

Concubine 221

Chapter 221 He Doesn't Want This Identity Anymore

The two messages were sent at the same time, and the chat stopped.

Even Su Ji was quiet.

...

“.” was a woman.

And she liked women.

How exciting!

[ “f * ck! I’m excited!!!” ]

[ “She must be in the entertainment industry! Does she have long or short hair?” ]

The fans were in a heated discussion. A minute later, the system prompted, “.” has left the room.”

In Room 606, Pei Huai’s face was as dark as coal as he looked at his phone.

He wanted to tell Su Ji the truth, but things were getting more and more complicated.

The room he was in was especially quiet. Coincidentally, he heard Su Ji next door cough and say into the phone, “stop commenting. She is shy.”

What the f * ck should he be shy about?

After the stream ended, Pei Huai knocked on her door.

He was carrying a few boxes of things.

He went to buy them after he left the class.

Su Ji looked at the time. It was past 10 o’clock.

She didn’t want to let him in, but there was a fragrant smell coming from the boxes.

Then, she heard the door of someone’s room turn in the corridor. Su Ji pulled Pei Huai into the room.

Just as she closed the door, Tang Yimo opened the door to Room 601 and stuck her head out.

She looked warily in the direction of Room 606.

She wanted to create a chance encounter, but she didn’t find the right opportunity.

Pei Huai placed the food he had bought on the table and opened them

Country T was famous for its seafood.

However, as a germaphobe, he would not buy any raw seafood for Su Ji.

He had bought Su Ji something that was cooked.

It was from a very clean restaurant. It was Su Ji's favorite spicy and stir-fried seafood.

Su Ji's eyes lit up.

The class had just ended, and delicious food was delivered to her.

Who could say no to this?

Pei Huai didn't eat. He didn't have much of an appetite, so he was working on his laptop at the side.

When Su Ji was processing the crab, a small piece of crab meat flew onto Pei Huai's screen.

"..."

"I'm sorry." Su Ji wiped it off with a tissue, but there was a small smudge on the screen.

This could kill a germaphobe.

However, Pei Huai didn't seem to be angry at all. He took out a professional cleaning tool and cleaned it up without a sound. He said gently, "it's okay. If it's hard to eat, eat something else first. I'll help you after I'm done with this contract."

Su Ji glanced at his screen. "Won't your work be affected if you're here?"

Pei Huai's fingers were tapping on the keyboard, his back straight and his thoughts unaffected. "It's alright, I can handle it here."

Although he could do that, it was not as convenient as being in the company.

He had gone through so much trouble just to celebrate his birthday with her.

Su Ji's expression was serious. It seemed like she had the responsibility to give him an unforgettable birthday night!

However, she took a look at the time.

It was close to 12am.

"...don't you think you should go back now?"

Although the people from the great Shang were open-minded, it was still quite late.

The last time the two of them shared a bed at home, it was because she was afraid that her mother would find out. Besides, Pei Huai was...cured.

Pei Huai stopped what he was doing and smirked. He did not get up immediately, but asked her instead, "do you know how people date these days? "

Su Ji frowned. What did he mean?

It was as if she wasn't someone from this era.

Although, she really wasn't.

Pei Huai closed his laptop and turned around to look at her. "Su Ji, you've read that book. What do you think a couple should do in a hotel room?"

When he leaned over, Su Ji subconsciously swallowed.

She had to admit that she thought about it.

Pei Huai replied, "since I sent you food after your stream ended, I want a reward."

"What reward?" Su Ji's gaze was fixed on his Adam's apple, and she could smell his familiar scent.

However, in the next second, Su Ji suddenly noticed something.

"Wait." She shifted her gaze and met Pei Huai's eyes.

Pei Huai asked, "what?"

Su Ji raised her eyebrows. "How did you know when the stream ended? Today's livestream time has changed, I only informed my students."

Pei Huai's expression froze for a moment.

He had been stumped before.

He said too much.

Su Ji pressed her face against his. "Are you one of my 300 students?"

Pei Huai denied it almost reflexively. "No."

He felt that his life was in danger.

"Then how did you know?" Su Ji asked.

Pei Huai's IQ of 188 was not for show. "I heard from grandpa. Isn't he your student?"

Su Ji narrowed her eyes.

Pei Huai picked up his laptop and stood up. "Rest now, I'm leaving."

Before today, he was ready to confess.

But now, things had become complicated and he didn't want this identity anymore.

Su Ji looked at the door that was closing quickly.

Suspicious.

It was too suspicious!

If she couldn't figure this out, she wouldn't have been able to hold power back then.

She went through her 300 students in her mind.

Except for ".", everyone was suspicious!

**

The next morning, the crew gathered.

Everyone realized that Su Ji looked even more beautiful.

Other people's faces would swell if they ate late at night, but Su Ji looked amazing!

The other three imperial concubines who were on the same level as Su Ji in history books probably did not even dare to imagine that Su Ji's looks could surpass them by so much!

Han Junlei led the crew members into the car and headed to the filming location.

On the way there, Su Ji happened to be in the same car as Si Jingchuan.

Su Ji looked out of the window with her forehead in her hand. She turned around and saw Si Jingchuan looking at her.

She thought that he was going to ask about the medicine. "The medicine I made for you can't pass security. You won't be able to drink it for the next few days."

The security personnel would not let her through with that bottle of suspicious-looking thick black liquid.

"Ah?" Si Jingchuan scratched his eyebrows and looked away. "Oh, it's just a few days. It's fine."

Su Ji tilted her head slightly.

So he was not thinking about the medicine?

However, Su Ji did have something she wanted to ask him. "Do you know if there's any special place here to celebrate someone's birthday?"

"That depends on whether it's a man or a woman."

"Is there a difference?" Su Ji asked.

"Of course." Si Jingchuan smiled. "Boss, are you going to celebrate a man's birthday? "

"Yes," Su Ji replied honestly.

Si Jingchuan smiled mysteriously. "Then, there's indeed a good place..."

Chapter 222 Master Pei, the Guest Star

Su Ji's eyes lit up. "Tell me!"

Si Jingchuan was only teasing her, but she took it seriously.

...

"Boss...that place is...different. Why don't you take him somewhere else?"

Su Ji just wanted to give Pei Huai a birthday that he would never forget.

Of course, the more special it was, the better!

The more he said this, the more Su Ji wanted to know. "Why are you hesitating? Just tell me, how different is it?"

Cold sweat seeped out of Si Jingchuan's forehead. "Actually...it's a theater."

"What's so special about a theater?" Su Ji was a little disappointed.

Si Jingchuan replied, "the theater isn't special, but the performance is."

Su Ji asked again, "is it exciting? "

Si Jingchuan really didn't know how to describe it. "It's not something I'd not forget."

Su Ji slapped her thigh. "That's the one!"

On the night of his birthday, she would bring him to watch an unforgettable performance.

Si Jingchuan panicked. "No, no. You can't go there."

"You must have gone. If you have gone, why can't I?"

Si Jingchuan was silent for two seconds. "Actually, I didn't go. It's my friend who went..."

Su Ji sighed, not understanding. "Just send me the address."

"Um..."

"You dare to defy the boss?" Su Ji asked.

"..."

**

The scenes that would be filmed in Country T were Su Ji's specialty.

The production team had contacted a few local actors to participate in the scenes.

At one end of the long conference table, the CEO, Gu Shen, was in a suit. He had brought Bai Yueguang and Shen Qianqian along for the meeting.

Perhaps there was some misunderstanding with the local agencies, but when everyone arrived at the scene and the actors sat down at the negotiation table, they realized that the local actors looked like gangsters!

All of them were in black suits, chewing betel nuts and smoking cigars, and the scars on their faces were real!

Han Junlei: "..."

Huang Huayu: "..."

Zhou Xuefang was so scared that her legs went soft.

She hid behind Si Jingchuan while Si Jingchuan hid behind Su Ji.

Tang Yimo, Ms. Feng, and the rest of the people who were watching were not doing any better.

Only Su Ji's expression remained calm, but she also felt that the actors in front of her were odd.

Huang Huayu immediately called the agency.

However, they replied confidently, "Director Huang, I looked for the actors according to the character profile you mentioned. Didn't you say that the client's father works in a shady industry? Look at the scar on his eye, doesn't he fit the profile?"

"Like my ass!" Huang Huayu was anxious and immediately brought up the National quintessence.

In the movie, Gu Shen and the others were indeed here to negotiate with a boss who worked in a shady industry.

However, this character, Nicha Sonpashan, had already cleared his name.

It was just filming, so of course he had to add some thrilling elements.

It would also help develop the relationship plot between Gu Shen, Bai Yueguang and Shen Qianqian.

However, the scene now looked like they were dealing with the mafia!

The actors in front of him looked like they were going to pull out their knives and stab them at any time!

Especially the actor who was going to play the role of the boss, Nicha Sonpashan. He was just a hooligan at best, and did not have the aura of a boss at all!

They wanted an actor who looked like a cold-hearted and ruthless CEO, not a gangster!

Han Junlei asked them to spit out the betel nuts and put out their cigars. He had already practiced with them for a few minutes, but something was still not right.

Those who played the subordinates could pass.

He looked at the time in frustration and said to Huang Huayu, "ask them to send someone who can play the role of the boss here!"

Huang Huayu nodded and quickly conveyed Han Junlei's message on the phone.

However, they replied, "the new actor will arrive in the afternoon at the earliest. Is that okay?"

"Of course not! Huang Huayu replied.

This time, they had limited time. A new episode of "The Billions Stars" had to be aired every weekend and it could not be delayed.

Not even an hour could be wasted, let alone half a day.

Everyone in the crew was quite anxious since this happened on the first day of filming.

"Then we don't have any other solution..."

Huang Huayu slammed his phone on the table.

The crew instantly fell into a dead silence.

He had to find someone new immediately.

Zhou Xuefang said, "we're in an office building right now. Why don't we look for someone here?"

Han Junlei nodded.

He pointed at a few staff members and said, "go around the building and look for someone who is tall enough and has a strong aura."

"Yes, boss."

Si Jingchuan tried to be practical. "These people are probably very busy. Even if we find them, they won't be able to help us."

"Do you have a better idea?" Han Junlei asked.

He was quite fierce. Si Jingchuan's mouth twitched as he shrugged.

It seemed that this was the only way now.

Seeing that everyone was busy, Su Ji looked for a person's contact on WeChat

She had studied the script before and knew what the director wanted.

[ "Are you busy? Where are you now?" ]

He might be busy, and if he was far away, he couldn't help either.

As she was thinking about this, she received a reply two seconds later.

"No, miss me?"

"Look down."

Pei Huai had planned to have lunch with her in the afternoon. He was afraid that she would not be able to rest for long due to her tight filming schedule, so he had been working in the open-air cafe below their office building.

How "coincidental".

Su Ji glanced at the window.

[ "Do me a favor?" ]

Pei Huai agreed first, then asked, "sure, what favor?"

Su Ji's fingers quickly tapped on the keyboard.

[ "We need a temporary actor, can you come up and make a guest appearance?" ]

Chapter 223 The Real CEO

Su Ji thought Pei Huai was very serious when he was working.

After hearing the details, he might not want to help

...

However, Pei Huai said, "alright, I'll go up now."

Su Ji thanked him and added a reminder:

[ "Don't forget to pretend to be passing by..." ]

They were filming in the most luxurious office building in the area, and the crew had rented one of the largest meeting rooms.

There were many real business people going in and out of this place.

It was reasonable for CEO Pei to be in this building when he came to Country T on a business trip.

About five minutes later, Han Junlei's eyes were burning with anxiety. He stood at the door of the conference room and looked out, waiting for the staff to come back.

However, the few people who passed by their meeting room were either fat or bald.

At this moment, the elevator dinged, and a tall figure came into view.

It was impossible to miss him.

Han Junlei was stunned. "CEO Pei? What are you doing here?"

In the next second, his eyes widened as if he had found his savior.

He took a step forward and said with hope in his eyes, "CEO Pei, I'm the director of The Billion Stars, Han Junlei. We happen to be filming here today. Are you busy now? We need a character who's a CEO like you. We can finish the shoot in half an hour at most, but we really can't find anyone right now. Can you help us out?"

Han Junlei looked at Pei Huai nervously after he finished speaking, afraid that he would be rejected.

However, Pei Huai nodded casually. "Alright, let's do it."

Han Junlei was speechless.

He agreed?

Was it that easy?

Who said that CEO Pei was cold?

Han Junlei was overjoyed. He called back all the staff members.

When he returned to the meeting room, his expression was the complete opposite as before.

"Look who I found!"

After he finished speaking, he turned to the side.

Pei Huai walked in.

In the conference room, everyone froze for about ten seconds.

Huang Huayu could not describe his joy at the moment. "CEO Pei? What are you doing here? What a blessing!"

The other staff members were also extremely surprised.

Was there anything more interesting than their own CEO guest-starring as the boss?

Even Zhou Xuefang, who knew that CEO Pei was here, covered her mouth and took a long time to come to her senses.

Tang Yimo thought that he was very suitable for this role, but she had mixed feelings.

Now that CEO Pei had appeared, wouldn't everyone know that he was here?

Everyone would probably find out that he was staying in Room 606.

Tang Yimo was even more anxious now. She no longer had an advantage over the others.

She looked at Su Ji.

If she could seduce Manager Ren, she would definitely want to seduce CEO Pei.

Si Jingchuan didn't look surprised at all.

In fact, when the flight attendant had said that a gentleman had upgraded his boss' seat, he guessed that it was most likely CEO Pei.

Si Jingchuan politely greeted CEO Pei, who had saved his brother's life.

By the time they came back to their senses, everyone was fighting to greet him. Huang Huayu glanced at Su Ji, who was sitting on the chair, and his eyes were almost twitching. "Su Ji, why aren't you greeting the big boss?"

Su Yi was silent for a moment before she stood up and greeted him. "Hello, CEO Pei."

Pei Huai only nodded in response to everyone's greetings. When Su Ji finished speaking, he smiled and looked at her. "Hello."

The other people's gazes shifted to Su Ji.

Among these people, only Si Jingchuan knew about their relationship.

However, it was only for a few seconds, mainly because the filming schedule was tight. Since they found a substitute, Han Junlei quickly started to prepare.

Nicha Sonpashan's role basically had no lines. He relied on his gaze, expression, and aura to deliver his lines. The negotiation work was given to his assistant.

Pei Huai didn't even need to change his clothes. He was wearing his original suit and black shirt, as the outfit on set was far worse than the one Pei Huai was wearing.

Han Junlei only added a small prop on his shirt and asked the stylist to help him tidy up his short hair. He did not even put on any light makeup or touch up.

Han Junlei asked the camera to take a close-up shot of Pei Huai. On the monitor screen, the man's magnified face was sharp and clear. The contours of his face were extremely defined.

He was definitely the most handsome man Director Han had ever seen.

It was such a pity that he wasn't an actor.

However, looking at it from another perspective, if he were to use his time acting, it would be even more of a pity if he made less money!

After all the work was done, Pei Huai sat down. The few actors from Country T sat beside him.

He slowly adjusted his tie with one hand. The moment Han Junlei shouted "action", he looked up. His eyes were cold and indifferent...

Holy shit!

There was no need to act at all!

He looked like he was looking at a pile of trash!

On camera, Pei Huai was a fearsome and dangerous figure.

As for the person who was originally going to play the role of Nicha Sonpashan, he finally knew why he had been replaced!

Pei Huai was sitting opposite Si Jingchuan. Huang Huayu was so excited that he asked the camera crew to do a close up shot.

In the camera, even Han Junlei could not tell if Pei Huai was acting or not.

Because even his coughs were on point.

When it came to acting as a CEO, many actors' first reaction was to have a poker face.

But could they really play the role of a CEO with just a poker face?

Obviously not.

For example, Pei Huai was expressionless at this moment, but even the slight movement of his eyebrows exuded a sense of oppression.

The chemistry between Si Jingchuan and Pei Huai, who were acting opposite each other, was also a surprise.

Previously, Si Jingchuan had given off a rather gentle vibe. Han Junlei was afraid that he wouldn't be able to handle Pei Huai's aura. However, when facing Pei Huai, he instantly changed.

When he met Pei Huai's eyes, the tension between the two big bosses was simply amazing.

Su Ji had a few lines, and her performance was good as usual, but the light in her eyes was brighter than usual.

Other than the class with Mr. Hao Gou, this was the first time she was acting in front of Pei Huai.

When she spoke, Pei Huai's gaze was fixed on her, revealing a hint of playfulness.

Han Junlei thought it was perfect. In fact, he even had a new idea.

Chapter 224 Master Pei is Jealous

After the final shoot, Han Junlei and Huang Huayu watched the replay a few times.

Huang Huayu was a straightforward person.

...

"Director Han, your niece's acting seems to be a little awkward."

Han Junlei felt embarrassed, but it was true.

When Zhou Xuefang was speaking to Pei Huai, she was supposed to be loud and assertive. However, she sounded like she was trying to please him. It felt like she was not Gu Shen's employee, but someone from Nicha's.

On the other hand, Si Jingchuan and Su Ji did not have such problems at all.

As an actor, it was really embarrassing to be so easily distracted.

Han Junlei did not say anything, but he seemed to have made a decision in his heart.

"Director Han, do you think we should start over?" Huang Huayu asked.

Han Junlei sighed. "CEO Pei's time is precious. We can't waste his time because of her...."

Pei Huai completed his mission.

Han Junlei approached Pei Huai very courteously. "CEO Pei, all of us are having dinner tonight by the beach. If you're not busy, would you like to join us?"

Huang Huayu was stunned.

Were they supposed to have dinner tonight?

However, since Director Han had said so, he must have his reasons.

Besides, who didn't want to have a meal with CEO Pei?

Hence, the staff members quickly agreed.

"CEO Pei, come join us!"

"Yeah. It would be a boost to our morale."

In the end, Si Jingchuan's persuasion was the most convincing. He raised his chin at Pei Huai and Su Ji and said pointedly, "come on, CEO Pei. All of us will be there."

Pei Huai's gaze fell on Su Ji. "Alright, send me the time and place."

Su Ji touched the tip of her nose, coughed, and looked away.

**

Because of Pei Huai's appearance in the morning, the staff in the afternoon seemed to be on steroids and filming went unusually smoothly.

At 7pm, everyone arrived at a big restaurant by the sea.

A lot of tourists came here to eat seafood by the sea.

There were many Chinese here, so the waiters could speak Chinese.

In China, they couldn't eat out openly, but it was different in Country T.

Therefore, the entire crew was especially excited for today's dinner.

After they arrived, Pei Huai arrived shortly after.

This was the first time the staff had the honor of eating at the same table as CEO Pei. They were so enthusiastic that they immediately surrounded Pei Huai.

Han Junlei and Huang Huayu sat on the left and right of Pei Huai respectively.

Pei Huai was not able to sit with Su Ji.

Su Ji was sitting diagonally to his left. Beside her were Si Jingchuan and Ms. Feng.

With much difficulty, Tang Yimo managed to get the seat directly opposite Pei Huai. However, from the moment she sat down, Pei Huai never looked in her direction. Even if his neck was cramped, he would not turn to her.

Pei Huai still remembered Su Ji's words on the plane. It sounded like she was jealous.

As a top-notch boyfriend, Pei Huai would not even spare Tang Yimo a glance.

The waiter looked at the table full of handsome men and beautiful women and swallowed hard. His attitude was obviously much more enthusiastic. "Can everyone eat spicy food?"

When everyone looked at each other, two people answered the most readily.

Pei Huai: "Yes."

Su Ji: "Yes."

Almost at the same time.

In the next second, everyone's gazes shifted between the two of them again, but no one thought too much about it.

There were only two possible answers to the question anyway.

Yes or no.

It must have been a coincidence that the two of them gave the same answer.

Han Junlei had arranged for this dinner because he had something to discuss with Pei Huai.

Previously, on camera, he had seen the way Pei Huai looked at Su Ji, which had given him inspiration.

A love triangle like Gu Shen, Bai Yueguang, and Shen Qianqian needed a catalyst.

Therefore, he wanted to add a scene where Nicha expressed his admiration for Bai Yueguang.

He explained very politely, “don’t worry, CEO Pei. It won’t be anything too exaggerated. You just need to express your admiration for Bai Yuuguang before she leaves Country T. The main thing is to capture Gu Shen’s jealous gaze.”

Pei Huai could express his admiration for Su Ji easily.

He could express more than that!

Pei Huai replied, “if it doesn’t take too long, that’s fine.”

Han Junlei really loved CEO Pei.

This level of cooperation was rare.

CEP Pei must also be a person who appreciated the art.

“Don’t worry, CEO Pei. We have limited time anyway. We’ll shoot whenever you’re free in the next two days. It depends on your time.”

Zhou Xuefang glanced at Su Ji and laughed coldly in her heart.

How lucky.

She could actually make CEO Pei say that he admired her.

Meanwhile, the moment Tang Yimo sat down, she paid close attention to Pei Huai’s every move.

She realized that although CEO Pei said that he could eat spicy food, he had not touched the spicy dishes at all.

She wondered if it was because the food here didn’t suit his taste.

Furthermore, CEO Pei refused to look at her. She had put on two hours of cure, innocent makeup for the dinner party tonight.

She couldn’t miss this rare opportunity to talk to CEO Pei. She looked at the small mirror to check her makeup. Then, she said in a sweet voice, “CEO Pei, I’m really sorry about the scandal last time...”

Si Jingchuan nudged Su Ji and said, “boss, someone is trying to seduce your boyfriend.”

Su Ji looked over.

Pei Huai didn't give her any face at all. He slowly glanced at Han Junlei. "Director Han, please control your actors."

"Yes, of course," Han Junlei replied.

He glared at Tang Yimo sternly.

Tang Yimo wanted to use this to talk to Pei Huai, but she had not expected to be humiliated.

Zhou Xuefang gave her a look of encouragement, and Tang Yimo mustered up her courage again. "CEO Pei, I saw that your birthday is in December. Which day is it exactly? Will you tell us?"

Pei Huai didn't look at her. He looked directly at Huang Huayu and replied in a cold tone, "no."

He wouldn't tell anyone his birthday.

He only wanted Su Ji to spend his birthday with him.

The others didn't need to know.

Huang Huayu met CEO Pei's gaze and was inexplicably shocked. He frowned and chided Tang Yimo. "Don't pry into the CEO's private affairs."

Tang Yimo looked wronged.

Si Jingchuan then muttered to Su Ji, "boss, look. Is CEO Pei's neck stiff? He's been moving left and right but not straight."

Su Ji raised her eyes and looked at Pei Huai. She could not help but smile when she saw that he had obviously blocked all signals from Tang Yimo and was not giving her any face.

This person was really strange.

Si Jingchuan was stunned when he saw her smile.

The boss looked really good when she smiled!

The place was crowded and lively, and they were talking loudly and noisily. Si Jingchuan could only whisper into her ear when he spoke to her. "Boss, you said you're celebrating a man's birthday. Is he CEO Pei?"

Su Ji nodded.

It was already Tuesday. Once midnight passed, it would be Pei Huai's birthday.

She leaned over to Si Jingchuan's ear and said, "I'll be leaving in a while. Help me distract him..."

Opposite them, Pei Huai's gaze swept over the two of them whispering to each other and he frowned slightly.

Chapter 225 The Birthday Present

Later on, Su Ji found an excuse to leave first, and Si Jingchuan did his best to hold Pei Huai back.

However, he soon realized that Pei Huai was not interested in eating or drinking. It was very difficult to talk to him, and there was an awkward silence.

...

After Su Ji's departure, Pei Huai seemed to have really turned into Nicha Songpashan.

He could tell that Su Ji asked Si Jingchuan to hold him back.

Therefore, although he didn't show any interest in Si Jingchuan's conversation, he didn't leave early.

He was unhappy, but he would give his girlfriend some space.

Just like that, CEO Pei was very approachable in the eyes of the staff. They also thought that he empathized with the employees.

He stayed with them until 11 p.m. before returning to the hotel.

When they returned to the hotel, the staff knew that he was the one staying in Room 606.

Someone teased Ms. Feng, "now, do you still dare to complain that someone is staying in Room 606?"

Ms. Feng nervously glared at the man and lowered her voice. "Don't talk nonsense. When did I complain? Are you trying to get me killed?"

Pei Huai wasn't interested. He nodded slightly and glanced at Su Ji's tightly shut door before swiping his card to return to his room.

He thought that Su Ji had already gone to bed, but when he came out of the shower, he heard the sound of a card being swiped in the room next door.

He raised his wrist to look at the time.

23:42.

Where did she go so late at night?

Pei Huai frowned.

He tied his bathrobe and walked to the door. He opened the door and wanted to ask where she went.

However, he almost crashed into a figure.

Su Ji happened to be carrying something into his room.

Fortunately, the two of them were agile, so they didn't bump into each other.

Pei Huai lowered his eyes and saw that she was holding a small paper plate in her hand.

There was a flat pastry on it, and two candles were on top of it.

Birthday cake?

He took a closer look.

No, it was a banana prata, folded into a square.

Su Ji smiled. "I couldn't get a cake, this looks almost the same. Is that okay?"

The soundproofing here was not good, and there was a lot of noise in the corridor.

Pei Huai pulled her into his room and closed the door with his other hand, locking it from the inside.

"Did you leave early to buy a pancake?"

Su Ji's expression was serious. "Call it a birthday cake. "

Pei Huai took the paper tray and his eyes softened. "I like this birthday cake very much."

Su Ji checked how people celebrated their birthdays in the modern era and pulled Pei Huai to sit at the table.

Pei Huai was still wearing a bathrobe. The water droplets on the side of his neck flowed down his collarbone and into the cotton bathrobe.

The cake was placed between the two of them.

Pei Huai took out his phone and took several pictures of this very special birthday cake.

Those from the Pei Corporation would never have thought that one day, their CEO would also take photos of food before eating.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that there were more than twenty photos of that cake. It was taken with and without the lights on, with and without the candles, and with different lighting and angles.

Everything was perfect, except for the two numbered candles on the cake.

"30"

It was very heart-wrenching.

Later, his phone ran out of battery and he shut it down.

Su Ji wanted to sing him a birthday song, but Pei Huai told her to wait.

Then, he took out a recording pen from the drawer. "Go on, sing."

"..."

He was lucky it was his birthday.

After singing the birthday song, Pei Huai closed his eyes and made a wish.

It was Su Ji's first time celebrating someone's birthday in the modern era. She was also very excited as she sat opposite him and hosted the event.

Pei Huai's face and eyes were like a perfect piece of art.

When he opened his eyes, Su Ji asked curiously, "what wish did you make? "

Pei Huai said, "I wish that we..."

We?

Su Ji had a feeling that he's going to say something mushy, so she covered his mouth. "I almost forgot. You can't say it aloud, otherwise it won't come true."

Pei Huai chuckled and kissed her finger before letting it go. "What should we do next?"

He never cared about birthdays.

However, at the moment, he was very interested in celebrating his birthday.

Su Ji thought for a moment. "It's time to blow out the candles and cut the cake."

Neither of them looked at the time, but the moment Pei Huai blew out the candle, the clock on his mobile phone showed 00:00.

Without a knife, Su Ji pulled out the candle and tore the cake in half.

He gave the bigger half to Pei Huai.

This birthday was already very unforgettable, but as he was with Su Ji, Pei Huai wanted more.

Pei Huai asked, "do you have a gift for me?"

Su Ji thought that the birthday cake was a gift, but Pei Huai's words clearly meant otherwise.

She didn't want to disappoint him on his birthday.

The corner of Su Ji's mouth twitched, "yes..."

However, Pei Huai's eyes flickered. "Really? What is it?"

Seeing his anticipation, Su Ji could no longer say "my love for you."

"It's in my room. Wait for me. I'll go get it."

Then, she unlocked the door and ran back to her room.

She closed the door and looked around the room.

What could she give Pei Huai as a gift?

She glanced at the disposable slippers, bed sheets, toothbrush, and towel.

Pei Huai probably had all of these things in his room.

She opened her suitcase, revealing her clothes, shoes, and anti-mosquito spray. However, when she looked to the side, she saw a scroll stuffed at the side of the suitcase.

It was Pei Huai's portrait!

That's it!

She had to bear the pain and part with it!

She picked up the painting and went next door.

This time, she didn't enter but stood at the door.

The painting was placed in Pei Huai's hands, and she said with a slightly guilty tone, "this is your birthday present."

For some reason, Pei Huai felt a profound and strange feeling the moment he touched the painting.

He suppressed that feeling and looked at Su Ji lovingly. "Did you paint it?"

"I...got someone to draw it!"

She turned around and returned to her room. "I'll take you to a nice place tomorrow night!"

Pei Huai chuckled.

Back in the room, he sat back on the bed.

He looked at the scroll in his hand.

There was a birthday cake, a birthday present, and a mysterious plan for tomorrow.

This was the best birthday Pei Huai had ever celebrated.

That feeling was getting stronger by the day.

He had been looking for Su Ji for a long time.

It must have begun in the great Shang dynasty.

But who was he then?

And who was Su Ji?

As Pei Huai thought of this, his gaze fell on the birthday present.

He opened the painting and his pupils dilated.

In the painting, he was dressed in an ancient costume.

Chapter 226 Blessing the Couple

Pei Huai's strange dreams had always been from a first-person perspective.

He had never seen what he looked like in his dreams.

...

However, when he saw this painting, he was almost certain that this was how he looked in his dreams.

It felt very real.

The moment he saw the painting, his heart ached.

His phone lit up.

He received a few birthday messages.

More than half of them came from his business partners.

And some from his family.

Among all the well wishes, he saw the one that Su Ji had just sent.

[ “Do you like the present?” ]

[ “I like it very much.” ]

Then, he took two pictures of the painting and posted it on his Wechat moments for the first time since he registered for an account.

[ “A birthday present from my girlfriend.” ]

In an instant, everyone in his contact list exploded.

In just a few minutes, there were 99+ likes and comments.

[ Pei Qingshen: “Aiya, Su Ji is so cute. Even her gift is so cute.” ]

[ Pei Xi: “That’s my sister-in-law! Pei Huai finally posted for the first time!” ]

[ Bill: “Happy birthday!” ]

[ Pei Song: “People change when they are in love.” ]

There were also other CEOs reacting to the post.

[ “What’s going on? Is this really CEO Pei?” ]

[ “You have a girlfriend? Is it the one named Su Ji?” ]

[ “From the gifts, it can be seen that Ms. Su Ji is very affectionate.” ]

[ “The 30-carat diamond is in the process of being polished. We are waiting for good news.” ]

A few other people wished him “a happy marriage”.

At this moment, there was only one person who was staring at Pei Huai’s post with six black dots above his head.

That was Bian Tong!

He was the one who drew them at the Calligraphy Association the other day!

Did Ms. Su give his painting to Pei Huai as a birthday gift?

Should he tell him?

Of course not!

**

That night, Huang Huayu released an announcement on the official website of The Billion Stars.

There would be a mysterious guest in the next episode.

It immediately set off a heated discussion among the fans.

Some guessed that it was a new star while some guessed that it was a veteran actor or actress who had retired.

However, no one expected it to be CEO Pei.

After all, whenever they thought of him, their minds would be filled with the image of him sitting solemnly in the meeting room and issuing decisions.

It was hard to associate him with a guest actor in a series.

It would definitely be a peak of the viewership ratings for this episode!

Pei Huai had a two-hour video conference with the company's top management in the morning.

A table full of senior executives in black suits was looking at the big screen with a serious expression.

Everyone kept their mouths still and gossiped in private.

"I heard that the boss posted late last night."

"I really want to see it. Unfortunately, I don't have anyone who's friends with him on WeChat."

"I don't either. I heard it from someone else. I heard that Ms. Su celebrated his birthday with him."

No wonder he is in such a good mood today. I forgot to bring the meeting materials. He didn't even scold me just now and even told me not to do it again.

While the meeting was in progress, Pei Huai's cell phone rang.

He glanced at it and picked it up.

"Could it be Ms. Su?"

"From his expression, it doesn't seem like it."

"What a pity. I really want to see what the boss looks like when he answers Ms. Su's phone call."

The call was from Han Junlei, who was asking if Pei Huai had time to shoot a scene in the morning.

Their filming location was very close to the airport, which was close to Pei Huai. However, he wanted to make sure he could make it.

Pei Huai glanced at the time. "Alright, I'll be there in half an hour."

The higher-ups looked at each other.

Just as they were feeling puzzled, they heard the CEO say, "send me the lines first. I'll read them on the way."

There were lines?

What was the boss doing?

Han Junlei responded and sent the message over very quickly.

Soon, a second call came.

This time, when Pei Huai picked up the phone, he only said “hello” in a low and soft voice.

The executives’ hearts instantly clenched!

“There’s no mistake! It’s definitely Ms. Su this time!”

“I didn’t know that he could have such a gentle voice?”

“I also want to fall in love, what should I do?”

It was Pei Huai’s birthday today, so Su Ji was very affectionate.

She was probably asking him when he would be coming to the set and if he wanted to have lunch with her.

From the moment Pei Huai picked up the phone to the end of the call, his voice was lowered by several decibels.

After hanging up the phone, Pei Huai faced the camera and instantly regained his composure.

**

At the airport, Bai Yueguang dragged her luggage and was about to leave when Nicha Sonpashan appeared, accompanied by a group of his men.

More than 20 men in black stood in two rows.

They all lowered their heads and nodded.

Nicha Sonpashan was a dangerous person, but the fact that he was attracted to Bai Yueguang’s unique aura was very much in line with his character.

In this segment, Pei Huai’s performance once again amazed the staff.

It was neither excessive nor perfunctory, and the amount of affection was just right.

The camera panned to Si Jingchuan.

“Cut!” Han Junlei apologized to Pei Huai first, then ran to Si Jingchuan and yelled at him, “what’s with that expression? You should be jealous! But you looked like you’re giving your blessings to a pair of newlyweds! If I didn’t say cut, you would be so touched that you would cry!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

Pei Huai said in a low voice, “thank you for your blessings.”

“...”

The corner of his eyes twitched. He had been so engrossed in watching that he had forgotten that he was still in the frame.

He scratched his head and said, "I'm sorry, I won't do it again."

The people around them started to discuss.

"Why do I feel like they look good together?"

"Yeah, yeah! I have the same feeling. Are we too deep into the character?"

There was an endless discussion around them. Not far away, Tang Yimo's nails were almost digging into her palms.

Chapter 227 An Unforgettable Experience

But obviously, she didn't know that she was the extra leg.

Ms. Feng also joined in the discussion. Tang Yimo's chest heaved up and down for a moment. She felt that she should protect CEO Pei's reputation.

...

"Ms. Feng, aren't you afraid that he might hear you?"

"He used his time to help us, but you guys insulted him by saying that he and Su Ji are a good match."

Everyone fell silent for a moment.

Ms. Feng said, "we are not serious. Yimo, you must not tell him."

"Yes, yes, we definitely won't talk about it anymore."

The few of them scratched their heads.

Although it was wrong to talk about CEO Pei behind his back...

However, it wouldn't be an insult to say that he and Su Ji were a good match, right?

Why did Yimo sound so serious?

Han Junlei was ready for the second shoot.

Tang Yimo walked to the side with a sullen expression.

Last night at the dinner party, she had failed repeatedly, and today, she had to listen to this.

CEO Pei had been cold to her long enough. It was time for a change.

If she were to be with CEO Pei, that would be the cutest difference in height!

She thought they were compatible!

Zhou Xuefang walked to her side and looked at Pei Huai and Su Ji. "Yimo, why don't you hurry up? I'm afraid that your Su Ji will be the one who gets him first."

That was exactly what Tang Yimo was thinking.

She was most afraid of this!

It wasn't because Su Ji was beautiful, but because she was lucky to be staying in Room 605.

"Actually, I don't have anything against Su Ji, but between the two of you, I would definitely hope that CEO Pei chooses you."

Zhou Xuefang was cold and arrogant since she entered the industry. She had no friends and no one to support her. She used to be close to Meng Na. However, they had a falling out after they jumped ship.

It should be a good thing that her uncle was directing The Billions Stars, but Su Ji had ruined it. Now, her uncle was completely impartial, and she could not get any favors from him.

Recently, she had been spending a lot of time and effort on Tang Yimo. If Tang Yimo really became successful, she might be able to get her to Blue Whale.

She felt that it was disgusting to use a man to get to the top, and she would never do it.

So, she wanted to make use of her good friend to do it.

Just like how she had used Meng Na.

However, she had only said those words to provoke Tang Yimo. She didn't think that CEO Pei would like Su Ji.

"Thanks, but I can't control his mind," Tang Yimo said.

"That's not true. Men like women who take the initiative. Who knows, whoever takes the first step will become his woman."

Tang Yimo's doe eyes widened. "Don't tell me you're asking me to..."

She bit her lip shyly.

She was young and looked innocent and cute. Others thought that she was very innocent and didn't know anything, but in fact, she had had a few boyfriends before and knew about this.

She knew what kind of girls older men liked.

However, she had never taken the initiative to offer herself. Every time, she would seem hesitant.

Zhou Xuefang glanced at her. "If you can conquer the CEO, you will never have to be bullied by Su Ji again. He is not only the CEO of Blue Whale, but also the CEO of the Pei Corporation."

Tang Yimo's heart wavered.

Meanwhile, the second scene went especially smoothly.

Si Jingchuan's jealous expression this time was on point.

In the end, Pei Huai even looked at him provocatively, increasing the tension in the atmosphere.

There was a round of applause, and words of gratitude.

Zhou Xuefang saw that everyone was walking towards them, so she changed the topic. "Yimo, don't misunderstand what I just said. I just feel that it would be a pity if such a good opportunity was taken away by Su Ji."

As she said this, she seemed to be talking to herself, "today is Wednesday, right? Time really flies, we're going back to China tomorrow..."

Tang Yimo's heart itched uncomfortably and she couldn't sit still.

At the thought of taking the initiative to give herself to CEO Pei, her face turned bright red.

At that moment, Huang Huayu came over and pointed at Tang Yimo and the others, "you guys don't have any scenes in the afternoon. Go back and rest. You have to get up early tomorrow to shoot on the last day."

"Okay..." Tang Yimo replied.

Didn't that mean she had the whole afternoon to prepare?

It was as if even the heavens were hinting to her that this risky move was worth it!

**

With Han Junlei's high efficiency, they only had a few outdoor scenes left in the afternoon.

The lighting in the evening was not great, so Han Junlei asked everyone to go back and rest.

He wanted to give a few more words of advice to the leads, but he could not find Su Ji.

"Have you seen Su Ji? She was here just a moment ago, she left so quickly?"

Zhou Xuefang had been busy reading her script and had no time to care about Su Ji's whereabouts.

"I'm sorry, uncle. I didn't see her."

Si Jingchuan looked distracted. "Ah, she wasn't feeling well. She waited until the shoot was over and quickly returned to the hotel."

Han Junlei was a little upset with Su Ji before that, but his attitude changed when he heard that.

"Why didn't she tell me earlier? She acted so naturally just now. I didn't realize at all."

Si Jingchuan said, "that's just how she is. She never delays anyone's work because of her. She's very dedicated."

Zhou Xuefang rolled her eyes.

However, Han Junlei kept nodding his head in approval.

However, Si Jingchuan didn't feel relaxed. Instead, a drop of cold sweat silently trickled down his forehead.

He had just seen CEO Pei drive over to pick up his boss.

He wasn't sweating because of that. Instead, it was because she seemed to be bringing CEO Pei to watch the "special performance" tonight.

**

After Pei Huai picked up Su Ji, the two of them had a meal outside.

She asked Si Jingchuan to send her the address of the theater and the website to buy the tickets.

It was written in the country's national language and the description was very detailed, but Su Ji could not understand it.

However, she could still find the button to buy two tickets.

The tickets were not easy to get, and the business was particularly good.

This made Su Ji even more curious about that place.

Pei Huai touched the corner of his mouth with a tissue and smiled. "Where are you taking me to later?"

Su Ji kept her phone. "A theater."

Pei Huai raised his eyebrows.

Su Ji said, "although the theater is nothing special, I heard that the performance tonight is very exciting. Let's go and watch it together."

"You're so nice to me?"

Su Ji lifted her chin. "You came to Country T just to your birthday. Of course, I have to leave you with an unforgettable experience."

Chapter 228 It's Indeed Unforgettable!

At 7:30 pm, the sky was almost dark.

Pei Huai followed the route Su Ji had given him and drove to Guman, the capital of Country T.

...

The nightlife was very rich.

Both sides of the spacious road were full of cars. Men and women in sexy and gorgeous clothes came in groups, all coming to the nearby theaters and bars.

Su Ji carefully followed the GPS to the theater. Pei Huai drove patiently to the location according to her instruction.

After the two of them made a few turns in the area, Pei Huai realized that Su Ji could not tell left from right.

He smiled but didn't say anything.

With his sense of direction, he found the theater that Su Ji was talking about in the fourth round.

The theater was deep in the alley. It was large and looked like a castle.

Although it was hidden very well, it had the most number of people/

And most of them were couples.

It seemed to be a show very suitable for couples.

Su Ji thought that she should reward Si Jingchuan afterwards. The place seemed nice.

The person checking tickets at the door was a muscular woman wearing a bright red spaghetti strap skirt.

She was also wearing a fluffy golden wig.

The first thing Su Ji noticed was her strong calf muscles and thick leg hair.

As she looked up, she saw that there was a circle of stubble around the beautiful woman's fiery red lips.

She spoke in her native tongue and smiled brightly, signaling each customer to show their tickets.

"..."

Su Ji quietly searched for her ticket information on her phone.

This was the first time she felt suspicious of the place.

She then confirmed that she had come to the right place.

Pei Huai did not care where Su Ji had brought him.

As long as it was Su Ji's idea, he would like it no matter where it was or what performance it was.

Besides, he had a rough idea of what kind of performance would be held in the theater in Country T.

Pei Huai looked at Su Ji. "Don't you like beautiful women like them?"

Su Ji looked at the ticket inspector's blue eyeshadow and glistening red lips.

Her reply was very serious. "It's not the same kind of beauty I have in mind."

However, the ticket inspector was particularly surprised to see Su Ji.

She recognized that they were Chinese and spoke in her not-so-fluent Chinese, "so beautiful, you must be a boy!"

She was talking to Su Ji.

She looked at her as if she was a friend.

"..."

"I'm so jealous! How did you make it so perfect? Miss, can you tell me which hospital it is?"

When Su Ji smiled, her eyes were like silk, but when she wasn't smiling, she looked cool/

Afterall, the beautiful women here were all...

The ticket inspector couldn't be blamed for the misunderstanding.

Su Ji began to feel suspicious for the second time.

She thought that the ticket inspector couldn't really speak Chinese, so there was no point trying to explain.

She nodded. "Sure, I'll tell you next time!"

In order to not let the customers behind her wait for too long, she quickly scanned the QR code for the ticket.

After checking the tickets, the beautiful ticket inspector shifted her gaze to Pei Huai and licked the corners of her mouth greedily. She pinched her fingers and gently tapped on Su Ji's shoulder. "Is this your boyfriend?"

Goosebumps rose all over Su Ji's body. She forced a smile and said, "yes!"

With that, she pulled Pei Huai into the venue.

Their seats were in the middle, which were the best seats.

Everyone else slowly entered. There were many Chinese tourists there, so Su Ji put on her mask again.

Pei Huai looked at the men in pantyhose who were wearing flashy dresses, heavy makeup, and high heels and were getting ready on stage.

It was indeed an unforgettable experience.

Su Ji seemed to have seen through his thoughts. The corner of her mouth twitched as she explained, "it's not bad to experience the local entertainment, right? "

"Yes."

At this moment, both of them thought that this was the most unique thing about Country T.

However,they didn't know that since Si Jingchuan had recommended this place because it was not an ordinary performance!

When it was time for the performance, the seats were already full. The security guards closed the gate, and the lights in the venue dimmed.

The audience spoke excitedly, their eyes shining.

The staff members gave the audience in the front row water guns.

Su Ji also received one.

She was confused.

Pei Huai looked at the water gun in his hand and was the first to feel that something was wrong.

The emcee spoke in Country T's language enthusiastically.

After a brief introduction, romantic music started to play.

The men in pantyhose danced on the stage, and it looked good at the moment.

But a few minutes later, the music suddenly changed.

The macho men tore open their costumes and revealed their real costumes for the night.

This was Guman's most famous adult theater!

The girl sitting in the first row covered her face shyly. "Ah!"

"Ew!"

"They are coming! Hurry up and shoot them with water guns!"

Pei Huai immediately covered Su Ji's eyes.

Su Ji was frozen.

It would be great if the water gun in her hand could be replaced with a real one.

Pei Huai choked. "Who told you about this place?"

It sounded like he was lecturing his daughter.

Su Ji pushed his hand away and called Si Jingchuan.

The phone rang twice before it was hung up!

"How dare he hang up on me?" Her smile was getting more and more terrifying.

She called again, but Si Jingchuan turned off his phone this time.

Si Jingchuan, who had obviously known that she was going to interrogate him, was hiding in his room and shivering.

He touched his wildly beating heart. This was the heart that the boss had cured, so he couldn't ruin it!

**

Meanwhile, Tang Yimo had taken a shower and was only wrapped in a white towel.

Her hair was tied up into a bun.

Her shoulders were smooth and tender.

She sprayed half a bottle of fruit-scented perfume on her body.

After making all the preparations, she looked into the mirror and took out the room card that she had spent a lot of effort to get in the afternoon.

She heard that CEO Pei did not like women, but it did not matter. She was not an ordinary woman.

If she lay naked on his bed, she did not believe that he would not be seduced.

She still remembered the first time she had met CEO Pei. He asked her in a friendly tone, “if you’re not in a hurry, can I go first?”

She understood it too well.

This was a way to strike up a conversation.

Otherwise, why would he care about buying milk tea a few minutes earlier?

CEO Pei was interested in her.

If she succeeded tonight, her future would be bright.

If not...

Tang Yimo smiled. That wouldn’t happen!

Chapter 229 I’ll Propose to Her!

At around 10 pm, Pei Huai drove Su Ji back to the hotel.

Su Ji’s face was pale, and she didn’t even take off her mask.

...

She came all the way to Guman, but only stayed for 3 minutes!

She recalled Xu Mingzhi’s warning before they set off.

Shee was probably referring to this kind of performance.

However, today was Pei Huai’s birthday and she planned to give him an unforgettable experience...

After parking the car, Pei Huai leaned over and helped Su Yi unbuckle her seat belt.

He smirked as he looked at her tightly-knitted brows.

“Don’t be angry. I guess Si Jingchuan sent you the address because you forced him to.”

Su Ji was not angry about this.

She pursed her lips and finally said, “your birthday is almost over.”

“It’s a pity that I didn’t get to see the adult performance just now.”

Su Ji was confused.

He really wanted to see it?

“There’s still time before midnight.” Pei Huai took off her mask. “You perform for me.”

Su Ji pushed him away.

He didn’t move at all.

If he was in the great Shang, he would be a military official.

“I haven’t gotten the birthday present I want.”

“...”

“Will you give it to me?”

“...”

She was done for, she had been bewitched by his beauty!

**

In the elevator, Pei Huai was still trying his best to restrain himself.

After they got out of the elevator on the sixth floor, he held Su Ji’s hand and walked down the corridor.

If someone saw this, it would be obvious that there was something going on between them.

However, the corridor was quiet.

He swiped his card and entered the room. Pei Huai pressed her against the door and kissed her.

The room smelled of something fruity.

But no one noticed this at this time.

He grabbed Su Ji’s wrist and pressed it above her head.

After seeing the portrait of himself in the ancient costume, Pei Huai lost control of his desire to take Su Ji.

Meanwhile, Su Ji let him do whatever he wanted.

At this moment, she had already forgotten about Madam Xu Mingzhi’s warning.

In any case, it was still uncertain who would be at a disadvantage at the moment.

In the dark room, Pei Huai and Su Ji fell on the bed...

“Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!”

However, at this moment, a sharp cry rang out from under the blanket.

If not for Pei Huai and Su Ji’s boldness they would have run away.

Pei Huai instinctively pulled Su Ji back into his arms.

“Click.”

He turned on the lights.

Tang Yimo covered her smooth, white, and tender body with the blanket and looked at the two people in front of her in horror.

“...”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

She was in CEO Pei's room for a few hours.

In the beginning, she lay on his bed and imagined what was going to happen. Her heart was beating so fast that it was about to burst out of her chest.

However, he didn't come back to the room for a long time, so Tang Yimo fell asleep.

When Su Ji fell on her through the blanket, she had almost peed her pants.

Pei Huai's expression was extremely dark.

For someone who was obsessed with cleanliness, there were no words to describe the disgust he felt when he saw such a dirty thing appear on his bed.

Moreover, if it wasn't for Tang Yimo, he and Su Ji would have...

Maybe he could go one step further.

Su Ji turned around and locked the door.

Tang Yimo looked up and met Pei Huai's eyes. Her heart skipped a beat.

The blood in her body instantly froze.

At this moment, Pei Huai was looking at her as if he was looking at a dead person.

Tang Yimo bit her lip in embarrassment.

Her naked body had become a great humiliation at this moment.

How could it end up like this?

Why did CEO Pei come in with Su Ji?

However, she quickly realized that Su Ji was definitely trying to seduce CEO Pei tonight!

She did not expect Su Ji to beat her to it!

Su Ji leaned against the door, looking at her expressionlessly with her arms crossed.

Pei Huai took out his phone.

Tang Yimo wanted to snatch the phone away. However, the blanket almost fell off when she moved. She quickly covered herself and pleaded coquettishly, "CEO Pei, please don't tell Director Han! I didn't expect Su Ji also..."

Pei Huai dialed the number indifferently. "It's not Director Han."

Tang Yimo heaved a sigh of relief. "It's all a misunderstanding today. Since you and Su Ji are going to...I'll leave now..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, Pei Huai spoke into the phone, “is this the police station?”

Pei Huai was calling the police.

Tang Yimo’s face turned pale.

She shook her head in a panic, and her tears flowed down her cheeks. “Don’t call the police, CEO Pei. I’m begging you. Don’t call the police! If you call the police, my acting career will be over!”

Pei Huai explained the location in a few words.

There was no mercy at all.

The officers promised to come over as soon as possible.

Pei Huai looked at her. “You’re in a very serious situation right now. You sneaked into the CEO’s room, so I suspect that you’re trying to steal our confidential information.”

“???”

They were on the sixth floor, so jumping out of the window was impossible.

Su Ji was standing at the door.

She stared at Su Ji, and her gaze gradually became fierce.

If Su Ji had not been one step ahead of her, she did not believe that he would do that!

At the thought of this, Tang Yimo’s face twisted in hatred and her eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

She had thought of something.

“CEO Pei! If you don’t want to do this, then don’t blame me for telling everyone about you and Su Ji!”

A person like CEO Pei would be very concerned about his reputation. He could sleep with Su Ji, but he definitely did not want anyone to know!

It’s his fault to be so ruthless.

Tang Yimo thought she was smart.

However, the next second.

“That would be great.” Pei Huai smiled.

Tang Yimo was dumbfounded.

“If you tell everyone today, I’ll propose to her tomorrow.”

“Tsk.”

Su Ji made a sound of disapproval.

“What do you mean?” Tang Yimo looked as if she had seen a ferocious ghost.

Propose?

To Su Ji?

What kind of joke was this?

“Aren’t you afraid that others will find out about your relationship with Su Ji?”

Pei Huai raised his eyebrows and looked at Su Ji, his eyes filled with love. “I’ve always wanted to announce it, but my girlfriend doesn’t want to for the time being, so I didn’t.”

But if Tang Yimo insisted on it, he wouldn’t mind.

Girlfriend..

The three words were like a slap to Tang Yimo’s face.

“By the way,” Pei Huai suddenly remembered something. “I was buying milk tea for my girlfriend last time.”

Chapter 230 Can I Borrow Your Bed?

Pei Huai ignored Tang Yimo’s exaggerated and ugly expression. He walked to the door and squeezed Su Ji’s hand.

His voice was gentle. “The police will be here soon. Go back to your room first. I’ll handle this.”

...

“Okay.” Su Ji stood up a second later. Before she left, she leaned close to his ear and, just like how he usually did to her, she hooked her arm around the back of his neck and whispered, “happy birthday.”

Pei Huai’s heart rippled.

Tang Yimo could not believe that Pei Huai could be so gentle to Su Ji when he was so cold to her just a second ago.

A strong sour feeling surged up her throat, almost corroding her internal organs.

After Su Ji left, Tang Yimo still wanted to fight for herself. She cried and said, “CEO Pei, don’t be deceived by Su Ji. She’s two-timing you!”

Pei Huai glanced at her coldly.

Tang Yimo said, “other than being with you, she was with Manager Ren at the same time!”

“...”

“Who told you that?” He asked.

“The entire crew said so!” Tang Yimo said.

Pei Huai replied, “thank you for telling me that my girlfriend was criticized by the crew. I’ll help her deal with it later. You don’t have to worry.”

Tang Yimo was once again at a loss for words.

Then, she saw Pei Huai call Ren Guanghua.

The man’s expression was stern. Although he didn’t say anything harsh, Ren Guanghua was so scared that he fell off the bed. He quickly swore, “boss, please believe me. I really don’t know. No one said it in front of me. Don’t worry, I’ll personally clarify this with the crew tomorrow!”

After Su Ji returned to her room, she took a shower and came out of the bathroom about half an hour later.

She heard the sound of the elevator outside the door, followed by the sound of footsteps.

It was the sound of people from other rooms opening their doors and going out to check on the situation.

In fact, many people had already woken up when Tang Yimo shouted just now.

They just didn’t dare to come out.

After the police arrived, the lights in the rooms were all turned on.

Even Han Junlei and Huang Huayu, who lived on the other floors, were alarmed.

When they arrived at Pei Huai’s room, they were all shocked by the situation.

The police station had sent a few officers who could speak Chinese.

Tang Yimo did not have time to put on her clothes. She covered her body with the blanket and did not dare to look up.

What happened was clear at a glance.

Those who did not understand the situation understood everything as Pei Huai explained the case to the police.

Everyone looked at Tang Yimo with disgust. No matter how pitiful she looked, no one sympathized with her.

Ms. Feng said, “Yimo, how could you do such a thing?”

Han Junlei felt that it was too embarrassing to have someone like this in his production team. He could not face CEO Pei.

Huang Huayu stood by the side and kept apologizing to CEO Pei.

Even Zhou Xuefang squinted her eyes in disgust when she saw Tang Yimo’s expression.

What a failure!

She had wasted so much time on her!

Tang Yimo looked at her as if she was her savior.

Just as she was about to ask her to put in a few good words for her, Zhou Xuefang spoke up first. "Yimo, I've told you before. CEO Pei is not someone you should mess with! Why don't you listen to me?"

Tang Yimo was stunned.

She was lying!

She clearly didn't say that!

Tang Yimo said, "but you said..."

"Don't talk to me anymore! We are no longer friends!"

After saying that, Zhou Xuefang turned around and left, not giving her a chance to explain herself.

At this moment, Tang Yimo finally realized how stupid she had been!

Pei Huai gave Bian Tong a call and let him handle the remaining.

At first, Bian Tong thought that he found out about the painting, and only dared to pick it up after it rang a few times.

After hearing that it was about a case, he finally relaxed.

The Pei family had their own legal department and would not use him for purely business matters.

The cases he handled were basically all related to Su Ji.

He smiled. "You've been using me a lot recently."

"You've become more useful."

After they were done with the statement, the police took Tang Yimo and a few other hotel staff away.

Now that Tang Yimo was in trouble, her scenes would definitely be cut.

Even Huang Huayu was convinced "The Billions Stars" was really a show where good things came with setbacks.

First, Su Qianrou's role was replaced. Then, Song Heng was replaced. Now, Tang Yimo, who had just made a name for herself in the last episode, had to be replaced again!

"Don't worry, CEO Pei. It's my fault that I didn't manage the crew well. We'll find a way to get someone to replace her as soon as possible. It won't affect the scheduled broadcast of the fourth episode."

However, Pei Huai was obviously not satisfied with his plan.

If the reshoot was done by someone else, Su Ji would have to work harder as well.

"There's no need to re-shoot," Pei Huai said.

Han Junlei was surprised. "No? But we can't use an actress with a bad reputation..."

Pei Huai said, “get the tech team to change her face with AI.”

Even Huang Huayu looked over. “CEO Pei, that’s possible, but to make it flawless, it will be expensive.”

“That’s fine. Ren Guanghua will reimburse you for the expenses.”

Huang Huayu and Han Junlei looked at each other and took a deep breath.

This would help them solve a big problem!

Then, they thought of another thing.

In order not to affect the viewership ratings of “The Billion Stars”, they hoped to keep the news of Tang Yimo’s arrest until after the fourth episode was aired.

Of course, Pei Huai didn’t want to affect the film that Su Ji had worked so hard for. “Sure, you guys handle it.”

He was busy all the way until one in the morning.

Everyone was talking about it when they returned to their rooms.

They did not expect Tang Yimo to do such a thing when she looked so innocent and cute!

You really can’t judge a book by its cover!

At two in the morning, Pei Huai knocked on Su Ji’s door.

Su Ji was wearing her pajamas, and her hair was a little messy.

The soundproofing here was not good, and he was afraid that it would affect Su Ji’s sleep after a busy night.

But now, it was clear that he didn’t.

He smiled. “Can I borrow your bed?”

“?”

“What about yours? Tang Yimo hasn’t left yet?”

“It’s dirty. I don’t want to sleep in it.”

“Ask them to change the bedsheets.”

“It’s not enough, I’m now allergic to the bed.”

After a few seconds of staring at him, Su Ji had no choice but to let him share her bed.

She yawned. “I’ll say this first. It’s too late now. I’m so tired that I don’t want to move at all...”

Pei Huai chuckled. Did she think that he would still be interested after what happened?

“Don’t worry, just like the other day, we’ll just sleep.”

Su Ji lay on the bed and fell asleep within a few minutes.

Pei Huai borrowed her bathroom to take a shower. When he came out, she was already breathing evenly.

Pei Huai lifted the blanket. He said that he was not interested, but when he lay down beside her, he couldn't help but bite her cheek lightly. Then, he lay down beside her.

He closed his eyes, and the ancient costume painting appeared in front of him again.

Pei Huai's eyes moved uneasily.

After that, he hugged Su Ji and slowly calmed down.

He thought that he would be fine.

However, he had another dream that night.

This time, he dreamed that Su Ji was covered in blood!
