

The Billionaire Alpha's Contract Lover by Caesar Erickson

Chapter 1161

Chapter 1161

Taya simply pretended not to know Johnny, since they had only met once and it was normal not to remember.

Upon hearing this, Johnny's face turned black and he clenched his fists tightly in his trouser pockets.

Stay calm.

Don't get angry.

After all, she is his cousin.

He gritted his teeth, calmed himself down, slowly unclenched his fists, and with difficulty, put on a "friendly" smile.

"Cousin, your original name is Elizabeth, you are the daughter of my aunt Sumasa, and I am your cousin, Johnny."

"So you're Johnny?"

Taya crossed her arms and looked up and down at

"My husband told me that you are his enemy."

After speaking, she looked skeptical.

"You're not making up this cousin story to trick me into going out with you, so you can kidnap me and threaten my husband, are you?"

She deliberately acted like a noblewoman, extending her manicured nails and pointing at his nose, arrogantly saying.

"Let me tell you, don't even think about it. My pack has many bodyguards, be careful they carry you out and throw you away!"

So far, Johnny only has one adjective to describe his cousin, and that is "lacking in education."

It is said that she grew up in an orphanage and sold herself to Griffon for few years to save her ex-boyfriend.

Coming from such a background, it's that ner

cy may not be very high.

But could she really have turned into this kind of person after mating into a wealthy pack?

Johnny tried to convince himself that she was just a distant cousin who had some flaws, and that it was okay.

www

“As for your background, I believe Griffon must have looked into it. If he hasn’t told you, then ask him and he will give you the answer.”

Griffon could find out anything.

He must have known about Taya’s identity a long time ago, but just didn’t tell her.

But even if it were Griffon himself, he wouldn’t have told her.

Look at her silly and naive appearance, she doesn’t seem very smart.

Who would tell such an important secret to a fool?

But Griffon is also very emotional, and even mated a fool.

And he mated into the Carmine pack, isn’t he afraid of being discovered by the Knight pack?

Thinking of this, Johnny suddenly realized something...

Taya is the daughter of his aunt, and she mated Griffon, so Griffon is his...

Brother-in-law?!

Ew!

He didn’t want to be related to Griffon at all!!!

Chapter 1162

Johnny, who felt more and more uneasy, suddenly didn’t want to acknowledge Taya.

But thinking of his mother, Johnny, who was a filial person, gritted his teeth and endured it.

“Why should I listen to you and ask my husband such a boring question?”

Taya continued to play dumb.

The anger he had just suppressed suddenly surged up again.

“You woman!”

Johnny couldn’t take it anymore. He rolled up his shirt sleeves and was about to rush over, but was stopped by Herb who came out of the car.

“Brother, let me do it, let me do it...”

After stopping Johnny’s raging anger, Herb turned around friendly and faced Taya.

“Sister, do you remember when I told you before that you look like a relative of mine?”

Taya saw that Herb was came with Johnny and her expression darkened slightly, but she pretended not to notice and nodded.

“Yes, I remember. But didn’t I tell you that I had plastic surgery based on Rosalie’s design? Have you forgotten what I used to look like? Do you want to see again?”

As she spoke, she took out her phone from her pocket, which frightened Herb and he immediately raised his hand to stop her.

“Sister, there’s no need to show me that disgusting picture.”

Compared to Johnny, who has bipolar disorder, he seemed to be more patient.

“My aunt saw you receiving an award on TV and said you looked exactly like my younger aunt when she was young. So don’t try to use plastic surgery to deceive me.

It turned out that Johnny’s mother saw her at the awards ceremony, which exposed her identity.

Why would Johnny’s mother be interested in the architecture industry’s awards ceremony?

Their industry doesn’t even have live broadcasts, only press conferences that are reported online. How did she happen to see it?

Could it be that his mother has always been interested in the architecture industry?

It’s possible that Johnny’s mother is the one who really wants to find Rosalie.

Taya thought about it and it seemed likely, otherwise his mother wouldn’t be interested in the architecture industry.

She must know that Rosalie is an internationally renowned architect, which is why she keeps up with the industry’s trends.

But why does Johnny’s mother want to find Rosalie?

Chapter 1163

Before Taya could figure things out, Herb stepped forward and spoke to her through the railing.

“Sister, if you hadn’t used plastic surgery as an excuse to deceive me, maybe I would have believed that you didn’t know about your own identity.”

“But you not only lied to me, you also forbade me from taking photos. Later, you even deliberately covered yourself with a veil, afraid that my father would recognize you.”
you

“All of this shows that you already knew that and your mother looked alike when she was young, which is why you were afraid we would recognize you.”

In just a few words, Herb exposed Taya’s lies.

Johnny, who had already planned to sit in the car and let Herb handle it, suddenly stopped and turned to look at her.

Her expression had changed from arrogant and proud to heavy and calm, with clear and bright eyes.

In other words... this cousin who seemed to know everything was just playing with him?!

Heh...

Johnny sneered, picked up his pace, forcefully passed through the bodyguards’ obstruction, and walked up to Taya.

There was only an iron gate separating the two of them, but through this gate, he could finally see her face clearly.

With thick eyebrows and big eyes, almond-shaped and cold in spring, her face is like a peach blossom, her skin is so delicate, her lips red and teeth white, and her hair like seaweed hanging down by her waist.

She has a graceful figure, a slender waist that can be held with one hand, and her whole body is filled with a clear and fragrant scent, as well as a pure and charming sexy aura. What surprised him even more was her eyes, like a pool of spring water, able to hold the stars in the sky and the vast sea.

Johnny had seen Taya before, but he forgot her after just one glance.

Now, as he carefully stared at her, he suddenly engraved her appearance into his mind.

This surprised him for a moment, but he didn't care and just stared at her, saying coldly:

"My cousin has already made it clear, you don't need to play hide and seek with us anymore."

Taya's eyes changed slightly, but she remained calm and looked at Johnny, who had a gun pointed at his forehead by the bodyguard.

"You haven't even done a paternity test on me, and you've already assumed that I'm your cousin?"

Didn't Herb say that one of Alice, Sumasa, and Ashley is not from the Carmine pack?

She thought Sumasa must not be from the Carmine pack, otherwise why would the Carmine pack treat her so badly?

Taya, who wanted to guide Johnny to do a paternity test, was surprised and then sarcastically commented on them.

"You big wealthy packs are too hasty in recognizing your relatives, aren't you?"

Chapter 1164

Johnny stood with his hands in his pockets, looking down at Taya.

"Your face has already proven everything, there's no need for a paternity test."

With a face very similar to Alice's, it was indeed difficult to turn these two away. She could only first find out their purpose for coming.

"If you insist on calling me your cousin, I can't stop you. Since we've established our relationship, you can go back first. I'm tired and need to sleep."

She pretended to turn around and leave, but Herb stopped her with a step.

"Sister, wait a minute."

Herb tried to push away the bodyguard blocking him, but couldn't. He could only stand in place and persuade her.

"The thing is, we came to find you not only to relationship, but also to ask you to see my aunt for the last time."

This was their purpose for coming to find her?

It was that simple?

Taya, with a skeptical attitude, scanned Herb and Johnny up and down with her eyes.

Herb's eyes were clear and sincere, with a hint of earnestness. He didn't seem like he was lying.

But Johnny's face was cold and frosty, with an inscrutable gleam in his eyes. He didn't look like a good person no matter how you looked at him.

"Sister, my aunt just wants to see her sister's relatives before she passes away. That's why we came to find you."

"This is my aunt's only wish in this world. Come with me to Aronland, I promise to take you to see her and then bring you back."

If she hadn't watched the video her mother left behind, she might have been moved by Herb's words by now.

After all, as an orphan, she must have been hoping to find her relatives. Unfortunately, she knew everything now...

Back then, Sumasa was kicked out of the Carmine pack, while Johnny's mother Alice mated Sumasa's fiancé.

Apart from Jocelyn's reason for disfiguring Sumasa, Alice might have used some means as well.

After Alice mated, Sumasa came to her for help with her two pups, but Alice didn't lend a hand. Decades later, two cousins came to find her, saying they wanted to see their sister's relatives for the last time. Who would dare to go?

Taya thought that Herb might not know the purpose of the Brook pack, so he helped persuade her. She didn't want to get involved and just gave Johnny a cold glance.

"If you want me to go to Aronland, go ask my husband. If he agrees, then I'll go."

Johnny, who previously thought Taya was a simpleton, now had to look at her in a new light. He pushed away the gun held by the bodyguard against his forehead and took another step forward, leaning against the black railing.

"Since you don't want to go, then I'll have to go talk to the Knight pack about your background..."

Chapter 1165

Taya's expression tightened, but she still pretended to be calm and raised the corner of her proud lips towards Johnny.

"As you wish."

With that, she quickly turned around and walked towards the castle.

She had to call Griffon and ask him to think of a solution.

After all, Griffon's grandfather had never approved of her. If he found out she was from the Carmine pack...

Even if she could demand a paternity test later to prove she wasn't from the Carmine pack, there was still a risk. Who knew if the information Herb provided was accurate?

If it was accurate, she could use it to escape from the Carmine pack and block the hatred of the Knight pack.

wasn't accurate, Griffon's grandfather would definitely be furious and might even force them to unmate.

She and Griffon had only been mated for less than two months, and they hadn't enjoyed their sweet and peaceful days for long. She didn't want Johnny to ruin it all.

Looking at the charming figure walking away, Herb furrowed his brows tightly.

"Brother, why does she seem to not trust us?"

He glanced at the bodyguard standing nearby like a statue and impatiently turned around to walk towards the car.

"Hey, bro, are we just leaving like this? Aren't you going to persuade her?"

"I've tried persuading her. If it worked, she would have agreed to come with us already!"

"So what do we do now?"

Auntie looks like she's about to collapse. We can't wait any longer.

"What do we do..."

He opened the car door, got in, and lifted his irritable and gloomy eyes to look coldly in the direction of the castle.

He always liked to act quickly. Since she wasn't afraid of exposing his identity, he would stir up trouble.

If she was kicked out of the Knight pack, would there still be so many bodyguards following her?

At that time, he would be the one to decide whether to take her away, carry her away, or abduct her!

He pulled the seatbelt over and ordered the driver to start the car.

The driver trembled and turned his head. "J-Johnny, the tire, you just punctured it..." you forget?

Johnny:...

He gritted his teeth and kicked the driver. "Then why didn't you go look for a replacement? What are you waiting for, for me to turn into a tire and roll away?!"

The driver held his arm that was kicked and quickly opened the car door to look for a tire.

However, after looking around the entire Blue Bay Island, there was only one household, the Knight pack.

Driver: ...

Did he have to walk down the mountain and call for another car?

Johnny, sitting in the car, was annoyed. He took off his tie and took out his phone to call Dominic Knight.

Chapter 1166

Upon returning to the living room, Taya immediately called Griffon and told him everything about the incident with the person who came looking for her.

Griffon, who had already received the news from the bodyguard, comforted her in a gentle voice, "Don't worry, I'm already taking care of it."

As soon as the bodyguard contacted him, he made a call to Italy and instructed the bodyguard to keep a close eye on his grandfather.

Johnny's plan was to expose Taya's identity, and the first person he would go to was Dominic Knight. If Griffon could restrain him, the others would be easy to deal with.

Upon hearing the calm and gentle voice, Taya's panicked heart gradually settled down. "That's good, I was so worried."

The man sitting in the CEO's office raised his lips

"worry leave

g to me.

No matter what happened, this man always said the same thing, "Okay, with you here, I won't worry."

Griffon's smile spread to his eyes. "If you want to go out, just let Peter follow you. You don't have to be afraid of anyone."

He was actually prepared for her identity to be exposed, and seemed to have everything under control, without any panic.

Taya sweetly replied "Okay, thank you, honey" before hanging up the phone and continuing to focus on drawing her design.

Griffon put down his phone, slowly wiped the smile off his face, and looked up at Sebastian.

"Sebastian, the project we were working on in North America has come to an end. Why don't you take some time off and go abroad?"

Sebastian's father was killed by Adam Carmine. If Johnny used Adam's identity to stir up trouble for the Knight pack, Griffon hoped that his loyal brother would stay away and not cause any trouble for Adam.

When Sebastian heard that his vampire boss was giving him time off, he was so surprised that he slapped Christopher's thigh. "Christopher, did you hear that? Griffon is actually giving me time off. Am I hearing things?"

Christopher, who was sitting on the couch with his arms crossed and his posture upright, glanced at Sebastian. "What's so exciting about that? It's just time off. I haven't taken any time off in 365 days. Look at me, I'm not excited..."

After glancing at Sebastian, Christopher looked at Griffon. "I haven't taken any time off in 365 days. Some people take a month off for their honeymoon, and others take time off for every project they work on. As a space researcher, I'm really lucky. I don't have to take time off..."

Sebastian: "Stop being so sarcastic. Didn't Griffon give you seven days off for your mating ceremony? He's already been good to you."

Christopher snorted. "Do you know why I haven't had a pup yet?"

Sebastian: "Because you're not fertile?"

Christopher rolls his eyes at him. "Is it because I am not fertile? Or is it because I don't have the time?!"

Being locked up in the research institute day after day, he had almost forgotten what his own she-wolf looked like, let alone having a pup.

Christopher stared at the man sitting in the CEO seat, grinding his teeth. "Griffon, I haven't had a day off in 365 days. I need a break too!"

Griffon responded expressionlessly, "If the project in the lab isn't developed in a day, you can't take a day off."

Christopher stood up in anger and left, "I don't want to stay here for another second..."

Sebastian waved his hand. "Take care."

Chapter 1167

Griffon looked at his watch and then glanced at Sebastian. "You're not leaving, do you want to stay here for lunch?"

Sebastian waved his hand. "My wife will bring me lunch later. I'll just sit here for a while and then leave."

Griffon's eyes flickered. "Your wife... brings you lunch every day?"

Sebastian smiled. "Yes, my wife says the food outside is not clean, so she insists on bringing it to me herself."

As soon as he finished speaking, a graceful figure appeared outside the CEO's office.

Sebastian's wife was holding a lunch box and waving at him.

Seeing his she-wolf, he quickly uncrossed his legs. "Griffon, I'm leaving now. Remember to eat your lunch."

Watching Sebastian take his she-wolf's lunch box and hold her hand as they walked into the elevator, Griffon's expression softened slightly.

He picked up his personal phone from the table and hesitated for a few seconds before sending a message to Taya.

[Dear, the food in the company cafeteria isn't very delicious.]

Taya, who was drawing, didn't react much to the message.

[Then go out to eat. I remember there are many high-end restaurants outside the company.

Why don't you pick one?]

After lightly raising his handsome eyebrows a few times, he typed a reply.

[The restaurants outside is too far away.]

[Then why not order takeout?]

He stared at the message for a while before giving a helpless smile.

Forget it, he didn't want to bother his she-wolf. Let her stay comfortably at home.

Seeing that Griffon didn't reply to her message, she put down her paintbrush, rested her chin on her hand, and scrolled through their chat history.

Could it be... that he wants her to deliver lunch to the company?

She realized that she had never been to Knight Corporation as Mrs. Knight, so why not go and take a look?

With that in mind, Taya got up and went to the kitchen, where she personally cooked a bowl of chicken soup and prepared a few dishes.

After putting everything in a thermal container, she called Peter and a group of bodyguards and went to Knight Corporation.

The man sitting in front of the computer, dealing with business matters, heard a knock on the door and looked up. "Come in."

His a*sistant, Hailey, walked in. "Alpha, I'm here to remind you that it's time for lunch."

Hailey was Griffon's personal a*sistant and managed his eating and drinking during work hours, so she would always remind him to eat on time.

Griffon didn't show much expression, just made a sound of agreement, and then withdrew his gaze without even looking at the person outside the door.

Hailey, standing outside the door, hesitated for a few seconds, but still gathered her courage and knocked on the CEO's door again. "Alpha, I... bought lunch for you."

When Hailey joined the company, she had a crush on Griffon. After being promoted to his personal a*sistant, she took the opportunity to get closer to him.

Without waiting for Griffon's response, she directly picked up the paper bag and walked to his desk, taking out the exquisitely packaged lunch boxes one by one and placing them on the table.

After arranging them, she brought clean and hygienic chopsticks and handed them to him.

"Alpha, please try it and see if it suits your taste. If it does, I'll order more in the future."

Taya arrived at the CEO's office and happened to see this scene through the floor-to-ceiling window. She paused her steps.

Chapter 1168

Hailey offered the chopsticks to Griffon, but he didn't respond. She felt uneasy as he gave her a cold stare, but she still mustered up the courage. "Alpha, please try it..."

His handsome face showed a hint of coldness. "Who told you to bring me food?"

His personal assistant was only responsible for reminding him to eat, so Hailey didn't need to do this.

His voice was even colder than during meetings, which frightened Hailey. "I heard that you have a weak stomach, and I was afraid that the company's cafeteria might not be clean, so I took the initiative to buy food outside."

His eyes, as cold as snow, were filled with disgust. "Get out!"

Hailey was so scared that she froze in place:

Hailey was so scared that she froze in place.

She thought that by bringing him food, he would see her as a caring assistant. She never expected him to tell her to leave.

She felt wronged as she looked at the man in front of her, who was as handsome as a painting.

He didn't even give her a glance, as if looking at her for a second longer would make him sick.

She believed that she was both beautiful and talented, and her male colleagues at the company all adored her. She never expected the CEO to be so rude.

Despite feeling wronged, she knew when to back down. She turned around and left, but Griffon called out to her.

"Stop!"

Thinking that she still had a chance, Hailey's lips curved upwards.

Griffon's face was cold and full of disgust. "Take this trash away, and you're fired."

Even though the executives and employees of Kilight Corporation did not attend his mating ceremony, everyone in the company knew that he is mated.

He also wore a mating ring with the letter "T" engraved on it.

This assistant used her position to get close to him, and her behavior was so inappropriate that she had no reason to stay.

Hailey never expected to be fired just for delivering lunch to the CEO. Tears streamed down her face.

"Alpha, I only delivered you lunch. I didn't do anything wrong. Why am I being fired...?"

Before she could finish her sentence, Griffon interrupted her coldly, "Shut up and get out of here right now!"

She never expected him to be so ruthless. A sense of shame rushed over her, making her face turn red with anger.

Crying and angry, she packed up her things and ran out with a big bag, covering her face.

Taya was shocked to see the young girl running out in tears.

She was just thinking about how to fight back when she went in.

She didn't expect that she wouldn't have to do anything, as the man inside had already taken care of it.

It seemed that her husband is quite well-behaved.

Taya carried a thermal box and knocked on the door of the CEO's office.

A bone-chilling voice came from inside, "Go away!"

Peter, who was following her, couldn't help but raise an eyebrow. "Madam, he told you to go away."

Taya hooked the corner of her lips at his words. "Go in and ask him if he really told me to go away."

Peter, who loved to stir up trouble, nodded quickly.

"Okay, I'll go ask and see what expression he makes."

Peter took a step forward and pushed open the door of the CEO's office. "Alpha, your wife has come to bring you lunch."

Griffon thought it was Hailey who had returned, but he didn't expect the person pushing the door to be Peter. "Where is she?"

Peter, who didn't mind causing trouble, deliberately said, "Didn't you just tell her to go away? She's already gone."

11

Taya, who was hiding nearby, couldn't help but cover her mouth and laugh when she heard him say that. This Peter was even more mischievous than Zack.

Chapter 1169

Upon hearing that Taya had left, Griffon quickly stood up and rushed out without even looking around, heading straight for the elevator.

After exchanging a glance with Peter, she walked up to him and patted his shoulder, "Honey, I'm right here. Where are you going?"

Griffon turned around and saw her facing the sun, tilting her head and staring at him with a smile, and the previous gloom suddenly disappeared.

She lifted the thermal lunch box in her hand and shook it in front of him, "Let's go, have lunch together in your office."

Seeing the thermal lunch box in her hand, his expression gradually became one of delight and surprise.

His she-wolf came to the company to bring him lunch, how wonderful!

He took the thermal lunch box with one hand and grabbed Taya with the other, pulling her into the CEO's office.

"What did the chef make?"

"What do you mean? I made it myself, four dishes and a soup, all your favorites. Even Grace doesn't get this treatment."

The smile on his lips became even more profound.

"How can Grace compare to me?"

Seeing him acting so spoiled that he was about to fly, Taya couldn't help but tease him.

"Ah, if I had known that a beauty was bringing you lunch, I wouldn't have come."

"Darling, it was the assistant who took the liberty of bringing me lunch without my permission. Don't misunderstand, I have already sent her away."

She rested her chin on her hand and looked at Griffon, who looked flustered.

"You didn't deliberately send her away because you saw me coming, did you?"

"I..."

"No need to explain. I know what it's like for men to work outside."

Griffon put down the insulated lunch box and hugged Taya's waist, letting her sit on his lap.

"I'm different from other men. You are the only one in my heart. Don't joke about things like this."

Taya, who wanted to tease him a little more, saw that he was serious and fell silent.

"Just kidding."

"Joking is not appropriate."

She shut her mouth.

He looked up and taught her what was "one life, one love, one pair" meant.

His nagging annoyed her, so she looked back at the insulated lunch box on the table.

"It will get cold if you don't eat it soon..."

Griffon stopped talking and let her go.

Before picking up the chopsticks, he educated her again:

"Don't say things like that again in the future."

Chapter 1170

Taya tried to get off his lap, but he held onto her waist and wouldn't let her go.

"Sit still, I'll feed you."

She wanted to refuse, but was afraid of his nagging, so she obediently sat there, waiting to be fed.

Before Griffon fed her, he did something unusual and took out his phone to take a picture.

She leaned over to take a look and saw that he was editing his social media post. She widened her eyes in surprise.

"You're not really going to post this on social media, are you?"

His Adam's apple moved slightly as he made a soft "mm" sound.

He wanted to let Sebastian know that he also had a she-wolf who brought him food.

If you want to post it, go ahead. But why did you tag Sebastian?"

"I don't like him."

"Mr. Alpha, is there anyone from the Knight pack that you like?"

"No."

After he finished posting, he put down his phone, picked up the spoon, and fed Taya the first bite, and then finished the rest of her food.

Taya got off his lap and sat on the sofa next to him, propping her chin up with one hand, watching him eat slowly.

He was a bit of a clean freak, but he never minded her.

Her husband really loved her.

She felt sweet in her heart and looked at him with more affection.

3/5

She was willing to spend the rest of her life with him like this, hoping that heaven would bless them.

She watched him finish his meal and went to tidy up the insulated lunch box, but the man wouldn't let her touch it.

He took her hand, placed it in his palm, and lifted his beautiful star-like eyes to look at her.

"Dear, don't do this anymore. Your hands are for drawing designs, not for cooking."

Taya, who was standing, leaned slightly forward and whispered in the man's ear:

"If you pick a lychee rose for me every morning, I'll bring you lunch every day at noon. Let's see who can keep it up until the end."

Griffon smiled, his eyes filled with sunshine that was as bright as the one outside the floor-to-ceiling window, making his eyebrows curve.

"Dear, why are you so good to me?"

"It's not that great. From now on, a chef will make it."

She didn't have that much time to cook, but...

"For important holidays, I'm still willing to cook for you myself."

After Taya finished speaking, she picked up the mouthwash and handed it to Griffon.

It was his habit to clean his mouth after a meal.

The man took it and went to the bathroom.

As he came out, he saw her leaning against the bookshelf with a book on management in her hands.

She was standing in a spot where the sunlight was shining on her, and her face was giving off a faint halo in the sunlight.

Her skin under the halo was white with a hint of red, smooth like a peeled egg, causing him to involuntarily tighten his lower abdomen.

The man's originally clear eyes gradually became clouded with a hint of impure thoughts.

He shifted his gaze towards the lounge in the CEO's office and thought about the bed inside...

Chapter 1171

"Babe."

Griffon withdrew his gaze and walked towards Taya with ill intentions.

"We haven't made love in the office yet, do you want to try?"

As soon as she heard this, she stood up straight and took several steps back, away from him.

"Don't come over!"

He said that he won't come over, but his feet didn't obey him. With a few strides, he walked up to her and hugged her.

"It's lunchtime, no one will disturb us."

He kicked the door of the rest room, went in, and shut the door with his foot.

With a bang, the door closed, locked tightly, and the automatic curtains closed, plunging the rest room into

"Griffon, the company is for work, not for fooling around..."

Taya struggled, trying to persuade the man who only had Sual desire in his mind.

However, it was useless.

After suppressing her, the man skillfully kissed her sensitive parts.

She pushed him away, "I don't want to!"

The man holding her whispered in a low, magnetic voice, "Two minutes, and you won't say no anymore..."

Taya thought to herself, "I don't believe it." Her lips were blocked, and a crazily hot breath invaded her body, occupying every single cell.

She felt like she was taken into a tropical rainforest, so hot that she became limp all over, but her feet were uncontrollable, climbing on his waist.

She grabbed the bedsheet tightly, turned her eyes to the alarm clock placed on the bedside, it was just about two minutes...

After Griffon had teased her mind, he suddenly let her go, lowered his eyes, and looked at her, who was already wet all over.

"Do you still want to continue now?"

She pretended to be tough, "No."

He nodded lightly, got up from the bed.

Looking at his extremely smooth and strong back, she felt that what was emanating from him was no longer just handsome, but a masculine scent that was invading.

That bursting and strong masculine scent stimulated her hormones, making Taya's lips dry and swallowing saliva.

However, it was impossible for her to take the initiative.

She could not possibly take the initiative to say that she wanted it, that would be too embarrassing!

She pulled the blanket over her face, but lifted a corner to secretly glance at him.

The man was dressing slowly, with a look that he was not intended to continue.

Taya stared at his abs, which were strong and firm, and the hair that fell to block his beautiful face.

After biting her teeth, she stretched out a little finger from under the blanket, hooked it towards him, and said, "Babe, I surrender."

Chapter 1172

Griffon glanced at the woman wrapped in a blanket, with only one finger exposed, and a smile curved on her lips.

"Come over here."

Taya was shy, which was why he asked her to come over, but she asked him to come over instead. If she went over, it would seem like she was offering herself, which she didn't want to do.

"You come over here."

His eyelashes trembled slightly, and he suppressed the urge to embrace her, lowered his head, and pretended to continue getting dressed as if nothing had happened.

Taya became anxious when she saw him about to fasten his belt. She lifted the blanket and rushed over to hug his waist.

"You forced me to take the initiative."

a sign of re

eller when her small hands wrapped around his waist.

If she had been a second later, he would have surrendered and given up.

He didn't expect his wife to be even more impatient than him, but it was also good...

He smiled and turned around.

With one hand holding her body, he lifted her up and held her in his arms.

He lowered his head, wanting to kiss her fiercely, but his thin lips were blocked by a fair hand.

"Don't be in a hurry, let me do it..."

Griffon raised his eyebrows, looking somewhat incredulous. "You do it? How are you going to do it?"

ww

Taya, with a hint of revenge in her heart, got off him and suddenly pulled his belt backwards.

After the two of them fell onto the soft bed, her icy-cold little hand slowly slid from his abdominal muscles to his belt.

He saw her fingers pause at the position of his abdominal muscles for a few seconds before suddenly undoing his belt.

"What...what are you doing?"

Taya, with seductive eyes, lowered her head and kissed his thin lips.

"Whatever you want."

As the woman's fragrance wafted through the air, a light kiss on the lips sent a wave of tingling sensations throughout his body.

Griffon's lower abdomen warmed up as a rush of warmth flowed through him, and his heightened emotions made him feel like he was on cloud nine.

Feeling impatient, he grabbed her waist and flipped her over, wanting to pin her down beneath him.

As he reached to part her thighs, Taya grabbed his wrist and stopped him.

Griffon looked up at her with a dazed expression and asked, "Hmm? Aren't we going to make love?"

She shook her head and suddenly pushed him down, straddling him.

He gazed into her enchanting and alluring eyes, which sparkled like stars.

"You..."

Before he could finish his sentence, his body stiffened.

This was the first time his wife had ever done something like this, and he was overwhelmed with heat and desire, wanting to consume her completely, yet also savoring her kisses like sweet candy.

Two minutes later—

Taya nibbled on his earlobe and coquettishly asked, "Honey, do you want it?"

Griffon, already consumed by desire, nodded slightly. "Yes..."

She smirked victoriously and lowered her head to continue kissing him.

Three minutes later—

The man, unable to bear it any longer, held the back of her head and pressed his forehead against hers, begging her, "You're driving me crazy. Can you let me in?"

She raised a finger and gently pushed his shoulder. "No—"

Not only did she not let him in, but she also pushed him away when he was about to go crazy.

Then, she picked up the clothes on the ground, quickly slipped into the bathroom, and locked the door.

Hmph, he wanted to play games with her, so he could solve it himself!

The man, burning with desire, looked at the charming figure in the bathroom and finally realized that he had been tricked.

He suppressed his desire, picked up a nearby towel, wrapped it around his lower body, and walked to the bathroom door, leaning against it.

"How long do you plan to stay in there?"

Taya, who was getting dressed, heard his voice but didn't even bother to look up.

"Until you lose your desire."

She would wait until he no longer wanted it before coming out and then quickly escape.

Griffon chuckled, "Okay, you stay in there. I'm going to a meeting."

Hmph, he wanted to trick her into coming out again. She would rather sit on the toilet and scroll through her phone than go out.

Griffon, who was halfway out the door, saw that she didn't open the door and paused. It seemed that his wife had become more cunning.

He stared at the bathroom door, thought for a moment, changed his clothes, and turned to leave the lounge.

Hearing the sound of opening and closing the door, she thought he had really left, got up, walked to the door lightly, and quietly opened it.

She blinked her eyes through the gap, looked around the lounge, and saw no sign of Griffon, so she quickly walked out.

She was about to open the door of the lounge and rush out of the CEO's office when she ran into a wall.

Taya looked up along the strong chest and saw a flawless and beautiful face, which was full of indulgent smiles, and smiled at her.

"Teasing me, you have to be punished."

"I don't want to!"

She stepped back and wanted to run into the bathroom, but she was picked up around the waist.

The man held her horizontally, threw her onto the bed, and then eagerly pressed down on her.

"Today, whether you want it or not, it's up to you."

If the fire is ignited, it must be extinguished, otherwise he will be burned.

Chapter 1173

Taya, who had S with Griffon for twice, got into the car.

Feeling weak, she leaned against the car window and checked the time on her phone...

It was already 4:30 pm. She had wasted the whole afternoon with him. How annoying...

She gritted her teeth and said to Peter, "Peter, Grace finishes school at 5 pm. Let's go pick her up first."

The school she contacted for Grace happened to be the same school as Phill's. The school had good security, so she didn't have to worry too much.

Peter, who was driving, glanced at her and said, "Madam, you look tired. Do you have the energy to pick up the pup?"

Taya blushed and said, "I...I'm not tired..."

He frowned and said, "Really? You're walking like you have bow legs. That's not tired?"

She sighed and covered her forehead with her hand.

What kind of person did Griffon find? He's just like him, saying whatever he wants.

He continued, "Why don't I take you back first and then send someone else to pick up the pup?"

Taya replied, "...Whatever you want."

If they kept talking like this, she was afraid Peter would ask her how it felt to be cuddling with Greyson in bed.

Taya rested her head against the car window for a while. When she opened her eyes, the car had slowly stopped at the Blue Bay Island.

As she got out of the car, she looked up and saw a group of people standing outside the castle. Frank, behind the iron gate, hesitated between opening and not opening it, his brows furrowed. He was facing Taya's direction, and through the owd, he saw her getting off the car.

"Sir, Madam is back. Why don't you ask her if she can come in..."

After Griffon transferred Frank from the Knight Mansion to Blue Bay Island, he instructed him not to allow anyone to enter the castle, including the Knight pack, unless they were Taya's friends. Otherwise, no one was allowed in.

Frank strictly adhered to this rule, and was almost scolded to death by Dominic.

Now that he saw Taya coming back, it was like seeing a savior.

"Madam, the master wants to see you..."

Standing in front of the car door, Taya instinctively tightened her grip on her phone when Dominic turned around.

Chapter 1174

In front of her were a sea of people, all of them Knight pack members led by Dominic.

There were people mentioned by Preston, such as Grandpa Sam, Auntie, and others whom Taya didn't know well, and had only met once at the mating ceremony.

As soon as this group of people saw her, a look of hostility flashed in their eyes, the kind of hatred that made them want to devour her flesh and blood.

Under the gaze of such hatred, cold sweat broke out on her back, soaking her clothes in an instant.

Dominic walked up to her with his dragon-headed cane, his sharp eyes scanning her up and down.

"Should I call you Miss Palmer or Miss Carmine?"

It seems that Johnny had told him.

Taya squeezed her phone and looked back at Peter.

was sitting in the car, had already sent a message to Griffon.

When he saw her looking at him, he quickly nodded at her.

Understanding his gesture, Taya regained her courage and faced Dominic.

"Grandpa, please go in first..."

"No!"

He raised his hand to stop her and said, "Don't call me grandpa. I don't have a daughter-in-law like you."

Although she felt a little uneasy, Taya remained calm and gentle, "Then I'll call you Mr. Knight."

Dominic, who was ungrateful, snorted coldly, "Whatever you call me, it won't change the fact that you are a member of the Carmine pack. So tell me, are you trying to get close to Griffon, change your name and identity, and use all means to become his wife for revenge against the Knight pack, or are you trying to seize all the Knight pack's a*sets?"

After a moment of confusion, Taya regained her composure and said, "Mr. Knight, I grew up in the Arcadia orphanage and my name was given to me by the director. My ID was also issued by the director. My name is Taya and I have never changed it. If you don't believe me, you can check the records."

Dominic was skeptical and said, "The Carmine pack is known for creating fake identities. I fell for it once, but I won't fall for it again."

What does he mean by "fell for it once"? Did someone from the Carmine pack with a fake identity manage to infiltrate the Knight pack?

Taya was suspicious, but didn't have the energy to investigate further at the checkpoint. "Alpha Knight, everything I said is true. I didn't create a fake identity. I have always been called Taya. As for the Miss Carmine you mentioned, I only found out about it recently. But my mother has already been expelled from the Carmine pack. We have no relationship with them anymore. And my mother may not even be from the Carmine pack. You can't..."

Dominic was impatient and interrupted her, "Enough, no matter what you say, it won't change anything."

This means that if she is from the Carmine pack, no matter what her reasons or circumstances are, he will still sentence her to death.

Chapter 1175

Taya remained silent and stopped explaining, "Mr. Knight, why did you bring so many uncles and aunts here?"

Dominic didn't beat around the bush and explained directly, "You should unmate Griffon and leave the Knight pack immediately."

Taya helplessly said, "I cannot agree to that."

It was impossible for her to unmate Griffon. Without him, how could she go on living?

Hearing her say this, Dominic didn't react much, he just turned to look at the Knight pack standing outside the castle.

"Miss Carmine, do you know how many people from my Knight pack were killed by the Carmine pack?"

He pointed his dragon-headed cane at one of the old ladies, "It was Adam who killed my brother-in-law."

After that, he pointed to the young girl next to the old lady, "Her mother was killed by Adam's son, Carson..."

With each person he pointed to with his cane, it represented a life lost. All the Knight pack members outside the castle saw the Carmine pack as their mortal enemy.

Finally, Dominic's cane landed on two photos, "My son and daughter-in-law died while on a business trip to Aronland."

When he mentioned this, his eyes suddenly turned red. In his teary eyes, there was an uncountable amount of hatred, "Carmine pack killed my son, do you think I can forgive you?!"

He shouted the last sentence through gritted teeth, showing just how much he hated the Carmine pack.

But how innocent was Taya? She had never even met the elders of the Carmine pack, yet she had to bear the hatred brought by her pack.

"Alpha Knight, I sympathize with you and the uncles and aunts, but this has nothing to do with me. I didn't...

She wanted to say that she didn't get involved, but Dominic's dragon-headed cane suddenly smashed towards her.

He moved too fast, and Taya didn't even have time to dodge. Her thin arm was hit hard by the stick...

The old man wanted to hit her again, but before he could, someone grabbed the cane.

Peter snatched the cane from him and broke it in half over his knee.

"I'm here. Whoever dares to bully Griffon's wife will have to get past me first!"

Peter thought Griffon's grandfather was at least a reasonable old man. Who would have thought that he would lose his temper and actually hit Taya?

Chapter 1176

Peter, who had no awareness of this kind of defense, was one step too late when Dominic made the first strike, causing Taya to be hit for no reason. After giving the old man a fierce glare, Peter turned around and looked at Taya's arm.

"Are you okay?"

When

The pain of the impact on her flesh was quite intense, but she gritted her teeth and shook her head.

She held her left arm and looked up at Dominic, who was still angry.

"Mr. Knight, as it turns out, even if you beat me up, it won't relieve the anger in your heart. It will only make you and your grandson more estranged. Why bother?"

"Why bother?!"

Dominic shouted angrily, "You have captured my grandson's heart, made him lose his mind, and even forget his own pack's hatred. Do you think I don't need to bother?!"

Before, Dominic only thought that Taya's status was too low and not suitable for his grandson, but he didn't stop him too much. He followed Griffon's heart and let him mate her. He even went to the mating ceremony after receiving Taya's invitation to attend.

After all, he felt that a mating without the blessing of elders would not be happy. In his selfishness, he still hoped that his grandson could have a smooth and happy mating. So he put down his dignity, lowered his face, and went to the mating ceremony.

Who would have thought that this Taya was actually from the Carmine pack? This is the deep-seated enmity that has killed many people from the Knight pack. How could the head of the Knight pack mate someone from the Carmine pack? If Taya really came with a purpose, then the Knight pack would be completely finished!

Although the industry is now managed by Griffon, he cannot just let it go. This is the pack business that the Knight pack has worked hard to establish for generations. It absolutely cannot be taken away by the Carmine pack!

She knew that reasoning with Dominic was futile, so she took a step back and said, "How about you go inside and wait for a while. When Griffon finishes work and comes back, you can ask for his opinion. After all, unmating is not something that can be done just by talking about it."

Griffon would not agree, and he knew it. That's why he came to Aemeia first. "Unmating is indeed not something that can be done just by talking about it, but as long as you agree to it, I have a way to make him unmate you.

She frowned and said, "As I said before, I will not agree."

Upon hearing this, other members of Knight's pack sneered and said, "If you don't agree, then we'll treat you like an enemy in the Knight pack's way..."

Chapter 1177

Taya lifted her gaze and scanned the person speaking, "What method?"

Griffon's aunt's daughter stood before her, arms crossed and wearing high heels, "Of course, it's to kill her."

The way the Carmine pack treats the Knight pack is the way the Knight pack will treat the Carmine pack. No one will have it easy.

Taya felt that this cycle of revenge was never-ending. Wasn't this just making the ball of hatred grow bigger?

However, the Knight pack wouldn't listen to reason. But killing her would be too cruel.

Taya found it difficult to accept and looked at Dominic, "Mr. Knight, please consider Griffon's feelings."

Threatening him with Griffon's feelings was ridiculous. "Miss Carmine, the world will keep turning even if someone is gone."

Just like Griffon's father, who remated and had pups after losing his first she-wolf. Griffon could do the same.

Taya looked down at her wrist and thought of the four scars on Griffon's wrist. Her expression darkened, "He has attempted suicide for me four times. Between us, we love each other enough to give our lives. If one of us is gone, the other will want to follow. Do you want to see him die?"

Dominic's heart was pricked by her words. He remembered the scenes of Griffon being rescued time and time again. He looked at her with a hint of pity, "Of course, I don't want him to die. That's why I'm asking you to unmate him. If you agree to unmate, I'll let you go unharmed."

Taya held her aching arm and tried to persuade the old man, "We've been together for many years and have finally come this far. How could we easily get unmating?"

She explained the situation logically and appealed

Dominic's emotions, hoping that he would let go of his hatred and stop interfering in their mating. However, Dominic disagreed, saying, "You must unmate, you cannot be together!"

Taya was surprised and wanted to ask why they couldn't be together, but was interrupted by Griffon's aunt's daughter, "Grandpa, don't waste your time talking to her. It's meaningless. Let's wait for Griffon to come and he will have to give us an explanation."

"Susan is right. Griffon must give us an explanation. This is not something that can be solved by just getting a unmating. He must give us an explanation!"

The collateral relatives who had been expelled by Griffon saw this as an opportunity to regain their shares in the Knight pack and hurriedly returned with Dominic.

Dominic, who had been used twice, was immersed in the shameful secret and thought that no matter what, they must be separated. Therefore, the other members of the Knight pack criticized and condemned Taya.

Chapter 1178

No matter how harshly they spoke, Taya still let Frank open the door and let them in.

Peter, who was afraid that Dominic would strike again, followed closely behind Taya.

After leading them inside, Taya had the servant make tea before sitting down in the main seat.

Dominic told her to stand up, saying she wasn't worthy of sitting in the main seat, but this time Taya didn't comply.

"I haven't unmated my husband yet, so I am the hostess here and it's most appropriate for me to sit here."

With her back against the sofa and her arms crossed, she looked like a woman in control, which made Dominic feel a bit uncomfortable.

"Fine, let's see how long you can stay smug?!"

When they got unmated, she would be kicked out

Taya's confidence came entirely from the fact that Griffon wouldn't unmate her and was just waiting quietly.

At around 6:15, Griffon, who had heard that Taya had been beaten by his grandfather, walked quickly from outside the castle with his long, straight legs.

He was followed by a group of bodyguards who all walked behind the Knight pack sitting on the sofa.

The momentum seemed to be to drive them away, and some of the Knight pack's distant relatives shrank their necks.

Susan, on the other hand, sneered disdainfully, "Brother, what are you doing?"

Griffon didn't even look at her, but went straight to Taya, took her arm, and looked at it.

Seeing the red mark on her exposed arm, which was deeply indented, it was clear how much force had been used.

Mo

He touched it with a heartache, and she flinched in pain. It wasn't that she was being dramatic, it really hurt, and she was afraid that her bones were broken.

When she flinched, his heart trembled. "Andre, go get a doctor right away!"

Andre responded and took out his phone, turning to call Stella to hurry up and bring an orthopedic doctor over.

Griffon raised his hand and ruffled Taya's hair. "I'll help you get revenge for this beating."

As soon as he finished speaking, the man stood up straight and his icy, bloodthirsty eyes stared coldly at Dominic. "Did you do the hitting?"

Dominic was bold and unafraid. "So what if I did? Do you want to hit me back?"

He was an elder, Griffon's grandfather. What was wrong with him teaching Taya a lesson, especially since he was teaching a member of the Carmine pack?

Pe

Peter. "Give me the cane."

Peter immediately handed him the broken cane.

He took the cane and threw it in front of

Chapter 1179

Dominic and Knight's pack were stunned, but Susan was the first to react. "Griffon, he's your grandfather. How could you let him lay a hand on himself for the sake of an enemy? Don't you have any respect for your elders?"

Upon hearing this, Taya also grabbed Griffon's sleeve, but he grabbed her hand and sat down beside her. With his long legs crossed and his chin held high, he looked down on everyone and said, "Knowing that she's my wife, he still hit her. Does that show any respect for me?"

Susan, who couldn't hold back her anger, pointed at Taya and accused her, "Grandfather knew she was from the Carmine pack and was afraid she would mate you and infiltrate the Knight pack with a purpose. That's why he said a few words to her. But she talked back and said it had nothing to do with her. It was clearly her disrespectful words that made grandfather hit her!"

The Knight pack present also chimed in, "That's right, Griffon. You can't ignore right and wrong. It was clearly her disrespect towards D that came first. As an elder, shouldn't he have disciplined her?" Taya, who had originally wanted to let it go, slowly closed her mouth upon hearing this reversal of right and wrong. Her clear eyes stared straight at Dominic. In her opinion, although Domnic had never approved of her, he was not a stubborn person who couldn't distinguish right from wrong. She didn't expect him to choose silence. Fortunately, Peter, who had witnessed the whole thing, spoke up. "Taya has always been polite. It was Dominic who had nowhere to vent his anger and hit her before she could even finish speaking!" Susan wanted to retort, but Peter shut her down with one sentence, "There's full surveillance outside the castle. Let's watch the footage and talk!" Upon hearing the request to check the surveillance footage, the number of people present decreased significantly. However, Susan persisted, "Brother, Grandpa only resorted to violence out of anger. You know it yourself. My mother, Sebastian's parents, and other Knight pack members were all killed by the Carmine pack. Yet, you mated a woman from the Carmine pack. How could Grandpa not be angry? It was his anger that led him to vent his frustration through violence!" Susan was quite eloquent and persuasive, but Griffon was not convinced. "The grudge against the Carmine pack is one thing, but hitting my wife is another. Let's keep things separate." After speaking, Griffon pointed to the two halves of a cane on the table and raised his chin. "Dominic, you taught me from a young age that when dealing with things, we should use the same methods as the other person. You owe me, so let's settle the score with my wife first. Then we can talk about the Carmine pack." In other words, no matter what these people say, Griffon wants Dominic to hit him with a stick to settle the score for his she-wolf. Otherwise, there will be no further discussion!

Chapter 1180

Dominic's face turned livid with anger, and his chest heaved up and down. "Griffon, now that you have grown wings, you dare to act recklessly in front of me?" Griffon sat up straight, staring into Domnic's eyes and spoke coldly, "I have told you, she is my destiny. If you touch her, you touch my destiny. Since you don't take my words seriously, why should I not act recklessly in front of you?" What has Dominic brought to Griffon? Apart from standing by and watching when In Griffon's memory, he has never had any pack affection. If he had no use, he would have been thrown out long ago! The only light in Griffon's life is Taya, but why do these people insist on making his life difficult? Feeling the hand holding his own slightly trembling Taya knew that Griffon was recalling his unhappy pup period. She subconsciously held his hand tighter. She used the warmth of her palm to tell him: "Don't worry, I have always been by your side, accompanying you, and will never leave you." Griffon's hand finally stabilized. "I won't let her suffer for no reason. So, do as I say!" Dominic looked at Griffon with extreme disappointment, as if he was looking at a traitor. "I must have chosen the wrong person when I selected my successor.”

Griffon shrugged his shoulders indifferently, and tilted his head. Strands of hair fell over his forehead “It’s too late to regret now that things have come to this.

Dominic nodded, his heart turning cold. “Okay, I understand...”

He reached out to take the cane on the table, holding it in his palm and rubbing it. His eyes turned red.

Seeing the old man’s sad expression, Taya stood up and stopped him, “Mr. Knight, if you hit yourself today, Griffon’ reputation for disrespecting elders will be completely ruined. I don’t want him to disappoint your pack for my sake, so I won’t let you do this.”

Griffon didn’t care about his own reputation at all and didn’t want Taya to suffer for him. She shook her head at him, indicating that she would handle it herself. Griffon then suppressed his anger and didn’t speak again.

After taking the cane from the old man’s hand, Taya looked at him and said gently, “You hit me with a stick, and I’ll take it as if I’m taking it for the Carmine pack. But, sir, there are many misunderstandings about some things, and I still hope you can calm down and listen to me explain it to you clearly, okay?”
