Chapter 421 Su Ji Used Her Connections!

Duan Shengquan looked around and pointed at Dong Xiyou. "Su Ji, you two are classmates, right? She is under Old Zhou. She knows him."

Dong Xiyou had been working there recently and was more daring to speak. Moreover, her master, Old Zhou, was indeed a good person. He taught all the newcomers seriously. Although they addressed him as "master", he was actually more like a father.

...

Knowing that, the guests were more at ease.

However, Casar had always been a man of action. He had already ordered his assistant to revise the agreement.

"If the accident happened during an activity that is part of the show, the organizer could not be exempted from responsibility."

Duan Shengquan thought that it was reasonable, so he asked the guests to re-sign the revised agreement.

After signing the contract, Nan Miaomiao tried to smooth things over. "Director Duan, please don't take it to heart. Of course, we believe in your team's professionalism."

Duan Shengquan said, "not at all, we should have put more thought into this."

Pei Xi drank the medicine Su Ji prescribed and it indeed helped with her nausea.

Due to her morning sickness, she had not been paying attention to "Cohabitation" for a few days. Today, she finally had the energy to check what's going on in the show. However, just as she was about to start, she received a call from the sponsor of the luggage.

She was still a little confused when she received the call, but when she heard the sponsor state the purpose of the call, she was even more confused!

"? You want to buy the patent for the modified luggage?"

A modified suitcase? Retractable wheels? Patent?

Pei Xi could not understand it.

What did she miss these past few days?

["Goodnight everyone!"]

["We'll be going to Sea Z tomorrow~"]

The netizens said goodnight to each other. The female guests put on masks and exchanged skincare tips.

Nan Miaomiao felt a little guilty because of the way Sonya looked at her today. She asked her to put on a facial mask with her at night to restore their friendship.

Nan Miaomiao's hair was all pulled back and tied into a high bun. After the injection, her face was now back to normal. She put on a steam mask and patted it relaxedly.

"I joined this show to meet the big shots from all walks of life. I didn't expect Director Duan to make it so hard for us."

Sonya said, "it's just a gimmick. Will they really put us in danger? Even if it's due to the pressure of the fans, they won't dare to. We'll do our best as actors and perform."

Nan Miaomiao nodded, "I can do that. "

She lifted her head and covered her face with a mask, so she could not see Sonya's expression. She only felt that it was a little quiet. After a moment, Sonya spoke again, "I remember that before we came here, you were thinking about how to get Ms. Jiang to join us. At that time, you were so insistent, but...I haven't heard you mention this for a long time."

Nan Miaomiao's facial mask was steaming hot, and her face was sweating profusely.

"Well..." She replied, "I've tried everything, but it didn't work."

Sonya closed the bathroom door without batting an eyelid. "When we talked about whether to question Director Duan today, almost everyone sided with her. She's almost becoming the leader of the house. The situation will be even more serious when we get to Sea Z."

Nan Miaomiao slowly took off her facial mask and looked at her, "then what do you think we should do? Ms. Jiang doesn't really like me anymore."

Sonya was wearing a mask that was already dry. She was tearing it off her face in front of the mirror.

"We don't want to ostracize her, but there are some things that we should let Ms. Jiang know. "

"What is it?"

"You, me, Lu Shang, and Mr. Casar...we got here via the standard procedure. Even Xiao Ken was recommended by the directors because of his expertise in drumming."

Nan Miaomiao listened carefully and waited for her to continue.

Sonya threw the mask into the trash can beside her and turned to her with a normal expression. "But as far as I know, Su Ji got in because of CEO Pei."

Nan Miaomiao said, "I see."

Sonya continued, "Ms. Jiang..."

"...hates people like Su Ji who use their connections!"

Sonya looked at her with satisfaction.

However, Nan Miaomiao quickly gave up. She just didn't want to disappoint Sonya, so she probed, "then I'll test Ms. Jiang tomorrow on the plane?"

Sonya said, "we'll be on the plane together tomorrow. You won't have the chance to be alone."

Nan Miaomiao said, "but it's already very late now..."

"Ms. Jiang is doing her skincare just now. She probably hasn't slept yet," Sonya said.

Nan Miaomiao saw a hint of anxiety in Sonya's eyes. It was an emotion she had never seen before.

She was silent for a moment. "Then I'll go see her now..."

Five minutes later, Nan Miaomiao knocked on Ms. Jiang's door. "Ms. Jiang, I hope I'm not disturbing you?"

Jiang Cuiqin was soaking her feet. She looked up at her and asked, "what's the matter? "

Nan Miaomiao braced herself and went in. "Well, we're going abroad tomorrow. I have some bird's nest supplements here that can calm your nerves. It's good for before a trip. I made you a cup."

Jiang Cuiqin was chatting with her husband on WeChat, so she said lightly, "thank you."

In fact, Nan Miaomiao did not care that Su Ji got in because of her boyfriend. However, Sonya wanted her to, she had no choice but to come.

After thinking about it, she stirred the soup in her hand and changed the topic. "Are you chatting with your husband? When I came out, Su Ji was also on the phone with her boyfriend."

Jiang Cuiqin didn't say anything. She was still texting on her phone and seemed to be in a good mood.

Nan Miaomiao said, "but I only found out today that...she was not supposed to be here. She's quite well-connected and her boyfriend managed to get her in..."

When she said this, she didn't know that Jiang Cuiqin had just finished typing a WeChat message and clicked send.

It was to thank her husband.

["It's been hard on you to be alone at home all this time, but I want to thank you for getting me on this show~~"]

Chapter 422: Journey to the Unknown

She only realized what Nan Miaomiao said after she sent the WeChat message.

...

She glanced at her and said emotionlessly, "there are many people who use their connections to get on this show, but in the end, it's still up to Director Duan. He won't let someone he doesn't approve of to be on the show."

Nan Miaomiao was stunned. She did not expect her to be so open-minded about this matter. "Ms. Jiang, you're so understanding. If it weren't for Su Ji's boyfriend, Director Duan might have asked someone else. Then, wouldn't that person lose this opportunity because of Su Ji? It's still a little unfair, isn't it?"

The corners of Jiang Cuiqin's mouth sank as she placed her phone in front of her. "The guests can take the initiative to contact the organizer. By your logic, if you didn't agree to come on, they would have given your spot to someone else. But now that you've agreed to come on, aren't you taking someone else's spot?"

Nan Miaomiao's IQ was low, so she was confused by her words.

Why did Ms. Jiang look so angry?

"Ms. Jiang, I was just saying. After all, people like us who came to the show through standard procedure are definitely different from people like her who relied on connections..."

This time, Nan Miaomiao's words were cut off by Jiang Cuiqin. "What do you mean by standard procedure? Miaomiao, are you questioning their fairness?" "No..." Nan Miaomiao stammered.

Jiang Cuiqin said, "if not, what do you want to say exactly? Why do you care how they come on to the show? Do you want them to leave?"

"I..." Nan Miaomiao had no idea what had happened and why Ms. Jiang was angry.

However, at this moment, Jiang Cuiqin received a message.

It was a voice message from her husband. She just played it out loud.

Nan Miaomiao heard Jiang Cuiqin's husband's deep and mellow voice, "why should you thank your husband for helping you get on the show? Come home for a few days after you come back from Sea Z..."

Nan Miaomiao paused for two seconds. She raised her head and met Jiang Cuiqin's sharp eyes.

She really didn't know that her husband helped her get a spot!

Was she supposed to say that she actually thought that it wasn't a big deal, and that she was just jealous?

"Get out!"

Nan Miaomiao carried the cold bird's nest soup and dashed out of Ms. Jiang's room.

When she bumped into Sonya in the corridor again, Sonya brought her to the room. She looked like she was about to cry.

Sonya felt disappointed after hearing her words.

Nan Miaomiao wanted to take one last bet, but she ended up offending Ms.

Jiang even more.

Sonya crossed her arms and calmly analyzed what Nan Miaomiao had just said. "Actually, Miaomiao, you should go and explain to Ms. Jiang again. Tell her that her situation is different from Su Ji's. She..."

"Let's forget about it." Before she could finish, Nan Miaomiao interrupted her, "didn't you tell me not to be rash when dealing with Su Ji? I've decided to listen to you now. Besides, Su Ji hasn't done anything since she came to the house. Now, everyone in the house is on her side. Even if we managed to convince Ms.

Jiang, the three of us will be seen as anti-social. It won't change anything... '

Seeing that her friend's expression was getting colder and colder, she continued, "but if Su Ji really wants to do anything evil in the future, I'll definitely support you to the end!"

' Sonya stopped talking and looked at her. After a long silence, she walked out.

"Sonya..." Nan Miaomiao chased her out of the door. "We still have to take a flight tomorrow. Rest early."

The next day, the guests set off.

Duan Shengquan stood at the door of the house, waving his hand with a smile as he watched everyone leave.

Lu Shang helped the female guests carry their suitcases into the car. Before leaving, he looked at Duan Shengquan and asked, "Director Duan, aren't you coming with us?"

Duan Shengquan also wanted to go, but he really couldn't leave the country.

"Old Zhou will pick you up there. I have to prepare for after you return to the country. '

Lu Shang nodded and got into the car.

The guests rolled down the car window and listened to Duan Shengquan's last words of encouragement. "They're ready. The next time we see you guys, you'll be in Sea Z. No matter what happens, don't panic. It's all part of the script. The most luxurious house that costs eight million yuan for two nights has been prepared for you. Director Duan is waiting to see your wonderful performance!"

He wasn't completely sure what kind of activities Old Zhou had arranged, but it was precisely because he didn't know that he was looking forward to it even more.

The guests bade him farewell.

The car headed north.

Su Ji, Xiao Ken, Casar, and Orphie were in a car.

Yes, Orphie also went with them.

Orphie, who was wearing a black maid outfit, was sitting in the darkest corner. Her tanned skin blended perfectly into the background, and her facial features could not be seen clearly. Only the white lace on the maid outfit and a row of white teeth could be seen when she smiled.

Xiao Ken and Casar were not very interested in the trip at first, but because of Su Ji, things were a little different.

Xiao Ken looked at the scenery along the way. "This doesn't seem to be the way to the airport, right?"

As the car continued to move forward, the road on both sides became wider and wider. Casar was somewhat familiar with this place. He had visited this place in China a while ago.”

“It seems that they have arranged a private jet for us.” They went to a helipad in the northern suburbs of A City.

“I see.” Xiao Ken shrugged.

Su Ji took a selfie of herself and Orphie and sent it to Pei Huai. She told him the itinerary and said that if the microscope was ready, he should not send it to her yet. He would wait until she returned to China.

[“How long will you be away for?”]

[“About a month.”]

[“That’s too long.”]

[“I will miss you very much.”]

Su Ji smiled and replied to him.

[“Is the photo nice?”] [“It’s beautiful.”] [“Me or Orphie?”]

[“Who?”]

[“Aunt Orphie next to me.”]

Pei Huai opened the photo again.

This time, he finally saw Orphie!

Soon, they arrived. Two private planes that did not look very luxurious but were large enough were already parked in the open space.

The guests carried their small suitcases and embarked on a journey full of the unknown.

At this moment, they still did not know that the next month would be the most difficult month of their lives..

Chapter 423: The Most Exciting Reality Show!

Pei Huai put away his phone and called Shen Mu into his office. He asked Shen Mu to arrange for a full month of business trips for him.

...

Shen Mu knew the CEO too well. He was definitely trying to numb himself with work.

Duan Shengquan, who stayed in the house, thought about it and called Old Zhou again to give him some instructions.

Old Zhou was probably too busy with the final preparations, so he only picked up the phone when it was about to hang up.

The middle-aged man's voice was low and husky. It sounded sinister. "Director Duan, I'm sorry. I was busy just now and couldn't pick up."

However, Duan Shengquan was used to it and did not think much of it.

Old Zhou didn't use to speak like this. A few months ago, he had an accident and was in a coma in the hospital for a few days. When he woke up later, he spoke like this.

It might be post-traumatic stress, but it didn't affect his serious attitude towards work.

Duan Shengquan smiled. "It's nothing. I just wanted to ask how the preparations on your end are going. I just took a look at the comments on the official website. The number of netizens waiting to watch the live stream is several times more than usual. You must be under a lot of pressure."

Old Zhou said, "don't worry, I'll definitely present you with the most exciting...reality show."

Duan Shengquan said, "I'm not worried."

Old Zhou said, "the guests should already be on the plane, right?" Duan Shengquan looked at the time, "probably. There's no traffic today. '

"Then I need to go now. I have to make arrangements here. "

"No problem!"

On the helipad, there were two planes. One was for the staff members to move equipment, and the other was for the guests.

They boarded the private jet and looked around the interior of the plane. There was a dining area, a lounge, an entertainment area, etc. The facilities were complete.

It seemed that the journey would not be boring.

However, it was strange that there were also ten strong foreign men on the plane.. When they saw them get on the plane, they smiled brightly and seemed to be quite amiable. They could speak Chinese and help them put their luggage away. They even introduced them to the various functional areas on the plane.

"Are they our bodyguards?" Nan Miaomiao asked softly.

Lu Shang pulled her to his side, "don't go too far away from me. '

Xiao Ken and Casar were about to tell Su Ji the same thing, but before they could say anything, Su Ji looked at them and said cautiously, "you two be careful too. Don't go too far away from me."

Xiao Ken:

Casar: '

Wang Yi looked at the two of them with a hint of uncertainty in his eyes.

The plane took off steadily. Some of the guests took photos and sent them to their families or friends. Ji Xi sat alone and made a call.

When she answered the phone, her voice was not loud, and her tone was no different from usual. Other than Su Ji who glanced at her a few times, almost no one realized that she had made a call.

She sat with one hand hugging her knee and the other holding her phone to her ear. Su Ji looked at her side profile. A smile lingered on her lips.

It was graceful and gentle.

The first few hours of the flight passed in a flash. The burly man asked the guests, “we have very delicious in-flight meals. Would everyone like to order?”

Sonya asked Nan Miaomiao if she wanted to eat, and Nan Miaomiao finally withdrew her gaze from Ms. Jiang, who hadn’t looked at her since she woke up in the morning. She thought about what Sonya had asked and said cleverly, “what’s there to eat on the plane? Let’s go eat some local food later! Do you know where we are going later?”

Sonya said, “no, it’s probably just an island.”

Nan Miaomiao said, “then let’s try the most authentic local food there.” Sonya nodded.

The two of them did not notice that when they were talking, the burly man looked at each other.

However, Su Ji gave a different answer. “Three servings please!”

She ordered for Xiao Ken and Casar.

Nan Miaomiao glanced at her.

She thought that Su Ji was going to eat all of them by herself. The burly man said, “alright, I’ll go get them for you now.” Wang Yi, Li Shuguo, and Lu Shang also asked for one each.

Ji Xi, Jiang Cuiqin, Sonya, and Nan Miaomiao did not eat.

Lu Shang advised Nan Miaomiao to eat a little so that she wouldn’t be too hungry. There was still a long time on the plane. Nan Miaomiao looked at the typical plane meal in his hand. She was afraid of getting fat and decided not to eat.

After that, Lu Shang managed to get her to eat a few bites of ribs.

The burly man stopped in front of Su Ji when he was taking the plates, as if he wanted to confirm something. “Excuse me, are you Miss Su Ji?”

Casar interrupted him rudely. “Why do you ask?”

The burly man smiled. “Ah, it’s nothing. My sister likes to watch your shows. She said that she likes Su Ji the most, so I asked.”

Nan Miaomiao glanced at Su Ji.

No way, she actually had fans overseas?

Beside her, Sonya replied on her behalf, “that’s right, she is. Since his sister likes you so much. Give her an autograph.”

Su Ji looked back at the burly man and did not care about what Sonya meant. Instead, she casually took the notebook and pen on the table and asked the burly man, "what's your sister's name? I'll sign it for her."

The man paused for a second and then said a name without batting an eyelid.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes and gave him an autograph.

"Thank you so much." The man casually put the notebook into his pocket.

A few hours later, the plane had already entered the airspace of the Sea Z. At this moment, the guests looked down and saw a vast ocean.

The islands were very far apart, and only from a bird's eye view could one see them. Su Ji felt that the distribution of these islands was somewhat familiar.

The female guests began to touch up their makeup. When they arrived at their destination, the cameras would be switched on.

Nan Miaomiao was going to land beautifully.

However, at this moment, the private plane suddenly jolted violently.

Casar looked around warily. "What's going on?"

Orphie exclaimed beside him.

Lu Shang subconsciously pulled Nan Miaomiao behind him. Nan Miaomiao glanced at him.

The pilot was obviously acting. He quickly recited a few sentences in English. He said that the plane had suddenly malfunctioned and an emergency landing must be made now..

The guests who were supposed to go with this were confused.

When they found the ten burly men from before, they had already put on their goggles and changed into professional equipment.

It was the kind of professional equipment used for skydiving!

Chapter 424: Su Ji Is Missing?

The drone was ready outside. The audience could see the plane started to shake violently.

...

["Waaaaaah! What is going on? Why is the plane shaking so much?"] ["I'm so worried about Master Shang, Xiao Ken, Casar and the Professor!"] ["A plane full of husbands, please don't let anything happen to them!"]

["Same for the wives!"]

Duan Shengquan, who was still having a meeting with the staff in the small room, became spirited when he saw this.

The meeting was suspended.

He knew that Old Zhou prepared this, but he was still affected by the tension on screen.

Looking at the rising viewership of the live stream, Duan Shengquan could not help but admire Old Zhou.

In the plane, the pilot was still performing his high-altitude stunts. He controlled the plane to move left and right, drawing arcs in the air.

The guests held onto the equipment around them.

“No way! Parachute? Isn’t this too sudden?”

“Director Duan is a little too ruthless!”

Li Shuguo’s usually calm expression also showed a trace of panic. “No wonder he asked for my medical report when signing the contract. Don’t be afraid, children. I see that the drones are outside. Why don’t we jump?”

Jiang Cuiqin sprayed a layer of hair spray on her very retro wavy hair. She combed her hair elegantly. “It’s a rare experience. ‘

Although Ms. Jiang looked exquisite, she had done crazy things for love when she was young.

Since the seniors had said so, the others cooperated.

The burly men were in charge of one person each. They helped everyone put on their equipment and checked them.

The man who asked for Su Ji’s signature, walked up to Su Ji. He was “coincidentally” in charge of Su Ji.

Casar was already paired with another man. “Girl, don’t be afraid. I’ve checked, their parachute equipment is of quality. They will control the opening and landing time of the parachute. If you don’t dare to look down, just close your eyes. It’ll be over soon.”

Su Ji looked at him sideways. “I’m not afraid.”

The man, who was putting on the parachute for her, had a dark expression on his face.

The pilot stabilized the plane and opened the cabin door. Lu Shang stood up first. He wanted to impress Nan Miaomiao, whose face was pale with fear.

His short hair was blown by the wind, and his sword-like eyes looked firm even though he was thousands of meters above the ground. [“Look! It’s Master Shang!”]

[“We are ready to jump! Master Shang is so handsome!”]

[“When he was filming Legend of Wu Tian, Master Shang was hanging on wires for three hours. This time, Master Shang is the first one to jump! My eternal god!”]

The brawny man led Lu Shang to jump. The two of them fell at an extremely fast speed. The chat shouted as the brawny man opened the parachute with the logo of “Cohabitation” and skillfully controlled the speed and direction of the parachute.

Lu Shang also opened his eyes at this moment. He looked at the vast ocean and the tiny island under him and looked relaxed.

From his perspective, the drone broadcasted a picture of an island. The scene was so beautiful!

Nan Miaomiao followed closely behind, but she did not dare to open her eyes at all. She held onto the cabin door tightly. Later on, she was pulled down by the man.

“Ahhhhhhh!”

Her tone-deaf but penetrating high notes echoed. [“If you are wearing headphones, please turn down the volume!”]

[“Where’s the Ms. Nan from Legend of Wu Tian? LMAO”]

Even Lu Shang, who was far away from her, seemed to have heard it. He turned his head to looksee her condition, but the burly man said, “no! Don’t look at others when you’re flying. It’s very dangerous!”

“I’m sorry.”

Li Shuguo and Jiang Cuiqin went together.

The sea breeze was too strong. Li Shuguo’s hair, which originally covered his hairline, was blown to the top of his head.

[“The sea is not as vast as Old Li’s head...”]

[“I’m afraid that Old Li’s hair, which is already sparse, will be blown away like dandelions!”]

Jiang Cuiqin’s hairspray was very strong. From the beginning to the end, it looked like a static image. The chat was asking for the brand of her hairspray.

Sonya, Ji Xi, and Wang Yi were next.

Dr. Wang would never miss this opportunity to look at the small mountains. He did not even blink.

Sonya always looked cool. Parachuting was not difficult for her, and she had good control of her expression.

Ji Xi was much braver than her fans had imagined. Her hair, which was featured in countless shampoo advertisements, fluttered in the wind and was as beautiful as a movie poster.

Finally, it was Casar, Xiao Ken, Orphie, and Su Ji.

Casar, Xiao Ken, and Su Ji looked like they were from the Air Force.

Although Orphie wasn’t that brave, she wasn’t bad either. Her hand was pressing down on the fluffy maid’s skirt.

Against the light blue sky, Orphie's tan skin was a stark contrast.

When they jumped, there were others in the air. After the drone gave each guest a close-up, it began to take a zoomed out image.

Lu Shang and Nan Miaomiao, who were the first to jump, had already landed. The burly men quickly evacuated after putting them on the island.

Nan Miaomiao's legs were weak. She had been weightless for too long. Now that she was placed on the ground, she didn't dare to move. It didn't feel real. She lay on the ground like a turtle with thin legs.

Lu Shang's heart ached, but he also found it funny. Before the drone caught up, he squatted in front of her and asked with a smile, "do you need me to carry you?"

Nan Miaomiao's voice was light and her soul was gone. "Let me stay still for a moment."

Lu Shang laughed when the drone was here.

["Hahahaha, Ms. Nan, if you continue on like this, you're going to lose me!"]

["Miaomiao! Stand up!"]

["Master Shang, do you know why you haven't managed to woo Ms. Nan yet? Isn't it mean to laugh at her at this time? Hahahahahaha, I'm sorry, I can't help it either!"]

The guests behind were also placed on the island one after another. After a while, they greeted each other and calmed down.

Wang Yi observed his surroundings.

Ji Xi followed his gaze and looked at the island.

Soon after, the discussions died down, and more and more people's attention was attracted by the island.

["D * mn, why is there no one on this island?"]

["Not only is there no one, there aren't even any buildings. Other than the forest, there's only sand..."]

At this moment, the drone flew over the island.

The netizens could see clearly that this was an...uninhabited island!

As for the guests, before anyone could react, they saw Casar and Xiao Ken, who were the last to arrive on the island, looking around for the staff members in a fluster.

"Has anyone seen Su Ji?"

"We jumped together.. Why isn't she here yet?!"

Chapter 425: She isn't Human, Right?

Xiao Ken put his hand between his eyebrows and looked up at the sky. "There's no one in the sky?"

...

Jiang Cuiqin said, "are there no staff members? We have to ask someone."

When Li Shuguo heard that Su Ji was missing, he was more anxious than when he heard that he was going to parachute.

"Is this also part of the script? We can't do it without Su Ji!"

At this moment, Casar realized that the drones that he couldn't shake off had flown over the island to take a long shot. There was no camera to talk to, let alone staff members. Hescratched his head in frustration.

Nan Miaomiao curled her hands into a telescope and looked into the distance. "Did she land on another island?"

Sonya said, "it's possible. We saw it on the plane. There are several islands here."

Wang Yi shook his head. "There is a big difference in perspective. A professional parachutist shouldn't have made such a big error."

Ji Xi thought of something and quickly took out her phone. "Does anyone have her number? Let's see if we can get through."

Everyone took out their phones, but soon, the light in their eyes dimmed again. They did not know if Su Ji's phone was connected, but they were sure that...they weren't!

There was no signal on this island!

Orphie made an amen sign with a very sad expression. She said in broken

Mandarin, "Ms. Su ...she might have drowned!"

"F * ck!" Casar clenched his fist, and the veins on his face were about to pop as he looked at Orphie. Orphie felt that she had said something wrong and covered her mouth.

Casar already had the thought of sending a lawyer's letter to Duan Shengquan when he got back.

At the same time, in the endless sea, the burly man in charge of Su Ji was swimming in the sea with his arms swinging.

He was alone, and there was no sign of Su Ji.

The man's eyes were dark, and the phone in his hand was in a waterproof bag. The screen that lit up showed that he had just successfully sent a voice message.

"It's done."

The person he texted quickly replied with the location of a rescue ship that would come to pick him up later.

The man's lips curled up coldly. Although he did not know who Su Ji had offended, he only hoped that she would not come looking for him in the netherworld.

He was just doing his job.

When they were parachuting, he deliberately jumped last.

Everyone landed on the island, but he brought Su Ji to the center of the sea. The little girl was very smart and quickly realized that something was wrong. Fortunately, he was prepared and covered her mouth with a handkerchief soaked in medicine, knocking her out.

He threw her into the sea. It was clear what would happen to an unconscious person who was thrown into the sea.

The man closed his eyes for a moment of silence for her.

At this moment, he heard the sound of a large fish rapidly approaching behind him.

He was very familiar with all kinds of sounds from the sea as he lived near the sea. From the sound, the fish should be about 1.7 meters long.

To verify if his guess was right, he turned his head.

In the next second, he almost choked to death by a mouthful of seawater!

That wasn't a 1.7-meter-tall fish! It was the 1.7 -meter-tall Su Ji!

Su Ji, who had been drugged and thrown into the sea, was not dead for some reason. She was very awake and swimming at a very fast speed. She split the waves and quickly approached him.

The brawny man was stunned for a few seconds before he realized that she was here to punish him. He turned his head and swam quickly.

"What do you guys see over there?"

"It looks like Su Ji!"

The moment Nan Miaomiao recognized Su Ji in the middle of the sea, she did not even realize it and shouted happily.

Everyone looked in the direction she was pointing.

In the middle of the sea, two figures, one big and one small, were moving forward at an astonishing speed.

"Don't chase me! I was instructed by someone!" Seeing that the distance between them was shortening, the man panicked and choked on a few mouthfuls of seawater. His muscles glowed brightly under the scorching sun.

"Who?" Su Ji chased after him.

"If I tell you, will you let me go? "

Su Ji spat out the Sophora Flavescens pill in her mouth. "Tell me who it is and I'll leave your corpse intact!"

From the moment he hesitated when Su Ji asked for his sister's name, Su Ji knew that there was something fishy going on.

He did not ask anything else except to confirm that she was Su Ji. This meant that he was targeting only her.

Fortunately, she made a pill and put it into her mouth in advance. Even if she was stabbed by a knife, she could still last 300 rounds on the battlefield.

Su Ji was a good swimmer while the man's muscles were sore and he could not control his body anymore.

The woman behind him was too terrifying. He would rather drown than be caught by that woman.

Fortunately, the yacht that came to pick him up arrived at this time.

He quickly climbed onto the boat and turned around to ask the people on the boat to increase the speed.

A person could definitely not catch up with a yacht. No matter how fast Su Ji swam, he quickly pulled away from her.

Only then did he recover his strength. He lay on the deck and panted heavily.

It was too f * cking scary.

She wasn't a human at all, right?

Su Ji stopped in the middle of the sea. Since she could not catch up, she did not waste her energy.

She narrowed her eyes as she watched the yacht disappear from her sight. From the direction of the uninhabited island, several other figures swam toward her.

It was Casar and Xiao Ken.

Su Ji had been left in the middle of the sea. Later, she swam a long distance to chase after the man, so she was actually very far from the shore now. However, there was nothing blocking her view, so it looked like she wasn't too far from the shore.

After swimming for a few hundred meters, their speed began to decrease. The more they swam, the more tired they felt.

Su Ji knew that they couldn't do it, but they couldn't hear her when she called out to them.

She swam towards them and tried to shorten the distance.

In the end, when the three of them met in the middle, Casar's leg cramped.

After a short moment of silence, Su Ji let him hold her neck, and then she used the buoyancy of the sea to swim with him on her back.

This time, not only did he fail to save the beauty, but he also burdened her.

Casar was silent throughout the journey. He had lost a lot of face.

Although Xiao Ken really wanted to help Su Ji, he could only do his best to prevent himself from becoming her second burden.

On the shore, Wang Yi waved the jacket that Casar had taken off.

He seemed to have foreseen Casar's embarrassing moment, so he did not go into the sea with him.

After swimming for an unknown amount of time, the group finally gathered on the shore..

Chapter 426: Interrogated

["Speaking of which, we've been admiring the scenery of the deserted island for a long time. Shouldn't they show us what the guests are doing??"]

...

["Show us the guests!!"]

The chat was getting annoyed. When the drone's image was cut back to the guests, Su Ji, who was drenched from head to toe, was now wearing Casar's coat and examining his legs.

Xiao Ken, who was standing beside him, was dripping with water.

["??? What happened?"]

["Why are they wet?"]

["Why can't Casar stand up? Are you injured?"]

Su Ji's fingers traced his calf bone and quickly came to a conclusion. "It's nothing. It's just a cramp. Take more calcium supplements."

["Low calcium? Hahahaha!"]

["I feel like I've wasted a precious second!"]

Casar: ‘

At this moment, Li Shuguo added, "how can such a tall person still lack calcium? If I had known earlier, I would have given you a bottle of calcium tablets taken from the senior entertainment center."

Casar: ‘

["Shots fired!"]

Wang Yi looked at Su Ji. "What happened just now? Why are you in the water?"

Su Ji's words stunned everyone. "The man threw me into the water."

"???" Nan Miaomiao looked incredulous.

Xiao Ken took a step forward and said fiercely, “where is he? I’ll ask him what’s going on! ”

Su Ji replied, “he escaped by boat. I didn’t manage to catch him.”

If they didn’t catch the person, then there was no evidence. This also meant that they had no way of knowing what had happened.

[“It must be part of the script!”]

[“Su Ji’s acting is so natural!”]

[“To be honest, Lychee TV’s script is indeed a bit too much. What if an accident happens?”]

[“If there’s an accident, there will definitely be a survival boat or helicopter, idiot!”]

It was not surprising for the netizens to think that since they did not see Su Ji swim back, but some of the guests thought so too.

Sonya: “Didn’t they communicate with you in advance? Maybe it’s to make it seem more natural.”

Nan Miaomiao said, “do you mean that this was all part of the script?”

Sonya gave her an “what else?” expression.

Casar and Xiao Ken obviously didn’t think so.

They swam over from that distance and there were no lifeboats or helicopters around when Casar’s leg cramped. If Su Ji did not save him, they did not think that the staff members would appear out of thin air to save them.

Besides, Su Ji was knocked out. If she had not been prepared, her body would be floating by now.

She looked at the drones hovering around her.

The enemy was in the dark while she was in the light, so she decided to stay put for now.

Something was wrong with this trip to Sea Z. Perhaps Casar’s words were true. They were not traveling, but they were planning a great escape!

Su Ji’s lips curled up as she stood up.

This was more interesting than filming..

Lu Shang looked around. Before they could get over the jet lag, they were thrown onto the deserted island. “There’s no staff member explaining the mission. Do they want us to escape the island by ourselves? ”

The scorching sun covered the entire island without any shelter. The vast sea reflected the light, and the temperature here was much higher than in A City.

“Does anyone know what time it is?” Jiang Cuiqin was bothered by the heat. The time displayed on her phone was still in the same timezone as A City. She didn’t know the local time. It was very unnerving.

Li Shuguo helped her to sit down on a reef nearby.

Wang Yi looked up at the sky and estimated the time based on the height of the sun. "It should be around 1-2 pm."

Su Ji then shifted her gaze away from the phone. "In that case, we should be on an island at the south of Sea Z."

Ji Xi's hair was messed up by the sea breeze. She tucked it behind her ear and asked Su Ji, "how did you know?"

Su Ji said, "the latitude determines the temperature, and the longitude determines the timezone. This place is about six hours ahead of A City."

["Wow! Her survival skills are amazing!"]

["Why does Su Ji have so many survival skills?"]

"I see." Jiang Cuiqin had a better idea of the time and location at the moment. She instantly felt better.

The guests guessed what the organizer had planned for them, as if they were playing some kind of sandbox survival game.

The drone was still there, which meant that everything was still under control. This gave most of the guests a sense of security.

Nan Miaomiao and Sonya were in a good mood as they strolled along the beach. Sonya hummed her new song, "Gold Fish" and was immersed in the scenery.

After Caesar's leg recovered, he and Xiao Ken went up to Su Ji and asked her what she wanted to do next.

Su Ji yawned. "Sleep. I'll think about it when I wake up."

The effects of the lozenge had worn off, and the drowsiness had returned.

Caesar looked around, trying to find a place for her to sleep. However, there was nothing but bushes and sand as far as his eyes could see. There was really no place suitable for a woman to take an afternoon nap.

The next second, Su Ji walked straight to a shady bush and spread Caesar's suit jacket on the ground. "I'm borrowing your jacket. '

Su Ji lay down.

She wasn't delicate at all.

"This place..." Caesar opened his mouth and squatted beside her. "Alright, go to sleep. I'll watch over you."

Seeing this, Xiao Ken squatted down on the other side. They were like her bodyguards. He also took off his coat and gave it to Su Ji.

Su Ji covered her face with it.

The guests had successfully landed and entered the deserted island. The number of people watching the livestream was about three times that of when they were in the house.

Duan Shengquan was absolutely satisfied with Old Zhou's plan.

However, he had another problem. Because of the series of shocking events, Li

Fang received multiple calls.

One must know that the guests had extraordinary backgrounds.

It was easy to deal with the inquiries from the artists' management companies, but soon she received a call from Commander Wang. There was even a call from Caesar's family...

One of the most difficult calls was from a female CEO.

She really couldn't appease her, so she asked Director Duan for help.

When she gave the call to Duan Shengquan, she gestured at the top of her head with her hand, indicating that she was furious.

A drop of cold sweat dripped down Duan Shengquan's forehead. He asked softly, "who is it? "

Li Fang said, "CEO of Xu Corporation, Su Ji's mother! "

Chapter 427: I Like Mature Women...

Duan Shengquan nodded and apologized for half an hour, but Xu Mingzhi's anger did not subside at all.

...

Not only did he abduct her precious daughter to an uninhabited island, but he even made her parachute!

Even if her daughter wasn't afraid of heights, what if she was in danger?

Not to mention that she vaguely heard her daughter say that she was thrown into the sea.

Xu Mingzhi was in a meeting when she saw the livestream. She immediately stood up from the sofa and was so angry that her entire body was trembling. She rushed out of the room and called them.

Her business partner thought that she was not satisfied with the request and quickly went to discuss it with Wei Wei.

Wei Wei was about to explain that it wasn't about work, but her business partner said, "I'm willing to lower the price by 3%!"

"..." Wei Wei changed the topic and said, "since CEO Liu is so sincere, CEO Xu will consider it."

CEO Liu was trembling while Xu Mingzhi was questioning Duan Shengquan outside.

“Who threw my daughter into the sea? I’ll kill his entire family!”

Duan Shengquan swallowed hard and assured her that they had safety measures in place. They would definitely not let the guests get hurt.

Before Xu Mingzhi hung up, she said, “if I see my daughter getting hurt, I’ll turn your 63 -story building into a bungalow!!”

Duan Shengquan looked at the phone and felt like his soul had left his body. Su Ji’s mother...was so ruthless?

This was probably the third woman who had scolded him so harshly, other than Lychee TV’s station head and his wife!

Although he had promised Su Ji’s mother over the phone, he still felt a little worried. Duan Shengquan called Old Zhou again to remind him about the safety of the guests.

On the other side, Old Zhou was calm. He said the same thing to reassure him.

When Su Ji woke up, it was evening. The evening mist pressed down on the intersection of the sea and the sky, covering the last trace of light. The sea slapped against the shore. It was the evening tide. She guessed that she had slept for about three hours.

She had a few coats on her. The temperature difference between day and night at the beach was huge. Once the sun disappeared, the wind began to chill.

Su Ji hugged his coat and found the scene increasingly familiar.

She yawned lazily and took out her phone to take a look. There was still no signal with 23% battery left.

She did not know whether Pei Huai texted her or not.

As the sky darkened, the light from the bonfire was especially obvious.

Not far away, Lu Shang and Xiao Ken were making a bonfire by drilling wood, while Wang Yi was filtering seawater.

The netizens watch these people to learn some survival skills.

Lu Shang was quite diligent. He collected firewood, seawater, and dug sand pits. Orphie did the delicate work while he did the physical work. Since the organizers wanted to test them, they would cooperate.

Wang Yi did not care about the show. He was really just helping everyone.

When surviving in the wild, water was more important than food.

Seawater could not be drunk directly. It had to be filtered first, and the filtering required time. The actual process was a little boring.

Li Shuguo wanted to sing around the bonfire to liven things up, but his throat was dry and he coughed after singing a few lines. Jiang Cuiqin put on her shawl and said, “save the water. The water that Dr. Wang painstakingly filtered won’t be enough to moisten your throat.”

Jiang Cuiqin glanced at Wang Yi and felt that this opportunity to have a long chat was quite rare. After talking to the girls that Wang Yi added last time, other than questions about adopting dogs, Wang Yi had not chatted with them at all.

"I'm curious, what kind of girls do you like?"

["As expected, only the experienced can carry the show!"]

["Ms. Jiang can't hold back her desire to be a matchmaker!"]

The audience's gossipy ears perked up, and Wang Yi's hand that was fiddling with the firewood paused for a moment.

"I..." He pushed up his glasses and said in a warm tone, "I like...mature women."

"I see," Jiang Cuiqin was deep in thought. No wonder he didn't like the girls she introduced to him. He probably thought they were too young. Next time, she would introduce him to a few people of the same age.

Ji Xi picked up a few seashells by the beach and happened to come to the bonfire to observe them.

When Jiang Cuiqin saw her, she asked her the same question, "Ji Xi, what type of men do you like? I know some people. Perhaps I can introduce them to you."

Ji Xi tightened her grip on the shell. "1...1 also like mature men..."

["Goddess, look over here! A mature man is waiting for you!"]

Jiang Cuiqin raised her eyebrows. "It seems that mature people are very popular now."

Jiang Cuiqin didn't know that not only did the two of them like more mature people, but the people they liked were once husband and wife...

["Ms. Jiang, why don't you ask Su Ji? I really want to know what kind of person

Su Ji likes. Could it be men who are younger than her-"]

["She probably doesn't know that she's already awake."]

"Oh? You're awake." Casar was talking to the drone for half an hour, but he didn't get any response. He signed the contract, so even the crown prince was ignored.

He returned and found Su Ji awake. He asked with concern, "are you hungry?"

"I'm okay," Su Ji brushed the dust off her body and got up. "Fortunately, I ate a lot on the plane."

Casar and Xiao Ken were the same. Su Ji ordered for them, so neither of them was hungry at the moment.

However, at this moment, the sound of a stomach growling violently was very clear. Su Ji glanced over and saw that Nan Miaomiao looked like she was about to faint.

Sonya said, "are you alright? Hang in there."

Nan Miaomiao was weak. She opened her mouth but did not say anything. She only blew out a puff of white smoke.

Her stomach had been growling for a long time.

Some of the women did not eat at all on the plane. They wanted to try the local delicacies after coming here, but they were thrown on an uninhabited island...

Ji Xi, Sonya, and the others were fine. It was normal for them to go on a diet and not eat for a day or two, but Nan Miaomiao was very hungry. She got hungrier as the night went by, and she could not take it anymore.

Seeing her like this, Lu Shang was very anxious.

Seeing that the drones were gathered at Jiang Cuiqin's side and had yet to come over, Nan Miaomiao said, "let's wait a little longer. If we can't find any food, they will send it to us. "

She still firmly believed that it was all scripted.

Lu Shang was worried that she would be too hungry. "Why don't I go and look for some fruits or seafood? Dr. Wang should be able to help us."

Nan Miaomiao pursed her lips in disgust. "It must be awful. I'd better wait for them to send us some."

Lu Shang said, "but we don't even know if they will..."

Nan Miaomiao rushed over to Su Ji. "Su Ji! you should know, right? After all, you have connections! "

After saying that, she was a little smug. However, Su Ji looked at her, bent down to pick up a thick branch and raised her arm at her..

Chapter 428: The Key to Surviving on the Island!

Nan Miaomiao saw that the stick in her hand was about to hit her, and her legs were numb from fear. "I was just joking. Don't be so angry!"

...

Sonya's eyes were also wide open. "Su Ji, put down the stick! We are still live, how could you commit murder in public?"

Lu Shang stepped forward to stop her, but Casar stopped him first.

She could beat up whoever she wanted. He would help her deal with the aftermath.

Sonya didn't say anything else because she saw the drone coming toward them from the corner of her eye.

At this critical moment, the stick in Su Ji's hand flew straight towards Nan Miaomiao!

["F * ck! What's happening?"]

[“They seem to be fighting!”] [“Ms. Nan, be careful! That woman is crazy!”]

“Don’t move!” Su Ji shouted.

Immediately after, the stick flew straight towards Nan Miaomiao, brushing past the side of her cheek, and then there was a bang! Nan Miaomiao and Sonya turned around at the same time.

“Ahhhhh!”

A few seconds ago, a giant python that was circling on a tree trunk was sticking its tongue out at Nan Miaomiao from behind. Its upper body was already standing upright, ready to attack. However, just before it launched its attack, Su Ji’s stick hit its body!

The python’s body went limp as it fell from the tree. It was three meters long, and the dust flew when it hit the ground.

Nan Miaomiao: . Sonya: “...”

Lu Shang:

Casar: ‘

The others also noticed the commotion and quickly gathered around.

Jiang Cuiqin said, “oh my god.”

Ji Xi held her, “don’t be afraid, it seems to be...dead!”

[“So Su Ji hasn’t gone crazy, but she killed a snake with a stick from a distance??”]

[“She saved Ms. Nan!”]

Nan Miaomiao was still in shock as she patted her chest. At this time, Sonya pulled her behind her and stood in front of the dead python.

Su Ji walked up to her. Nan Miaomiao stole a glance at her. “Thank you...’

Su Ji glanced at her and then looked back at the python. She licked the corner of her lips.

[“Su Ji looked like she’s found holy flesh!”]

[“Python: My body isn’t even cold yet. Woman, what are you thinking?”]

At this moment, Wang Yi said, “this is a non-venomous python. It lives mostly in the shrubs of the island. Its meat is firm and delicious...”

[“His eyes lit up when he said that!”]

[“...is Dr. Wang acting abnormal too?”]

Su Ji said, “if we are careful when we skin it, it should be enough for ten of us.”

The guests who had seen Su Ji kill a chicken with her bare hands: “...”

If she wanted to eat, nothing could stop her.

Xiao Ken said, "I'll help you."

Casar summoned Orphie over. "Don't let Ms. Su use the knife."

However, Su Ji could not wait for Orphie to find a tool. She picked up a stone with sharp edges from the ground and rubbed it against the rock. Then, she picked up the python with one hand and cut open its belly.

["Python: It's completely over now."]

["Man vs. Wild is put to shame!"]

["I feel like this woman can survive no matter where she's thrown to!"] The surroundings fell silent, and the sound of Su Ji skinning the python became even clearer.

The light from the bonfire shone from behind the group of people on the dark deserted island. It was a terrifying scene.

She was skilled. The snakeskin separated along the fascia perfectly. She had a charming and beautiful face, but she did not even blink when she killed a chicken or skinned a snake.

Xiao Ken couldn't help her with anything else, so he turned on the flashlight of his phone and held it up for her.

Wang Yi said calmly, "we'll keep the distilled water for drinking and roast the snake meat. I'll go make the grill."

Li Shuguo said quietly, "...are we really going to eat it?"

Su Ji took some time to reply, "this kind of python meat is good for your vocal cord recovery. '

Li Shuguo turned and followed Wang Yi. "Dr. Wang, I'll help you start a fire!"

["Hahahahahahahahaha, I'm dying of laughter."]

Nan Miaomiao looked at Sonya, "would you eat that?"

Sonya was silent for a long time. "If we had no food, they would definitely send it to us. But now that we have found food, they probably won't send it to us anymore. If we don't eat this, we will have to starve..." Jiang Cuiqin was also silent.

Although she could parachute, she was terrified of snakes.

She even disliked her son because his zodiac sign was a snake.

"You guys go ahead. I can wait until tomorrow. You don't have to wake me up later. Thank you."

However, half an hour later, when the burnt smell of roasted snake meat came from the bonfire, they changed their minds.

After waiting for another five minutes, Su Ji said, "it's ready! "

Nan Miaomiao instantly started to salivate.

Was this the smell of snake meat?

It actually smelled so good?

Lu Shang used a small wooden stick to divide the cooked snake meat into portions and handed one to Nan Miaomiao.

At this moment, Nan Miaomiao did not remember how scary the snake was. She quickly sniffed it and sighed, "it smells so good! "

Quality ingredients only required the simplest cooking method. There were no appliances here so Su Ji could not make weird dishes. The roasted snake meat was fragrant, and Nan Miaomiao, who was starving, could not resist at all.

She took a bite of the snake meat and then moved to the side.

She was the second person who enjoyed it the most after Li Shuguo.

["F * ck, don't just eat it. Can you describe it?"]

["Is snake meat really that nice? I want to try it too!"]

["I'm drooling! The red braised pork in front of me instantly loses its fragrance!"]

The other guests also started eating. Xiao Ken felt that it seemed cool to eat snake meat on a deserted island.

He ate with relish.

There was a handkerchief in front of Casar's chest and he was holding a snake kebab in his hand. However, he was eating it as if it was a Michelin-starred dish.

Sonya also ate it, but she didn't eat as much as Nan Miaomiao.

Seeing that the skewers of snake meat were rapidly decreasing, Ms. Jiang Cuiqin, who said she wouldn't eat it, finally couldn't sit still anymore!

No one asked her at all!

Finally, everyone finished the three-meter-long python within 10 minutes.

["The guests are gradually becoming Su Ji..

["Take it easy. Don't eat too much of your first meal on a deserted island.

Hahahaha!"]

After eating and drinking their fill, the guests had the energy to think about their next move.

Half of their cell phones had run out of battery and were turned off. In this case, other than the bonfire, they soon had no light source.

Although there was no signal here, they still held onto their phones to feel safer.

At least they could still play games.

They were unsure what the plan was, but they heard a rumbling sound in the air.

Immediately after, the surrounding strong air was stirred up violently, and the guests looked up at the sky.

A helicopter was hovering above them, and a rope tied to cargo was slowly lowered.

As the cargo approached, the guests saw that the crew brought their suitcases! What each person carried in their luggage would be the key to their survival on the island!

Chapter 429: Doesn't That Mean They Could Sleep with Su

"It's our luggage!" Nan Miaomiao jumped up happily!

...

All the guests' suitcases were unloaded. The helicopter put away the shelves and left without a trace of nostalgia.

Everyone was very excited when they received their luggage, but after a few seconds, their expressions began to change.

[The production team is ruthless. The airdrop supplies are prepared by the guests themselves without them knowing?!]

[We can finally reveal what our husbands and wives have taken!]

[You must take something useful!]

With two bangs, the suitcase buckle popped open.

Li Shuguo was the first to open his suitcase.

Other than a few regular clothes, there were only two things in his suitcase.

The Chinese medicine bag that Su Ji had given him was a month's worth of medicine, and it indeed took up a lot of space. Then, the drone gave him a close-up of another item. It was the cross-stitch that Old Lee had been embroidering recently!

[I sympathize with Elder Li for a second.]

Li Shuguo was about to cry. This cross-stitch that looked quite romantic had now appeared on a deserted island with poor living conditions. It was really a little redundant!

Lu Shang's suitcase was the heaviest. When he opened it, everyone was looking forward to it. Then, they saw that he was carrying all kinds of fitness equipment!

Ji Xi had brought painting tools, while Jiang Cuiqin had brought enough for her to change for a month. The aunties had all agreed on the beautiful silk scarf and many different types of foot soaking medicine packets, but she did not expect that there was not even a foot soaking bucket here!

Casa's suitcase was filled with unfinished contract documents. Xiao Ken had taken the equipment and laptop used for music, but because it couldn't be plugged in, he couldn't open it. Other than that, he also took a basketball.

The microscope and other scientific instruments that Dr. Wang Yi brought did not need to be plugged in. They could do some biological experiments on the island...

Nan Miaomiao had a lot of cosmetics, double-eyelid patches, fake eyelashes, and daily disposable contact lenses. She also had two limited edition bottles of soju.

Orphie also only had one suitcase, which was filled with her master's suit and tie. However, there was good news. She was afraid that she couldn't buy it outside, so she brought a lot of fragrant spices for Western food. In the future, when they cooked on the deserted island, they could add some to enhance the taste.

When Sonya opened her suitcase, everyone felt happy for the first time. She took out a few bags of hotpot base, internet celebrity snacks, old godmother, and self-heating hotpot!

Although ten people might only be able to eat for one or two days, it was definitely a luxury for their current difficult situation!

"Yaya, how did you think of taking these? With the hotpot base, we can use the local ingredients to stir-fry spicy seafood tomorrow!"

Sang Ya had also watched other programs before. After the guests went abroad, they often missed these kinds of delicacies the most, so she brought them. She did not expect that they would really be used-

[We still have to rely on Sister Ya at the critical moment!]

[Yaya is awesome! I'll follow you forever!]

" You really helped us this time, " even Jiang Cuiqin praised her sincerely.

It's my honor to be able to help everyone. " Sonya smiled and looked at Su Ji. Jiji, what did you take? "

Everyone followed her gaze and looked at Su Ji. Then, they saw Su Ji open his suitcase and take out his heavy and big black school bag.

When she took it, everyone could vaguely hear the sound of bells clanging, which made them even more curious.

Then, Su Ji unzipped his bag and poured it out upside down. The guests gathered around to take a look.

Solar power bank, solar flashlight, shovel, axe, raincoat, cotton gloves, canvas, hemp rope, scissors, lighter, tape, bandage, gauze, wire rope ... There were also a lot of bottles and jars, which contained all kinds of first-aid medicine that she had developed!

My friends ... They were all stunned!

[O! M! G! I feel so safe when I see Su Ji!]

[Isn't this all the necessary tools to survive on a deserted island???]

[If the production team had known in advance, they would have definitely kept this bag of things. Awesome, awesome! [Simply cheating!]

[Believe in Sister Ji and live forever!]

"Ji Ji, you're too amazing!"

"With a solar power bank, won't our phones be able to charge?"

"These other tools can also help us develop the deserted island with half the effort. "

The people who were praising Sonya just now all surrounded Su Ji.

Compared to what Sonya had taken, Su Yi's was clearly more practical.

Sonya looked at Su Ji, who was being treated like a savior, and clenched her fists.

Su Ji must have known in advance what would happen on this trip. After all, it was not difficult for Boss Pei to find out about such things.

At this moment, when everyone needed it the most, he took out the most practical thing to win over the hearts of the people. During the day, he even said that he was thrown into the middle of the sea to add more scenes to himself.

Sonya felt that she was indeed no match for Su Ji.

After a brief moment of excitement, everyone began to discuss tonight's arrangements.

The sky was getting darker and darker, and it was almost impossible to see where the light from the bonfire could not reach.

Nan Miaomiao looked around warily. " Why do I feel like I'm hearing some kind of animal's cry? "

There were faint fluorescent eyes flashing in the distant bushes, but because they were far away, they were not sure if they were seeing things or if they were just fireflies.

Wang Yi said, " It's normal to have wild animals on a deserted island. However, the animals that come at night are usually afraid of fire. It's still safe for us to stay near the bonfire. "

Lu Shang grabbed Nan Miaomiao's wrist. " Don't run around on your own. We should be fine if we stay together. '

Nan Miaomiao didn't even dare to act like this in the movies she filmed. " The production team won't really let us live on the island, right? He should be coming to pick us up after the live broadcast, right?"

Ji Xi, Jiang Cuiqin, and the others were not very sure either. After all, they had even eaten the snake meat and the production team did not say anything. Meanwhile, Su Ji had already begun to prepare for tonight's night.

She had a similar experience with her mother before.

She could live in a beautiful building and sleep on the floor.

She had already instructed Casar, Shawken, and the others to move together. They used tree branches to assemble the canvas and hemp rope she had brought to build a simple shelter.

In fact, if there were fewer people, she could make a complete tent, but that would only be enough for one or two people.

A large shelter like this could accommodate ten people at once.

As the group worked, they cursed Director Duan in their hearts.

At this moment, Director Duan was sneezing wildly in the small house in A City.

If they were really allowed to set up camp in the open, they would be far from the big picture. They did not say that they would go so far before joining this variety show!

Only Shawken and Cass were in a good mood, and they worked the hardest.

They were mainly thinking about another matter.

Since they were going to set up camp in the open, then tonight...Wouldn't they be able to sleep with Su Ji?

Chapter 430: Building a Shelter

Pei Huai went on a business trip the moment Su Ji left. He was like a perpetual working machine.

...

Shen Mu was used to it. Before the CEO met Ms. Su, he was already a workaholic.

Old Master Pei rarely saw him at home.

However, this time he was happy to work extra because he could spend more on his girlfriend.

He was busy until the wee hours of the morning. Pei Huai ended his third social engagement for the day and checked into a hotel suite. He loosened his tie and took off his suit jacket. Shen Mu came over with the contract for tomorrow's meeting. "Boss, I've sorted it out for you."

Pei Huai gestured for him to put it aside. "How's the show going?"

Shen Mu paused for a moment. He had been busy all day and had forgotten about this task.

Shen Mu's forehead was sweating, and Pei Huai's thick eyebrows gradually furrowed.

Shen Mu quickly said, "I...don't worry, Ms. Su is fine! She tried some local delicacies and stayed at a nice place..."

Shen Mu thought that what he said would not be wrong since they were all celebrities.

Pei Huai looked at his expression for a while and said expressionlessly, "show me the livestream. He wanted to verify it.

Shen Mu:

A few seconds later, Shen Mu swiftly took out his phone and clicked into livestream.

It was the last few minutes before the end of tonight's livestream.

The screen connected, and the light was very dim.

It took him a while to see what's on screen.

On the deserted island, the cold wind blew. Pei Huai saw his girlfriend..

sDlittinz wood!

Shen Mu was also dumbfounded. What was going on?

Isn't Ms. Su on vacation? Shouldn't she be eating seafood at the hotel now?

Pei Huai sent a message and asked everyone what happened.

When "." appeared, the netizens were particularly enthusiastic.

Soon, Pei Huai got the answer.

His girlfriend parachuted today and then fell into the water. At night, she ate the local "specialty", a three-meter-long python. She had been working for nearly an hour, chopping firewood, building a shelter, and preparing to camp on an uninhabited island for the night!

Pei Huai's face darkened.

His deep voice sounded dangerous. "This is what you mean by...everything is fine?"

Shen Mu felt a chill run up his spine. He gave a 90-degree bow, wishing he could bang his head on the CEO's desk. "I'm sorry, CEO! I lied! I was too busy today and forgot to pay attention to Ms. Su. I only just found out!"

Su Ji's phone could not be reached, so even if he asked the organizers, they wouldn't know any more than he did.

Pei Huai threw his phone aside in frustration and stared at Shen Mu's phone. He sent Su Ji to the show to make her happy, not to make her suffer.

["Look! Su Ji seems to be writing on the beach!"]

["Can the drone move a little to the left so that we can see what she wrote?"] At this moment, a few messages caught his attention.

His gaze fell on Su Ji, who was writing on the beach with a wooden stick..

The moment the camera flashed past, the moonlight shone on the beach. At that moment, he saw Su Ji write two words.

"Don't worry"

There was no signal on her phone, so Su Ji used this method to communicate with Pei Huai.

Pei Huai's eyes were deep and dark.

After Su Ji finished writing, she looked up and saw that the drone had already left.

She wondered if Pei Huai and her mother had seen it.

After tonight's stream ended, the waves hit the shore and erased her words. When Su Ji was about to look away, she noticed a row of ants moving in the direction of the bushes in an orderly manner.

Su Ji raised her hand to feel the air. A few seconds later, she picked up the wooden stick and quickened her pace towards the camp.

"Hurry up and finish it in half an hour," Su Ji said to Casar and the others as she put down the wooden stick.

Xiao Ken was a little confused. "What's wrong?"

"It's going to rain."

Xiao Ken and Casar looked at each other.

They moved at three times the speed.

Lu Shang hadn't seen Nan Miaomiao for a while. He looked around and saw Nan Miaomiao hugging her legs and looking unhappy by the bonfire. Sonya was coaxing her.

Nan Miaomiao had been very lucky since her debut. She had a few successful movies, and then she hit it big with "The Legend of Wu Tian".

She had always been a glamorous celebrity. When had she ever suffered like this?

There were cuts on her hand, and she suddenly felt emotional.

"Sonya, don't try to comfort me. We don't have to work so hard. Just wait until the live stream ends and they will pick us up!"

Sonya was smarter than her. "Then you should have endured until the end of the livestream. The netizens are all watching now. Everyone else is busy watching Su Ji. It's not good if you don't do it."

Nan Miaomiao turned her head to the side. "If I don't do anything they don't have anything to say! I'll stay here and wait!"

When her temper flared up, no one could persuade her.

Sonya understood her personality and sighed. Seeing that the drone had been lingering around the camp, she had to go back.

Everyone in the camp sped up their work. Finally, after 20 minutes, two large shelters were set up. One for the female guests and one for the male guests. The ground was covered with a waterproof cloth, and under the waterproof cloth was a thick layer of leaves. It was quite soft.

The live stream had ended, but there was no news from the crew.

Lu Shang looked at Nan Miaomiao for the umpteenth time. He stood in the shed and called her, "Miaomiao! Come and sleep! You can come out when they arrive!"

Nan Miaomiao's back was facing them. "I didn't help when you built the shed. I don't need it. You guys go ahead!"

"Go and get her. We don't mind if she doesn't help," Jiang Cuiqin said as she made the bed.

"If she doesn't suffer, she won't learn her lesson," Lu Shang was done with Nan Miaomiao's stubbornness. He was prepared to carry her in.

However, just as he stepped outside, the sky started to rain.

The weather on this deserted island was really strange. It was so hot at noon, but when it rained at night, it was like hail, hitting the canopy loudly.

Fortunately, they were all sheltered. They were sitting on waterproof mats and listening to the rain, so they were not drenched at all.

Lu Shang rejoiced for a second, but then he thought of Nan Miaomiao, who was outside alone at the moment.

His gaze followed closely.. Nan Miaomiao, who was still very stubborn just a second ago, was frozen the moment the heavy rain fell!
