The Billionaire Alpha's Contract Lover by Caesar Erickson Chapter 1241

Chapter 1241

When Taya heard that her bone marrow didn't match, she was already shocked. She didn't expect Alice to want her heart. Wasn't that a direct attack on her life?

Fortunately, they weren't a match. Otherwise, she wouldn't be sitting here peacefully, watching the strained relationship between Alice and Johnny due to the impossibility of a transplant.

As the show was coming to an end, Taya said to Johnny, "Since it has nothing to do with me, I'll leave first..."

She said this and tried to pull Griffon up, but the man beside her remained seated and motionless."

He leaned back in his chair, his fingers tapping lightly on his knee, while his cold, bone-chilling eyes swept coldly towards Alice.

"You have designs on my wife, do you think I'm easy to bully?"

This cold and indifferent sentence made Alice's body stiffen, and the resentment in her eyes, tearing apart the unfairness of the world, gradually subsided...

"Since we're not a match, there's no question of bullying or not, is there?"

"What if there were a match?"

If they were a match, she would naturally have someone give Griffon a sedative and immediately take Taya to the operating room for a transplant.

As the eldest daughter of the Carmine pack and the wife of the Brook pack, her life was more valuable than Taya's, wasn't it?

Alice thought evilly in her heart, but on the surface, she pretended that nothing had happened and said politely:

"If we were a match, then I could only ask her to donate bone marrow to me once..."

"What about the heart?"

After Taya interjected, she asked Alice in a sarcastic tone, "Do you still want me to give you my heart?"

Alice scoffed inwardly, "As if I would beg you. I would just take it out myself and replace mine." But on the surface, she said, "Of course not. I'll find another heart..."

Taya didn't believe her and said, "Ms. Carmine, if it were my sister standing here today, I believe you would force her to donate bone marrow and then take out her heart..."

Taya exposed Alice's true intentions, causing Alice's face to turn sour. However, because Griffon was present, she had to grit her teeth and suppress her anger. "I've seen the agreement for your sister's full-body or gan donation. May I ask who received her wolf-spirit?"

Alice only recently learned of Rosalie's death and hadn't had a chance to investigate who received his or gans, especially her wolf spirit. If she found the recipient and took out the wolf spirit, she didn't know if it would still be usable...

Taya shattered her illusion, "Her wolf spirit was donated to me. But I'm sorry, my sister's wolf spirit is not available for borrowing either..."

B

Chapter 1242

Upon hearing this, Alice froze and her gaze shifted slowly to Taya's chest. "Donated to you?" she asked with a sinister look.

Her eyes were too obvious, and Griffon saw through her immediately. "You're old, and continuing to live has no value. Why don't I help you end your life?" he said, pulling out a gun from his waist and playing with it while staring coldly at Alice.

As Alice saw the gun, her eyes widened and she trembled with fear, quickly shrinking into the corner of the hospital bed.

Seeing his mother trembling in fear from Griffon, Johnny immediately spoke up to defend her. "Griffon, my mother was just asking who Rosalie's wolf spirit was donated to. You don't have to scare her with a gun, do you?"

Griffon sneered, "Do you think she was just casually asking?"

Regardless, Johnny still believed in his mother. "Alright, since there's no match, you can leave now..."

But Griffon continued to stare coldly at Johnny. "Have you ever heard the saying, it's easy to invite a god but hard to send one away?"

Johnny became annoyed and frowned. "What do you want?"

Griffon caressed the gun and said nonchalantly, "If you want me to leave, then agree to one condition."

"What condition?"

"The Brook pack's industry must immediately withdraw from North America."

Johnny's face turned dark. "Don't push me too far!"

A hint of disdain appeared at the corner of Griffon's mouth. "If you want to see your sister again, then listen to me."

After saying this, the man stood up with Taya. Johnny stopped him. "What do you mean? Did you kidnap my sister?"

Griffon stopped and turned around, scanning Johnny up and down with a bewildered look. "You should know that I never fight unprepared battles."

Upon hearing this, Johnny understood that Griffon probably already knew they needed Taya's organs. That's why he kidnapped his sister in advance. When they were about to take action against Taya, Griffon would use his sister as a bargaining chip...

Now that the genetic match failed, Johnny and his team were of no use to Griffon. He would naturally let them go. However, Griffon didn't want to leave because he still had Johnny's sister in his hands. He would use Gigi to extract revenge on Johnny, and it was worth the trip. What a clever plan.

Chapter 1243

Johnny, who has always loved his sister, knew about Griffon's methods and was afraid that he might do something harmful to his sister. After much hesitation, he gritted his teeth and agreed, "Okay, I promise you, release my sister immediately."

A faint smile finally appeared on Griffon's stunningly flawless face. "In the future, tell your mother to behave herself and not to have any ideas about my wife. Otherwise, it won't just be a loss in business, it's that simple..."

The man's smile can be inscrutable, and it seems that anyone who provokes him will pay the price with their life. Johnny, who has dealt with Griffon countless times, has to admit that Griffon's thoughts are much deeper than his own.

He didn't respond to Griffon, but instead shifted his gaze to Taya. "You just said you're not from the Carmine pack. What's going on?"

Taya needed to announce this fact to everyone through the mouths of the Brook pack and the Carmine pack. She truthfully said, "Herb told me that one of the three sisters, Alice, Sumasa, and Ashley, is not from the Carmine pack. So I borrowed some hair from Herb and did a DNA test, which showed that there is no blood relationship."

Johnny's gaze shifted to the silly big guy outside the door through the blinds.

Herb didn't tell him such an important thing, but instead told an outsider like Taya. He's really stupid!

As Alice's harsh voice reached his ears, "Son, think of a way to avoid Griffon and bring Taya back to me. I want her wolf spirit!" Johnny watched Herb angrily, feeling itchy with anger.

His angry emotions gradually turned to astonishment, "Mother, her genetic typing doesn't match yours. Even if you take her wolf 'spirit, it won't work..."

Alice disagreed, "Her wolf spirit belongs to Rosalie, and Rosalie and I are a match. Why wouldn't it work?!"

Faced with his mother's irrational behavior, Johnny began to lose patience, "The doctors have said that you are not a match with her genetically. Why are you so stubborn?"

Alice was like a madwoman, screaming hysterically at him, "I don't care, you bring her back, dig out her wolf spirit, and give it to me to replace mine!!!"

He looked at her incredulously, "Gigi is still in Griffon's hands. Are you willing to sacrifice your own daughter's life for this?"

Alice, who had already gone mad, sneered coldly, "It doesn't matter. As long as I survive, I will help her get revenge..."

Hearing his mother say such things, Johnny couldn't accept it and took a step back, "You're willing to sacrifice your own daughter just to stay alive..."

This made Johnny feel that if he or Gigi were a match for her wolf spirit or bone marrow, they would have been killed by her a long time ago.

He never thought that his beloved mother would become like this...

Chapter 1244

When Johnny was shocked and unable to accept it, Alice trembled with her wrinkled hand and pulled his clothes, "Son, Mom wants to spend more time with you, so I want to live well. You must help Mom. Mom has seen the vision of hell in her dreams. It's too scary. I don't want to go there..."

Johnny stared at her pale face for a while, then slowly pushed her hand away, "Only those who do evil will go to hell, mother. You are so kind, you won't go to hell..."

This made Alice want to continue pulling Johnny's clothes, but her hand froze in mid-air.

Is she kind?

No.

She did a lot of evil things.

She was the one who first fell in love with Samuel, but Samuel liked Sumasa. In order to mate her, he even knelt at the door of the Brook pack for three days and three nights. Finally, the Brook pack agreed to let him engage with Sumasa.

Alice was angry, so she deliberately approached Sumasa's good friend Jocelyn and intentionally encouraged Jocelyn to ruin Sumasa's appearance.

It can be said that before Jocelyn used chemical drugs to splash Sumasa's face, she hesitated. She was afraid that Jocelyn would give up, so she deliberately walked over and pretended to accidentally bump into her. The drug was successfully splashed on Sumasa's face. If this account is to be settled, the hell messenger may hold her accountable...

When Sumasa came to borrow money, she reminded her parents in various ways that Sumasa, a disobedient daughter, would not repay the money even if she borrowed it. Her parents did not lend her the money.

When Sumasa was in a desperate situation, she also approached her younger brother Carson for help. Carson refused her face-to-face, but secretly transferred money to Alice. Alice had Sumasa's contact information and was asked to help transfer the money to Sumasa. After receiving the money, Alice went to a mall and bought a branded bag, which she threw to people in the slums without giving anything to Sumasa.

Until now, Carson still didn't know about this. He thought he lent money to Sumasa, but Sumasa gave it to Elder. When he heard that Sumasa froze to death on the street, he was so angry that he didn't even go to see her for a moment...

After doing so many things, won't she go to hell?

Alice didn't believe it. She wanted to live, she wanted to live forever!

Thinking of this, she reached out and grabbed Johnny's hand again. "Son, we have to give it a try, no matter if it matches or not. Are you going to watch me die like this?"

Johnny thought she was completely crazy and stopped trying to persuade her. He just nodded perfunctorily and said, "Okay, I promise you, I'll bring her back..."

After saying this, Johnny pushed her hand away and walked out.

BChapter 1245

Alice lost her focus as she watched his back disappear.

Before, her son would always remind her to rest well before leaving, but this time he didn't say anything.

Was it because she had revealed her true self and disappointed her son?

But compared to staying alive, Alice didn't think disappointing her son was a big deal. She could make it up to him when she survived.

As for her daughter...she would eventually get mated and become part of another pack. Giving up her now wouldn't make much of a difference.

Nick cautiously asked with his bodyguards following Johnny, "Do we need to go catch Taya again?"

Before Johnny opened the door, he turned around and looked at the most confidential ward for a long time before retracting his gaze and coldly saying, "No need."

There's no point in catching her again if she's not a match. Let his mother wait slowly...

Of course, even if Alice disappointed him again, he won't give up finding other donors.

After all, she was his mother who had loved him before, wasn't she?

Herb quickly bounced over when he saw Johnny come out.

"Brother, I just saw my sister leave. Her face didn't look good. Did she have a bad conversation with Auntie?"

After snapping out of his despair, Johnny raised his hand to slap Herb hard, but Herb was quick and dodged it.

"What are you doing, bro?!"

Johnny missed and withdrew his hand, clenching it into a fist.

"Herb, why didn't you tell me that Sumasa isn't part of the Carmine pack?"

"Sumasa isn't part of the Carmine pack?"

Herb furrowed his brow in confusion, "How do you know that?"

Johnny stared at the small bald patch on Herb's head and spoke coldly, "Taya had your hair DNA tested, and there's no blood relation between you two,"

Upon hearing this, Herb took a deep breath, "So the person my grandparents mentioned was Taya's mother..."

While Herb was distracted, Johnny slapped him on the head, "When did they say that?!"

Herb held his head in pain and cried out, "Bro, be gentle! Someone just pulled out a chunk of my hair from this spot, and it hasn't healed yet!"

Johnny, who was already in a rage, lost all patience, "Nick, pull out all of his hair!!!"

B

Chapter 1246

He took a step back and confessed honestly, "I also heard my grandparents mention it when I was a pup. I'm not sure who exactly isn't a pup of the Carmine pack..."

Seeing that he didn't seem to be lying, Johnny asked again, "Was Sumasa adopted by your grandparents or did they find her?"

Herb shook his head, "I only know that one of them isn't from the Carmine pack. As for how they came to be, I'm not sure."

"Does your father know?"

"No one should know this secret except for me..."

It seems like they'll have to investigate.

Johnny found it troublesome and didn't want to investigate. To him, anyone who wasn't a match for his mother was worthless, and he wouldn't waste his time investigating.

"Did your grandparents mention any other secrets?"

Herb thought for a moment and shook his head.

"There's also a secret about the Carmine pack's illegitimate daughter, but I'm not sure about anything else."

Although he was the Carmine pack's intelligence center, his grandparents had done many dirty things when they were young, and it was impossible to uncover them all.

Johnny knew very little about the Carmine pack's affairs. His mother never told him about the pack's secrets. In his impression, the pack image that his mother shaped for him and his siblings was one of harmony and love.

In addition, Johnny and Herb were about ten years apart in age and had no common topics to talk about. Whenever they met, they exchanged only a few words. How could they talk about the dirty secrets of the pack?

Now, when Herb mentioned that the Carmine pack had a illegitimate daughter, Johnny was both shocked and hopeful.

"Where is she?"

The doctor said that when looking for a matching donor, it is best to start with direct relatives, then close relatives, or search the blood bank. People from the Carmine and Brook packs have already been tested, even distant relatives have been tested, but the illegitimate daughter has not been tested. If they could find her...

"I heard from my father that she's already dead. It seems like she was forced to death by the Knight pack..."

"Forced to death by the Knight pack?"

Herb looked at the ward through the gla*s and leaned over to Johnny's ear, lowering his voice to ask:

"Your mother should know about this, right? Hasn't she told you?"

"If you don't want to say, just go away..."

Anyway, he had already received the news that the illegitimate daughter had died. As for how she died, it had nothing to do with him.

Chapter 1247

Herb wanted to tease him, but his cousin didn't buy it, so he had to speak honestly.

"My father told me that the illegitimate daughter was my grandfather's pups with another woman. He was afraid of being unmated by my grandmother, so he hid her in the Sherwood pack.

But later, my grandfather wanted to bring the illegitimate daughter back from the Sherwood pack. He deceived my grandmother by saying that he wanted to adopt a daughter because he thought the orphan was poor. My grandmother agreed.

Who knew that the illegitimate daughter became Griffon' father's mistress. My grandfather had secretly put her on the pack tree, but because of this, he removed her from the pack tree...

Later, when the news of the Knight pack forcing the Carmine pack's illegitimate daughter to death reached my grandmother's ears, she found out that my grandfather had kept the illegitimate daughter in the Sherwood pack and gave her a name similar to Alice. My grandmother was so angry that she almost unmated him..."

Herb said so much, but Johnny only caught one keyword: the Carmine pack's illegitimate daughter became Griffon's father's mistress...

When he heard this, a thought suddenly flashed through his mind: could Griffon be the pup of the Carmine pack's illegitimate daughter?

But this idea disappeared in an instant. If Griffon was really the pup of the Carmine pack's illegitimate daughter, how could the Knight pack let him be the heir?

But what if...

Chapter 1248

As he was planning to go find Gigi with his bodyguard, Griffon called.

Johnny glanced at Herb, who had been following him, and deliberately walked away before answering the phone.

As soon as he opened the answer key, a man's cold voice came through, "Explain to my grandfather that my wife is not from the Carmine pack the same way you lied to him."

Johnny sneered, "What if I don't explain it to him?"

A contemptuous voice came from the other end, "Then let your sister stay on my turf for a while."

Before he could reply, the other party hung up directly with an arrogant attitude, making Johnny so angry that his face turned blue. "Bastard!"

Herb had just walked over and saw his cousin so angry that he back smashed his phone. He was so scared that he took a step and dared not approach him.

Johnny was about to die of anger. His mother couldn't be saved, he lost the commercial project in North America, and even his sister was kidnapped. He had to explain everything to Knight pack, which he had just managed to get involved with. What the hell was going on?!

Johnny was so angry that he leaned against the wall, his face red and his neck swollen. Herb asked carefully, "Brother, are you okay?"

Johnny raised his crimson eyes and glared at Herb fiercely, "Go away!"

Herb ran away, but before leaving, he reminded Nick, "Remember to remind my cousin to take his medicine..."

Nick took out the medicine he carried with him, took some water, and handed it to Johnny.

"Take the medicine first to calm down..."

Johnny, who was trying to control his anger, took it and swallowed it.

When he calmed down, he looked up again, with only a cold expression in his eyes.

He picked up his phone from the ground, found Dominic's number, and dialed it...

Dominic was stunned when he heard Johnny's explanation. "What, she's really not from the Carmine pack?"

Johnny shouted impatiently, "Are you deaf or blind? How many times do I have to say it for you to believe me?"

It was the first time the old man had been yelled at like this, and he suddenly became angry. "I'm not deaf or blind, it's just that you don't know how to speak properly. How dare you get angry with me?!"

How come he couldn't get any advantage from the Knight pack?

It was one thing for the young ones to be arrogant in front of him, but now even the old ones were being difficult!

Did they think Johnny was easy to mess with?!

After scolding Dominic, Johnny hung up the phone and blocked him.

Chapter 1249

The old man on the other end was so angry that he was shaking. When he tried to curse back, he found out that he had been blocked, which made him even more furious!

“Ba st ard!”

After the old man finished cursing, he took another look at the DNA test report that Griffon had left behind.

Now that even Johnny, who spread rumors that Taya was a member of the Carmine pack, said that she wasn’t, it meant that the report was true...

Since it was true, Carol’s plan to use this to frame the Knight pack and force him to kill Taya was useless...

Even though he didn’t approve of Taya as his daughter-in-law, Dominic still breathed a sigh of relief at this point.

They weren’t members of the Carmine pack, nor were they siblings, so why not help his grandson? This way, he could also salvage some pack ties.

Thinking of this, the old man took out his phone, sent a message to the Knight pack to explain the situation, and warned everyone not to hara*s Taya. Then, he called an old specialist who specialized in treating infertility.

“Hello, do you have any medicine that can cure infertility without having to resort to in vitro fertilization?”

“What? You’re so old and you still want to cure infertility?”

“...”

Dominic was looking for experts to ask for medicine, while Griffon had received a text message from Johnny saying:

[It’s done. I released my sister.]

Griffon kidnapped his own sister as a precautionary measure, but now that the danger had pa*sed, he naturally released her and sent a message to Zack.

Zack, who received the notification that she was released, breathed a sigh of relief.

Great, Griffon didn’t let him harm Gigi, he just kidnapped her for a while. Gigi should understand, right?

After putting away his phone, Zack turned and walked into the hotel room. When he saw Gigi, who was tied up and staring at him with angry eyes, a thought flashed through his mind:

Uh-oh, she doesn’t seem to understand...

Zack swallowed his saliva, walked over, and apologized to Gigi:

“I’m sorry, I didn’t mean to kidnap you.”

Gigi’s mouth was stuffed with a towel, so she couldn’t speak and could only stare at Zack with her eyes.

The hatred in her eyes made Zack shiver involuntarily.

“I’ll release you now. Can you please not look at me like that?”

BChapter 1250

Upon hearing that he was going to release her, Gigi slowly lowered her eyelashes, concealing the resentment in her eyes, and pretended to be obedient and gentle as she nodded towards Zack.

It was the first time Zack had seen her look so pitiful, and his heart softened as he approached her and removed the towel from her mouth.

Gigi took a deep breath of fresh air and adjusted her breathing. Her eyes, which were now a deep red, looked towards the rope that bound her entire body.

"Untie me."

Following her gaze, Zack glanced at the rope that was wrapped around half of her body and shook his head instinctively.

"If I untie you, you'll definitely hit me..."

Zack didn't need to imagine, he could already predict that if he untied her, she would use her fists to send him to the afterlife.

He still had to keep his life for later when he would go to Erebus to help the boss clear obstacles. Even if he had to die, he couldn't die in the hands of a woman now.

Seeing that he wouldn't untie her, Gigi's hands, which were tied up, clenched into fists, but she suppressed her anger and lifted her clear and transparent eyes.

"Zane, I've fallen for you, I won't hit you..."

I've fallen for you...

Zack was somewhat shocked as he looked at Gigi, who had a haggard face and was tied up like a ball.

"I drugged you and tied you up, and you still like me?"

Seeing his disbelief, Gigi quickly revealed a bright smile.

"I believe that you must have had your reasons for doing this, otherwise you wouldn't have hurt me. After all..."

Gigi paused for two seconds, then her gaze fell on Zack's lower body.

"We've slept together so many times, don't we have feelings for each other?"

Zack felt embarrassed when he saw her staring at his lower body, so he slightly closed his knees.

"I..."

"Don't you like me?"

This teasing rhetorical question left Zack unsure of how to respond...

He had originally thought that after taking off the towel, Gigi's first words would be to curse him out, but now she was confessing to him?

This was not at all like Gigi's usual style of doing things. She was usually bold and daring, and now she was saying this to get him. to let her go...

Zack shook his head to keep himself alert and warned himself not to fall for it. He picked up Gigi and walked out of the hotel.

"I'll take you home. Once you're safely home, someone will help you untie yourself..."

Gigi was so angry that her face turned red!

It seemed that he had never cared about her, which was why he was indifferent to her gestures of goodwill and weakness.

He was just like any other man!

No!

He was worse than any other man. Other men might just be teasing her, but he was clearly using her!

Thinking that she too could be used by someone one day, Gigi wished she could grab a cannon and blast him to death!

After Zack put Gigi in the car, he reached out to touch her cheek, but Gigi turned her head away and said, "Don't touch me!"

Her voice was icy and filled with anger, and Zack knew that he had lost his girlfriend. He withdrew his hand and got into the driver's seat.

Gigi, lying in the back seat, stared at the man driving the car for a while before gritting her teeth and asking, "Who are you, why did you approach me, and why did you kidnap me and then let me go without doing anything?"

Zack looked at the woman filled with hatred through the rearview mirror and said, "I'm sorry, I can't tell you..."

He wouldn't betray Greyson or Griffon, so he could only apologize to her...

Gigi clenched her fists and gritted her teeth, threatening, "Zane, when I can move again, I will tear you apart!"

Zack knew Gigi's character – she would seek revenge for any wrongdoing. "After I take you back, I will leave, and we will never see each other again."

Gigi, who was originally very angry, felt a dull pain in her heart when she heard this.

Damn it, she seemed to have really fallen for him...

Gigi, you're so useless!

After cursing herself in her heart, she issued a warrant for Zack: "No matter where you go, I will find you and seek revenge until I have avenged today's grudge!"

Zack didn't say anything this time, he just smirked. It's impossible for S members to be found just like that, unless he voluntarily shows up.

However, he wouldn't be foolish enough to volunteer to go to his death for a woman. So, after he and Gigi parted ways this time, they wouldn't see each other again.

Through the mirror, Gigi saw the determination in Zack's eyes. She was both angry and resentful. "Zane, you're not a real man!"

He seduced her, made her fall for him, had S with her, and then lied to her. After he was done lying, he wanted to run away because he was afraid of her.

Is this a man? He's a beast! How could there be someone like Zane in this world? She couldn't believe she fell for this kind of man.

Zack endured the torment brought on by his guilt. He parked the car at the entrance of Brook's mansion, slowed down, got out of the car, and went around to the back seat.

He opened the car door, bent down, and helped Gigi up. As they did this, they faced each other...

If Zack looked carefully, he could see through Gigi's anger and see that she was actually a little reluctant to leave him...

But Zack forced himself not to look at her. He lowered his head and untied the rope that bound her right hand. "I'll release one of your hands. You can slap me as many times as you want. I just hope that after you're done, you won't be so angry. It's not good for a woman's health to be angry..."

Before he could finish speaking, Gigi broke free and slapped Zack hard across the face. Then she grabbed his hair.

B

Chapter 1252

Zack didn't react in time and was pulled into the car by her with one hand.

Then, like raindrops, her fists crazily pounded his chest, causing him dull pain and difficulty breathing, with stars in his eyes...

Look, he was beaten like this with just one hand released. If he released her, he would probably be sent to hell in less than two minutes...

Zack endured the immense pain without resistance until Gigi got tired of hitting him. He then gasped, "Feeling better now?"

Gigi gritted her teeth and roared, "No!"

Zack swallowed his saliva and grabbed Gigi's right hand, placing it on his cheek. "Then, please continue..."

He could still take it, as long as it could make her feel better.

However, Gigi didn't hit him again. She just stared at him coldly and said, "Zane, I will hate you forever!"

Zack had already guessed that she would hate him forever, but hearing it with his own ears still made him feel uncomfortable.

After adjusting his mood, Zack smiled at Gigi and said, "If hating me can make you feel better, then hate me."

Seeing his handsome and clear smile, Gigi felt that this liar was extremely hateful. "I will definitely hunt you down!"

Zack nodded and, when Gigi tried to untie the rope with her right hand, he grabbed her wrist and quickly tied her hands. tightly.

Gigi, who was tied up, hated herself for venting her anger and not untying herself in time. Now, she had fallen into the hands. of this bastard again.

After tying her hands again, Zack lifted his gaze and looked at Gigi with reluctance.

Zack stared at her for a while, then suddenly reached out and grabbed the back of Gigi's head, and kissed her lips forcefully despite her resistance.

The warm touch made Gigi frown. At this moment, she seemed to feel that the kiss from this liar was sincere, but he still let her

“I’m leaving, you... take care of yourself...”

After speaking, Zack pushed the door and got out of the car.

“Zane!”

Gigi stared at his broad back and asked angrily, “Have you been deceiving me all this time?”

Zack was a member of the S organization that Brook pack had been investigating. It seemed that there was no good result with Gigi, so it was better not to show mercy.

Thinking of this, Zack didn’t even look back, leaving only one sentence: “Everything I did was just to deceive you...”

This sentence was like a sharp blade of ice. Gigi thought it wouldn’t hurt, but it still hurt her.

Gigi suppressed the urge to cry and shouted, “You deceived me, you deserve to die!”

No matter how she cursed, the figure did not stop, and Gigi’s voice gradually weakened.

“Zane, don’t go...”

Even the name was a lie from Zack, but he still walked away without hesitation, without even stopping for her...

Chapter 1253

When Johnny found Gigi, she was sitting in the car with a lifeless look in her eyes, staring at the trees in the distance.

It was the first time he had seen this fierce sister with such a lost expression, and he felt a pang of sympathy.

“Did Griffon’ people do something to you?”

Gigi’s motionless eyes slowly turned to Johnny, who was untying her.

“Did Griffon’ people kidnap me?”

Johnny nodded as he struggled to untie the ropes.

“His wife is Rosalie’s sister. I thought she could be a match for our mother, so I brought her here. But before that, Griffon sent someone to kidnap you. He did it to control me, but it’s my fault that you suffered...”

Johnny apologized to Gigi after untying her.

After understanding the situation, Gigi shook her head expressionlessly.

It turned out that Zane was working for Griffon. He had approached her before to find out why they were looking for Rosalie, right?

Now, taking advantage of Johnny’s plan, Griffon had figured out their purpose, and she was no longer of any use.

No wonder Zane had left so ruthlessly. She realized that to him, she was just a tool to a*sist Griffon, a disposable pawn.

After understanding everything, Gigi suddenly laughed coldly...

Johnny felt a chill in his heart at the cold smile, “Gigi, are you okay?”

Gigi still had no expression, shook her head, “Was the matching. successful?”

Johnny didn't answer, but the helplessness on his face had already given her the answer.

She didn't ask again, only said, "I'm going to see mother."

After Johnny got out of the car, she agilely jumped from the back seat to the driver's seat, and then quickly reversed and drove away from the estate.

Watching the car disappear in the dust, Johnny was worried and frowned, "Nick, follow her and report to me immediately if there's any situation."

Gigi arrived at the hospital room and saw her mother curled up in pain on the hospital bed, feeling heartbroken, "Mom, are you okay?"

Alice covered her chest, struggling to breathe, and finally took a deep breath of oxygen. With that breath, her eyes regained clarity.

After seeing clearly that it was her daughter, Alice's hand trembled and she wanted to touch her face, but she didn't have the strength. It was Gigi who grabbed her hand.

Chapter 1254

Alice touched her delicate skin and said with all her strength, "Gigi, I'm afraid Mom won't live much longer. I'm leaving, you have to take care of yourself."

Gigi loved her mother the most. She couldn't accept what she heard and shook her head desperately, "No, I won't let you go..."

Alice, with an oxygen mask on her face, smiled with her lips as thin as paper, "Silly girl, when a person is dying, how can you stop it just by not letting it happen?"

Gigi held Alice's hand tightly, leaned over her, tears in her eyes, and looked at her, "I will find a suitable donor as soon as possible to extend your life."

Hearing this, in Alice's blurred eyes, besides the disguised affection, there was calculation, "Rosalie is dead. There is no suitable donor in the world anymore..."

Gigi didn't want to hear such pessimistic words, "No, as long as we have perseverance, we will definitely find one. I will spend money to search all the blood banks in the world to find a match for you..."

She stood up and wanted to leave, but Alice grabbed her wrist and said to her, "You don't need to search the blood banks. There is a person whose wolf spirit is suitable..."

Gigi stopped in her tracks and turned around to ask, "Whose wolf spirit is suitable?!"

Alice's eyes showed a hint of coldness, "Griffon's she-wolf, Taya's wolf spirit."

Gigi was stunned, "Didn't my brother say that the matching was unsuccessful?"

If the matching is unsuccessful, even if they take the wolf spirit, it will be useless. Transplanting it will cause rejection, which could lead to immediate death.

Alice, who had gone mad, didn't care if it was feasible or not, "She used Rosalie's wolf spirit, so I can definitely use it too."

When Alice said this, the viciousness in her eyes made Gigi's heart skip a beat.

Her mother had always been gentle and elegant, why did she show such an expression just now? Could it be that she was mistaken?

When Gigi lowered her head to take a closer look, Alice had already softened her edges and returned to a weak and powerless appearance.

"Do you want Mom to continue to be with you?"

"Of course I do."

Otherwise, why would she and her brother search all over the world for a donor? Wasn't it to keep their mother alive and be with them all the time?

"If you want that, then help Mom bring Rosalie's wolf spirit back, okay?"

Gigi hesitated.

Rosalie's heart had already been transplanted to Taya. But Taya was a living person, and bringing back the wolf spirit of a living person...

BChapter 1255

"It seems like you and your brother don't really want me to live on..."

"No, that's not true. You are the one I cherish the most in this world..."

Alice trembled and patted Gigi's hand.

"It's just that Mom can't bear to part with you, which is why I asked you to find Taya..."

Gigi still resisted, but didn't say anything.

Seeing this, Alice sighed heavily.

"Although the doctor said that her heart could give me a few more years, if you don't want to, it's okay. Mom won't force you to do anything you don't want to do."

"The doctor said it's possible?"

The doctor said it's impossible, but Alice didn't listen to the doctor.

"Yes, the doctor said it's Rosalie's wolf spirit, which matches my blood type and can be transplanted into my body."

Gigi, who didn't quite understand all this, hesitated and struggled for a while before bending down and touching Alice's aged and sickly face.

"If it's possible, then Mom, you rest here and I'll go help you bring Taya back..."

If Griffon hadn't sent someone to approach her, maybe she wouldn't have done such an outrageous thing.

But the thought of being deceived by Zane made her want to tear them apart!

Since Griffon's she-wolf could save her mother, then...if she died, so be it!

Determined, Gigi made a promise to Alice, stood up straight, and walked out of the ward.

This time, she not only had to bring Taya back, but also had to capture Zane and make him her slave for life!

Nick, who was eavesdropping in the dark, overheard Gigi saying she was going to dig Taya's wolf spirit out, so he quickly called Johnny.

Johnny thought his mother had completely lost her mind, so he hung up on Nick and called Gigi, but her phone was turned off.

He paced back and forth in the same spot, clutching his phone, then opened his contacts and called Griffon...

Griffon was taking a shower and didn't hear the phone ringing...

Taya changed into her pajamas and saw Griffon's phone vibrating on the table. She walked over and glanced at it.

The caller ID read: [Dick].

Seeing those name, Taya almost laughed out loud.

Her husband rarely used that word, and she didn't know who was lucky enough to be called that.

Curious, she tapped the answer button and said, "Hello..."

Hearing that sweet voice, Johnny's heart trembled. He didn't seem to expect Taya to answer the phone.

Wait, how did he know who she was?

He hadn't even had much contact with her, so how did he remember her voice so quickly?

Seeing that the other person didn't speak after answering the phone, Taya patiently asked, "May I know who's calling?"

After suppressing the strange feeling in his heart, Johnny quickly regained his composure and said coldly, "My sister is coming to dig your wolf spirit out, so be careful..."

Chapter 1256

Upon hearing the other person's voice, Taya was momentarily stunned, not expecting it to be Johnny.

But in an instant, she regained her composure: "Wasn't the match unsuccessful? Why are you still trying to dig out my wolf spirit?"

Is it possible for Alice to use my wolf spirit? Is she not afraid that she will die of rejection immediately after replacing it? She would do anything to survive.,

Johnny also found it absurd, "My mother is probably mentally twisted, but my sister is reasonable. I'll talk to her when I find her."

Upon hearing this, Taya suppressed her anger: "You better talk some sense into her, or else I can be very scary when I'm angry!"

For some reason, when Taya made this threatening remark, Johnny imagined her gritting her teeth and looking angry...

This thought scared him so much that he immediately hung up the phone!

Is Griffon's woman toxic? She made him imagine such a scene!

Johnny muttered to himself, "A woman who sells herself can only be attractive to some dick like Griffon!"

As he spoke to himself, he could still hear her say, "I can be very scary when I'm angry..."

Immediately after, the image of her pretending to be angry popped into his head again, and Johnny was annoyed!

"I must be losing my mind!"

He picked up his phone to call Stella, but Nick's call came in first.

"Gigi went to the airport, most likely to go back to her home country. I can't beat her or stop her, what should I do?"

Johnny frowned and after thinking for a moment, said coldly, "Prepare a private jet, I'll go back to intercept her."

Griffon came out of the bathroom and saw Taya holding his phone with a slight smile on her lips. "Is my wife checking up on me?"

Taya held the phone and turned around to face him. "Yes, I'm checking if my husband is cheating on me."

The man walked over, put his arm around her waist, and pulled her into his embrace. "So, did you find anything?"

Taya's serene face had a smile on it. "Unfortunately, I didn't find anything except for a person named Dick, whose sister wants to dig out my wolf spirit."

Griffon lowered his eyes and his tone turned cold. "Did Johnny call?"

Taya nodded and handed him the phone. "He said his sister wants to dig out my wolf spirit, so I should be careful."

The man who took the phone raised his cold eyes and glanced at the note on the screen...

It seems that some people don't want to live anymore and keep coming to Taya.

BChapter 1257

He pinched his phone and deliberately lowered his head, using his wet hair to rub against Taya's neck.

"Oh dear, I just changed into my pajamas and you've already made them wet."

Taya raised her hand to touch it and found a large wet patch on her collar, but the culprit just smiled.

"You're still laughing..."

She glared at him and Griffon lifted his fingers to touch the pouting little woman.

"Go change another one."

Taya, feeling lazy, had originally planned to go to sleep directly, but now that her pajamas were wet, she had to change them, and she pushed him away in anger.

"Blow dry your hair before I come back, or else I'll show you some moves."

Hearing her fierce voice, the smile on Griffon's lips became even deeper.

After the changing room door closed, he slowly put away his smile and picked up his phone again.

"Freda, have you infiltrated the medical industry of the Brook pack?"

Freda was also a member of S, but under Holden. Holden arranged for many people to infiltrate the Brook pack's company in order to retaliate against Johnny.

"Greyson, I just made contact. What are your orders?"

"What if we pull out Johnny's mother's oxygen tube?"

Freda was stunned. Holden hated Johnny and slowly arranged for people to undermine the Brook pack, but Greyson was so ruthless that he directly pulled out someone's mother's oxygen tube. How deep was his hatred?

"I don't know what will happen, but let me contact the doctors and nurses in the hospital and ask them to give it a try."

Freda's greatest skill is to bribe people. If she can't bribe them, she will spend even more money. No one in this world can resist money.

"As soon as possible."

Griffon hung up the phone directly after speaking, and the hair falling on his forehead made him look gentle, but at this moment he was as cold as ice.

Anyone who threatens his she-wolf's life doesn't deserve to live.

The next day at noon, after Taya finished drawing the design, she made a video call to Grace.
“Did you have a meal at school today?”

“Yes, there’s a lot of food here. It’s just that Phill keeps stealing my egg tart.”

Grace has complained countless times that going to the same ‘school as him is a torture.

After hearing this, Taya asked for Grace’s opinion and asked if she wanted to change a school.

Grace, the little devil, said that this is the best school in Arcadia, and she doesn’t want to change.

Grace, who is determined to fight Phill to the end, said she would rather die than leave this school.

Taya couldn’t do anything about her, but she felt that her little niece had a good attitude, like an indestructible cockroach, so she let her be.

Chapter 1258

“Grace, if Phill tries to take your egg tart again, tell him not to take it and that you can share it with him, okay?”

“Oh, I’ll try that next time. But if he still tries to take it, I’ll drag him to the corner and beat him up!”

Taya wanted to advise Grace not to be so violent, but she heard the teacher on the video call urging the pups to take a nap.

‘Auntic, I have to go take a nap with the teacher now. I’ll talk to you later.’

“Okay, go ahead.”

After waving goodbye, Taya hung up the video call and planned to go downstairs for a meal when she heard Frank say that Dominic had arrived...

She froze, gripping the handrail of the escalator. “Tell him I’m not here, say that I went to...”

Before she could finish her sentence, a deep and powerful voice came from outside the door.

“What, are you afraid I’ll eat you?”

Hearing his voice, Taya realized she couldn’t hide and had to turn around and go downstairs.

“Mr. Knight, why are you here?”

Dominic, who had just bought a new cane, walked up to Taya and tapped the ground with his cane. “I got your husband’s approval.”

Taya asked him how he got here, but Dominic answered that he had gotten Griffon’s approval before coming in.

She didn’t need to ask any further. Hearing the words “your husband,” Taya understood why he was able to come in.

He approved of her.

Taya approached and sat down on the sofa facing Dominic. “Please sit for a while, I’ll make you a cup of tea.”

He raised his hand and waved it. “No need, I came here to have a doctor have a check for you. Once it’s done, I’ll leave.”

Taya was about to ask what he meant when she saw him look up at the fat doctor who was panting as he walked in. “Hugh, come and check her out.”

The doctor named Hugh was sweating profusely and wiping his forehead as he complained, “This estate is too big. They wouldn’t let me drive in. I’m exhausted.”

After he finished complaining, he put down his heavy medical kit with a bang and beckoned to Taya. “Come here, let me take a look...”

Taya stood still, looking at the doctor and then at Dominic. Finally, she couldn't help but ask, "What is this about?"

Dominic didn't hesitate to say, "Although you're not a member of the Carmine pack, I can't accept that you can't have pups. I brought in an expert in treating infertility. Let him examine you. He can cure you..."

Taya was shocked that the old man had actually brought in a doctor to treat her. "Actually, Stella has been helping me with my treatment..."

Hugh took the tea that the servant handed him and drank it all in one gulp before saying to Taya, "Although Stella is my student, I'm more experienced in gynecology."

BChapter 1259

Taya was taken aback for a moment, then respectfully said, "So you're Stella's teacher..."

Hugh put down his teacup, modestly waved his hand, "I can't really be called a teacher, I just guided her for a few years, helped her win some medical awards, that's all, not really..."

Dominic, sitting next to them with a cane, said, "Stop showing off and check her!"

Hugh glanced at him and said, "At your age, you're always so serious!"

Dominic was furious, "Hugh, don't disrespect your elders!"

Taya wanted to laugh, but restrained herself and extended her hand to defuse the argument between the two old men, "Doctor, can you help me check and see if I still have a chance to be cured..."

Hugh, who wanted to retort to Dominic, closed his mouth when he saw Taya extend her hand, and began to examine her.....

After a while, Hugh looked up and asked Taya, "You're taking too many medications, can you stop taking them?"

Taya shook her head, "I can't stop taking the medication for my wolf spirit transplant rejection, and the medication for my eyes."

He subconsciously looked at her. She had changed her wolf spirit at such a young age, no wonder she looked so weak.

Taya, seeing that he was not speaking, nervously looked at Dominic and asked, "Can I still have pups?"

Hugh withdrew his hand from taking Taya's pulse and glanced at her. "How many major surgeries have you had?"

Taya truthfully replied, "I've had two major surgeries related to my wolf spirit, and some minor surgeries as well..."

Upon hearing that she had undergone so many surgeries, Dominic frowned and asked, "Has having too many surgeries caused her to become infertile?"

As Hugh placed small pillows into the medical kit, he shook his head and said, "That's not related. Taya is not infertile and can have pups."

Hearing the doctor's words, both Dominic and Taya breathed a sigh of relief.

Before he could say anything else, Frank's voice came in urgently from outside.

"A strong woman has arrived and knocked down the bodyguards. You should go and take a look..."

Upon hearing this, Taya knew that Johnny's sister had arrived and quickly got up.

"Dominic, doctor, please wait here for a moment. I need to take care of something first..."

Dominic nodded, and Taya left...

After she had gone, Hugh frowned and said to Dominic, "My advice is that it's best not to let her have pups."

BChapter 1260

Dominic, who had just relaxed, became tense again when he heard this. "What do you mean?" Hugh replied, "Her body is too weak. If she gives birth, whether it's a natural birth or a C-section, it will cause huge damage to her body. She may have an accident on the operating table, or she may lose thirty years of her life..."

Dominic didn't care about the harm it might cause. "As long as she can give birth, let her give birth. The Alpha of the Knight pack must have pups..."

Knowing his thoughts, Hugh advised him, "Your grandson may not agree to let her take such a big risk to have a pup. You should consider his feelings..."

Dominic didn't listen and insisted, "Don't tell them, including your student. If you dare to leak this, I won't invest another penny in your pack's medical industry..."

Hugh scolded him as an "old stubborn", but for his own benefit, he agreed, "Okay, I'll listen to you. After all, you're my good friend for many years..."

After Dominic calmed down, he reminded Hugh, "You must use the best medicine to help her regulate her body. As for the matter of childbirth, we'll talk about it later."

With the Knight pack's medical system, it's impossible for Taya to have an accident on the operating table. As for losing thirty years of her life, he didn't believe it!

Taya walked out of the castle and saw Peter and Gigi fighting fiercely beyond the iron gate. When Zack came back and told her that Johnny's sister was cruel in fights, Taya didn't believe it.

Now she saw it with her own eyes and was dumbfounded. Even Peter, who was over 1.8 meters tall, was forced to retreat by Gigi's punches.

"Miss Brook."

A gentle voice came from the railing, causing Gigi's clenched fists to slowly relax...

She stood up straight, turned around, and looked at Taya standing inside the iron gate.

"Are you Taya?"

"Yes."

The way the other person stood in the sun and nodded slightly made Gigi a little stunned.

How could she harm such a lively life, but she didn't want to lose her mother...

After hesitating for a few seconds, Gigi took a step towards Taya, but was stopped by Peter.

"Don't get close to her, or I'll get serious..."

He didn't hit women, so he had been letting Gigi off, but if she dared to touch Taya, don't blame him for not treating her like a woman!

Gigi glanced at Peter, completely ignoring him, and raised her big eyes to look at Taya inside through the thick iron bars.

"Can you come out and talk for a moment?"
