My severance package should have lasted for months, but I was almost immediately forced to choose. Should

I am not sure I had ever laughed so hard in my life. She couldn't possibly think it was different. But her body language was defensive and her eyes told me she did. I was momentarily taken aback. Could she not know? Was that even possible?

"Oh. My. God. You don't know."

"What the fuck is that supposed to mean?"

I didn't say anything for awhile, qui

I am not sure I had ever seen Melanie so angry. In fact, I am not certain I had ever seen her angry at all. When we had been married, even during our worst argument, she had never been angry. Disappointed? Sure. Annoyed? Absolutely. Scared? More than I apparently had known. It was the main reason her betrayal had been so devastating. In an ocean of

"Like I said before, even if I could stop it I wouldn't. I think you should go home, to your husband, and tell him I wasn't even interested in his offer. Take your skanky ass back to him, get together and talk about how you are going to get through this rough period in your life. I am certain, with a love as strong as yours, you'll make it through.

I pulled my left hand underneath us, and moved my right hand to hold her down, firmly, just above her pussy. As I slid first one and then two of my fingers from my left hand into her hot channel, I could feel her wetness dripping on the bed. That is when I began fucking her with my fingers, and sucking her clit in earnest. Probing and pushing for t

Here and there her body had lengthened, in other places she narrowed down, and in still others, well, let's just say she had rounded out perfectly. She is now eighteen, two years younger than me. I fin

I came over to the sink and started combing my hair. We continued to chat about the evening and all the work she had helped do to pull everything together. I started teasing her about James, her date, who was a nice guy but a little shy. He was an okay athlete, but really preferred shop classes and the really mechanical stuff. I always teased her b

It didn't really trouble me until one day. I had had a lousy day at work as I had missed a deadline and been chewed out for it by my boss. I had a splitting headache most of the day and had to skip lunch to get my project caught up, which made me pretty irritable. Then it rained and I didn't have an umbrella to cover me for the long walk through th

My head was reeling. This was too much! But again, my higher reasoning was out of commission right now, and I just used one hand to slide the back of her panties up and laid my penis against her bare flesh.

I felt dizzy. I started to slide my penis up and down her crack. She was sopping wet from sweat and my groin slid easily against her butt. I gr

Chapter 1140 Family Revelation:Ep5

I could not believe how relaxed I was. I was in the shower, letting the hot water stream over my chest. I had just woken up maybe ten minutes ago. I closed my eyes and allowed myself to dwell on the images from last night that were stuck in my mind. It felt like I had had a great dream, but those usually come with a sense of disappointment when you
