CRAZY PLEASURE

Chapter 1061 Sis-in-law Incentives: Ch 21

I watched as she reached out and delicately touched my half-hard cock. It was messy, and where she touched me she drew her finger away, with a combination of our juices, stretching like a string between us.

"You sure made a mess," she teased.

"Why don't you clean me up?" I told her.

"I'm comfortable, I don't want to get up right now." She pouted.

"I thought so to," I told her. "We got them dressed, and I took them home. Eric blew up when Beth got home, bombed. We obviously didn't tell him anything. Then I took Dawn home. When we got there I thought JT might be a little irritated, but he was more sorry that he wasn't there with us, with you girls skinny-dipping and all."

"You told him that?"

"Oh, God, it was real," she said, dreamily.

"Amazingly real," I told her. "You know I fucked you last night," I teased.

"Last night?" she answered, bewildered.

"In my bed, with Holly underneath me, pretending to be you. I fucked your sweet little brains out. And you loved it."

I left her then. That should get her juices going.

I needed to hurry any

I pulled out and crawled up the bed. Jenny's eyes opened, and she watched me with some trepidation. I kneeled next to her head, and turned her face toward me, pointing my hard, wet cock right at her lips. She hesitated only a moment, then opened for me, allowing me to drive half my cock into her mouth.

"Isn't that beautiful?" I asked JT, sliding my

When I pulled out to adjust my position, he pulled Jenny firmly on top of him, in the classic 69. She was dutifully working on his cock, while he ate her out. It was weird, looking down on his face when I entered her from behind, fucking her with long slow strokes, building myself up to the finish.

I could feel his tongue teasing where I entered he

She didn't say anything, she just licked me several times before taking me into her mouth. She sucked me for a minute or so, then got up. "That's hard on the knees," she admitted, then she guided me back to the bed, and when my legs bumped against the end, she gave a little push, so I sat back, then laid out fully, my cock sticking straight up.

The Calm

A lot of loose ends come together. Plans are made for some future activities, and we make a new friend at Hooters.

When I first started traveling for business I thought it was great. Fly around, see new places, old friends.

I'd commonly extend a trip for two or three extra days. Over

Teri followed Jen's glance, and looked straight at me. I'd seen her around when I had worked out here, but never really thought about it. Now her eyes popped, and she quickly turned away, blushing as red as the girl she was training. For vastly different reasons. I wondered if she recalled her ass-reaming as fondly as I did.

She hustled Julie to

Her phone rang. She leaned back against her car, reached into her bag, and pulled out her cell. She looked at the caller. Then she flipped it open. "Hello?"

"I've a confession. My name isn't Jonah. It's Alex. I really enjoyed the time I spent with you." I told her, holding the phone, but talking directly to her.

"I did too," she said softly.

"But

"Too bad. I know a couple of guys who would have loved to play along. And they really know what they're doing when it comes to blow-jobs." This girl was just dropping surprises on me left and right. We'd talked several times, but not once did it get sexual. This was intense.

When I got to the first mouth going down on me, she piped in again. "How I
