CRAZY PLEASURE

Chapter 1731 Woman Of His Dreams> EP2

The phone rang several times, as I lay naked in my bed, cradling the phone between my ear and shoulder. I was on top of the covers, lying on my back. My pole, as might be expected under the circumstances, was stiffly protruding upward. As the phone rang, I sort of clenched my cock muscles, "flexing" my hard appendage; it wasn't an orgasm, I figured

Her eyes left mine, and wandered to the ceiling. My eyes followed, and I saw what she was looking at. My hands were cuffed in a very tight pair of velvet-covered wrist restraints about three inches long. It felt as if the velvet was covering solid manacles of steel. The cuffs were attached to a thick silver chain, which was in turn attached to a he

"You must work out Pete? You've got an awesome physique," she cooed. "Are you ready for your blowjob?"

Her compliment of my body hit the spot. My heart surged again at her acceptance of me. I responded, "Are you ready to come on my tongue?"

She giggled, crawled rapidly up my body, turned her body around again, spread her legs and bounced her pussy down over my mouth. I didn't have to do anything but stick out my tongue she was bouncing around so much. But I did anyway – I moved my tongue, thrusting into her, feeling her ass cheeks bouncing against my face.

I felt her breath around my scrotum. As I tongued her dripping pussy, and her ass cheeks bounced on my face, I began to feel her breathing, then blowing on my balls.

The steel rings gripping my shaft, the rings that gave Nicole so much pleasure, were really beginning to hurt.

The I felt her mouth envelop my cock, all the way into her warm mouth, and her tongue ran all up and down the shaft, up, down, and around. I hadn't had many blowjobs in my life. Every time I did, though, it always sort of amazed me that women would actually enjoy providing the kind of pleasure men fantasized about. But this was way beyond anything even I had fantasized about.

Confusion descended on me again. Where did the Viagra come from, I asked.

She began to ride me a little more quickly. "Pete, I'm sorry, but this feels so fucking good, having your stiff cock inside me, with the steel rings rubbing my pussy in and out. I'm going to ride you while I talk, OK?"

"OK, OK, but just tell me where the Viagra came from – are you sure it was Viagra?"

She said, "Come on, let's try my idea on that hardon, maybe we can calm it down and get out to the pool this morning before the afternoon heat. I mean, can we spend the day together?"

"Definitely," I enthused.

We went back into the other room, which was still somewhat dark, as dark curtains covered the window. Nicole led me to the center of the room

Nicole looked at me as I spoke, and leaned in and gave me another kiss when I'd finished. She whispered in my ear, "Pete, do you like where your balls are?"

I whispered back "I love it."

"Are you ready for the ballweights?"

She was looking right at me. I nodded.

She quickly looped the leather at the end of one chain around my left ball, and the lea

The pain in my cock was beginning to subside, and now my balls were unencumbered as well.

Nicole tossed the ball weights aside, cupped my balls in her hands again, leaned her face about an inch from mine, and looked me right in the eyes. "We did it Pete! Are you ready to start our day together?"

"You bet, Nicole," I smiled and put my lips forward f

I grabbed her thighs and lifted them onto my shoulders, and buried my face into her auburn bush. She'd obviously showered, as I'd suspected. I nibbled her clit, and tongue-fucked her pussy. She started to say, "Leave Pete, I want you to. . ." but she stopped trying to talk after about 30 seconds.

Chapter 1740 Hannah's Banana's> EP1

Introduction: A young girl finds an older man to dominate and humiliate.

Even in a class of 200, Hannah was a standout. Not just because she was pretty or because she was smart, but because she had that special something that demanded that you pay attention. I'd been teaching for more than 20 years and very rarely had I come across a student who was so commanding in her presence that I couldn't help but notice her in a sea of faces in the class auditorium.

She had a soft smile, dark hair back, pulled back into a ponytail. If she wore make up, it was minimal, but she had the ideal look of a girl next door, with just a hint of mischief. She dressed casually, today in a grey tshirt and cutoff white shorts and a pair of sandals.

Her eyes had a sparkle to them that caught the light and her lips were just a bit fuller than most girls. Not enough to be noticeable unless you really looked. But when I would look, I couldn't stop looking at them or thinking about them.

I was surprised and a little excited when she approached me after class and asked if she could visit me in my office. I told her I was free for the next two hours and I could meet her if she was free. She smiled and nodded.

"Sounds perfect. I'll see you in about 10 minutes?" she asked.

I agreed and left class and took the elevator to my office suite, opened the door and sat down behind my desk.
