

Concubine 321

Chapter 321 Stunner

When Su Ji and Pei Huai came out of the resting room, Pei Xi was complaining that she had stomach cancer.

Bill grabbed her hand and tried to comfort her.

...

Su Ji asked, "what's wrong?"

Pei Xi was about to tell her about her symptoms when she suddenly noticed that there was something on the back of her head.

She narrowed her eyes.

"Can you turn around and let me see?"

Su Ji turned in confusion.

Pei Xi removed a few locks of shiny blue velvet from her hair. She pretended not to know anything, "what is this?"

Su Ji: "..."

Pei Xi calmly, "Pei Huai, this seems to be from the blue antique carpet in the lounge, right? That's strange, why would this get into Su Ji's hair?"

Pei Huai stood behind Su Ji and used one hand to remove the remaining blue velvet from her hair. "Why don't you take a guess. If you're right, I'll give you a red packet."

"No, thanks!" Pei Xi was disgusted at the mention of money.

However, at the mention of disgust, she remembered that she thought she had stomach cancer just now.

"Su Ji, I really think that I might have stomach cancer since New Year's Eve. I feel nauseated and don't want to eat anything. I've lost two pounds in two days!"

Su Ji raised her eyebrows. She didn't even need to take her pulse. "I think you do have something growing in you."

Pei Xi's face turned pale instantly, "stomach cancer?"

"...."

"A baby!" Su Ji said.

Pei Xi was stunned, "???"

Bill: "!!!"

Usually, he didn't understand what they were saying, but he understood this sentence!

“Who has a baby?” At the entrance, Du Meilan had just arrived home after parting with her besties.

She didn’t drink too much today.

Pei Shizhan also came out of the study, surprised and happy.

They all knew that their elder daughter had been unable to get pregnant for many years.

Pei Huai looked at them. “Don’t jump to conclusions. Let’s take a look at her pulse first.”

Su Ji had already started. Du Meimei instantly sobered up and put down the desserts she had bought on the way back. She sat beside Pei Xi and asked, “how long has it been since Su Ji treated you?”

Pei Xi was still in a daze, “more than a month.”

“Have you had your period since then?” Du Meilan asked.

Pei Xi’s heart was beating very fast, “my period is never on time. This doesn’t mean anything...”

However, immediately after, Su Ji removed her hand from her wrist and gave up her seat to Pei Huai, “you try. I think she’s pregnant.”

!!!

The living room was silent for half a second, then instantly filled with joy.

Pei Xi excitedly stretched out her arm towards Pei Huai, “quickly check!”

After a few minutes, Pei Huai gave the same answer as Su Ji.

Du Meilan hugged Pei Xi tightly. “I’m so happy for you.”

Pei Xi fanned herself with her hands and felt like crying.

Bill knelt on the balcony and began to pray for God to bless their baby.

Pei Qingshen had brought a young lady back from the Lute Association. Just as he was about to point her to his room, he realized that the room was particularly lively.

At first, he didn’t understand what everyone was saying, but later he found out and was stunned for a few seconds.

“I’m going to have a great-grandson again?” Pei Qingshen laughed happily and excitedly grabbed the young girl’s hand. “Zhuzhu! Did you hear that? I’m going to have a great-grandson again!”

The young lady beside him was surprisingly calm. She didn’t try to flatter him, “you’re hurting me. If you continue, I’ll double the fees.”

Her words attracted the attention of the people in the living room.

Only then did they notice the new person.

She was beautiful, but she was dressed very simply. She wore a down jacket and a pair of jeans.

However, she looked very tall. She had a big white scarf around her neck, and her long hair was clipped inside the scarf, making her face look like a small bouquet of flowers.

There were three piercings on each of her ears, which made her look a little rebellious.

There was a big cloth bag hanging on her arm. Kyokushin Art School's logo was on it, so she must be a university student.

However, Su Ji did not go to class much, so she did not know this person.

Pei Huai was especially sensitive to such things now. He narrowed his eyes and asked, "grandpa, this is..."

Pei Qingshen came back to his senses and let go of the little girl's hand. He turned around, patted her shoulder, and introduced her to everyone. "This is Cao Zhuzhu, a fresh graduate from the music department of Kyokushin. I met her at the Lute Association today. She's very good with the lute, so I asked her to help me fix mine."

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Pei Qingshen pointed to his room and said, "go into that room. I'll wait for you outside."

Cao Zhuzhu said okay. The college student, who was dressed in plain clothes and suddenly entered a gorgeous house, did not look around curiously. Instead, she said, "I will record the entire process of repairing it. Don't worry, I will not touch anything else in your room."

Pei Qingshen replied, "I trust you."

The living room was filled with laughter again. Su Ji and Pei Huai talked about many things to take note of during pregnancy, and everyone surrounded Pei Xi.

Pei Xi sniffled and felt that she was blessed. After hugging Du Meilan, she then hugged Su Ji.

Pei Shizhan looked at the children, his serious face full of smiles.

Bill and Du Meilan began to discuss the matter of bringing Pei Xi to the hospital for a check-up.

Pei Huai said that he would take care of Su Ji during this period of time and asked her to focus on the pregnancy.

Pei Xi was touched. Then, Pei Huai said, "after all, you're quite old as a pregnant woman. You should be more careful."

"Thank you, my 30-year-old brother."

Half an hour later, Cao Zhuzhu finished fixing the lute. When she came out of the room, she called out, "it's fixed. I'll send the video to you. You can just transfer the fee to me."

Pei Qingshen was elated. "I will give you a big red packet."

Cao Zhuzhu was about to leave when she bumped into Pei Song, who was coming from the other end of the corridor.

The two of them stopped at the same time.

Pei Song bit a cigarette in his mouth but did not light it. There was no expression on his face. He almost bumped into her and looked down. He only saw her fluffy hair.

"Sorry," he walked around and continued to walk towards the living room.

Pei Huai had just sent him a message to tell him that Pei Xi was pregnant.

Cao Zhuzhu looked at Pei Song's back and touched her earrings. She went to the door from another direction. "I'll get going now."

"Let the chauffeur send you," Pei Qingshen said.

Cao Zhuzhu replied, "no, I'll take a taxi! You can pay for the taxi fare!"

Hearing this, Pei Song subconsciously glanced at the door.

Just now, he seemed to have seen two hairpins in the young woman's hair. When Pei Huai was three years old, he heard from the master that people with two hairpins in their hair were obsessed with money.

It seemed to be quite accurate.

When the door opened and closed again, he retracted his gaze and suddenly thought of something. "Is that the person you're going to introduce to me?"

She was dressed like a burrito

"I don't approve."

"You wish! Zhuzhu is much younger than you! She'll graduate the same time as Su Ji!"

Pei Song took the cigarette from his mouth and put it in his shirt pocket. "That's great. I'm not interested in under-developed college students."

"Heh," Pei Qingshen's laughed mockingly.

A few seconds later, he showed them the photos of the Lute Association's performance today.

Su Ji was the first to see it. There was a long-legged beauty wearing a cheongsam and holding a lute.

She looked at Pei Qingshen, "?"

Pei Qingshen smiled and pointed at her. "Look at the third one from the left. It's Zhuzhu."

Su Ji looked down at the photo.

Pei Song followed her gaze.

Sure enough, he saw the three small earrings on the beauty's left ear. Cao Zhuzhu had a right-angled shoulder, a collarbone that could fit eggs, a slender waist, and long legs. Her thigh was faintly visible from the high-slit cheongsam, and her ankles were beautiful and delicate.

A rare beauty.

Su Ji thought, "what a stunner!"

Chapter 322 Throw In Money to Book a Spot

Pei Song was silent for a while, as if he had been slapped in the face.

He did not say a word and stood up to sit beside Pei Xi.

...

Pei Qingshen sat down beside Su Ji. "She's also from your school. Do you know her?"

Su Ji shook her head, "I can't believe I haven't met this stunner before."

Pei Qingshen replied, "right? She was the most eye-catching performer in the Lute Association today. A few big bosses even invited her to dinner, but she rejected them and came to fix my lute. This shows she has a good character."

Su Ji asked, "how much did you pay her to repair the lute?"

Pei Qingshen replied, "I don't know the market price, so I just gave her about 40,000 yuan."

"..."

That was why she rejected the others!

Pei Huai had just returned from receiving a call and saw Su Ji and his grandfather looking at the phone screen with great interest.

Pei Huai bent down, "what are you looking at? "

As his shadow fell, Su Ji heard his voice and immediately put her phone away to cover his eyes, "you can't look!"

Cao Zhuzhu was wearing an R-rated cheongsam!

Pei Huai chuckled. He really liked it when she was possessive.

He noticed the dessert that Madam Du had bought and asked Su Ji, "do you want some?"

Su Ji nodded.

Pei Huai smiled and cut it for her.

When he laughed, his Adam's apple moved bobbed, even if it was only a very short laugh.

Madam Du bought a pineapple meringue cake.

Pei Huai cut a piece for Su Ji.

Pei Qingshen said casually, "I'll have a piece too."

"I want a piece too," Du Meilan said.

Pei Xi said, "me too!"

Pei Huai sighed and cut a piece for each of them.

Du Meilan looked at the cake in her hand, “didn’t I buy a pineapple meringue cake? Where are the pineapples?”

Pei Xi replied, “it’s okay, mom. The meringue alone is quite delicious.”

The two of them inadvertently turned their heads and saw the piece in Su Ji’s hand that had a lot of pineapples.

The pineapples were all with Su Ji!

Su Ji laughed awkwardly, “I’ll exchange with you?”

Du Meilan and Pei Xi exchanged glances and laughed.

After eating the cake, the few of them were not very hungry, so they pushed dinner back.

Pei Song also wanted some cake.

But it was gone.

“Ms. Su Ji!”

Pei Xingxing had just returned home. He was wearing a dark blue coat and had a circle of fur around his neck. He looked like a Russian nesting doll and was very cute.

He was so tired that he called out to Su Ji weakly. After visiting a few relatives today, his little face had been pinched by many. He sang “The Lonely Hero” more than 20 times, and his throat was smoking.

Seeing that his great-grandson had returned, Pei Qingshen took out a stack of photos of a few women that he had collected over the past two days.

“Take a look and see if you like them.”

Pei Song went to answer a call from a patient. Before he left, he looked at him teasingly, “son, please have good taste.”

Pei Xingxing nodded seriously, took the photos, and looked at them carefully.

After he saw the last picture, he frowned.

“None of them look good!”

“None of them look good?”

He was shocked. He took out a picture of the Jiang family’s daughter, “this one doesn’t look good either?”

Pei Xingxing rubbed his eyes.

Pei Qingshen was suspicious, “you didn’t secretly make an agreement with your father, did you?”

Pei Xingxing smiled, “no, they are just ugly.”

Su Ji smiled. She suddenly took Pei Qingshen's phone and showed Pei Xingxing the photo that she saw just now. She pointed at the woman that was the third from the left, "take a look at this. Does she look good?"

Pei Xingxing looked at it for a while and blushed. He didn't say anything and just nodded shyly.

"Hiss..." Pei Qingshen pondered for a moment, then looked at Su Ji.

Pei Xi was currently handing over Su Ji's recent work schedule to Pei Huai. The Pei family's eldest miss was in her thirties, and it was important for her to take care of her first pregnancy. However, she did not hand everything over to her brother. His brother was usually very busy at work. She was going to hire a few assistants to help them.

Pei Huai looked at Su Ji's schedule, which was scheduled to start the day after tomorrow, "if it's not important, cancel it."

Pei Xi: "? "

Pei Huai said, "an endorsement of 690 thousand yuan. Are you kidding me?"

Pei Xi: "..."

She watched as her third brother made bold and decisive decisions on Su Ji's schedule. Because of that, Su Ji only had to shoot the last episode of "The Billion Stars", which would start on the sixth day of the new year.

"It's not necessarily a good thing to appear too often. She doesn't need to take on so many jobs. She only needs to take on the most popular one at a time," Pei Huai said seriously.

Pei Xi felt that he was abusing his authority, but she had no proof.

Pei Xi said, "The Billion Stars is about to end. What are your plans for the next stage?"

Su Ji was studying the photo with Pei Qingshen. When she heard Pei Xi's words, she raised her head and looked at them.

She didn't know what her plans were.

She smiled, "everything will work out by itself."

Pei Xi replied, "nice."

After dealing with Su Ji's schedule, Pei Huai took the first aid kit and applied medicine on her wrist.

At that time, Su Ji was telling Pei Qingshen that she had to go back to the dormitory to pack some things tomorrow.

Since Cao Zhuzhu was able to participate in the Lute Association's performance, it was highly likely that she did not leave school during the new year. Perhaps they might meet tomorrow.

Pei Xingxing said that he wanted to go with her.

Pei Huai applied the medicine on her wrist while listening to their conversation. Then, he took the opportunity to glance at the photo and saw Cao Zhuzhu.

She did not look like the woman Su Ji had described, so he wasn't worried.

Su Ji turned around to get her phone.

Dong Xiyou had sent her a document, which contained Lychee TV's most important project for the next year, "Idols in Cohabitation".

Apparently Lychee TV had invested more than a billion yuan, and the male and female guests would be living together in a house. However, they were all popular celebrities.

Other than when they were sleeping, their life would be broadcasted online.

One could always trust Lychee TV's variety shows. She heard that the directors went overseas to contact the most popular celebrities, as well as the VIPs one would never expect. Any celebrity who received the news would want to throw in money to book a spot.

Dong Xiyou had just heard first-hand news from Director Liang today, so she immediately sent it to Su Ji, hoping that she would prepare as soon as possible.

At the same time, she also told Su Ji a piece of good news. Because of Su Ji's help last time, Dong Xiyou stood out among the three interns and had officially become a full time employee!

Su Ji praised her and then looked at the script she sent.

Interesting~

Chapter 323 Meeting the Pretty Lute Player

The next day.

During the new year, the number of students at Kyokushin was halved, but it was not completely empty.

...

This was because many did not have the ability to rent their own apartments, and they had to attend commercial performances during the new year, so it was very convenient to live in school.

Su Ji basically didn't stay in the dormitory anymore. Not only her, but Meng Na and Pan Lian also rarely returned to the dormitory. If everything went well next year, they would be able to graduate, so they came to pack their things.

The moving company's car was owned by the Pei Corporation, and because it was a female dormitory, they were looking for female employees.

While they were cleaning up upstairs, Su Ji was walking with Pei Xingxing downstairs.

Pei Xingxing was walking the cat, and Su Ji was walking him.

In a short while, he was surrounded by a group of beautiful girls.

Su Ji was wearing a pair of sunglasses, a mask, and a hat. She was covered up very well, so no one recognized her.

"Whose little brother is this? So cute!"

"I wish I'm in kindergarten!"

Pei Xingxing crossed his arms and blinked at them.

After a short while, he received his first lollipop from a young woman.

After the group of young ladies left, Pei Xingxing held up the lollipop and looked at Su Ji. "They're not as pretty as that young lady!"

Su Ji had one hand in her pocket, looking disinterested, "indeed."

Pei Xingxing's fingers tugged at Su Ji's sleeve. "I want to see that young lady."

"I know," Su Ji replied.

Pei Xingxing asked, "will she like me? "

He was not very confident.

Even his biological mother didn't like him, so would other younger and more beautiful girls like him?

Su Ji could not bear to see him like this. She furrowed her brows. "If she doesn't, she must be blind. We don't make friends with blind people."

Pei Xingxing nodded calmly.

As expected, even her words were so pleasant!

A few boxes of luggage were moved down from upstairs, and Su Ji listened to the staff explain the box markings.

At this moment, a fast-walking figure came from the distance towards the dormitory building.

She had her hands in her pockets and walked with a swish. She wore a big white scarf around her neck and half of her face was hidden in the scarf.

Pei Xingxing was focused on unwrapping the big lollipop.

The girl's footsteps gradually slowed down. Then, she walked past him and stopped after taking two steps.

Her eyes were fixed on him, on the big lollipop in his hand.

Two seconds later, she suddenly moved closer to Pei Xingxing and took the big lollipop from his hand.

The moment she got close, Pei Xingxing saw her face and recognized her as the young lady.

He had a very good memory, especially when it came to the faces of pretty girls.

He thought that she was going to help him unwrap the lollipop, but the next second, Cao Zhuzhu snatched his lollipop and ran into the dormitory.

“...”

Su Ji turned around and saw this.

“Where is your lollipop?” Su Ji asked.

Pei Xingxing pursed his trembling lips and pointed into the dormitory, “that young lady snatched my lollipop!”

His face was full of bitterness and hatred.

Su Ji said, “that young lady?”

Pei Xingxing replied, “it’s that extremely fair and beautiful lute-playing young lady!”

Su Ji: “...”

In just three minutes, Cao Zhuzhu’s figure appeared in front of the dormitory building.

This time, there were no lollipops in her hand. Instead, she had a few small items.

She did not pay attention to Su Ji and squatted down in front of Pei Xingxing. The earrings on her helix were shining brightly. She held the small items in her hands and showed them to him. “How about I exchange these for that lollipop?”

Pei Xingxing stared at her with his big eyes.

She was holding a few small figurines in her hands.

They were Buzz Lightyear, Alien, and a lute. It was obvious that the lute was a souvenir given out by the Lute Association yesterday.

Pei Xingxing might not like these things, but Bill loved them.

Pei Xingxing was a little hesitant. He did not lack toys.

Cao Zhuzhu stuffed all the toys into his coat pocket. “Are you stupid? You don’t even know that you’ve struck it rich!”

She stood up and was about to leave when she noticed Su Ji standing at the side. She was wearing sunglasses and Cao Zhuzhu did not recognize her. She only saw Pei Xingxing’s fingers tugging at the hem of her clothes. “Your brother?”

She asked emotionlessly while sizing up Su Ji. She had a good figure, and she was quite stylish.

“Kind of,” Su Ji replied.

Cao Zhuzhu didn’t give her a good look and said quickly, “you bought the lollipop from the school’s snack shop, right? It’s a cheap product made of food coloring and a lot of sugar. I have a toothache after eating it. You don’t look like someone who lacks money. What kind of sister are you?”

She seemed quite aggressive.

Pei Xingxing opened his arms and stood in front of Su Ji, looking very brave. "She didn't buy it for me. Don't talk bad about her!"

"..." Upon hearing this, Cao Zhuzhu stopped talking.

She looked at Su Ji for a while and found her familiar. "Oh, I'm sorry for the misunderstanding."

Su Ji replied, "it's okay. Thank you for taking his lollipop away."

Cao Zhuzhu pulled up the sleeve of her down jacket to look at the time, revealing a pink plastic flip watch.

Cao Zhuzhu seemed to be quite busy, so she did not stay for long. She glanced at them again and went upstairs.

Pei Xingxing was still a little confused. He asked Su Ji, "did she eat the lollipop?"

Su Ji touched his head, "no."

Pei Xingxing said, "then why won't she let me?"

Su Ji replied, "she's worried that you'll have a toothache."

Pei Xingxing nodded, not fully understanding, but it seemed like she didn't dislike him.

"She's so pretty," he said after a while.

**

After leaving the dormitory, the moving company's car went straight to Su Ji's house while Su Ji went to the Huichun Hall to return Pei Xingxing to his father. She then bought some medicine and a few sets of medical equipment.

When she was settling the bill, Pei Song happened to come out after treating a patient. He touched his son's head and raised his chin at the pharmacist at the counter, "why are you charging my sister-in-law?"

"Let me check your wrist."

He went to the counter. The pharmacist looked at the girl who had her face covered, and then at his boss.

Sister-in-law...

The pharmacist retreated.

Pei Song examined her and said, "I can see that Pei Huai has been applying the medicine for you quite frequently. It's recovering well. At this rate, there won't be any scars."

Su Ji thanked him and packed up her things to leave.

Pei Song glanced at the few sets of equipment she had bought besides the medicine, and his eyes suddenly widened.

"You know how to use these?"

Chapter 324 10 million!

As far as he could see, there was a Gua Sha tool, two glass jars for cupping and...

What shocked Pei Song was the last item.

...

A row of shiny silver needles, each of which was three inches long!

"Yes, a bit," Su Ji replied.

This answer made Pei Song nervous.

He wondered which lucky person would be treated with these silver needles...

Pei Song was stunned, "you're using this to treat your friend's mother?"

Su Ji didn't answer, but smiled mysteriously.

**

In the afternoon, Aunt Wu, who had returned to work, packed up the things that Su Ji brought back from the dormitory. There were several gift boxes on the table that looked very expensive. They were from the Pei family.

Xu Mingzhi took a photo and posted it on her WeChat moments to express her gratitude. She instantly received dozens of likes.

One of them was Wen Man, and she sent her a message.

"I found the necklace!"

Finally, Si Ke could go back to his room to sleep tonight!

Xu Mingzhi smiled and replied to her. Then she put away her phone and remembered her promise to Uncle he.

She asked Aunt Wu wanted to give her phone number to him.

Aunt Wu suddenly snorted, and she lightly slapped Xu Mingzhi's arm. "Madam, did you give him my phone number? When did you give it to him? Why didn't he call me? It's so embarrassing!"

Xu Mingzhi looked at Aunt Wu, who was covering her face and running away shyly...

A minute later, she went next door and gave Aunt Wu's phone number to Uncle He.

Meanwhile, Pei Huai drove Su Ji to the Xu residence. This time, after he parked the car, he got out with Su Ji.

Su Ji sent a message to Xu Ni, but she didn't get a reply.

The gate was open. Su Ji called out, but no one answered.

Something was wrong.

The last time she was here, there were a few servants cleaning the front yard. Today, it looked deserted, as if there was an emergency.

Pei Huai knew her well, "shall we go in and take a look?"

"Sure," Su Ji replied.

The window was open, and there was a lot of noise inside. Su Ji and Pei Huai were walking to the entrance when a servant opened the door in a panic. "Okay, young master, I'll go and get the doctor now!"

The servant opened the door so quickly that she almost bumped into Su Ji. Pei Huai was the first to reach out and block it.

The servant was also stunned to see them, but before she could react, Lu Ailian grabbed her shoulder and pulled her back. "No! You're not allowed to call a doctor! We can't let outsiders know that there's a mad..."

Before she could finish, she stopped.

Lu Ailian saw Su Ji first, then Pei Huai, who was standing next to her.

However, she did not immediately recognize Pei Huai.

"Why are you here..."

The house was in a mess. There were sounds of things being smashed, chairs being knocked over, and crazy roars.

"Grandma! Do you still care about your reputation at this time? Something is going to happen to mom if this goes on!"

Xu Ni also walked to the door and saw Su Ji and Pei Huai. She immediately wanted them to leave, "my mother is sick again. I don't want her to hurt you."

Su Ji pointed at the backpack on her shoulder, "I came prepared today."

Lu Ailian was shocked when she heard this.

"What do you mean?" She stared at Xu Ni, "they know about your mother?"

"Yes," Xu Ni replied.

Lu Ailian pretended to hit her, but she was reluctant to do so to her precious grandson. She was so angry that the wrinkles on her face were visible.

She turned around and said to Su Ji, "you guys should leave quickly. Don't listen to my grandson. His mother is not sick. We don't need outsiders to meddle in our family's matters!"

"Alright," Pei Huai pulled on Su Ji's hand and was about to leave. He was still angry at the thought of that woman biting Su Ji.

Su Ji looked at him and narrowed her eyes.

Pei Huai: "..."

"Ahhh!"

At this moment, a man in the room screamed, and everyone at the door instantly looked inside.

Lu Ailian was shocked, "my son, what's wrong with you?"

Pei Huai had no choice but to accompany Su Ji into the house.

Xu Jinzhe leaned against the coffee table with blood on his head, and in front of him were broken pieces of a vase stained with blood.

Qin Bingjie's hand was raised in the air and she was obviously shocked.

Pei Huai pulled Su Ji behind him and glanced at the servants in the room who were dumbfounded, "what are you doing standing there?"

The Xu family's servants usually did not listen to outsiders' orders, but Pei Huai seemed to wake them up, and they quickly subdued Qin Bingjie while she was still in a daze.

Lu Ailian said, "quickly tie her up and lock her in the house! How did she manage to get out today?"

Then, she called the ambulance.

Xu Ni said, "you can't do this, grandma. Mom needs a doctor. Don't you realize that her condition is getting worse?"

Lu Ailian said, "madness can't be cured at all! I'm willing to keep her here because she gave birth to you!"

Xu Ni's eyes turned red with anger as she watched Qin Bingjie being tied up and dragged out. She knocked her head on the wall a few times. "I'll use my money to treat my mother. I won't spend a single cent from the Xu family!"

Lu Ailian was surprised, "what are you talking about? What do you mean? Everything that I have, and everything that the Xu family has, aren't they all for you? Do you think that I want to keep all the money to myself? I'll make it clear now, whoever can cure your mother, I'm willing to go bankrupt to pay them! But the fact is that no one can cure this disease, and calling a doctor will only embarrass us..."

Su Ji suddenly smiled, "as long as she can be cured, you're willing to go bankrupt?"

Lu Ailian squinted at her, not knowing what she meant, but she couldn't go back on her words now, "of course, I've lived with Bingjie for 18 years. I'm not that kind of cruel mother-in-law."

Su Ji forced a smile, "make sure you keep your word. How much will you pay if she's cured? Give me a specific amount."

"8 million!" Lu Ailian said casually.

"That's too little," Su Ji said, "the Xu family's assets are only worth 8 million?"

Lu Ailian was a little flustered, "Although the Xu family has a lot of assets, 8 million in cash was no small amount, right?"

Pei Huai, who had been silent for a long time, said lightly, "add more."

A tycoon who usually only dealt with business deals worth hundreds of millions was now haggling for his girlfriend for a few millions.

Lu Ailian didn't believe that anyone could cure a crazy person. She raised her arm and extended her index finger. "At most 10 million!"

When he heard this number, Xu Jinzhe, who was behind her, felt dizzy.

Su Ji gave Xu Ni a look, "ask them to carry your mother upstairs."

Xu Ni was confused.

Su Ji laughed, "I'm going to treat your mother."

Chapter 325 No Longer a Fight Scene in Bed

Under Xu Ni's command, the group of people carried her upstairs to the young master's room.

Lu Ailian was about to stop them, but the ambulance had arrived. She had to take care of her son first.

...

She hurriedly chased them to the stairs and shouted upstairs, "don't mess around! How am I going to explain to her family if something happens to her?"

Pei Huai said as he passed by her, "I'll take full responsibility if anything happens."

Lu Ailian didn't know what to say for a moment. She felt that the man in front of her looked familiar and he didn't look like an ordinary man.

Pei Huai did not stay there. He walked upstairs and the paramedics came in with a stretcher at the same time.

In Xu Ni's room, Qin Bingjie was lying face down on her bed.

A silver needle was inserted into her head, and she became quiet. Her eyes were closed, and her breathing was stable.

Xu Ni looked at the silver needle that was aimed directly at the top of her head, "..."

She heard that Su Ji could prescribe medicine, but this was the first time she saw her use other instruments...

After a long while, she carefully nudged Qin Bingjie, "mom?"

Seeing that she didn't respond, she used the back of his index finger to test her breath.

Su Ji chuckled, "don't worry, she's just unconscious."

Xu Ni sighed, "you're amazing. You even know acupuncture."

The wound on her face had completely scabbed and was about to fall off. It did not look as shocking as the first day. She applied the ointment she had bought from Su Ji every day. She was told that when they started filming again, the marks would not be visible after makeup was applied.

Pei Huai stood at the side, looking at some documents on his phone. Occasionally, he would glance at Qin Bingjie.

He would feel more at ease if he stayed here. However, in a few minutes Su Ji asked all the male servants to leave. She looked at him and said, "you too."

Pei Huai replied, "I can help you if I stay here."

Su Ji pointed at Qin Bingjie, "then help me lift her clothes up. I am going to perform cupping therapy on her."

"..."

Pei Huai was silent for two seconds before leaving the room, "call me if you need anything."

Su Ji gave Xu Ni a look, and Xu Ni stepped forward to help.

She applied three needles on each of her shoulders and the glass jars on her back.

Xu Ni watched her light an alcohol-soaked cotton ball and put it into the glass jar skillfully. After a moment, a negative pressure formed, and the glass jars on Qin Bingjie's back quickly attached to her skin. Her skin was only slightly red, and there was no discomfort on her face.

Su Ji replied, "15 minutes."

Xu Ni started the timer on her phone, while Su Ji seamlessly moved on to the next step.

She started to scrape Qin Bingjie's fingers with the Gua Sha tool.

Su Ji did not look up. She focused her attention on Qin Bingjie's hand skillfully. "Don't rush this. Let's take it step by step. I will adjust the treatment according to her condition and prescribe medicine for her later."

Xu Ni was very grateful, "if you need my help in the future, please let me know."

Su Ji smiled, "make sure your grandma doesn't go back on her words."

In the evening, Su Ji and the others were leaving, and Lu Ailian pretended to invite them to stay for dinner.

Of course, Pei Huai refused.

When Su Ji was about to leave, Lu Ailian called her aside and said, "you have good relationship with Xu Ni. Surely you don't want outsiders to gossip about his mother..."

Su Ji sneered, "don't worry, it's a secret."

Lu Ailian's smile became more relaxed. She glanced at Pei Huai and then back to her, "your boyfriend?"
"Uh-huh."

"What a handsome man, I heard from your grandmother that your boyfriend seems to be...quite good?"

Zhang Guihua had wanted to show off how good her granddaughter's boyfriend was at the Calligraphy Association several times, but Lu Ailian never gave her the chance. Every time Zhang Guihua started, Lu Ailian would change the topic.

Now that Su Ji was so popular on the internet, there was no news at all about who her boyfriend was.

Anyone with a brain could guess that Zhang Guihua must be bragging. If her boyfriend was really that good, wouldn't it have been announced on the internet long ago?

Was there a need to hide it?

Lu Ailian thought so, but she was a little curious.

She didn't know why, but looking at him in the eye made her heart throb.

Lu Ailian sized up Pei Huai's clothes of an unknown brand, "what does your boyfriend do for a living?"

Su Ji recalled his daily schedule of going to the office, meeting, socializing, and signing contracts, "he's an office worker."

Lu Ailian had a mocking look on her face, "public servant?"

Su Ji replied, "private."

Lu Ailian almost couldn't hold back her laughter. Private companies lay off workers three times a year, what future could he have?

**

Chinese New Year holiday wasn't over yet, and the Chinese were still immersed in the joy of the new year, but the crew of The Billion Stars was ready to resume work.

On the fifth day of the new year, Han Junlei and Huang Huayu called for a meeting with Su Ji and Si Jingchuan to discuss the plot of the last episode.

Huang Huayu came back from his hometown yesterday. Han Junlei did not return home at all. He was particularly dedicated to his work.

In the meeting room, Fu Xiaofeng sat beside Si Jingchuan and Su Ji. Pei Huai was sitting there.

Han Junlei and Huang Huayu planned to start the meeting as soon as they entered the room. However, they suddenly saw CEO Pei, and question marks appeared in their minds at the same time.

"Her manager hasn't been feeling well recently. I'll take her place for two days."

This time, there was another question mark above their heads.

??

They knew that Su Ji's manager was Pei Xi.

But even if she was feeling unwell, she shouldn't have to trouble CEO Pei to take care of her, right?

Was it because he was more free during the new year? So it was convenient?

Han Junlei and Huang Huayu looked at each other. Then, they looked at Su Ji and CEO Pei. They suddenly remembered the time when Su Ji was filming a fight scene in bed. It was a coincidence that CEO Pei happened to visit her at the set. They also remembered the various luxury cars that picked Su Ji up...

It was as if an electric current had suddenly passed through their minds.

The two men seemed to have realized something.

When the filming of the movie was about to end, he finally understood the signs ...

However, if that was the case, there was a more troublesome matter.

Huang Huayu pushed the script in his hand to Han Junlei and motioned for him to continue.

In the last episode, in order to make up for the negative impact caused by Zhou Xuefang, Han Junlei had changed the script to show more romantic scenes between Gu Shen and Bai Yueguang.

This was no longer a fight scene in bed...

Han Junlei looked at CEO Pei, feeling a little uncertain. However, he was a man of steel. He took a deep breath and slammed the script on the table.

Everyone looked at it.

Chapter 326 Su Ji's Kissing Scene

As Han Junlei described the plot of the script vividly, Huang Huayu kept looking at the expressions of the people opposite him.

On the table was a plate of java apples, which Huang Huayu brought from his hometown.

...

Last time, he mentioned that the java apples in his hometown were crispier and sweeter than the ones in the village, so he brought some for them to try.

Su Ji gave one to Pei Huai and another to Xu Ni. She then ate one for herself.

As she bit down, the juice instantly burst between her teeth.

It was so sweet.

Pei Huai didn't eat. He placed a piece of tissue neatly on the ground and focused on Han Junlei's speech.

Si Jingchuan was about to bite down on the apple when Han Junlei started talking about the passionate sex scene. He trembled and bit his tongue.

“Hiss...”

Huang Huayu quickly looked at Pei Huai.

Pei Huai’s expression darkened.

Or did he always look like this?

Huang Huayu was so nervous.

Han Junlei was braver. As long as CEO Pei did not say anything, he would continue.

After suffering for more than a dozen episodes, he was going to satisfy the fans.

There were two exciting scenes in total.

One was a kissing scene, and the other was a bed scene.

Si Jingchuan’s management company had strict requirements for him. The kissing scene had to be fake. Han Junlei did not have much opinion about it. As long as the atmosphere was good, it might be better than a real kissing scene.

As for the bed scene, they did not mention anything about it. They only mentioned how much nudity was allowed.

Han Junlei had also acted in a literary film in the past. He had his own ideas about bed scenes. The scene didn’t need to be too not erotic at all. However, just by manipulating the angles, he could create a very emotional and sensual atmosphere!

Han Junlei’s words were too graphic, and the dark cloud above Pei Huai’s head grew heavier and heavier.

Huang Huayu began to feel afraid. He was becoming more and more certain about Su Ji and CEO Pei’s relationship.

After Han Junlei was done, he asked Pei Huai, “CEO Pei, what do you think? ”

The dead silence lasted for half a minute. Pei Huai’s brows furrowed, “what did the writers say?”

“Um...” Huang Huayu’s voice was as soft as a mosquito’s hum, “we just had a meeting yesterday. Everyone said it was good...”

Pei Huai: “...”

Si Jingchuan looked at Fu Xiaofeng as though he’s asking for help, “isn’t this a violation of the contract?”

Fu Xiaofeng had just re-read the conditions in the contract, “it really isn’t a violation.”

Si Jingchuan: “...”

He touched the back of his neck and didn’t dare to look at Pei Huai and his boss.

Su Ji was very dedicated to her work and was studying the script seriously.

It was the last episode, and the audience was presented with a perfect ending.

Han Junlei saw that no one had any objections. He closed the script and asked politely, “we’ll start shooting tomorrow. CEO Pei, do you want to come and take a look?”

Pei Huai didn’t hesitate, “yes.”

Su Ji looked at him with a half-smile, “aren’t you just torturing yourself?”

Pei Huai looked at her, “I like it.”

Huang Huayu suddenly became excited.

As expected!

It turned out that Su Ji’s partner had never been Manager Ren. It was always CEO Pei!

That way, everything would go smoothly. They even understood why CEO Pei appeared in Country T, why he was so easy to talk to, why he agreed to be a guest star, how he could act so naturally with his adoring eyes, and why he had participated in the New Year’s special of “Hello, Sunday”!

Before this, Huang Huayu thought they looked so innocent. But now that he finally understood, wasn’t it obvious that they were having an affair?

Why didn’t he notice this before?

Why didn’t the netizens realize that it was right in front of them?

**

On the sixth day of the new year, the crew officially started work.

Zhou Xuefang’s scenes in the last episode were cut. She only appeared in flashbacks.

In addition to Su Ji and Si Jingchuan, Xu Ni was also a main character.

This was the first time the three of them met after the new year.

The scabs on Xu Ni’s face had fallen off and had begun to recover. It was not visible on the camera after applying makeup, but there was scar regardless.

Si Jingchuan’s sharp eyes noticed it immediately, “what’s wrong with your face? I haven’t seen you for a few days, and you’ve been disfigured?”

Si Jingchuan lived a delicate life and had a feminine look. Although he didn’t do anything special, he didn’t like to be in the sun since he was young. His skin was flawless, and he was shocked to see the scar on Xu Ni’s face.

Xu Ni ignored him and went to find Su Ji.

Su Ji realized that the relationship between the two of them had secretly improved over the past year.

Pei Huai already sat down on the observation chair. Shen Mu and three other assistants in black suits were standing beside him, handing him documents one by one.

Huang Huayu and Han Junlei were tight-lipped, so the crew members thought that CEO Pei was just supervising the production.

The first scene was to be shot at the ground floor of the restaurant.

Gu Shen finally decided to meet with Bai Yueguang. He also sent a text message to Shen Xixi to explain himself.

Everything happened so naturally. Bai Yueguang and Gu Shen's first kiss happened in a restaurant.

Si Jingchuan had been chewing gum since last night, and it was lychee-flavored.

He was nervous, worried, and afraid.

It was not his first time filming a kissing scene, but this time was the worst.

In his mind, filming a kissing scene with boss was as bad as incest.

It wasn't a big restaurant, but Han Junlei chose this place to shoot because he had his eyes on the beautiful kapok at the entrance of the restaurant. It was in full bloom, and the fiery red petals were falling with the wind. The weather had not warmed up yet, but he could already see the signs of spring.

Under the kapok tree, Su Ji and Si Jingchuan had already changed into their outfits and were standing in their positions.

Han Junlei wanted them to do as they wished and did not give them much instructions.

Not far away, there was a coffee table between Xu Ni and Pei Huai's chairs.

"Director Han didn't set too many rules for the last episode. You guys should get into character first!"

As Han Junlei finished speaking, the staff looked at the two people under the kapok tree.

Xu Ni, who was taking cigarettes out of a box, looked over. Pei Huai, who had just given instructions to his subordinates, also looked over.

He closed the contract and slowly put it on the coffee table. The subordinates behind him retreated to the back under Shen Mu's instructions.

As soon as he knew that the boss was here to watch Ms. Su shoot a kissing scene, Shen Mu was excited. He had to admit that based on how possessive the boss was of Ms. Su, he had really given the greatest support to her acting career.

While being overwhelmed with jealousy, he wanted to respect her career.

And Shen Mu loved to watch his CEO stopping himself from kissing Ms. Su himself!

Shen Mu also looked over.

Just like his boss, he looked at the woman under the kapok tree with a fiery smile...

Chapter 327 I Can Wear Women's Clothes

Si Jingchuan's face was so red that he looked like he was about to explode. He didn't dare to look Su Ji in the eye, let alone get into character.

On the other hand, Su Ji was much more casual. With one hand in her pocket and the other holding the script between her fingers.

...

"Chuan Chuan," she teased him.

Si Jingchuan's spine stiffened when he heard her voice.

When they had just started filming this series, he thought that his boss would not know how to film intimate scenes. When the time came, he, the "love expert", would teach her.

However, after a few months, when they were almost done filming, he cowered!

Su Ji laughed, "you're not nervous, are you? Didn't you kiss the female lead in the movie that won you the award? That was also fake?"

"You can't tell, can you?" Si Jingchuan felt a little smug after being complimented by her. "I'm very good at fake kissing."

"How?" Su Ji humbly asked for advice, "teach me."

Si Jingchuan was about to place his hand on Su Ji's face when he suddenly felt a cold gaze from the side. He immediately moved his hand away without a sound. His beautiful hand grabbed a pillar next to Su Ji's head. There was a metal ball on the top of the pillar, which was about the size of her face.

So he showed her how to put his hand, and then kissed his thumb from an angle. In the camera, it would look like they were really kissing.

Su Ji nodded, learning seriously.

Si Jingchuan glanced at her and blushed again. "Why? The male lead always initiates. Give me a few more minutes. I'll calm down."

Su Ji could tell that he was nervous, but her next sentence instantly drove away all the distracting thoughts in his mind.

Su Ji said casually, "after this film is over, we don't know when we'll meet again. Just take it as a goodbye kiss."

Si Jingchuan froze and turned to look at her.

Su Ji did not wait for him to react and immediately made a gesture to Han Junlei.

Xu Ni smoked and leaned forward.

As for Pei Huai, he casually took the lighter that she had placed on the coffee table and played with it in his palm.

It was easy to understand why Pei Huai was nervous, but Xu Ni did not know why she was nervous.

If Pei Huai was looking at Su Ji, then who was she looking at?

When their intense gazes met, Su Ji said in a voice that only she and Si Jingchuan could hear, “don’t waste time.”

As soon as she finished speaking, she pressed down on the back of his neck with one hand and placed her fingers on the position he had taught her before. Then, Su Ji kissed her own thumb.

Han Junlei had given them full freedom today. There was no rule that said who had to kiss who first. Therefore, the Su Ji version of Bai Yueguang had to take the initiative.

Si Jingchuan bent backwards. At that moment, he had nothing else on his mind. The few months he had spent with boss flashed through his mind. The characters they had created together and the three years that they had spent as Gu Shen and Bai Yueguang.

From school to the workplace, from youth to maturity.

In the end, his three-year crush on her finally paid off.

She loved him, and she was the one who initiated the first kiss.

The life of the characters in the drama would continue, and the future was promising, but they just had to stop filming...

The kapok petals were blown away by the wind and fell on their shoulders. Si Jingchuan closed his eyes and the two faced each other. In the camera, the kiss was pure and beautiful.

Xu Ni slowly blew out a puff of smoke.

She felt that there was something wrong with her. Between Si Jingchuan and Su Ji, she liked at least one of them!

Pei Huai’s gaze was fixed on Su Ji. His fingertips subconsciously exerted force, and the lighter in his palm broke into pieces.

Shen Mu looked at the assistant beside him, and the assistant pursed her lips tightly.

They loved to see Ms. Su abused the CEO.

The kiss lasted for half a minute, and Han Junlei took pictures of it from many different angles, trying to make it as beautiful as possible.

He realized that sometimes, freedom brought more inspiration. In the past, he had always explained the plot in great detail. However, for actors like Si Jingchuan and Su Ji, giving them freedom would bring about more unexpected results.

When the director said “cut!” Si Jingchuan hugged Su Ji.

Su Ji patted him on the shoulder, and the two of them separated.

Xu Ni heaved a long sigh of relief. She felt that her back was wet. Pei Huai returned the lighter to her and instantly returned to his usual self as if nothing had happened.

However, when he saw that the lighter was in pieces, he made a gesture to Shen Mu. Shen Mu understood and went forward to compensate Xu Ni. Xu Ni quickly waved her hand. "It's fine, I have another one."

Si Jingchuan took a deep breath. It was great that he was still alive after the kissing scene!

However, he only relaxed for a second before Huang Huayu reminded him that there was still a scene in the afternoon.

F*ck!

The crew's first meal after the new year was extremely luxurious.

Su Ji and Pei Huai were sitting opposite each other. She took the opportunity to ask him, "do you think my next step is to take on more series...or try a reality show?"

Pei Huai said coldly, "don't film in series anymore."

Su Ji said, "then, I'll try a reality show?"

Pei Huai's gaze fell on her, as if he had noticed something. "You have something in mind?"

Su Ji smiled and sent the information that Dong Xiyu had sent her. "I think it's quite interesting. I'll ask Pei Xi to consider it?"

She was acting like a little fox, just like how Madam Du had set him up a few days ago.

Meanwhile, Si Jingchuan carried the lunch box and moved to Han Junlei's table in shock.

He didn't know what was wrong with him this afternoon. When he was picking up the lunch box, he spilled it all over his body. Then, when he came back after changing his clothes, he ran over in a hurry. In the end, he didn't see the huge tree branch in front of him and hit his head.

Now, it was bruised.

He suspected that he had been cursed!

Si Jingchuan glanced at Pei Huai, who was eating quietly at the next table.

The Si and Pei families were old enemies.

He must have been cursed by the Pei family!

After thinking about it, he put the abalone in his lunch box into Han Junlei's lunch box with great sincerity. "Director Han, the bed scene in the afternoon..."

Han Junlei picked up the abalone. Si Jingchuan thought that Han Junlei was going to give it back to him but Han Junlei dipped it in the soup and said earnestly, "this is the last scene. We can't remove it."

Si Jingchuan stuck his head out and asked Su Ji, "boss, do you want to shoot that bed scene?"

Su Ji looked at him. She would be under him the entire time, so she really wasn't interested.

Si Jingchuan nodded as if he had received an order. Then, he looked back at Han Junlei and said, "Director Han, I'm not saying that we should remove it. I'm just thinking that since the boss won't show her face much, why don't we get a double?"

Pei Huai cast a look of approval at him.

Si Jingchuan felt more confident.

Huang Huayu cut in at the right time. "Technically, it doesn't matter, but the problem is...where can I find someone who has the same figure and skin color as Su Ji?"

Han Junlei obviously wanted Su Ji to do it, so Huang Huayu kicked him under the table.

Didn't you see how dark CEO Pei's face was when they were filming the kissing scene?

Han Junlei snorted and lowered his head to eat his rice.

Pei Huai gave Shen Mu a look, and Shen Mu immediately went forward. "I'll send someone to look for the person now. We should be able to find one."

Han Junlei and Huang Huayu looked at each other. How could they trouble CEO Pei again?

At this moment, Xu Ni's courageous voice sounded from the next table.

She said that if Su Ji needed help in the future, she would do it without hesitation.

Xu Ni said, "let's see if I can do it!"

Everyone looked over and saw a boy in a white shirt and jeans...

Xu Ni was the same height as Su Ji. They were both very thin and very fair, but...

Huang Huayu's mouth twitched. "I forgot to mention that it must be a woman..."

Of course, Xu Ni didn't think this was a problem. She said, "I can wear women's clothes."

Chapter 328 Again!

Si Jingchuan narrowed his eyes as he looked at her.

That's a great sacrifice.

...

However, if he could do it with Xu Ni, he would not have to be nervous since they were both men.

They could be as touchy as they wanted!

Han Junlei and Huang Huayu looked at Xu Ni for a long time as if they were still suspicious.

Su Ji was very interested in her suggestion. She smiled, "I think that's a good idea."

Han Junlei was still too much of a perfectionist. He said cautiously, "Xu Ni, why don't you try changing into her outfit first?"

Xu Ni had just finished her meal. She packed up and said, “okay, I’ll go now.”

Si Jingchuan seemed to have solved a huge problem and could finally eat in peace.

Pei Huai’s gaze on him softened.

Si Jingchuan nudged Su Ji and said, “boss, your kissing scene today was amazing. I watched it again just now, I was too weak.”

Su Ji took a bite of meat, “am I too domineering?”

Si Jingchuan gave her a thumbs-up, “you’re a tyrant!”

Su Ji smiled, “that’s good.”

**

After everyone finished eating, a staff member came to inform them that Xu Ni had changed and was waiting at the set.

Han Junlei, Su Ji, and the others went to take a look.

They opened the bedroom door and saw a long-haired girl in pajamas adjusting her clothes with her back facing everyone.

Si Jingchuan looked around, “where’s that kid?”

As soon as he finished speaking, the long-haired girl standing in front of him turned around.

The next second, his eyes were glued to her.

Her legs were long and her waist was slender. Her skin was fair and flawless, and her bare ankles were extremely beautiful.

The pure white silk nightdress was sensual but not too sexy. She looked so pure!

She was wearing a wig which cost a few thousand yuan. The texture was super good, and it looked as natural as real hair.

A high-quality imitation jade bracelet hung on her slender wrist.

That was Xu Ni!

It took Si Jingchuan three seconds to recognize her.

“Very good, you look exactly like Su Ji. The audience won’t be able to recognize you even if they saw your face.”

Pei Huai was the one who said this nonsense. In fact, he did not even see her.

It was impossible to look exactly like Su Ji, but even Han Junlei and Huang Huayu had to admit that it was good.

Xu Ni had never had long hair. She thought it was a hindrance, so she buried her fingers in her hair and combed it back. This action was exactly the same as how Su Ji did it.

Xu Ni looked at them and said in a softer voice than usual, "is this okay?"

She was so heroic when she stepped forward just now, but after changing her, she felt that she didn't know where to put her hands.

Not only was this the first time she had long hair, but it was also her first time wearing a woman's dress. Qin Bingjie was very strict with her, and she couldn't even wear a dress in her own house when she was young.

She was a little unconfident, until Su Ji whispered in her ear, "baby, you're so beautiful."

Xu Ni's ears turned red in embarrassment!

She was really beautiful in a feminine outfit. She looked both aggressively beautiful and pure at the same time.

Xu Ni pulled Su Ji away and smiled at her, "really?"

Su Ji tilted her chin, "look at Chuan Chuan's eyes."

They were fixated on her.

Xu Ni looked away.

Si Jingchuan came back to his senses after hearing Su Ji's words. He quickly denied it, "no, I don't think it's that pretty. I just think it's a pity that he didn't go to Country T with us. He would definitely stand out there."

Su Ji patted his shoulder when she walked past him, "sure, but wipe your saliva first."

Si Jingchuan: "..."

Xu Ni was a f * cking demon.

Si Jingchuan used to think that he was pretty, but today, he realized that there was actually a man who was prettier than him!

Han Junlei called the two of them to the side to discuss the scene while Su Ji and the others waited outside.

Han Junlei asked Huang Huayu to join.

"I'll act as Gu Shen, and your co-director Huang Huayu will be Bai Yueguang," Han Junlei said.

Immediately after, two middle-aged men got into bed and demonstrated.

They panted heavily as they explained the body movements.

There would be a blanket on top.

The two directors weighed more than 300 pounds together, and the blanket couldn't fully cover them. The four thin metal legs of the small bed were in danger.

Three minutes later, Han Junlei pushed forward. Huang Huayu even bit his lip.

Han Junlei turned to look at the two of them, “do you understand?”

Si Jingchuan: “...”

Xu Ni: “...”

Pei Huai silently raised his hand to cover Su Ji’s eyes.

He was afraid that she would be traumatized.

Han Junlei was very professional. When he saw that no one was speaking, he asked, “if you don’t understand, let’s do it again.”

Si Jingchuan replied, “no need, no need. I understand it!”

Han Junlei nodded and looked at Xu Ni.

“Yes, me too!” Xu Ni replied in a low voice.

Han Junlei finally got down from Huang Huayu, who almost died.

Si Jingchuan cast a sidelong glance at Xu Ni, “then I’ll do exactly that later. We’re both men, so there’s nothing to be embarrassed about.”

Xu Ni sighed, “alright.”

She was about to take a step forward when she realized that Si Jingchuan had stopped in his tracks.

She turned to look at him and saw that Si Jingchuan’s gaze was moving down her collarbone...

Si Jingchuan was studying the “props”. They look so realistic now...

Xu Ni stomped on his foot.

They did a practice round and the actors took their places.

Si Jingchuan tried to recall what Han Junlei did and opened his eyes with confidence. However, just as he grabbed Xu Ni’s arm, he stopped moving.

No, why was his arm so smooth?

Si Jingchuan was confused when he saw his slightly rough fingers holding onto his slender and fair arm.

The moment he exerted a little force, his arm would turn red.

What was going on?

That didn’t seem right.

Han Junlei said “cut” and told them to get ready.

Xu Ni got up from the bed and glanced at Si Jingchuan coldly, “can you do it?”

The blue veins on Si Jingchuan’s neck popped.

Xu Ni looked at him and unhurriedly adjusted her clothes. "I'm substituting for Su Ji, so don't screw this up. If you can't do it, go practice first."

The corners of her eyes were slightly raised, as if she didn't feel the prick of a solid object.

F * ck, he was looked down upon?

His desire to prove himself was ignited.

Si Jingchuan gritted his teeth and snapped his fingers at Han Junlei. "Director Han, one more time!"

Chapter 329 Could He be...Gay?

In the second try, when Xu Ni was lying on her back, she realized that Si Jingchuan's gaze was different from before.

His eyes narrowed, carrying a sickly sense of danger and uncontrollable aggression.

...

Xu Ni was annoyed by her own heartbeat, but she didn't realize that Si Jingchuan's heart was also pounding.

However, Xu Ni would not admit defeat. She performed according to what Director Han had demonstrated.

Both of their necks were red, but they kept on going.

The audience was excited, and Su Ji was also watching seriously.

Pei Huai was not bothered. Since Su Ji was sitting beside him, he could focus on his work at ease.

The second practice round was perfect. Seeing that they were in good shape, Director Han quickly started filming.

Si Jingchuan was more skilled the third time. When he turned Xu Ni over, the muscles on his arms and his collarbone were very prominent.

The scene was filled with desire.

If the viewers knew that the person beneath him was Xu Ni, that would be even hotter!

In the end, they finished it in one take.

Han Junlei's voice trembled as he solemnly announced that the filming of The Billion Stars was concluded!

There were only some scenes of the other actors left, and then Su Ji could go to the recording studio to dub for the bed scene.

Before they cleared the set, all the actors gathered around and cheered.

Yu Ling was also there. The extremely vicious woman on screen was smiling lovingly and gently.

“Xu Ni, you look so good in women’s clothes. Do you still remember how many bad takes you had on your first day? Look at you now, every expression is full of emotion. I am looking forward to your future work.”

“Thank you, Ms. Yu Ling.”

In the beginning, she was really bad at acting and caused Ms. Yu Ling a lot of trouble.

Xu Ni’s gaze passed through the crowd and looked at Su Ji, and Su Ji made a heart gesture at her from a distance.

Perhaps she was infected by the atmosphere on set, Xu Ni actually felt like crying.

She used to be a cold person. However, her heart at the moment was in turmoil, and her nose felt sour.

Even Han Junlei’s eyes were red. He had big eyes and they looked like large walnuts when he cried.

Su Ji changed to a more comfortable sitting position and glanced at Pei Huai. “How was it?”

Pei Huai crossed his long legs, his suit pants spotless.

He slowly flipped through a page of the contract, “what?”

Su Ji lifted her chin at Xu Ni. “What do you think of my friend?”

Pei Huai’s lips curled up slightly, “a mystery.”

Su Ji: “?”

Pei Huai raised an eyebrow, “his gender is quite mysterious.”

He looked like he didn’t care about the outside world and didn’t fit in with the lively crew, but in fact, he was the one who saw through everything.

Su Ji gave him a meaningful look. A few seconds later, she laughed.

Everyone was immersed in the joy of finishing the filming. Si Jingchuan was the only one who was not in the right state of mind.

The people around him congratulated him for his brilliant performance, and he just smiled.

With one hand in his pocket, his eyes fell on Xu Ni.

However, Xu Ni did not look at him and was busy communicating with Su Ji with her eyes.

Si Jingchuan couldn’t get the scene out of his mind.

The moment he had Xu Ni under him, his heart was beating like a drum and his ears were buzzing.

The palm of his hand in his pocket was still sweating.

It was a completely different feeling from when he was filming with Zhou Xuefang. Even when he was filming with the boss, it didn’t feel like this.

Si Jingchuan’s thin lips were pressed into a straight line, and he was having a mental breakdown.

He couldn't even do this to such a beautiful boss, could he be...gay?

**

After leaving the set, Su Ji felt that her little brother was depressed, as if he had been hit by bad news.

The next day, Si Jingchuan, who usually liked to spam emojis to the group chat when he was free, was especially quiet.

In the morning, Pei Huai drove Su Ji to Xu Ni's house.

Qin Bingjie's condition had not improved for the time being, but after the last acupuncture session, she seemed quite calm.

Xu Jinzhe had a mild concussion and had to stay in the hospital for a few days.

During the treatment, Pei Huai waited outside the door and used his laptop for work.

When Lu Ailian passed by, she whispered to the servant next to her, "look at how busy the employees of a private company are now. They're not like those public servants who drink tea and chat every day without worrying."

The servant nodded in agreement.

In the room, Su Ji smiled and glanced at Xu Ni as she helped Qin Bingjie with the needle, "did Chuan Chuan send you any messages?"

"Him?" Xu Ni shrugged, "no, I don't know what's wrong with him. He always says that we should keep in touch after filming, but he left yesterday as soon as it finished."

"I think he was injured while filming the bed scene with you."

Coincidentally, Qin Bingjie was jolted awake when she heard the words "bed scene".

"Son, who did you film a bed scene with?"

Xu Ni was speechless for a moment. "No one, you heard wrong."

Qin Bingjie replied with an "oh" and continued to enjoy the therapy.

Xu Ni returned to the topic with Su Ji and pretended to be surprised. "Don't be ridiculous. How can he get hurt so easily? If so, I really pity his future girlfriend."

Su Ji smiled. "I'll go to the recording studio in the afternoon to check on him."

After the treatment, Pei Huai went out to get the car while Su Ji went downstairs with the medicine box.

Lu Ailian walked out of the living room with a big smile on her face. "By the way, it's been more than half a year since Xu Ni graduated. You've contributed a lot to his fame in the entertainment industry. When my son is discharged from the hospital, I want to organize a coming-of-age party for him and introduce him to some big shots. Su Ji, since you're so close to him, why don't you come as well?"

Su Ji thought for a moment and agreed.

Lu Ailian sized her up.

In fact, she had taken a liking to Su Ji. The Su family's conditions were not bad, and they were definitely a match for each other. Su Ji was beautiful and popular in the entertainment industry. She got along well with Xu Ni who did not get close to others easily.

Although she was older, aren't mature women better?

It was a pity that she had a boyfriend.

Lu Ailian's shrewd eyes rolled.

However, they were not married.

She came to their house every day and hung out alone, maybe...

For some unknown reason, Lu Ailian adjusted her shawl and suggested to Su Ji, "bring your boyfriend along as well."

Su Ji didn't agree immediately. Instead, she said, "he might not be free. It depends on the time."

Lu Ailian gave a mysterious smile.

When her eldest grandson appeared as the young master of the Xu family, he would shine brightly. Su Ji would be able to tell who was better for her!

Chapter 330 CEO Pei is So F*cking Blessed!

At noon, Pei Huai took Su Ji to Godear for lunch.

He ordered Su Ji's favorite dishes.

...

Su Ji was not a person with a fixed personality. Some time ago, she liked to eat boiled meat, but recently, she wanted something sweet and sour.

Xu Mingzhi often couldn't grasp her preferences, and neither could Aunt Wu.

However, Pei Huai could.

Every time Pei Huai asked her what she wanted to eat before a meal, she would say "anything". Pei Huai would then nod and start ordering. However, the dishes were really what Su Ji wanted to eat at that moment.

She didn't even know what she wanted to eat, but Pei Huai seemed to have read her mind.

At this moment, Su Ji was eating a sweet and sour steak. It was very flavorful. It was soft and boneless, sweet and sour.

Pei Huai was sitting opposite her, drinking coffee and reading something.

Su Ji licked the sesame seeds from the corner of her lips and asked him, "do you want to go to Blue Whale with me in the afternoon?"

Pei Huai didn't look away, "I'll send you there and then go back to the company."

It was the seventh day of the new year, and there was a lot of work.

Su Ji cupped her chin in her hand. She guessed that he didn't read about the reality show that she sent him the other day. Just as she was about to discuss it with Pei Xi, he suddenly spoke again, "you sent me the details of the reality show. Do you want to participate?"

"I think it's quite interesting. It doesn't look too tiring."

Pei Huai took another sip of his coffee. He took photos of some issues in the document and sent them to his subordinates. "Many people will be living together, so things might get complicated."

However, Su Ji was in a harem for a few years.

From the moment she entered, everyone who saw her wanted to pinch her. Later, she was the one in command.

That was her stage.

It's not that she liked it, but she wasn't afraid.

"I heard that it's not easy to get a spot, like in Noah's ark" Su Ji didn't answer directly, but her words were enough to show her attitude.

Pei Huai sighed slightly but did not object, which was rare. "If there is a Noah's ark, you will be in first class."

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and looked at him.

Pei Huai placed the coffee cup on the table with a clatter. He raised his eyes and looked at her directly. "Go ahead if you want to."

**

At 1 pm, Ke Tou was waiting in the recording studio.

They agreed to meet at 1:30pm. At 1:29, Si Jingchuan and Su Ji came out of different elevators at the same time.

They bumped into each other.

"Boss."

"Chuan Chuan."

The two of them raised their eyebrows and lifted their chins at the same time, their hands in their pockets.

After being with his boss for a long time, he started to act like her.

Today, they were dubbing the sex scene. Since Su Ji needed to do the dubbing, Si Jingchuan had to come too.

The two of them met in front of the recording studio. Su Ji pushed the door open and suddenly muttered to herself, "I went to Xu Ni's house in the morning. He seemed so dejected."

Si Jingchuan blurted out, "he too?"

He waited for Su Ji's answer.

However, Su Ji did not answer. She laughed mysteriously, pushed the door open, and entered the room. She greeted Ke Tou and then smiled at Si Jingchuan, "you said 'he too', which means there's someone else who feels the same way?"

Si Jingchuan almost revealed his true feelings.

He touched the back of his neck. His flat and wide shoulders gave him a youthful look, "did I say that? I don't think so."

There were two staff members beside Ke Tou who were in charge of dubbing for movies and TV series.

In fact, Ke Tou could have chosen not to come today, but he chose to.

He didn't want to miss any chance to show off in front of the future Mrs. CEO!

They were still editing the scenes from the day before.

Su Ji said that there was no hurry. She sat on the chair with her arms around her legs and looked at Si Jingchuan with her chin in her hands.

Si Jingchuan felt like he had lice all over his body from her stare. When he turned around for the third time, Su Ji was still staring at him with her peach-shaped eyes and a smile.

Si Jingchuan glanced at the staff member beside him and said in a low voice, "boss, stop looking at me..."

Su Ji twirled a strand of hair with her fingertips. It smelled nice. She raised her head and looked at the intimate scene that was playing on the TV screen. Xu Ni looked really good in women's clothes.

Si Jingchuan followed her gaze, and his ears turned red.

Only then did he realize that his boss was teasing him.

Thinking of the dubbing that she would be doing later, he asked, "do you want us to leave later?"

Su Ji was generous. She crossed her legs and changed her sitting position, "you can stay."

Last night, she spent 3.90 yuan to buy the audio files of the first 10 chapters of "The Wild History of Concubine Su and the 108 Princes".

She had done her homework.

Today's dubbing was child's play for her.

Si Jingchuan asked, "really? You won't be embarrassed?"

As long as she wasn't embarrassed, someone else would be

Su Ji had a professional attitude. That was her job!

The staff members finished the editing and nodded at Su Ji and the others.

Everyone put on their headphones. In a while, the sounds would be recorded and played into everyone's headphones.

At the start Si Jingchuan thought that his boss was just putting up a strong front. However, when the first sound came out of her mouth, all the staff fell silent.

He closed his legs tightly.

Was this something they should listen to?

Su Ji was very professional. Every breath she took was in sync with Xu Ni's movements. Her expression was serious, but her voice was just so good!

It was impossible to not let one's imagination run wild.

Su Ji was steady, sitting in her seat without a trace of embarrassment.

Then, after one minute, Ke Tou left the recording studio silently.

In the third minute, one of the two staff members was carried away by the other after losing too much blood.

After Si Jingchuan was done with his part, he left the recording studio in advance, leaning against the wall.

She told them to stay, but they couldn't do it!

CEO Pei was so f * cking blessed!

At the same time, in the Pei Corporation, Pei Huai sneezed elegantly.

Pei Xi's caller ID lit up on his phone. Pei Huai opened a new document and pressed the phone to his ear.

Pei Xi replied, "Pei Huai, that show is really popular. You can't imagine how many people have used their connections to get a slot."

Pei Huai didn't care about this. He only wanted to know one thing, "did you get it?"

Pei Xi replied, "we've managed to get one out of the two spots. However, I heard that there will be more guests later on. They will move in later so we can reserve a spot to join in the future."

Pei Huai's expression remained the same. "That works too."

Both ends of the phone fell silent. Pei Xi was the first to ask, "I just realized why you wanted two spots. Other than Su Ji, who else wants to join? Does Su Ji want to bring her friend?"

Pei Huai's fingers that were holding the pen paused for a moment, and his voice suddenly became magnetic and hoarse. "How do you feel today? Do you feel nauseated?"

“Yeah. I can’t even stand the smell of meat...” Pei Xi realized that she was trying to change the topic,
“don’t you try to change the topic!!”
