Chapter 100: Chapter 28 first test of the blade (fighting for the top ten)

After giving away the stone saber, Li Hao's mood calmed down.

He had done everything he could.

This was all he could do for now. As for the night patrolmen, it would depend on Liu Long's arrangements. Li Hao had told Liu Long about Wang Ming's existence, but Li Hao didn't know the specific situation. Liu Long would probably know better than him what to do.

"Teacher and Liu Long are now aware of the red shadow's invisibility!"

Is there anything else you haven't said?

Li Hao thought for a moment. Oh, there's one more thing I didn't say. I can see ... But that's not important.

He didn't have to reveal all his secrets. He could see it, but no one knew. Perhaps it would be of some use. Even if he said it, it might not be of any help to everyone.

"The next few days will be the time for me to work hard to improve myself!"

Right now, it was too late for him to improve himself. Otherwise, Li Hao would rather continue training in silence and then kill the red shadow himself.

But time wasn't on his side.

However, now that he had reached this step, what he needed to do next was very simple. He needed to strengthen himself.

Having entered the ten slashing realm, he had never fought with any expert.

He had never fought a real battle.

According to his teacher, this kind of Martial Master was just for show. In fact, he wasn't really that capable. He just ran faster than others, so his punches hurt more.

It was another peaceful night.

15th of July.

Inspection Office, basement, Demon Hunter squad base.

Li Hao had come very early today, and had no interest in beating around the bush with Wang Ming, so he had simply come here.

Early in the morning, Li Hao began to practice the five birds technique.

Here, he didn't have to worry about disturbing the Auntie downstairs.

Fist technique, grabbing technique, bear hug, Tiger pounce ...

This time, Li Hao tried to use all five birds.

Tiger, bear, deer, ape, bird.

When he practiced, his posture was a little ugly. He even used both his hands and feet. Sometimes, he would lie on the ground and jump up like a wild beast.

Among the five birds technique, the bird technique was actually the most difficult to practice.

The flying bird technique focused on making one's body light. The main point of flying was to borrow force to fly. This was not very friendly to newbies like Li Hao. After a few leaps, Li Hao directly fell to the ground and crashed heavily. It was not as useful as the ape technique.

After a few times, Li Hao simply gave up on the flying bird technique and focused on the ape technique, which he was most familiar with.

Li Hao was engrossed in his training when someone entered.

Chen Jian, who had an incomparably strong body, looked like he had not fully woken up. He pushed the door open and entered. When he saw Li Hao, he was slightly stunned and surprised.

"Li Hao, you're here so early?"

He didn't sleep well last night, but he was the first to arrive. He didn't expect Li Hao to arrive before him.

As for the task of protecting Li Hao, he didn't have to worry too much with boss around.

“Brother Jian!”

Li Hao panted slightly. He smiled and suddenly said, “Brother Jian, are you interested in sparring with me again?”

“What?”

Chen Jian was a little surprised. He had thought that Li Hao wouldn’t want to fight him again after his last loss. He didn’t expect that this kid would take the initiative to mention it.

“You want to practice with me?” Chen Jian laughed naively. I’m actually not good at attacking, and I’m mainly good at defense...How about this, I’ll just defend and not attack, and be your sparring partner!”

Li Hao’s face was filled with joy. A shield-defense sparring partner like Chen Jian was probably the favorite of newcomers like him.

After all, a living person and a target were different.

Moreover, the other party was an extremely powerful Martial Master in Shield Defense. With Chen Jian as a sparring partner, he would definitely be much better than himself.

“Brother Jian, I absorbed the mysterious energy yesterday ...”

“I’m fine!”

Chen Jian had a silly smile on his face, but he was powerless to ridicule in his heart.

I know!

“Yesterday, you absorbed two of them. Of course, I know about it. The key is ... You also know that you only absorbed it yesterday. The effect of the mysterious energy is not something that can be absorbed and digested in a day. It is a long-term digestion process.

In addition, although Li Hao had some Foundation before, he wasn’t much. He was stronger than ordinary people, but in front of a real Martial Master ... He couldn’t even withstand a single blow!

Chen Jian was still defending with his shield, so why would he be worried that Li Hao would hurt him?

Li Hao stopped his cultivation and said with joy, “Then ... Then I won’t be pretentious anymore. Brother Jian, please enlighten me!”

“You can attack as you wish. Although I won’t fight back, I’ll Dodge. This is also a Basic Instinct of Shield Defense ...”

“Understood!”

Li Hao was overjoyed. This was even better.

Otherwise, he might as well go and forge.

The two of them didn’t say anything else. Li Hao pounced like a tiger and used Tiger fighting technique.

His hands were like claws, and he went straight for Chen Jian’s arms, trying to grab them.

Although Chen Jian was fat, his movements were extremely agile. He did not make too big of a move. With a slight movement of his feet, he avoided the attack by three inches.

Li Hao’s grasp missed, and the air seemed to be whizzing.

Chen Jian, who had just avoided it, was slightly stunned.

So much?

At this moment, Li Hao didn’t hesitate. His grab didn’t work, and he fell to the ground. His four limbs stuck to the ground, and his legs pushed off the ground like a deer’s burst. A deer’s steps were light and agile, and it was in a comfortable state. However, when it was in danger, the burst of power from a deer was extremely powerful!

“Eh ...”

Chen Jian moved again to avoid it, but he wasn’t as fast as Li Hao’s kick.

Chen Jian no longer avoided it.

As a Shield Defense, if he couldn’t avoid it, he would defend!

BOOM!

An explosion rang out!

Li Hao’s body was still in the air. He used the force from his legs to push off and concentrated all his strength into his arms. At this moment, like a fierce tiger coming down a mountain, he clenched his fists and punched out!

Bang! Bang!

Chen Jian took a step back, and Li Hao was also forced back by the huge force of the counterattack. However, the moment he retreated, he was like an ape, making an incredible ripple in the air.

Chapter 101: Chapter 28-first test of one's skills (2)

Li Hao, who had been sent flying, was suddenly pulled back.

This time, his hands formed claws and he clawed down!

Chen Jian found it unbelievable at the moment. He had actually been pushed back by Li Hao, and he felt that his arms were in pain.

Such a shock even made him a little dazed.

This was because he had fought with Li Hao the day before yesterday and sent Li Hao flying with a single slap.

How could Li Hao defeat him?

However, this was not the right time to be shocked.

Li Hao disbelievably returned at an extremely fast speed. His claws grabbed Chen Jian's arms, and a sharp force came from his ten fingers. With one claw, he directly tore Chen Jian's sleeves into pieces!

Clang!

An ear-piercing sound like metal rubbing against metal rang out. The fingers scratched Chen Jian's arms, leaving ten bloody marks on them in an instant. Of course, Li Hao didn't feel good either. The nails on all ten fingers were slightly lifted.

"Absorb!"

Chen Jian was really surprised, but he did not have the time to ask for details as they were fighting. He had said that he would only defend, and he was not prepared to change his mind at this moment.

Seeing that Li Hao was about to grab him again, he shook his arms and pushed Li Hao away.

He crossed his arms and blocked Li Hao's punch.

The next moment, Chen Jian suspected that he had a hearing problem.

"Ka ka ka!"

A series of sounds rang out, and the next moment, Li Hao's leg came into view. It was like a long whip, lashing out in the air!

"I'll go!"

Chen Jian could not hold it in any longer.

F * ck!

Slashing Ten Realms!

What kind of joke was this? the day before yesterday, he was still a weakling, and after a day, he had already killed ten. Were you kidding me?

He was also only in the tenth realm. Although he had not just entered, he would not feel good if he was kicked by a Martial Master in the tenth realm without any defense.

Li Hao had finally used his full strength.

Without saying anything, Chen Jian clenched his right hand into a fist and punched at Li Hao's foot.

He didn't want to be kicked down by Li Hao. Although it wasn't a big deal, it was guaranteed to be excruciating.

Bang! Bang!

There was another loud noise. Li Hao was wearing the special leather boots of the inspection Office, which were very strong and hard.

This kick just happened to collide with Chen Jian's fist.

Chen Jian's fist was also frighteningly hard.

Kachaa!

With another soft sound, Li Hao felt as if the bones in his foot had been broken.

However, at this time, Li Hao acted as if nothing had happened. Once again, he borrowed the force of Chen Jian's punch and, like an ape, rippled up. Chen Jian's fist was like a fulcrum, and his feet relied on this fulcrum to drive his body to spin.

At this moment, to outsiders, it looked as if Chen Jian had grabbed Li Hao's foot and thrown him out of the circle.

In reality, this was not the case at all.

Chen Jian felt as if his fist had been caught by Li Hao's foot!

They were stuck together!

Using his fist as a pivot point, Li Hao circled around. After circling around, he kicked the ground, jumped into the air, and wildly kicked with both legs!

"Pa pa pa!"

The sound of air exploding rang out continuously.

Chen Jian's face was also solemn. He protected his head with both hands and his vital parts. He took the time to punch back.

The two of them exchanged blows and were now fighting in the fitness area.

Li Hao once again gave a heavy kick, but Chen Jian dodged it. With a bang, Li Hao's kick left a hole in the wall.

Just as the two of them were fighting.

At the door, someone found it unbelievable.

Liu Yan was dumbfounded as she turned to look at Liu Long. Liu Long's face was also in a daze, and his eyes were a little unfocused. After a long time, he said in a low voice, "Mysterious energy ... The first time, the effect is really good!"

Other than that, he had nothing else to say.

Everyone had seen what Li Hao looked like the day before yesterday.

Yesterday, after absorbing the mysterious energy, Li Hao did a good job and kicked Liu Yan.

But today, Li Hao ... If Liu Long hadn't confirmed that the time was right, he would have suspected that it had been a few years since he had last seen Li Hao.

Good Lord, he had cut Ten Realms in one night!

Although he was still a little immature and seemed to lack experience, his opponent was just right for Li Hao to display his full strength. He was a shield-bearer who was not good at offense, which allowed Li Hao to display his full strength.

Liu Yan rolled her eyes.

Go to hell!

It's not like we haven't absorbed the mysterious energy before, so how could it have such a good effect? if we could become ten-beheading realm martial masters by absorbing two portions of it ... Then there might not be a so-called Starlight realm among the night watchers!

Once a Martial Master of the tenth realm advanced, it was usually Dark Moon!

Therefore, the night patrolmen also hoped that some martial masters with a solid foundation could join them and absorb energy into their bodies to become moon Hades Masters.

Of course, it was too difficult to break through 100 points. For example, if Liu Long could easily break through, the night patrolman would treat him as a treasure.

However, Liu Long had actually absorbed a lot of mysterious energy, but he was unable to advance. This made the night patrolman a little disappointed and helpless in him. He had no choice but to give up on supporting Liu Long and let him return home.

This fellow was not considered a passer-by when he was with the night patrolmen. It was just that he had not been able to advance in rank, and it had been very depressing for him to stay there as a Martial Master. It was his own choice to return to the Silver City.

The ten decapitation realm was also the favorite group of people to absorb by the night patrollers.

It was a pity that it was difficult to become a Martial Master. Usually, when one reached the ten decapitation realm, they would not be young anymore. With the development of supers, there were actually some people who could not bear the torture of practicing martial arts and wanted to become supers immediately.

There weren't many people who could calm down and practice martial arts.

At this time, yunyao, who had been silent all this time, suddenly whispered, "The mysterious energy in his body ... Can you feel it?"

Chapter 102: Chapter 28-first test of one's skills (3)

Under normal circumstances, a newbie like Li Hao would have to go through a process of leaking the mysterious energy after absorbing it.

Even Liu Long had a mysterious energy on his body, and all the demon hunting squads had it.

This was also the reason why Li Hao could see Starlight.

Li Hao, however, couldn't see Yuan Shuo.

As soon as Yunyao said this, Liu Long's expression changed slightly. The next moment, he thought of something and suddenly sneered, "Yuan Shuo's disciple is indeed extraordinary! That old man, the martial masters are on the verge of extinction, but he's still hiding all day long, unwilling to lend a helping hand to his fellow martial masters!"

At this moment, he thought of Yuan Shuo.

Yuan Shuo was like this!

Every time he finished absorbing the mysterious energy, no one would be able to sense it. It was as if he had absorbed it all.

The night watchman also knew about this. Everyone suspected that Yuan Shuo had a super-strong energy drawing technique. Unfortunately, Yuan Shuo did not say anything and no one could force him to say it.

In the past, they had thought that it might be because Yuan Shuo was too strong.

But today, he couldn't sense any mysterious energy from Li Hao's body.

Liu Long immediately understood what this meant.

"Last afternoon and last night, this kid went to Yuan Shuo's place twice ... I don't know if he had just learned it or if he had learned it long ago. He went to have a discussion with Yuan Shuo, and I heard that Yuan Shuo taught him some other secret skills. He didn't even give face to the night watchmen and seriously injured one of them!"

Liu Long was also very well-informed. He had also received news of yesterday's incident.

"Boss, you mean ... Li Hao learned elder Yuan's Secret technique?" Liu Yan asked in a low voice.

Absorbing super powerful secret skills?

This was probably a secret technique that everyone desired!

It was reasonable to say that the possession of a Jade was a crime. With such a powerful secret technique, even if Yuan Shuo was a great member of the ancient civilization faculty, he would have attracted countless people's attention. However, Yuan Shuo was fine until now and did not hand over the secret technique. From this, it could be seen that this old man still had some tricks up his sleeve.

“En!”

Liu Long nodded, he could only think in this direction.

He was a little envious, but he also hated Yuan Shuo.

In fact, he and Yuan Shuo were old acquaintances. His father had a good relationship with Yuan Shuo back then. When he was young, he even went to see Yuan Shuo, hoping that Yuan Shuo would accept him as a disciple. However, Yuan Shuo rejected him.

According to Yuan Shuo, he liked to teach smart people. Even if they had many ideas and were not very obedient, it was still better than teaching fools!

He almost called Liu Long an idiot!

Just like that, Liu Long became enemies with Yuan Shuo when he was young.

Today, the path of martial masters was almost extinct.

Liu Long had intended to let the Silver City's martial arts world stand up again. He wanted to give the Silver City some protection in the face of the night patrols 'unwillingness to guard the small city. However, Yuan Shuo, this old man, who had accumulated countless wealth throughout his life, was not willing to take a single hair from it!

That old man wasn't even willing to contribute an ordinary martial arts secret book, let alone a super secret skill!

Sometimes, Liu Long could not understand Yuan Shuo!

Why?

Those things were no longer of much use to Yuan Shuo. Wasn't it good that he could develop and strengthen the path of martial masters?

The Silver City is too small, and there are too few experts. Wouldn't it be good for you to have some talents?

He had been teaching at the Silver City ancient Academy for many years, but Yuan Shuo had never taught martial arts. He only taught, and this was also the reason why many people criticized him. Over the years, Yuan Shuo had only taken in a limited number of students, and a portion of them had never learned martial arts.

Li Hao, on the other hand, had also learned the five birds technique, and was one of the few students who had learned Yuan Shuo's martial arts.

If Li Hao hadn't joined a demon-hunting team, he might have taken it as an ordinary way of strengthening his body, and in the end, he probably wouldn't have been able to cultivate anything.

The few demon hunters didn't speak anymore.

They all looked in that direction.

Li Hao kept attacking!

Chen Jian focused on defense and counterattacked from time to time. The two of them were having a good fight.

"Brother Jian, be careful!"

At this moment, Li Hao's shout attracted Chen Jian's attention.

The next moment, a tiger's roar reverberated through the basement!

"Roar!"

Tiger roar!

Of course, Li Hao had seen Tigers before, but only in cages. He had never really seen a wild tiger, nor had he heard its roar.

Hence, this roar was completely incomparable to Yuan Shuo's.

Yuan Shuo was someone who had truly fought and killed wild tigers.

Compared to Yuan Shuo, it was like the difference between a Tiger and a tiger in a cage. He lacked killing intent and intimidating power.

However, Li Hao's sudden tiger roar still moved Chen Jian slightly, and his eardrums vibrated.

At the moment of the shock, Li Hao hugged Chen Jian with both arms like a black bear. The fat Chen Jian was much bigger and fatter than Li Hao. Chen Jian looked more like a black bear.

But now, Li Hao had pulled the willow tree up from the ground!

"Go!"

Li Hao shouted angrily, and with all his strength, he pulled Chen Jian up and threw him away with a shake of his arms!

BOOM!

With a loud bang, Chen Jian hit the wall directly, leaving a clear mark on the wall. Some cement fell off the concrete wall.

Chen Jian's face was covered in dust, but he was not hurt.

He was just a little shocked and surprised, and he looked at Li Hao in disbelief.

"Hu!"

Li Hao was so tired that he was gasping for breath. He also looked at Chen Jian in disbelief.

I'll go!

After fighting for a long time, Chen Jian had almost no injuries except for a few more bloody marks on his arm.

Was he still human?

He, Li Hao, had even broken a steel pipe, but Chen Jian was completely fine. This ... Even if they fought until dawn, they wouldn't be able to kill him!

He would probably die of exhaustion!

"Brother Jian, you're amazing!"

Chen Jian's face and ears turned red in an instant. He felt that Li Hao wasn't being honest. He was actually mocking him at this time.

Chapter 103: Chapter 28 first test of the blade (4)

"Pa pa pa!"

At this moment, there was applause outside the door.

Liu Yan's smile was as bright as a flower, and her eyes were shining. She looked at Li Hao, who was covered in sweat. The next moment, while Li Hao was still in a daze, Liu Yan approached him and put her arms around his neck. She said in a sweet voice, "Little Haohao, you're amazing!"

"....."

Li Hao didn't move. He twisted a little, but couldn't get rid of this person.

There was a faint fragrance at the tip of her nose.

Li Hao rubbed his nose and said shyly, "Sister Liu, let me go first!"

"Yo, you're shy!"

Liu Yan laughed so hard that her body trembled. Not only did she not let go, but she also moved closer to Li Hao and said in a sweet voice, "little Haohao, you absorb the mysterious energy so quickly. Can you teach this sister?"

Li Hao was embarrassed. "Sister Liu, I'll ask my teacher. He'll see if I can spread it. If I do, he'll get rid of me."

"....."

Liu Yan instantly froze. She pushed Li Hao away and said resentfully, "You don't have any compassion for women at all!"

Little fellow, you really know how to talk.

She could not afford to offend that person.

If she was really cleaned up, who could she find to reason with?

Didn't you see that the night patrolman was almost beaten to death by Yuan Shuo when he wanted to see what he was going to teach?

Don't provoke such an old man.

As for Li Hao, since he had already displayed the strength of a ten-slash realm, he had no intention of hiding it.

The breathing technique of five birds would probably be very difficult to conceal.

This was because Li Hao didn't have any mysterious energy on his body.

It was obvious that he had already digested it.

Yuan Shuo had mentioned this before. It didn't matter. He was the same. The night patrolman also knew this, but it wasn't a big problem. If he knew, he knew. If he didn't know how to train, it was fine.

At this moment, Liu Long stepped forward with a look of admiration on his face. His tone became gentler as he praised, "Not bad! I thought that if you introduced the mysterious energy, you might be able to enter the ten decapitation realm very quickly, but very soon ... I think it will take at least a month!"

However, Li Hao spent one day!

Li Hao said humbly, "it's not me who's good, it's my teacher!" I went to look for teacher yesterday. Teacher is the one who is truly strong!"

Li Hao sighed. "Yesterday, my teacher was furious that someone had peeked at him while he was practicing martial arts. He used his strength that he shouldn't have used. At that moment, my teacher said that he was like a god!" He said that at that moment, he was already close to the peak of the past, and a God descended upon me ... It was also at that time that teacher brought me to comprehend the secret technique of five birds and used his divine intent to guide me into the tenth slash realm ..."

At this point, Li Hao suddenly looked sad. "But ... Teacher led me into the beheading of ten, but I kept vomiting blood. I'm worried ... Sigh!"

As soon as he said this, Liu Long suddenly sighed.

Some of the complaints from the past suddenly disappeared.

He laughed at himself and said sadly, "the No. 1 Grandmaster in Silver Moon province might have fallen!" "I heard about what happened yesterday. Yuan Shuo was severely injured a few years ago, and yesterday, someone peeked at his secret technique. In a fit of rage, he used his peak Martial Master combat strength to defeat two Yueming with a single blow ... Sigh, what a pity! At that moment, I'm afraid he was really close to the warrior dimension and the divine presence ... I've always been looking forward to the realm. I didn't expect you to see it in advance. "

At this moment, he wasn't surprised that Li Hao could reach the tenth slash realm!

A Martial Master who had broken through 100 points at the peak could have comprehended the divine decree again in his last burst of power. Such an existence could have stepped into the Dou Qian class!

However, Yuan Shuo was old and his injuries were too severe.

In the end, he only created a disciple of the tenth realm. Thinking about it carefully, it was really not worth it!

Even if word of this got out, even the strongest night patrolman would sigh. It was not worth it!

Li Hao was only a small fry when he entered the slash of ten.

If Yuan Shuo could enter the thousand warrior class, that would be the real deal.

As for the other demon hunters, after hearing this, they all looked at Li Hao with strange expressions.

Divine decree!

Liu Yan was a little surprised, "God's descent ... This is the technique of a Qian warrior!" If elder Yuan wasn't injured a few years ago, he would have stepped into the warrior thousand domain and become a God on the path of martial masters!"

She was a little shocked, a little emotional, a little envious, and a little sympathetic!

Yes, sympathy!

How lamentable!

Such a Grandmaster would probably not be able to defeat two dark moons in one move like before.

Li Hao also sighed and smiled bitterly. "That's why I came here today to test my own strength and see if I'm worthy of teacher's cultivation! Otherwise, I won't be able to rest easy!"

Liu Long nodded slightly, "not bad!" Chen Jian was in the middle stage of the ten decapitation realm, not a beginner. Strictly speaking, if the ten decapitation realm was really divided into ten decapitations to ninety-nine decapitations, Chen Jian should have the strength to slash about thirty! Of course, he's still mainly defensive. For you to be able to beat him like this, it means that you're more powerful than the average ten severing realm ..."

It was only an attack!

In actual combat, it was hard to say. Perhaps those weaker than Li Hao could also kill him.

"Brother Jian isn't injured, but I'm going all out!" Li Hao was a little disappointed.

"You still want to hurt him?"

Liu Long laughed, "if he was so easily injured by you, why would we still hunt demons?" Chen Jian can withstand a blow from over a hundred martial masters without being too seriously injured. When he fought with you just now, he just didn't use his iron cloak technique. You don't really think that his defense is so weak, do you?"

"....."

Li Hao felt even more helpless. It turned out that he had not gone all out!

To think that I thought I was amazing!

Liu Long calculated for a moment and quickly said, "Looking at you, you've probably digested the two mysterious energies you absorbed after advancing to the tenth severing stage yesterday. I originally promised to provide you with two more mysterious energies after a few days, but now it seems ... Today is the day!"

"Boss!"

The others all looked at Liu Long. Two more parties?

This mysterious energy didn't belong to Liu Long alone. Although everyone felt that Li Hao was very powerful ... They had risked their lives to obtain this much energy. Wasn't this a little unfair?

Liu Long laughed, "if he can survive this time, and Li Hao is also alive, then he will have less!" If he's dead, we'll get his share if we're still alive. If they're all dead, there's no point in keeping them!"

When everyone heard this, they quieted down. After thinking about it carefully, it seemed to make sense.

After saying that, Liu Long looked at Li Hao again and sighed, "Li Hao, you might not understand, but I still have to say that mysterious energy is really precious. Under normal circumstances, killing a Starlight master can extract about 5 cubic meters of mysterious energy."

"Killing a Dark Moon will give me about 20-40 cubic meters. As for the more powerful ones, I don't know, because I've never killed them. "

"Our demon-hunting team killed five demonic supers and collected a total of 120 cubic meters of mysterious energy. Most of it was absorbed by the few of us, while the rest was absorbed by others ... They're all dead! The remaining 12 sides were exchanged with dozens of lives. The rest are all mysterious energy!"

He thought for a while and laughed at himself, "let me count. 22 brothers have died. If we count them in terms of human lives, one life is only five or six mysterious energy. They are all elites of the inspector's office!" If you absorb two more of them ... It'll be the price of one life!"

At this moment, Li Hao suddenly felt the heaviness of the mysterious energy.

22 people had died, and they had obtained 120 cubic meters of mysterious energy!

This ... The price was too great!

“Boss ... Is it worth it?”

Li Hao suddenly asked.

Liu Long laughed.

He was laughing wildly!

The Guardian of Silver City!

Li Hao pondered over these words. Before, he had thought that it was very ... Very ridiculous.

However, at this moment, he could not laugh.

It didn’t seem that ridiculous.

Was it justice?

Perhaps!

[PS: please keep your monthly votes. You can’t keep your spot in the top ten. No recommendations. Poor Eagle!]

Chapter 104: Chapter 29-a strange attribute of mysterious energy

Li Hao didn’t even know Liu Long, or rather, the entire demon hunting squad.

He had been in the inspection Office for a year and had very little contact with these law enforcement teams.

However, after these few days of contact, his senses had changed time and time again.

The first time Liu Long said that he would protect justice, Li Hao could only laugh bitterly in his heart.

Hypocritical!

In the name of justice, he killed and plundered. Was this justice?

Just comfort yourself!

It just so happened that the few fools in the small demon hunting team seemed to have taken it seriously.

Of course, Li Hao couldn't show it. He felt that this wasn't bad.

The second time Liu Long said that he was protecting justice, Li Hao started to doubt himself. Was Liu Long's so-called protection in the true sense of the word, or was it just for the sake of becoming more powerful and coincidentally killing some of the supers that caused chaos in the Silver City? Was this considered justice?

He was still confused about one thing. What was the goal of the team in pursuing superpowers?

What was his purpose?

To become stronger?

Superpowers seemed to be dangerous too.

Ordinary people might not live as well as supers. If Li Hao wasn't targeted by the red shadow, he might not have pursued the superpower realm. His teacher had mentioned the existence of superpower organizations in the past, such as the night patrollers. Li Hao knew of this organization, but he didn't know the specific name.

At that time, Li Hao didn't think much of it. He felt that they were in two different worlds.

Now, he had no choice but to enter this domain.

Li Hao didn't say anything.

He liked to remain silent.

Sometimes, when he spoke more, he had an ulterior motive. He just wanted to achieve his own goal. Since a year ago, he had been wearing a mask of hypocrisy and had a hypocritical smile.

Following Liu Long, he walked toward the warehouse.

This time, not only did Yun Yao follow, but the others also followed.

Liu Yan didn't regard him as an outsider at all. She warmly hugged Li Hao and said with a smile, "Little Haohao, this is amazing. You've only joined for a few days, and this is already your second time absorbing the mysterious energy. When I first joined, there was a gap of three months between the first and second time!”

Li Hao slightly shrugged his shoulders.

This big sister really doesn't regard me as an outsider. You're almost leaning on me, enough already.

“Why are you shaking? are your shoulders uncomfortable? I'll give you a massage tonight?”

“.....”

Li Hao was speechless.

This person ... Was really difficult to deal with.

In front of him, Liu Long didn't even blink.

He couldn't be bothered with Liu Yan's actions.

The five people who survived in the team each had their own stories and thoughts.

Since the establishment of the demon hunting squad, 22 of them had died, leaving only a few of them. Who among them wasn't full of worries? sometimes, he knew, but he didn't want to say anything.

After today, it was hard to say if there would be a tomorrow.

“Crack!”

The door of the warehouse opened again.

There were three rooms, and the mysterious man was in the third room.

The last time Li Hao was here, he didn't know what was in the first two rooms.

This time, Liu Yan had followed them. She was rather enthusiastic and introduced them to Li Hao with a smile. “There are three rooms here. The third room has the mysterious energy. Do you know what the first two have?” he asked.

“Firearms?”

“You're wrong. Why would that thing be worth putting in the warehouse?”

Liu Yan chuckled."The first room was filled with super items, such as super weapons, super books, super diaries ... In short, other than the few we killed, we also collected some other things from other places. They are all a mess, but there should be some valuable things, just that it is difficult for us to distinguish them!"

Li Hao nodded in understanding.

"What about the second one?"

"The second one?"

Liu Yan's eyes were still smiling. However, when Li Hao looked at her from the side, he felt that her smile ... Was unusual.

Liu Yan chuckled."The second one is interesting! It's the most important place in our team, even more important than the secret chamber where the mysterious energy is. But I advise you not to go in!"

A treasure?

What kind of treasure was it that he couldn't even look at?

Li Hao was a little confused.

At this moment, Liu Long turned to look at Liu Yan and coldly said,""Are you done playing?"

Liu Yan smiled and released Li Hao's neck. She said seductively,""Boss, don't be so fierce. I just didn't play with you. Are you jealous?"

Liu Long's expression didn't change, nor did he get angry.

He only glanced at the second secret room and was silent for a moment. Then, he walked towards the Third Secret room.

Li Hao also glanced at the second secret room. This time, he was really curious.

Liu Long didn't say anything before, but when Liu Yan mentioned the second secret room, Liu Long became a little angry. What was inside?

There was no time for him to think.

The door of the Third Secret room had already been opened by Yun Yao.

This female doctor was very quiet and didn't talk much, but every time she looked at yunyao, she would smile and nod. She didn't seem like someone to be trifled with like Liu Yan had said, and she seemed very kind.

Within the ice crystal barrier, all kinds of mysterious colors could be seen.

The remaining 10 cubic meters were placed in different ice crystal barriers.

"The remaining 10 cubic meters of mysterious energy all have attributes," Yun Yao said. "They come from three different supers!"

She pointed at the mysterious red energy on the left and explained, "This is the fire attribute. This superhuman's strength is not bad. He's at the peak of the star light Master. In other words, he's at the peak of the tenth slash realm."

She thought for a moment and added, "don't underestimate a peak Starlight master. At that time, brother Liu had already broken through the hundred level. Strictly speaking, he was stronger than the other party. But even so, we had to sacrifice a few lives to kill him!" That guy's flame power is very strong. If you're touched by it, it'll quickly engulf your entire body. The few people who died will be burned to ashes!"

Chapter 105: Chapter 29-a strange attribute-mysterious energy

On the side, the fat Chen Jian suddenly lifted his clothes, revealing his chest. There was no chest hair on his chest, but a huge scar.

"Li Hao, you have to be careful of these guys!" Chen Jian laughed naively. That's the mark left by that guy. Just a small flame fell on me and almost burned me to death!"

Li Hao knew how strong he was.

Its defense was extremely strong!

However, this was only physical defense. When it encountered the mysterious energy attack, a little flame almost burned the shield warrior to death!

Terrifying!

Li Hao's expression was grave as he nodded slightly.

"In 1727, there was a huge fire in the southern suburbs of Silver City. 128 people were killed in the fire. According to the investigation, a short circuit caused the factory to burn down. However, witnesses said that they saw a spark falling from the sky that day and directly burned the factory ..."

Liu Long was a little surprised. He looked at him and nodded slightly, "You've read too much. The case has already been closed! It was this guy who did it. Before he became a superpower, he was just a part-time worker in a factory. He only liked to steal and was fired! Everyone knows his personality, so they usually reject him. After he became a super, he returned to the Silver City to take revenge on these people!"

Liu Long snorted coldly, "how can such a person be a superhuman?" The heavens were really blind! Which comrade in the demon hunting squad wasn't stronger than this beast? What a bullshit heavenly master! The heavens must be blind!"

He was not willing to let these people become supers and despised them.

What heavenly priest?

It was all bullshit!

Li Hao was silent. It was really the doing of the guy who had been killed.

He had read the case file at that time. Because it was related to the fire, he paid special attention to it and found some surviving witnesses. They all said that it was not a short circuit, but someone had set the factory on fire. However, the case was finally closed according to the principle of a short circuit burning the factory.

He thought it was an unsolved case, but it turned out that the murderer had been killed!

Yun Yao continued to point at the second ice crystal Shield, "There's lightning energy inside! Back then, the owner was a super who had just reached the Dark Moon level. His power of lightning was very strong, and many people died. In the end, it was brother Liu and Liu Yan who worked together to kill him!"

Liu Yan chuckled and looked at Li Hao. She raised her eyebrows and said smugly, "I was the last hit!"

Li Hao gave him a thumbs up.

Yue Ming ... Was someone who had broken through a hundred levels!

Furthermore, she was even stronger than the average person who had broken through 100 points. Although Liu Long was the main force, Liu Yan's ability to deal the finishing blow also represented her strength.

This time, Li Hao thought of some unsolved cases in the critical room.

It seemed to have something to do with lightning. It might have been done by this person. He did not say anything more.

The supers that Liu Long and the others had killed deserved to die!

“The third ice crystal Shield stores earth energy!”

“This guy is probably the most difficult one we’ve ever encountered to kill,” Liu Long said.

Liu Long said in a deep voice, “in terms of strength, he has just entered the Dark Moon realm!” However, he could burrow underground and was extremely difficult to deal with! He attacked us from underground ... Our greatest loss was his doing! That time, a total of 12 comrades died!”

Li Hao was solemn.

Looking at Liu Long, Liu Long shook his head, “I didn’t kill him. That guy was too arrogant and didn’t take us seriously. It was hard for us to deal with him. He appeared and disappeared like a ghost and appeared everywhere ... In the end, we buried thousands of kilograms of explosives underground ... And killed him! In the end, the amount of mysterious energy that can be extracted is not much. It’s a pity. ”

He was blasted to death!

Thousands of kilograms!

Li Hao suddenly realized that he had almost forgotten about the existence of firearms.

This super who could burrow underground was at the level of Yue Ming. A Martial Master like Liu Long did not have such a special ability, so he could only face him head-on. In the end, he could not hit his opponent at all and was blown to death!

As expected, it wasn’t impossible to kill Yue Ming. If an ordinary person was handled properly, they could also be dealt with.

Liu Long continued, “there are three types of mysterious energy. Flame, lightning, and earth. The first two are very powerful in increasing attack power. The latter ... Is mainly a supplementary function. Of course, the premise is that you can inherit this attribute, match it with yourself, and become a super. Otherwise ... No matter what attribute it is, it’s actually not much different from a normal mysterious ability. It just might give you a little bit of attribute attack power!”

After saying that, he clenched his fist and punched out. His fist faintly emitted a little bit of fire.

Liu Long knew that Li Hao didn’t understand, so he explained clearly, “I’ve absorbed fire energy before, so I have a little bit of fire attack power. However, I’m not sure if I’m really compatible with fire energy. Sometimes, if you don't advance, it's hard to find out which ability is compatible with you. ”

Li Hao nodded. Fire ability!

Was this considered the flame fist?

It turned out that Liu Long also had some special abilities. What about the others?

Perhaps both.

This was especially true for Chen Jian. Li Hao suspected that this person might have some ability to defend against earth, and his defense was very abnormal.

He did a quick calculation. The team had killed five supers.

Fire, lightning, and earth energy ... That meant that two of them had been absorbed. He wondered what kind of abilities the remaining two had been absorbed by. Who among these people had absorbed them?

As for the attribute-less mysterious energy, Yun Yao also explained that it was extracted from the attribute and was not a separate mysterious energy.

“Li Hao, which one do you choose?”

Chapter 106: Chapter 29-a strange attribute-mysterious energy

Liu Long looked at Li Hao with a grave expression.””You've experienced the impact of the mysterious energy. Let's put it this way, the impact of elemental mysterious energy is almost doubled! The effect of the upgrade ... Was actually similar to a normal attribute-less Mystic ability! Therefore, if the absorption of the mysterious energy is not compatible with your body, you will not be able to become a super. This is because you will not be able to obtain any other benefits, but you will have to face greater danger!”

“Of course, if you succeed, you either won't be able to advance in rank or you'll be able to possess a little bit of elemental ability. This is also a benefit!”

Li Hao looked at the three attributes in front of him and hesitated.

Which one should he choose?

“Boss, I have two sides. I'll choose one side ...”

Liu Long immediately shook his head, "don't be ridiculous!" It's possible to do it once in a while, but it's impossible to do it all at once. In this case, with two different attributes clashing, your head will probably explode. I don't want to collect your corpse now!"

Alright, Li Hao understood.

He observed again. Three types, which one should he choose?

Fire and lightning were both good. If it had even a little bit of elemental ability, its attack power would definitely be stronger.

However ... Earth energy was not bad either!

His first impression of earth energy was that it could strengthen his defense and was as heavy as a mountain.

The second was to be able to burrow underground. At this stage, burrowing underground was also an excellent way to save his life. Of course, it was possible that he would gain nothing and would only be equivalent to an ordinary mysterious energy.

"I want the earth attribute!"

Li Hao made his decision.

Liu Long nodded his head and actually laughed, "not a bad choice, it's a little safer! And there just so happen to be only two earth attribute ones left!"

Out of the three attributes, the earth attribute was the least. It should be related to the way the other party died-he was killed by an explosion.

It was very likely that they would be blown to pieces or even have no bones left. It would be good enough if there were any mysteries left.

He had more fire and lightning attributes.

"You can absorb it!"

As he spoke, Liu Long thought of something and said lightly, "Also, just use the method that Yuan Shuo taught you. You don't need to use the energy drawing technique that I taught you."

Li Hao was a little embarrassed.

Liu Long seemed to know what he was thinking and said indifferently, "Alright, everyone can leave now. Don't worry, no one is spying on you!"

Then, he turned around and walked out.

The others laughed and left one after another. Liu Yan chuckled and said, "Little Haohao, digest more. If you can digest all of it, I still have two of the remaining eight cubic meters here. Come and chat with me tonight, and I'll give it to you!"

"....."

Li Hao laughed dryly, but he was a little surprised. There was a share for Liu Yan?

Then why didn't she absorb it?

Did it not match?

However, attribute-less ones could still be absorbed. Why didn't he see them absorbing them before?

Yunyao, who was the last to leave, seemed to know what Li Hao was confused about. She explained calmly in a low voice, "The rest of the mysterious energy either doesn't match or can't be absorbed anymore. If I absorb more and still can't become a superpower, then it might break through 100. After that ... It's hard to become a superpower!"

Li Hao suddenly understood!

His heart trembled slightly. This meant that Liu Yan could very likely have entered the peak of the ten decapitation realm. This was unexpected.

Other than Liu Long, everyone else in the team was at the tenth level. Since Liu Yan was the vice-captain, it seemed reasonable for her to be at the peak of the tenth level.

What about yunyao?

Li Hao was confused again.

Yunyao had already left and closed the door. At this moment, only Li Hao was left in the secret room.

With 10 cubic meters of mysterious energy, these people weren't afraid of him absorbing it all!

Of course, he would not do that.

In Li Hao's eyes, the mysterious energy of the earth attribute was an earthy yellow energy, which was different from ordinary Starlight energy.

"Mysterious energy ... Attributes ... Abilities ..."

Li Hao didn't know much about superpowers, but he was different from the others. He could see real mysterious powers, not the ones that Yun Yao had painted.

Dyeing only showed the core, but it didn't mean that the core could be dyed.

Li Hao, on the other hand, could see some differences.

"Why can the mysterious energy have different attributes?"

Li Hao observed carefully and found that the three types of energy in front of him were mostly the same. However, the core areas of the three types of energy were somewhat different. Fire, Thunder, and earth energy, three types of colored energy, were constantly overflowing from the core.

This caused the three types of mysterious energy to be somewhat mixed.

"Strip this off and it'll be pure attribute-less mystical energy!"

The attribute-less mystic energy had only one advantage-it was safe and suffered less pain.

The only downside was that it could only increase one's physical fitness, but not their superpower.

Li Hao thought for a moment and reached his hand in to absorb it. This time, he used the breathing technique of five birds, which could absorb faster and more effectively.

Of course, this would also cause a problem. It would absorb the energy in the Jade sword.

This was the only way to absorb the energy from the Jade sword. Ordinary breathing techniques couldn't absorb it. This had its advantages and disadvantages. Those who didn't know this breathing technique might not be able to use it.

The two mysterious energies surged into Li Hao's body at the same time.

The next moment, while Li Hao was suffering, he felt something different.

"The Starlight energy is stripping away the earth energy!"

Li Hao was surprised. He felt it and saw it.

The Starlight energy had divided the earth energy!

Earth energy was mostly mysterious energy, and a portion of it was elemental energy.

At this moment, the two types of energy had entered Li Hao's body and were separated!

Chapter 107: Chapter 29-a strange attribute-mysterious energy

Not long after, a pure khaki-colored energy, like a small ball, was separated.

This khaki-colored energy didn't continue to flow along the blood vessels and muscles. Instead, it went straight to a certain area. The next moment, Li Hao pressed on the upper left side of his abdomen, where an important organ was.

Spleen!

"Five elements ... Earth ... Spleen?"

The spleen was located in the left abdominal cavity, below the stomach.

The spleen had an extremely important function. It was the blood bank of the human body. When the human body was quiet, blood would be stored in the spleen.

When you need it, the spleen will supply blood to you.

Once the spleen bled, it often meant that it was difficult to save the patient. When a human blood bank was broken and blood flowed out, it often meant death.

The spleen itself was extremely fragile.

It was more fragile than the stomach and heart. Once it was hit hard, the probability of it shattering and bleeding was higher than the heart and stomach bleeding.

Therefore, even for a Martial Master, once the spleen was hit, it often meant complete defeat, or even death.

At this moment, the khaki energy directly entered his spleen. Li Hao's face turned green!

He knew how fragile the spleen was and how powerful the mysterious energy was. Elemental mysterious energy had a stronger impact than ordinary mysterious energy.

Once it entered the spleen, the impact would shatter the body, and the human blood bank would collapse. It would be strange if he did not die!

“Damn it!”

Li Hao quickly mobilized a large amount of Starlight energy toward the spleen to encircle and suppress it.

This time, he was really screwed. How did this happen?

Under normal circumstances, the mystery wouldn't touch the internal organs because it was too fragile. It mainly flowed through the blood vessels, muscles, and skin. But this time, it was suddenly different!

The breathing technique mobilized energy!

However, when the Starlight energy approached the part of the spleen, it did not attack. Instead, it directly flowed past ...

Li Hao's face turned green!

At this moment, the yellow energy directly entered his spleen. Li Hao felt that he needed to call for help. His spleen was shattered, and he needed first aid. He hoped that the doctor, yunyao, would be useful and reliable and be able to save him from the massive bleeding!

“Save ...”

Before he could say anything, Li Hao was stunned.

F * ck!

It didn't hurt!

When the yellow energy entered his spleen, he didn't feel any pain at all. He only felt a little bloated, as if he had eaten too much. The next moment, Li Hao felt the human blood stored in his spleen suddenly surge out!

This was a human body's blood bank, but the blood did not flow out because it was broken. Instead, it seemed like it had eaten too much and was full, so it suddenly rushed out.

It was mixed with a strong feeling!

That's right. Under normal circumstances, the rush of blood could only bring the energy required by the human body. However, this time, it seemed like the intense exercise caused the blood to become excited and flow faster, causing the blood in Li Hao's body to suddenly boil.

If Li Hao were to check his blood pressure right now, it would probably be extremely high.

"Hualala ..."

It felt like a small river was flowing, and the blood in his body was making a gurgling sound.

All these changes surprised and shocked Li Hao.

The spleen seemed to be changing.

The khaki energy was changing his spleen.

"Earth attribute energy?"

"Spleen?"

"Strengthen?"

Li Hao muttered to himself. As for the attribute-less mysterious energy in his blood vessels, it didn't seem to matter anymore.

He seemed to have discovered something different.

Of course, in the next moment, Li Hao knew what would happen if he ignored the mysterious energy's attack. He screamed, "Help!"

The door was quickly opened!

The five of them quickly entered and were shocked when they saw the situation.

At this moment, Li Hao seemed to be covered in blood.

The kind that was covered in blood!

His pores were bleeding, and so were his seven apertures.

Liu Long was also very surprised. "She was fine the first time. How did it happen this time? the amount of blood ... Yunyao!"

There was too much bleeding!

It seemed that all the blood in Li Hao's body was flowing out. If this continued, Li Hao wouldn't die, would he?

Yun Yao quickly stepped forward, and a faint, gentle energy appeared in her hand. As soon as it touched Li Hao, she suddenly frowned slightly and looked at Li Hao in a strange way. "Do you feel weak?"

"No... I don't feel anything ... I'm so excited!"

Yun Yao frowned and continued to check. After a while, her expression became a little strange and she asked, "You ... Your blood production speed is so fast! The energy in your blood before was too little, so the energy it could provide you was also too little. But now, your spleen and stomach are rapidly producing blood, and the new blood seems to be filled with more powerful energy!"

This was what she found unbelievable.

Li Hao felt like he was being replaced!

As for Liu Long, his expression changed slightly and he said hesitantly, "Did you check the wrong person? Blood change? Whether it was a Martial Master or a super, it was common for weak blood to be replaced by strong blood. However, under normal circumstances, it would only happen in thousand surge or sunlight. He was only in the tenth realm ... How could he change his blood? Where did he get such a strong hematopoietic system? Check carefully, don't bleed to death!"

Li Hao had lost too much blood!

Yun Yao also felt that she had made a mistake and had to check again. At this moment, Li Hao's blood loss was slowly decreasing.

Yun Yao checked and frowned. "There's no internal bleeding. It's not a ruptured blood vessel. It's normal blood discharge!" After excreting blood, his body is a little weak. It's only because he has consumed too much blood, not because he has lost too much blood ... This ... Is similar to blood transfusion!"

She was sure that she had not made a mistake!

What was Li Hao's situation?

Li Hao was also at a loss. Of course, he had actually guessed some things. At this moment, he could only put on a bitter face and cry with his face covered in blood, "I don't understand it either. I absorbed the earth energy and immediately started bleeding. Boss, with this attribute, will it still bleed?"

"....."

Liu Long saw that he could still speak and was full of vigor. It seemed that he was indeed fine.

At this moment, he calmed down a little. He was a little hesitant and doubtful. "No, you're the only one who's like this. The others didn't bleed because of the blood transfusion! You little rascal ... You're a little strange! Blood Reformation is a new and powerful blood that will replace the weak blood from before. It will allow your body to be filled with more energy and have stronger explosive power! When I broke through 100, I actually also felt a slight increase in my blood power, but it wasn't as exaggerated as yours!"

It felt as if the blood in Li Hao's body had changed!

This was something that could only be achieved by a warrior of a thousand-a complete blood Reformation.

But Li Hao, what the hell?

Was it caused by his attributes?

That was strange!

He didn't really understand it. The mysterious energy was too mysterious. At this moment, Liu Long was somewhat speechless.

Liu Yan's eyes were also extremely complicated as she grumbled, "Boss, does this mean that this guy's strength has increased after the blood transfusion?"

"It should be!"

Liu Long nodded and looked at Li Hao again, feeling a little uneasy.

Why?

He killed ten in one day and changed his blood the next day. Are you only satisfied when you break through 100 tomorrow?

Why don't we fight Qian the day after tomorrow!

At this moment, except for Li Hao, the eyes of the other five people in the warehouse glowed, including Yun Yao 's. It was as if they wanted to dissect Li Hao.

What was going on?

This was the first time they had encountered such a thing!

Li Hao, who was covered in blood, was trembling.

Blood change?

Blood can only be exchanged with thousands?

“I really don’t know. Maybe my spleen has been modified. It’s stronger, the hematopoietic mechanism is stronger, the blood bank is larger, and there’s more energy ... But I don’t know why it’s like this!

Did attributes have such an effect?

No one told me about this!

At this moment, Li Hao was weak and helpless. Stop looking. If you keep looking, I’m afraid that you’ll swallow me alive before the red shadow can kill me!

“Attributes, modification ...”

Vaguely, an idea rose in Li Hao’s mind. He wanted to say, despite the world’s condemnation,”

“Boss, can you give me the remaining 8 cubic meters?”

Of course, these words only flashed through his mind. He was afraid of being beaten to death by these people.

[PS: I’m asking for monthly votes. I’ll double it in four days. I don’t have any votes now. I won’t be able to catch up at the end of the month. I still want to get first place in monthly votes for my new book. The editor said that I’m out of luck today. I’m crying for my new book’s first 40000 votes!]

Chapter 108: The night before the storm (1)

Li Hao didn’t dare to take the remaining 8 blocks.

Moreover, it was too heavy.

In fact, Li Hao was eager to become stronger. However, Liu Long had said that a life could be exchanged for five or six mysterious powers.

Li Hao had already absorbed four cubes.

Liu Long didn't lie to him when he joined the demon hunting squad. From the very beginning, he had said that Li Hao was here to be bait. To be able to give a bait with four mysterious abilities was already proof of Liu Long's sincerity.

This man had schemed when he needed to, but he was also very open when he needed to be open.

Otherwise, as bait, there was no need to give Li Hao any Mystic abilities. There was too little time, and it would be a waste to give him a high chance. If Li Hao was an ordinary person, he would not even be able to cut Ten Realms after absorbing four cubic meters of energy.

Because time was really tight!

Li Hao didn't say that. At this moment, he was still silently experiencing the difference in the absorption of the mysterious energy this time.

"Attribute properties, Starlight energy ... It's not neutralizing, but extracting the attributes from it."

This point was different from attribute-less mystical energy.

For non-elemental ones, Starlight could neutralize the destructive power, while for elemental ones, special elemental energy could be extracted. This energy would then lose its offensive power, but it would bring some special nourishing effects.

It sounded similar to Starlight energy, but it was not exactly the same.

The Starlight energy nourished the entire body.

As for the attributes, they nurtured the internal organs. Judging from everything just now, it was possible that the five elements corresponded to the five internal organs, and different attributes nurtured different positions of the internal organs.

At this moment, Li Hao also felt the uniqueness of the Starlight energy.

He didn't know whether it was because he was special or because the Starlight energy in the Jade sword was special, but when he absorbed it, the effect was indeed different from others.

.....

Just as Li Hao was thinking about this, Liu Long suddenly said, "How do you feel?"

"I feel...A little weak!"

Li Hao smiled bitterly.

It didn't matter if he was changing blood or excreting blood, he had lost a lot of blood. Although he could feel that his body was rapidly producing blood, he did feel a little weak.

"If the old doesn't go, the new won't come. That's a good thing!"

Liu Long nodded and praised, then he said with some emotion, "I think I know why Yuan Shuo wanted to take you as his disciple!"

The Li family's sword ...

At this moment, Liu Long was wondering if Yuan Shuo knew about it.

The Li family ... Was there something different about them?

The descendant of the ancient super?

The bloodline contained the uniqueness of an ancient super?

There were many doubts!

However, he was convinced that Li Hao might really be a genius. He gave him a different feeling every time.

Not everyone who had absorbed the mysterious energy could improve so fast.

Even among the night watchers, only the Divine Masters blessed by the heavens could compare to Li Hao.

The priest blessed by the heavens ... Was he the same as Li Hao?

According to the research records of the night watchers, these God-favored priests were born with superpowers, which meant that their ancestors might have been Super Masters in the past.

The superpower lock was naturally unlocked!

Li Hao, on the other hand, was different.

At this thought, he suddenly asked, Li Hao, can you feel your Super Lock?

Li Hao thought for a moment and nodded. "When I absorbed the mysterious energy," he said, "I could vaguely feel the existence of the superpower lock."

“Absorb!”

Liu Long took a deep breath and somewhat overturned his own thoughts.

He inhaled because he felt a superpower lock on him after only absorbing it twice.

The reason was that Li Hao had a superpower lock, which was different from the godly Masters.

Did this mean that Li Hao’s ancestors were not supers?

However, the Li family’s sword was clearly an extraordinary item!

“It’s been too long, so it degenerated? Not all the descendants of the ancient superpowers are blessed by the heavens. Li Hao is one of the less talented ones. Why didn’t he unlock his superpower?”

Perhaps, this was the only explanation.

He said, “you’re a genius to be able to sense the superpower lock so quickly!” However, you must remember that you are only a genius, not a person blessed by the heavens! That’s because the God’s favored priest was born with the power to unlock the door!”

Liu Long said in a self-deprecating manner, “although I don’t think these people are truly blessed by the heavens, the truth is that they do have a lot of advantages over us. They were born as supers. As time passes, they will become stronger even if they don’t cultivate!”

It was really enviable!

The God tier master was born without a superpower lock?

Li Hao was deep in thought. Cultivation was much easier this time. He didn’t need to open the Super Lock and could become a Starlight master directly. And Liu Long and the others had sacrificed a lot to open the Super Lock.

As for Li Hao himself, he also understood that he might not be a genius.

This was because he had felt the power of the Super Lock before. It was as if he had been completely locked down like a chain.

He had sealed off all the important areas of his body!

Right now, Li Hao could feel that his heart and brain were locked by the chains. He didn’t know if there were any other superpower locks in his body.

Thus, at this moment, even Li Hao looked envious.

A natural star light Master!

It was really enviable!

Although a natural Starlight master sounded like he was only at the tenth level, he was a superhuman with unlimited upper limits. As for a Martial Master, his upper limit was only a thousand. There was no way to compare.

“Alright, boss, why are you saying this now? Isn’t this a blow to little Haohao?”

Liu Yan smiled brightly, “little Haohao is already very talented. I didn’t expect that little Haohao, who was kidnapped to be bait, would actually be a genius!” I can’t even bear to let you be the bait. ”

Chapter 109: The night before the storm (2)

Li Hao laughed dryly.

He really didn’t have a good way to deal with this person. One shouldn’t hit a smiling person. Besides ... He wouldn’t be able to beat her anyway!

At this time, yun Yao, who had been silent all this time, suddenly said, “Li Hao, although you seem to have improved again this time ... I have to remind you that your physical fitness is getting stronger and stronger! If this goes on, and you fail to become a Starlight master after a few more times, you ... I’m afraid you’ll end up like brother Liu and your teacher!”

Everyone was stunned.

Liu Long had been too happy just now, but now that he thought about it, he frowned slightly. He glanced at Li Hao and suddenly said in a low voice, “I forgot about this. Li Hao ... You ... Better think of a way to become a super as soon as possible! The Martial Master is at a dead end!”

He was unwilling to accept this, but he had to admit that martial masters were at their end.

It had been many years since Martial Master douqian had appeared.

In Silver Moon province, there weren’t many martial masters who exceeded 100.

Breaking 100 was only comparable to Yue Ming’s superpower. How powerful was Yue Ming?

There wasn't a specific number, but it was at least ten times or even a hundred times more than a Martial Master!

Even he himself was fighting for his superpower, not to become a warrior master, because he could not see the future.

He had practiced martial arts for decades, but in the end, he had to give up his pursuit of martial arts for the sake of becoming a super. This was also Liu Long's regret. However, how many years would it take to become a warrior master without becoming a super?

If everything went well, would it take ten or twenty years? Or perhaps a lifetime?

However, as long as he became a superpower, he could become a sun glory realm super instantly, which was comparable to a thousand-man fighting machine.

Sighing softly, he suddenly felt that Li Hao's blood Reformation might not be a good thing.

His physique had become even stronger!

The stronger the body, the harder it was to become a superhuman. This was the law.

Li Hao didn't care, because he didn't have a good impression of superpowers. He was more interested in martial masters.

His teacher was a Martial Master.

The current captain, Liu Long, was also a Martial Master. Although he was going to use him as bait, he would get many benefits. He could even protect him. How good was a Martial Master?

The team was full of martial masters!

Martial masters, what a good group of people.

As for the end of the road for martial masters, thousand-combat was the limit. Li Hao had just started martial arts, but he had already cut Ten Realms. He was still far from thousand-combat, and he felt that martial masters were no worse than superpowers, so he naturally didn't think there was anything bad about it.

He couldn't understand Liu Long's despair, but Li Hao had seen a real Martial Master douqian. He felt that he was very powerful!

Thus, Li Hao's reply made Liu Long feel that he was too young.

“Boss, what’s wrong with being a Martial Master? Are superpowers very strong? Two Moon nether superpowers were also sent flying by my teacher in one move. He didn’t even dare to let out a fart!”

Liu Long couldn’t help but laugh.

“Also,” Li Hao added, “supers don’t give me a good impression!”

This was because they had killed his friends and even his parents. Many of the cases that he knew could have been done by supers.

After becoming a superpower, these people lacked the qualities and mentality to match their strength, so they could easily become perverts.

But martial masters were different!

Becoming a Martial Master was a step-by-step process. Some of the martial masters in the team had been practicing martial arts for decades, while some had been practicing for eight to ten years. Even Li Hao had been practicing martial arts for three years.

As for those blessed by the heavens, they might have become supers at a few years old and had the power to cut Ten Realms.

At such a young age, he could easily kill more than ten soldiers. How could such a super not be arrogant?

“The development of supers has only been 20 years, which means that the earliest supers have only been in the field of supers for 20 years. In these 20 years, I think many of the next generation of supers we’ve trained lack some basic principles of being a person!”

“When martial masters train their students, they will examine them in many ways to see if they are suitable to inherit their legacy. However, I feel that when it comes to superpowers, they only look at talent and whether they can draw energy into their bodies. It seems that they don’t care about other aspects at all.”

Li Hao had heard from Wang Ming that the selection system for superpowers was based on talent!

As for other things, he didn’t need to care at all.

Even if you were a criminal, there would be a superpower organization willing to pay for you. As long as you could become a superpower, they would let bygones be bygones!

Liu Long smiled but did not reply.

However, Liu Yan's smile was exceptionally bright. It was a smile that sent chills down people's spines. Even Li Hao felt that it was a little strange.

"Little Haohao is right!"

Liu Yan's smile was even a little cold," 20 years ago, even if a Martial Master committed a crime, they would still be arrested and brought to justice. They would be killed if they had to be killed!" So what if he was a Martial Master? So what if he was powerful? You're a bad person, so you should be killed!"

"And now, some superpower organizations are taking in prisoners on a large scale! This was because they realized that the criminal's mental state might be better. He was more unafraid of death and was more daring to draw energy into his body! This has also led to countless supers committing crimes in some organizations!"

"What's the matter? it doesn't matter if you killed someone! As long as you successfully become a superpower and don't join the night patrollers, there will be a superpower organization to protect you and shelter you from the storm!"

The more Liu Yan spoke, the more excited she became. She gritted her teeth and sneered!

"He hides the filth and shields the criminals, but he can walk around in the open. Even the night patrollers can't do anything about it!"

"Although the night patrolmen are not bad people, they have too many concerns. Their strength can not rule the world, so they can only compromise. In order to gain the support of some organizations, they can only let things be. As long as they don't go too far, they won't pursue it. However, they have made some people go even further!"

Chapter 110: The night before the storm (3)

This was the first time Li Hao had heard such a statement and learned about the situation of the supernatural organization.

He was a little surprised, but he also felt that it was only natural.

"When their power exceeds the limits of the mortal world, the mortal firearms will lose their deterrent effect. Official organizations like the night watchers will not be able to suppress them, so it's only natural for chaos to occur!"

Liu Yan laughed coldly,"that's why, if you want to transcend the limitations of the mortal world, you have to become a super!" Li Hao, remember this. As long as you become a super, it doesn't matter if you're guilty. If it's a small crime, the night patrolmen won't pursue it. If it's a big crime, join another organization and I'll make sure you live a good life!"

Li Hao shook his head and smiled. "Sister Liu, look at what you're saying. I'm different from them. I've received higher education, and I've been in the inspection Office for a year. No matter how you look at it, I'm a righteous, kind, and orderly person. Those who have fallen are just in the ranks of the evil order. How can you confuse me with them?"

"The more you read, the easier it is for you to turn bad!" Liu Yan snorted.

"....."

There was no way to say this.

Besides, it was hard to say whether he would become a super in the future, so Li Hao didn't argue.

The group of six walked out of the secret warehouse.

As Li Hao's strength continued to increase, he felt more confident.

On the way, he took the initiative to ask, "Boss, do we have any plans to deal with the self-immolation murderer?"

If it was before, he would not have asked.

And Liu Long would not say it either.

However, at this moment, Liu Long thought for a moment and said, "The plan is simple. We'll lure the snake out of its hole and invite the man into the jar! The main thing was to use some hot weapons, such as underground mines and machine guns to attack with hot weapons first! The weak will be killed directly, and the strong will be injured. This is the time for us to hunt!"

Li Hao frowned. "It's impossible that they don't know. I even suspect that they have people in the law-enforcement team. How can they not know the power of firearms? moreover, when they followed me earlier, you've already been exposed, boss! The other party should have guessed the existence of the demon-hunting squad and even know that you have killed a few supers ..."

He felt that Liu Long had been too careless.

Even though his trump card was his teacher, he did not wish for Liu Long and the others to suffer heavy losses due to their carelessness. After all, they only had a few people left.

Liu Long smiled and nodded, "I know. Of course, there are some other arrangements. However, it's not good for you to know too much. Anyway, you know that we have other arrangements!"

"Your mission is simple. When the rainy night comes, find a way to lure them to our designated location. Then, we'll just wait for them to take the bait!"

Li Hao wanted to say something but stopped.

"You think it's dangerous?" Liu Long laughed.

"A little."

"I have no choice."

Liu Long chuckled, "do you think we have a better idea than this?" "I wanted to kill him by force, but we don't have the strength. I also wanted to set up an assassination, but I couldn't even find his whereabouts! If the other party still wants to kill you, then he'll be in the trap!"

With that, he waved his hand and said to the others, "You guys go first. I have something to say to Li Hao."

The few of them didn't ask and left one after another.

When they were far away, Liu Long sighed, "As for Liu Yan ... You saw it just now. She was married, and her husband was killed by a superhuman. The other party joined a superpower organization, and the night patrolmen can't do anything about it. They can only pretend that they didn't see it, so they were a little agitated just now."

Li Hao's heart moved.

Liu Long continued, "I'm only saying this because I want to tell you that she's always acting crazy. Sometimes, some of her actions are incomprehensible. It's all because she's been forced to do so!" When Liu Yan is on a mission, she's also the most fearless one. Don't think that she's a woman. When she's crazy, she's even worse than me! She joined the demon-hunting squad without much thought. She just wanted to become a super and kill that guy ... Unfortunately, she has not succeeded so far. "

He simply told Li Hao about Liu Yan, mainly because Liu Yan was very crazy and kept pestering Li Hao. Liu Long didn't want to leave any bad impression on Liu Yan.

"I'm not really trying to do anything with you ..." He said.

Liu Long laughed, "she's very friendly towards the newcomers. She hopes that the newcomers can become supers. To put it bluntly, if the newcomers can become supers, she's willing to do something with you ... There's only one goal, revenge!" But I always remind the newbies, in case they don't take advantage of me and go back on their word. You have to know that she has a blood feud. She's a rose with thorns, not someone who can be eaten by just anyone!"

Li Hao frowned and said, "even the night patrol can't do anything?" After all, he was still an inspector of the inspection Bureau! The family of the patrol was killed, but the night patrolmen didn't take revenge. How much of a deterrent force would such an organization have, even if it's an official organization?"

He did not expect that due to their fear of the supernatural organization, the night patrollers could not even take revenge when the family of the patrol envoy was killed.

This ... Could this still intimidate everyone?

Given Li Hao's personality, even if he didn't take revenge openly, he had to find a way to make an example of others in secret. Otherwise, how could he intimidate everyone?

He only had sympathy for Liu Yan.

Liu Long's words were very clear. If anyone could avenge Liu Yan, this rose with thorns would be willing to do anything!

Chapter 111: The night before the storm (4)

In fact, it was a very sad thing!

She was an inspector, while Li Hao was only a third-level inspector. There was still a gap of a few levels between them, but they couldn't even settle the enmity between the two inspectors.

Liu Long sighed again. He had sighed many times today.

He shook his head helplessly and said, "the field of superpowers is more complicated than you think!" Let's put it this way. The night patrolmen were not weak, but in terms of overall strength, they might not be the strongest among the supers! There might be a few other organizations that were stronger or not weaker than the night patrollers! After all, it's an official organization. They can't just fight to the death at will ... You have to know that the night patrolmen are also responsible for guarding the major cities!"

To put it simply, the night patrolman had too many constraints.

Offending a superpower organization for a patrol envoy might cause other organizations to rebel. In the eyes of the higher-ups, it was not worth it.

From the perspective of the higher-ups, this was understandable.

But from Li Hao's point of view, they couldn't understand.

"Then, there's no way to take revenge for sister Liu?"

"There's no other way. Unless we become the strongest among the supers, then we can take revenge in our own name and not in the name of the night watchmen ..."

"As the team leader, I naturally have a plan for this!" Liu Long said calmly. The premise is that I can become a super. "

Otherwise, it would just be nonsense. It was simply unrealistic.

The person who had killed Liu Yan's husband was now at the peak of the Dark Moon realm. He even had the hope of stepping into the realm of the sun glory. In any organization, the sun glory was a high-level figure.

Without becoming a superpower, a person with a hundred points would not be able to do anything to that person.

Li Hao nodded silently. Although he had many thoughts, he didn't say them out loud.

He then thought of the other people and asked, "Boss, what about the others?"

"They?"

Liu Long laughed, "everyone has their own story, why dig at someone's wound!" As for Liu Yan, it's because I saw that she had high hopes for you. You absorbed the mysterious energy too quickly just now, and I saw that she was really tempted, so I have to remind you, in case you fall for the temptation of a woman at such a young age and end up in a bad situation. "

Li Hao shook his head. "Boss, you're overthinking. I'm not that kind of person!"

Liu Long didn't say anything else.

Young man, you said that you're not that kind of person, but when Liu Yan really gets her hands on you, it'll be difficult for him as the captain to decide whether you should help her or not.

"Wang Ming ..."

Li Hao was just about to talk about Wang Ming when Liu Long shook his head slightly and said in a low voice, "Don't mind him! I've already found out the identity of this person. Of course, you can just pretend that you don't know. He is indeed from the night patrolmen's side. I have my own arrangements!"

Li Hao nodded.

He was quite confident in Liu Long's arrangements. Although this person looked reckless, he was actually quite scheming. Otherwise, he wouldn't have mentioned Liu Yan's matter to him in private.

The two talked for a while, and Li Hao had nothing else to do, so he parted ways with Liu Long.

He was not in a hurry to leave. What he needed to do now was to take a shower and change his clothes.

Fortunately, the basement was large and fully equipped.

There was also a bathroom. As for changing clothes, there was a pile of new patrol uniforms in the closet. Obviously, old Liu and the others were lazy people. When their patrol uniforms were dirty and torn, they would throw them away and change into a new set. This was because Li Hao saw several sets of old clothes in the trash can.

As expected, the boss of the law enforcement team of the inspection Office still had some power. He could wear whatever he wanted.

After taking a shower and changing into a new set of clothes, Li Hao felt refreshed.

The benefits of his spleen being strengthened were slowly showing at this moment.

His blood flowed even faster. Li Hao's casual punch could produce the sound of a whip, and the sound of his bones and muscles twitching was particularly obvious.

Li Hao almost never left the basement that day.

While he continued to digest the mysterious energy, he sparred with Wu Chao and Chen Jian. These two were easier to deal with than Liu Yan and Yun Yao. Liu Long was too busy and had run off somewhere. Li Hao wanted to spar with them. One was good at defense, and the other was good at running. They were both good opponents.

Li Hao also felt that he had benefited a lot from the day.

As for Wu Chao and Chen Jian, they had the same feeling-Li Hao was an animal!

The improvement was really visible to the naked eye!

The five birds technique, which he wasn't very familiar with before, was now well-practiced. Except for the fact that he was lacking in actual combat and his killing intent wasn't strong enough, Li Hao now looked like he could cut Ten Realms in the true sense.

In the past, the ten decapitation realm often required one to really kill people. In the past, the ten decapitation realm would also appear more often on the battlefield.

Of course, in Li Hao's era, with the emergence of superpowers and hot weapons, martial masters rarely had such a test.

On the night of the 15th, when Li Hao returned home, the night wind blew.

This time, the hot summer welcomed a cool night.

For Li Hao, such a change in weather meant one thing. The rainy season was probably coming soon.

Outside the Silver City.

Blood Shadows appeared in the dark night.

Not just one, but many.

And behind each blood shadow stood a man with a ghost mask.

"The rainy night is coming!"

In the darkness, a man with a ghost mask said in a desolate tone, as if he was looking forward to it, but also a little regretful.

"The Li family's sword ... It's time to harvest it!"

Someone laughed, while someone else teased, "The Silver City's demon hunting squad has joined in. Yuan Shuo might have also joined in!"

"Hehe!"

"Demon-hunting squad?"

"Is it that stupid Liu Long? I know him! A hundred martial masters who had offended the night patrolman! Back then, the night patrolman saw that he was not weak and hoped that he could advance to become a super and become the next sunlight genius! In the end, not only did he fail, but he also boasted that martial masters were not necessarily inferior to superhumans, and that Liu Long could still guard a region if he stayed in the Silver City ... He was a laughingstock!"

"It's funny. I heard that they've been hunting supers in secret for the past few years. They killed a few moon nether and were just some idle supers. Otherwise, they would have been killed long ago!"

"Everyone, although the Silver City is small, we can't be careless! The Silver City is small, and the night patrolmen don't even come here, but that doesn't mean that there are no threats. In this small silver City, there are a few martial masters who are over a hundred ... We still have to pay more attention to them!"

Over a hundred martial masters!

One of the ghost faces laughed."Then we'd better be more careful of hot weapons. If a hundred martial masters dare to appear, they'll all die!" This is the last of the eight lineages, and also the last time we'll be carrying out a mission in Silver City! Everyone, after this, this place ... We may never come back here again in our lifetime!"

"Understood!"

"Don't worry. The silver Blizzard city is prepared, and even the night patrol is here ... So what? We know them, but they don't know of our existence!"

"Let's end this as soon as possible. Get rid of the Li family members as quickly as possible and take the Li family's sword. Then, the plan to gather all eight branches will be completed!"

"Where's the Zhang family's saber?"

"It's fine. Now that the Li family's sword is in our hands, the Zhang family's saber will be less important. It's not impossible to find something else to replace it. The Zhang family's saber hasn't appeared yet, so it might have been lost!"

"Understood!"

"....."

After a few replies, the Red Shadows disappeared into the darkness.

The ghostly faces also disappeared.

Just as Li Hao had guessed, the red shadow ... Wasn't just one person!

Chapter 112: Warm-hearted patrol officer (1)

16th of July.

The weather was hot and stuffy.

It was very stuffy, making people feel a little breathless. Those who understood knew that this was a sign of a storm coming.

In the morning.

Li Hao leisurely rode his bike toward the inspection Office with one hand on the horse, the other eating a bun, and the other holding the handle.

It was a peaceful night.

He didn't see the red shadow, the demon hunting squad didn't look for him, the teacher didn't contact him, and Wang Ming didn't harass him ...

Even Heibao was very obedient last night and didn't make a sound.

Last night was a rare good night.

Beside the bicycle, small cars whizzed past.

Silver 7219.

It was a familiar car plate number.

Li Hao ate his bun and casually glanced at the food. He had the vigor and smile of a young man.

He remembered that a few days ago, when the self-immolation case had been reported, this car had followed him.

He hadn't seen it for a few days, and he didn't expect to see this car again.

"Is it getting more and more urgent?"

They were even monitoring him during the day, were they afraid that he would run away?

Li Hao made a guess. If he suddenly ran away ... Would it be fun?

Of course, if he ran now, it would be even more dangerous. He would disrupt some of Liu Long's plans and would not be able to buy more time for his teacher.

Yes, time.

At this moment, Li Hao hoped to delay it.

Even if his teacher had entered the warrior dimension, it would still take time for him to absorb the saber energy. The impact of the saber energy was too strong, and even his teacher might not be able to absorb too much at once.

If he wanted to become stronger, he would need time.

“Look at the flowers blooming and withering, making one feel tender and loving ...”

Riding his bicycle and singing a song, Li Hao seemed to be in a good mood today.

In the car.

It was still a man and a woman. The car sped by, and the car window was down. Both of them heard Li Hao's singing.

It was very unpleasant to hear!

After leaving Li Hao, the car continued to move.

The woman in the passenger seat suddenly laughed. “Sometimes, people are really pitiful!”

He was talking about Li Hao.

He didn't know that he was going to die, and that his death might be very miserable.

At this moment, he was still singing a song. It was really sad.

The middle-aged man who was driving also smiled faintly. “That's normal. This is the sorrow of ordinary people!”

The car slowly came to a stop.

It seemed to be under repair.

The man got out of the car, and so did the woman. The car was parked by the side of the road, waiting for Li Hao.

The higher-ups had given him a strict order to keep an eye on Li Hao for the next two days. Of course, Li Hao could just wait outside after entering the inspector's office. The inspector's office had its own arrangements.

After a while.

The bicycle passed by.

Li Hao was still humming a tune when the tune was suddenly cut off. Li Hao stopped the car and looked at the small car parked by the roadside with an honest smile.

"Do you two need any help?"

Li Hao was very enthusiastic!

"If there's a problem, look for the patrol officer!"

Li Hao smiled. "I'm the third rank patrol officer of the Patrol Division, Li Hao. I noticed that your car is broken. Do you need my help?"

The two of them looked at each other in surprise.

He was really ... Passionate!

There were also some who didn't know whether to laugh or cry. What silly children.

Do you know who we are?

The man glanced at Li Hao, smiled, and said softly, "Thank you, but there's no need for that. We can fix it ourselves!"

"You really don't need to?"

Li Hao stopped his bicycle and put it aside. He walked to the two of them, looked down at the bicycle, and asked, "Which part is broken? I've repaired cars before, and the chief patrol officer of the inspection Office is always helpful. Of course, if I can help you two repair your cars, it'd be best if you two can send a silk banner to the inspection Office ... Hahaha, I'm just joking, it's fine if you don't send it!"

Li Hao looked embarrassed, as if he wanted it but was too embarrassed to say it.

I just want a silk banner!

The woman was amused. This guy in front of her who didn't look like he had even grown all his hair could be really childish sometimes.

A silk banner?

“Chief patrol officer, you know how to repair cars?” the woman laughed.

Li Hao smiled and couldn't help feeling proud. “I will! Bosses, since I can afford to drive, I don't mind ordering a silk banner ... Ahem, I'm considered a new member of the inspection Division. Bosses, you should know that a new member needs a chance to show off ... Because I'm about to be promoted to the second level inspection! I need some honor ... What do you think?”

The two of them were really surprised and speechless!

This guy was in a hurry to help them repair their car and even took the initiative to ask for a silk banner because he might be promoted!

This, the two of them really knew.

It was said that Li Hao was going to be transferred to the law-enforcement team. In that case, he would indeed have a great chance of being promoted.

But now, the kid in front of him was about to lose his life. Did he really not know what was going on?

Was there any use in getting promoted at this time?

Even if you do, you won't be able to enjoy it!

The man smiled gently. “Then I'll have to trouble patrol officer li. If you can fix the car, the pennant will be a must.”

He now had a very mysterious feeling.

If the person being followed took the initiative to strike up a conversation and offer help, perhaps ... It would be easier to complete the mission.

It was very interesting!

As far as he knew, Li Hao didn't have any friends or family. He was a very reclusive person, and the higher-ups didn't know much about Li Hao.

If he had more contact with this guy, would he be able to provide better information to the higher ups?

Moreover, the chief patrol officer was so friendly and it was weird for you to keep rejecting him.

And Li Hao was not going to be polite.

He opened the hood of the car and stuck his head in to take a look. He then touched the engine. After a while, he walked around the car and observed it. He asked curiously, "It can't be activated? Is the engine overheating ..."

Chapter 113: Chapter 31-warm-hearted patrol officer (2)

"I'll try again," the man said with a smile. "The engine just turned off, and I couldn't start it a few times."

"Alright, I've checked it and it doesn't seem to be a big problem. The car is still new ..."

After exchanging a few words, the man got into the car and started the engine.

This time, the car was successfully ignited.

There had never been a problem. They had stopped here only to better follow Li Hao.

The woman's face was also filled with joy at this time. She hurriedly said, "Chief patrol officer, many thanks!"

"Don't, I feel like I didn't do anything ... It's a pity that the pennant flew away, but it's good that the two of you are safe. It's also the responsibility of the inspector's office to solve the public's problems!"

Li Hao smiled honestly!

The two of them seemed to be infected by his smile. The man got out of the car and said with a serious face, "You can't say that. Patrol officer Li is always helping others. We just arrived in the Silver City not long ago. It's fate that we got to know patrol officer Li ... How about this? let's go and make a silk banner now and send it to the inspection Office later!"

"Don't!"

Li Hao hurriedly waved his hands. "Really, don't do this!"

She felt a little embarrassed and whispered, "That ... If that doesn't work, I'll pay for the banner! I don't have many friends, otherwise I would have ... Cough, cough, you know, the chief patrol officer is also a person, it's an honor to have an extra banner. If you two don't mind, I can pay for it!"

The two of them were really amused.

So cute!

He was really pure and kind!

For the sake of a silk banner, he was embarrassed, but he couldn't resist?

"Don't worry," the man laughed, "let's not talk about money, chief patrol officer Li. How much is a silk banner?" Wouldn't that be like slapping my face?"

"Then ... I won't be polite?"

Li Hao seemed to be very happy, and his smile was extremely bright. He looked at the time and said, "No, I'm going to be late! If I'm not here, go to the law enforcement team to find me. I'm about to be transferred to the law enforcement team ... In the future, I'll be on duty outside more often. It's good to be friends. Thank you!"

Li Hao hurriedly jumped on his bicycle, waved at the two of them, and quickly rode away.

After he left, the woman sighed. "I have to say, this kind of person is actually very interesting and very cute. He has a child's heart and a sincere heart ... Unfortunately, you and I can no longer go back to the past!"

The man also nodded slightly.

He was infected by Li Hao's smile.

Young people were indeed different.

Taking the initiative to help others, not everyone in the inspection Office was like this.

"Are we really going to deliver the pennant?" the woman asked again.

"Of course!"

The man laughed slyly, "Why not? There's no problem with our identities, so it's good for us to go in and have a look. It's a rare opportunity to go to the inspector's office openly!"

"With this opportunity, will anyone feel that it's inappropriate for us to frequently appear near the inspection Office?" We can say that we're going to find Li Hao and treat him to a meal or something ... To thank him for his help. Who would care about us?"

The woman thought about it and nodded.

That's a good excuse!

This was really like giving a pillow when one was drowsy. He had been wondering if he would be discovered or suspected if he had been following Li Hao.

Now ... It was actually a little safer!

At the inspection Office.

“Lalalala, wuwuwu, today is a good day ...”

Xiao Ge started singing happily, waiting for the fish to take the bait.

He didn't go to the interrogation room, but went straight to the law enforcement team.

Liu Yan's office.

When Liu Yan heard the footsteps outside the door and the gradually quieted down singing, she was a little surprised. Why was this kid so happy today?

Thump thump thump!

The door was pushed open.

Li Hao was all smiles. “Sister Liu, you're here so early?”

“En!”

Liu Yan leaned back in her chair, her long legs still resting on the table, looking extremely arrogant.

“You seem to be in a good mood today,” he said, feeling a little strange.

“Yeah!”

Li Hao smiled and said, “sister, I was thinking, am I a newbie noob?” I've never killed a chicken before, so I'm scared of blood. My legs are weak, and I'm afraid I'll be scared to death when I see a big scene later. So I've decided to train my courage!”

What the hell?

Liu Yan was puzzled. Where could she find a place for him to train his courage?

There wasn't enough time!

Li Hao seemed to know what she was thinking. He laughed and said, "No need to trouble boss and sister Liu, I found the target myself! Two martial masters ... Or one Martial Master and one ordinary person!"

Li Hao chuckled. "I'm looking for you to ask you to provide me with a venue. Also, I want you to give me some support. I'm a good student, and I've never fought before. I'm afraid of seeing blood. I'll be scared silly!"

"....."

Liu Yan was a little stunned. She glanced at Li Hao. Today was really a little strange. "You ... Found a target yourself?" Li Hao, are you going to be bad?"

This guy, did he really take my words seriously when I said that I'm a superhuman and I can break the law?

Liu Yan's face turned cold!

She had just said that, and her words were filled with ridicule. Did this kid not understand?

Find someone to be a target ... And see blood!

Would a good person say such things?

Liu Yan had never thought of herself as a good person, but she knew that she should not give what she did not want to others!

She had suffered the pain of being bullied and had no way to seek justice!

Chapter 114: The warm-hearted patrol officer (3)

And Li Hao seemed to be becoming such a person.

All of a sudden, his favorability fell to the negative, and he even felt some disgust!

Li Hao's face was innocent, and his smile was bright. "Sis, the two bad guys following me are probably small characters controlled by the mastermind behind the self-immolation case! It was almost there. If he was not sure, he could try! In any case, there are no good people following me except for our team!"

Li Hao laughed happily, "didn't I just enter the ten decapitation realm? It's so boring to hit wooden targets every day, and they're not useful in actual combat. I was thinking, I'll get them to come over to my place and practice!"

“Catch people?”

Liu Yan raised her brows slightly. “Capturing someone at this time ... Isn’t it inappropriate to alert the enemy?” she asked.

Li Hao laughed, “no!” They will do it themselves! Also, sis, do you think we’re beating the grass and alerting the snake? I’m afraid that the other party already knows that we’re in the same group. It’s actually public now, but no one says it out loud!”

“That’s why they won’t care even if someone is caught or killed!”

Li Hao understood that the red shadow had known about Liu Long’s group’s existence for a long time. Why would he hide it?

He didn’t hide anything!

Apart from Yuan Shuo, the red shadow didn’t know, but Li Hao felt that Liu Long’s background had long been known.

Was there a problem with capturing two nobodies at this moment?

The other party would not care at all!

However, I’ll satisfy my craving first and practice my skills at the same time.

Liu Yan didn’t pay much attention to the latter part of his sentence. Instead, she was a little surprised. “Do it yourself?”

Do you think other people are idiots?

It’s fine if I’m following you, but you’re here by yourself?

Do you think I’m a fool?

Li Hao laughed, “really!” Those two guys are so enthusiastic. They said that they would be my target and even give me a banner ...”

Motherf * cker!

Li Hao, this little fellow, was getting more and more out of line!

Liu Yan was speechless.

Do you take me for a fool, or do you take others for fools?

'I'm going to be your target, and then I'm going to give you a silk banner ... If you just say it directly, wouldn't it be better if the other party gave you his head?'

"Get out!"

Liu Yan was a little impatient. The little guy was still very normal two days ago. Why did he suddenly lose his mind today? was he under too much pressure?

"It's true ..."

"If you don't get lost, I'll give you a grenade!"

Li Hao felt helpless. Really!

Why wouldn't he believe it?

At that moment, the office phone rang.

Liu Yan picked it up. It was a call from the front hall.

As soon as the call went through, he heard the patrol officer at the lobby Report, "Captain Liu, there are two people outside. They said they are here to give Li Hao a banner! The security room said that he's in our law enforcement team. I asked around and heard that Li Hao went to your place. Is it convenient for you to let Li Hao come down for a while?"

Liu Yan was speechless.

Liu Yan looked at Li Hao in a daze. What was going on?

She hung up the phone, looked at Li Hao, and frowned. "Are you sure that the person who came to deliver the pennant was the one who followed you?"

"I'm 100% sure!"

Li Hao hurriedly nodded and said with a smile, "They came really quickly, just a little later than me. The efficiency of this pennant ... Tsk tsk, it's really amazing!"

Li Hao was also happy. "Sister, I'll go down for a while. Where do you think is the most suitable place to interrogate them?" he asked. I'll bring them over. "

"....."

Liu Yan was a little stunned.

'Good fellow, you ... You're really asking people to come to your door and stick out their heads for you to chop off?'

At this moment, she felt that the person who had been following Li Hao must have had a mental problem. Otherwise, why would he have come to Li Hao's door to be a target?

Feeling a little strange, Liu Yan stood up. "I'll go with you ..."

"Don't!"

"Sister, just find a place!" Li Hao shook his head.

"Then ... You can take it to the basement!"

"You really don't need me to go with you?" Liu Yan was speechless.

"There's no need to go through so much trouble, they can just come in by themselves!"

Li Hao laughed. "Sister, you have to hold the line for me later. I'm really a little scared. This is my first time doing something like this. You know, I used to be a good student. After I became an inspector, I also worked as a civilian staff in the mechanisms room. This kind of bloody thing ... I'm really afraid that I'll vomit and my legs will go weak!"

It was a little exaggerated, but it was the truth.

Seeing blood for the first time wasn't the usual kind of seeing blood, but hurting and killing someone. In this case, it was common to have weak legs, guilty conscience, fear, and terror, unless one was born evil and had the tendency to kill.

And Li Hao indeed wanted to find a chance to practice before he encountered the red shadow.

He was afraid!

He was afraid that if he really saw a great battle, he would be afraid, his legs would go soft, and he would shiver.

This was human nature!

He didn't think that he had a huge heart that could be indifferent when he saw a dead person.

When little Yuan died that day, he was already afraid and terrified. At that moment, he couldn't even move his legs. His legs were so weak that he didn't even have the strength to scream.

Therefore, when he passed by the two people this time, he suddenly had an idea.

“Perhaps ... I should train my cowardice.

Liu Yan’s impression of Li Hao was somewhat renewed. In her impression, Li Hao was a shy little boy with some talent, but he was just a noob who knew nothing and didn’t know anything.

In fact, she also felt that Li Hao would be a burden on the real battlefield. Whether he could survive ... Was really hard to say.

But at this moment, it was a little upended.

Li Hao, he found a target for himself to practice on and said he wanted to train his courage ... Was this still the Li Hao she knew?

She had investigated everything about Li Hao. This guy was an honest and kind person in the confidential room. He went to work early and late, cleaned the place, and served tea. He was very well-behaved.

Chapter 115: Chapter 31-warm-hearted patrol officer (4)

But now, what was he saying?

Unexpected!

He was even a little shocked. Could this guy have been invaded by supers?

“Li Hao ...”

“Sis, I’ll go down first. Can you wait for me in the basement?”

“.....”

Liu Yan wanted to say something but gave up in the end. She nodded.”Be careful!”

“Don’t worry, this is the inspection Office!”

Li Hao laughed. After entering the inspection Office, would two nobodies still have the guts to do anything?

If he had the guts, he wouldn’t be a nobody following him!

Downstairs.

The man and woman had really brought a silk banner.

It was the first time that the two of them had entered the building of the law enforcement team. At this moment, they were looking around, and it didn't seem strange at all. This place wasn't open to ordinary people, but this time, they entered openly under Li Hao's influence.

The receptionist didn't care whether they were here to deliver the pennant to Li Hao or not ... The law-enforcement team wasn't familiar with Li Hao. When they heard that he might be transferred here, and that he was someone from the secrets room, everyone was just a little confused. What good deed had Li Hao done to have someone deliver the pennant?

"Big Brothers and Big Sisters!"

At this moment, Li Hao came downstairs, his face full of excitement."The two of you really came. It's just a small matter. I thought you two were joking!"

"Patrol inspector li!"

The man stood up with a smile and greeted,"I'm not joking. Patrol li loves to help people. He saves them when they're in danger. This morning, my wife and I almost got into a car accident. It was all thanks to patrol Li's help ..."

He had lifted Li Hao's leg!

Didn't young people like this?

"Hahaha ... Big brother is too polite!"

Li Hao was also a sweet talker. He chuckled and said,"You two, don't talk here anymore. You're making me embarrassed. I haven't been officially transferred yet! The two of you, come with me and have a cup of tea. The silk pennant ... I'll take the silk pennant, I won't be polite with you two! But since you're here, you must have a cup of tea before leaving!"

The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

How polite!

How passionate!

Since he was already here, it would be good to experience it.

The two of them nodded and followed Li Hao. Li Hao led them to the end of the corridor on the first floor. As he walked, he said, "I'm a newbie, and there are many old people here. If I'm seen, everyone will be a little ... You know what I mean! Let's go to the basement, there's not many people there. Let's have a cup of tea, it's all thanks to your help this time!"

Li Hao led them up the stairs, his smile never stopping.

"I forgot to ask, what is big brother's name?"

"Don't worry about it, my name is Zhou He, my wife's surname is Yuan. "

"Big brother Zhou, big sister Yuan!"

Li Hao's mouth was also super sweet!

The distance between them was shortened in an instant.

Very quickly, he brought the two of them to the first underground floor. The demon hunting squad's headquarters was right in front. The underground room didn't seem gloomy, but instead, it was very well lit.

"It's just in front. There aren't many people here. Brother Zhou and sister Yuan are obviously big bosses in business. If you need anything in the future, just let me know ... I love helping people solve their problems!"

Zhou He kept smiling. What an honest child.

The woman chimed in with Li Hao. It was rare to see such an enthusiastic chief patrol officer.

What a pity!

The next moment, Li Hao pushed open the door, and the two of them followed him into the basement, where Demon Hunter squads usually rested.

Li Hao warmly invited the two of them in and then closed the door to the basement.

This door ... Was really not ordinary!

The sound-proofing was top-notch, and the protection was top-notch. Not to mention people, even a bomb would find it difficult to blow through.

Once the door was closed, it was locked with a password and fingerprint. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to get out.

Seeing Li Hao close the door, Zhou He vaguely felt that something was wrong. Li Hao smiled as he closed the door.””Lock him up, in case others come in and think that I’m slacking off!”

Zhou He didn’t speak again.

The next moment, Zhou He’s expression changed. He looked at the decoration in the room and his eyes changed slightly.

This wasn’t a guest room, nor was it a lounge.

This place seemed to be ... A large gathering place!

Fitness equipment, guns, and ammunition. It seemed to have everything. It was more like ... An Arsenal!

Where was this place?

At this moment, Zhou He felt a little uneasy. Is this a place that an outsider like me can come to?

The woman beside him also changed her expression.

Because they saw the guns and even a small cannon.

Is this a place that ordinary people can come to?

The two of them instantly felt a strong sense of uneasiness and apprehension. They had only come to get closer to Li Hao, so why had they come here?

Li Hao had already closed the door.

I’m so happy!

These two were very cooperative and didn’t resist at all. It was comfortable.

This feeling of inviting someone into the trap was really comfortable.

Taking advantage of Zhou He’s daze, Li Hao patted Zhou He’s shoulder from behind and said with a smile,””Big brother Zhou, there’s no one here. It’s quiet ...”

The next moment, he bent his knees.

A knee strike!

Bang! Bang!

With a crisp sound, Zhou He tried his best to twist his body to avoid his vital parts, but he was still hit in the back by Li Hao's knee. Intense pain instantly spread throughout his body!

Oh no!

At this moment, Zhou He only had one thought. I was fooled!

And he had come to her on his own initiative!

The woman's expression changed drastically. Without saying anything, she suddenly pulled out a dagger from her leg and stabbed it at Li Hao!

In the depths of the basement, a few people were watching silently.

Liu Long was also there!

His eyes were a little complicated and strange.

What a good 'close the door to beat the dog, invite the gentleman into the jar'!

This ... Was really ... A little unbelievable.

Was Li Hao really a coward?

I think he's extremely daring!

Is this something a normal person would dare to do?

"This kid, if he survives this time ... In the future ... He'll also be a ruthless person!"

Wu Chao, who was thin and weak, also sighed with emotion.

The chubby Chen Jian's silly smile was a little restrained. This kid ... Bad!

Yun Yao and Liu Yan didn't say anything today and just watched silently.

After a long time, Liu Long said softly, "they've really met their match ... One is in the tenth realm, and the other is a martial arts practitioner even though he hasn't entered the tenth realm!" It looks like that side really isn't weak. It's just two stalkers, but they actually have ten decapitation realm existences!"

The tenth realm didn't sound like much, but Liu Long knew that in the entire Silver City, there were less than a hundred martial masters and Starlight Masters in the tenth realm!

One in ten thousand!

And now, there was one here, just a stalker.

This was Li Hao's first actual battle. Could he deal with these two?

Even if these two people had been tricked by him, it was obvious that they were not newbies. They were both old foxes.

At this moment, the members of the five demon hunting squads were all watching the battle.

On the field.

Having gained the upper hand, Li Hao didn't say anything and continued to attack!

Tiger pounce!

His hands were clawed, and he showed no mercy. This was not a spar. Li Hao treated this as his coming of age ceremony, as a congratulatory gift and advancement gift for someone who had reached the tenth level!

The red shadow wanted to kill me...Then I can't just lie down and wait to be killed!

I'll kill the two on your side first. Even if they're nobodies, I'll make you suffer a loss!

Puchi!

He grabbed Zhou He's arms with both hands and pulled out a large piece of flesh. Blood spurted out, but Li Hao was grimacing. At this moment, the blood in his spleen exploded. He seemed very excited, but ... He was not afraid!

I'm afraid of you?

The red shadow was in front of me, and you, uncle li, dared to be ruthless. Besides, you are also human!

"Roar!"

In the forest, the basement turned into a battlefield, where Li Hao fought for the first time.

Chapter 116: Chapter 32: victory in the first battle (1)

With a roar, it could take away one's soul!

Zhou He's eardrums shook and he felt that his eardrums were pierced. He was already at a disadvantage because he wasn't prepared.

At this moment, Li Hao leaped into the air!

In battle, one feared the sky the most.

This was what Chen Jian told Li Hao on the first day.

However, Li Hao, who practiced the ape art, always liked to fly in the air.

It was also because of the lesson he had learned on the first day that Li Hao borrowed the strength of each other's legs in the air and instantly rose to the height of the ceiling. The next moment, his legs kicked and spun down!

BOOM!

With a loud sound, Zhou He was kicked away.

Li Hao didn't have the time to chase him. He heard an ear-piercing sound.

A dagger was instantly thrust towards his temple!

Li Hao grabbed the woman's wrist with his backhand. A sharp force burst out from his fingers and pierced her wrist. She screamed in pain.

Li Hao's right hand instantly grabbed the dagger that had fallen to the ground. Without a word, he took the dagger and stabbed the dagger at the woman's wrist with his right hand.

Bang!

When the metal entered the bone, it was not silent, but a loud sound. The bones of the human body were very strong, and this dagger was not an ordinary weapon. With one stab, it directly pierced through the bone of the hand!

"Ah!"

The woman's shrill and ear-piercing screams of pain could be heard.

Li Hao seemed to have gone deaf. He grabbed the woman's neck with his left hand and pushed her against the wall.

BOOM!

With another loud sound, the woman's bones broke. Li Hao pulled out his dagger and stabbed it into her palm, pinning her right hand to the wall.

"Li Hao!"

Behind them, Zhou He flew through the air and vomited blood when he landed. He let out a shrill roar when he saw the woman being pinned to the wall by Li Hao!

He was too ruthless!

This was completely different from the information he had collected.

Kind, honest, simple, sentimental, shy ...

This was a description of Li Hao from the information he had collected. He had obtained this from many people, and it wasn't a wild guess. Some of Li Hao's classmates had inadvertently said it, some of his neighbors had gossiped about him in the neighborhood, and some of his colleagues in the inspection Office had evaluated him.

However, no one had ever said that Li Hao was a vicious person!

"Tsk tsk!"

Liu Yan was also speechless at this moment. A dog that bites doesn't bark!

Li Hao's attack made even an experienced assassin like her feel that it was somewhat vicious. Although the woman opposite him was a little older, she was still a woman. In the end, Li Hao broke her wrist. But that wasn't enough. He was afraid that she would escape, so he nailed her palm to the wall!

Was this a newbie who was fighting for the first time?

He was even more vicious than many old people!

The few members of the demon hunting team had gone all out when they attacked supers, but if they really encountered a woman who had not even entered the ten slashing realms, just Chen Jian and Wu Chao, they might not be able to be so ruthless.

As for Liu Long and the others, they didn't say a word and continued to watch the battle.

This was Li Hao's first actual battle ... Perhaps?

At this moment, Liu Long and the others were all confused. Was that true?

Was this really the first time this kid had seen blood?

Damn it, he was so ruthless. Martial masters rarely used weapons. Even if they did, they would use their own. Li Hao, on the other hand, grabbed his opponent's dagger and stabbed him without hesitation!

After all, a dagger was sharper than a hand or a foot. With one slash, the woman's palm was crippled.

His wrist was also broken. Even if he didn't die in the later stage, his hand would be completely crippled.

The woman was not a ten decapitation realm expert. When she encountered an unreasonable ten decapitation realm expert like Li Hao ... She would be crushed in terms of pure strength.

Not to mention the thoughts of the spectators.

Li Hao didn't really care about all this. He only remembered one thing. "If you start fighting, then no matter what, right or wrong, you have to remember one thing ... You're the only one standing here!"

This was what Yuan Shuo had taught him.

This was what Yuan Shuo had said when he taught him the five birds technique.

People who practiced martial arts either didn't make a move, or killed when they made a move.

Don't say anything more. No matter if you're right or wrong, fight first. Defeat all the enemies so that they can't fight back. If you don't kill the other party, then we can talk about who's right and who's wrong.

Otherwise, if he held back against the enemy, he would be asking for too much.

Therefore, Li Hao didn't feel that there was anything wrong with it.

After nailing the woman to the wall, Li Hao climbed up like a monkey. Using both his hands and feet, he landed on the ground and climbed up in the blink of an eye. He instantly rushed in front of Zhou He.

Zhou He was also at the tenth realm!

In terms of strength, he might be a bit stronger than Li Hao. However, his arm was badly mangled by Li Hao, and his kidney might have been shattered by Li Hao's sneak attack, so his strength had dropped a lot.

Zhou He was terrified when he saw Li Hao quickly climbing over.

He knew that he couldn't get out of here, even if he won against Li Hao.

"No, I have information to tell you ..." He immediately shouted in fear.

Bang! Bang!

Without any hesitation, without any hesitation.

Li Hao's claw struck out with the Black Tiger Steals Heart!

Zhou He was flustered and could only block in a panic. He protected his chest with his arms. Just as he extended his arms, Li Hao grabbed at him like a fierce tiger pouncing on its prey. He spread his five claws and ruthlessly clawed down!

Pfft!

His flesh and blood were torn apart again!

Zhou He's head was covered in cold sweat. It was painful!

When he retaliated, he was a little hesitant.

Li Hao, on the other hand, surrounded him and attacked him crazily!

Chapter 117: Chapter 32: victory in the first battle (2)

"Li Hao ... Your death is near ... I have extremely important information to tell you ..."

"Roar!"

Another tiger's roar resounded through the forest!

He was bleeding from his seven apertures!

Zhou He took a deep breath and his movements stopped.

Li Hao felt that he was very stupid.

His teacher had said that a martial artist had to train one breath!

This breath was in a spurt of energy, in the integration of Qigong!

This Qigong was about the coordination of breathing and external techniques. While Zhou He was fighting, he was still talking. He was not a strong person, just a ten slash realm. His internal and external techniques were not good enough and could be easily interrupted by others!

This was the advantage of being a top teacher!

The experience passed down by a douqian Martial Master, and Zhou He, at most, had a teacher who was over 100. Maybe he wasn't even over 100, and maybe his teacher was only at the tenth realm.

His martial Dao had declined!

Li Hao's roar was just right. It cut off the other party's breath, causing Zhou He to hold his breath. He immediately suffered internal injuries and his limbs were not coordinated.

Taking this opportunity, Li Hao suddenly extended his arms.

He hugged Zhou He!

Kill!

Creak!

The sound of the bone armor being crushed and shattered instantly rang out.

Li Hao guarded against the other party's legs and stomped down fiercely. Zhou He's right leather shoe was smashed into pieces, and his flesh was badly mangled. The White bones of his foot pierced through his flesh. Zhou He roared madly in pain!

"Hu!"

Five breaths!

In the depths of the basement, the five of them were all breathing.

Chen Jian looked at Liu Long and then at Liu Yan. He was a little nervous and said in a low voice, "He ... He was just pretending to be ignorant when he sparred with us, right?"

Was this the first actual combat?

Go to hell!

This kid was really ruthless and cunning. He first crippled the woman, then dealt with Zhou He. Zhou He and he were both in the ten decapitation realm, but in the end, he didn't cause much of a stir in the hands of a newcomer like Li Hao!

In this situation ... It could be said that there was almost no chance of turning the tables!

However, Liu Long didn't care about this. Instead, he said with a serious expression, "The five birds technique ... Has so many killing techniques?"

Yes, it was.

Li Hao's five birds technique, whether it was the ape technique or other five birds techniques, was deadly when used!

Heart gouging, tearing claw, killing hug, Tiger fist ...

In any case, the five birds technique he saw on Li Hao's side was different from the others. Every move and form was extremely ruthless!

Usually, he couldn't tell, or rather, Li Hao usually couldn't really do anything.

Yuan Shuo's five birds technique had been modified again?

The killing intent was too strong!

All these years, Yuan Shuo had changed the new book of five birds, and everyone thought that he had cultivated his body and temperament. Usually, his moves were slow. But now, Liu Long, a Martial Master who had broken through 100 martial masters, saw it ... And his moves were really fatal!

It focused on the enemy's vital points!

The heart, throat, eyes, lower Yin, spleen, waist, and kidney were Li Hao's main attacks.

Piercing eyes, scratching throats, and gouging crotches-Li Hao had no qualms about anything!

The more Liu Long looked, the more shocked he became.

In essence, a Martial master's main focus was not to kill. Strengthening the body was also a part of a Martial master's pursuit. In addition, with the rise of modern firearms, many of the killing moves of a Martial Master had changed.

Li Hao's five birds technique ... Felt like it had returned to its original state!

Liu Yan was also an expert who was about to break through 100. At this moment, she frowned slightly. "Five birds technique ... It's the instinctive hunting method of five beasts. Between beasts, it's often a battle to the death! When hunting, if you can't kill your prey, you'll starve to death! It was extremely brutal! It sounds like child's play, but in reality, it's an extremely brutal martial art. It's just that the ones we usually see ... Seem to be the abridged version!"

At this moment, Li Hao seemed to have returned to the beginning.

Of course, because he was a newbie, he missed many opportunities. If it was Liu Long, he might have already broken Zhou He's throat.

However, Li Hao's legacy came from a top-notch Martial Master. Zhou He really couldn't compare to him!

Just as they were discussing, Li Hao raised his shoulder!

He first flung Zhou He away with both hands and then pulled him back a little. At this time, he let go and hit Zhou He's chest with his shoulder. Crack!

Countless ribs in his chest were broken at this moment.

Bang! Bang!

Zhou He landed heavily on the ground and blood flowed out of his mouth. He was breathing more heavily than he was breathing. His internal organs might have been injured and his eyes were listless!

But Li Hao didn't relax.

He took a glance and quickly retreated.

The next moment, he turned around and ran.

Halfway through, he leaped into the air and did a beautiful spin in the air. His right leg lashed out fiercely!

The woman, who had just removed her almost-crippled right hand from the wall, didn't have time to Dodge. Li Hao's whip-like leg hit her neck with a creak!

The sound of bones cracking was heard first!

The next moment, the sound of the woman being sent flying and smashing into the ground could be heard. Fresh blood instantly dyed the ground red.

At this moment, the battle ended in less than three minutes.

The two of them fell to the ground, blood splattering everywhere.

Li Hao, on the other hand, was panting heavily. He adjusted his breathing, half-knelt on the ground, and vigilantly looked at the two people on the ground.

Seeing that the two couldn't get up, Li Hao seemed to have woken up. He looked at the blood on the ground ... And then at the people who walked out of the corner. His face suddenly turned pale.

It was as if he had just felt a lingering fear. With a face full of lingering fear, he said, "I was scared to death. These two people are so powerful and cruel. This woman almost stabbed my temple with a knife!"

Chapter 118: Chapter 32: victory in the first battle (3)

Translator: 549690339

"....."

Liu Long looked at him without saying anything.

Liu Yan felt a little strange and forced out a stiff smile. "Little Hao, are you serious?"

Are you pretending?

Li Hao looked at her blankly. Of course she was serious!

It was too terrifying!

Actual combat was really too dangerous. The opponent would directly stab someone with a knife. If he was not careful, wouldn't he be stabbed to death?

Looking at him ...

Everyone was dumbfounded!

Li Hao seemed to be serious.

But, look at the scene?

Two people were beaten by you until they bled all over the ground. Zhou He's ribs were broken countless times, his feet were crushed, his waist was broken, and the bones in his arms were pulled out by Li Hao!

The woman was also in an extremely miserable state. Her neck had probably been broken, her palm was crippled, and a pile of bones in her body had been broken ...

In the end, you said you were scared!

Are you even human?

Liu Long didn't say anything, nor did he care whether Li Hao was pretending or not. Instead, he said in a deep voice, "Is this your first time in actual combat?"

"Yup!"

Li Hao nodded like a chicken eating rice. Panting, he said, "Actual combat is too scary. I used to be a martial arts enthusiast. Although I learned the five birds technique, it was all for the sake of training my body. I didn't expect that actual combat would be so dangerous!"

A martial arts aficionado ... This was his first actual combat experience!

"Then, when you did it, you didn't hesitate at all?" Liu Long's gaze was a little strange.

Li Hao's decisiveness didn't seem like it was his first actual battle!

He was too iron-blooded!

This was a quality that only old martial masters could possess, and it was a choice that only old martial masters who had experienced life and death would make. There was no need to hesitate, and he had to defeat his opponent first!

"Hesitating?"

Li Hao thought for a moment and shook his head. He really didn't have any.

He explained, "because I know they are enemies, so I will not sympathize with them! Besides, when my teacher taught me martial arts, he said that if I really fight with someone one day, I should put them down first! The more powerful the opponent, the more ruthless he had to be! Otherwise, I'll be the one in trouble!"

Alright!

Liu Long didn't expect Li Hao to be so obedient.

Yuan Shuo said this because his opponents were all powerhouses, enemies that he had to kill to the death.

Li Hao, on the other hand ...

Of course, it might be a good thing now.

The result of this little guy, who he had regarded as a noob, was unexpectedly good.

A ten decapitation realm expert and a Martial Master close to ten decapitation had joined forces, but they had been caught off guard by Li Hao and ended the battle in three minutes. The two of them were seriously injured and on the verge of death, while Li Hao's fist ... Was broken!

That's right, he was too ruthless. He seemed to have punched Zhou He's exposed bones just now. The skin on his fist was pierced by the bones and was now bleeding.

Apart from that ... There seemed to be nothing else!

This was a battle result created by a newbie who had just entered the ten slash realm!

It could be said that among all the martial masters Liu Long had met, almost no one could do this. Even he, when he first entered the tenth realm, could not do this. In his first actual battle, his opponent was also a tenth realm, and he was almost killed by the enemy!

He didn't kill his opponent, but the other party almost killed him.

"Brother, you're amazing!"

Chen Jian gave him a thumbs up!

He was really impressed!

This fellow looked thin and gentle. Sometimes, he would even feel embarrassed when Liu Yan teased him ... Such a shy little brother had just beaten two martial masters into a pulp in their first real battle!

"It's a good thing that you weren't so brutal when we were sparring earlier!" The skinny Wu Chao said with a look of lingering fear.

This kid, especially his grabbing technique, really grabbed a piece of flesh with each grab!

Chen Jian's defense was strong.

His defense wasn't good, and if Li Hao continued to grab him, he would have lost a few pieces of flesh!

Li Hao was a little shy and embarrassed. He hurriedly explained, "They're the bad guys, we're the righteous! I'm doing justice by attacking bad people! Why would you attack your own people?"

"Justice!"

Liu Long and the others were slightly stunned as they looked at him.

Liu Yan was grinning from ear to ear as she held her chest and laughed.

In front of Li Hao's eyes, however, was nothing but white.

"Sister Liu, your shirt is unbuttoned!" He couldn't help but remind her.

"....."

It instantly became quiet.

Liu Yan immediately stood up and looked at Li Hao in shock. She couldn't help but point at him and curse, "Are you still a man? At this time, you're actually reminding me that I didn't button my shirt?"

Li Hao said innocently.

What's wrong?

Can't I?

Liu Long and the others looked at each other and couldn't help but laugh.

In such a scene, the few of them were laughing out loud!

Even Yunyao found it funny. "Deputy Captain Liu, it seems like ... Not everyone likes your tricks!" She said.

"Tsk, do you have one?"

Although Liu Yan was afraid of Yunyao, she couldn't help but retort, "I'm happy to do so, but do you have what it takes to do so?"

Yunyao instantly quieted down. The way she looked at Liu Yan was a little off. That look ... It was as if she was looking for an opportunity to beat Liu Yan up!

Li Hao, on the other hand, ignored them.

He glanced at the two guys who were still vomiting blood and couldn't help but say, "Should we capture him and ask him? Let's see if there's any information. Sister yunyao, you're a doctor, can you take a look at them? Don't die, or it'll be hard to ask questions!"

"You're really black-hearted!"

Liu Yan scolded jokingly. This guy was still thinking about this at a time like this.

It's really good!

Li Hao laughed drily. He stood up, exhaled, and expressed his feelings again. "Actual combat is really different, so exciting! It's mainly because I'm nervous. I was super nervous just now! I was scared to death, especially the two of them. I was afraid that they would attack me from the front and back ... Boss, how do you usually deal with this kind of situation?"

Chapter 119: Chapter 32: victory in the first battle (4)

Liu Long looked at him and didn't say anything.

Nonsense!

Didn't you already deal with it just now?

He would first cripple one with his full strength, then deal with the other one. Wouldn't that do?

How should he deal with it?

This kid asking this question felt like he was asking for a beating!

Li Hao asked sincerely, "Boss, there's one more thing that my teacher didn't teach me. The damage of the claw technique isn't too strong. My hand was stained with blood, which affected my performance. It's a bloody mess, and the blood is still sticky. Later on, when I fought, my hand slipped a little. What should I do now?"

Like a student asking his teacher, Li Hao asked sincerely, "I don't have time to wipe my hands. Fortunately, I'm not using a weapon. Otherwise, it would be easier for my hands to slip when my weapon is stained with blood. Boss, what do you usually do?"

"....."

The entire place was silent.

This was a ... Special question. It was so special that Liu Long's mind wandered for a moment.

Li Hao disliked the gory claw technique, not because the enemy was in pain or injured, but because it made his hands dirty and slippery. The blood would make him unable to hold his weapon.

Was this considered a doubt in actual combat?

I guess so!

But no one had ever asked this question as naturally as Li Hao did. He didn't feel guilty at all. He really wanted to solve this problem.

Yun Yao couldn't help but ask, Li Hao, don't you ... Feel guilty? "It's not that you're guilty of doing something wrong, but under normal circumstances, even a Martial Master would feel guilty and guilty in their first real battle, especially in such a situation. Don't you feel that way?"

Did this Li Hao have some mental problems?

Or was he Born cold-blooded?

Li Hao thought for a moment and said, "I don't feel guilty, because I knew from the beginning that they were bad people. Bad people who wanted my life!" As for a guilty conscience ... The feeling you're talking about, I do have a little bit of it! But ... This has nothing to do with my question, right?"

Li Hao was also depressed.

He did feel a little weak, but why were all of you looking at me like that?

These few people were all veterans, was there a need to be like this?

Liu Long and the others didn't say anything. They didn't feel that there was anything wrong with it. They just felt that Li Hao was simply born to fight. Perhaps ... He was hiding a bit of a cold-blooded personality.

At this moment, Liu Long no longer thought about this, but seriously explained, "You said that your claw technique will make your hands full of blood. In this case, the first thing is to wipe the enemy clean! Second, if you have the chance, rub it on the ground. It's even better if there's soil! "Third, try to avoid grabbing those main arteries, or you'll be sprayed with blood! Fourth, grab the opponent and pierce through them, then wipe them clean when you pull them back! Fifth, quick, so quick that you'll be done before the blood spurts out!"

The others once again looked at Liu Long with strange expressions.

Good fellow, one dared to ask and one dared to answer!

Liu Long even gave him five solutions in one go.

As for Li Hao, he was also listening attentively. He had always felt that he was too new and inexperienced, and it was necessary for him to learn more from these senior martial masters. For example, the fifth point mentioned by Liu Long was very good.

As fast as possible!

It was so fast that the blood hadn't even spurted out by the time the claw reached out and retracted. That was enough!

If he was extremely fast, then he didn't need to worry about these problems.

Thinking of this, Li Hao's eyes were full of admiration.

Captain was the most experienced!

As for the others ... No wonder they weren't above 100. Why were they looking at him like that? they didn't know how to clear his doubts. It was only right that their Captain was the strongest.

Liu Long didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He didn't say anything else. Li Hao was really a good seedling. In the past, the old Martial Master would only take in this kind of disciple so that he could retire.

The Martial Master was old and could no longer fight. When the enemy came to seek revenge, they needed a ruthless person like Li Hao.

His methods were black, ruthless, and vicious, but he himself felt that there was no problem.

Closed door disciple!

At this moment, Liu Long vaguely understood how Yuan Shuo had managed to teach him. Two years ago, that fellow had taught Li Hao with words and actions, treating him as his last disciple. He had inadvertently revealed many of Yuan Shuo's own ideas.

Li Hao's martial Dao enlightenment had been guided by Yuan Shuo.

Thus, the growth of this fellow was still greatly influenced by Yuan Shuo.

Yuan Shuo, that old man, was also ruthless!

Otherwise, they would not have so many enemies.

“Let’s not talk about this anymore. Let’s interrogate these two guys first ... Yunyao, go stop the bleeding. Don’t let them die. Although they are just two nobodies and might not know much, they might have some unexpected gains!”

Liu Long warned. It was obviously very difficult to interrogate them now. They had to wait for the two to come back to life.

Li Hao, on the other hand, was picking up the pennant on the ground. When the two of them had brought it here, they had thrown it on the ground during the fight.

“Why are you still doing that?” Liu Yan asked.

“Go out and hang it up!”

Li Hao chuckled. “Sister, this is the first time I’ve received a silk banner! It was very memorable! Besides, these two people sent it over openly, so it’s not good if I don’t go out and hang it up. I’ll tell them that they left through the back door later, and I’ll go hang the pennant!”

There was an instant silence!

Yunyao, who was helping to stop the bleeding, saw Zhou He’s eyes widen and he looked like he was about to die. She immediately cursed in her heart. Animal!

Li Hao was an animal!

At this time, he actually wanted to go out and hang a silk banner. If she were this man, she would also be angry to death!

As for Li Hao, he didn’t know what the others were thinking, nor did he care.

He held the pennant happily, and the more he looked at it, the more satisfied he was.

“Willing to help others, big-hearted and loving, Huanhuan

Gifted to patrol inspector Li Hao of the inspection Division. ”

Li Hao read it for a while. The more he read, the more beautiful it became. It was really well-written.

Great love!

“Boss, sis, I’ll send the silk banner back to the confidential room first. I’ll bring it back when I’m transferred here from the confidential room ...”

This was the first time in his life that he had received such a banner. Li Hao was so happy that he couldn’t bear to throw it away.

Take it back to the confidential room first, and then bring it back!

“You guys take your time, I’ll be leaving first!”

After Li Hao finished speaking, he took the pennant, hummed a little song, and left happily. At this time, it was as if a new patrol inspector had received a pennant of praise from the public. That kind of pride and joy!

In the basement, the few of them looked at each other ... They were all speechless.

After a long time, Wu Chao said faintly, “everyone, isn’t this guy ... A little ... Abnormal?”

You have to know who sent you the pennant you took!

And what happened to the person who gave the banner?

Good fellow, you really have the face to bring the pennant back, and you even want to hang it up in a grand manner!

She was speechless, but she also deeply admired Li Hao’s big heart. This ... When you hang it, don’t you think that the red silk banner looks like it’s dyed red with blood?

Liu Long wanted to speak but stopped.

After a long while, he said gloomily, “whatever!”

What else could he say?

He was speechless!

Of course, after today’s battle, Liu Long knew that the others in the team had accepted Li Hao.

He was no longer the bait in everyone’s eyes, a one-time prop, a bystander, and a burden ...

In the past, no matter who it was, including Liu Long, they all felt this way.

But Li Hao's battle just now made everyone suddenly realize that this guy ... Was really not a passerby. If he could survive, he would definitely be more terrifying than Liu Long in the future.

At this moment, the Demon Hunters finally started to consider Li Hao as their teammate.

Li Hao might not understand all this.

Chapter 120: A kind person has good luck (1)

Li Hao entered the critical room with light steps.

He was in a good mood.

When he saw Wang Ming, his mood became even better.

"Little Ming, you're here?"

Wang Ming was in the middle of entering files, and when he heard this special address, he stiffened a little, but he still quickly greeted her. "Brother Hao, you're here. Did you go to the law enforcement team again today?"

"Yes."

As Li Hao said this, he deliberately showed off the banner in his hand.

This was the glory of the new patrol officer!

Even though Li Hao was usually honest and low-key, at this moment, he couldn't help but show off with the silk banner.

Look, someone is giving me a silk banner!

Sure enough, Wang Ming's attention was attracted, and he asked curiously, "A silk banner? Is it for you, brother Hao?"

"Well, it's a small matter. The main thing is that he's too polite. He insisted on giving me a silk banner!"

Li Hao pretended to be unconcerned and then laughed. "Of course, you'll have one sooner or later, little Ming!"

At this moment, the attention of the other people in the VIP room was also attracted. They all looked at Li Hao.

When they saw the silk banner in his hand, they began to gossip and ask what had happened.

Li Hao naturally told them the truth. He didn't do much, but helped someone repair their car.

They were all the truth!

As for what happened after they sent the pennant ... Who would care?

The computer room was bustling with noise and excitement.

Li Hao hung the banner and sat down. He thought of something and asked, "Little Ming, didn't you say that you'd be late today and that your elders would be here?"

When they were eating earlier, this fellow had said that an elder would be visiting today.

"They're here! I was an hour late this morning, and brother Hao wasn't here, so I don't know. "

Li Hao nodded.

It's here!

Was he a powerful night patrolman or a real elder?

Li Hao smiled honestly, "why don't we go and visit him after work?" Let your elders know that we'll take care of you here, and you'll be able to do it smoothly. "

"There's no need for that!"

"That elder of mine doesn't really like to interact with people. He's a little eccentric," Wang Ming refused politely.

He understood!

He was definitely a Night Watcher. Otherwise, he wouldn't have to keep saying that he was his father and his mother.

Li Hao didn't probe further, for it would arouse suspicion if he said too much.

Wang Ming, on the other hand, took the initiative to chat with Li Hao, so he lowered his voice and said, "Brother Hao, it's going to rain in Silver City for the next two days. We're on vacation now. Do you have any plans?"

It was raining in Silver City on the 16th and 18th.

On the 18th and 19th, Li Hao and the others would be on leave.

“You have plans?”

Li Hao seemed to be a little curious. He asked, “You’ve just arrived, so you should know where there’s something fun to do in the Silver City. Why don’t you tell me a place and I’ll see if I can go there?”

“How about hiking?”

“Isn’t there Mount Heavenly King on the outskirts of Silver City?” Wang Ming asked with anticipation. I heard that it’s very majestic ... Let’s go up the mountain and have some fun?”

Mountain climbing!

In the suburbs!

Li Hao was deep in thought. Beside him, Chen Na said with some disdain, “What’s so fun about mountain climbing? We’re in the wilderness, and it’s raining. There’s no place to take shelter from the rain. Why don’t we go sing and eat?”

Wang Ming laughed dryly, “sister na, we men don’t like to sing. Mountain climbing can also exercise our bodies!” If you’re tired at night, you can stay on the mountain and watch sunrise. Mount Tianwang on a rainy night might be even more beautiful!”

Chen Na politely declined.

Forget it. She didn’t want to climb the mountain. It was so tiring and meaningless.

As for Li Hao, he quickly made a judgment.

Wang Ming had asked him to climb the mountain because he wanted to find a suitable place for the night patrol to ambush him.

Mount Tianwang was sparsely populated, and no one would go there on a rainy day, which was in line with the thoughts of the night patrolmen. Fighting with the red shadow there would not have any impact on the Silver City.

After all, it was an official organization with justice and order. Even if there were many problems with the night watchers, it still couldn’t change the fact that the night watchers were the biggest protection organization for ordinary people.

Therefore, the Nightwatchers, including the demon-hunting squads, actually hoped that the battle would be held in the suburbs and not in the city.

In a battle between supers, a single mistake could cause the death of a large number of ordinary people.

The Heavenly King Mountain ...

Li Hao pondered for a moment. The location that the Demon Hunter squad had decided on was not there. Although it was also in the suburbs, the Demon Hunter squad would rely more on hot weapons to be effective. Thus, they needed a flat land, not a mountain, where it was not easy to bury explosives.

“Let’s wait and see!”

Li Hao was in no hurry to refuse. He would ask Liu Long and the others first.

Wang Ming wanted to say more, but seeing that Li Hao had lowered his head and was working, he could only stop forcing him.

He was a little anxious.

Li Hao couldn’t stay in the city all the time!

This guy was the other party’s next target. A Big Shot had come to the night patrol this time, and he actually attached great importance to Silver city’s eight great families. Wang Ming didn’t know much, but he vaguely knew a few things.

The eight great families of Blizzard Silver City had not been highly regarded before, but it seemed that something had happened in the supernatural realm recently. It might have something to do with these eight great families.

Therefore, this time, the big shots of the night patrolmen came. On one hand, they wanted to solve the problem, and on the other hand, they hoped to see what the Li family’s sword was like.

Of course, he knew that Li Hao was cooperating with the demon hunting squad.

After some consideration, he decided that Li Hao might still have to listen to the demon hunting squad’s arrangements. In that case, he could only let that important person consider the arrangements.

The morning in the secrets room was very quiet.

Apart from Li Hao's victory, which caused a heated discussion among the crowd, everyone quickly went about their business. No one paid any attention to the whereabouts of Zhou He and his girlfriend.

Chapter 121: A kind person has good luck (2)

In everyone's opinion, after giving out the pennant, she would naturally leave.

Who would stay? wait for the inspector to treat them to a meal?

.....

At the same time.

Outside the inspection Office.

An old man casually walked past the patrol office. After walking for a while, a black car stopped.

Silver 7219.

The old man glanced into the carriage as if he did not mean it.

Soon, he left naturally.

There was no one in the car!

The car had been there for a few hours.

After walking for a while, the old man entered a small alley. It was working hours, and there were not many people outside, so the small alley was very quiet.

As the old man walked, he slowly said, "He's not here. There's no news after he went in."

A moment later, a cold man's voice came from the headphones hidden under the White hair. "Come back first! Zhou He wouldn't enter rashly. Furthermore, after he entered, he seemed to have disappeared ... There was no news from the inspection Office! It's obvious that either they've escaped, or ... They've been secretly captured by the demon-hunting squad!"

It was not the law enforcement team.

Otherwise, some news would have been sent back.

As for why Zhou He went in ... It was said that it was to give Li Hao a banner ... That was F * cking ridiculous!

Did it have anything to do with Li Hao?

Probably not!

According to the information he had received, Li Hao even happily took the banner and returned to the secrets room to show it off.

If a new patrol officer really wanted to link Zhou He's arrest to him, he wouldn't be so bold as to show off his pennant. Hence, when this happened, the other party immediately ruled out Li Hao.

It was very likely that Liu Long and the others had discovered them and secretly captured Zhou He and the others.

"Zhou He, that idiot!"

The old man heard a curse again.

He scolded Zhou He for being stupid!

Are you bored?

To deliver a banner to Li Hao ... Wasn't that like sending a sheep into a Tiger's Den?

Did he really think that Liu Long and the others wouldn't make a move?

"Forget it, so be it ... Those two guys don't know anything. It's just a pity ... Zhou He that idiot. Originally, after this mission was completed, he would have been summoned back for the energy drawing ceremony. He had a high chance of becoming a superpower!"

All the major supernatural organizations were actually quite concerned about a ten decapitation realm expert.

The task given to Zhou He this time was not difficult. It was just for him to make a contribution. Only after he made a contribution would he have enough credit and reason to draw energy and become a super. There was a high chance that he could directly enter Dark Moon!

Now, everything was in vain!

He could only say that Zhou He was seeking his own death.

The old man didn't reply. He walked faster and faster, and his figure gradually disappeared into the alley.

Since he was sure that Zhou He had been caught, he didn't need to do anything else.

.....

At the inspection Office.

Although Li Hao was about to be transferred away, he still completed his task seriously.

In the afternoon, after he was done with his work, the phone on his desk rang.

It was Liu Yan.

He asked him to go to the law enforcement team.

Li Hao said something to Chen NA and Wang Ming. Under Chen NA's envious gaze and Wang Ming's curious gaze, he left alone and headed for the law enforcement team.

In the basement.

The blood had already been cleaned up.

He didn't see Zhou He and that Yuan woman. He didn't know if they were Dead or Alive.

Li Hao didn't care about this.

Sometimes, Li Hao was actually quite indifferent to life and death. He was a loner, and his friends and parents had died. He had read countless case files, and there was no way that people didn't die.

After seeing so much and so much, her heart had become lighter.

There was a small meeting room in the basement.

At this moment, Liu Long and Liu Yan were both present. The others were nowhere to be seen.

When Li Hao entered, Liu Long motioned for him to sit down.

Li Hao obediently sat down.

Liu Yan, who was beside him, still looked a little strange. She glanced at Li Hao and said with a strange look in her eyes, "Did you think of anything disgusting when you went back to work?"

"....."

Li Hao was confused. What disgusting thing?

"Aren't you afraid?" Liu Yan asked.

"What?"

Li Hao was really a little strange.

Why?

Didn't they finish fighting?

Why should I be afraid?

When Liu Yan saw his expression, she felt a little tired and helpless. This guy was definitely a pervert.

He actually went back to work as if nothing had happened!

Who wouldn't reminisce for a long time after their first actual combat!

No matter if you win or lose, no matter if you kill someone or not, even if you don't see blood, it's worth reminiscing!

But ... What about Li Hao?

He really went back to work, and it seemed like the matter was over.

"Little Haohao, you didn't think about it at all?"

Li Hao thought for a moment, then said, "I've thought about it, sister. I'm not heartless. When I went back, I was thinking that Zhou He was a Martial Master of the ten slashing realms. Did he have any martial arts secret books on him? Does it have any mysterious energy? Also, if a Martial Master is dead, can he be like a superhuman and extract some mysterious energy ... Even if there isn't, the Martial Master has inner strength, can he extract it?"

At this moment, Liu Yan realized that this brat was really a pervert!

She couldn't help but curse in a low voice, "damn pervert!" What a cold-blooded fellow!"

"....."

Li Hao was innocent!

What's wrong?

In his opinion, the demon hunting squad was the abnormal one.

Wasn't this something that any normal person would think about?

Killing and arson were the most valuable things. Was there a problem with him asking if there were any benefits for him to take after killing a ten decapitation realm cultivator?

Liu Long was also speechless. He interrupted the conversation between the two and said in a deep voice, "Alright! Let's not talk about this! Tell me some information that I've just obtained. Li Hao, you're the person involved, so you're only here to listen!"

Li Hao obediently nodded.

"The Zhou He you killed ..."

Li Hao raised his hand like a student and quickly retorted, "I didn't kill him!"

"....."

Liu Long said coldly, "you crushed his foot, pierced through his sternum, shattered his kidney, and shattered his spleen ... If it wasn't for the fact that martial masters have stronger vitality, he would have died on the spot!" Even so, he couldn't be saved in the later stage!"

Therefore, Zhou He was really dead.

Li Hao was a little dazed, but he quickly regained his composure and said nothing.

If he died, then he died.

In any case, he did not kill the man himself. The man had died during the interrogation. If he did not die in front of him, Li Hao would pretend that he did not know.

The first time he attacked, he killed a Martial Master in the tenth realm.

In fact, Li Hao was still a little concerned, but ... When he thought of the fact that the other party was a bad person, Li Hao felt at ease. As an inspector, punishing evil and promoting good, as well as killing criminals, were also encouraged by the inspector Bureau during their training!

If the criminal resisted and had the ability to harm him, the inspector also recommended that the criminal be shot directly!

Since that was the case ... There was nothing more to say.

Liu Long didn't care what he thought and continued, "Zhou He, 40 years old, yaoguang city's Martial Master!"

Yaoguang city was the second largest city in Silver Moon province, only second to Whitemoon city. It had a population of ten million and was ten times more prosperous than Silver City!

"He started practicing martial arts at the age of 21, and his teacher was a Martial Master in yaoguang city who was over 100 ... His teacher passed away ten years ago, and Zhou He entered the ten decapitation realm at the age of 32. For the next eight years, he made no progress!"

"A year ago, Zhou He joined a peripheral organization related to supers. This organization is called the ghost Face! The person in charge of grimace is a Martial Master with over 100 points, not a superhuman. Zhou He and Yuan Xiao are both members of this organization!"

An organization under supers?

Li Hao was deep in thought, while Liu Long said in a low voice, "There are many supers organizations, but to let a Martial Master with over 100 points open a peripheral organization and recruit a group of martial masters, including many ten decapitation realms, this kind of supers' organization ... Is definitely not weak!"

"You should know that there's no such thing as an early morning without benefits! To a Martial Master, unless he advanced in rank, it would be difficult to bribe them. "It's even more difficult to make them willing to risk their lives, and this organization provides a large amount of mysterious energy for these ten slash realm martial masters. If they can't break through, they can become supers and break through 100 ... You have to know that even the night patrollers won't use the mysterious energy recklessly!"

Li Hao frowned slightly, "boss, you mean this organization is rich? It might be a large scale and extremely powerful?"

"Yes!"

Liu Long nodded and glanced at Li Hao before continuing, "Also, it's just a peripheral organization, but there are more than 100 martial masters ... In this era, there aren't many martial masters over 100. Of course, there are more in Yaoguang City, but a martial arts master over 100 is a rare martial arts powerhouse! It's not easy to be willing to work for someone."

Li Hao nodded again.

Liu Long continued, "According to Zhou He, his and Yuan Xiao's mission was to follow you and prevent you from leaving the Silver City. Their mission was simple and not a crucial role!"

Li Hao nodded again.

"There's a problem with this, can you tell?" Liu Long suddenly asked.

What was the problem?

Li Hao thought and analyzed for a while. Then, he thought of something and said softly, "Boss said that this organization is very strong, so the people who came are very strong ... We've already guessed this, but it shouldn't be the key ..."

Looking at Liu Long again, Li Hao seemed to have thought of something. His eyes flickered as he said, "The other party has a peripheral organization, which means that it is not just an organization of supers, and they do not look down on ordinary people! Moreover, if it's in a local area, the hundred martial masters wouldn't be too poor or have too low a status. Or, they would be like Boss, the head of the Inspection Office ... A firearm?"

He suddenly thought of this!

When Liu Long and the others fought in their own territory, they actually relied on the power of firearms to keep killing supers.

In that case, this organization might also have firearms?

"Not only that!" Liu Long nodded. The enemy's Martial Master might have even been to the night patrolmen's side. The hot weapons are one reason, and the second reason is that they might have all the information about our Demon Hunter squad! Therefore, we have no secrets to speak of in their eyes!"

Liu Yan continued, "Thirdly, if there's an organization in the field of ordinary people, their intelligence gathering ability will not be too bad. Your teacher, Yuan Shuo, might be one of their considerations! This includes the two night watchers from the Silver City. The two night watchers at the Dark Moon realm should be in their consideration!"

Liu Yan's expression turned grave as well. "If that's the case, given their cautiousness and the fact that they've been planning for more than ten years, they'll have at least arranged for an attack that's comparable to two Dark Moon elites with a cultivation base over 100!" She thought. Including us ... They've prepared at least five dark moons and powerhouses who have broken through the 100th level to deal with you!"

This was beyond their ability.

Liu Yan continued, "it would be better if it was a sun glory super. However, most of the people who came are moon darkness and those in the 100th rank. Even if they are strong in one-on-one combat, they can only do so much. We are worried that they will split up on the day of the attack! We'll use a group of people to pin us down, and then deal with you alone!"

Li Hao didn't say anything. This was indeed troublesome.

Liu Long glanced at Li Hao and said, "So, I have an idea ... The Li family's sword is in your hands, and the other party might need your life and the sword! It's best if we can split up ... If you're at ease, leave that sword to me for safekeeping. That way, the other party won't go all out against you, and even if we do split up, the pressure on your side will be much less. "

Chapter 123: A kind person is lucky (4)

Yes, his main purpose was to hope that Li Hao would give him the sword.

In their eyes, Li Hao was just an ordinary person.

If the sword was with Li Hao, it would definitely suffer the most powerful attack. But if the sword was not with Li Hao, even if Li Hao was separated, he would only suffer a secondary attack.

However, it was a secret that Li Hao was already in the tenth realm.

If the other side underestimated Li Hao and only sent someone equivalent to the tenth realm to deal with Li Hao, they might give them a surprise!

However, the Li family's sword ... Would Li Hao be at ease to hand it over to an outsider?

Liu Long began to think, because this would easily make Li Hao feel that he was coveting his family heirloom.

"Here you go!"

Just as he was thinking this, Li Hao took out his sword.

He placed it on the table!

Liu Long was slightly stunned and looked at Li Hao in surprise.

Li Hao smiled innocently, "who else can I trust if not boss?" Since I've joined the team, I'm one of them! I understand what the boss is thinking. It's all for my safety. I should be grateful and not doubt anything! It's just a sword. It might be a treasure, or it might be worthless ... But I can't use it now. It'll be a disaster if I keep it with me ... If boss takes it, he'll be in even greater danger!"

As soon as he said this, Liu Long was a little touched!

Liu Long looked at the sword on the table and could vaguely feel the fluctuation of mysterious energy. From its appearance, he could tell that the sword was extraordinary. The fluctuation of mysterious energy also made him feel that it was not ordinary.

Li Hao had taken out such a sword just like that!

At this moment, Liu Long was even thinking whether it was appropriate to use Li Hao as bait.

I'm so sorry for this guy.

Of course, this thought was quickly suppressed. Li Hao had to be the bait. There was no other way.

"Li Hao ..."

At this moment, Liu Long didn't say much. He only said in a solemn tone, "Don't worry, as long as I'm alive, my sword will be there! In addition, once this mission is over, if we all die and you're still alive ... Everything in the demon hunting squad will be yours!"

Good fellow!

Li Hao was secretly speechless. This is mine?

I've entered the core of the demon hunting squad in an instant?

How could old Liu be so emotional!

Li Hao felt that he was a rational person, but Liu Long was too emotional. He even said that he was still alive.

"Boss, we can win! Justice will prevail!"

Li Hao gave him some encouragement!

As for Liu Long, he didn't say anything.

After thinking for a moment, he suddenly took out a Yellow Book from his pocket and casually threw it to Li Hao. "Take it back and read it. It might be useful. If it's not, just read it in your spare time."

After saying that, Liu Long took the small sword and left.

As soon as he left, Liu Yan suddenly snatched the yellowed booklet and looked at it with envy. "As expected, it's the ninth-form force, which he's best at. This guy is really ..."

Seeing that Li Hao didn't quite understand, he explained, "This is the martial arts master's Secret technique that boss is cultivating, the 'nine-refinements force.' As the name implies, it is nine-fold force when it explodes! This was also the secret technique that boss's father cultivated when he became famous. His father was a top martial Master in Silvermoon province!"

Li Hao knew!

A silver spear!

As one of the three Spears of the Silver Moon, even his teacher had said that it shouldn't be weak. At the very least, it should be a top-notch existence with a score of over 100. Otherwise, his teacher wouldn't have mentioned it.

It wasn't a spear technique, but the "ninth-form force," which surprised Li Hao.

Of course, what was even more surprising was that this thing ... Was given to me?

A Martial Master was actually much more strict about his own inheritance than superpowers.

Liu Yan continued, "take it and read it carefully ... This secret technique is very powerful. It's not inferior to the 'new book of five birds' that your teacher inherited!" Your teacher's Secret technique is very well-rounded, but it also has its flaws. It's not explosive enough! "The nine-fold training is an extremely explosive technique. It's nine-fold training of one force ... Of course, ordinary people can't do it, and their physiques aren't strong enough to support it!"

She sighed again and got up to leave.

Liu Long had actually left this behind, causing Liu Yan to feel a sense of danger, an extreme sense of danger.

Some martial masters were unwilling to pass down their martial arts even at death's door.

Liu Long wasn't willing to do so before, but now he suddenly passed it to Li Hao ...
What did this mean?

This time, was there no return?

As for Li Hao, he suddenly felt a little heavy as he held the booklet. His heart felt heavy as well. You're just going to pass this to me?

"The ninth refinement force ..."

It was a cultivation technique that specialized in explosive power!

Li Hao didn't know how precious it was, but Liu Long's special skill shouldn't be too weak.

He thought for a moment, then suddenly picked up the communicator and dialed a number.

As Yuan Shuo's last disciple, he could not rashly learn the heritage of other martial masters.

"Teacher!"

"Is there something?"

Yuan Shuo's voice sounded a little tired, probably because he had just absorbed the saber energy.

"Teacher, have you heard of our captain's ninth-form force?"

"Nonsense! The silver spear's signature move, nine-fold spear! "It's a pretty good secret technique. Although there are many drawbacks, it's extremely explosive. In the past, when I exchanged 'new book of five birds' for it, that guy wasn't willing to ... However, that guy died early and had something to do with this. One spear nine folds. His body couldn't withstand it. At a young age, his arms were crippled and he died of depression! But if it were me, I'd be in good health and I'd be able to hit riyao so hard that he wouldn't be able to recognize his mom!"

His teacher's words seemed to be filled with disdain, but in reality, he was highly praising this secret technique.

Li Hao thought for a moment and said in a low voice, "well ... Captain passed it to me. Can I learn it?"

"What?"

Yuan Shuo was stunned. In the next moment, he suddenly shouted, "Nonsense, learn! You're in such good health that this is the only thing that suits you. I was thinking about how to find a cultivation technique that is more suitable for you ... This is great! Liu Long and the others are old and sickly, you definitely won't! Learn!"

"Why did he give it to you?" he asked in confusion.

It's only been a few days!

Is Liu Long an idiot?

It was spread out just like that?

Also, was Li Hao really that good at fooling people?

I didn't feel it!

"I don't know," Li Hao said in embarrassment. "I gave the small sword to the captain, and he passed this to me ..."

Alright!

Yuan Shuo knew the inside story. He knew that the sword wasn't a good item. Whoever took it would be unlucky.

So, he had given away the thing that would cause trouble, and Liu Long was touched by it?

He was really ... F * cking speechless!

"Alright, you can read it yourself. I'm not suitable to read other Martial master's Secret techniques, nor am I suitable to guide you, but this secret technique is indeed very suitable for you. If you learn it well, you can really do three layers at a time. Even if you just entered the tenth realm, you can even kill an ordinary middle-stage tenth realm expert!"

It was obvious that Yuan Shuo was really optimistic about it.

Moreover, this side effect, which was a backlash to the body, was not a big problem for Li Hao, because he had Starlight energy, which Yuan Shuo was also aware of.

He hung up the communication.

In the yuan family's courtyard.

Yuan Shuo suddenly laughed, then cursed in a low voice, "F * ck! This little brat's luck is so strong?"

He was really strong!

It felt like all the good things had come to his door!

"The ninth-form force!"

Silver spear ... You old man, you probably didn't even know that your family's Secret technique ended up in the hands of my student!

Chapter 124: Chapter 34_ stacking force cultivation, darkness strikes

Night.

Qiming District.

At home.

Li Hao opened the "ninth-form force." Beside him, Black Panther was sitting on the sofa and reading a book.

Li Hao didn't push it away. He didn't believe that a dog could understand human language, but it could also read?

If the Black Panther could recognize this, Li Hao could even call it master!

"A Martial master's inner strength will burst out when they enter the tenth realm, and their bones and muscles will ring in unison ... The strength is limited and dispersed throughout the body. The difference in strength between martial masters of the same realm is very small ..."

This book was written by Liu Long's father, not the original.

From the books, one could tell that Liu Long's father, Liu Hao, was already an expert who had a cultivation base of over 100. He was a formidable Martial Master, and Yuan Shuo's claim that Liu Hao treated him like his own grandson might be a little exaggerated.

A Martial Master at the peak of a hundred-plus years was almost as strong as Yuan Shuo.

Moreover, Liu Hao was the best at attacking.

The spear was the king of weapons!

Martial masters who used Spears mostly only attacked and never defended.

Liu Hao had made a name for himself in the martial arts world of Silver Moon province by using his ninth-refinement force and the nine-fold spear technique. He was known as silver spear Liu Hao and was one of the three great spear Kings of Silver Moon province.

In those days, there were actually many martial masters who had surpassed 100. Liu Hao had made such a big name for himself, so he was naturally not a mediocre person.

And the main reason was because of this “ninth-level force.”

With the same force, Liu Hao’s nine-fold spear attack was the best among the three great spear Kings in the past!

However, Liu Hao’s strengths were strong, but his weaknesses were also obvious. His speed was not good, and his physique was not good ... Nine-fold force was too harmful to the body. Liu Hao, who had entered middle-aged, had almost crippled both his arms.

This was also one of the reasons why Liu Hao took him to Yuan Shuo when he was young.

The Liu family’s spear technique was very famous, but Liu Hao knew that the ninth refinement was very harmful to the human body. An ordinary Martial Master with a cultivation of over 100 years old could still put up a fight at the age of 70. However, the Liu family’s members would decline rapidly after the age of 40, and they might even be completely crippled.

If Liu Long hadn’t absorbed the mysterious energy and strengthened his body, he would have been crippled at his age.

“Nine layers!”

Li Hao sighed with emotion. He didn’t know how precious this secret technique was, but he knew how powerful it would be after the nine-fold force.

The power of the ninth refinement force did not come from nowhere.

The main point was the use of strength. By gathering the strength of other parts of the body onto the arms, the layered strength would not only test one’s control of one’s own strength, but also the tenacity and strength of both arms.

“Is the third fold of the ten Realms his limit?”

According to the book, at the tenth realm, three layers of power was the limit. Otherwise, it was very easy to break both arms and leave behind irreparable old injuries.

If it was over 100, it was best not to exceed six stacks.

Liu Hao had encountered a strong enemy back then and used nine-fold skill. Although he killed the strong enemy, he was also injured at the root. His arms were almost completely crippled, and he left Wulin not long after. The silver spear of the three silver Moon Spears was sealed, and he passed away a few years later.

“The advantages of the ninth-form force are obvious, but so are its disadvantages ... Once the force is stacked, one can only stand still. Once one moves, the force will be dispersed ...”

This was the weakness!

It was also the biggest weakness of the nine refinements force!

You can't move too much after extracting all the energy from your body. Otherwise, the energy will be dispersed and you might even hurt yourself.

Therefore, even though the ninth-form force was quite famous, some old martial masters also knew the severity of the problem.

“Unless one's physique is strong enough to not care about the power being extracted ...”

This was probably the reason why Liu Long had passed it on to Li Hao.

This was because Li Hao's physique seemed to be quite good. Even before he entered the ten slash realm, he had already displayed a powerful physique.

After the blood transfusion last time, his physique had been strengthened.

If Li Hao practiced the ninth-form force, it was very likely that he would be able to avoid the disadvantage of not being able to move. Even if he moved, Li Hao might still have the strength to continue maintaining the stacking force.

Also, the probability of him being injured would be greatly reduced.

Li Hao looked at it for a while. Apart from the expression and the way to use it, the key to the ninth-degree force was actually a special breathing technique.

That's right, almost every secret skill would be matched with a special breathing technique.

For different secret Arts, the breathing technique was the core.

This was because different secret techniques had different ways of activating and exerting force.

If Li Hao used the breathing technique of five birds to practice the nine-refinements force, he would probably suffer from side injuries and hurt himself.

Therefore, the secret skill itself wasn't too important, but the breathing technique that it was compatible with was definitely the most important.

This time, Liu Long even stuffed a breathing technique into it.

It was obviously a separate existence, just a piece of paper, stuck in the middle of the yellowed book.

Li Hao spent more than an hour studying the 3000 words one by one. Then, he began to practice.

First, he adjusted his breathing and used the breathing technique of the ninth-form force.

His breathing rhythm was completely different from before.

Beside him, Black Panther was staring at it without blinking.

Li Hao turned his head to look at it and smiled.

This dog, secretly learning again!

"You can only feel the rhythm of breathing, but you can't feel the difference in your internal organs ... You can only follow the standard, not the textbook! However, you're just a dog ... That's enough. "

The Black Panther did not mind and continued to learn from Li Hao.

His breathing gradually had a unique rhythm.

It wasn't disordered, but the length of each breath was different. It didn't make people feel uncomfortable, but it was a very rhythmic special rhythm.

Chapter 125: Chapter 34: stacking force cultivation, darkness strikes (2)

Since the Black Panther wanted to learn, Li Hao didn't lower his voice.

Otherwise, if the breathing was weak, outsiders would not be able to detect anything.

After adjusting his breathing, Li Hao could already feel the force in his body.

It was different from the mysterious energy!

The inner strength was very special. It had a mysterious energy and felt like an external force. It was not the sense of isolation that the human body had.

Inner strength, on the other hand, truly felt like it came from the inside out and was a force produced by the human body.

This power came from his blood, muscles, cells, and bones. It was as if his entire body was producing this weak power. It was like life force. A healthy body would provide you with more powerful energy.

The inner strength was invisible, but it could be felt.

A stream of energy flowed through his body.

Li Hao gathered his strength on his arm. The muscles on his arm wriggled. Li Hao gently shook his hand, and the sound of slapping could be heard!

This was the sound of bones and tendons!

Compared to two days ago when he had just entered the ten slash realm, the current Li Hao seemed to have a better grasp and experience of his strength. With a shake of his arm, he pushed horizontally, directly pushing the Black Panther to the side five or six meters away, causing it to crash into the wall.

The Black Panther dog's eyes were filled with innocence!

Of course, he wasn't injured. The dog had absorbed some saber energy, and its body was much stronger than an ordinary person's. It wasn't weaker than any Martial Master of the tenth realm.

It was just that the dog didn't know how to use its strength well because it was strong.

Li Hao didn't care. He first experienced the feeling of his internal strength, and then quickly slapped the coffee table.

The coffee table was a marble table that his father had built from the mountains. However, many years had passed and there were already several cracks on it.

At this moment, Li Hao gently patted the heavy coffee table, but it didn't have any reaction.

At this moment, Li Hao's arm wriggled again, and a second force gushed out. He pressed his palm lightly on the coffee table, and the coffee table suddenly shook!

Clang clang clang!

The coffee table trembled, and it felt like it was about to crack.

Li Hao, on the other hand, was continuously adjusting his breathing. A third force was circulating in his body from other parts. The muscles in his right hand trembled and squirmed again, which was a bit scary.

This force, however, was somewhat unable to descend.

It kept wriggling on his right arm, causing Li Hao's muscles to ache.

Li Hao, on the other hand, persisted in moving his force down!

This was the stacking force!

Of course, it was too slow now. The real nine-fold force could not be so slow. After one slap, it took a long time for the second force to come, and after a long time, the third force was still stuck in his upper arm. If he encountered an opponent who dawdled like this and did not have the time to use the third-fold force, he would have been killed.

It was Li Hao's first time using it, so he wasn't very familiar with it.

Under Li Hao's persistence, the third wave of force finally moved down.

With a bang, a small crack appeared on the coffee table.

Li Hao was overjoyed.

Although the process was very difficult, it meant that he could learn it. Of course, at this moment, he was far from being able to call it the triple layered force. He had not even completed one layer!

The real triple layered force was three forces, one after another, with almost no gaps in between. That was the real overlapping force.

"The book says that this thing is the most difficult to start with because it's too easy to hurt the body. Just now, I pulled the muscles of my right arm ..."

'But ... Do I care?

Li Hao suddenly smiled.

The starry sky sword energy!

This thing was the most nourishing.

Even the mysterious energy's violent impact could be neutralized, let alone inner strength. The impact of inner strength, especially on himself, was far inferior to the mysterious energy.

Therefore, the Starlight energy could definitely repair this small injury.

Other people might have just started practicing the "ninth-form force" and would only practice it once or twice a day, but Li Hao didn't care. He circulated the "five birds breathing technique" and absorbed a bit of Starlight energy. The energy was transferred to Li Hao's right arm, and in the blink of an eye, the muscle that he had strained earlier was healed.

There was no pain at all!

"Good stuff!"

This time, Li Hao once again felt the benefits of this energy. It was great.

In this way, he did not need any medicine to help him practice the "ninth-form force" at all. It should be known that the Liu family had an extra prescription for their practice. It was specially prepared to nourish the body in case the foundation was damaged during the practice.

The effect of Li Hao's Starlight energy was many times stronger than the formula.

"It's fun!"

Yes, Li Hao also found it fun.

Interest was the foundation of cultivation. If one had no interest in cultivation, then it would be difficult to achieve results in practicing martial arts.

Li Hao treated the ninth training force as a game, a fun game, and immediately became very interested in it.

He threw a punch, and the force began to stack.

In the beginning, the second force appeared at least three seconds apart ... In a real battle, it would be too late.

But gradually, as his arm got used to this force, the second force appeared faster and faster.

Two seconds, one second ...

However, it became difficult for Li Hao to improve after one second. The time gap was quite long. For martial masters, one second was enough for them to exchange several moves. Their opponents wouldn't be so stupid as to be knocked down by one punch and not move for one second, waiting for a second attack.

"Pa pa pa!"

That night, Li Hao didn't practice any other secret techniques. He focused on the ninth-form force.

This might be the easiest way for him to improve at the moment, and it was also the simplest.

Chapter 126: Chapter 34_ stacking force cultivation, darkness strikes

With Starlight's cooperation, he was not afraid of getting hurt.

He had no scruples!

The number of times he used his moves, the stacking of his forces, and the number of times he practiced in one night might exceed the number of times others practiced in a year or even five years.

If Liu Long were to see him practicing like this, his eyes would probably pop out!

An ordinary person's arm would have exploded long ago.

Li Hao, on the other hand, was completely fine. Under the nourishment of the Starlight energy, the muscles in his arms had clearly become stronger. At a glance, it was obvious that he was full of strength.

Li Hao never got tired of it.

After throwing out punches and palm strikes again and again, he discovered a secret ... A secret that could not be considered a secret. After using the ninth-refinement force too much, he realized that the strength of his arms had become stronger.

In fact, this wasn't a secret. It was just that normal martial masters wouldn't do this. Whoever did this for a day would be crippled if not dead.

That night, Li Hao didn't even have the mood to sleep.

At daybreak, Li Hao's punch ... Rang out twice!

This time, there was almost no interval, and the two sounds seemed to turn into one.

Li Hao was startled ... He succeeded?

He couldn't believe it. In the next moment, he punched the coffee table in his house again ... He had made quite a few holes in one night.

Pa!

This time, the coffee table cracked and fell to the ground.

Downstairs, the aunties who had just woken up suddenly roared, "Li Hao, what are you doing now?"

So early in the morning, what was he doing?

Li Hao was actually very careful!

He had even specially laid a blanket under the coffee table, but the punch just now had directly split the coffee table. Now, the blanket was useless.

Li Hao felt a little helpless. The place was too small. Not only was there no place to practice, even the slightest movement would cause the Auntie to cast Tiger Roaring Mountain forest at you ... The reason his Tiger Roaring Mountain forest had improved was probably because he had learned from the Auntie.

Li Hao had never seen a real wild tiger, but he had seen the Auntie downstairs's lion roar countless times. She was extremely powerful when quarreling in the neighborhood. The other women in the neighborhood usually couldn't beat the Auntie downstairs.

Li Hao comforted himself and quickly shouted, "The refrigerator is over!"

"Your refrigerator is always empty!"

The Auntie roared. She had poured it out so many times, yet she poured it out again. Your refrigerator is made of paper, how could it be poured out so easily?

"Change the refrigerator next month! I'll give the refrigerator to you, Auntie. You can also sell it for junk!"

The moment she said that, the middle-aged woman fell silent.

Not bad!

If he earned a refrigerator for free, he could sell a few pieces of junk.

At this moment, Li Hao couldn't care less about this. He had a bright smile on his face.

Success!

Second stacking force!

Although this was only the beginning and he was definitely not as good as Liu Long, he had managed to master the second fold in one night ... Li Hao fantasized that he might be able to master the ninth fold in a few days!

At that time, he might still be at the tenth realm. Maybe he could kill those in the 100th realm with a sudden burst of power.

"I've finally succeeded!"

The first successful attempt meant that the rest would be easier. Li Hao tried a few more times and succeeded every time. However, the third time, he returned to his previous state. It was very difficult and took a long time.

"It's the 17th,"

Li Hao pulled open the curtains and looked outside. The weather had obviously changed today.

It was a hot summer day, but there was a cool breeze.

Dark clouds seemed to be gathering in the sky.

"It's going to rain tomorrow,"

It had only been a few days since he had figured out that the red shadow was going to kill him next. However, in these few days, Li Hao felt like a century had passed.

He entered the tenth realm and joined the demon hunting squad. He found the way to use the energy of the Jade Sword and Stone knife, and learned the breathing technique of five birds and the ninth form force.

These were things that ordinary people might not be able to experience in their lifetime.

"He's finally here!"

At this moment, Li Hao was actually hoping that the red shadow would arrive soon.

Even though he knew that he was weak, being forced to wait for death for a long time was still very stressful.

He gently touched the Jade sword on his chest.

Even now, Li Hao still didn't know how to use this sword. It was too small. Was he expecting to kill with this sword?

What was the difference between this and stabbing someone with a toothpick?

"This sword has some effect on the red shadow. It has an abnormal reaction every time ... But ... I can't kill the red shadow with the Jade sword between two fingers, can I?"

This was what Li Hao was most vexed about.

I'm not used to it!

Who was used to stabbing people with a toothpick?

The red shadow was the greatest threat to Li Hao, because no one could see it. If the red shadow got close and set Li Hao on fire, the others might not be able to save him in time. Li Hao had to deal with this problem himself ...

Then what should he do?

Li Hao took off the chain, picked up the cross-sized Jade sword, and stabbed it forward with two fingers!

It was so awkward!

"Forget it. If it's awkward, then so be it. It might be of great use. Although it's a little uncomfortable to use, it can still be used ... As long as it can be used."

Li Hao once again put on the Jade sword and tried to quickly draw it ... He pulled out loneliness.

He pulled the chain, pinched it with two fingers, and jabbed it forward. That was it.

It was just that stacking force wasn't very useful. Li Hao hadn't learned to use stacking force on two fingers.

"To the red shadow, it might not matter if the energy is stacked or not, it's the same."

Li Hao stopped thinking about it.

This was also the limit of what he could do at the moment. What he should prepare, what he should ask for help, what methods he should use to help his teacher advance, he had used all of them. Compared to fighting alone before, this was a hundred times stronger!

Chapter 127: Chapter 34_ stacking force cultivation, darkness strikes

If he still couldn't handle this, then so be it.

Just as he was about to wash up, he heard a commotion in the house. Not far away, the Black Panther suddenly slammed its paw on the broken coffee table ...

The next moment, a shrill dog bark was heard.

“Aowu!”

Black Panther looked at his somewhat swollen paws and then at Li Hao in pain. What's going on?

Why can't I smash the coffee table?

Li Hao was speechless!

He absorbed a little of the sword energy, which circulated through his arm. The next moment, Li Hao pointed at the Black Panther, and the sword energy entered the Black Panther's body.

The swollen dog paw seemed to feel much better.

The Black Panther still looked depressed. It looked at Li Hao as if it was asking for guidance. It had absorbed a lot of sword energy from Li Hao that night and was learning from him to practice the ninth refinement.

But it was useless.

“Humans and dogs have different paths. I really don't know how to teach you. Gather the force in your arms ... Which is your dog legs. But how to gather it? I'm not a dog, so I can't explain it to you.”

Li Hao said helplessly, “you think of a way yourself!” And ... Heibao, from tomorrow on, how about you follow me? Can you ... Deal with that thing?”

Hearing this, Black Panther was a little scared.

Li Hao thought for a moment and said, "you don't have to follow me. Follow Liu Long. Last time, that big guy encountered that thing. I'm afraid he can't see or sense it. Just shout in one direction a few times!" We'll give him a heads up, give him directions, and let him know where that thing is ... What do you think?"

Heibao thought for a while and was still a bit scared.

Li Hao said, "it's up to you. I won't force you. But after tomorrow, I might die. You can continue to wander by yourself!"

Upon hearing this, Black Panther immediately became anxious.

He wanted to die?

Then what about me?

Woof! Woof! Woof!

"You agree?"

"Woof!"

Li Hao laughed!

This was good.

"I'm not forcing you to do this. You're doing this willingly. I'm a very Democratic person. If you refuse, I won't force you even if you're a dog.

"Alright then, come with me to the inspection Office today and I'll introduce you to the captain ... Behave yourself and don't be too smart. Just act like a normal dog, but you can see that thing and bark when you see it. That's the Black Dog's ability. Anyway, the captain doesn't know what the black Dog is capable of."

The Black Panther's eyes seemed to be filled with disdain. Li Hao patted its head, making the Black Panther a little dizzy. Only then did he suppress the dog, which was too intelligent.

At the inspection Office.

The law enforcement team.

In the basement.

When Liu Long saw black Panther, he was very suspicious.

Only when Li Hao said that the Black Panther could see that thing did Liu Long look at the Black Panther with great surprise.

Dogs can see?

“Are you sure dogs can see spiritual beings?”

These words were a little ambiguous.

It sounded like he was scolding himself!

Because he could also see it.

Li Hao remained calm and nodded. “Yes, I can see it. The few times I felt that something was wrong, the Black Panther would look in one direction and call out softly.”

Then, he added, “Black Panther can understand human language. It’s very smart. Boss, it might be easier for you to take it with you. Black Panther won’t cause you any trouble. Only when that thing appears will Black Panther remind you. And that thing won’t care too much about a dog.”

Liu Long nodded. Although he found it unbelievable, Li Hao’s words meant that this dog might really be different.

“Well, that’s good. I’ll bring it along later and get used to it. Don’t make any noise and alert the enemy.”

“I won’t, don’t worry.”

The two exchanged a few words before Liu Long asked, “Have you read the book? You’ll get a fever if you memorize it. Just remember it. I don’t expect you to learn it now.”

Indeed, he had never counted on it!

The ‘nine refinements force’ was not easy to learn, especially at the beginning level. It was the most time-consuming.

When he learned this back then, it took him three years to get started. He only got better after that. After he got started, he was faster with three to four stacks.

His father, silver spear Liu Hao, was more talented than him. He had become a peak-stage Martial Master who had broken through 100 before the age of 40.

Even his father took a year to enter the sect.

Thus, even if Li Hao's physique was better and he had the guidance of a famous teacher, Liu Long felt that it would take him at least a year or so to get started.

Li Hao was also bored to death.

He didn't say that he had learned it and that it was unnecessary.

Good things should be hidden first.

If even the captain underestimated him, then the enemy would underestimate him even more. Only by keeping a low profile could one make a fortune and achieve great things. How could one achieve great things if they were all noisy?

After Liu Long said this, he continued, "Don't go back tonight. Tomorrow morning, you and I will go to the suburbs. We are in the open, and they are in the dark. We have no choice but to take the initiative to lure the snake out of its hole!"

"Wang Ming asked me to climb Heavenly King Mountain!"

"I know,"

Liu Long nodded his head, "we're not going to Mount Tianwang. However, the place we chose is right below Mount Tianwang. It's not suitable for us to make a move there. Of course, if you feel that the night patrolmen can handle it, you can also follow us."

He looked at Li Hao. Do you trust the night patrollers more or the demon-hunting squads more?

The night patrolmen might make a move.

However, it was hard to deal with a Night Watcher. Even if The Night Watcher was stronger, it might not be a good thing for Li Hao. Superpowers would not care about your life or death in a battle.

He, Liu Long, would at least keep an eye on Li Hao, and didn't want him to die like this.

Li Hao smiled honestly. "Boss, you have the final say. But I think it's better for us to join forces. Isn't that better?"

Chapter 128: Chapter 34_ stacking force cultivation, darkness strikes

Wasn't it more appropriate to gather their strength?

The tactic of adding fuel to the fire was often the style of the villain. After one died, another would come, and then they would be killed one by one ... It was too unlucky!

Liu Long laughed and shook his head, "you're wrong. We might not be stronger if we join forces!" Some supers had the ability to attack indiscriminately. In fact, most supers were like this, especially the offensive supers. With a Thunderbolt, everyone except themselves would be an enemy! If we act together, we might affect the other party, and the other party might also affect us. It's not necessarily better to act together. "

"What about our enemies?"

What if the other party also had many supers?

Would they affect each other?

"There's such a possibility, so it's very likely that the other party will split up. If they split up, the impact won't be that big. Don't worry, if something like this happens tomorrow, I'll get Liu Yan to protect you!"

This was the strongest person in the team other than him.

Li Hao thought for a moment, nodded, and didn't refuse.

No matter how confident he was, he didn't think that he could deal with the red shadow alone. Besides, he didn't have the confidence to do so either. Although he had killed a ten decapitation realm super, which was comparable to a Starlight realm super, Li Hao still felt that he was a weakling.

He had only fought once, and compared to his teacher, he was nothing.

His teacher was the amazing one. He had been sent flying and defeated two yunyuns with one move. Li Hao was nothing.

With Liu Yan around, if the situation allowed it, he would just add salt to the wound.

The two discussed for a while, and soon, Liu Long left with Black Panther. According to his words, he would first be intimate with Black Panther, in case he didn't cooperate.

Originally, Liu Long bringing Heibao away wasn't a big deal.

However ...

Half a day later, Liu Long found Li Hao with a strange look in his eyes. Without saying a word, he suddenly punched Li Hao and then inexplicably ran away.

Li Hao couldn't figure out what was going on.

Why did you punch me?

.....

The law enforcement team.

In the captain's office.

Liu Long's gaze was extremely strange. He stared at the Black Panther for a long time before sighing, "A man is inferior to a dog!++! You dog, you actually know a breathing technique, and it's the Liu family's nine-refinements force breathing technique! Aren't you too F * cking smart? it took me a few days to learn it, but you watched Li Hao train last night and learned it. You know it too?"

Yes, he had discovered it.

This was because Heibao had used his breathing technique out of habit. Even though Heibao's breathing was very low and normal people wouldn't be able to tell, this was the breathing technique of the Liu family.

Liu Long didn't notice it at first, but after a while, he realized that the dog's breathing rhythm was the same as his ... He was almost dumbfounded!

One man and one dog, Liu Long took a breath, Black Panther took a breath, Liu Long paused for a while, Black Panther paused for a while ...

It almost killed Liu Long.

This dog was very strange. No wonder Li Hao said that he could see spiritual beings.

"The appearance of superpowers, even dogs have become spirits!"

Liu Long shook his head and was not too surprised. He sighed and said, "With the revival of myths and superpowers, it's said that there are animals in Whitemoon city that have become spirits! In the central region, there was even news that an animal that had turned into a spirit had devoured a top powerhouse who had surpassed the radiant sun realm! I didn't expect that the small silver City would have a dog like you. "

Thinking of this, he laughed at himself, "even a dog can become a spirit, but I can't become a super. How ironic!" Forget it, forget it ... You've learned my family's breathing technique. Since I'm idle, I'll teach you the ninth refinement force and try it out. When you really become a spirit in the future, give me nine folds with one claw! Let's kill those bastards!"

He laughed as he said that.

Can a dog learn it?

Who cares, I'll try.

He was much stronger than Li Hao. He had been learning the ninth refinement force for decades, and Li Hao was no match for him. After studying the Black Panther for a while, he began to teach it the nine-fold dog paw technique under the Black Panther's excited gaze!

As for Black Panther's learning ability ... Liu Long's jaw almost dropped.

F * ck, even he couldn't learn as fast as Black Panther.

In fact, this was also because Black Panther had practiced the whole night and absorbed a large amount of Starlight energy. If he really met a suitable teacher, he would naturally learn quickly.

The dog's paw almost formed an illusion in the air!

Two-fold dog paw!

When Black Panther's dog paws folded twice, Liu Long almost wanted to say, "you can be my F * cking student. Just be my last disciple. This is much better than being human."

Yuan Shuo had taken in Li Hao, and he felt that Li Hao was very talented.

But looking at it now, bullsh * t, how could Li Hao be as smart as Black Panther?

In a short while, he would be able to do the second-fold dog paw!

On this day, even though a major event was about to happen, Liu Long didn't do anything proper and instead stayed in the office to teach the dog. If this news were to spread, the members of the demon hunting squad would probably go crazy.

They thought that Liu Long was locked up in the office, thinking of ways to deal with the enemy and the crisis that might come tomorrow.

However, no one would have thought that he would teach a dog martial arts one day.

At the end of the practice, Black Panther could even use three-fold dog paw strikes with difficulty.

Li Hao's jaw would probably drop if he knew!

Time slowly passed by as Black Panther continued to train. July 17th gradually came to an end.

The sky was dark and the clouds were dense.

Silver City, a cool breeze blew.

In the darkness, bloody shadows appeared one after another, waiting for the upcoming harvest.

The eight meridians would converge soon!
