

Concubine 37

Chapter 37: Su Ji in the Limelight

**

In the dressing room, Zhou Xuefang looked into the mirror and said helplessly, “it helps if you’re from a good family. I heard that she was able to attend the birthday party last time because of her family.”

She rarely talked behind people’s backs, but today, she couldn’t seem to hold back.

...

Meng Na crossed her arms and said coldly, “we’re here to sing and dance. She’s just holding a sign.”

Hearing her words, Zhou Xuefang felt a little better. However, in less than a second, Pan Lian said, “isn’t that good? I’m so envious. She doesn’t have to do anything but she could get so many beautiful shots! It’s even more than what we’d get!”

That sentence pierced through Zhou Xuefang and Meng Na’s empty sense of superiority.

The dressing room was pin-drop silent.

Everyone knew that being an ambassador was a great job that didn’t require much effort.

**

The stage was one of the largest in the country. The primary colors were blue and pink, and the scene was bright and lively.

The program was recorded six days in advance and would be broadcasted this Sunday.

The lighting and props were all ready. The host and all the guests were waiting backstage.

After the opening song, the host greeted the audience warmly.

They heard that he also graduated from Kyokushin Art School.

Pei Huai appeared as the main sponsor, and Su Ji followed him with a sign with their company’s logo.

The man’s shirt was fully-buttoned. He clearly had a cold appearance that would keep people away, but on camera, it made them want to unbutton his shirt.

He had the kind of look that would drive all women crazy.

No wonder he was so famous in A City.

Beside him there was a woman in a white dress.

The woman who had once dominated the Great Shang Dynasty was no ordinary beauty. After the makeup artist’s touch, her beauty was even more shocking.

The director didn’t recognize this beautiful woman as Su Ji at all. He thought she was a newcomer and asked his assistant. When he learnt that she was Su Ji, he was extremely surprised, and his eyes instantly widened.

Unsurprisingly, the appearance of the two's super good looks caused the crowd to exclaim.

Although there was no live audience, the reaction of the many staff members was real.

When the three members of the Fallen Note were already at center of the stage, the camera had yet to focus on them.

Following that was a short interview with the sponsor. Although it was his first time participating in a variety show, the man was eloquent. He didn't seem awkward at all.

He was used to having a meeting with tens of thousands of people, so this was really not difficult.

Looking at Su Ji, who was standing in the middle of the camera with Pei Huai, Zhou Xuefang, who was barely able to squeeze into the frame, pursed her lips. Pei Huai was in the limelight. Su Ji might not be able to get a shot even if she stood beside him.

Who knew that when Pei Huai saw that all the cameras were pointed at him, his thick eyebrows gradually furrowed.

The cameraman was so shocked by his expression that his hair stood on end. He couldn't understand why the boss was unhappy.

The next second, the man looked at the camera and said coldly, "I'm here today to promote the company's products..."

After his advice, the cameraman was enlightened.

In an instant, all the cameras were focused on Su Ji.