

Concubine 431

Chapter 431: Prince, You 've Changed!

The bonfire beside her was extinguished.

...

Nan Miaomiao:

The rain was so heavy that she couldn't open her eyes, so she forced herself to look up. "That's it? If you're really that powerful, you can just strike me to death with a bolt of lightning..."

Before she could finish her sentence, her mouth was covered by a large hand from behind. In the next second, her body was lifted up.

Lu Shang carried her on his shoulder and went to the camp without looking back.

Nan Miaomiao subconsciously grabbed onto his body to maintain her balance. The rain was too heavy. The moment he rushed into the rain, Lu Shang was also drenched. His shirt stuck to his body and became translucent. Nan Miaomiao paused for a moment. She seemed to have touched his abs.

One, two...

There were actually eight packs!

"When did you start training? You didn't have abs when we filmed The Legend of Wu Tian." Nan Miaomiao was distracted.

Lu Shang replied, "since last year."

Nan Miaomiao: "?"

Lu Shang said, "that day when we attended the event, you pointed at a muscular man in the video and said that your boyfriend should have eight packs."

Nan Miaomiao: ' .

She couldn't remember at all, but it seemed to be true...

Lu Shang started working out...because of what she said?

When they returned to the camp, Nan Miaomiao saw the others and she became embarrassed again.

Sonya brought a towel to wipe her hair. Jiang Cuiqin looked at her with both anger and amusement.

"Hurry up and change out of your wet clothes. It is very cold at night. If you freeze, you'll regret it when you're my age."

Ji Xi also advised her, "go get changed, Miaomiao. I'll help you carry your luggage."

Orphie came over.

However, Nan Miaomiao secretly looked at Su Ji, not to wait for her to comfort her, but to see her reaction.

Su Ji had already tidied up her bed and was ready to sleep. When her eyes met hers, she clicked her tongue in disgust. “You’re dripping water all over the floor. If you don’t want to change, then get out.”

Nan Miaomiao:

“Fine!”

There was a curtain in the middle of the shelter for privacy.

Seeing Nan Miaomiao quickly change into clean clothes, Ji Xi and Jiang Cuiqin looked at each other and smiled.

Su Ji had a way.

The first night on the deserted island made the guests realize that the crew was serious this time!

They had to think of a way to escape from. If they succeeded, they would be able to enjoy the night of victory sooner. If they failed, they would have to stay on the island for at least a month!

The next morning, the sun was shining brightly.

The plants had been watered by the rain overnight, and the air was warm and humid. On the beach, the water had long evaporated. There was no trace of rain at all.

After being on the plane for so long and the series of events, the guests slept soundly that night.

The howling of the wild beasts in the early morning did not wake them up.

When Casar opened his eyes, a giant sea turtle was staring at him. It was opening its mouth in slow motion, ready to bite.

Casar slapped its shell, and the turtle instantly shrank back into its shell. Casar did not want to throw the turtle back into the sea. Instead, he raised it up and waved it at the women on the other side of the curtain. “Girl! Our breakfast is ready! ”

[“Prince, you’ve changed!”]

[“You’ve been completely led astray by that woman!!”]

[“The first reaction of the crown prince when he saw the sea turtle was to eat it?!”]

At this moment, not everyone had woken up yet. They couldn’t film the women yet, so the drone was with the men.

The live stream started according to the local time. It was actually difficult for the audience in China to watch it, but its popularity proved that the netizens could completely overcome this difficulty!

The first messages that popped up when the livestream started were:

[“Is my wife still alive?”]

[“That’s great! Hubby is still alive!”]

Su Ji had just woken up and turned around when she heard the voice.

Casar could clearly see a figure turn her head in his direction from behind the curtain.

The figure was sitting. Although she looked lazy, her slim back was straight.

Her hair slid behind her as she turned her head.

Last night, Su Ji happened to sleep beside the curtain. The warm sunlight cast every detail of her body on the curtain.

The male guests were afraid that the women would be in danger when they slept at night, so although there was a curtain between them, they were close to each other.

At that moment, Casar could clearly see Su Ji’s every move.

It was the morning Su Ji.

It was the Su Ji whom Pei Huai had seen.

Casar felt that it was worth it to spend 100,000 yuan last night to sleep by the curtain.

Su Ji changed and got up. She walked over to Casar and squatted down, patting the sea turtle. “It looks fresh.”

[“Sea turtle: Thank you!”]

[“I think my heart is going numb seeing Su Ji’s bare face!”]

Xiao Ken was also paralyzed. He was leaning against a rock at the side, wearing a T-shirt and loose slacks.

He had just woken up. The rebellious boy looked like a puppy now. He asked Su

Ji, “how do you want to eat the sea turtle?”

Su Ji combed her hair with her fingers. “I want to make it into soup.”

“Soup...” Xiao Ken seemed to be thinking.

Wang Yi slowly folded his bedsheets into tofu cubes. “We distilled a lot of water yesterday. It should be enough to make soup.”

Xiao Ken smiled. “Just you wait, I’ll make you turtle soup.”

[“I’m done laughing!!”]

[“He is a true lover!”]

Su Ji picked some wild fruits and some leaves.

During this period of time on the island, they would be doing a lot of physical labor. They had to ensure that everyone was healthy.

After eating the roasted snake meat yesterday, the turtle soup was not that bad.

In addition to the spices that Orphie had brought, Xiao Ken's cooking was quite delicious.

Nan Miaomiao said, "I remember watching a deserted island survival show before. In a month's time, they turned the island into a beautiful place. Since we're already here, let's give it a try."

She seemed pretty adaptable.

Yesterday, she was still shouting at the heavens to kill her, and today, she wanted to rebuild the island.

Su Ji replied, "that's a good attitude, but I have more important plans."

Nan Miaomiao asked, "what plan?"

"What's our ultimate goal?" Su Ji asked.

Nan Miaomiao glanced at everyone. "Escaping the deserted island."

"So," Su Ji said, "the plan is, of course, to build ships.."

Chapter 432: Emotional Cheating!

"Building a ship?"

...

The guests were all surprised when they heard this.

After all, building a ship was not like roasting snake meat or making turtle soup...that requires technical skill.

Could they do it?

["F * ck! I'm looking forward to it!"]

["This woman's words are f * cking shocking!"]

["We have to have dreams. What if they come true?"]

The guests looked at each other. Lu Shang's expression was solemn as he thought about it seriously, "if we're going to escape from the deserted island..

there really is only one way..."

Jiang Cuiqin suddenly remembered something. "You were a carpenter when you were young, right?"

Li Shuguo, who was suddenly exposed:

"Aiya, it's because I'm not interested in carpentry that I started singing."

["Hahahahaha, Carpenter Li who was distracted by singing!"]

Su Ji used a tree branch to draw on the sand. "I know a little. It should be fine.""

The others followed the branch in her hand and saw that she was drawing a structural design of the ship!

The lines were smooth, and every part was distinct. Even the joints of the structure were very clear.

Even Wang Yi was speechless.

The guests were all holding the turtle soup in their hands...

Confused.

["She's a survival master!"]

["She's too all-rounded..."]

["Even if the blueprint does not work, just her drawing skills alone were commendable!"]

Xiao Ken quickly took out his phone and took a picture to prevent the water from washing it away during high tide.

Su Ji said, "there's no rush. This is only the preliminary design. After all, it's going to carry ten of us. It still needs to be modified."

After saying that, she lifted her foot and erased the drawing.

["Xiao Ken: Thank goodness I just took it!"]

After breakfast, Casar propped up the turtle's shell with a wooden stick and stood on the beach.

This was to commemorate the sea turtle who had provided them with a delicious meal.

The guests divided their work.

The women were responsible for picking fruits and seafood at the beach. They distilled water according to the method taught by Dr. Wang Yi, while the men cut down trees.

The wood had two uses. One was to build infrastructure to improve the living environment, and the other was to build the ship.

Wang Yi was very eager to learn. When he saw Su Ji's blueprint in the morning, he was very interested. Unfortunately, there was still no signal on his phone, so he could not search for info online.

Xiao Ken glanced at his phone screen. "Give up, Dr. Wang. I checked the whole night yesterday and couldn't get connected at all."

He squatted on the ground and chopped wood with a lack of interest. "Life without the internet is terrible. If only I could play games." Wang Yi pushed his glasses up and rolled up his sleeves. "Entertainment is secondary. If we can access the Internet, it will help us survive."

Casar sighed. "That's why the Internet is the greatest invention of the 20th century. "

Su Ji was in charge of making arrangements. She did this thousands of years ago, so she was quite familiar with it.

While she was drawing on the beach, Nan Miaomiao happened to be squatting not far from her, picking up seafood.

From time to time, she would steal a glance at her, but she did not dare to be too obvious. She didn't want to be discovered by Su Ji, but more importantly, she was afraid of being caught by Sonya.

After sneaking around for a long time, Nan Miaomiao scratched her head in despair. Suddenly, she felt like someone who couldn't control herself.

She wanted to focus on picking food, but just as she was about to grab a transparent jellyfish...

"It's poisonous," Su Ji did not look up, nor did she stop drawing.

However, Nan Miaomiao was so scared that she almost went numb. She quickly withdrew her hand. Because she withdrew it too quickly, she fell backward and sat on the sand.

"Really? Don't scare me!"

Su Ji continued to draw. "This species of jellyfish secrete a deadly toxin. The toxin is no less potent than the venom of the most poisonous snake in the world. When the toxin reaches the human brain, other than severe pain, it will also cause symptoms such as loss of consciousness, difficulty breathing, and paralysis..."

Nan Miaomiao's face turned pale. She stood up three seconds later and kicked it back into the sea.

This was to prevent the other guests from accidentally touching it.

["Jellyfish: I'll be back!"]

"How do you know everything?" Nan Miaomiao carried the small bucket of seafood and walked to Su Ji's side. She squatted down and tilted her head to look at her.

Although she still found Su Ji annoying, she had to admit that after they arrived at the deserted island, other than Dr. Wang, Su Ji was the only one they could rely on.

She knew everything, which gave her a sense of security.

Initially, being abandoned on a deserted island was a very frustrating thing, but because of her, it didn't seem so difficult.

Nan Miaomiao thought that Lu Shang was missing something. It seemed that he was missing Su Ji's courage and unyielding strength.

Nan Miaomiao slapped herself.

What are you thinking about, Nan Miaomiao?

That's emotional cheating!

Seeing Nan Miaomiao slap herself, Su Ji finally looked at her.

Then, she saw that the wound on her hand from yesterday's labor had already scabbed over.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes slightly. "Your wound is quite deep. You were drenched in the rain yesterday, so there might be a scar. '

Nan Miaomiao took a deep breath. "Then what should I do? I'm a celebrity, I can't have a scar on my hand!"

Su Ji mysteriously took out a small bottle from her pocket. "Scar removal cream, apply it three times a day. It will remove the necrotic tissue and regenerate the skin. Not only will it not leave scars, but it will also make your skin smoother."

Nan Miaomiao's eyes were wide open. She took it with both hands. "Thank you so much! "

"You're welcome," Su Ji smiled. "I'll give you a discount. It's 630,000 yuan per bottle."

630 thousand?

Nan Miaomiao:

Su Ji said, "you can decide whether to buy it or not."

Nan Miaomiao's eyes darted around quickly. "But there's no signal on the island. I can't transfer the money to you."

Su Ji reached into her pocket again. This time, she took out a small notebook and a pen. She flipped to the second page. "You can pay me later."

Nan Miaomiao saw that Su Ji had already written down several lines before the line he was about to write, and the first page was also densely packed.

She stood up curiously and looked at it. "Xiao Ken: Blood stasis dissolver – 60,000 yuan." "Jiang Cuiqin: Sunblock x2 – 50,000 yuan." "Orphie: Blood stasis dissolver – 300 yuan." "Wang Yi: Cooling cream – 20,000 yuan."

"Casar: Blood stasis dissolver – 299,000 yuan.."

Chapter 433: Her Heart was Moved!

["F * ck! Isn't this woman making a fortune by opening a pharmacy on a deserted island?"]

...

["It's only the second day and there are already so many orders??"]

["Did everyone notice a problem? She sold the same Blood stasis dissolver to three people at three different prices..."]

["Woman, you've taking advantage of the victims!"]

["I've discovered a pattern. The richer the person, the more expensive it is.

Therefore, it's not taking advantage. She's robbing the rich to help the poor."]

Nan Miaomiao also noticed it. She pointed at the small notebook and asked Su Ji, “why is the price of the same medicine different? Are you selling the cream at a lower price to another person?”

Su Ji calmly closed the notebook. “It depends on my mood.”

Nan Miaomiao: „

Su Ji glanced at the scar removal cream in her hand. “Do you want to buy it or not?”

Nan Miaomiao felt conflicted.

630,000...was really expensive, and it was exactly the maximum that she was going to pay.

Usually, hundreds of thousands of yuan was her limit for injections on her face. She looked at the ugly scab on her hand. The money and beauty...she chose beauty!

“Fine! I’ll buy it!”

Su Ji raised her eyebrows, opened the notebook again, and wrote Nan Miaomiao’s name.

At noon, Ji Xi gathered all the food that everyone collected and roasted it with Orphie’s seasoning.

Sonya washed the fruits for dessert.

Then, everyone made two servings of hot pot that Sonya had brought.

Lunch was settled just like that.

A day ago, the guests wouldn’t even look at this kind of food. But now, after working on a deserted island for an entire morning, it looked delicious.

In the afternoon, everyone collected wood according to Su Ji’s plan. The wood with high density was piled aside to make boats, and the wood with low density was used to make bed frames.

Now, everyone was sleeping on a waterproof mat covered with leaves. However, there were still many problems such as insects and ants on the ground. Everyone planned to use the afternoon to turn the sleeping area into a bed that was about the same height as a normal bed.

However, after a few hours of work, even Lu Shang, who had been working out for two years, could not take it.

The afternoon sun on the island was extremely hot, especially when there was no shade. The sun was directly roasting one’s skin, and one could almost hear the sizzling sound of barbecued meat.

[“It’s too hard. My heart aches for my husbands!”]

[“You haven’t even had the chance to use it before you’re dead from exhaustion!!”]

[“Is the organizer not going to care about their lives for the sake of viewership? Let’s flood Lychee TV’s official Weibo account!”]

The chat was filled with complaints. The situation was about to get out of control when all the fans’ stopped in the next second!

The men's T-shirts were quickly soaked because of the heat. They did not care about their image on the screen and took them off.

All of them were walking on the beach with their upper bodies bare. They had different skin tones and the same good figures. Even Xiao Ken, who usually looked skinny, had muscles!

Basketball was not for nothing.

The sweat from the sun soaked their brows, and their skin was glistening. The male guests usually did not have the chance to sweat so much. They whistled at each other, smiled, and walked with their arms around each other's shoulders.

The amount of testosterone exploded!

["Although my heart aches for my husbands, but...the organizer won!"] ["Drool all over the ground! I have dream material for tonight!"]

["Lu Shang's abs killed me." ["Isn't Casar's muscles too beautiful?!"]

["They skilled Old Li!"]

When the women saw this scene, they either looked away or covered their mouths and laughed in embarrassment.

Su Ji was the only one who didn't hide her admiration for the handsome men.

In the past, when she was in power, there were many who wanted to send men to her palace.

In fact, she did not mind accepting their kind intentions in order to appease the officials, but the ones sent were either weak or unskilled.

Su Ji was not interested in any of them. In the end, they were all stuffed into her harem.

Seeing the few beautiful men in front of her was quite pleasing.

Su Ji looked at them for a while and realized that they were too inefficient.

The chopped wood needed to be transported to the designated location. That would take a lot of effort.

This wouldn't do.

The plan couldn't be completed at night.

Su Ji went to the pile of wood and picked out a few pieces of wood of suitable shapes.

The tools were given to the men, so she did not have any, but it did not affect her progress at all. She cut a mark on the wood and hit it with a stone. It was cut according to the length she wanted.

Su Ji processed the wood one by one.

Soon, three sets of wooden sticks of different lengths were cut out.

["A handsome woman is better than a man!"]

["It feels so good to watch my wife work!"]

On a rock not far away, Nan Miaomiao was applying the 630,000 yuan scar removal cream on her hand. Perhaps it was because it was expensive, but she treasured it very much. She kept making circles until it was completely absorbed.

Moreover, because she had spent a lot of money, she was in a good mood even though her heart ached. Her legs were dangling on the stone and she was humming a song.

[“Ms. Nan is so silly, hahahaha...”]

[“A man who is happy as long as she spends money on shopping!”]

When she was done, Jiang Cuiqin and Ji Xi were surrounding Su Ji and studying the wood she was assembling with great interest.

Nan Miaomiao felt an inexplicable sense of crisis. She quickly tightened the cap of the bottle and put it in her pocket, then she also came forward. She asked before Jiang Cuiqin and Ji Xi could. “Su Ji, what are you doing?” As expected, Su Ji looked at her first, then at the others. “Making a cart.”

With a cart, it was fast and effortless to transport the wood back and forth.

When Su Ji looked at Nan Miaomiao and her heart beat faster for a second.

However, Su Ji quickly retracted her gaze and chiseled uneven grooves on both ends of the wooden sticks that needed to be connected. After assembling them, she tied them together with a hemp rope.

A cart with handrails was assembled.

Nan Miaomiao: “Wow! Awesome!”

She kept it to herself and didn’t say it out loud.

At this moment, Jiang Cuiqin raised a question, “but this cart doesn’t have wheels, so it can only be dragged. It’s fine if it’s downhill or on the beach, but what about the ground that has high friction?” Ji Xi was equally confused.

Su Ji smiled, “who said there are no wheels?”

Nan Miaomiao’s eyes widened. “No way, you even made wheels??”

“No, I didn’t.”

Seeing Nan Miaomiao’s confused expression, Su Ji raised her head in the direction of the guests’ suitcases in the distance.. “But we have those...”

Chapter 434: Sonpachan Arrives at the Battlefield

The few of them looked over at the same time.

...

They saw ten suitcases neatly arranged.

Every suitcase has wheels.

“Ah, you want to take the suitcase apart?” Nan Miaomiao suddenly understood.

Su Ji nodded slightly. “You’re not too stupid.”

Ji Xi and Jiang Cuiqin looked at each other.

Why didn’t they think of that?

Nan Miaomiao was protective of hers, “then let’s make it clear that you can’t dismantle mine. You upgraded mine. It would be a pity to dismantle it! ”

Su Ji did not want her efforts to go to waste. She called out to Xiao Ken and removed his wheels.

Sonya noticed them but didn’t join in.

Su Ji adjusted the height of the wheel and pulled it back and forth twice. It was quite smooth.

[“I can’t believe my eyes! A tool cart is made just like that??”]

[“Worship the great god!”]

When the men saw the cart, their eyes lit up.

“You did this??”

“Awesome, girl!”

Su Ji smiled. “I’ll leave the rest to you guys. I want to sleep on the bed tonight.” “No problem! ” Xiao Ken and Casar said in unison.

Lu Shang looked at the tool cart and smiled at Wang Yi. “We didn’t even think of that. ”

Wang Yi shook his head.

With the cart, it was very easy to transport the wood.

The men quickly distributed the wood and moved all the materials used to build the bed to the camp. Then, they began to make the bed.

Although Li Shuguo was no longer a carpenter, he still had some basic knowledge.

He could help.

[‘What was that saying again? Having an elder in the family is like having a treasure!’]

[“Elder Li: Master, did you see that? I didn’t embarrass you!”]

Casar had never done physical labor in his life, but after one day on the island, he was no longer a prince.

He felt the joy of labor from the bottom of his heart, as well as the refreshing feeling after sweating.

Orphie's eyes turned red as she watched from the side. It was unknown if she was heartbroken or touched!

She had been serving Young Master Cass since she was young.

The sky was not dark yet. When the sun became a bright orange, the beds were set up.

Casar sat down on the bed and placed his hands behind his back. He patted the surface of the bed and looked at Su Ji with an evil smile. "Girl, try the bed I made for you."

Xiao Ken changed into a clean T-shirt and put it over his head. "What do you mean you made it? I helped too, okay? As well as Lu Shang and Dr. Wang."

Casar did not care at all. He raised his hand and pointed at Su Ji. "You guys made your own. I made hers."

Su Ji stepped onto the bed to test the height. "Not bad. I like it." The corners of Casar's lips curled up.

["Nicha Sonpachan will arrive at the battlefield in three minutes!"]

The other women were also trying out the bed. Lu Shang was watching Nan Miaomiao's reaction, and then he realized that Nan Miaomiao was peeking at su Ji.

Lu Shang:

Two seconds later.

Lu Shang:

This gaze seemed different...

["Congratulations to the guests for making two big beds!"]

["Will they make a wooden house next?"]

["Petition to let the guests stay on the island forever! I really want to see what they can do to the deserted island in a year's time."]

It was a fruitful day. After dinner, everyone was in high spirits. They lit a torch and took a walk by the shrubland.

During the day, the men had chopped some wood there. They confirmed that it was safe before bringing the women here.

Xiao Ken was looking for a signal wherever he went, and the others had their own concerns as well.

The internet-addicted teenager was already showing signs of withdrawal.

Sonya stepped on something hard, and when she raised her foot, she saw something shiny.

She bent down to pick it up and looked at it against the bonfire.

"Dr. Wang, do you know what this is?"

Wang Yi looked over and pushed his glasses up. A few seconds later, he took it from her. "It's raw topaz stone."

["Amazing! Such a big piece of topaz is worth a lot of money, right?"] ["Please live on the island. This island can really be developed" !] After walking for a few meters, Sonya saw another purple one.

Wang Yi continued to appraise it.

"Phosphosiderite."

Nan Miaomiao said, " Sonya, you're amazing! What we picked up is ours, right? I'm going to make it into a bracelet when I get back. It'll definitely look good!"

The other guests were also studying the mineral.

Although it was not very rare, it was quite big.

Everyone was quite excited. Only Su Ji and Wang Yi looked into the distance with serious expressions. The visibility at night was very low, so they could not see anything, but the two of them had the same conclusion in their hearts.

To be able to find such raw materials on the shallow surface of the island meant that...there might be a volcano.

Moreover, it was an active volcano...

It was still daytime in A City. A black car drove over. Shen Mu instructed the driver to park the car outside the house.

After the guests went abroad, the small house became Duan Shengquan's office building.

When Pei Huai found out that Su Ji had been sent to a deserted island, he ended his month-long trip ahead of schedule and returned home.

After getting off the plane, he went straight to the cabin.

After the car stopped, he stepped out of the car. Shen Mu held the car door and observed the CEO's cold expression since last night. He said carefully, "boss, are you really going to do this..."

"Please re-consider..."

Pei Huai glanced at him coldly, and Shen Mu swallowed the rest of his words.

Pei Huai's phone vibrated when he reached the door.

He glanced at the number, but he had no intention of picking it up.

However, the call came again after he hung up. Pei Huai was silent for a few seconds before he picked it up.

Without waiting for the other party to speak, Pei 1-luai said expressionlessly, "I only care about one person. You can think of a way yourself."

With that, he hung up.

Inside the room, Li Fang, who saw who it was through the window, rushed into Duan Shengquan's office.

"Bad news, Director Duan! Blue Whale is here!"

Duan Shengquan's hand, which was holding the proposal, paused. He quickly looked up and stared at her in horror. "Why?"

Recently, the live stream was extremely popular, but at the same time, there were many troubles.

Appeasing everyone exhausted him.

Now, when he heard this, he immediately entered a state of high tension. Li Fang said, "this person is not easy to deal with. He's definitely here to denounce us!"

"Not easy to deal with..." Duan Shengquan thought about it. "Is it Manager

Ren

Li Fang shook her head anxiously. "It's CEO Pei!"

"What?" Duan Shengquan's face turned pale. "Just say that I'm not here! You must say that I'm not here!"

However, just as he finished speaking, someone knocked on the office door..

Chapter 435: Master Pei: "I'll give you a reward for guessing correctly."."

At that moment, Duan Shengquan was not in the mood to think about anything else. He looked under the table and then behind the curtains, as if he was looking for a place to hide.

Li Fang:

...

How embarrassing.

After weighing the pros and cons, Duan Shengquan decided that it would be safer to hide under the table.

The office door was opened.

The knocking on the door was just a signal.

Five minutes later, Pei Huai and Duan Shengquan sat across the coffee table.

Shen Mu and Li Fang stood at the side.

A staff member served tea. Duan Shengquan made a gesture of invitation and then picked up a cup for himself.

Shen Mu handed a cup to his boss.

Duan Shengquan tried his best to pretend to be calm, but after he picked up the teacup, the sound of the teacup knocking against the saucer easily betrayed his heart!

A mouthful of hot tea slid down his esophagus. Duan Shengquan calmed down a little.

Although he was cowardly, he said firmly, “thank you for agreeing to the outdoor shoot last time. However, the place where the guests are...”

“No one is allowed on the island. The conditions on the island are tough, but there are safety measures. If we help them, it will destroy the goal of the reality show. Now that the show is very popular, it even broke the record...”

“Besides, I watch them closely every day. Based on Su Ji’s speed, it’ll probably be done in two weeks at most. Now, the netizens are reluctant to let them leave the island. CEO Pei, you don’t want their efforts to go to waste, right? ”

Pei Huai’s fingers slowly tapped on the coffee table. After a few seconds, when

Duan Shengquan was quiet, he looked up at him. “Are you done?”

“Ah...” Duan Shengquan swallowed, “yes...”

Pei Huai said, “other than the new guests, no one else is allowed on the island?”

“Yes, according to the rules...” Duan Shengquan remained firm.

Pei Huai said, “alright, then add a new guest.”

Duan Shengquan: ‘!???’ ”

CEO Pei wasn’t here to denounce him?

Pei Huai said, “if I remember correctly, at that time, Director Shi promised to reserve a spot for someone from Blue Whale. ”

Li Fang and Duan Shengquan exchanged glances. Duan Shengquan remembered that there was such a thing.

However, several of the most popular artists of Blue Whale currently had commitments. Duan Shengquan could not think of who they could send in. The trip to the Sea Z was costly, and it would not be worth it if they did not send a popular guest. Hence, he hesitated and said, “we plan to wait for the guests to return before adding new guests...”

Seeing that he wanted to go back on his word, Pei Huai looked at Duan

Shengquan with a dangerous smile. “The new guest will cover the expenses.”

Duan Shengquan’s eyes lit up, “who is it? Please tell us!”

Duan Shengquan said, “yes, please tell me! ”

Pei Huai crossed his long legs and leaned back on the sofa. He observed a moment of silence for Director Duan’s comprehension ability. “I said, the new guest is me.”

Duan Shengquan: "..."

He froze for three seconds as if he had crashed. Li Fang was also frozen.

Four seconds later, the two of them had finally rebooted. Duan Shengquan had a look of disbelief on his face as he said in an extremely high tone, "You are not joining, are you? You want to join our show?"

Shen Mu groaned in his heart.

It was really too easy for them. After all, his boss had rejected a lot of meetings in order to go to the island. If they had not detained Ms. Su on the island, the CEO would not have gone to that place to suffer.

His CEO had severe mysophobia and obsessive-compulsive disorder. The office had to be disinfected every day, and even a little dust would irritate him. Shen Mu did not even dare to imagine how he could stay in that kind of primitive place.

Pei Huai said, "do I look like I am?"

? Duan Shengquan shook his head frantically. "Not at all, but you're so busy that we can't believe that you're really going to join the show..."

Even without acting as Nicha Sonpashan, CEO Pei was definitely the most popular tycoon in China.

If he were to join, Duan Shengquan could already see CEO Pei's fans in the audience!

Li Fang finally reacted. "CEO Pei, the two spots that Blue Whale asked us for at the start were for..."

Pei Huai nodded slightly. "For Su Ji and me."

Duan Shengquan opened his mouth, his intestines hurting!

If he had known that it was for CEO Pei himself, he would have arranged for him to go!

Wasting so much time for nothing!

Duan Shengquan slapped his thigh and said, "since you're here, we will definitely pay for the expenses! "

In the past, Pei Huai would rather spend money to save trouble. If it was back then, he would have replied affirmatively, "no need. Just do as I say. "

But now...If his girlfriend knew that he was wasting money, she would be unhappy, so he said, "alright."

Duan Shengquan nodded and gave Li Fang a look, telling her to hurry up and make a new trailer. He did not waste any time discussing the details with CEO Pei.

This time, even without Pei Huai saying anything, Duan Shengquan was already starting to get anxious.

He wanted to send CEO Pei to the helicopter immediately!

However, he still could not understand why he would go to a deserted island to live a hard life. He did not lack fame or money.

“CEO Pei...are you...do you have any plans to join the entertainment industry?” Duan Shengquan asked curiously.

Pei Huai’s lips curled up emotionlessly. “What do you think?”

Duan Shengquan said, “I think..”

Pei Huai crossed his legs, and his leather shoes were very shiny and spotless.

He looked down at Duan Shengquan, “I’ll give you a reward for guessing correctly.”

Duan Shengquan: “...”

F * ck! He was seduced.

Later, when they talked about the time to go to the island, Pei Huai and Duan Shengquan both agreed that the earlier the better.

Shen Mu reminded him anxiously, “boss, you just got off the plane today. You haven’t rested for the past few days either. You have to rest for at least a day. Why don’t you...”

At the thought of his girlfriend staying on a deserted island with a group of people, Pei Huai did not want to wait any longer. “I’ll rest on the plane.”

Duan Shengquan looked at Shen Mu and then at Pei Huai. He said seriously, “CEO Pei, you must take care of your health. Don’t force yourself...” Then, without giving Pei Huai a chance to answer, he said, “but since CEO Pei insists on resting on the plane, we’ll go with the original plan and leave tonight! ”

He would arrive at noon tomorrow.

That’s the most popular time of the show.

Pei Huai did not care about the show. He was thinking about something else. He asked, “I heard that every guest on the island can bring one suitcase?”

Chapter 436: He was Tricked!

Duan Shengquan had not thought about sending new guests to the island. Now that Pei Huai mentioned it, he began to think about it.

Pei Huai looked at him. “Previously, every guest on the island had a suitcase of the same size. So it’s only fair that I do the same.”

Duan Shengquan thought about it and felt that it made sense. “Alright, I’ll get the staff to prepare a suitcase for you! ‘

Pei Huai nodded and left Duan Shengquan’s office. He briefly glanced at the house where his girlfriend had stayed for a while before instructing Shen Mu, “there are still five hours before boarding. Help me prepare something. ‘

Shen Mu replied, “yes, boss! ”

Five hours passed in the blink of an eye. Pei Huai arrived at the helipad.

The staff members from the Pei Corporation took the suitcase prepared by the organizer and packed it professionally.

The person in charge of packing was a home layout planner hired by Shen Mu. He was best at making use of space.

From the looks of it, he wanted to make full use of the limited space!

Li Fang was the first to realize that something was wrong. She winked at Duan Shengquan and said, “that’s not right, Director. The other guests were able to take their suitcases because they did not know that they were going to a deserted island when they were packing. However, CEO Pei already knew where they were going. Under such circumstances, it’s not fair that he still gets the same suitcase, right?”

Duan Shengquan also realized that he had been tricked. He was too excited when he knew that CEO Pei was going to participate.

But he had already finished packing!

Two 1.9-meter-tall bodyguards carried a small but heavy suitcase onto the plane.

Duan Shengquan looked at their expressions and swallowed his words.

“It’s not good to go back on my word. Moreover, it’s only a small suitcase. There’s only so much he can bring...” Duan Shengquan said this to Li Fang to comfort himself.

“Bye, CEO Pei! Bon voyage!”

Duan Shengquan happily sent CEO Pei onto the plane. He then assigned Li Fang a new task.

“Now that CEO Pei is on the island, it means that we have one more male guest.

We should arrange for a new female guest to come onto the show...”

On the third day on the deserted island, the guests finally realized how great it was to be able to sleep on a bed.

The quality of their sleep was clearly much better than the previous night.

As soon as the live stream began, the chat messages were popping up non-stop.

[“Have you seen the new trailer? There’s a new guest on the island today!”]

[“Guess who it is??”]

The show gave a hint in the trailer:

Acted in “The Billions Stars”

Has been on “Hello, Sunday”

He was not in the entertainment industry, but he owned half of it.

When these hints were released, the netizens were extremely excited.

[“But...Lychee TV likes messing with us. Do you think CEO Pei will come? Giving up on work and coming to the island? He wouldn’t earn as much as he lost, right?”]

[“That makes sense...”]

[“But to fulfill all three conditions at the same time...I really can’t think of another person!”]

Of course, the guests on the island did not know that someone new was coming.

Nan Miaomiao lifted her clothes and looked at her flat belly.

[“Ahhhh! Ms. Nan! You’re on camera!”]

[“You still need to go back to work after leaving the island! What if others saw your little belly? Anyway, I took a screenshot of it!”]

Nan Miaomiao not only looked at it herself, but also asked Sonya to look at it. “I seem to have lost weight. Although it’s tough, we can probably lose at least 20 pounds this month!”

Sonya scoffed, “you’re such an optimistic person.”

Nan Miaomiao smiled and peeked at Su Ji again.

Su Ji felt warm after waking up, so she casually lifted the hem of her T-shirt to cool herself down.

The netizens might not be able to see it, but from Nan Miaomiao’s perspective...she could see Su Ji’s extremely fair waist.

She had A-line abs?

Nan Miaomiao gasped.

For the first time, she thought that a woman’s A-line abs...were even more attractive than a man’s eight-packs!

Su Ji combed her hair with her fingers and habitually took out her phone to browse the news. Then she remembered that there was no internet at all.

Thousands of years ago, there was no internet either, but Su Ji did not think much of it at that time. However, after transmigrating, she was no longer used to not having the internet.

Ji Xi wasn’t affected, so she got up and started playing the single-player game on her phone.

The men sighed. Xiao Ken wanted to check the weather forecast and recipes. Casar wanted to check the rise and fall of his stock...

[“Oh right, they don’t have internet, so they didn’t know that there would be a new member today—”]

[“Su Ji, your boss is coming!!”]

[“Let’s not hype it up so that we don’t get disappointed.”] In the morning, the guests were still working together.

Ji Xi and Jiang Cuiqin discussed lunch.

Jiang Cuiqin pondered over the ingredients she had collected, “these should be enough for ten of us, right?”

Ji Xi replied, “maybe...”

[“No! There will be eleven people by noon!”]

Jiang Cuiqin nodded. “Alright, let’s do that.”

Su Ji picked up a wooden stick and walked to the beach again. Ever since she wrote the words “don’t worry” and was discovered by the drone, every time she brought a wooden stick to the beach, the drone would fly away and point at the other guests.

They did not want her to contact the outside world.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes and turned around to walk back.

She didn’t want to write anything. She just wanted to test it.

However, at this moment, Su Ji’s sharp ears heard the sound of a ship engine in the distance.

She stODDed and turned around to look at the sea.

The sound of the engine became clearer and clearer. It was heading in their direction.

When the guests saw the black dot that became bigger and bigger as it approached the shore, their eyes lit up.

[“Is it CEO Pei or not?”]

[“Come and welcome the new guest!”]

[“Look at their eyes. They look like they want to eat the new guest up.

Hahahahaha, are they so happy”]

The audience thought that they were looking at who’s on the ship, but in fact... they were looking at the ship!

Chapter 437: CEO Pei’s Amazing Suitcase

The drone flew to the beach, and the man’s face on the ship gradually became clearer.

...

[“I’m kneeling before Lychee TV!!!”]

[“CEO Pei receives special treatment. He took a yacht!”]

[“Trap him on the island and never let him go down. I want to watch his daily life every day!”]

The yacht docked and Pei Huai successfully landed on the island.

The screen was filled with wolf whistles.

Especially after seeing the guests who had been exposed to the elements for three days on the island, CEO Pei looked extremely handsome!

They had to admit that this man was very popular. In the few minutes he appeared, a considerable number of fans almost flooded the chat.

The ten guests ran towards Pei Huai almost at the same time. He was observing the island for a moment.

However, when he saw Su Ji among them, his mood improved.

However, his mood was only good for less than three seconds. The ten guests split up like water and passed by his left and right sides. They were looking at the yacht!

If they hijacked it, they could leave the deserted island!

[“CEO Pei: I’m speechless...”] [“CEO Pei: Nice to meet you too.”]

[“Survival > CEO Pei”]

The helmsman casually glanced behind him, and his eyeballs almost fell out of their sockets.

As the yacht drifted some distance away from the shore, the guests were swimming crazily towards him!

He thought he was looking at zombies in an apocalypse!

He was so scared that he quickly started the yacht. The engine started at a high speed, and the yacht disappeared quickly.

A few minutes later, the guests swam ashore while cursing.

“Xiao Ken, it’s all your fault. If you didn’t trip me, I would have caught up!” Xiao Ken took off his wet clothes. “You’re the one who’s dragging me down, okay?”

Su Ji did not go into the water. “Forget it. They won’t let us take a shortcut.”

The others who did not enter the water were also consoling them.

As the group walked back, Su Ji saw the man standing not far away and finally recognized Pei Huai. “Oh? You’re here too?” [“Woman, your boss has been here for a long time, okay??”]

[“Hahahahahaha, I’m dying of laughter.”]

Casar was only surprised for a few seconds. “So it was here to send you? I knew you would come sooner or later.” After saying that, he gave Su Ji a look.

Xiao Ken:

This was Su Ji's boyfriend..

He was indeed more handsome than him...

The other guests also came forward to greet him. Then, they all looked in Su Ji's direction at the same time. It seemed that they all knew why CEO Pei had graced them with his presence.

The way Wang Yi addressed Pei Huai attracted the attention of the netizens.

When they heard Wang Yi call CEO Pei "Pei Huai", he obviously knew him.

He was that close to CEO Pei?

This added another layer of mystery to Dr. Wang.

Li Shuguo was the only one who did not know about Pei Huai and Su Ji's relationship. "CEO Pei, you chose to join us at this time, which means that you're not afraid of hardship. A person who is not afraid of hardship can do great things. No wonder the Pei Corporation has been doing better and better over the years!"

["Old Li, where's your sharp mouth?"]

["You're sweet-talking CEO Pei now?"]

Ji Xi did not dare to step forward, her expression looked a little awkward.

The netizens thought that she was introverted and shy, so no one thought too much about it.

Pei Huai walked past her and stood in front of Su Ji, looking at her for a long time.

He only felt relieved when he saw Su Ji standing in front of him.

Shen Mu, who was also watching, really did not know what the CEO was worried about. With Ms. Su's survival skills, shouldn't they be worried about the innocent little animals on the island?

Pei Huai looked at Su Ji, "how have you been these past few days?"

Su Ji nodded. "Are you only here for a few days, or..."

Pei Huai had a half-smile on his face. "I'm joining you guys. So the yacht won't be back."

["Still thinking about the yacht?"]

["I can't get past this!"]

["CEO Pei is so nice when he talks to his subordinate."]

"Eh? CEO Pei only has a suitcase too?" Nan Miaomiao's eyes widened.

Su Ji noticed the small suitcase behind Pei Huai.

She didn't see it earlier because she only saw her boyfriend.

Pei Huai placed the suitcase horizontally on the beach. The suitcase looked like it couldn't be closed properly.

The moment Pei Huai opened it, it almost exploded!

The neatly stacked things inside spilled out.

["Amazing, that's equivalent to three suitcases!"] ["Suitcase: Too much weight that I shouldn't be bearing!"]

["I'm looking forward to see what CEO Pei brought!"]

The top layer contained disinfectant wipes, hand sanitizers, shower gels, N95 face masks...

["It's understandable that you're obsessed with cleanliness, but it's too much to wear a mask!"]

It was to the extent that the Si family would definitely call him crazy. "We don't have cleaning supplies. The things that Pei Huai brought are very useful," Wang Yi nodded and said.

However, he did not know that Pei Huai only brought these to wash his girlfriend's hands.

The second layer contained a few sets of clothes and other personal items packed in vacuum packs. Other than that...there were also a few packets of lychee candy.

It was the kind that Su Ji always had.

["Hey, isn't that Su Ji's favorite lychee candy? I've seen her eat it several times on the show!"]

["That lychee candy is a new product of the Pei Corporation. Su Ji only ate it to help promote it."]

["Oh, oh! Makes sense!"]

Taking advantage of the distraction, Su Ji took a bag of candy and put it into her pocket.

The luggage was already at its limit. However, what shocked everyone was that there was something bigger under it!

This item was what Pei Huai asked Shen Mu to prepare.

It looked like a very sophisticated electronic device. The guests surrounded it curiously.

The chat was also asking if anyone knew what it was.

Su Ji was not proficient in electronic devices and Wang Yi could not tell what it was.

Casar knocked on the device. It was very heavy and seemed to have an antenna and other hidden parts that could be pulled out.

"What is this?" Casar teased, "could it be some high-tech disinfection tool?"

Pei Huai did not react to his lame joke and said lightly, "satellite communication system."

"With this," Pei Huai said unhurriedly, "you should be able to go online.."

Chapter 438: Is CEO Pei Physically Weak?

["I never expected this! CEO Pei found a big loophole!"]

...

["As expected of a CEO. Now, the guests can go online!"]

"Can we go online???" Xiao Ken immediately hugged the device. "That's awesome, Master Pei! "

The other guests were also excited.

All of them acted like they had never accessed the Internet before.

Pei Huai asked Su Ji, "do you like it?"

This time, Su Ji answered immediately, "yes!"

Casar was squatting on the ground with his shirt unbuttoned. After being on the island for three days, he looked like a handsome hooligan.

He narrowed his eyes slightly, somewhat unconvinced.

Before Pei Huai came, he was the only CEO among the guests. Now that Pei Huai was here, not only did he clash with him, but he also wanted to replace him!

On the first day on the island, he had bribed the guests with the satellite communication system.

CEO Pei's fans +1+1+1!

He finally understood the ways of the world.

Sigh.

rhvvo tigers could not live on the same mountain, and there could not be two CEOs on a show.

Seeing that one of them still did not want to compromise, Pei Huai walked to Casar's'side.

His tone was calm and collected, "the collaboration that you mentioned last time... "

Casar immediately turned to him.

Pei Huai stuffed his hands into his pockets and looked down at him condescendingly. "There's plenty of time on the island now. If you remember, you can tell me the details..."

Casar stood up from the ground, his expression serious and pious.

CEO Pei's fans +1!

["CEO Pei's arrival has divided the guests into different social classes!"]

["As expected of the man standing at the top of the pyramid!"]

Xiao Ken and Wang Yi quickly assembled the satellite communication system according to the instructions.

One should not underestimate this mini device. Its internal structure was sophisticated.

Signal receiving antenna, internet signal decoder, Wifi transmitter...everything was there.

With all the parts ready, Xiao Ken's hands trembled with excitement. He took out his phone and looked at the communication device.

There's a signal!

["The guests can finally connect to the Internet! I actually want to cry!"]

["It's been hard on everyone!"]

The chat celebrated, and the screen was filled with colorful emojis.

What was even more surprising was that not only could they connect to the Internet, but the signal was also quite good.

Sitting in front of the device, one could even receive a 5G signal.

The only drawback was that there was a distance limit. The communication device had a radius of ten meters, and there was no network outside this range.

The guests moved the equipment back to the camp.

This way, they could lie in bed and play with their phones.

["I have a premonition that no one is going to talk to each other tonight!"]

["Hahahahaha, why take a walk or talk to each other when you have the Internet?"]

At noon, to celebrate the arrival of the new guest and to celebrate that they could go online, they had hotpot.

Li Shuguo brought Pei Huai to the dining area they set up.

Pei Huai asked, "is there a dining area?"

Li Shuguo nodded, "we're here."

Pei Huai looked in the direction he was pointing at. The so-called dining area...was a bonfire in the middle and eleven small pits around it.

The eleventh one was dug after he arrived.

Pei Huai: ‘

Immediately after, Li Shuguo explained tonight's dishes to him. "Today, we will serve you the most sumptuous food on our island."

["Our Island"]

["Old Li is so professional. He looks like a native of the island hahahaha!"]

“Black pepper roasted oyster, black pepper roasted sea cucumber, black pepper wild vegetable soup, and...hotpot sponsored by Sonya!”

The seasoning Orphie brought was mostly black pepper.

Pei Huai was silent for a long time. “I’m not hungry.”

Li Shuguo looked at him as if he knew. “Trust me, you will be hungry.”

[“CEO Pei: Is it too late to quit now?”]

[“CEO Pei: I think I’m allergic to black pepper!”]

However, Pei Huai did not regret it. His gaze fell on Su Ji, who was instructing the men to move the wood. Love could feed him.

In the afternoon, the men prepared a lot of wood. If this continued, they could start building ships very soon.

Not only that, but they also collected many bamboo tubes.

Bamboo tubes and wood that were not suitable for shipbuilding were tied up. A protective wall was built on the side of the camp near the bushes. They initially wanted to build a wooden house, but time was limited and materials were not enough. It was not a bad idea to build a wall first to block the wind. Because the sea water would rise, the camp was very far from the shore. The men had to move the bamboo tubes that needed to be cleaned to the beach. Fortunately, they had the tool cart made by Su Ji, so they did not collapse from exhaustion.

While they were busy, they realized something.

“Where’s CEO pei?”

“If you hadn’t mentioned it, I would have forgotten. I haven’t seen that kid all afternoon.”

“It’s his first day on the island. Let him get used to it.”

“Is CEO Pei physically weak?”

Wang Yi, who never liked to participate in discussions, interrupted at this moment. “He’s in good physical condition.”

[“Fun fact: CEO Pei is very strong.”]

[“I’m already starting to fantasize!”]

[“How does Dr. Wang know if CEO Pei is strong?”]

As for what Pei Huai had done the whole day, the drone had managed to capture some of it.

At 1 p.m, CEO Pei gave Su Ji a bottle of hand sanitizer.

At 2 p.m, CEO Pei observed the men as they washed the construction materials.

At 3 p.m, CEO Pei conducted a one-hour-long interview with Su Ji.

At 4 p.m, CEO Pei continued to observe the men.

The men were pushing a cart of washed materials back. At this moment, Pei

Huai, who had disappeared for the entire afternoon, walked to the cart and said very calmly, "I'll borrow this for a while. "

After saying that, he easily lifted a corner of the bundle of wood on the top and pulled out a bundle of long bamboo tubes from below.

Casar:

Not only did he not help with the work, he even took the bamboo tubes that they had washed with great difficulty?

Xiao Ken noticed that Pei Huai's expression did not even change when he was lifting the bamboo bundle. It was as if it was weightless.

Xiao Ken clenched his teeth so hard that they were about to break when he was moving that bundle of wood. Only he knew how heavy it was.

CEO Pei is very strong!

For the next hour and a half, the men worked hard, drenched in sweat. Pei Huai elegantly and calmly pieced together the bundle of bamboo tubes. Beside him was a portable toolbox with some small electrical instruments.

The drone filmed the other men for a while before switching back to Pei Huai. The rhythm slowed down as if a leisurely piano piece was playing.

By the time the others finished their work, Pei Huai had also finished his. The guests were really curious and came forward, "what are you doing?"

Pei Huai's last bamboo tube happened to be placed near the camp. Hearing this, he opened the valve he had made at the front of the bamboo tube...

In the next second, seawater flowed out from inside!

Pei Huai took an hour and a half to transport the seawater to the vicinity of the camp. They would not have to waste time transporting water anymore!

Su Ji looked at the neat "water pipes", as if she remembered something from a long time ago

Chapter 439: Come In, Let's Talk About "Business"

In the third year of Su Ji's reign, there was a drought in the northwest, and the people were in dire straits.

...

She sent a few officials to manage it, but they all returned with no success.

Su Ji had a terrible headache. She wrote letters to her best friend to rant about it.

She gave her a suggestion.

She said that the officials were not motivated because the rewards were not enough, so she asked Su Ji to increase the rewards.

The next morning, Su Ji informed all the officials that whoever could solve this problem could ask for any reward from her. As long as it's in her power to do so, she would not go back on her word.

The officials looked at each other. This reward was indeed good, but the drought in the northwest was so severe that they dared not take on the task rashly.

In the high hall, the beauty behind the beaded curtain clicked her tongue. Seeing that the soft approach did not work, she wanted to use force. Then, at this moment, Prince Huai stood out.

Not only did he accept the decree, but he also set a deadline for himself. "I'll solve the drought problem in the northwest before winter."

There was only one condition, and that was that Su Ji must keep her promise.

The court was in an uproar.

Su Ji smiled and said that if he was afraid that she would go back on her word, he could tell her in advance what reward he wanted from her. With the civil and military officials as witnesses, he would be at ease.

However, Prince Huai shook his head and said that he would tell her when he came back. He even said it was something that Su Ji could give him as long as she agreed.

Prince Huai went to the northwest.

A month later, news spread that Prince Huai was in charge of a large project.

Back then, Su Ji received the blueprint. The idea of diverting water from the south to the north was ingenious.

The South-to-North Piping Project was definitely nothing like the one in modern times, but it was still a great idea.

Su Ji also mentioned it in her letter to her friend and did not shy away from praising Prince Huai.

She remembered that her friend had once lived in Prince Huai's residence, so she asked her what kind of person he was.

She wrote a long letter of about 1,000 words to describe Prince Huai's character to su Ji.

Su Ji only had one thought after reading it.

Could it be that her friend liked Prince Huai?

Otherwise, how could she know him so well?

And every sentence was a compliment?

Su Ji asked her about it in the reply.

However, her friend never replied to her again.

Later, before winter arrived, Prince Huai successfully resolved the drought problem and returned triumphantly.

Su Ji summoned him and asked him what reward he wanted.

Even if he wanted her power, she would agree without blinking, as long as he didn't take the gold in her vault.

The night was quiet, and there was only Su Ji and Prince Huai in the huge palace.

Prince Huai's eyes, which were hidden under the mask, were as dark as ink. Unfortunately, just as he was about to speak, the soldiers outside the door reported that the army had invaded the border!

The reward for Prince Huai was put on hold. Later on, the kingdom was besieged on all sides, and the battle became more and more intense. Even Su Ji personally led her troops to fight.

Prince Huai helped her drive away the barbarians. When the war ended, he would ask for rewards from her.

When he returned to see Su Ji again, it was already too late...

["CEO Pei is amazing! My dad said that if water really flows out, the pressure will be quite high. It's a real skill!"]

["CEO Pei has the strongest brain!"]

["It would be a waste not to have children with such good genes!!"]

On the deserted island, the guests were still studying Pei Huai's project.

However, from an angle that the drone did not capture, Pei Huai noticed that Su Ji was lost in thought.

The jade bracelet in her hand was shining brightly.

"Did you think of something?" Pei Huai asked in a low voice.

Su Ji's gaze slowly shifted to him, and an indescribable emotion surged in her heart.

These were memories that didn't mean much in the past, but somehow she was affected by them now.

And the way Prince Huai looked at her during Wang Yun's celebration party..

She seemed to know what kind of reward Prince Huai wanted from her.

For some unknown reason, Su Ji asked Pei Huai, "what reward do you want for contributing?"

Pei Huai smiled and mouthed a word.

"You." su Ji:

She looked at the bamboo pipes, which looked like a miniature version of the Northwest Project.

She was a little confused.

Previously, she felt that Pei Huai was like the reincarnation of her best friend. But now, she actually felt that Pei Huai was like...

After a while, Su Ji lowered her head dejectedly.

What a scumbag!

How could she be so trashy?

She must have inherited it from Su Cunyi!

In the darkness, Su Ji remembered that Pei Huai didn't have a bed. There was too much work today, and she really didn't have time to add an extra bed for nlm.

She pointed at the men's bed, "squeeze a little tonight..."

Wang Yi patted the space beside him and teased, "Huaihuai, come to me. ' Sleeping with Pei Huai felt like sleeping with a cold immortal being.

Su Ji knew that Pei Huai had never slept with anyone other than her, so he definitely wasn't used to it. However, she couldn't let him sleep at the women's side either....

At this moment, Pei Huai took out the stack of vacuum bags from his suitcase. He took out the largest one and handed it to Orphie. Then, he asked her to lay it out.

Casar:

Who was he ordering around? Orphie was his maid!

No one could order her around except him!

The next second, Orphie replied with a red face, "yes, sir!"

Casar: '

The bag was opened, and it became several times bigger after the air entered.

It didn't contain clothes, but a...portable tent!

Orphie quickly set up Pei Huai's tent. Beside the two large bunks in the camp, a dazzling golden tent stood!

Not only could the tent shelter him from the wind and rain, but he also had his private space.

["The guests who are sleeping in the common bunk are crying!"] ["So big! How luxurious! It seems to be a two-person tent!"] "Can't you bring a few more?" Casar said resentfully.

Pei Huai replied lightly, "it won't fit."

Casar: '

Bullsh*t

Orphie left the tent. "Sir, I've put your luggage in. Do you need me to help you unpack?"

"No need, thank you," Pei Huai nodded at her. Then, under the envious gazes of the guests, he entered the tent. Just as the others thought that he was going to zip up and rest, his gaze landed on Su Ji. "Come in, we have some business to discuss.. "

Chapter 440: Thank You for Your Hospitality

["My heart aches for my baby. She's being interrogated by her boss again!"]

...

["I would like to visit the boss'!"]

["Am I the only one who is wondering, is it really possible to talk about business in this pitch-black tent?"]

["With CEO's cold face, what else can they talk about other than work? Love?"]

Other than Li Shuguo, all the guests narrowed their eyes.

Li Shuguo patted Su Ji. "Don't be nervous. CEO Pei is a reasonable person."

The other guests: "

Su Yi coughed lightly. "Since you said so, then I'll...go..."

Then, Su Ji entered the tent and Pei Huai zipped up the tent.

He didn't give anyone a chance to peek.

Nan Miaomiao said half-jokingly, "CEO Pei, please lower your voice when you're talking about business. You don't want to leak any business secrets."

Lu Shang glanced at her. "So sour.

"Ah?" Nan Miaomiao didn't understand what she meant.

The other guests returned to their beds.

At night, the island was cold and windy. Although they had set up a barrier today, there were still three sides that were exposed.

People are really strange. They were clearly happy about their living environment getting better this morning, but when they compared themselves to CEO Pei's luxurious tent today, they instantly felt that theirs was too shabby!

However, they had access to the Internet because of CEO Pei, so they couldn't complain.

Xiao Ken finally connected to the Internet and started a game.

Tonight, he played the game very fiercely. He was especially ruthless and a little impatient.

Especially when he saw the tent shake from the corner of his eye, he immediately unleashed his ult, torturing the opponent until he was pierced by thousands of arrows!

Casar browsed through the stock market, and then his face turned green...

Could it fall even more?

Casar kept grinding a cigarette between his lips. He wasn't afraid of losing money in stocks. If he could use this time on the island to win the project with the Pei Corporation, then this month would be worth it!

The women were sending messages to their managers or telling their families that they were safe.

Ji Xi typed on the keyboard with a focused expression. ["It must be great to be Ji Xi's manager!"]

However, Ji Xi's manager...did not receive any news from her.

Su Ji was probably not coming back tonight. Nan Miaomiao occupied two beds and rolled around for a while. She felt bored and buried her face in the pillow.

That was strange.

Lu Shang said that she was jealous, but she also felt that she was jealous.

But who was she jealous of?

She did not even like CEO Pei?

Sonya patted her shoulder. "What are you thinking about?"

Nan Miaomiao's voice came out from the pillow, sounding muffled. "I want to be in a relationship."

Sonya:

She understood that she had been provoked.

"Be careful in case the drone hears you," Sonya said, "didn't we agree? What is the point of dating? Career is the most important thing."

Nan Miaomiao turned her face to look at her. "Can't we do both?"

Sonya frowned. She didn't know why she suddenly had so many rebellious thoughts recently. In the past, when she mentioned this, they would agree with each other.

Sonya glanced at the drone and lowered her voice. "I'm the best example. Do you want to be like me?"

Nan Miaomiao pursed her lips. "But Su Ji is also in a relationship, and her career hasn't been affected."

Sonya choked and her frustration surged in her heart. "Then you can ask her for advice. I can't help you."

Nan Miaomiao: '

In order to protect the privacy of the guests, the drones basically hovered at high altitudes at night, taking pictures of the night scene.

It looked peaceful on screen.

The strange cries of birds pierced through the sky.

[“With the internet, everyone will instantly become an internet addict again!”]

[“The camp is so quiet tonight!”]

[“By the way, are they not done talking?”]

A few minutes later, the livestream ended. The netizens had no idea when or if Su Ji came out of the tent.

In the small house, Duan Shengquan pointed at the last scene of the livestream and asked Li Fang, “are you sure that Boss Pei only took one suitcase???”

Li Fang nodded. “Yes.”

Duan Shengquan’s face was filled with shock. “A suitcase can actually hold so many things? Even a tent and a satellite communication system?”

Li Fang narrowed her eyes and thought to herself, “isn’t this your fault?”

She didn’t say it out loud, but Duan Shengquan could tell from her expression.

And Li Fang could tell from his expression that he had already figured out what she was thinking...

After two seconds of awkwardness, Li Fang coughed. “I’ll go back to work. Call me if there’s anything!”

The next morning, before the live stream started, Su Ji came out of the tent.

She rubbed her shoulders and neck. She was used to sleeping on a hard bed for the past two days. She was still a little unused to sleeping in a soft tent last night.

Pei Huai’s low and hoarse voice came out from inside. “It’s early. Sleep a little longer.”

Su Ji looked back at him. The morning light shone from behind her, making her hair look charred. “You should get up early too. I have other plans today.”

After saying that, she smiled. Her smile blended into the morning glow. “Thank you for your hospitality last night-

Casar, who had woken up and was drinking water, almost choked to death by her words.

“You, you guys...”

Su Ji gave him a strange look. “What about us?”

At this moment, Pei Huai tidied up his clothes and came out of the tent. He gestured for Su Ji to go and do her work while he took the cleaning supplies and walked to Casar’s side. “Delete the mental images in your mind. We didn’t do anything last night. She thanked me for letting her sleep in the tent.”

“Yeah, right.” Casar obviously did not believe him. “You came all the way to the island. A man and a woman staying in a tent together for the entire night. Can you control yourselves?” Pei Huai slowly washed his hands. “This is why she’s my girl, not yours.” “What do you mean?”

“I care about her,” Pei Huai said, “I will endure it even if I can’t help it. The environment on the island is tough. I just want her to eat and stay warm. Then, I will accompany her until she wants to leave and bring her home.”

Casar:

After hearing this, he felt that he was a scumbag.

Before breakfast, Su Ji met with Wang Yi.

Even though he had to collect wood, he could not pretend not to see the dangers lurking on the island. It was time to resolve the volcano issue...
