

Concubine 441

Chapter 441: The Male Protagonist Seducing with All His Might!

When making breakfast, Su Ji arranged for Pei Huai to wash the wild vegetables while the other men had to chop and carry wood.

...

They needed a lot of wood.

Xiao Ken teased Su Ji. "You're being unfair. You gave your boss the lightest job." [ "Hahahaha, he's the boss after all!" ]

[ "To be honest, I'm already impressed that she dared to arrange work for the boss!" ]

[ "Good morning, islanders!" ]

Su Ji said, "he's a germaphobe. He can clean very well but you guys can't, so you do the manual labor."

Xiao Ken couldn't refute, and he looked at Pei Huai.

At this moment, Pei Huai was sitting on the small stool behind Su Ji and smiled at him.

Xiao Ken: "..."

[ "CEO Pei is so handsome and refreshing in the morning!" ]

[ "This man has no bad angles at all??" ]

Ever since Yel Hum came to the Island, the attention paid to the other men had obviously decreased.

Nan Miaomiao saw this and walked to Su Ji's side with a smile. "Roommate, what can I do? I also want to contribute..."

She decided to call Su Ji "roommate".

It was not special if she just called her Su Ji like everyone else.

Only she, who was Su Ji's roommate, could call her that. She was special!

Su Ji tilted her head to look at her. "You want to help too..."

Nan Miaomiao was very cooperative. "Yes"

She wondered what work her roommate would arrange for her.

Su Ji glanced at the men and quickly made up her mind. "You'll transport the wood with them."

Nan Miaomiao:

[ "What happened over there? Ms. Nan's eyes widened!" ]

Nan Miaomiao couldn't believe it. Su Ji did not show any mercy to her and made her do the most tiring physical work on the island?

"The scab on my hand just fell off," Nan Miaomiao chuckled, "if I injure it again, others will think that the scar removal cream I bought from you is not good..

How clever.

Su Ji did not know what's wrong with her. She said with slight annoyance,

"then what do you want to do?"

Nan Miaomiao looked at Pei Huai. "There are quite a lot of dishes for the ten of us. It'll be breakfast time soon. How about...I help CEO Pei wash the vegetables?"

She wanted the same treatment as Pei Huai!

Pei Huai looked at them without batting an eyelid. Cool water flowed through the gaps between his fingers like a work of art.

In his line of sight, Nan Miaomiao got closer and closer to Su Ji while he was not paying attention.

Pei Huai narrowed his eyes dangerously.

Su Ji also wanted to eat early so that she could solve the volcano problem as soon as possible. A few seconds later, she nodded. "Alright, go then."

Nan Miaomiao was overjoyed!

Pei Huai: .

[ "CEO Pei: She's coming for my job." ]

[ "CEO Pei: This is the special task that Bai Yueguang arranged for me!" ] [ "Please. Why would a dignified CEO want to do such work?" ]

Nan Miaomiao ran away and sat next to Pei Huai and snorted with a smug expression.

Pei Huai did not respond, but the veins on the back of his hand popped.

They thought that Nan Miaomiao chose to partner with CEO Pei because she wanted to get close to him. However, when the two of them sat together, there was no flirtation at all. Instead, the atmosphere was tense.

With her hands in her pockets, Sonya observed Nan Miaomiao's behavior. She was getting more and more confused.

Last night, Nan Miaomiao said that she wanted to be in a relationship. Sonya thought that she would talk to Lu Shang or the other men today.

Instead, she stuck to Su Ji.

Pei Huai and Nan Miaomiao washed the vegetables together, perfectly demonstrating what  $1+1 > 2$  meant. Both of them had improved their efficiency.

But the obvious difference in physical strength was there. Nan Miaomiao was tired after a while, and she was panting from washing the vegetables. Pei Huai noticed and said gentlemanly, “go over there and rest.”

Nan Miaomiao hesitated. “I don’t think that’s fair...”

Pei Huai smiled and said, “It’s Okay. I can CIO it.”

Nan Miaomiao saw that Su Ji had gone to the beach to do something else and would not notice them for a while. “Thank you, CEO Pei. I’ll just rest for a while!”

Pei Huai nodded.

When Nan Miaomiao returned to the camp.

Su Ji came back from the beach with some specially shaped pebbles in her hand.

When she passed by Pei Huai, Pei Huai called out to her. “Is this enough?”

“Yes...” Only then did Su Ji notice him. “Why are you alone? Where is she?”

Pei Huai smiled, “she went to rest the moment you left.”

[ “Is that true?” ]

? Su Ji frowned. “I’ll go get her.”

Before she could turn around, Pei Huai grabbed her wrist.

Su Ji looked at him.

Pei Huai said, “forget it. Don’t force her.”

Su Ji was thankful for his understanding. “Can you do it yourself?”

Pei Huai said, “or, you can accompany me.”

Su Ji thought for a moment, put down the pebbles, washed her hands, and sat beside him. “That works too.”

Pei Huai smiled in satisfaction, but at the same time, he was deeply afraid. Fortunately, he was here.

If he didn’t come sooner, the uninhabited island would become her harem.

[ ‘Why does it feel like I’ve just watched a palace drama?’ ]

[ “The male protagonist is trying his best to seduce her?” ]

[ “Let me make it clear that I’m not shipping them, but I also feel that...CEO

Pei’s relationship with this newbie...is a little confusing...” ]

[ “I’m jealous!!!” ]

Wang Yi cast a self-made net on the shore last night. When he pulled it up in the morning, there was a big octopus inside. Its long tentacles were curled up and hooked on the net.

“Coconut octopus. Its skin is thick. It can’t be roasted.”

The octopus shot ink at him, but Wang Yi calmly reached out to block most of it.

[ “There’s so much seafood here!” ]

[ “I’m drooling!” ]

[ “I thought that this month would be the only month in my life that was better than a celebrity’s life! But now, when I, who is still eating instant noodles, saw the big octopus...” ]

Octopus soup was a lot more delicious than typical prawn or fish soup. After the octopus tentacles were cooked, they curled up in circles and were very chewy.

It was a high-quality protein.

Coupled with the stewed wild vegetables, they would have a delicious meal.

During breakfast, Su Ji did not mention the volcano to avoid causing panic. She only said that she wanted to go check out the shrubland.

Pei Huai took out a large octopus foot from the pot and handed it to Su Ji. Su Ji took it naturally.

[ “Master Pei must have put it into the wrong bowl. He actually wanted to put it into his own bowl...Yes! That must be the case!” ]

[ “Su Ji didn’t see that the boss put it into her bowl, so she ate it. This explanation is very reasonable!!” ]

Of course, Su Ji did not know what the chat was talking about. She looked at Wang Yi. “Dr.. Wang, are you coming with me?”

Chapter 442: Your Girlfriend is so...Cute

Wang Yi knew what she wanted to do and nodded in agreement.

...

The men didn’t say anything about Su Ji taking a strong player with her to explore the land, but Sonya thought it was inappropriate.

“There’s no need for both of you to explore, right? Without Dr. Wang, the men will have a hard time today. Didn’t you say that collecting wood is very important for us to escape from the deserted island?”

The men looked at each other.

Su Ji took a sip of the seafood soup unhurriedly. “What I have to do today is also very important.”

Sonya: “...”

Casar said, “it’s alright. It’s just one person. Go ahead.”

Xiao Ken and Lu Shang thought so too.

Sonya didn't agree. It was a deserted island. What could they do with the shrubland? It was obvious that she was trying to slack off. She could ignore Su Ji's laziness, but she could not drag down the team's progress. After thinking about it, she looked at Pei Huai. "What do you think, CEO Pei?"

It was precisely because Pei Huai and Su Ji were boyfriend and girlfriend that Pei Huai should be more fair at this time.

Pei Song was like that.

Pei Huai met Sonya's confident gaze. A few seconds later, he looked away and said to Su Ji, "I'll go with you too." Everyone: .

The guests felt awkward for Sonya. [ "Hahahahaha, the CEO is so protective!" ]

[ "He's not giving Sonya any face..." ]

Half an hour after the meal, the CEOs gathered around the satellite communication system to reply to a few emails. Wang Yi watched the video from the laboratory on mute. His phone screen was made of a special material which could not be seen through the drone or camera.

There was a stark contrast between the two CEOs.

"Well done. You don't have to come to work anymore."

"It was my mistake to hire you back then. Give me a chance to make up for my mistake."

"Baby, you're amazing. Because of you, this project is delayed for another three days."

That was Casar.

Pei Huai, on the other hand, was very quiet. He was in a video conference, and the higher-ups reported their work. Most of the time, he only listened, and occasionally, he would reply.

When something passed, he would nod slightly. Otherwise, he would just say, "do it again."

At first, the chat felt that the people working under CEO Pei were very happy because he was not as sharp-tongued as Casar. It was only when they heard Pei Huai expressionlessly say "do it again" twenty-one times and reject all the higher-ups' plans that they...

[ "So scary! The world of adults is so scary!" ]

Before they set off, Wang Yi rummaged through his bag. Su Ji walked up to him with a heavy cloth bag. "Are you looking for something to mark the area?"

Wang Yi knew that Su Ji was smart, so he smiled, "yes, the shrubland is very deep inside. It's easy to get lost without marking."

The heavy bag spun in Su Ji's hand. There was the sound of stones rubbing against each other.

They were the pebbles she collected in the morning.

"I have them," Su Ji smiled.

Wang Yi turned to look at her.

Pei Huai filled a few bottles of water and brought two packets of disinfectant wet tissues.

"Let's go," he said.

The three of them walked into the shrubland. The forest was dense and the branches and leaves crisscrossed. The drones could not follow them.

"Be careful!" Pei Huai pulled Su Ji back. With a smack, something brushed past the tip of Su Ji's nose and fell to the ground.

The three of them looked over. It was a big fat bug that was wriggling left and right.

Wang Yi gave Pei Huai a thumbs up. "You're still as agile as before."

Su Ji bent down to pick up the big fat bug from the ground. Pei Huai did not have time to stop her. "He was agile before this too?"

There was a hidden meaning in Wang Yi's words. "Yes, but he has never been trained. Don't you think it's strange?"

Su Ji glanced at Pei Huai protectively. "There's nothing strange about it. Some people are just gifted-"

Wang Yi shrugged. "Maybe."

Pei Huai was not interested in their conversation. He only wanted to know what Su Ji wanted to do with the fat bug.

Su Ji said, "take it back and add it to the meal. This worm is very nutritious."

Wang Yi said, "forget it. Although they've already eaten snakes and turtles, it's impossible for them to eat bugs no matter how nutritious they are."

"Impossible?" Unexpectedly, Su Ji smiled and squeezed her fingers together. Then, she put it into her bag. "But they've been eating them for three days."

Pei Huai:

wang Yi:

There was an eerie silence.

The nutrients were in the juice. She just had to add the bug juice to the meal, and they would not be able to taste the difference. Pei Huai cautiously probed, "then this morning.."

Su Ji raised two fingers, "two."

"No wonder I feel refreshed now!" Wang Yi glanced at Pei Huai. "Your girlfriend is really..."

Pei Huai continued, "cute. ' wang Yi: "..."

Suddenly, he had no desire to speak anymore.

Every few dozen meters, Su Ji would throw a pebble on the ground.

After walking for three hours, they had yet to reach the depths.

The shrubs were dense. Fortunately, there were cobblestone markings.

Pei Huai saw a few gemstones along the way but did not pick them up.

He did not ask Su Ji and Wang Yi what they were looking for, but from time to time, he would ask Su Ji if she was thirsty. Wang Yi was impressed by his patience.

It was almost noon, and they would need another three hours to go back. They didn't have time for lunch, so they decided to continue exploring.

Fortunately, they ate enough nutritious food in the morning and did not feel hungry at this moment.

Su Ji and Wang Yi did not find what they were looking for. The two of them rubbed their chins and fell into deep thought.

At this moment, Pei Huai, who had been silent all this while, calmly said, "I suggest that we go straight and explore the edge. The crust inside the plate is more stable, so the possibility of it appearing at the edge is higher."

Su Ji reacted for a second. "That makes sense."

Wang Yi nodded. "Huaihuai is smart."

However, two seconds later, the two of them realized at the same time.

Su Ji asked Pei Huai, "do you know what we're looking for?"

Pei Huai was born with a golden spoon in his mouth. He had been living a luxurious life since he was young. It was one thing for him to be very self-disciplined at work, but he should not have experienced such a truly dangerous thing.

Therefore, Su Ji was worried that her boyfriend would be too scared to sleep at night, so she did not tell him and asked Dr. Wang not to tell him.

However, at this moment, Pei Huai had his hands in his pockets. He shifted his gaze away from the stones that were abnormally scattered on the ground. His tone was unexpectedly calm. "A volcano. It's best if we can find a grotto, just in case."

Chapter 443: Su Ji's Sixth Sense!

Wang Yi was silent for a moment. "I told you, you can't lie to him." Su Ji looked at her boyfriend in a new light.

...

As expected of the substitute of her best friend and Prince Huai.

After walking in the same direction for an hour, the surrounding environment was clearly different.

The forest was as tall as a few people stacked up, but the colors of the leaves seemed to have faded. The surroundings were very quiet, and the birds and insects were far away. There were more rocks on the ground and the air was filled with a strong smell of sulfur.

They raised their heads and vaguely saw a huge structure. The clouds were dense and covered the sky.

As expected...it was a volcano.

They walked for a total of four hours. If the volcano erupted, they would not be able to escape.

Just as Pei Huai had said, it was necessary to look a cave where they could take refuge.

Even if it was a reality show about survival on a deserted island, it was definitely against the rules to bring the guests to an island with an active volcano.

However, Pei Huai did not say anything now. He would deal with it after he brought Su Ji home.

It was not as easy to find a cave as it was to find the volcano. There was no pattern to their distribution, and they were not sure if there were any caves on the island.

Wang Yi suggested, "we don't have enough time today. It's more dangerous at night. Let's come back tomorrow."

At this moment, there was a rustling sound in the grass, as if something was lurking and ready to attack.

Pei Huai agreed with Wang Yi. His girlfriend had not eaten lunch. Su Ji had no choice but to give up since both of them said so.

"Alright, let's go back."

In fact, it was not easy to find a pebble every few dozen meters, but they had no choice. They had walked a long way, so they had to use the pebbles sparingly. Otherwise, carrying too many pebbles would consume their strength. Moreover, they were short of supplies.

Fortunately, the three of them had a good sense of direction and quickly covered half of the journey.

Wang Yi had already set the time on his phone to the local time. It was now three in the afternoon.

At this rate, it would not be a problem for them to return to the camp before dark. However, at this moment, they realized that the pebbles were gone!

Pei Huai led them out a little further based on his memory. The direction was correct, but he did not see a single pebble on this path.

Outside the camp, there was still no signal, so there was no way to call the other guests.

Wang Yi said, "looks like someone has something against us..."

Su Ji clicked her tongue impatiently. "Then let's go by feeling. My sixth sense is quite accurate."

Regarding her sixth sense...Pei Huai looked around indifferently. "Save the battery on your phone. If necessary, you can use it as a light source."

At 5 O'clock in the afternoon, the guests had already started preparing dinner. It was already dark outside at 6 O'clock yesterday. As for the bushes, it was already dark.

Nan Miaomiao waited from noon until the afternoon. She looked into the bushes from time to time. "Why aren't they back yet? Are they lost?"

Li Shuguo was also very worried. "They took something to mark the road when they left. They shouldn't have gotten lost, right?"

Nan Miaomiao pointed inside at the men. "Why don't we go in and look for them? It's getting darker and darker. It'll be dangerous if they don't come out now!"

[ "A friend in need is a friend indeed!" ]

[ "I'm so worried. Are you sure the crew won't go in and look for them? It looks like there might be wild beasts inside!" ]

[ "We believe that it's not scripted. Can the crew quickly go in and look for them?!" ]

Xiao Ken and Casar agreed with Nan Miaomiao. They had already prepared their torches to go look for them. Sonya spoke carefully, "the terrain in the depths of the shrubland is difficult. You can't see anything now. If you go in, you'll get lost easily. When CEO Pei and the others come back, they'll have to go in to look for you..."

Lu Shang didn't want Nan Miaomiao to be in danger either. "Yes, Miaomiao. This island is very big. It will take time for them to explore. Don't worry, let's wait and see."

Nan Miaomiao pursed her lips. The more she looked at the dark forest, the more worried she became.

"The sky will be completely dark soon!" Casar said.

Xiao Ken asked Lu Shang, "do you mean we should just stay here and do nothing?"

Lu Shang replied, "no, I..."

Ji Xi tried to make a call, but there was no signal. "Let's go. We'll mark the path too. It's too dangerous for them."

Jiang Cuiqin: "don't make things worse."

The audience was anxious, and the guests were even more anxious.

All the guests were quickly divided into two camps. One group supported the search, while the other thought that they would only cause trouble if they went in.

Li Shuguo said, "those with a good sense of direction are already in the forest. Only the few of us are left..."

Seeing this, Sonya continued, "Old Li is right. The three of them are the ones with the strongest survivability. When they are not around, let's not act rashly. The shrubland is so big that we have no direction in mind. In the end, we will have to split up and look for them. What if we get lost?" Her words calmed the guests down.

[ “Sonya is still in charge at the critical moment!” ]

[ “Sonya is right. The more anxious we are, the more we can’t mess things up! ”

[ “Xiao Ken, don’t go! Protect yourself! Although the husband inside is also handsome, the one I love the most is still you!” ]

[ “Miaomiao, without Su Ji, you still have Sonya. Don’t panic!” ]

Nan Miaomiao seemed to have remembered something. “By the way, didn’t you go to the shrubland to pick wild vegetables today? Did you see them? Do you know which direction they went?”

Sonya paused. “1...1 didn’t see them. I was around the bushes and didn’t go in...”

Nan Miaomiao sighed. “I’m so worried!”

At the same time, in the depths of the shrubland, the sky was completely dark. Su Ji’s sixth sense had led the three of them to an unknown place. They had also marked the path behind them, but even if they turned the flashlight on, the visibility was still too low.

Wang Yi was not frustrated. “It’s okay. We don’t even remember the way. Let’s find a place to rest tonight. It’ll be easy to find it tomorrow morning.”

Pei Huai held Su Ji’s hand tightly and picked some wild fruits along the way. “We’ve been walking for a day. Let’s eat something first.” Although no one blamed her, Su Ji was upset.

She could already tell right from left?

She did feel that there was something in this direction. Even if it was not the direction back to the camp, it should be...

“Oh? Look ahead!”

At this moment, Wang Yi’s calm voice suddenly rose.

Pei Huai and Su Ji looked over.

Wang Yi’s flashlight lit up the path ahead.

Even if he couldn’t see it clearly, he could tell.

They found a cave!

Chapter 444: Getting Rid of the Island’s Overlord, Once and for All!

According to their analysis, the cave entrance should be facing away from the volcano. Moreover, the entrance was small and wide inside. It was the best shelter.

...

Not only that, but it was also a good place to rest tonight.

Wang Yi said, “amazing, Su Ji. Your sixth sense is really something!”

Pei Huai also looked at Su Ji in amazement.

Su Ji nodded calmly. This was more like it.

The three of them walked towards the cave. Su Ji sized up the circular entrance, which looked familiar, and said thoughtfully, "I think I've been to this place before."

Wang Yi said that she was joking. The cave was on a deserted island. Could she be here before?

However, Pei Huai asked, "who did you come with?"

In Wang Yi's opinion, this was a very strange conversation.

Su Ji looked at her boyfriend and smiled profoundly. "Someone very important to me."

Pei Huai:

Wang Yi's eyes suddenly blurred as he saw flames behind him!

"Wait." As they walked in, Pei Huai suddenly reached out and stopped Su Ji.

He seemed to have heard something.

The three of them stopped talking and carefully identified the voice coming from the depths of the cave.

A loud, guttural sound was heard. It was a warning from some kind of wild beast.

It seemed that the cave was already occupied. If they wanted to stay there, they had to fight it.

Wang Yi put down his phone, and the cave returned to darkness. He pushed up his glasses and his handsome face was a little pale at this moment.

He was as smart as Pei Huai, the most famous prodigy in their neighborhood. However, in terms of physical strength...

He could not compare to Pei Huai.

Moreover, they did not have a torch that could deter the beasts. The light from their phones alone would not work. Instead, it would stimulate them and make them even more manic.

Since he could not make a sound at the moment, he communicated with Pei

Huai with his eyes, meaning that they might not be able to stay here tonight. They could memorize their location and bring the others back tomorrow. There was strength in numbers.

Pei Huai nodded slightly at him. Wang Yi thought Pei Huai agreed with him, but then he saw Pei Huai silently pull Su Ji behind him and pick up a wooden stick from the ground.

Wasn't he retreating?

This clearly meant that they were going to fight, right?

If he had known about this a few minutes ago, Pei Huai might have agreed to retreat.

But now, he just found out that Su Ji had been here with a very important person. That meant that tonight, Pei Huai would definitely want to conquer the cave.

Su Ji stood beside Pei Huai. Just before they entered the cave, she heard the cries of wolves. If they spent the night outside, they might have to deal with even more trouble. They might as well overcome this problem.

She rotated her wrist without batting an eyelid and looked into the cave warily.

As the sound of the large paws stepping on the shrubs approached, two pairs of green eyes gradually appeared in the dark depths of the cave.

Just from the height and size of the eyes, one could tell how big the beast was.

Pei Huai threw the wooden stick in his hand to Wang Yi. For such a heavyweight, this wooden stick would not be of much use. Instead, it would be a hindrance. However, it was better than nothing to use it for self-defense when necessary.

Unexpectedly, there were two wild beasts. Pei Huai exchanged glances with Su Ji. He meant to leave them all to him, but Su Ji wanted to tackle one of them.

Merore me two or mem coma come co an agreement, tne two Deasts quickIY rised, ready to pounce on them.

Wang Yi was petrified!

Just as he was thinking about the probability of him surviving by playing dead, Pei Huai calmly rolled his shirt up to his arm and said, "you're in charge of the light source."

Wang Yi's idea of pretending to be dead was put on hold.

The moment he raised his phone, the two huge beasts in front of him were illuminated.

They were two black bears that were taller than humans when they stood up!

The one in front was bigger, while the one behind was smaller.

Pei Huai confronted the bigger one head-on.

The veins on his arms were bulging, and his mind was filled with the very important person Su Ji had mentioned. He held the big bear's paws down. His strength stunned even the big black bear.

Su Ji, on the other hand, dealt with the smaller one. She first dodged the attack quickly and then kicked the bear's stomach.

The force passed through the thick fur and reached the bear's stomach. One could see dust flying.

Wang Yi watched as the two of them fought the bears with their bare hands, agilely dodging the attacks one after another. Their counter attacks were powerful, and he was stunned.

Wang Yi knew a little about Pei Huai's skills, but...Su Ji was also so fierce?

But the professor was not an ordinary person, he quickly calmed down and pointed the light source in a direction that was advantageous to them.

The big black bear was smart. Seeing that it did not have the upper hand in a one-on-one battle, it targeted Su Ji.

“Su Ji, be careful!” Wang Yi shouted.

Su Ji clicked her tongue and clenched her fists to deal with one of them first. The black bear was extremely strong. While she was fighting one of them, the other pounced at her. Su Ji could not free up her hands, and at this critical moment, Pei Huai stood in front of her and blocked the big black bear’s attack with his strong arm.

The bears soon realized that targeting Su Ji was tantamount to courting death.

Pei Huai’s viciousness soared to the sky.

Outside the cave, the jackals were hiding in the dark. After seeing the three humans enter, they had been waiting with drool dripping from their mouths, waiting for an opportunity to pick up some delicious leftovers.

After waiting for half an hour, there was finally movement at the entrance of the cave.

The jackals jumped out of the bushes and were about to pounce on the fleeing humans. In the next second, they saw the bears fleeing from the cave with their faces covered in dirt and wounds. They even let out a whimper, which sounded very aggrieved.

The jackals: “...”

They looked at the big black bear and then at the cave. Then, they fled in panic.

In the cave, Pei Huai rolled down his sleeves and used his phone to check on Su Ji.

Su Ji smiled at him with a serious expression. “Don’t worry, I’m not hurt.”

However, she knew that if Pei Huai had not come to help her in time, it would not be the case.

Half of her body would probably be crippled if such a large black bear hit her.

Wang Yi panted.. Looking at them, a thought came to mind, “there’s a new overlord in this deserted island!”

Chapter 445: A Shocking Discovery in the cave!

Having ownership of the cave must be a symbol of the status. From the layout of the cave, the two black bears had probably occupied this cave for a long time.

...

Tonight, their peaceful life was disrupted. The owner of the cave had changed.

There were many dry wooden sticks in the cave. Wang Yi had a lighter in his bag. Over the past few days, he had become very familiar with starting a bonfire. Soon, he started a small fire.

Pei Huai spread his suit jacket on the ground and let Su Ji sit on it.

From the moment she arrived on the island, traces of familiarity enveloped Su Ji, prompting her to explore. However, she did not find what she was looking for after observing the cave wall.

Was it just a coincidence...

There were probably many uninhabited islands like this in the world, and this naturally formed cave might have similar structures, so it was not strange to find it familiar.

She ate the fruit that Pei Huai handed over, but it did not taste good at all.

Pei Huai observed her disinterested expression. "Not sweet?"

Su Ji shook her head. "I want to eat roasted bear claws."

After saying that, she looked out of the cave and swallowed.

Wang Yi: 't..."

Pei Huai caressed her head. "Those two bears are too dirty. We don't have a place to wash them. If we have the chance to meet them again when we return to the camp, I'll cook them for you."

"Alright." Su Ji was still very hungry. She looked a little pitiful when she could not eat what she wanted.

Wang Yi: '

Seafood could no longer satisfy them.

At this moment, it was raining heavily on the forest. Because of the structure of the cave, the sound of rain was clear.

The weather on this deserted island was unpredictable, and tonight, it was actually a rainstorm.

Wang Yi looked at the pouring rain outside the cave through the bonfire.

Fortunately, Huaihuai and Su Ji chased the bears away. Otherwise, if they had listened to him and retreated, the three of them would be drenched.

The temperature on the island at night was low, and it was dangerous to be wet. Now that they were in the cave, surrounded by a bonfire, it was safe and warm. It was a world of difference.

After thinking about it, Wang Yi patted Pei Huai's shoulder and said in a tone that sounded like an elder and a close friend, "it's all thanks to the two of you today."

Pei Huai first looked at the giant handprint on his shoulder, then narrowed his eyes at Wang Yi. He said teasingly, "you're only a few years older than me. You don't have to speak like a senior."

Wang Yi paused. "Senior? I don't think so..."

Pei Huai smiled, "yes, you sound like Madam Du."

“...” Wang Yi adjusted his glasses to hide his embarrassment.

Su Yi noticed something strange between them. She chewed on a crisp fruit and looked at the two of them.

Wang Yi pursed his lips slightly. It was a rare opportunity for the three of them to be together without any drones around.

Since Pei Huai took the initiative to mention his mother, then...

Wang Yi lowered his gaze and said casually, “I heard that your mother...is divorced?”

Pei Huai expected him to ask this and was not surprised at all. “Yes, she’s staying in the Pei family and that person left with nothing.”

He answered very calmly.

Wang Yi wanted to ask about the reason for the divorce, but after hearing Pei Huai’s words, he could guess who was responsible.

He rested his arm on his knees and picked up a wooden branch, casually fiddling with the campfire. “Your mother has many suitors. It’s good that she’s divorced now. She’ll definitely find someone better.”

Pei Huai laughed at Wang Yi’s roundabout way of speaking. “Why don’t you just ask me directly if Madam Du is single now?” Su Yi looked at them for a second time.

Wang Yi dropped the branch in his hand.

“What are you talking about!” He glanced at Su Ji as if to remind Pei Huai that Su Ji was still there.

Wang Yi was actually very old -fashioned. He had inherited the traditional thinking of his grandfather, Officer Wang. He was not worried for himself, but he didn’t want to affect Du Meilan’s reputation.

“I can tell you...”

At this moment, Su Ji smiled as she spoke.

She originally wanted to introduce Mr. Bian to Madam Du, but now...there seemed to be a better choice...

Wang Yi: “...”

Su Ji slowly met his embarrassed gaze. “She’s currently single, but I can’t say for sure in the future because...I want to introduce her to someone!”

Wang Yi was stabbed in the heart.

However, before Su Ji could finish, she added, “Madam Du is amazing. Ordinary men are not worthy of her. I plan to introduce her to...a spirited young man!”

Pei Huai glanced at her. “Does my mother know about this?”

Su Ji nodded, “yes”

Pei Huai smiled dotingly. "I'm sure she'll like the person her future daughter-in-law introduce her to. "

Wang Yi facepalmed in defeat.

After calming down for a moment, he shifted his gaze to the side. He saw something on the stone cave wall behind Su Ji, so he stood up and walked over.

He turned on the flashlight on his phone and shone it on the wall.

Su Ji and Pei Huai looked over.

Wang Yi waved the branch in his hand and scraped off the vines on the wall.

The cave drawing revealed.

It was originally just a small mark, but when Wang Yi finished removing the vines, he realized that there was a sentence carved vertically!

It looked very old. There were scratches and bloodstains of wild beasts on it, but one could vaguely see the words carved on it.

It meant that a long, long time ago, someone had really come to this cave.

However, it was an ancient language. Moreover, Wang Yi felt like it was an ancient language from their country.

Logically speaking, the ancient carvings found on an island in Z Sea should be in a foreign language.

This was an unexpected discovery...

"Do you know what era this language is from?" He felt that it looked familiar, as if he had seen something similar in the ancient calligraphy painting that Mr. Bian wrote the other day.

He turned around and saw the two staring at the wall.

Su Ji's eyes flickered with a dark light, and she had a strange expression on her face.

Su Ji looked at the familiar carvings on the wall and did not reply to Wang Yi.

So...this was really the cave in her memory.

All of this was not a coincidence, and her sixth sense was not groundless.

No wonder she felt that the distribution of the islands here was very familiar when she saw them on the plane.

The evidence was there, but it was blocked by the vines.

She had been to this island, this cave, this place before...It was the island that she and her mother came to after ten days of drifting on the sea!

Chapter 446: Madam Xu and Her Daughter are Here!

In that case, the things she left there should be nearby.

...

There were clear coordinates in Su Ji's mind.

Combined with the memory of the modern map, she realized that she and her mother had drifted very far away!

She had to go home and tell her mother the distance they swam. Madam Xu would also find it interesting.

Pei Huai's gaze slowly fell on Su Ji, "I think it's the script from the Great Shang Dynasty."

Su Ji: '

Sometimes, she wished he weren't that smart.

Wang Yi remembered something. "Indeed, the words that Mr. Bian wrote in the painting the other looked similar to this..."

"It would be great if we could find out what it means," Wang Yi's lenses shone. "Oh right, Huaihuai, didn't you download a translation software for the language of the Great Shang Dynasty that can be used offline? Try to translate it."

A translation software that could be used offline?

Su Ji had never heard of such a thing.

She asked Pei Huai, "when did you download it?"

Pei Huai smiles, "after I met you."

Pei Huai opened the software and took a photo of the wall to extract the text.

Su Ji ate a fruit as if she did not care.

A minute later, Wang Yi asked, "does it work?"

Pei Huai first looked at Su Ji and then shook his head. "No, it might be an error or that the offline version doesn't work well, but it says it's not from the Great Shang..."

Wang Yi rubbed his chin.

He planned to take a photo of it with his phone so that he could send it to his assistants at the research institute.

However, before he could take a picture, the phone suddenly went out of battery...

Su Ji exhaled quietly and took another bite of the fruit.

Pei Huai sat behind Su Ji and smiled silently.

Actually, he found the translation.

It worked.

“Madam Xu and her daughter Su are here.”

It turned out that the very important person was Madam Xu.

Realizing this, Pei Huai was in a good mood. He was even happier than when he finally confirmed his girlfriend's background...

The next morning, Sonya woke up before the live stream even started.

She was not the only one awake. Most of the guests had woken up as well. Casar and Xiao Ken had not slept the entire night. They explored the area around the shrubland that was not very deep, but they did not find any traces. They only returned to the camp late at night. Then, it rained heavily, and the two of them were even more awake. From time to time, they would look over at the bushes, but the three of them did not return the entire night.

Sonya was not as calm as yesterday. She sat on the bed with her knees bent and bit her thumb. One could tell that she was anxious.

Did something really happen...

She only wanted them to wander around for a few more hours to punish them for leaving the group and avoiding work.

However, who knew that there would be a thunderstorm that night. The cries of wild beasts in the middle of the night made her heart palpitate.

“Sonya, what's wrong? Why do you look so pale?”

Nan Miaomiao's voice interrupted Sonya.

“I was worried about the three of them and didn't sleep well last night,” Sonya explained.

“Me too. They have been missing for an entire night and the team hasn't sent anyone to look for them. That's unacceptable!” If only CEO Pei was the only one who went!

“I think it's strange,” Ji Xi said lightly.

Nan Miaomiao only wanted Su Ji to be back. “What's strange? Hurry up and tell us!”

Ji Xi tied her long hair behind her head with a rubber band, revealing her slim face. She did not sleep well either. “Yesterday, Casar and the others searched around the bushes. Although they didn't go too deep, it was still more than a hundred meters, but not only did they not find anyone, they didn't even see a mark.”

Sonya froze.

Nan Miaomiao nodded, "Ms. Ji Xi, it's really strange now that you mention it. Old Li clearly said that he heard them talking about leaving tracks. It's impossible that they didn't mark anything within a few hundred meters, right?"

The atmosphere on the deserted island was very heavy this morning, completely different from the previous few days.

If the conditions were harsh, they could tolerate it. For the sake of the show, they could also make sacrifices.

But now that the fate of the three people was unknown, they could not help but doubt the professionalism of the organizer.

Were they really protecting them?

Jiang Cuiqin and the others contacted their agents and asked them to quickly contact the production team.

However, for some reason, they had not taken any action yet. Li Shuguo happened to be walking towards the water.

"Old Li!" Nan Miaomiao called out to him.

He stopped in his tracks, his face filled with worry.

Nan Miaomiao was still thinking about what Ji Xi said, so she asked, "Old Li, do you know what Dr. Wang and the others used to mark the path?"

If they knew what the mark was, they could go into the bushes and look around again. It might be easier to find them if they knew what to look for.

However, Li Shuguo said, "I didn't ask. It's already dawn and the three are still not back. What should we do?"

Seeing that Old Li had no idea, Sonya squeezed her hands and said, "could it be that they used food, and then when they walked far away, they were eaten by wild beasts?"

Nan Miaomiao said, "it's possible."

Ji Xi did not say anything immediately.

They should be smart enough to know this.

However, since they weren't back, no one knew what happened.

Sonya was also aware of this. As long as they didn't come back, her explanation would be the only reasonable explanation.

"Sonya, are you sure you're okay? I feel like you're getting worse," Nan Miaomiao sounded nervous.

Ji Xi also looked at her. Sonya was afraid that others would see through her, so her panicked eyes darkened.

She was not worried about Su Ji and the others, but herself.

If something really happened to them...that was fate...

She couldn't be blamed.

Sonya was initially worried that they would not come back, but now that Ji Xi suspected something, she would rather they not come back.

As she was comforting herself, the men suddenly shouted.

"Su Ji! Dr. Wang! CEO pei! You guys are finally back!" Sonya looked up abruptly.

Sure enough, she saw three figures from the bushes.

Pei Huai and Wang Yi stood on the left and right, with Su Ji in the middle.

The three of them looked very good and radiant. They seemed to have slept better than them.

Moreover, their clothes were dry.

Sonya's face was full of disbelief, but she quickly walked over with Nan Miaomiao at the first moment. There was no trace of guilt on her face.. "Su Ji, what exactly happened to you guys last night?"

Chapter 447: Bathing Outdoors

Nan Miaomiao almost pounced on Su Ji. She hugged her neck and rubbed her face against Su Ji's. "Roommate, you're finally back! I was worried that something happened to you!"

...

Su Ji took a step back after being pounced on. Recently, Nan Miaomiao had been acting strangely.

In the end, Nan Miaomiao was pulled away by Pei Huai by the collar.

Su Ji wanted to say that she was crazy, but when she met her eyes, Nan Miaomiao's eyes were red.

Seeing that they had finally returned safely, the guests heaved a sigh of relief.

Xiao Ken said, "did your clothes get wet from the heavy rain last night? Hurry up and change so that you don't get sick..."

After saying that, everyone turned their attention to their clothes...

They were dry..

And it didn't look like they were dried...

Wang Yi answered everyone's questions. "We found a cave and spent the night there."

A cave?

Sonya sighed, "you guys are really lucky..."

Wang Yi looked at her indifferently. "Yes, there were two black bears in the cave that were taller than humans..."

As soon as he said this, they gasped.

Ji Xi covered her mouth in shock.

Sonya choked.

Lu Shang asked, "are you guys injured?? "

Wang Yi raised his chin in Pei Huai's direction. "Fortunately, they chased the black bear away."

Hearing this answer, everyone was speechless.

They couldn't believe it.

Bears were beasts that were far more terrifying than lions and tigers. They weighed about a ton.

Moreover, Wang Yi said that there were two that were taller than humans!

Pei Huai had one hand in his pocket while Su Ji had her arms crossed. One looked refined and the other looked cool. Be it height or looks, they were a perfect match. They looked like supermodels...who could defeat bears!

Li Shuguo raised his hand to wipe the sweat off his forehead and looked at the beach in the distance...

[ "Ahhhh! They are finally back!" ]

[ "The team must have found them! It's so dangerous to get lost in the forest!" ]

[ "It seems that the complaint letter we wrote last night has worked! My husband and wife are back safely. I'm so happy that I'm about to cry!" ]

[ "Aren't you too naive? This is obviously part of the script. How could they let something like that happen?" ]

At the start of the live stream today, the number of viewers had increased by three to four times.

Yesterday, the three guests did not return before the live stream ended.

The incident was trending for three hours before it was removed by Lychee TV.

At this moment, Su Ji and the other two had just returned to camp and went online. Their phones received several messages from their families.

L Xu Mingzhi: "Baby, are you okay?" J [ Pei Qingshen: "Huaihuai, are you alright?" ]

[ Officer Wang: "How is Su Ji?" ]

When preparing breakfast, Pei Huai, who was usually calm and composed, acted strangely today. He first ground a piece of gravel and tied it to the tip of a strong wooden stick. Casar observed from the side for a long time. Before he could ask him what it was for, he saw him enter the shrubland. Ten minutes later, he returned with two dead pheasants in his hands.

Casar:

[ “F * ck! CEO Pei went hunting?” ]

[ “CEO Pei caught some pheasants? Could it be that the team was in the bushes...” ]

[ “Just admit that CEO Pei is perfect!” ]

Pei Huai would do anything to feed his girlfriend.

She didn’t eat much the whole day yesterday, so she had to nourish her body today.

Not only did he hunt, but he also dealt with the pheasants.

The sleeve on his right arm was rolled up to his elbow, and the sleeve on his left arm was stained with blood.

His speed of removing the feathers and draining the blood was comparable to su Ji’s.

Casar wiped his face and squatted down beside him. He was really impressed. “I admit now that you and this girl are a match made in heaven.”

Pei Huai’s hands did not stop moving.

Casar noticed the blood stain on his left forearm. “Why didn’t you roll up your sleeves? It’s already stained with blood. How can you tolerate it as a germaphobe?”

He then stretched out his hand towards him. Pei Huai moved away without batting an eyelid. “It’s already stained, so it’s not necessary.”

Casar shrugged and looked at the tender pheasant. He swallowed subconsciously.

Ji Xi was still in charge of breakfast. She looked at the two pheasants and said that they would be delicious.

“Pheasants are more tender than domesticated chickens. CEO Pei, how do you want to cook them?”

Pei Huai looked at her and Ji Xi felt nervous for no reason.

However, she soon realized that Pei Huai’s eyes were cold and indifferent, as if he did not know about her relationship with her father.

Pei Huai did not answer. Instead, he asked, “where is Su Ji? I don’t see her.”

Ji Xi wanted to take the opportunity to ask them about last night and remind them that it might not be an accident, but at this moment, she was so intimidated by his overbearing aura that she could not say anything else. She thought it would be better to wait until Su Ji returned.

She glanced at Casar and lowered her voice. “Su Ji said she smelled like a bear and went to take a shower.”

In the past few days, the guests had divided the area. The western sea area was where the male guests bathed, while the eastern sea area was where the female guests bathed.

[ “Did I hear wrongly? Smells like a bear? What does she mean?” ] [ “Maybe it’s a new slang to describe the smell of sweat?” ]

[ “I’ll say the same next time. You smell like a bear after playing basketball. So cute, hahahaha!” ]

[ “Speaking of which, where is Su Ji taking a shower? Why can’t I see it?” ]

[ “Yeah, me neither.” ]

[ “As if you will be able to see a celebrity shower in your lifetime.” ]

Pei Huai put down the processed meat and got up to wash his hands. “Use one of them to make a spicy dish, and the other the rest of you can decide,” he said.

Casar looked at Pei Huai and then at Ji Xi. He asked Ji Xi, “did you offend him?” Ji Xi smiled and did not answer.

[ “Even the Casar can tell? I thought I was overthinking things. CEO Pei is really cold to Ji Xi!” ]

[ “Because she’s not a Blue Whale artist? That shouldn’t be the case.” ]

[ “Although I like CEO Pei a lot, I feel bad for Ji Xi! She is so good!” ] After Pei Huai washed his hands, he went back to the tent and took two clean towels. After he came out, he went straight to the east.

Nan Miaomiao’s gaze followed him for a while before she realized what he was going to do. “Hey, CEO Pei...”

However, before she could say anything, Jiang Cuiqin stopped her. “Miaomiao, if you have nothing better to do, you can wash the vegetables...”

“No...” Nan Miaomiao was pulled away quickly by Jiang Cuiqin. “Ms. Jiang, CEO

Pei went to the east. My roommate is still taking a shower!”

Jiang Cuiqin narrowed her eyes and held her hand tightly.. “So what? It’s legal to shower together!”

Chapter 448: Master Pei: “They have become smaller...”

Pei Huai knew that the conditions on a deserted island were harsh, and bathing could only be done in the open sea.

...

But...he was still in a bad mood.

He was already on his way to the east coast, and there were still drones filming him.

He glanced at it coldly.

The drone: ‘ .

After pausing in the air for a few seconds, it left.

Pei Huai retracted his gaze and continued to head towards the beach.

His pace gradually slowed down.

The morning sun shone on the surface of the sea, and the waves sparkled.

Su Ji, who was good at swimming, splashed in the water, disturbing the peace of the sea.

The seagulls that were circling at a low altitude flapped their wings and flew away.

She girl looked at the seagulls flying around and smiled evilly.

Pei Huai happened to see the side of her face. The reflection of the sea reflected on the corners of her lips. Her hair, which was wet from the sea, was neatly tied behind her head and stuck on her slender back. Her thin shoulders were as white as milk.

Su Ji's eyes followed the seagulls as she noticed Pei Huai standing on the shore. A moment later, she turned her head and met his gaze.

Her reflection was on Pei Huai's eyes. He did not panic even when he was discovered.

Because he wasn't peeking.

It was only when a handful of water splashed onto his expensive trousers that Pei Huai let out a low laugh.

Su Ji swam to the shore and used one hand to shield her body. She narrowed her eyes and looked at him. "How many times have you watched a woman take a shower?"

Pei Huai stuffed his hands into his pockets. "It's my first time. It's not a bad experience. "

Su Ji glanced at him. "Shameless."

Pei Huai's laughter was deep and pleasant to hear. His broad shoulders trembled slightly. "Don't be shy. It's not like I haven't seen it before." su Ji:

She rolled her eyes and put down her hand. The waves crashed lightly on her.

Immediately after, she swam up to the shore. Under Pei Huai's eyes, which deepened little by little, her snow-white body was reflected in his eyes. Her long hair flowed behind her, dripping water, and not covering any part of her.

She was truly a demon concubine.

Pei Huai swallowed, and his breathing suddenly became heavier.

A few seconds later, he took a few steps forward and wrapped the long towel he brought around her. He covered her head with another small towel and wrapped her up like a dumpling.

Pei Huai pinched the thin flesh on the back of her neck as if he was punishing a disobedient cat. He bent down to look at her as he spoke, his jaw was tightly clenched. "Don't provoke me. I don't want to torment you on the island." It was a warning.

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and rebutted. "It's not like I haven't experienced it before anyway. '

Pei Huai:

Su Ji did not continue arguing with him because she later realized that his face was a little pale. It was abnormally pale.

Thinking that he was tired from yesterday, she did not say anything more. She dried her hair and put on her clothes.

When the two of them returned to the camp, it was time to eat.

One of the two chickens was made into spicy chicken cubes, and the other was made into soup.

This was the first time they had eaten such a sumptuous meal so early in the morning.

The guests knew that the three of them had been starving since yesterday, so they poured them a big bowl.

Pei Huai's share was given to Su Ji.

Su Ji did not want it. "Don't give it to me. I can't eat so much."

Pei Huai lowered his voice and smiled, "eat more. They've become smaller..."

Shots fired!

If it weren't for the drones around her, she would have fought him.

[ 'Why is the drone so far away? I can't hear what CEO Pei is saying clearly. It's so annoying!' ]

[ "CEO Pei is taking really good care of his artists. If I weren't ugly, I would have definitely tried to work at Blue Whale!" ] The crisis was over, and the guests were relaxed.

Nan Miaomiao teased Wang Yi.

Dr. Wang, I was actually worried about you the most yesterday. CEO Pei would definitely save my roommate if he had to choose between you two."

Wang Yi smiled back at her. "Thank you."

Lu Shang remembered what they said. "By the way, you said that you discovered a cave. Should we move the camp into the cave? Isn't it better to stay there to shelter from the wind and rain?"

Wang Yi shook his head. "The cave is in the shrubland. There are too many wild beasts around, and it's not easy to get water. It's only good as a temporary refuge."

"Refuge?" Li Shuguo held the chicken soup with both hands. "Why do we need that?"

Wang Yi didn't reply immediately.

Ji Xi looked at the three people opposite her and was confused when Pei Huai spoke first.

He put down his cutlery, looked up at the others, and started the interrogation.

“Who went into the shrubland yesterday? ‘

Sonya, who had been silent all this while, felt her heart sink.

The other guests were confused.

Lu Shang said, “what do you mean...”

Casar was very smart. “You’re suspecting...that it wasn’t an accident that you got lost yesterday?”

Pei Huai did not explain. Instead, he asked again, “who went into the shrubland yesterday? ‘

[ “Listen carefully!” ]

[ “No way... CEO Pei suspects them?” ]

[ “No, absolutely not! There’s no way that there is a saboteur!” ] [ “CEO Pei is so scary. If I had done it, I would have peed my pants!” ] Lu Shang was intimidated by Pei Huai’s aura and answered honestly,

“yesterday, we were there.”

Jiang Cuiqin said, “I went there in the morning to look for nectar.”

Seeing this, Sonya said naturally, “I’ve also gone to pick wild vegetables.”

Most of them had been to the bushes yesterday, and it had been quite a while. Pei Huai spoke slowly. “Someone took our markers.”

Nan Miaomiao suddenly remembered what Pei Xi said. “Could they have been eaten by wild animals?”

“Eaten?” Su Ji smiled. “Which animal eats pebbles?”

Nan Miaomiao:

Pebbles?

Then something was wrong...

Sonya was anxious.

She glanced at the time. “CEO Pei, it’s getting late. The other men have plans to cut down trees today. I suggest that we don’t delay our work. If you don’t trust us, you can take your time to investigate. There’s no rush.”

[ “CEO Pei and the others stayed out for an entire night. It’s normal for them to be suspicious, right?” ]

[ “But Sonya is right, right? The three of them didn’t work yesterday. The daily tasks were completed by the other guests. They were already very tired!” ]

[ “I hope that some brainless fans can treat everyone equally. Although the CEO is smart, since he’s back now, there’s no need to be suspicious of each other and make the atmosphere so tense, right??” ]

[ “You weren’t the ones who were trapped in the shrubland for a night??” ] The argument was very intense, and the atmosphere on the island was also tense.

Sonya’s words implied that Pei Huai was making a big deal out of it, but Pei Huai had no intention of giving in.

However, at this moment, Su Ji noticed that there was a patch of blood on Pei Huai’s left sleeve..

Chapter 449: Slap on the Face

Su Ji’s pupils constricted. “Your...”

...

Casar said, “ah, he got chicken blood when he was handling the pheasants this morning

However, it was clear that the blood had seeped out and not splattered on.

Pei Huai wanted to say that he was fine, but Su Ji grabbed his arm first and rolled up his sleeves. A terrifying scratch mark revealed itself!

The wound was more than ten centimeters long. If it was an inch deeper, it would have exposed the bone. The blood that seeped out was dark brown and sticky.

However, Pei Huai acted as if nothing had happened. He took care of Su Ji as usual.

If Su Ji had not noticed that Pei Huai was planning to return to the tent after dinner to bandage his wound, he would not have told her.

Su Ji looked at the shape of the wound and quickly realized that it was caused during the time Pei Huai blocked the attack for her.

In fact, Pei Huai had already stopped the bleeding last night, but it was torn open again this morning. It was still fine when he dealt with the pheasant, but after seeing Su Ji come out of the bath... The guests around the bonfire were all stunned.

The chat was also speechless.

Those who had suspected that it was a script were dumbfounded when they saw the bloody wound.

Although the netizens did not know that they had encountered two black bears last night, it was not a small matter that someone had suffered such a serious injury.

At this moment, everyone wanted to find the culprit who caused Su Ji and the other two to get lost!

Su Ji’s delicate eyebrows were tightly knitted together. Her expression was terrifyingly cold, and she looked fierce.

Sonya covered her mouth. She knew that this had gotten out of hand...

Ji Xi put down her bowl and chopsticks. "Su Ji, do you have medicine? Quickly treat his wound!"

Su Ji stood up without a word, and Pei Huai followed behind her.

"Don't worry, I..."

"Don't talk!"

Before Pei Huai could finish his words, Su Ji shouted at him.

Pei Huai knew that his girlfriend was angry and obediently shut up.

The guests were not in the mood to eat breakfast. They were all anxious about Pei Huai's wound.

Su Ji poured out all the medicine bottles from her backpack. The wounds caused by wild animals were very complicated to deal with. Other than healing the wounds, the most important thing was to deeply disinfect them to prevent infection.

Wang Yi looked nervous. At the same time, he blamed himself for not noticing such a serious wound.

"Su Ji, disinfect him first. "

Su Ji did not say a word. She pursed her lips tightly and began to treat him.

She didn't want to talk to anyone.

However, before she sprinkled the disinfectant powder on the wound, she lowered her voice and said to Pei Huai, "it might hurt a little. "

Pei Huai replied, "it's alright. "

Disinfection needed to be very thorough. Su Ji pried open the wound on Pei Huai's arm, cleaned up the bleeding, and evenly sprinkled a large amount of disinfectant powder.

Su Ji made the disinfectant powder herself. Of course, she knew how painful it was when it touched a wound. It would be even more intense than being burned by flames. It was not as she said, "it might hurt a little."

However, Pei Huai only frowned slightly throughout the entire process. He had a smile on his face and did not even make a sound.

Nan Miaomiao was sensible. She was not jealous at Pei Huai at the moment. She even helped Su Ji pass the bottle of medicine that she needed.

[ "Ahhhh! I could feel the pain even through the screen! Who took their markers? I want to call the police!" ]

[ "Who were the ones who said it was not a big deal? I want to slap your face now!" ]

[ "CEO Pei is too strong. Without anesthesia, the pain is unbelievable, right?" ]

[ "I can't stand it anymore! Who did it?" ]

Su Ji was in a bad mood. The guests had never seen her show such emotions before.

Pei Huai had been injured because of her. Even if the wound healed, it would be difficult for it not to leave a scar. If Su Ji did not see it, this would be the first scar on her boyfriend's body.

However, she was controlling her temper to ensure that she would not make any mistakes when treating Pei Huai's wound.

Xiao Ken's eyes were also filled with hostility. "Don't worry, we'll definitely find out who did this."

Su Ji looked up and met his gaze. Her tone was very cold. "We explored the bushes yesterday and caused your workload to increase. Do you feel wronged?" Xiao Ken was stunned, then shook his head violently. "No, no!"

Casar took a step forward and winked in a certain direction. "Just because we don't doesn't mean that everyone else doesn't."

Among the guests, a few of them had unnatural expressions.

"Looks like I shouldn't have hid it from you guys," Su Ji said coldly. "There's an active volcano on this island. The cave we found is a refuge when the volcano erupts."

As soon as she finished speaking, everyone around her fell silent! After an unknown period of time, someone finally found their voice.

"Wha...huh? An active volcano?"

"This is too much. They actually left us on a volcanic island?"

Someone looked at Wang Yi as if asking him for confirmation. Wang Yi closed his eyes and nodded. "The volcano is about four hours north. If you're interested, I can take you there."

No one thought that he was joking.

The people who did not agree to them leaving felt terrible at the moment.

Even Sonya was in disbelief.

In that case...they did not leave yesterday to slack off.

A strong sense of guilt spread from the bottom of her heart. Sonya was so regretful.

She never expected this to happen.

If she had known earlier, she definitely wouldn't have done that!

[ "They worked so hard for the guests to escape from the deserted island safely, but some of them actually played tricks on them!" ]

[ "I really can't blame Su Ji for being angry. It's too disappointing!" ]

[ "If CEO Pei didn't build the pipes, would they be able to drink clean water so conveniently?" ]

[ "If it weren't for Su Ji and Dr. Wang, the guests probably wouldn't even be able to last a day!" ]

[ "Fortunately, my wife has good medical skills! Otherwise, there's no way to treat CEO Pei's injuries!" ]

After the last layer of gauze was wrapped around him, the others' hearts clenched. Only Pei Huai, the person involved, had the most relaxed expression. He raised his arm. "As expected, it's better than me handling it myself." Wang Yi coughed to remind him to read the room.

His girlfriend was already on a rampage, so he should be more serious and quickly appease her. Looking at Su Ji's current state, it was very likely that she would tie them all up to interrogate them!

However, Su Ji could not be bothered to argue with him. She ordered him not to do anything today and asked Casar and Xiao Ken to take care of him.

Casar did not dare to disobey, but he whispered, "Girl...but he injured his left hand..."

"He's left-handed," Su Ji shot him a cold glance. "Any more questions?"

"No..."

[ "Su Ji is domineering!!" ]

[ "CEO Pei: My secret of being left-handed was exposed just like that?" ] After settling down, Su Ji picked up her big backpack and stood up.

Sonya was nervous for a moment. 'Where are you going, Su Ji?'

Su Ji said, "to find evidence.."

Chapter 450: Young and Spirited Man

After Su Ji left, Pei Huai gave Wang Yi a look. Wang Yi nodded and followed Su Ji to the bushes.

...

Ji Xi washed a plate of fruits and asked Casar to give it to Pei Huai.

Xiao Ken went to get water.

A few minutes later, Casar was eating the fruit that Ji Xi washed while Xiao Ken was drinking the water he brought back.

Pei Huai sat opposite the two of them. His left arm was wrapped in gauze, and his elbow was resting on his knee. He looked at the two dutiful nurses opposite him.

[ "Hahahaha, Su Ji asked the wrong people!" ]

[ "CEO Pei looks badass with his arm wrapped in gauze!" ]

Xiao Ken drank the water and did not realize that the patient was still thirsty.

As he drank, he asked Pei Huai, "CEO Pei, why don't we ask Su Ji to come back? If I were the person who did something bad, I would definitely throw the markers into the sea. Why would I keep the evidence?"

"Not necessarily..." Casar said. His face was scrunched up from the sourness of the fruit, and he could not say anything else.

Pei Huai glanced at him with a faint smile and said calmly, “there were no drones in the shrubland. If they bring it back, it will be easier to find. So they must have left them inside.”

Xiao Ken nodded calmly. “Makes sense!”

As the three of them chatted, Sonya tried her best to suppress her trembling hands...

Su Ji and Wang Yi did not mark their path this time. After two days, the two of them knew the shrubland like the back of their hands.

Especially Wang Yi, the map had already been imprinted in his mind.

Wang Yi walked in front with a wooden stick to open a path for Su Ji.

Su Ji paid attention to every hidden place.

The pebbles must be inside the bushes, but it was like looking for a needle in a haystack.

The two of them were not in a hurry. They searched the area bit by bit. A small jackal that was looking for food in the grass poked out. It bared its teeth and warned them.

When it smelled the scent on them, its fierce expression suddenly changed. Its eyes widened and it ran away.

Ever since they defeated the big black bears, Su Ji and the others became famous among the wild beasts on the island.

Wang Yi was silent for a moment before he continued to lead the way forward.

“The production team would have offended the Pei family this time,” Wang Yi said casually.

Su Ji replied, “not only the Pei family. ‘

Wang Yi glanced at her and understood what she meant.

After a few seconds of silence, he asked again, “I heard that you want to introduce a young man to Madam Du...”

Su Ji added, “a young and spirited man.”

Wang Yi smiled awkwardly. “Interesting, but she might not be interested...” Su Ji raised an eyebrow at him. “What do you mean?”

Wang Yi looked away. “Madam Du is from a prestigious family and is very educated. Even if it’s a divorce, she handled it with dignity. It may be common in the entertainment industry to find a partner who is much younger, but Madam Du will definitely not accept it. Why don’t you find someone of the same age as her?”

When he finished, Su Ji frowned and laughed, “why do I feel like you look down on the entertainment industry?”

Wang Yi paused for a moment, realizing that what he had just said was indeed inappropriate. “I’m sorry, I used the wrong words. That’s not what I meant.”

Su Ji just wanted to tease him. Seeing him explain so seriously, she realized that Dr. Wang was really old-fashioned, just like his grandfather.

If no one probed, Professor Wang would never admit his true feelings.

Su Ji smiled. "We'll have to try it. Who said that getting a younger boyfriend is not acceptable? I don't think you understand women."

She met Wang Yi's gaze and continued, "capable women want young, strong, healthy, smart, and sweet-tongued men. Most who are at Madam Du's age don't look as good as her. She's not interested in sleazy old men. They don't lack money, so why would they need an older partner? To be their nanny?"

Wang Yi could barely keep up. "So...would Madam Du like someone younger than her?"

Su Ji smiled. "Why not?"

Wang Yi: "..."

He did not know if it was because he was nervous or something else, but he was absent-minded as he walked. When he walked into the grass, he tripped over something. Fortunately, Su Ji pulled him back in time and he did not fall. Wang Yi stood firmly and coughed awkwardly. "Thank you. What tripped me..."

He used a wooden stick to push the grass aside. The two of them looked down at the same time. In the next second, their pupils constricted.

What tripped Wang Yi was none other than a pile of specially shaped pebbles...

They found it!

The evidence!

At the same time, in A City.

Du Meilan was at Xu Mingzhi's house.

Ever since their children went to the deserted island, the two of them often made plans to watch the livestream together. When they didn't have time to watch it because of work, they would ask Aunt Wu or their secretary to record it and watch it when they had time.

At this moment, the two of them were watching what Aunt Wu recorded earlier and projected it onto the television.

It happened to be the part where Su Ji discovered Pei Huai's injured arm.

The drone did not give a close-up, but the wound still looked bloody and shocking.

"Oh my god, Young Master Pei..."

Xu Mingzhi glanced at Aunt Wu, who cleverly covered her mouth.

At this moment, Du Meilan's expression was already very gloomy.

Although Madam Du liked to joke around with her youngest son, anyone who dared to touch her precious son would be courting death.

Xu Mingzhi patted Du Meilan's hand. "It's good that they are back. Don't worry. My baby's medical skills are trustworthy. With her around, nothing will happen to Pei Huai."

"Thank god for Su Ji," Du Meilan nodded slightly.

Immediately after, the recording played a clip of Su Ji treating Pei Huai's wound.

The Pei family was confident in Su Ji's medical skills, and Du Meilan knew that her son also had medical skills.

But Du Meilan still called Old Master Pei.

Although Du Meilan had adopted a free-range policy for her children since they were young to cultivate independence, he was still the young master of the Pei family who was never injured.

Du Meilan's expression was extremely cold, and the air around her was cold.

Her son's injury had to be treated.. Both the Pei family and the Du family would not let this matter go...
