Chapter 1651 The Last Wallace:6

DECEMBER 9

The memorial service for the people who died in the plane crash was held at an amphitheater on the edge of town. I purposely didn't arrive until the last minute. This was going to be bad enough without listening to hundreds of condolences.

The amphitheater was filled with thousands of people. It was a sea of black and the atmosphere was Daria went into the lab to buy the test kit because I was concerned about being recognized. We used swabs to collect the samples and Daria returned the kit to the lab.

I took the redhead's hands in mine and said, "I hope the test comes back positive. I want a sister."

She grinned. "Me too."

"Want to hang out for a while?" I asked hopefully.

"I'd li

I stepped closer and wrapped my arms around her waist. "I'm your big sister and I say you're moving in with me, and you're going to like it," I stated.

Daria grinned. "Do little sisters have to do everything their big sisters want?"

I returned her grin. "Yes. Come on. Move in so we can get to know each other. Please?"

"I'll think about it."

She kissed my lips, neck, boobs and bellybutton before settling her face between my legs. She gave my pussy a long, slow, firm lick. And then another and another. "Mmm, yes," I affirmed, "like that." I squirmed and placed my hands on her head. She kept that up for a few minutes until I was panting.

I wasn't prepared for the tip of her tongue to jump to my clit and flick across it. My hips jerked and I gasped, "Oh fuck!" The little strumpet lashed back and forth across my sensitive nubbin.

Orgasm crashed over me. My thighs clamped on her head like a vise. My legs kicked and I pulled her hair. "Fuuuuuuuuck," I groaned.

My muscles relaxed and I sprawled on the bed. My thighs released my poor sister's head.

Daria crawled up my body and kissed me with wet lips. "I made you cum!" she exclaimed, her voice full of wonder and pride.

"Yeah you did. You're a natural."

"I wasn't sure if I really knew how," she admitted. "I'm glad you went first."

I pulled a blanket over us, and Daria nestled her head on my breasts. The warmth of her long body against mine was completely relaxing. "Tell me about you, little sister," I urged.

"Are we washing or playing?" she teased.

"I can't help it," I groaned. "I love your sleek body."

I backed her against the shower wall and directed, "Put your hands on my shoulders." I nudged a finger into Daria's tight pussy, and she clamped down on it. "Relax," I whispered.

With more kisses and caresses from my free hand, she did gradually relax.

Daria braided her red hair in pigtails. My eyebrows raised and I asked, "Are you serious?"

"What?" she asked overly innocently.

I reached out with both hands and gave her braids a gentle tug. "Pigtails? As if you weren't dangerously cute already."

She grinned. "You like?"

I practically growled, "My favorite is when your hair is in a thi

Daria's occasional bouts of shyness drove me wild. When she was timid and hesitant I had an urge to jump her and lick every inch of her body. Isn't that weird? I don't know why it was so attractive to me.

I couldn't tell her because it would surely make her self-conscious. And anyway, I didn't want her to "act" shy, I only wanted her

"I want to take a bath," Daria told me apropos of nothing.

"And you're telling me this because?" I asked, knowing exactly why she told me.

"Because I want you to share it with me."

"I'm in the middle of this show, honey."

She pouted. "Please? TV is boring." Her hand grasped mine and gave a little tug.

"And a bath is exciting?"

"If we're both in it

I woke and luxuriated in the warmth of my sister's skin against mine. I was spooning her from behind. My arm was around her waist, and hers was on top of mine, possessively holding it in place. Her hair had a faint strawberry smell, which I inhaled deeply.

My fingers lightly traced circles on her mound, an inch from her clit.

I went to the office to approve expenditures and learn stuff about the town's operations. Our landscaping manager was excited to show me how his crews prepared garden beds for winter. It was a struggle to pretend to be interested. I mean, I appreciated the work they did and the landscapes all around town were Disney World quality, but w
