Chapter 1071 Sis-in-law Incentives: Ch 31

Hot tub for five, no holes barred. Plus a late surprise

JT and I pulled up to my house, parking out front. We didn't want to announce our presence quite yet. We could see Dawn's suburban, and Holly's van parked in the driveway, which was a pretty good indication the girls were back from their fun.

Entering from the front of

I held her ass cheeks and lifted her to the head of my cock. She reached down in the water and opened herself for me, bouncing down until she managed to get my cock lodged in her tight slit. It took a little negotiating, and some careful nudging and pushing but after a few seconds, she was seated on my cock, floating in the water. I had full access

When she'd done what she could to feed my seed to her well-fucked friend, Beth finished up by using her tongue to cleanse any last traces of my effort off of Dawn's delicious body. She worked her way down from Dawn's face and upper chest, down her breasts and abs, and in one of the hottest things I'd ever seen licked all around Dawn's almost bare p

As for me, I was experiencing a bit of deja-vu, while Holly and Dawn took turns sucking and licking me. I noticed Holly looking over, several times to see what Beth and her sister were up to.

"Switch," I heard her announce, and was hoping for just a few seconds respite. This was too exciting to endure for too much longer.

After the shift I was tre

"Sounds like a fantastic idea to me," he laughed, pushing her face off of his cock, and laying down in the middle of the bed. She climbed aboard and rode him beautifully. I went over to the bedside table, and pulled out a bottle of lube which I used to slick up my cock. JT saw what I was doing and he pulled Beth down to his chest, kissing her and h

The morning brings more fun, and lots of changes in personnel. Holly makes a commitment.

With Beth out of the picture, that left five of us to play. As Jenny had first suggested, it started to degenerate into a full-fledged orgy - just a pile of bodies on a bed, never quite knowing

Chapter 1077 Sis-in-law Incentives: Ch 37

Breakfast for the four of us was unique to say the least. It started out normal enough, four adults seated around a breakfast table. Of course the fact that we were all clad in t-shirts only, was a little odd. We had hand towels laid out on the chairs to sit on, which again was a bit on the weird side. It got really different when the girls started

After a minute or two of my only contribution being to caress my wife's full butt cheeks, I needed some action myself. Dawn had adjusted her position, and had better access to Holly's juicy bits. As I got in position, Dawn tilted her head back and opened her mouth in invitation. I dipped my wick in her welcome mouth, and she gave me a little treat

"She looks good on you," Holly teased.

"Yes she does," I laughed.

"How long can you stay?" Holly asked.

Beth pouted. "Just a few more minutes. Eric and I made up a little. We're going out this afternoon."

She raised up off my cock, which was getting close, repositioned herself and slowly sank back down on my cock. When she reached bottom she leaned

The Aftermath

A little family shopping, and paying the babysitter. Just a short scene before the end.

Jenny found someone to take her 4:00pm clients but warned us she had 6:00 and 6:30 clients she had to be back for. Holly assured her that wouldn't be a problem. I made a few calls and cleared out the re
