupted, and the staff who had just been immersed in Su Ji's performance gradually came back to their senses.

They started discussing.

"Oh my god, I didn't expect Su Ji to be able to remember everything!"

"I was looking at the script just now. Not a single word was wrong, not even the punctuation!!"

"That scene just now could be used as an example! It's a pity that it needed the other actors to do well as well. Xuefang didn't manage to complete hers and now Su Ji needs to do it again"

Listening to the discussions around her, Zhou Xuefang tried to defend herself. "Director Han, I really didn't forget my lines just now. Su Ji spoke too fast and I couldn't continue in time..."

Everyone else was silent when they heard her explanation. Only Tang Yimo stood up and said, "director, Xuefang practiced so many times with me this morning and she hasn't forgotten a single one. Sometimes, it could be someone else's fault too..."

1

Yang Xiaotao could not believe it. What kind of outrageous statement was this?

Was Zhou Xuefang's bad take Su Ji's fault?

Everyone turned to look at Han Junlei. Han Junlei was also in a difficult position. However, in the end, he looked away and said to Su Ji, "could you...give Xuefang a reminder after you finished?"

1

Yang Xiaotao was furious!

It was obvious that he was biased!

Didn't Zhou Xuefang know when she finished?

Su Ji raised her eyebrows slightly. "Okay~"

Zhou Xuefang was very pleased to have Han Junlei on her side.

Everyone got into position and prepared for the second take.

What made Zhou Xuefang even more shocked was that Su Ji did not make a mistake at all!

This proved that the previous incident was not a coincidence. Su Ji was indeed talented.

As for Zhou Xuefang, she had another bad take.

This time, she did it on purpose. She did it in such a way that others would not be able to tell.

After redoing it so many times, her voice had become hoarse.

Zhou Xuefang had nothing to fear. As expected, Han Junlei did not get angry. He only spoke to her on the side.

“Why is there another problem? If this goes on, I will not be able to protect you! Look at Su Ji, she said her lines so perfectly both times!”

“I really didn’t mean to...” Zhou Xuefang said.

“Alright, alright.” Han Junlei quickly looked around. “Don’t do it again!”

Now that he had really taken Zhou Xuefang’s side, there was no way he could let anyone know about their relationship.

Zhou Xuefang smiled obediently. “don’t worry, director. I won’t let anyone know about this.”

Yang Xiaotao paced back and forth a few times, so angry that her lungs were about to explode.

“She did it on purpose! What’s their relationship? Why is he so protective of her?”

Su Ji took a sip of tea to soothe her throat. She seemed to be in a good mood.

“Their relationship...”

At this moment, Tang Yimo appeared out of nowhere and twirled her fingers around the collar of her uniform adorably. “Xiaotao, you’re too biased against Xuefang. It’s not necessarily an actor’s fault when they have a bad take. It could be someone else...”

“???”

Where did this little b * tch come from?

Yang Xiaotao said, “there were only two lines that were wrong. How do you explain that? ”

“It’s very simple,” Tang Yimo said. “Have you ever seen Director Han favor anyone? If Xuefang made a mistake, he’ll definitely scold her. Unless you can prove that they have a special relationship, otherwise...”

Yang Xiaotao was furious. “Otherwise what?”

“Otherwise, Su Ji made a mistake too,” Tang Yimo said.

1

Yang Xiaotao had never seen such a pretentious b*tch before!

How infuriating!

Su Ji’s gaze fell on Tang Yimo and she clicked her tongue.

What a waste of this cute face.

She wanted proof of their relationship?

They had to admit it themselves...

Su Ji's lips curved up. "Xiaotao, can you help me call Xiaoxue over?"

Yang Xiaotao's eyes met hers and she instantly understood something. "I'll go now!"

Tang Yimo shrugged her shoulders nonchalantly.

Not long after, Zhou Xuefang arrived.

She started acting again.

"I'm sorry, Su Ji. It's all my fault. I really didn't do it on purpose. You're so generous, I'm sure you won't stoop to my level, right?" Zhou Xuefang apologized as soon as she arrived.

Su Ji smiled. "I believe you know whether it's on purpose or not."

She lifted her chin at where Director Han was just now. "I think I heard Director Han scolding you just now."

Her voice was neither too loud nor too soft, but everyone around her could hear her. They all looked at Zhou Xuefang with strange looks.

Zhou Xuefang was afraid that the others would misunderstand, so she explained, "he was just trying to help me."

"No," Su Ji said slowly, "I heard him scolding you, and it sounded pretty bad."

The crowd looked at Zhou Xuefang again.

Zhou Xuefang's expression cracked. She bit her lip in embarrassment. "Stop spreading rumors! You didn't even hear it!"

Su Ji crossed her legs leisurely. "Everyone knows that Director Han is very strict. It's normal for him to scold you. Don't be embarrassed."

The people around them started to mutter.

Zhou Xuefang didn't understand why Su Ji was so insistent on slandering her. "Are you crazy? Director Han could scold anyone but me!"

"Do you think you are special? Why can't he scold you?"

Zhou Xuefang was furious. "Because he is my uncle!"

1

As soon as this was said, everyone fell silent.

Tang Yimo's expression froze as well.

1

Zhou Xuefang covered her mouth as she watched Su Ji's lips slowly curl up.

She finally understood.

“Really? Director Han is Zhou Xuefang’s uncle?”

“She admitted it herself!”

“No wonder he was always on her side.”

“How disappointing. I thought he would treat everyone equally, but it turns out that he’s the same...”

2

Chapter 193: I’ll Dump You Now!

Zhou Xuefang looked at Han Junlei apologetically. His expression had never been this bad.

The awkwardness spread throughout the set for quite a while. Han Junlei looked at the sky that was getting dark. “We’ll stop filming for today. Su Ji, go back and rest your throat. We’ll continue filming tomorrow. As for this matter, I’ll give everyone an explanation tomorrow!”

Since Director Han had already said so, the others had to obey. Moreover, after a whole day of high-intensity filming, everyone also hoped that they could wrap up earlier.

...

Yang Xiaotao placed her hand in a hidden place and gave Su Ji thumbs up.

If it wasn’t for Su Ji today, their relationship would have remained a secret!

It turned out that the young miss of the Zhou family enjoyed special privileges.

Su Ji, like everyone else, was looking forward to Director Han’s explanation the next day.

Yang Xiaotao packed her bag. “Su Ji, let’s go together?”

Su Ji looked at the time. It was past 7 o’clock in the evening.

It would be too late to go home now and prepare for the calligraphy class.

“You can go first, I still have something to do.”

Yang Xiaotao was dejected. “Alright~”

After all the crew members left, she was the last one there.

Fortunately, they were filming in an office building today, so it was more convenient to buy things.

She went to the supermarket downstairs to buy some ink and paper.

Ten minutes later, as the sales assistant brought her the four-piece calligraphy set, she scratched her forehead with her knuckles.

The brush was very short, and there was a childish pattern on it.

“Excuse me, is there another one?” Su Ji asked.

The saleswoman’s smile was very friendly. “I’m sorry, we don’t have any more. This is the best quality we have. Why don’t you take a look again?”

“Ok, I’ll take this.”

At least it was cheap.

No matter what kind of brush she used, it would not affect her teaching.

A children’s app and a children’s brush.

Perfect!

At the beginning of the second week’s calligraphy class, 300 students were in the room.

Although, for people like “Sunset Lover” and “Gold Medal Stay-at-home Dad”, they might have asked the butler to help them record it.

Later on, they would watch the replays!

In the Pei Corporation.

Pei Huai was looking at the contract in his hand. Su Ji’s live-stream was on his phone and he would glance at it from time to time.

His eyebrows relaxed.

However, he soon noticed that Su Ji was not at home.

There were two knocks on the door, and Shen Mu came in with the Chinese medicine that had just been heated.

“Boss, your medicine is ready.”

Starting this week, the higher-ups of the corporation realized something.

Their CEO was starting to take care of his body!

Moreover, in order to take the medicine with his meals, he was eating more regularly than before.

In the past, he would always forget to eat when he was busy, but it was different now.

He didn’t care about anything else, but he had to cure this condition as soon as possible!

Shen Mu put down the medicine and saw that the boss was attending Ms. Su’s class. He was afraid of disturbing him and was about to leave.

Pei Huai called out to him.

“How can I help you?”

Pei Huai drank his Chinese medicine slowly. “Find out where Su Ji is filming today.”

The screen of the phone was filled with comments.

[“Did my queen get an office just to teach us?”]

[“So thoughtful!!!”]

[“Wait! Look at the brush in her hands!”]

In the video, Su Ji was holding a brush and was very serious as she wrote on a piece of paper.

As she did so, the cartoon at the end of the pen swayed.

It looked very childish.

[“Is she sponsored?”]

[“The 4-piece brush set costs 15 yuan, I don’t think they can afford our queen!”]

[“There are indeed different ways to insult someone.”]

Zhu Mingzhang was insulted once again!

It turned out that with Su Ji’s calligraphy skills, even if she were to write with a mop dipped in ink, she would still be able to amaze everyone!

At the end of today’s class, the 4-piece brush set had been sold out!

To be honest, Zhu Mingzhang became more impressed with each lesson!

This time, after class, he couldn’t stand it and sent an invitation to Su Ji.

“Master, there’s an exchange meeting at the Calligraphy Association tomorrow. If you’re free, would you like to come? If they can learn from you, their calligraphy skills will definitely improve a lot!”

Su Ji still had to reshoot the scenes that she had not finished today tomorrow morning. She was not sure if she would have time, so she did not make a promise.

[“I’ll let you know~”]

After the livestream ended, Su Ji tidied up the office desk.

Looking out of the window, she realized that the sky had already turned dark.

She was the only one left in the office, and the lights in the other rooms on the same floor had been turned off.

The surroundings were unusually quiet.

Su Ji packed her things and locked the door. The lights in the last office were off.

She walked along the long corridor for a while before the sensor light went out.

She let out a calm “ah”, and the light came back on.

The elevator going downstairs was already in sight. The sudden ringing of the phone was like a thunderclap in the quiet space.

Su Ji looked at the caller ID, and a faint smile appeared on her expressionless face. "Hello."

On the other end of the line, Pei Huai's voice was low and he seemed to be smiling. "It's me."

Of course, Su Ji knew it was him.

Although she didn't want to admit it, the moment she received his call, she felt less lonely.

Su Ji started complaining. "If you want to order more food, I'll dump you now!"

She usually had a good appetite, but today, she was about to puke.

However, after she finished speaking, the other end of the phone fell silent.

Su Ji furrowed her eyebrows.

He was not so fragile, was he?

Was she being too harsh?

As she was deep in thought, the elevator came up from the first floor.

It was not surprising that the security guards patrolled every night.

Su Ji was thinking if she should say something to coax him, but the voice on the other end spoke again.

"The signal is bad,"

"I am sorry."

"Next time, I won't send you food. I'll send you drinks."

There was no anger in his tone.

Su Ji smiled. "We'll talk about it next time."

However, her throat was really dry and thirsty after the scenes and the calligraphy class.

She quickened her pace towards the elevator, wanting to go downstairs to buy a drink.

In the next second, the number on the display outside the elevator showed that it was at her floor and stopped.

"Ding!"

The elevator door opened and Pei Huai stood in the elevator with a few drinks in his hands.

Su Ji smiled. At the moment, the loneliness was completely gone.

Chapter 194: Their Husband is Su Ji!

Pei Huai brought Su Ji back to the car.

The two of them weren't in a hurry to go home, so they drank in the car.

Pei Huai's apology was very sincere.

...

He bought her pearl milk tea and it was still warm.

It was definitely a weapon to fatten someone up.

However, Su Ji was indeed very thirsty and wanted something sweet.

Pei Huai was drinking something else.

Su Ji asked him, "what's that?"

"Black bean juice."

Su Ji understood.

Black bean juice is good for libido.

Ever since Su Ji joined the production team, she had been listening to people talking about romantic scenes every day. She was completely indifferent to them and just wanted to play her role well.

However, at this moment, she thought that it was romantic that the two of them were sitting in the car.

Most importantly, he had a low libido, so she felt at ease.

Su Ji said sincerely, "I will definitely not leave you before you are cured."

1

Pei Huai was touched at first, but after a while, he sensed something was wrong.

"What happens after I'm cured?"

"After that..."

"You're leaving me?" Pei Huai raised his eyebrows and asked bluntly, "then who did I treat it for?"

1

"For yourself of course."

"I don't need it."

"Do I?"

"Only you."

**

The next day, on set.

The actors and actresses were still in their square formation, with Han Junlei and Zhou Xuefang standing at the front.

Han Junlei's expression was as serious as usual. On the other hand, Zhou Xuefang looked extremely haggard. She felt as if she had not slept the entire night.

Han Junlei and the rest of the crew gave a solemn bow. His gaze swept over to Zhou Xuefang. Zhou Xuefang was obviously reluctant, but she still bowed.

Han Junlei continued, "regarding the matter of me hiding my relationship with Zhou Xuefang, at first, I really thought that there was no need to do so. I didn't want to say it because it would only cause misunderstandings. But yesterday, I didn't stick to my principles and protected Zhou Xuefang. I feel very guilty. Today, I'd like to apologize to Su Ji and everyone in the crew. Please keep me in check..."

His tone suddenly became very determined. "From now on, I will be even more strict with Zhou Xuefang! If everyone thinks that I'm not, I'll take the blame and resign!"

Zhou Xuefang's expression was even more bitter than a bitter gourd.

1

She wanted to enjoy her special privileges, but now that everyone in the crew was watching, she would be worse off than everyone else!

The rest of the crew looked at each other. To be honest, Han Junlei's arrival had indeed cured their bad habits. Everyone had a better sense of time and filming was more efficient.

Other than the incident with Zhou Xuefang, Director Han was definitely a very responsible director.

Now that he had issued an order, no one else said anything.

Han Junlei clapped his hands. "Alright, everyone, let's focus and make up for what we didn't finish yesterday!"

During the preparation time, Zhou Xuefang scanned her surroundings.

She felt as if there were countless pairs of eyes staring at her.

Crazy!

Tang Yimo met her eyes and averted her gaze immediately.

Zhou Xuefang furrowed her brows and walked to Tang Yimo's side.

"You should know Director Han very well. Actually, he didn't give me any special privileges at all. He didn't tell anyone before because he didn't want them to treat me differently just because I'm his niece. Who knew that after Su Ji's actions, I've gained a huge disadvantage."

Tang Yimo was indeed a little embarrassed to see her today. However, after hearing her explanation, she felt that it made sense.

It wasn't a big deal in the first place, but after Su Ji's actions, it became serious.

Besides, if Xuefang was really a scheming person, she wouldn't have told her that the man in the photo was the CEO.

1

Just based on this, she was a good friend!

Tang Yimo smiled and took Zhou Xuefang's hand. "Don't worry. I understand."

Zhou Xuefang smiled in relief.

They officially started filming. Su Ji's performance today was even more wonderful than yesterday's.

Maybe it was because she had a good night's rest, or maybe it was the energy from the pearl milk tea.

Yang Xiaotao was dumbfounded. She couldn't help but take a short video and send it to their group chat

[video]

[Tao: "Su Ji's superb acting skills."]

This time, Zhou Xuefang did not dare to play any tricks. She had already felt that her uncle would not have mercy on her.

However, Zhou Xuefang was not like Su Qianrou. She was not someone who was afraid of suffering.

At this point, she had to work hard and show everyone her true strength in the third episode!

However, even if she used all her strength, she could not overpower Su Ji.

No matter where they were, everyone's eyes were on Su Ji.

She was so outstanding, and no one could take their eyes off her.

After the highlight of the third episode was finished, the studio was quiet for a while. Han Junlei was the first to clap, and soon the others followed suit.

Yang Xiaotao's friends had also finished admiring the show.

[Pan Lian: "Su Ji is too awesome! I can't wait to watch this episode!"]

[Meng Na: "She's so handsome."]

More handsome than her.

Everyone chatted in the group for a while before Pan Lian told everyone a piece of good news!

[Pan Lian: "My husband is coming to China soon! It doesn't matter if I have to work on that day or not, I have to pick him up at the airport!"]

However, Meng Na and Yang Xiaotao were obviously indifferent to this good news.

Bill was Pan Lian's husband, not theirs.

Their husband was Su Ji!

Han Junlei heaved a long sigh of relief when the crew finally got the scene they wanted.

In comparison, the negative emotions brought about by Zhou Xuefang were nothing.

Together with the other scriptwriters, he was already looking forward to the plot that would be shot tomorrow!

Tomorrow's scene would continue from today's scene. As the CEO, the male protagonist was going to meet his first love.

Which one would he choose?

The director and scriptwriter were excited just thinking about it!

Let alone the audience.

The shooting went smoother than expected and ended earlier.

Su Ji looked at the time and recalled what her student had told her yesterday.

At the Calligraphy Association.

Those who went were all calligraphy or Chinese painting enthusiasts.

They heard that Pei Qingshen had also joined the Calligraphy Association before, but later found out that the Pipa Association needed him more.

Everyone was competing for him.

Maybe she would meet some interesting people.

Su Ji stretched her legs.

She had time anyway.

Then, let's go and take a look~

Chapter 195: Prince Huai's Face

The Calligraphy Association was huge.

After registering in the main hall, the inside was divided into several halls.

In the corridor, there were parents with their children, and there were also people who looked wealthy and respectable.

...

Su Ji was wearing a cap and a mask, keeping a low profile.

She did not want to reveal her identity.

She was here to take a look and experience what the modern people referred to as a “Calligraphy Association”.

At the same time, she wanted to see if it could give her any inspiration for her next calligraphy class.

The door of the largest hall was tightly shut. Just as Su Ji was about to approach the door, two security guards politely blocked her way. “I’m sorry, miss. This hall has been reserved for today. You can go to the hall next door to watch the exchange.

Su Ji glanced at the crack of the door. “Alright.”

The hall next door was open and it was very lively inside. Half of the people were adults, while the other half were children.

Some were writing calligraphy, some were painting. There were two or three people standing around each table to watch and occasionally give comments.

Although they didn’t know each other, the atmosphere was quite harmonious.

At this moment, a few children’s laughter caught Su Ji’s attention.

“Hahahaha, the ink is spilled!”

“It’s a waste of effort!!”

Looking over, the little boy in the middle was especially cute. His face was fair and he was shy and timid.

It was Si Jingbin.

Su Ji had not seen him for some time.

A nanny stood beside Si Jingbin. She had a large school bag slung over her arm. “Go away, don’t laugh at the little young master!”

Si Jingbin had come to the Calligraphy Association in the morning and it took him more than two hours to finish this painting.

Just as he was about to finish drawing, he accidentally touched the ink bottle beside him.

As a result, a pool of ink was spilled in the middle of the painting, and it spread to the side as well.

Although he was laughing at his friend for being chased away, Si Jingbin sniffed and was obviously on the verge of tears.

Just as Su Ji was about to step forward, a man walked up to Si Jingbin before her.

The man took the paintbrush from Si Jingbin’s hand with a smile on his face. With one hand behind his back, he drew a few strokes on Si Jingbin’s ruined painting.

Si Jingbin’s beautiful eyes widened little by little.

He watched as the pool of ink slowly turned into the shape of a mountain.

When that person finished drawing, Si Jingbin couldn’t help but clap his hands. “You’re amazing!”

Bian Tong laughed. To a child who was twenty years younger than him, his choice of words was rather modest. "You flatter me."

Si Jingbin spread open this painting with his small hands and raised it high to admire it.

However, as he looked at it, his faint brows furrowed again.

He placed the painting back on the table and pointed at the black spots on the side. "These are ugly!"

Bian Tong furrowed his brows, as if he had not thought of how to change these dots.

A second later, Su Ji took the pen again and wrote a poem on the spot where the dots were.

Every dot was covered by a word.

This time, the ink turned into a mountain, and the dotted part was covered with words.

It was originally a child's immature painting, but it instantly became a masterpiece.

The children who had laughed at him before were now biting their fingers and looking at him in a daze.

The nanny beside widened her eyes.

No wonder Mr. Si asked her to bring the young master here.

There were so many cultured people in this place!

Si Jingbin looked up and was about to thank the lady, but he recognized Su Ji through the hat and mask. "It's you, beautiful lady!"

He was so happy that he raised his arms and hugged Su Ji!

Bian Tong was tall, so he could only see the hat on Su Ji's head from this angle.

However, he could still recognize Su Ji from the bracelet on her wrist.

He raised his eyebrows in surprise. "Ms. Su?"

Su Ji looked at him and lifted the brim of her hat slightly. She greeted him in a gentlemanly manner, "Mr. Luo."

1

Bian Tong was still in China because of Ning Lihua's case, but the case had already been closed. He had a lot of free time, and went around every day, taking on a few jade carving jobs.

Si Jingbin hugged Su Ji and she patted his head.

Si Jingbin's small lips were a faint pinkish-purple color, a sign of a weak heart.

Su Ji asked the nanny behind him, "do you have the all-purpose medicine that I gave you?"

The nanny did not recognize Su Ji, but she knew that the young master knew her. She replied respectfully, "I have it with me wherever I go. Don't worry, miss."

This was the new nanny that Si Ke had hired.

Including the nanny who had been injured in the car accident, this was the third one they hired.

Si Ke was especially concerned about Si Jingbin's health and was very picky about the nanny. If she did anything wrong, she would be fired.

Su Ji nodded and touched Si Jingbin's small face.

Bian Tong and Su Ji accompanied Si Jingbin for a while.

Although Si Jingbin didn't know Bian Tong, he liked him because he had just helped him.

Su Ji looked at the hall next door and happened to see a woman looking in their direction.

She looked friendly and seemed to know what's happening, so Su Ji asked her, "excuse me, who booked the largest hall next door? "

"It's been booked by a group of rich old ladies from our Calligraphy Association. They are all old ladies from the wealthy families in our city. They never hang out with us, so we can't even think about joining their group. I heard that there's a new member in their group today. They're holding a welcome party for her!"

To these rich people, the Calligraphy Association's exchange was also a social gathering for the rich.

These old ladies had money and time, so they liked to do these things.

However, Su Ji was allergic to old ladies, so she lost interest when she heard that.

After staying for a while, Su Ji realized that Bian Tong was very familiar with the styles of calligraphy and painting of each dynasty.

Just as Pan Lian had said, Bian Tong was an extremely knowledgeable person.

Su Ji had always been curious about a question. Since she had bumped into him today, she wanted to ask him, "Mr. Luo, you seem to know the history of the Shang Dynasty very well. You also know about Prince Huai and his lover. Then, do you know what he looked like?"

1

She was really curious!

Prince Huai was the most beautiful man in history, even in the Shang Dynasty. That was why he would wear a mask on every battlefield.

Bian Tong's lips curved into a deep smile. "Of course!"

Su Ji immediately stuffed the brush into his hands, her eyes bright. "Then, can you draw it for me?"

The corner of Bian Tong's mouth twitched, and his arrogance disappeared in an instant. "Ms. Su, I...can't draw."

"You do, I saw the mountain you drew for Binbin just now. It was so vivid and realistic."

“ ... ”

Who asked him to show off!

“But I don’t have paper...”

Si Jingbin added, “I have a lot of them!”

“ ... ”

Bian Tong looked at the paper that was spread out in front of him, but he was frozen.

How was he supposed to draw this?

1

Chapter 196: The Greatest Honor

Su Ji and Si Jingbin looked at him expectantly at the same time.

Bian Tong’s back was completely drenched.

Su Ji was extremely patient. “Mr. Luo, take your time. We are not in a hurry.”

...

Si Jingbin said, “draw slowly! There’s no hurry!”

Seeing that he could not avoid it, Bian Tong had no choice but to do it.

...

...

He drew a silver crown. Su Ji pursed her lips.

It was indeed the crown of a prince from the great Shang. Bian Tong was really something.

After the silhouette was drawn, Bian Tong drew his features..

Deep eyes, high nose bridge, and thin lips.

Su Ji studied every part very carefully, but when all the facial features were combined together...

Su Ji frowned.

Even Si Jingbin could see it.

“You’re drawing the handsome Mr. Pei Huai!”

1

Su Ji cast a questioning look at Bian Tong. “Do you really know what Prince Huai looked like?”

Bian Tong choked. "They do look similar. Haven't you heard of the saying, 'good-looking people all look the same, but ugly people are distinct'."

Su Ji's eyebrows were tightly knitted together.

Bian Tong was about to throw the painting away. "Forget it. I'm not good at this."

"No," Su Ji took it away first. "It's a pretty good drawing."

She smiled.

This was the first time she had seen her boyfriend dressed in the clothes of the Shang Dynasty.

It was quite pleasing to the eye.

"As long as you like it," Bian Tong replied.

Bian Tong was careful not to stand too close to Su Ji, because he valued his life.

But even so, he was still targeted by the woman from before.

In fact, she was also a matchmaker.

After she finished talking to Su Ji, she had been observing the two of them.

Just now, when Bian Tong was drawing, he looked particularly nervous, his face red and he was sweating. That woman had misunderstood.

Seeing that there was no one else around them, she walked towards them.

He looked at Bian Tong, then at Su Ji, and asked mysteriously, "young man, is she your...?"

Just by looking at the shape of his mouth, one could tell what he was about to say. Bian Tong quickly denied it in agitation, and at the same time stood a meter away from Su Ji. "No, no, no! This is my sister-in-law!"

However, the woman was not easily convinced. "Well, that doesn't stop one from..."

Bian Tong almost choked. "If you continue, I'll sue you for spreading misinformation!"

The woman's mouth twitched. "Why can't young people take a joke these days?"

She rolled her eyes at him and left.

Bian Tong broke out in a cold sweat, "was that a joke?"

If Pei Huai heard this, it would be a life and death situation!

Did they know how long Pei Huai had been waiting for Ms. Su?

In fact, even Bian Tong was a little worried that when Pei Huai recovered his memories, his possessiveness of Ms. Su would be so strong that it would be perverted!

Su Ji carefully rolled the painting into her bag. She would show it to her boyfriend when she had the chance.

“Then I’m leaving now.”

Si Jingbin was reluctant to part with her. “Goodbye, beautiful lady!”

Bian Tong heaved a long sigh of relief. “Take care, Ms. Su.”

Su Ji went to the bathroom first.

However, at this moment, the door of the largest hall next door opened.

The old ladies exchanged pleasantries with each other.

They were obviously fake friends.

The lady who was surrounded by the old ladies of many prestigious families in A City was the new member who joined the Calligraphy Association.

Even though she was a new member, she was treated like a star.

She wasn’t a calligraphy expert and knew little about calligraphy and Chinese painting.

However, her granddaughter was the successor of the Huajin script style, Su Ji!

Zhang Guihua was grinning from ear to ear. She had just been flattered by everyone in the hall.

1

you’re an osmanthus flower, and I’m a lotus flower. We’re both flowers. What a fate! In the future, we’ll be the best old sisters.

“Both our names have a type of flower in it, look how fated we are. We’ll be good friends in the future!”

Zhang Guihua walked with her hand in hand. “Don’t worry, Ailian. I promise to help you what you just asked me.”

Lu Ailian said, “thank you, that’s great...”

She had always liked calligraphy and Chinese paintings. Seeing that Su Ji was very popular on the internet now, she really wanted to ask Su Ji to take her uneducated and incompetent grandson as a student.

She asked Zhu Mingzhang before, but she was rejected.

The reason was that Su Ji had strict requirements when it came to accepting students, and the recruitment had already ended.

Lu Ailian did not believe it at that time. She had already accepted 300 students, what’s one more?

Then, she met Zhang Guihua by chance.

And she agreed to it immediately!

Lu Ailian continued, "Su Ji is so popular now, it must be expensive to attend her class, right? Don't worry, I'll definitely compensate you generously!"

Zhang Guihua couldn't believe what she just heard. "What are you talking about? You're giving her face by sending your grandson to her! She should be happy!"

Zhang Guihua knew Lu Ailian. One or two hundred years back, the Zhang and Lu families were related to the royal family.

To be able to make friends with such a family was definitely the greatest honor.

She didn't expect her granddaughter to perform so well recently.

She thought that her calligraphy class was just to please the crowd, but she did not expect that old Mrs. Lu would take a fancy to her!

A great honor!

Zhang Guihua could not hide the smug expression on her face.

Lu Ailian covered her mouth and laughed. She looked at Zhang Guihua and said, "well, since you said so, thank you!"

She liked people like Zhang Guihua.

The other old ladies at the side also flattered her.

"Old Madam Zhang is really amazing to have such an amazing granddaughter!"

"I heard that the TV series she's been acting in is also very popular!!"

"I wish my grandson were like that!"

Zhang Guihua patted the hand of the person who spoke last. "Don't say that. A grandson is definitely different from a granddaughter. Even if they don't know anything, they can carry on the family line!"

The few of them nodded in agreement.

When they were almost done chatting, the group of people prepared to leave.

However, she had only taken a few steps when Zhang Guihua saw a familiar figure coming out of the bathroom at the end of the corridor.

Zhang Guihua was overjoyed.

That's great!

All her efforts were worth it!

She could ask Su Ji to accept her friend's grandson as a student immediately!

Su Ji had just finished washing her hands. She turned around and accidentally splashed water on Zhang Guihua's face.

She did not know that she was behind her.

How unlucky.

...

Zhang Guihua's expression turned ugly for a moment, but she quickly suppressed it. She said softly, "Su Ji, I have misunderstood you. I thought that the Pei family was targeting us because they were angry with you. I was a little harsh with my words. Please forgive me."

After she finished "apologizing", she snorted arrogantly.

She had given her enough face by apologizing to her in such a humble manner, right?

Without waiting for Su Ji's reply, a proud look appeared on her face. She turned around and said to Lu Ailian and the others, "what a coincidence, my granddaughter is here!"

She couldn't wait to show off.

Su Ji looked around and put on her mask and hat again.

Lu Ailian and the others immediately followed Zhang Guihua's line of sight.

The tall and thin girl in casual clothes, even with a mask and a hat, still looked sophisticated.

She stood at the end of the corridor and glanced at them.

She was expressionless, but she looked intimidating

As expected of a new calligraphy master that was sought after by the entire internet!

The crowd quickly gathered around.

"Oh my, this is the first time I've seen you in person. You're so beautiful!"

"Does your granddaughter have a boyfriend?"

Zhang Guihua was very proud. She said to Su Ji as if it was a matter of course, "Su Ji, go with Old Madam Lu later so see her grandson. Her grandson wants to learn calligraphy, so take him as your student. You must prioritize his teaching in the future!"

1

Su Ji looked at Zhang Guihua and chuckled.

Zhang Guihua thought that she agreed and said proudly, "this is a great opportunity. You must seize it!"

"Who do you think you are?" Su Ji suddenly scoffed.

"I..." Zhang Guihua's smug smile suddenly froze. She frowned. "What do you mean?"

"I mean what I said."

Everyone looked at each other in shock.

Was she really Zhang Guihua's granddaughter?

Could it be that Zhang Guihua herself insisted on acknowledging her as her granddaughter?

Why didn't they seem close at all?

Zhang Guihua felt the burning gazes around her, and her face instantly fell.

She lowered her voice and said, "Su Ji! Didn't I just apologize to you?"

Su Ji slowly smiled. "Do I have to accept your apology?"

Zhang Guihua was so angry that she gritted her teeth. "I don't care if you accept it or not. You must take Old Madam Lu's grandson as your student! This is a great honor, how can you be so insensible?"

Su Ji was unmoved. "I have three hundred people in my class, no more, no less."

Zhang Guihua said, "then you tutor him privately!"

"I don't have time," Su Ji replied.

"You!" Zhang Guihua exclaimed.

Lu Ailian looked at Zhang Guihua, who was blocking her way, and she gradually became irritated.

Didn't that mean she wanted more money?

She pushed Zhang Guihua away and approached Su Ji with a smile. "Don't worry, Su Ji. I will pay you generously."

Su Ji replied, "I'm sorry. It's not about that."

Lu Ailian asked, "then what is it? "

Su Ji pointed at Zhang Guihua. "It's because of her."

1

After Su Ji left, the group of old ladies who felt superior fell into a strange silence.

Everyone took a step back quietly and put some distance between them and Zhang Guihua.

Zhang Guihua was embarrassed to death.

She didn't expect Su Ji to not give her any face even though she had apologized so sincerely to her!

1

The way Lu Ailian looked at her was completely different from before, even with disgust.

Zhang Guihua tried to salvage their relationship. "Well, as you said, both our names have a type of flower in it, so we are fated to meet..."

However, Lu Ailian sneered, “but your flower grows up on a tree, and mine grows in the water, so we’re not the same kind of people at all.”

After she finished speaking, she turned around and left!

Zhang Guihua was so angry that she held her forehead. She took out her phone and wanted to call Su Qianrou.

But the call didn’t go through.

Su Qianrou had been calling Song Heng more than ten times, but no one picked up.

1

Ever since she found out about Su Ji and CEO Pei’s relationship, Su Qianrou had been trying to contact Song Heng.

She wanted to ask him if he knew about this.

Song Heng had also disappeared for quite some time.

Just as she was about to call him again, Song Heng sent her a message.

[“Text me if you have something to say. Don’t keep calling me.”]

[“Song Heng, why have you been ignoring me recently? Do you know that my sister is with CEO Pei?!”]

[“I don’t want to talk about this anymore. Do you have anything else to say?”]

Su Qianrou bit her lip, not knowing why Song Heng was suddenly so cold to her.

[“Song Heng, are you going to abandon me just because I don’t look good anymore?” The doctor said that I would be fine in a year at most! Song Heng, I really like you. Can you not leave me?”]

After this message was sent, there was no reply for a while.

Su Qianrou knew that song Heng was touched.

1

About five minutes later, a long reply came.

Su qQanrou read it seriously, but when she finished, she was dumbfounded...

[“I don’t care about your looks. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have gone to see you that day! Let me tell you the truth. I’m in a tough spot. I’ve been shut out by Blue Whale, and it’s hard for me to get a job in the future. They even asked me to compensate them with a large sum of money. If you’re willing to help me now, I’ll treat you well when I get my comeback!”

1

After the first message was sent, Song Heng thought about it and decided to add another message.

[“Then, you’ll be Mrs. Song!”]

However, just as he clicked “send,” the system prompted him with a familiar message.

[“You have been blocked.”]

1

“...”

This was not the first time he had received this message, so he understood what it meant.

Song Heng looked up at the sky and smiled bitterly.

He suddenly thought of the only girl who had treated him sincerely.

Everything was too late!

**

As it entered December, the temperature in A City dropped significantly.

At night, Xu Mingzhi was working out in the yard in her sportswear.

The child with a cat from last time greeted her again.

1

However, this time, he had another cat.

1

Xu Mingzhi replied with a smile on her face, but she was already thinking about moving.

First, it was her perverted neighbor, then it was the mysterious little boy. She could not let her daughter live in such an environment.

1

She was about to go back to her room to talk to her daughter about it when Wei Wei called.

Wei Wei saw something trending on the Internet and thought she should tell her boss.

Then, she could decide if she wanted to tell Ms. Su.

Xu Mingzhi’s delicate eyebrows furrowed slightly. “Don’t you always deal with this?”

Wei Wei said, “this isn’t about the Xu Corporation, but the Pei Corporation.”

Xu Mingzhi was confused.

Wei Wei said, “it’s a scandal involving Mr. Pei!”

Chapter 198: Answer It, It might be the CEO!

Su Ji was chatting with her friends in the room.

She took a picture of Pei Huai in an ancient costume and sent it to the group.

It immediately caused a heated discussion.

...

[Pan Lian: "CEO Pei looks so good in an ancient costume!"]

[Meng Na: "He's quite handsome."]

More handsome than her.

[Tao: "Other people cosplay as doctors and teachers, but Su Ji's boyfriend cosplays as a gloomy prince. Amazing!"]

Su Ji also thought it was great.

While she was chatting with the group, Xu Mingzhi suddenly knocked on the door and entered.

She quickly rolled up the painting and stuffed it into the cabinet, then sat back at the desk.

Xu Mingzhi was too anxious to notice. She sat down beside her. "Baby, look at this."

Su Ji took the phone.

#CEO Pei's girlfriend#

She clicked into the post and saw a screenshot of Tang Yimo's post.

It happened to be the one she had secretly taken of Pei Huai in front of the milk tea shop.

The person who forwarded this screenshot obviously had the intention to spread rumors. They even posted a picture of Pei Huai's back during an interview for comparison.

It proved that he was indeed Pei Huai.

As for Tang Yimo's photo, Pei Huai was queuing in front of her when she was taking it.

From that angle, it looked as if a boyfriend was helping his girlfriend buy milk tea, while Tang Yimo was secretly taking photos of her boyfriend from the girlfriend's perspective.

1

As there was only a back view, Pei Huai's fans were very rational.

["It's obvious that she just bumped into him while lining up for the milk tea."]

["That's right. If this is considered a scandal, then if I kiss a photo of him, is it going to be explosive news?"]

["Ignore this. Next time, unless you have your feet on his shoulders, don't say that you're his girlfriend!"]

["I remember you, the one who wants to put her feet on the CEO's shoulders!!!"]

The people who were stirring up trouble were all Tang Yimo's die-hard fans.

["Although it's only a back view, did you see the milk tea shop ahead?"]

["Why would CEO Pei go to a milk tea shop if he doesn't have a girlfriend???"]

["Could it be that he likes milk tea???"]

Su Ji, on the other hand, was calm. She believed that Pei Huai was a man of virtue.

Moreover, he was still suffering from a low testosterone level.

She just didn't expect Pei Huai to have so many fans online.

"He went to buy milk tea for us that day."

Hearing this, Xu Mingzhi looked disappointed.

Damn it, she thought she could get a hold of him!

1

"Forget it then. It's probably a self-directed play by some small female star."

Xu Mingzhi was a decisive person.

If the guy was good, keep him.

Otherwise, leave him.

**

The next day, Su Ji went to the set as usual.

Today's scene was mainly between Si Jingchuan and Zhou Xuefang. She only needed to take part in the beginning scene.

That was when the CEO entered the office and found out that the two new people who were about to be punished were his first and new love.

When Su Ji saw Si Jingchuan, he was holding an ink bottle and drinking something.

Si Jingchuan smiled at her. His smile was bright and handsome, but his teeth were black. "Boss, you don't have to buy me any more cuttlejuice in the future. I'll buy them myself!"

Su Ji looked like she was in agony. "What is that?"

Si Jingchuan replied, "the cuttlefish juice you gave me before. However, the one I bought is not as pure as yours. It's like a thin soup."

"..."

Too many things had happened recently, and she wanted some peace and quiet.

Two days ago, Huang Huayu had something to do in his hometown and had taken a few days off.

He just returned today.

He also took a lot of local specialties from his hometown and distributed them to everyone.

Among them were some fresh fruits.

Everyone was given one, and Huang Huayu gave Su Ji the biggest peach.

Su Ji washed it and took another bite. Her eyes lit up. "It's very sweet."

Si Jingchuan got a pear. At first, he was a little hesitant, but after taking a look at Su Ji, he decided to eat it.

After eating it, he was also surprised. "It's really sweet, Assistant Director Huang. The fruits these days are not as sweet anymore!"

"My hometown is not famous for anything but farming!"

When the fruit was handed to Zhou Xuefang, she looked at the dirt particles on the fruit and declined.

"I heard that you're new here. I'll give you the biggest apple!" Huang Huayu said as he handed a big apple to Tang Yimo.

Tang Yimo smiled awkwardly. "I'm sorry. I don't really like apples."

She wasn't herself today.

She seemed to be troubled by something.

Zhou Xuefang asked with concern, "are you worried about the trending post?"

Tang Yimo did not expect her to know about it. She quickly scanned her surroundings and pulled her aside. "I really didn't post that screenshot. I wonder who did it. It's really too much. If the CEO sees it, he'll know that I..."

Zhou Xuefang's lips curved into a smile. "Some people are shameless. But don't be nervous. You didn't get anything in that photo. Other people might misunderstand, but that's their own business. This isn't considered negative news. The CEO won't be angry about it. Besides, he might have an impression of you because of this news. You're so cute and beautiful. Who knows, he might even take a liking to you."

1

Tang Yimo thought about her last words seriously. She was not sure. "Will he?"

However, at this moment, an unknown number called her cell phone.

Tang Yimo was so frightened that she froze. Zhou Xuefang tried to calm her down. "Hurry up and answer the call. It might be the CEO calling!"

A man's voice came from the other end of the phone, but it was different from the one from the other day.

"Miss Tang Yimo, please come to the CEO's assistant's office immediately."

The CEO's assistant?

She said carefully, "but I still have a show to film now."

The voice on the other end was calm. "Just tell the director that it's the CEO's request."

"O-okay."

Zhou Xuefang was quite excited. "Who is it? Who is it?"

Tang Yimo bit her lip shyly. "You're right. It's the CEO's assistant..."

"Assistant Shen is CEO Pei's personal assistant! I've seen him once. It must be that the CEO wants to see you!"

If Tang Yimo really managed to hook up with the CEO, Zhou Xuefang would tell her that she was the one who shared the screenshot.

"Hurry up and go. Don't let CEO Pei wait too long." She thought for a while and said, "I'll go to you after I'm done filming!"

Tang Moyi laughed. "I'll be back by the time you're done, right?"

"You might be gone for a long time," Zhou Xuefang said.

1

Tang Yimo was extremely nervous!

Chapter 199: At His Peak

Tang Yimo hurriedly went to Han Junlei to ask for permission to leave.

When she said "it's the CEO's request", her tone was inexplicably arrogant.

Han Junlei hated this kind of leave of absence the most. Normally, he would not approve it, but when he heard that it was a request from the CEO, he could not refuse.

...

"Then you must come back in the afternoon for the shoot!"

Tang Yimo recalled what Zhou Xuefang had said, so she said shyly, "if I can make it in time, I'll definitely come back."

"?"

Forget it, Tang Yimo's scene was not important. It would not affect anything even if they were to film tomorrow.

Su Ji came out of the changing room as soon as Tang Yimo left.

Si Jingchuan said, “boss, you look really good as an office lady! I heard that the outfit you shot in yesterday was especially wonderful. I’ll wait for the Saturday broadcast to properly appreciate it.”

He had to admit that his boss’ acting skills had improved very quickly in the past few months.

She was such a talented actress!

Su Ji looked at the CEO’s suit that Si Jingchuan was wearing. “You’re not bad yourself.”

Si Jingchuan obviously felt that his boss’ praise was not sincere.

Please, when he changed into the suit and came out, the staff almost went crazy!

He turned his head to the side and looked at the person who was still excited.

“Holy shit! Quickly, look!”

“Oh my god, why do I feel like Jingchuan is....”

“He’s so cool!”

Si Jingchuan usually wore casual clothes such as a T-shirt and jeans. Today, he had suddenly changed into a formal suit with a neat tie.

He was indeed very handsome, but in Su Ji’s heart, the bar was higher.

In comparison, he was just “not bad”.

Huang Huayu was very attentive. No one in the crew had noticed anything during the previous two days of filming, but he noticed it as soon as he came today.

He asked, “Su Ji, where did you get this bracelet? Can you take it off?”

Su Ji was embarrassed. “I didn’t think of it before. I really can’t take it off.”

Han Junlei came over when he heard that. “What if we break it? Was it expensive? We will reimburse you.”

She didn’t wear it in the first few episodes, so they were worried that the audience would think that she was out of character if she suddenly wore a bracelet at the beginning of this episode.

Su Ji told the truth. “I think it’s more than 60 million.”

Everyone fell into dead silence.

Huang Huayu coughed. “Actually, it’s fine. After all, the Bai family used to be a rich family. This is also in line with the character’s background.”

Han Junlei agreed. “Maybe this bracelet can be used as a foreshadowing to the character’s past!”

The others all nodded.

In the first scene, Gu Shen entered Ms. Feng’s office and saw Bai Yueguang and Shen Qianqian.

This shot was mainly a close-up of Si Jingchuan’s eyes.

The first time.

Han Junlei: "Cut!"

"Jingchuan, the look in your eyes was on point when you saw Bai Yueguang, but when you looked at Shen Qianqian, there were no emotions."

Well, he really didn't feel anything for her.

1

"Sorry, director. Let's go again."

He was a famous actor. Even if he had no feelings, he must pretend like he did.

The second time.

Initially, Si Jingchuan was in character. However, Zhou Xuefang acted on her own accord. When he looked at her, she deliberately gave him an affectionate look, causing Si Jingchuan to be out of character.

Han Junlei said, "Cut! it still doesn't work."

Si Jingchuan was speechless. "Zhou Xuefang, can you not make any expressions when I look at you later? I'm easily distracted."

There was a faint laughter around them.

Zhou Xifang's face turned cold. "Okay."

She was clearly trying to help him!

The third time.

After the performance, Han Junlei and Huang Huayu sat in front of the monitor screen and watched the replay.

"What do you think?" Han Junlei asked.

I think...it's not bad," Huang Huayu said.

The two of them nodded and announced that it's okay.

But this time, it was Si Jingchuan's turn to be dissatisfied.

He knew that this scene was connected to the exciting scenes in which the "boss" would be in. If it was just okay, her scenes would be affected

Besides, he didn't want to have a mediocre performance in front of the boss.

He was a perfectionist.

Si Jingchuan requested, "director, why don't you let me try again? Just the close-up shot of my eyes."

Han Junlei admired his attitude. That was how art should be.

“Okay, don’t worry. Take your time to calm down.” He waved at Zhou Xuefang in the distance. “Xuefang, could you...”

“I don’t need her.” Without waiting for Zhou Xuefang’s reply, Si Jingchuan stopped her. “Director, since the others don’t need to be on camera, I want Su Ji to help me.”

“Ah?” Han Junlei had no reason to refuse him. “That’s fine too. However, don’t mix up her role.”

Si Jingchuan replied, “don’t worry.”

Huang Huayu glanced at Zhou Xuefang.

He just heard that Director Han and Zhou Xuefang were relatives when he came here today.

Jingchuan’s request wasn’t very harmful, but it was extremely insulting.

Su Ji was quite loyal. She had just laid down on the recliner, but when she heard that her little brother needed her, she came immediately.

The expression on Zhou Xuefang’s face could only be described as “ugly”.

She had never hoped that CEO Pei would fall for Tang Yimo as much as she did at the moment, even if he was just messing with her!

Only then would Blue Whale stop supporting Su Ji!

“Action!”

Everyone held their breath as the camera focused on Si Jingchuan’s eyes.

Zhou Xuefang wanted to see what Su Ji would do.

However, she soon realized that Su Ji didn’t do anything at all. She just stood there.

She tilted her head and looked at Si Jingchuan.

However, in the camera, Si Jingchuan’s gaze was simply amazing!

It was as if he had returned to his peak when filming the blockbuster “First Love at 18”!

It was the perfect portrayal of Gu Shen’s love for the female lead, Shen Qianqian!

“Very good!” Han Junlei could not be more satisfied.

He decided to use this version!

Si Jingchuan nudged Su Ji’s shoulder and said, “did you see that, boss? This is my true strength.”

Su Ji nodded. “It was indeed not bad.”

She had learned something

He couldn’t do it with Zhou Xuefang, but she could do it with Su Ji so easily.

Zhou Xuefang felt insulted.

However, on second thought, the audience would not know that he was looking at Su Ji!

Seeing that everyone was talking about Si Jingchuan's performance just now, Zhou Xuefang unwillingly took out her phone.

"Yimo, have you arrived?"

Coincidentally, Tang Yimo had just gotten out of the car and looked up at the towering Pei Corporation building.

She took a deep breath. "Yes, I'm going in now!"

Chapter 200: Torn Apart

Tang Yimo reached the top floor, Shen Mu was waiting in the corridor.

When he saw her, he had his usual polite expression on his face. "Ms. Tang, please follow me."

Tang Yimo clenched her bag tightly.

...

"Mr. Shen, are you bringing me to the CEO's office?"

Shen Mu did not answer her.

However, he stopped when he was still a distance away from the CEO's office.

Tang Yimo looked up and saw that the sign said "CEO's Personal Assistant".

She looked a little disappointed.

When they entered the office, Shen Mu and Tang Yimo sat opposite each other with a coffee table in between them.

Shen Mu went straight to the point. "Ms. Tang, please take out your phone and open your WeChat."

Tang Yimo hesitated for a moment before she did as she was told.

As she handed it to Shen Mu, she explained herself, "I really didn't post it on the Internet. I only posted it on my WeChat moments. Please help me explain it to the CEO."

Shen Mu said, "he doesn't need to listen to your explanation."

"?"

The next second, she saw Shen Mu take her phone and click on it a few times. He deleted her post that had been liked by hundreds of friends.

"Oh."

Shen Mu said, "the CEO asked me to remind you that even if it's just his back, there is still a privacy concern. He hopes that you will not make such a mistake."

Then, he smiled. "Please open your TikTok."

Before Tang Yimo could figure out what had happened, she opened for him.

"Is this your main account?"

Tang Moyi nodded.

Shen Mu said, "there's nothing inappropriate, right? "

"No, no, feel free to take a look! I really didn't post the photo!"

"It doesn't matter who did it, but you took the photo, right?" Shen Mu's tone was normal. He took the phone and clicked on the plus sign below the profile.

The photos that popped up were all selfies of Tang Yimo.

Shen Mu randomly picked one, opened it, and showed it to Tang Yimo. "Ms. Tang, do you think this photo is good?"

Tang Yimo was confused. She glanced at it and said, "I guess it's not bad... "

Shen Mu nodded and started typing quickly.

["I hereby clarify that I have never had any private contact with CEO Pei, and that he does not know me.

I secretly took the photo.

I'm the one who's smitten. I posted CEO Pei's photo on my WeChat moments without his permission.

I apologize for the inconvenience caused to CEO Pei. The post has been deleted. I hope that everyone will stop spreading rumors."]

1

After clicking "post", Shen Mu paid to push this post to the top and returned the phone to Tang Yimo.

"Ms. Tang, the CEO values his reputation a lot. I hope you can take this as a warning."

Tang Yimo looked down at the post that "she" had just posted and her face turned pale.

In fact, Shen Mu could have called her to do these things. The reason why he asked her to come here was that the CEO was paranoid.

Shen Mu had to delete the post personally.

Besides, this was also a warning.

The CEO didn't think it was cute to play these little tricks on him.

Tang Yimo bit her lip tightly and her tears were about to fall.

This was completely different from what she had imagined!

She thought that this would be the start of something beautiful, but...

1

Moreover, he was so harsh!

It was as if it was embarrassing to have a scandal with her!

She was clearly so cute!

In a short while, a new reply popped up on her TikTok account.

["Oh no, I already came up with a ship name!"]

["Forget it. Since she's clarified it, let's leave it."]

["A friendly reminder, you seem to have forgotten to edit the photo in this post!"]

Seeing that she was about to cry, Shen Mu felt bad, so he took out a gift from the CEO in advance. "By the way, Ms. Tang, this is a gift from the CEO."

Upon hearing this, Tang Yimo's tears that were about to fall immediately stopped. "What is it?"

The moment she raised her head, a heavy book was placed in her hands.

She lowered her head to look at the title of the book.

"Africa Welcomes You"

1

"What does this mean?"

"Blue Whale also has a project in Africa. If you don't take care of your social media next time, you will know what this book means."

"..."

Zhou Xuefang had finished filming all her scenes in the morning and had taken a taxi to the Pei Corporation during her lunch break.

She wanted to see how Tang Yimo was doing.

After the front desk staff confirmed that Tang Yimo was indeed on the top floor, they allowed Zhou Xuefang to go up and asked her to come down in ten minutes.

This was the first time that Zhou Xuefang had the honor of being able to reach the top floor.

There was a sense of pride in her expression.

As soon as she came out of the elevator, she saw Tang Yimo coming out of the assistant's office.

She was carrying a bag in one hand and a book in the other. She was putting the book into her bag.

Zhou Xuefang ran up to her with a smile. "How is it? This book..."

Tang Yimo stuffed the book into her bag immediately.

Zhou Xuefang looked at her and her expression froze for a moment. "What's wrong?"

Tang Yimo told Zhou Xuefang about what had just happened.

After a long while, she was unable to come up with any words of comfort.

Tang Yimo sobbed, her tears falling like a broken string of pearls. She was extremely sad.

Zhou Xuefang had no choice but to say, "Assistant Shen is always like this. He's cold to everyone. He's not targeting you, so don't..."

Before she could finish speaking, she saw Shen Mu coming out of the office and greeting someone with great enthusiasm, "Ms. Su! You're finally here!"

He was beaming with joy.

Tang Yimo and Zhou Xuefang were stunned.

Why was Su Ji here?

Su Ji walked out of the elevator. Her figure was beautiful, and her steps were firm and confident.

When she passed by Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo, her eyes only moved slightly, but she did not stop walking and did not even look back.

Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo were completely ignored.

Su Ji greeted Shen Mu, and he brought her to the CEO's office.

"She must have offended the CEO," Zhou Xuefang whispered. "She's here to be lectured."

The door to the CEO's office opened, and an arm in a suit pulled Su Ji in.

It was a little too fast for Zhou Xuefang and the others to see clearly.

Shen Mu closed the door, and then looked at the two people who were still in the corridor.

"Please leave as soon as possible. You can't stay here."

The two of them went into the elevator with their faces covered in dust.

"Why did Su Ji enter the CEO's office, and not the assistant's?" Tang Yimo asked.

"Because she made a more serious mistake than you did," Zhou Xuefang replied.

1

She didn't care at all.

However, Tang Yimo looked back suspiciously.

Is that so?
