Chapter 129: It's raining (1)

Tap tap tap tap ...

It was raining!

The small raindrops in the capillary vessels dripped down, one by one. The sunshade on the window collided with the rain, making a dripping sound.

...

The night was quiet.

In a small city like silver City, there were very few pedestrians on the road after 10 O' clock in the evening.

Knowing that the weather wasn't good and that it was about to rain, there were very few people outside the Silver City.

On the street, the merchants on both sides had already closed their doors.

The rainy season was here!

It would rain all over Silver City.

In the basement.

Li Hao had changed into a new inspector uniform, with the vortex Mk III at his waist and a few grenades in his pocket.

It would be too inconvenient if he didn't carry a powerful hot weapon. It was very difficult to operate it alone, and it was also inconvenient to carry it around.

Not far away, Chen Jian had a shield next to him. It was a Black Shield, not too big, and was mainly used to protect vital points.

In the corner, the doctor, Yun Yao, was packing her small medicine box.

As for The Thin Man, Wu Chao, he was playing with the dagger in his hand. He seemed to be in a daze, thinking about something.

Liu Yan was in front of Li Hao.

At this moment, Liu Yan wasn't smiling, and she was also in a daze. In front of her was a photo frame that had been taken down. She didn't know who was in the photo frame. Could it be her murdered husband?

Bang! Bang!

The door opened.

Liu Long, who was wearing a windbreaker, was followed by a dog. Only then did he come out of his office with Heibao.

Everyone's eyes turned to him.

Even Liu Yan and Wu Chao, who had been distracted, were no longer in a daze. They pulled themselves together and looked at their Captain.

This person was the spiritual pillar of the demon hunting squad.

"It's raining!"

Liu Long strode in, his tone cold as he looked around, "is everything ready?"

"I'm ready!"

Chen Jian responded in a muffled tone.

Liu Long revealed a cold smile, "remember, evil will never defeat justice! We belong to justice!"

"Justice!"

Everyone shouted!

"For the sake of justice, exterminate the evil and protect the Dao!"

The team's slogan rang out in the basement again. It was such a Chuunibyoutou sound, but the reverberating voice agitated Li Hao's heart.

To act in the name of justice, to exterminate evil and defend the Dao!

BOOM!

At this moment, a thunderous sound rang out.

However, the expressions of Liu Long and the others changed slightly.

Liu Yan quickly stood up and her face turned cold. "It's not Thunder!"

Yes, it was not Thunder.

They were all too familiar with it!

This was a bomb!

Liu Long's face turned slightly ugly as he stiffly smiled, "Super...You're really capable! They don't want us to leave the city. They don't want us to take the initiative. They ... Have entered the city!"

They had entered the city!

The enemy had entered the Silver City and was destroying it. They even used the safety of the city to force these people to separate and control them.

Li Hao's face was slightly pale.

Liu Long and the others thought that he was scared, so they didn't say anything. They were just surprised that Li Hao was actually scared now. As expected, young people were useless at critical moments!

Li Hao, on the other hand, was not frightened.

He only listened to the sound and was a little angry and frightened."Boss, is that the sound of a bomb? It seems ... To be coming from the direction of my house ..."

It felt like it!

As for whether it was true or not, he couldn't be sure.

Outside, there was a clamor.

The inspection Office was dispatched!

At this moment, Liu Long had regained his calm,"it's just the beginning. It seems that the opponent this time is not easy to deal with!"

Before Li Hao's group could leave the city, the other party took the initiative to attack.

It was a deterrence and also a warning.

Don't even think about leaving the city!

He was even telling Liu Long and the others to give up. We know all about your arrangements.

They even knew where Liu Long had set up the trap, waiting for them to step into it.

Don't think about it!

Some supers were very arrogant, but some were very cautious. The opponents this time were all very cautious. Even if they didn't think that the demon hunting squad was scary, they didn't want to step into the trap set by Liu Long and the others.

Liu Long took a deep breath. At this moment, he knew that he might be in trouble.

"Clang clang clang!"

As the bell rang, Liu Long picked up the communicator beside him and a familiar roar came from it,""Liu Long! Where are you? As for the law enforcement team, you're not here, and Liu Yan isn't here. Something big has happened in the Silver City. Are you deaf? There's been an explosion, and someone died!"

The law enforcement team needed to solve such a big matter immediately.

However, the law enforcement team was in a bit of a mess because the captain and vice-captain were not around.

The explosion case was only one place.

He didn't know if there was another one.

Not only that, an angry voice sounded in the communication channel again, "Go back to the inspection Office immediately and bring a team to the crime scene! Not just you, Liu Yan, return to the team immediately! There's been an arson in the western suburbs of Silver City. It's an oil depot that was set on fire ... Someone set the place on fire!"

Liu Long's expression was calm as he slowly said: "alright, chief. Don't worry, I will handle it!"

"Liu Long!"

The Secretary's voice rang out again, with a heavy tone, "I know you've been busy recently, so I'll turn a blind eye to some things! However, professional matters should be solved by professional people. I'm the Secretary of the inspection Division, and the inspection Division is the only law enforcement agency in the Silver City ... You have to understand that the safety of the entire city's people is more important than one person! Tonight, I'll be in charge of the inspection Division. You ... Need to go out and arrest the criminals. That little guy ... If you think you must keep him, send him to the Office of the Director of the inspection Division!"

The two of them understood that the explosion was just the beginning, a warning.

It was also to let the inspector know his place and to let Liu Long's demon hunting squad give up on protecting Li Hao.

Their target had always been Li Hao.
