Chapter 3301: Which Class Are You From?

Huang Xiaolong chuckled, "If you say that I'm here to cause trouble, can you please tell me how I'm doing it? I didn't scream and shout, and neither did I run about."

The librarian was stunned for a second, but anger rose in her heart as she felt that he was looking down on her. She wanted to laugh, but she couldn't as she was trying to scold him. Whatever the case, the man standing before her was in his mid-twenties, and there was a chance he was younger than her.

"Since I'm not causing trouble, you can leave now. Bye." Huang Xiaolong smiled.

Staring at Huang Xiaolong with a face full of shock, she didn't understand what he was trying to do.

"Which class are you from?!" The little lady widened her eyes and she stared at Huang Xiaolong in anger. "Hand over your identity plaque right now! Even though you're not causing trouble, you're affecting other people in the library!"

Snickering in his heart, Huang Xiaolong knew that she was definitely trying to mess with him. After glancing at the book in his hand, he placed it back onto the shelf. Turning back to her, he said, "Is there a rule stating that students have to hand over their identity plaques to the librarian in the library?"

"Oh right, there are so many people watching me as I read, and I feel a little distracted right now. Why don't you chase them away instead?"

The librarian who was confronting Huang Xiaolong seethed in anger when she saw the smug look on his face.

"Hand your identity plaque over right now! Otherwise, I'll kick you out of the library!" The librarian seemed to have made up her mind about it and she growled.

Huang Xiaolong shook his head and smiled to himself as he picked up another book. After glancing at it for a few seconds, he placed it back on the shelf.

The librarian reached out to grab Huang Xiaolong's shoulders and she snapped, "Get out of the library right now!"

As a Third Level Foundation Building Realm expert, she was much stronger than Lu Fang.

Ordinarily, the librarians of the Eastern University weren't weaklings! They were in the Foundation Building Realm in order to get rid of unruly students.

When she jerked her hand on Huang Xiaolong's shoulder, she realized that he was as steady as a mountain.

She gasped in shock.

"Little lady, members of the opposite sex shouldn't touch each other without permission. It's not good for you to be doing this in front of so many people, right?" Huang Xiaolong laughed.

With anger filling her heart, she circulated her true qi as she tried to throw Huang Xiaolong out of the library. However, she failed to budge him no matter how hard she tried. She couldn't even make him take a single step back in retreat!

With rage rushing into her head, both her hands grabbed at Huang Xiaolong.

Even though Huang Xiaolong's intention was to tease her, a frown formed on his face when he realized that she wasn't going to give up. He casually pushed her away with a single strand of true qi. She slammed into one of the shelves behind them before falling on her butt.

It wasn't a light fall and she quickly got to her feet. She felt the weird stares of the students around her, and she snapped at Huang Xiaolong, "You... You... You're in trouble!"

Turning around, she rushed out of the library.

As soon as she left, the entire place erupted.

“Wow! Goddess Zhang Jiaying was actually struck away by someone! Am I seeing things?”

“What do you mean?! Yingying obviously fell on accident...”

Huang Xiaolong realized that she was someone pretty famous in the university when he heard the discussions flying about.

Ignoring the commotion around him, Huang Xiaolong returned to the books.

A moment later, a group of more than thirty administrators appeared behind Zhang Jiaying as she stormed towards Huang Xiaolong. The person in the lead was a silver-haired old man who was built like an ox.

The thirty of them surrounded Huang Xiaolong in a flash, and the old man growled, “I am the head librarian of the library. We do not welcome troublemakers, and I will have to ask you to leave right now.”

Troublemaker?

Huang Xiaolong looked at Zhang Jiaying and he sighed. It was obvious she tattled on him.

One of the male students sitting in the library sneered, “Hahaha! This should be the first time the head librarian personally appeared to kick a student out of the library!”

“Holy sh*t! Even students studying for their doctorate wouldn’t be enough to stand against the head librarian!”

Turning around to face the old man, Huang Xiaolong spoke in an emotionless voice, “I’ll give all of you three seconds to leave my sight. If you remain here to interrupt my reading session, I’ll kick all of you out of the library.”

?! Everyone stared at him in shock.

Hu Yunqiang, the head librarian, snorted in rage, “Do you really think you’re capable of doing that?! Humph! Even if you have the guts to pull a stunt like that, you have to be strong enough to back it up!”

As the head librarian, his status in the school wasn’t too low. Even the directors of the various schools would have to respect him. There weren’t too many people capable of taking him on in the school. After all, he had already reached the Ninth Level Golden Core Realm.

Huang Xiaolong ignored the old man as he continued to read his books.

With his expression sinking, Hu Yunqiang spoke to one of the administrators around him, “All of you, kick him out.”

All thirty of them made their move.

However, Huang Xiaolong didn’t even move as he sent all of them flying. Hu Yunqiang and Zhang Jiaying suffered the same fate.

Every single one of them flew through the window as they slammed into the grass patch outside the library.

The students who witnessed the scene felt the world spinning around them.

The head librarian of the university was actually thrown out of the building!

Not a single student dared to approach Huang Xiaolong any longer as the sixth floor cleared out almost instantly.

A trace of tranquility settled in Huang Xiaolong’s heart now that no one else was there.

“Head Librarian, do we... Do we call the security team over?!” One of the librarians asked.

With his face as black as the bottom of a pot, Hu Yunqiang eventually shook his head. “We’ll look for the principal right now!”

Zhang Jiaying’s expression was extremely complicated. No matter how ignorant she was, she realized that Huang Xiaolong couldn’t be a student with his cultivation base!

Only Nascent Soul Realm experts had the ability to do what he did! Of course, every single Nascent Soul Realm expert was part of the upper management of the school.

When she thought about how she wanted to kick Huang Xiaolong out of the library previously, a weird feeling would fill her heart.

Hu Yunqiang returned almost instantly.

Murong Qing was standing beside him, but a terrified expression could be seen on his face.

Chapter 3302: Dismiss Him

Zhang Jiaying and the others were stunned when they saw the look on Murong Qing’s face.

“Principal!”

Ignoring all of them, Murong Qing rushed into the lift of the library. Seeing as the principal was in such a rush, everyone followed quickly behind. They saw Murong Qing’s shaky hands as he pressed the wrong level several times.

When they finally arrived on the sixth floor, Murong Qing turned to speak to Hu Yunqiang. “Please ask all the students here to leave. Remain here and wait for my command! No one is allowed to come up here without my permission!”

Murong Qing actually commanded the head librarian!

As soon as he spoke, the students who were still there quickly left the sixth floor. Not a single person dared to stay.

As for Zhang Jiaying and the others, they left as Murong Qing only allowed Hu Yunqiang to remain.

As Hu Yunqiang stood outside the elevator, he saw Murong Qing walking towards Huang Xiaolong cautiously as though he was afraid the sound of his footsteps would disturb the other party. A frowned formed on his face as question marks appeared in his mind.

He recalled how Murong Qing jumped in fright when he described Huang Xiaolong's appearance earlier. He was even scolded badly by the principal. In Murong Qing's words, he said, "Hu Yunqiang, do you know how badly you messed up?!"

That was the first time the head librarian saw Murong Qing raging.

However, he didn't understand what he did as he only wanted to kick a troublemaker out of the library!

From Murong Qing's actions, Hu Yunqiang started to guess the kid's identity.

When Murong Qing arrived several meters away from Huang Xiaolong, a smile blossomed on his face as he asked in the softest voice possible, "Your Highness, are you here to read?"

"I'll often come over to read. Please tell your head librarian and his staff to avoid disturbing me in the future." Huang Xiaolong said as he glanced at Murong Qing.

With his mind spinning at top speed, Murong Qing realized that Huang Xiaolong didn't plan to pursue the matter and he heaved a sigh of relief. Along the way, he was so scared that his heart was about to leap out of his chest. He had already prepared himself for a scolding.

“Yes, yes, yes. Your Highness, please rest assured that I will definitely warn Hu Yunqiang!” Murong Qing’s smile couldn’t be wider as he addressed Huang Xiaolong.

“There’s no need to blow things up.” Huang Xiaolong added.

Noting Huang Xiaolong’s intentions, Murong Qing bowed respectfully. After ensuring that Huang Xiaolong didn’t have anything else for him, he left on his tiptoes.

When he returned to the elevator and saw Hu Yunqiang, his expression turned dark and he growled, “We’ll talk downstairs!”

The two of them left after he spoke.

When they returned to the first floor, Murong Qing lectured Hu Yunqiang before telling the others to avoid disturbing Huang Xiaolong. Moreover, he reminded them that the matters that happened were not to be told to anyone else.

“Principal, he’s not here to read!” Zhang Jiaying pouted.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Murong Qing knew that she was the person who started it all. He wanted to strip her of her title that very instant, but he decided against it after thinking about her status.

“Zhang Jiaying, I know that you’re pretty proud of what you have achieved, but you need to know that you’re merely a frog in the well! There are a lot of things out there that you don’t understand, but it doesn’t mean they don’t exist!” Murong Qing warned her.

He knew that experts of the Enlightenment Realm and above would be able to develop a terrifying level of divine sense. They would be able to process information quickly, and he knew that Huang Xiaolong was using it to read his books.

Even though Murong Qing brought forth the subject as nicely as he could, he was obviously criticizing Zhang Jiaying’s intellect!

A frown formed on her face, but Murong Qing wasn't the principal of the school for nothing. She decided to let it go as she didn't wish to clash with him.

Only a long time after Murong Qing left did they start to speak.

"Who in the world is that young man?! Could he be the son of some high-ranking official in the Huaxia Alliance?" One of the librarians guessed. "Or could he be the young master of the great families?!"

"Let's just leave." Hu Yunqiang sighed. "All of you heard what the principal said. If anyone tries anything like this again, they will be fired immediately!" Even though he didn't specifically address Zhang Jiaying, his words were no doubt a warning for her.

Soon after, Hu Yunqiang and the other librarians left.

The only person remaining in the library was Zhang Jiaying, and she stood there with a complicated expression on her face. Ever since she was born, she was pampered and sheltered by those around her. There were countless suitors surrounding her all the time, and her life was nothing short of smooth sailing. She only realized that the world didn't revolve around her after Huang Xiaolong appeared.

For three whole days, Huang Xiaolong remained in the library.

Ordinarily, the library would close at eleven at night each day. However, after the person in charge of closing the library looked for Hu Yunqiang, he received instructions to not disturb Huang Xiaolong no matter what happened.

As Huang Xiaolong read the books at an exceptional pace, he completed nearly a fifth of the collection of books on the sixth floor in three short days.

When Lin Kai approached Huang Xiaolong three days later, a weird expression could be seen on his face.

The day before, he moved into Huang Xiaolong's villa.

When he discovered that Huang Xiaolong had remained in the library for the past three days, he went to ask around and learned about the events that happened with Lu Fang and Zhang Jiaying.

Even though Murong Qing and the others suppressed the news, there were various students who managed to discover Huang Xiaolong's identity. After learning that Huang Xiaolong was the deputy head of the school, they released the news to the entire school.

Of course, all of them were only able to learn that he was the deputy head of the school. They had no idea he was the grand elder of the prestigious Huang Family!

"Has school started?" Huang Xiaolong asked when he saw Lin Kai.

Hesitating for a moment, Lin Kai stuttered, "Uncle, did you... Did you throw Zhang Jiaying out of the library several days ago?"

"Yeah, what about it?"

"Zhang Jiaying is the granddaughter of Zhang Yuhan's older brother!"

"Oh..." Huang Xiaolong widened his eyes in shock. Wouldn't that make her Zhang Yuhan's grand niece? It seemed as though the world was really a small place.

"Has Zhang Yuhan returned to school?" Huang Xiaolong asked again.

Shaking his head, Lin Kai sighed, "No she hasn't."

Huang Xiaolong nodded slowly. He reminded Murong Qing to inform him when she returned, but it seemed as though that day had yet to arrive.

"Oh right. The kid you beat up the other day, Lu Fang, went to get his family to deal with you after learning that you became the deputy head of the school!" Lin Kai seemed to have thought of something and reminded Huang Xiaolong, "I've heard that he's planning to use the Lu Family's authority to dismiss you from your position! According to the various sources, the Lu Family's presence in the Huaxia military is nothing to scoff at! Lu Fang has two uncles who are generals in the army!"

Huang Xiaolong snorted and completely glossed over the fact. So what if they were part of the military? Even if the entire world joined hands, he could roll over all of them with a single snort.

Lin Kai hesitated for a moment when he saw the expression of indifference on Huang Xiaolong's face.

"Little brat, just spit it out. You don't have to hide anything from me." Huang Xiaolong chuckled when he noticed the look on Lin Kai's face.

Scratching his head awkwardly, Lin Kai sighed, "There's something I need your help with..."

Chapter 3303: Sightings of the Pangu Axe

"That... The beast tide in the East Sea erupted again, and the military has been beaten back time and time again. Our university formed an alliance with other universities in order to form an army to beat the beasts back. According to the school rules, any student in the fourth year or higher will be able to sign up, but the chairperson of my class refuses to allow me to sign up due to my lack of strength."

"There were some misgivings between us, and he has been looking down on me since the start of school..."

Huang Xiaolong raised a single eyebrow in surprise. "Are you planning to get me to approve your application to head over to the East Sea to kill beasts?"

"Yes. I might have been weak in the past, but you increased my strength when you saved me in the past. Also, I learned the Asura Sword Art and Dragon Fist you taught me, and I wish to give it a shot! After all, this will help in my graduation exam!"

"I'll talk to Murong Qing about this." Huang Xiaolong nodded slowly. "However, you cannot overestimate your strength when you head over to the East Sea. You should remain humble and act within your means."

His sister only had one son, and that was Lin Kai. If anything happened to him, Huang Xiaolong would blame himself for the rest of his life.

Of course, he didn't disapprove Lin Kai's desire to go over to the East Sea. After all, it was a great way to train himself.

"Nice! Uncle, you can rest assured. I will definitely do what I can." Lin Kai jumped in joy when he heard what Huang Xiaolong said.

"When are you leaving?" Huang Xiaolong asked.

"Probably in several days. Nothing has been decided yet. According to what they say, we will have to wait for Teacher Yuhan to return in order to make the decision." Lin Kai explained, "After all, she will be bringing us over along with Vice Principal Chu Kun."

"Oh? Is Zhang Yuhan going too?" Huang Xiaolong was slightly taken aback.

A crafty smile formed on Lin Kai's face when he heard Huang Xiaolong's question. "Why don't you go with us too!"

"Sure." Without thinking much about it, Huang Xiaolong agreed.

After all the books he read in the three days, Huang Xiaolong could deduce that the Pangu Axe might be located in three places on earth. One of them was the East Sea, and if it really was located there, it would be on the shores of the East Sea.

As such, he planned to take a trip down to the East Sea anyway.

A frown formed on Lin Kai's face. "Uncle, are you really going with us?! Oh wait a minute... Of course you are! After all, Teacher Yuhan is going with us too!"

The corners of Huang Xiaolong's lips arched upwards. The little brat was definitely mistaking something. After all, he wouldn't go all the way there if the Pangu Axe wasn't rumored to be at the East Sea.

However, he didn't plan to explain anything to Lin Kai.

"Should we go stroll about the school now that you've been reading for three days straight?" Lin Kai asked.

"Sure."

Since he had already learned of the possible places the Pangu Axe might be located, Huang Xiaolong decided to walk around the campus to enjoy the sights.

Stretching a little, he left the library with Lin Kai.

In the corner of the library, Zhang Jiaying stared at his leaving figure with a complicated look in her eyes.

When she learned that Huang Xiaolong was the deputy head of the school, she was just as surprised as everyone else. However, she didn't understand why the principal would be so terrified when he spoke about the man.

As the greatest university in the Huaxia Alliance, the entire campus was built with great care. The view was great, and there was a refreshing air that surrounded the place. Huang Xiaolong could see that the school was much larger than his Blue Dragon Orchard.

Since Lin Kai was a fourth year student, he couldn't be more familiar with the campus. He was acting like a guide as he brought Huang Xiaolong around.

When the two of them passed by a certain building, a group of students including Lu Fang emerged. There were several dozen people besides Lu Fang, and there was an impressive looking young man who accompanied them and Lin Kai's expression changed when he saw the other party.

“Zhang Han!” Lin Kai gasped in shock before turning to Huang Xiaolong, “He’s the strongest fifth year student and he’s one of the candidates picked by the Six Swords Gate to become an inner disciple!”

Afraid Huang Xiaolong might not know about Zhang Han’s true identity, Lin Kai quickly made the explanation.

He also introduced the haughty looking girl beside Lu Fang. “She’s Princess Ying of our University, and she’s called Ying Rongrong. She’s a direct disciple of the Ying Family, and there are rumors going around that her father is the patriarch of the Ying Family! There are also others who say that her father is one of the grand elders of the Ying Family...”

Huang Xiaolong nodded slowly.

The group quickly caught sight of Huang Xiaolong.

Glaring at Huang Xiaolong, Lu Fang whispered something into Zhang Han’s ear.

Visibly shocked, Zhang Han couldn’t believe that the deputy head of the school was such a young man. However, he recalled that there were youthful pills in the world and he was no longer as surprised.

The old ancestor of the Purple Flame Sect looked young too, but he was already an old monster.

As Huang Xiaolong and Lin Kai continued to make their way forward, Zhang Han stopped them with a wave of his hand. He chuckled, “So you’re the new deputy head of our school. I’m Zhang Han, and it’s a pleasure to meet you.”

He reached out, intending to shake Huang Xiaolong’s hand.

Tilting his head backwards, he tried physically looking down on Huang Xiaolong. As the future disciple of the Six Swords Gate, he felt that his position in the world would definitely outclass Huang Xiaolong. After all, the latter was merely the deputy head of a university! An inner disciple of one of the six greatest sects in the world would be leagues ahead of him!

“I’ve never heard of you. Anyway, good dogs wouldn’t block the road. Get lost if you don’t want to be a cripple.”

Everyone stared at him in shock.

Even Zhang Han felt that Huang Xiaolong had a screw loose in his head.

One had to know that he would be an inner disciple of the Six Swords Gate in the future! Even the patriarchs of the various families in the Huaxia Alliance would have to lower their heads before him!

Seething with rage, Zhang Han snorted, “Humph, I’ll stand in your way every time I see you. When you see me in the future, you better take another path.”

As a future disciple of the Six Swords Gate, he refused to believe that Huang Xiaolong had the guts to touch him!

Even the higher-ups of the Huaxia Alliance would have to think twice if they wanted to offend him, much less the deputy head of a university!

The words barely left his mouth when he was sent flying. When he smashed into one of the fake mountains in the garden, his entire head was flattened.

Lu Fang and the others sucked in a cold breath, and Ying Rongrong felt a trace of fear filling her heart.

Stepping forward, no one dared to stand in his way. The entire gang formed a path for him, and Lu Fang felt his limbs going cold. He didn’t know if Huang Xiaolong would actually cripple him if he found out that he was using his family’s power to kick him out of the university!

When Huang Xiaolong walked past Lu Fang, he casually turned to glance at the kid. When he did, Lu Fang didn’t even dare to breathe.

Chapter 3304: Not Even The Huang Family Can Save You Now

However, Huang Xiaolong didn't do a thing as he continued on his way.

Lu Fang felt his entire body going numb as his legs threatened to give way.

They only dared to help Zhang Han up when Huang Xiaolong was nowhere in sight.

All of them sucked in a cold breath when they saw Zhang Han's sorry appearance.

"All the qi veins in his body have been shattered!" One of the male students around Zhang Han screamed in terror as a chill ran through the hearts of everyone present.

The most important aspect of a cultivator was their qi veins. Even if a single one of them snapped, progressing in their cultivation would be a task taller than scaling a mountain barehanded! One needed countless herbs in order to recover, and even then they might never return to their peak state!

One could say that Zhang Han was a complete cripple.

"He... He actually dared to cripple Zhang Han!" A female student covered her mouth as she gasped in fright.

Even then, no one could believe that Huang Xiaolong was daring enough to cripple the other party!

Ying Rongrong was stunned, if Zhang Han really turned into a cripple, the entire Huaxia Alliance would shake!

When the Six Swords Gate bore down on them to ask for an explanation, the higher ups of the Huaxia Alliance would be in real trouble.

"He... He's crazy! He definitely has a screw loose somewhere... Who in the world gave him the courage to cripple Zhang Han?!"

All of the disciples standing around were disciples of the great families of the Huaxia Alliance, There were even some who were more important than Lu Fang, but all of them were stuck in a state of shock.

In the principal's office, Murong Qing sat on his chair as he read the morning papers. When he received the reports that Zhang Han's qi veins were completely severed, he nearly fell from his chair.

Since Zhang Han was crippled on campus, he would definitely be on the frontline of fire when the higher ups of the Huaxia Alliance launched their investigation. Even the Murong Family wouldn't be able to protect him!

"Who! Who in the world had the guts to do it!" Murong Qing flew into a rage. "I'll skin him alive!"

The baldy who was there on the first day Huang Xiaolong arrived stuttered, "It's... It's the new deputy head, Huang Xiaolong!"

"What?!" The expression on Murong Qing's face hardened and he didn't know what to say.

He didn't think that Huang Xiaolong would be able to cause any trouble considering the time he needed to stay in the university. If everything went well, he might even be promoted after taking care of the man! However, Huang Xiaolong was like a walking disaster that fell on his head now that he crippled Zhang Han!

"Get out!" Murong Qing yelled at those in his office. When they finally left, he quickly contacted the patriarch of the Murong Family. He needed to make the report as that was something that would affect the Murong Family as a whole! Moreover, he needed to notify their old ancestor, Murong Deng!

"Old ancestor, this... This... What are we going to do?! Am I supposed to dismiss him from his position before handing him over to the alliance?"

If they had to choose between the Huang Family of the Dong Lin Province and the Six Swords Gate, he would definitely choose the super sect.

According to him, that was the best move he could make right now!

“You dumb*ss!” Murong Deng roared in anger when he heard what Murong Qing said. “Dismiss him?! Who the f*ck gave you the guts to say something like that?!”

Even through the screen, Murong Qing could feel the anger in the old ancestor’s heart.

He nearly jumped in fright as he didn’t think that a simple suggestion from him could make the old ancestor so angry.

“If you really dare to do something as stupid as that, I’ll dismiss you from your position right now! You can get back here and face the wall for a hundred years to reflect on your stupidity!” Murong Deng roared.

With beads of cold sweat dripping down his forehead, Murong Qing fell to his knees. “Old ancestor, I was wrong!”

After being lectured by Murong Deng for several minutes, Murong Qing finally switched the connection off. He heaved a sigh of relief now that Murong Deng was no longer in his face, and his mind started to spin. That was the first time he had experienced the old ancestor’s rage, and he knew that he messed up.

By the time he was done, the news of Zhang Han’s plight had shook the entire campus. It seemed as though every single person was notified of the news.

The entire upper management of the school stormed into Murong Qing’s office in order to complain about Huang Xiaolong’s actions, and they wanted to fire Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong became extremely well known in the campus in the span of a single afternoon.

Half a day later...

“Murong Qing doesn’t plan on firing him! He even lashed out at those who dared to bring up the idea! Is the Murong Family becoming muddle-headed?!”

“I’ve heard that the Six Swords Gate isn’t happy with what happened. They are currently bringing a bunch of eminent elder and grand elders to the Huaxia Alliance to ask the Huang Family for an explanation on the matter.”

“Why would they head for the Huang Family?”

“Haven’t you heard, Huang Xiaolong is a grand elder of the Huang Family!”

“It’s no wonder the Murong Family will protect that guy...”

Discussions flew about the entire Huaxia Alliance.

Before long, another piece of news started to emerge. The eminent elder sent by the Six Swords Gate would be Shen Shijie!

He was a Third Level Enlightenment Realm expert, and the entire Huaxia Alliance erupted upon hearing the news.

“The Huang Family’s expansion might be shocking, but they seem to have gotten over their heads! A mere grand elder of the Huang Family dares to move against an inner disciple chosen by the Six Swords Gate. Heh, the Huang Family is about to meet its end!”

“I’ve heard that the herbs and fruits in the Blue Dragon Orchard reached a worth of more than a billion low-grade spirit stones. The Six Swords Gate definitely has their eyes on that now that they’re here!”

The large families of the Huaxia Alliance were gloating in the Huang Family’s misfortune.

However, the various families who witnessed what happened in the Blue Dragon Orchard that day remained silent. Even the Ying Family didn’t say a word regarding the matter.

As the world bubbled in excitement, Huang Xiaolong remained in the library to look for information on the Pangu Axe.

On the second day, a massive group of people surrounded Huang Xiaolong in the library. There were members of the army, and even the upper echelons of the Huaxia Alliance had arrived. All of them were experts in their own right.

“Huang Xiaolong, we are from the enforcement team of the Huaxia Alliance! You harmed Zhang Han of the Six Swords Gate, and you have been dismissed from your position! You are under arrest! Please follow us back right now.” A silver-haired elder showed Huang Xiaolong a piece of arrest warrant from the Board of Education and the Enforcement Department.

“Oh?” Huang Xiaolong remained impassive as he looked at the experts surrounding him. “Is this the intention of the Chu Family and the Zou Family?”

Huang Xiaolong might have returned for a short time, but he understood the power structure on Earth well. The two departments mentioned by the old man were controlled by the Chu Family and the Zou Family. They were also the ones who sided with the Six Swords Gate.

The silver haired old man was an expert of the Zou Family, and he was called Zou Dean. His authority wasn't something ordinary people could imagine.

Zou Dean's expression sank when he heard what Huang Xiaolong said. “Huang Xiaolong, you might be the leader of the grand elders of the Huang Family, but we know you killed Liu Chang in public several days ago! The Liu Family might have let things go, but we will not allow you to do as you please in the Huaxia Alliance! This time, not even the Huang Family can save you!”

FYI, there are some numbering errors with raws, which will be 'corrected' accordingly.

Chapter 3305: Why Have You Come To My Zou Family

“I don't wish to kill anyone today. All of you better get out of my sight right now. If you anger me, I'll go over to your families and tear the heads off your old ancestors.”

Zou Dean and all the experts who came along were stunned by his words. Zou Dean felt rage bubbling in his heart. From what he thought, Huang Xiaolong would immediately use the Huang Family as a shield! Never in his wildest imaginations would he have thought that Huang Xiaolong would threaten their old ancestors!

Roaring in anger, Zou Dean raged, "Huang Xiaolong, do you really think no one can deal with you? Take him down right now! Do whatever you want as long as you don't kill him!"

The experts who came along with him pounced on Huang Xiaolong as soon as he gave the order.

As the cultivators who came along were picked specifically to deal with powerful experts, the weakest among them were in the Golden Core Realm! They were also experts who could fight above their level, and they received special training a long time ago! They were extremely adept in fighting alongside each other.

Even a First Level Enlightenment Realm expert would be hard pressed to escape when faced with the assault of such a well trained bunch!

When Huang Xiaolong looked at the experts who were charging at him with whatever weird weapons they had in their hands, he casually waved his hand once. When he did, every single cultivator Zou Dean brought along with him froze in the air as the true qi around them dissipated.

Zou Dean stared at him in shock.

"This... This is the body freezing art!" Zou Dean started to panic. "What's your relationship with the Ying Family's old ancestor?! How do you know the body freezing art?!"

The ability he was talking about was extremely difficult to cultivate. Only the old ancestor of the Ying Family could do anything like it, and it was no wonder Zou Dean mistook the relationship between them.

Huang Xiaolong reached out and casually pulled Zou Dean towards him. He grabbed the man's neck, and he placed the book he was reading back onto the shelf. He stared at Zou Dean's eyes and he growled, "I told you I didn't wish to kill anyone today. But since you're asking for death, I'll fulfill your wish." After he spoke, he clenched his fist and snapped Zou Dean's neck.

Zou Dean's nascent soul tried to escape from his body, but Huang Xiaolong incinerated it as soon as it appeared.

"What?!"

The leaders of the respective groups who were sent over felt their expressions changing in shock.

Zou Dean was a Ninth Level Nascent Soul Realm cultivator, but he was killing just like that! That was the third strongest expert in the Zou Family they were talking about!

All of a sudden, everyone thought of a terrifying possibility. Huang Xiaolong was a First Level Enlightenment Realm expert!

"Scram!" The soundwave alone sent the thousands of cultivators flying. Even the structures in the distance shattered from his yell.

Everyone stared at him in shock as Huang Xiaolong's body disappeared from where he stood.

After so many years of killing, Huang Xiaolong wanted to tame his bloodlust. In the several days that he had been back, he tried controlling himself, but everyone was treating him as a soft persimmon.

Now, he planned to head over to the Zou and Chu families. When he killed the old ancestors of the two families, he would send a warning to the rest of the world!

When they saw how Huang Xiaolong disappeared from where he stood, the thousands of cultivators that came had no idea how to react.

In the Zou Family's headquarters. The old ancestor of the Zou Family, Zou Xinming, was playing chess with the patriarch of the Zou Family, Zou Fei.

The old ancestor could see the look of unease on Zou Fei's face, and he chuckled, "If you're so affected by something so small, how will you deal with more important matters in the future?"

According to Zou Xinming, Huang Xiaolong was nothing but a fly waiting to be crushed. After all, a grand elder was nothing in his eyes!

"Old ancestor is right. We can pander to the Six Swords Gate, but we might offend the Huang Family while doing it. However, don't you think that something is wrong when the Ying Family ordered their disciples to steer clear of the Huang Family?"

Zou Xinming glanced at Zou Fei and sighed, "The power of the Six Swords Gate is something you cannot imagine. Even if all ten strongest families of our Huaxia Alliance banded together, we won't be able to suppress the Six Swords Gate! Moreover, the Huang Family isn't even the strongest one! In the future, you need to hug the Six Swords Gate and never let go. Our Zou Family will definitely have the last laugh if that's the case."

"Yes, old ancestor." Zou Fei nodded seriously, and he erased all the doubts in his mind.

However, a sneer broke their concentration.

"Who dares!"

The two of them turned to look towards the sky where a young man was hovering.

There wasn't a trace of aura around the man, but he managed to stand in the skies above them. It was clear he was an expert in the Nascent Soul Realm or higher.

The experts of the Zou Family appeared when they noticed that there was an intruder in their midst and they rushed over.

Zou Fei's expression fell as he growled, "Who in the world are you? Why have you come to my Zou Family?"

“I am Huang Xiaolong.”

“Huang Xiaolong?!” Zou Xinming and Zou Fei jumped from their seats and screamed.

Didn't Zou Dean say that they had surrounded him in the university?! How could he appear in the Zou Family Manor?!

Zou Xinming frowned. “Did you escape from Zou Dean and the others?”

If he did. He should be returning to the Huang Family as quickly as he could. None of them understood why he came all the way to the Zou Family.

When they were still thinking about his intentions, Huang Xiaolong grabbed at the space before him. Zou Xinming and Zou Fei appeared in his hands as terror swept through their hearts.

“You... This is not possible!” Zou Xinming roared in desperation. He was a Second Level Enlightenment Realm cultivator, but he couldn't put up the slightest bit of resistance!

“Who are you?!” Zou Xinming felt that he was dreaming and he widened his eyes in shock.

“Don't you think there was something wrong when the Ying Family gave the order to avoid offending the disciples of the Huang Family at all costs?” Huang Xiaolong sighed.

Could it be?!

In fact, the two of them thought of the reason before, but no one expected it to have anything to do with Huang Xiaolong!

With a single swipe, the heads of Zou Xinming and Zou Fei fell from their shoulders.

After exterminating their nascent souls, Huang Xiaolong disappeared from where he stood. In several breaths of time, Huang Xiaolong appeared above the Chu Family Manor. The same scene played out.

When he was done with the two families, Huang Xiaolong returned to the library in the Eastern University. It only took several minutes to deal with them.

Not too long after Huang Xiaolong returned, the news started to spread from the two families.

The entire Huaxia Alliance fell into complete silence.

Chapter 3306: Chief Eminent Elder of the Six Swords Gate

The families who were gloating in the Huang Family's misfortune couldn't utter a single word.

In the dormitories of the Eastern University, Lu Fang was laughing happily as he explained everything to Ying Rongrong and the others. "Let me tell you a piece of good news I heard! The Zou Family and the Chu Family have formed an alliance to dismiss Huang Xiaolong from his position in the university. They are bringing a group of more than a thousand experts over to imprison him, and they have already surrounded the library!"

Ying Rongrong and the others were stunned.

"Why would they need more than a thousand cultivators to take down a vice head of a university?" One of the disciples from the Ye Family asked.

The Ye family was also one of the ten strongest cultivation families in the Huaxia Alliance.

Li Fang chuckled, "Didn't you hear? Huang Xiaolong is one of the grand elders of the Huang Family!"

"Huang Family?! Are you talking about the Huang Family of the Donglin Province?" Ying Rongrong widened her eyes. She knew that the old ancestor of her family passed down an order forbidding anyone from the Ying Family from antagonizing people of the Huang Family.

“That’s right!” Lu Fang roared with laughter. “So what if he is?! He’s definitely going to die this time. The Six Swords Gate sent Eminent Elder Shen Shijie, a Third Level Enlightenment Realm expert over to ask the Huang Family to hand him over!”

The disciples who heard him were stunned.

Third Level Enlightenment Realm expert!

Someone at that level could command the respect of the old ancestors of the great families!

“Nice!” Someone from the Wu Family laughed. “Huang Xiaolong, who would have thought that you would fall so far! You crippled Brother Zhang Han, and now that Senior Shen Shijie is here, you will die a death a thousand times worse!”

All of a sudden, everyone’s phone rang. Not a single person in the room was exempted, and they stared at each other in shock. Looking at each other, they quickly answered the phone.

Lu Fang was shocked when he realized that the person calling him was the old ancestor of the Lu Family. The old ancestor of the Lu Family was someone he had only seen once in his life!

“Old... Old ancestor!” Lu Fang jumped in fright when he answered the phone.

“Lu Fang, you’re expelled from the Lu Family. From now on, you’re no longer a disciple of the Lu Family!” The old ancestor’s expression was ugly to the extreme as he barked out whatever he wanted to say the moment the call connected.

With his body trembling in fear, Lu Fang felt his mouth going dry. “What... Why?!” He didn’t think that the second time seeing the old ancestor of the Lu Family would result in him getting kicked out of the family.

“Why?!” The old ancestor roared. “That’s because you angered Senior Huang Xiaolong!”

Angered Senior Huang Xiaolong?!

Lu Fang couldn't close his mouth as question marks popped up in his mind.

"Just a moment ago, the old ancestors of the Zou and Chu family were killed by Huang Xiaolong!" The old ancestor of the Lu Family roared in anger. "You're a motherf*cking dumb*ss! How dare you use the Lu Family's power to strip Huang Xiaolong of his position?! Who the f*ck gave you the guts to do something like that?!" As the old ancestor of the family, he was usually able to keep his calm. However, Lu Fang messed up so badly that he couldn't help but spew vulgarities.

"Get over to the library right now and beg for Senior Huang's forgiveness! Otherwise, I'll kill you myself!"

The old ancestor of the Lu Family roared in exasperation.

Lu Fang fell to the ground as the world spun around him. He didn't even know when the old ancestor terminated the connection.

As for the other disciples around him, all of them received the same call from their old ancestor. Including Ying Rongrong, all of them received a massive scolding from their old ancestors. Luckily for them, they were mere acquaintances with Zhang Han and Lu Fang. Otherwise, they would have been kicked out of their families without a second thought.

Even so, all of them felt their legs going soft.

The old ancestors of the Zou and Chu Family were actually killed in the span of a single afternoon!

When everything was going down, Huang Shengan was reporting to Huang Xiaolong on the sales of the spiritual fruits and herbs. Everything they had for sale was sold out of the day, and they would earn around two million low-grade spirit stones per day!

The topic soon turned to the Six Swords Gate and the other two families.

“Originally, the Six Swords Gate sent Shen Shijie over to the Huang Family. However, they recalled him after you killed the old ancestors of the two families.” Huang Shengan continued, “Looks like the Six Swords Gate isn’t planning to look into the matter any more.”

“The old ancestor of the Lu Family personally came to the Huang Family to deliver a huge batch of spiritual herbs! He apologized on behalf of Lu Fang, and he already kicked the kid out of the family!”

Huang Shengan reported everything to Huang Xiaolong.

“You can deal with all these small matters in the future. There is no need to report every small thing to me.” Huang Xiaolong chuckled. “Oh right, I heard that Zhang Yuhan is being forced into a marriage by her parents. The other party is an eminent elder of the Six Swords Gate. Go check out his identity for me and tell me what’s going on.”

“Yes, Your Highness!” Huang Shengan bowed.

Terminating the connection, Huang Xiaolong returned to his matters.

...

In the various families of the Huaxia Alliance, the same scene was playing out. Everyone was watching two videos at the same time.

One of them was how Huang Xiaolong killed the old ancestor of the Zou Family, and the other one was of the Chu Family.

As he didn’t bother locking down the surroundings, the experts of the families managed to record down what he did.

The old ancestor of the He Family turned extremely serious as he muttered, “Huang Xiaolong is no weaker than Ying Tian!”

He swept his gaze across the grand elders and the elders of the He Family to ensure that everyone heard him.

Ying Tian was the old ancestor of the Ying Family, and he was the strongest cultivator in the Huaxia Alliance!

“That’s not possible!” Someone yelled. “Ying Tian broke through to the Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm several days ago!” The patriarch of the He Family gasped in shock.

The grand elders of the He Family didn’t believe the old ancestor either.

The same scene played out in the Li Family of the Huaxia Alliance.

As such, everyone was arguing about who the stronger party was between Huang Xiaolong and Ying Tian.

An hour later, Huang Shengan reported whatever he found to Huang Xiaolong. The person who was forcing Zhang Yuhan into a marriage was called Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate, and he was the second strongest expert in the faction. His strength was only weaker than the old ancestor of the Six Swords Gate, and he was a Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm expert.

“I heard that Wang Zheng wants to cultivate a type of yin yang dual cultivation art and he needs four ladies at the high-level Nascent Soul Realm. She fills his criteria, and he is planning on using her as a cultivation furnace. The other three have already agreed, and she is the only one left.” Huang Shengan explained.

“Several days ago, Wang Zheng made the final demand to the old ancestor of the Zhang Family. If they refuse to hand her over by the end of the month, they will destroy the Zhang Family once and for all!”

A cold light flashed through Huang Xiaolong’s eyes.

“There are only ten days left until the end of the month. Young Lady Zhang Yuhan is held in captivity by the old ancestor of the Zhang Family, and they are using all sorts of ways to force her to agree.” Huang Shengan continued, “As such, Young Lady Zhang Yuhan will not be able to report for the start of school anytime soon.”

Chapter 3307: Destruction Grandmaster

“Send me the location of the Zhang Family Manor.” Huang Xiaolong growled.

“Yes!” Huang Shengan didn’t dare to dally as he quickly sent all the information on the Zhang Family over.

After scanning through the information, he disappeared from his location. In the next second, he appeared in the space above the university.

Taking several steps forward, Huang Xiaolong might look like he was taking a stroll, but he was moving faster than flying ships.

He quickly left the capital city.

When he approached the Zhang Family Manor, a flying ship was headed right towards him. It was one of the most famous ships on Earth, and it was called the Sky Seeker. It was a super luxurious ship, and everyone who could board were no ordinary people.

“Look! There seems to be something headed straight for us!” Someone screamed.

Many people in the ship looked through the glass to see a figure walking towards them.

“It’s a person!”

“Someone is flying towards the Sky Seeker! He has to be a Nascent Soul Realm expert!”

They stared at him in shock.

“Please take another path! I repeat, the person heading straight for the ship, please take another path!”
A warning blared from the sirens of the ship.

However, the person walking towards them didn't seem to care in the slightest.

“If you refuse to take another path, we will open fire! I repeat, we will open fire!” The warning sounded out once again as the canons on the ship started to preheat. Beams of light emerged and locked on to Huang Xiaolong. Ordinarily, flying ships would take another path when they ran into a Nascent Soul Realm expert. However, that was they Sky Seeker, and their guests were members of the upper echelon of the world! They wouldn't bother offending a mere Nascent Soul Realm cultivator.

“Two...”

“One!”

“Fire!”

The captain ordered when he saw that Huang Xiaolong had no intentions of giving way. In an instant, several cannons lit up as they shot at Huang Xiaolong. Canons on board ships at the level of the Sky Seeker wasn't something ordinary ships could compare to. They were stronger than the purple canons the police force possessed, and even Ninth Level Nascent Soul Realm cultivators would have to dodge.

Seeing as Huang Xiaolong was devoured by the light, those on the ship screamed in fright. They thought that he was destroyed by the canons.

However, the scene that played out before them caused their jaws to drop in disbelief.

A man walked out of the blast like it was nothing!

He was completely fine!

Everyone felt that their eyes were deceiving them as they stared at Huang Xiaolong in shock.

A look of terror flashed across the captain's face and he roared, "It's... It's an Enlightenment Realm expert! Hurry up and get out of his way!" When the people manning the ship's controls snapped back to attention, it was too late. Huang Xiaolong had already arrived ten meters away!

As he continued to walk forward, everyone felt the ship moving to the side. A terrifying power pushed the ship aside as Huang Xiaolong made his way forward. The entire ship was like a toy in the ocean as it was toyed around by Huang Xiaolong. The captain was shocked to discover that no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't advance a single inch!

"Look! That looks like the Sky Seeker!" Someone on land yelled as they watched the scene playing out above their heads.

"Yeah! Look! There's someone pushing the ship! Someone is actually forcing the ship back!"

Those standing on land screamed in shock.

After they moved several miles away, Huang Xiaolong waved his hand to push the ship away.

Taking another step, Huang Xiaolong disappeared.

Before he left, he looked at the captain of the ship who ordered for them to open fire. Even though it was just a glance, the captain felt as though he had been dunked into a tub of freezing water.

By the time the ship stopped shaking, Huang Xiaolong had already disappeared.

Those on board the ship didn't even dare to breathe loudly when they stopped.

Only after a long time did someone utter, “Who was the guy? When did a monster like that appear in the Huaxia Alliance?” An expert who wore a kimono frowned.

Among the eight alliances, the Japanese Alliance was closest to the Huaxia Alliance. The Japanese Alliance was a little weaker than the Huaxia Alliance, and the expert wearing the kimono was the old ancestor of the Murasakigawa Clan of the Japanese Alliance! He was called Murasakigawa Yuiitsu!

Among the eight strongest families of the Japanese Alliance, the Murasakigawa Clan ranked third!

Very quickly, a disciple of the Murasakigawa Clan managed to dig out everything on Huang Xiaolong. “Huang Xiaolong. The leader of the grand elders of the Huang Family. He killed the old ancestors of the Zou and Chu Families an hour ago!”

Originally, Murasakigawa Yuiitsu didn’t care too much about the fact that Huang Xiaolong was a grand elder of the Huang Family. But when he heard that he killed the old ancestors of the two families, his eyebrows twitched in surprise.

“Are you sure?!” Murasakigawa Yuiitsu couldn’t believe what he was hearing.

“The news is definitely true. Here are the videos that have been uploaded to the web.” The disciple retrieved the videos and handed them over to Murasakigawa Yuiitsu.

After he was done watching it, a look of fear flashed past his eyes.

“Right now, the entire Huaxia Alliance is debating about whether Huang Xiaolong or Ying Tian is the greatest cultivator in the alliance!”

...

In the main hall of the Zhang Family, Zhang Wanqing, the old ancestor of the Zhang Family, glared at Zhang Yuhan and snapped, “Zhang Yuhan, it’s your honor that Eminent Wilder Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate has his eyes on you! You should be thanking the gods! In the future, you will receive limitless resources and endless spirit stones!”

“Have you thought of the consequences of rejecting the eminent elder?! The entire family will be dragged down by your decisions!”

Ordinarily, the old ancestors of the families were rarely female. However, the old ancestor of the Zhang Family was one of them.

As one of the large families, the Zhang Family was no weaker compared to the Tan Family of the Donglin Province. As the old ancestor of the Zhang Family, Zhang Wanqing was someone who was pretty famous in the lands. She was known as the Destruction Grandmaster on Earth.

Zhang Yuhan glared at Zhang Wanqing and sneered, “You’re obviously trying to form a connection with the Six Swords Gate by offering me to Wang Zheng! Do you really think that the Six Swords Gate will give you endless resources if I marry him?!”

Zhang Wanqing slapped Zhang Yuhan and left a visible handprint on her face. “Shut it! What do you know?! As the old ancestor of the Zhang Family, I’m doing this for the family! In the future, we will be able to climb into the top ten ranks with the help of the Six Swords Gate!”

Zhang Yuhan didn’t speak a word as she glared at the old ancestor.

“Drag them in now!” Zhang Wanqing snorted all of a sudden as a group of grand elders dragged a couple into the hall.

“Dad! Mum!” Zhang Yuhan seemed to have thought of something and she snapped, “Zhang Wanqing, what do you think you’re doing?! Let them go right now!”

Chapter 3308: Do You Want Wang Zheng Or Do You Wish To Be Disfigured?

Zhang Wanqing sneered and a sinister expression formed on her face. "You already know the answer to that question. Zhang Yuhan, I'm telling you right now! If you refuse to marry Wang Zheng and he comes to destroy our family, I'll kill your parents right before your eyes!"

Zhang Yuhan seethed in rage, but she was a mere Seventh Level Nascent Soul Realm expert. As the old ancestor of the family, Zhang Wanqing was a Ninth Level Nascent Soul Realm expert, and she had a bunch of grand elders supporting her!

A punch landed on Zhang Yuhan's chest as she was blown away.

"I'm giving you all the riches in the world by allowing you to marry Wang Zheng! Know your place!" Zhang Wanqing sneered, "If not for the fact that Wang Zheng wants me to leave your appearance alone, I'll carve the words 'slut' onto your face!"

"I'll carve it on both sides of your face!"

When her parents saw Zhang Yuhan spitting out blood, they screamed, "Old ancestor, please spare my daughter!"

"Spare your daughter? Do you think Wang Zheng will spare our family when he comes? Am I supposed to beg you to spare me?!" Zhang Wanqing snorted.

Zhang Yuhan wiped the blood off the side of her lips and she glared at Zhang Wanqing. "Are you not afraid that I'll get Wang Zheng to kill you after I marry him?"

Zhang Wanqing was stunned for a second, and she sneered in the next, "Thanks for the reminder. I'll never allow your parents to follow you to the Six Swords Gate."

"Zhang Wanqing, you'll die a horrible death!"

Roaring with laughter, Zhang Wanqing continued, "Sorry. I'll live to a ripe old age. When Wang Zheng sucks your yin essence dry, you'll die a sorry death. When that happens, I'll still be living happily in the Zhang Family."

Zhang Wanqing's laughter echoed through the entire hall.

When she was laughing happily at Zhang Yuhan's misfortune, a chilly voice rang through the hall. "Relax. You won't be living past today."

With their eyes widening in shock, everyone turned to stare at the source of the voice.

A terrifying force blasted off the entire ceiling as the hall collapsed onto itself. The walls turned to dust as they disintegrated under the power of the newcomer.

The faces of Zhang Wanqing and the others changed instantly.

The hall they were in was designed to trap Zhang Yuhan, and it would take more than the strength of a Seventh Level Nascent Soul Realm expert to blow the hall open. However, the entire structure was turning to dust before their very eyes!

Turning around, they saw that there was a young man standing in the air above them and there was a weird ancient robe around his body. His looks were exceptional, and it was the first time they had seen someone so handsome!

Zhang Yuhan felt that the person standing in the air above them was pretty familiar, and a name flashed through her mind. However, she shook her head helplessly as she felt that it wasn't possible.

After all, they tried so hard to look for him in the past!

"Who are you?! What do you mean by that?" Zhang Wanqing's expression sank. She might be shocked at the other party's display of strength, but they were in the Zhang Family! She had the backing of the various grand elders, and she even had the Zhang Family Formation to back her up!

The Zhang Family Formation was laid down by Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate, and Enlightenment Realm experts were said to be unable to shatter the formation even if they tried!

“My name is Huang Xiaolong.” His voice was carried by the wind as it echoed in everyone’s ears.

“Huang Xiaolong?!” The grand elders of the Zhang Family widened their eyes in shock.

With her body trembling, Zhang Yuhan’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Huang Xiaolong?! How could he look so familiar while also possessing the same name as...

As Zhang Yuhan had been trapped in the hall for quite some time, she had no idea what was going on in the outside world. She didn’t know anything that Huang Xiaolong did.

The same couldn’t be said for the rest.

“Are you Grand Elder Huang Xiaolong of the Huang Family in the Donglin Province?!” Someone asked.

They learned all about how the Sun, Tan, and Lin Family pledged their alliance to the Huang Family several days ago.

“That’s right.” Huang Xiaolong muttered.

The members of the Zhang Family were stunned, and even Zhang Wanqing felt her heart jumping in fear.

As they were busy dealing with Zhang Yuhan, none of them heard about the killing of the old ancestors of the Chu and Zou Families. However, Huang Xiaolong’s identity alone was enough to cause all of them to feel some fear.

After the various families submitted to the Huang Family, the Huang Family could be said to be a true behemoth in the Huaxia Alliance.

“Greetings to Grand Elder Huang Xiaolong.” Zhang Wanqing cupped her fists respectfully.

Due to the fact that Huang Xiaolong had been missing for the past one hundred years, Zhang Wanqing had no idea about the relationship between the two. Otherwise, she would be too afraid to speak.

Ignoring her, Huang Xiaolong turned to look at Zhang Yuhan. He descended from the skies as he approached her.

“Is that really you?!” Tears streamed down Zhang Yuhan’s face as her voice trembled. She didn’t believe her eyes when she looked at Huang Xiaolong whose appearance was the same as before!

“It’s me.” Huang Xiaolong suppressed the waves in his heart as he nodded his head. His voice trembled slightly when he spoke to her.

Even though they didn’t say much, the look in their eyes spoke a thousand words!

“I’m back.” Huang Xiaolong smiled and he seemed to have returned to his past life on Earth.

Tears flowed uncontrollably down Zhang Yuhan’s face.

She had been staying strong all these years, waiting for a miracle to happen. She waited for him till her hair turned white, and her skin was starting to turn wrinkly! It had been one hundred whole years!

He was really alive!

Zhang Wanqing and the grand elders were flabbergasted at the scene. All of a sudden, the events that happened a hundred years ago played out in Zhang Wanqing’s mind. She heard that Zhang Yuhan had a childhood sweetheart called Huang Xiaolong, and a terrifying possibility flashed through her mind.

Wasn’t the man standing before her also called...

Zhang Wanqing's heart pounded in fear. The Huang Family was something the Zhang Family couldn't begin to compare themselves to, but when she thought about the Six Swords Gate, a sense of superiority filled her mind. "Grand Elder Huang Xiaolong, Zhang Yuhan is a concubine of an eminent elder of the Six Swords Gate."

"Scram!" Waving his hand, Zhang Wanqing was sent flying. Huang Xiaolong didn't hold back as she only stopped after she smashed through the entirety of the Zhang Family.

Everyone stared at him in shock, and Zhang Yuhan stared at Huang Xiaolong with her jaws dropping in fright. She was shocked by his sudden revelation in strength.

Crawling to her feet, Zhang Wanqing roared, "Activate the formation right now!"

The grand elders of the Zhang Family snapped back to reality as they hastily poured their energy into the formation. A barrier of light formed around the Zhang Family Manor.

A sinister smile formed on Zhang Wanqing's face as she addressed Huang Xiaolong, "Huang Xiaolong, this is the Myriad Sword Killing Formation of my Zhang Family! It can injure early-stage Enlightenment Realm experts! If you apologize to me right now and promise not to interfere, I'll allow you to leave!"

"Otherwise, you won't be able to leave with your life intact!" Killing intent flashed through Zhang Wanqing's eyes. Even though the Huang Family was strong, the Zhang Family was about to hug the thighs of the Six Swords Gate! They wouldn't be afraid of a mere Huang Family!

Chapter 3309: Decapitating Wang Zheng?!

"Bang!" With a wave of Huang Xiaolong's arm, she was sent flying once again. She shattered the walls around the Zhang Family Manor and she smashed into a luxury car outside the manor!

With her head smashing into the windshield, the bottom half of her body was sticking out like a sore thumb! Even though she was old, her figure was pretty hot.

The grand elders stared at her rotund derriere that was sticking out from the windshield with unblinking eyes.

In the next moment, Huang Xiaolong reached out into the void and grabbed. The barrier surrounding the Zhang Family Manor turned into a talisman and appeared on his palm.

The barrier disappeared in an instant, and under the shocked gazes of the grand elders, Huang Xiaolong casually shredded the talisman in his hand.

Zhang Yuhan and the others were astounded by his display of strength.

Even an eminent elder of the Six Swords Gate at the level of Wang Zheng wouldn't be able to do anything like that! However, the formation was comparable to a bubble before Huang Xiaolong.

With another wave, Zhang Wanqing was dragged before Zhang Yuhan. He turned to her and said, "I shattered all the qi veins in her body. Yuhan, you can deal with her however you please."

Zhang Yuhan felt the world spinning around her when she heard what he said.

Shatter the qi veins in her body?!

The grand elders of the Zhang Family felt their expressions changing.

As Zhang Wanqing laid on the ground, her breaths were shallow. If Zhang Yuhan said that she didn't hate Zhang Wanqing, she would be lying. However, she felt that she couldn't bring herself to make the final move now that Zhang Wanqing was lying in front of her, defenseless.

She looked at her parents who shook their heads slightly.

"It's alright. Xiaolong, please release her."

Huang Xiaolong widened his eyes in shock, but since Zhang Yuhua had made her choice, there was nothing much for him to say.

As Zhang Wanqing crawled to her feet, she snorted, "Zhang Yuhua, you b*tch! Don't think that you'll be safe with Huang Xiaolong's protection!" Turning to Huang Xiaolong, she continued, "Huang Xiaolong, you will die a horrible death for sealing Lord Wang Zheng's woman! You will suffer a fate worse than mine!"

After she spoke, she ran away from the hall in haste.

An hour later, the news started to spread. The old ancestor of the Zhang Family was crippled by Huang Xiaolong, and the entire family turned to support Zhang Yuhua as their new old ancestor.

As soon as the news made its way around, the Huaxia Alliance trembled. One had to know that Huang Xiaolong killed the old ancestors of the Zou and Chu Families an hour ago! Now, a third had fallen! Even though Zhang Wanqing wasn't dead, her fate was worse than death!

In an instant, Huang Xiaolong's name became synonymous with a death god!

"I heard that Zhang Yuhua and Huang Xiaolong were childhood sweethearts. Zhang Wanqing forced her to marry Eminent Elder Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate, and Huang Xiaolong crippled her in a fit of rage!"

"What?! The Zhang Family really stepped on dog sh*t luck this time!"

"Nonsense! Zhang Yuhua was one of the women chosen by Wang Zheng. Now that Huang Xiaolong threw a wrench in his plans, he's definitely planning on going against the entire Six Swords Gate! He even shattered Lord Wang Zheng's formation! With such a blatant provocation, Lord Wang Zheng wouldn't let him off!"

The powers of the Huaxia Alliance started to quarrel among each other on who was the stronger expert between Huang Xiaolong and Wang Zheng.

Even though Huang Xiaolong killed the old ancestors of the Chu and Zou Families and was compared to Ying Tian, there were some who felt that Huang Xiaolong wouldn't stand a chance against Wang Zheng at all.

After all, Wang Zheng wasn't someone Ying Tian could stand against! Ying Tian barely entered the Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm, but Wang Zheng had reached the peak of Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm a long time ago!

When everyone was saying how badly Huang Xiaolong would end up, a heaven shaking announcement came from Huang Shengan's mouth. "Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate is to kneel before the Zhang Family Manor for an entire month as an apology. He will shatter his arms too! If he fails to appear, I, Huang Xiaolong, will personally head over to the Six Swords Gate to behead him!"

The news caused every single power in the Huaxia Alliance to tremble.

"This... Huang Xiaolong... Huang Xiaolong is planning to behead Wang Zheng in the Six Swords Gate?!"

Even He Yuankang, the old ancestor of the He Family, sighed. He felt that Huang Xiaolong was too full of himself. One had to know that there were more than thirty Enlightenment Realm experts in the Six Swords Gate! There were at least five high-level Enlightenment Realm experts among them!

Not to mention the fact that the old ancestor of the Six Swords Gate was at the peak of the late-Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm and was a foot in the Spirit Severing Realm...

They even had the Six Swords Killing Formation ready to kill him if he stepped foot into their territory!

The Six Swords Formation was made up of six spiritual swords, and all of them were mid-grade spiritual treasures!

Even experts at the peak of the late-Ninth Level Enlightenment Realm might not be able to return alive!

Much less a 'mere' Huang Xiaolong!

Of course, that was what everyone in the Huaxia Alliance thought.

In the Zhang Family Manor, Zhang Yuhan couldn't help but worry for Huang Xiaolong when she heard the announcement. "Xiaolong, why don't we let it go? As long as Wang Zheng gives up on me and forgets about harming the Zhang Family, we should let the matter go."

"Are you doubting my abilities?" Huang Xiaolong chuckled softly.

Shaking her head, Zhang Yuhan sighed, "That's not it... After all, there are countless experts in the Six Swords Gate. They even have the Six Swords Killing Formation! It's too dangerous and there's no need for you to take the risk!"

Huang Xiaolong laughed in amusement. "Relax. I am confident in my strength." He looked into Zhang Yuhan's eyes and a trace of contentment flashed through his eyes. In the past hundred years, she managed to enter the Nascent Soul Realm, but time wasn't as kind to mortals. Her hair was gray, and the light in her eyes was no longer as bright as they once were.

Zhang Yuhan's heartbeat accelerated when she noticed Huang Xiaolong's burning gaze. She lowered her head and stuttered, "You... You...What are you looking at?!"

"Of course I'm looking at you. I've been gone for so long, and it's time to make up for all the lost time." Huang Xiaolong laughed.

With blood rushing to her face, Zhang Yuhan glared at Huang Xiaolong. "You weren't such a sweet talker in the past!"

Even though she sounded angry, there were traces of happiness hidden in her voice.

Huang Xiaolong turned serious all of a sudden. "Do you wish to become young again?"

Staring at Huang Xiaolong in shock, a trace of joy flashed in her eyes. "Is there a way for you to do that?!" Like every woman, they desired to return to the peak of their beauties when they were younger.

“Of course.” Huang Xiaolong nodded and explained, “Even though I won’t be able to allow you to return to how you looked a hundred years ago in a short amount of time, I can still return you to your thirties if you give me a moment.”

When Huang Xiaolong was transforming her body, Wang Zheng of the Six Swords Gate exploded in fury when he heard the news. He shattered the cliff beside him and roared, “Little f*cker from the Huang Family, who do you think you are?! I’ll head over and kill you now!” As soon as he spoke, he shot towards the Huaxia Alliance.

As the second strongest expert in the Six Swords Gate, he lived for more than five hundred years. He was no weaker than the patriarchs of the various sects, and now, a mere grand elder of the Huang Family dared to threaten him! How could Wang Zheng allow that to pass?!

Chapter 3310: East Sea

Before he could leave the territory, a figure stopped him. “Stop right there.”

The person who appeared was the old ancestor of the Six Swords Gate, Fu Wu.

As someone who had half a foot in the Spirit Severing Realm, Fu Wu was one of the six strongest cultivators on Earth!

With his strength, he stood at the top of the power pyramid on Earth! Not even missiles could kill an existence of his level!

“Old Ancestor?!” Wang Zheng couldn’t understand why Fu Wu would stop him.

“He’s just a mere Huang Xiaolong. There’s no need for you to run all the way over there to kill him.” Fu Wu sighed. “Don’t forget that we have to deal with something urgent.”

Wang Zheng’s heart trembled when he heard what the old ancestor said. However, he couldn’t swallow his grievances just like that!

“But, Huang Xiaolong...”

“Didn’t he say that he would pay a visit to our Six Swords Gate? We can kill him then.” Fu Wu growled.
“When he comes, you can do whatever you want to him!”

Wang Zheng sucked in a cold breath and he nodded his head eventually. “Alright. I’ll let him live for a few more days.”

As the first rays of dawn illuminated the lands the next day, Zhang Yuhan looked in the mirror and jumped in fright.

Was that really her in the mirror?! Did she return back to her thirties in the span of a single night?!

“Xiaolong, is this... Is this really me?!” Zhang Yuhan couldn’t believe her eyes.

Chuckling slightly, Huang Xiaolong responded, “Of course it’s you. Unless you think that’s me in the mirror.”

A giggle escaped Zhang Yuhan’s lips and she discovered that her voice had also returned back to when she was in her thirties!

Staring at her arms, she discovered that her skin was fair and spring to the touch. Tears welled up in her eyes and soon, she started to bawl.

“Yuhan, what’s wrong?” Huang Xiaolong stared at her in shock and asked.

“Xiaolong, is this... Is this a dream?! Am I dreaming right now?”

Laughing helplessly, Huang Xiaolong reassured her, “Of course not.” Even though he said it countless times, Zhang Yuhan was still unable to believe that it was real. It was something he totally understood. When he transformed the bodies of his parents and his younger brother when he just returned to Earth, they behaved the same way.

No one could blame Zhang Yuhan for being suspicious. After all, her transformation was indeed a little ridiculous. She returned back to her thirties, and her cultivation base increased to the peak of the late-Ninth Level Nascent Soul Realm in the span of a single night!

“Xiaolong, thank you!” Jumping into his embrace all of a sudden, Zhang Yuhan could feel the warmth of his body.

Stroking her hair slowly, Huang Xiaolong sighed, “You silly girl...”

The two of them seemed to have returned to the past as Huang Xiaolong stroked her hair in silence.

Their hug lasted a long time...

Finally, Huang Xiaolong laid down another formation around the Zhang Family Manor. He taught the grand elders of the Zhang Family the method to control the formation, and they were shocked to discover that not only could the formation absorb the spiritual energy around them, it could even stop anyone who tried to invade them... No... The power of the formation was even more terrifying than that. Even if the six strongest experts on Earth came over to the Zhang Family to cause trouble, the formation had enough power to blast them into smithereens.

Huang Xiaolong handed Zhang Yuhan five bottles of Blue Dragon Pills and said, “I made these pills myself. As long as you refine ten of them, you will definitely enter the Enlightenment Realm.”

“Enlightenment Realm?!” Zhang Yuhan was shocked.

Huang Xiaolong smiled and nodded his head slightly.

“Xiaolong, this... This is too precious! I can’t accept it!” Zhang Yuhan tried to refuse the gift, but she was stopped by Huang Xiaolong.

“It’s nothing much. Even if I tried to use them myself, I won’t be able to receive any benefits. When you finish refining them all, I’ll give you even better pills.”

The amount of spiritual herbs on Earth was indeed lacking. Huang Xiaolong planned to head out to the other plants around in order to look for better herbs in the near future.

When Zhang Yuhan heard what Huang Xiaolong said, she didn't know how to respond for a period of time.

"It's been a long since you last met my parents... The two of them have been nagging me to bring you back." Huang Xiaolong chuckled.

Zhang Yuhan stared at him in stunned silence and her face started to flush red. "Do they really wish to see me?"

"Yeah." Huang Xiaolong was slightly amused when he saw the shy look on her face. "It's not like it's your first time meeting them... Why are you so nervous?"

Zhang Yuhan pouted, "I.. I'm not nervous!"

"Yeah, yeah. I'm the nervous one." Huang Xiaolong laughed.

With a smile lighting up her face, Zhang Yuhan nodded slowly.

An hour later, the two of them left for the Blue Dragon Orchard.

As they rode in the flying ship Huang Xiaolong bought in the BMW dealership when he returned to Earth, they managed to arrive in the Blue Dragon Orchard in three short hours.

Zhang Yuhan might have said that she wasn't nervous, but her heart was pounding when she entered the Blue Dragon Orchard. Her palms were sweaty and she didn't know where to look.

Huang Jiyuan and Wang Meilan heard that Huang Xiaolong was bringing her back, and they gathered Huang Chenfei and the others in order to wait for her at the entrance to the manor. When they saw Zhang Yuhan standing beside Huang Xiaolong, Wang Meilan quickly went forward to welcome her.

Cheers broke out instantly when they met.

When they finally entered the manor, Zhang Yuhan gasped in shock at the luxurious interior.

During the banquet at night, Huang Jiyuan and Wang Meilan spoke about the matter with Wang Zheng. The two of them learned from Huang Shengan that Huang Xiaolong was threatening to behead one of the eminent elders of the Six Swords Gate and they couldn't help but worry.

Chuckling slightly, Huang Xiaolong reassured all of them.

Due to the stunt he pulled in the Blue Dragon Orchard and the Heavenly Dragon Building, Huang Jiyuan and the others knew that Huang Xiaolong wasn't as weak as they thought he was. They also knew that there was no stopping him once he made a decision. As such, they could only remind him to be careful when dealing with the Six Sword Gate.

Night soon fell, and Huang Xiaolong held Zhang Yuhan as they strolled about the manor.

"Xiaolong, can you tell me what happened in the past one hundred years that you've been gone?" Zhang Yuhan asked. She was extremely curious about the way Huang Xiaolong cultivated. She wanted to know how he learned the art of formations and the art of pill refinement.

"This... I can't finish my story in such a short amount of time..." Huang Xiaolong sighed. "I've been away from Earth for the past one hundred years... In fact, I only returned half a month ago."

Zhang Yuhan wasn't surprised to hear that. "It's no wonder all of us can't seem to find you anywhere in the past one hundred years... I've heard that there are a lot of factions in outer space, and there are even experts who have surpassed the Enlightenment Realm! Is that true?"

Huang Xiaolong nodded and explained, "That's right. After one surpasses the Enlightenment Realm, they will enter the Spirit Severing Realm. There are even higher cultivation realms, and it is true that there are a lot of powerful factions outside of Earth."

"I really wish we can leave Earth and take a look at the world outside..." Zhang Yuhan sighed. "It will be my first time leaving this planet..."

"If you really wish to take a look outside, we can go for a stroll after I deal with some matters here on Earth." Huang Xiaolong snickered. When they left, Huang Xiaolong planned to bring his parents and the others along in order to widen their horizons.

On the very next day, Huang Xiaolong returned to the Eastern University along with Zhang Yuhan as they left for the East Sea with the students who signed up to repel the beast tide.
