CRAZY PLEASURE

Chapter 1051 Sis-in-law Incentives: Ch 11

Friday, Jenny called me and let me know she had a two hour break in the middle of the day, if I wanted to see the house she was sitting.

I took her up on the offer, and headed over around 1:00. Her next client wasn't until 3:00.

She gave me a tour of the grounds first. They had a tennis court, and a great swimming pool with a lot of landscaping to

Grasping the shaft of my cock in her hand, she slowly started pumping my cock into her face. Up and down my cock, her face went, meeting her hand coming from the opposite direction. Her tongue danced over my cock head as she sucked me, teasing where I was most sensitive. After a couple of minutes of this pumping she pulled away. She stroked me with

Carrot and the Stick

Alex misses a goal and Jenny comes up with a punishment.

With all the progress I'd made, and the lure of continued 'incentives' ahead of me, I continued my training diligently. It was getting harder to lose the weight. I was putting on muscle with all the increased exercis

Then a big weight shift just beside my head, and flesh against my shoulder gave me a moments warning before a warm crotch settled over my face. I reached out with my tongue, and was able to trace the outline of a moist pussy. It was bare of clothing, but lightly furred with hair. So this wasn't Jenny either.

Was it the talented second cock-sucker,

I considered fighting the situation, but decided to go along, and I did as they asked. Moments later I was burying my face in a bush, as someone did her best to resurrect my pole.

Then, as a bonus, I felt a mouth licking from my balls to my butt hole, and settling in there, reaming me thoroughly. It did help to get me hard. My 69 companion moved aw

Hot Tub Interlude

Girl's night out becomes a wet and wonderful thing. Holly has friends too.

Whether I liked it or not, the little episode with the bondage and strange women was just the motivation I needed. I became very strict with myself when it came to dieting, not lowering the calories an

Dawn didn't say a word. She stood up, got out of the water just inches away from me, and stood on the edge of the ledge for just a minute, doing a small pirouette, displaying all of her charms to me before jumping into the pool with a splash. She'd always been a show-off, but I didn't realize how much of an exhibitionist she could be. This was defi

I got the shaker and refilled their shots, my hands trembling. When I was done, I was seated in the corner, between Dawn to the outside, and Holly. Beth was sitting almost opposite me, and I had a great view of her breasts bobbing at the water's surface.

Holly took that moment to turn on the bubbles in the hot tub. I was a little disappointed, beca

"Oh, I need to use the powder room too," she murmured, climbing out of the hot-tub and almost running for the house.

I turned to look for Dawn, and she was sidling over next to me, until her body was pressed against mine.

"You are bad," she told me, belying her own words by letting her hand settle on my aching cock.

"Look who's talking," I answered

Payments and Play-acting

Another goal, another hole, and Holly plays pretend

I looked down at the scale. 202. At goal, minus an extra pound. Jenny owed me. And I was bound and determined to collect. Let me rephrase that. I was determined to collect, while she was bound. Oh, she wasn't bound ye
