Chapter 1471 A Perilous Inheritance: 35

"You must really love your job," Zach observed when Michael pulled his spent cock from Krista's pussy only to have it engulfed by Susan's mouth.

"At moments like these, there's not another job on the planet that would tempt me," Michael replied, shaking his head as Susan turned from sucking his cock clean to slurping on the cum cocktail filling Kri

"You're not divers," the bellhop who guided them to their room observed. "We seldom have guests that aren't divers."

"We heard that it was the best resort on the island," Krista said.

"Oh, it is, it definitely is," he said, opening the door to their room and leading the way in. "You have a great ocean view from here," he said, opening the drapes an

"I think the Caymans and the people are just lovely so far," Krista said. "7 Mile Beach on Grand Cayman was really beautiful. The one thing I don't like is their puritanical attitude towards nudity, though."

"Yes, that is a bit stuffy," James agreed.

"You might like Spot Bay, then," Harriet said. "It's out on the eastern tip of the island. They sor

Granny Sue's magical pussy continued to work Zach's cock over and he marveled anew at her skill, her artistry, really. It would never have crossed his mind that an old woman, old enough to be his grandmother, would be such an incredible fuck. It was many minutes before Granny Sue was finally able to work Zach to the point of orgasm, finally dismount

"Oh, my god!" Krista exclaimed as she watched their deepening kiss, then saw Susan wrap her legs around Zach's waist as his cock found her pussy, never breaking their kiss as they began to fuck, Susan's long inner lips clinging to the shaft of Zach's cock each time he pulled back, his cock making noisy sounds as it plunged into her juicy pussy each

Atypically, Krista, Susan, and Zach went back to their room and went to sleep, awakening when they heard the noise from the returning divers at lunchtime. While Zach pulled Susan to straddle his face so that he could eat her pussy, Krista sucked on his cock, unusually not stopping until she got him to cum, cum spewing into her mouth as she gobbled

Glancing up as he ate her pussy, Zach saw that Emily was watching him open-mouthed, her tiny nipples hard, her body writhing and spasming as she'd cum, her clit seeming to be hypersensitive.

"Tasty pussy," Zach said, rising up and rubbing the head of his cock up and down in Emily's spread pussy, then placing the head at the entrance to her hole.

"I would, and probably," Susan replied. "And I know that that's what David would want me to do, but I just don't feel like being around people right now."

"We can go down to the pool, give you some space," Zach suggested.

"No," Susan said. "I feel the best, the safest when I'm with the two of you. I just don't want to be around others who...who don't know...I don't want to have to hide how sad I feel."

"Shall we go down to the pool, or the beach?" Krista asked.

"I'd rather just crawl into bed," Susan replied, "with both of you."

Which they did, with Susan between them, facing Krista, Zach's big cock pressed into the crack of her ass as he reached around, his hand sliding up to cup her breast, his fingers finding her thick ruby nipple as she and Krista began to softly kiss, then deeper. After a couple of minutes, she turned to face Zach, reaching down between them to wrap her hand around the shaft of his cock as she leaned forward to kiss him, jacking his cock in her hand as Krista reached between her legs from behind to rub her pussy, plunging four fingers into her up to the knuckles, pumping them in and out as she fervently kissed Zach.

"How about something to drink?" Susan said when they were back in the jeep, only having spent 10 minutes before deciding that enough was enough. "Is there any place nearby?"

"Not really," Enoch replied. "We're pretty much at the end of the south road. We have to go back the other way to get anywhere. Since this is likely to be the most boring part
