CRAZY PLEASURE

Chapter 1761 FemDom Between Friends> EP18

She was only gone for a minute, but it felt like an hour before she walked back in and stood before me again, hiding her new toy behind her back.

She was only gone for a minute, but it felt like an hour before she walked back in and stood before me again, hiding her new toy behind her back.

"Do you remember when I talked about watching cowboy movies when I was a kid and obsessing on the scenes of guys getting tied up and whipped?" she asked.

"Oh yes, I remember," I replied.

"Well, it's not I

Her orgasm seemed to go on forever and she kept whipping me again and again for the duration. After what felt like an eternity the blows stopped, and I heard the whip fall to the floor... and then all I could hear was the sound of Karen panting.

My eyes were closed, and my face was wet with tears. My back, ass and thighs were still burning white hot

I was wondering what else Karen would bring back with her when she walked back into the living room with the entire box. She put it down next to me and put her hands on my shoulders.

"Please kneel in front of Sarah," she told me. I went down to my knees and she took out my collar and leash from the box, buckled the collar snugly around my neck and

Chapter 1766 Tamed By Meg 1

It's funny how sometimes you look at something in life and think, I could never do that. "I could never be a surfer..." or "I could never travel alone in Africa..." And then somewhere down the road, you find yourself actually doing exactly that thing. I've always enjoyed sex and sexual experimentation, but I never thought of myself as particularly "kinky". At least until I met Meg.

I met Megan ("Meg") while I was teaching at a local university. She was the T.A. for another class in my department, and had similar interests, so we hit it off right away. She was about 5'6" and had long, dark hair and pretty green eyes. She was pretty athletic, but had enough weight to fill out a nice "C-cup" and size 8 jeans. She had just turned 32 when we met, which made her a bit younger than me. We had a lot of interests in common, though, and there was an instant chemistry we both felt. It didn't take long before we found an excuse to get a drink together, and soon after that we became lovers. Although we weren't dating "exclusively," I really liked her and we had a great time in bed.

Chapter 1768 Tamed By Meg 3

Still kneeling, she rolled a condom down over the toy and positioned herself in front of me. My legs were still spread, but now she lifted them off the bed and scooted closer so that she was sitting with her folded legs under mine. She reached back and pressed the remote control, once, twice, and the toy began a low but persistent hum as she nudged it up against my lubricated hole. My brain lit up as the vibrations against my nerves fired a cascade of sensations.

"Can you feel that?" she asked.

"Yes!" I let out. "Can you?"

"Yes," she nodded. "The bullet is in the head, but it kind of spreads throughout the toy. So there's some stimulation from the part inside me, and the part up against my clit. And of course from watching your face."

"Ohhh..." I said, somewhat nonsensically. I was focusing on the feeling spreading around my pelvis. I could feel the tip pressing against the sensitive flesh and something was taking hold of me. She hadn't penetrated me, but now I wanted her to. I trusted her, and I wanted her inside me. I wanted her to fuck me.

Holding my cock with her right hand, and positioning her toy with her left, she pushed gently and my ass stretched to accommodate. The head of her toy was pressed hard up against my backside, half an inch in, and the vibrations spread all throughout my ass. It felt amazing. My back spincter resisted, though- it was just too big.

"Tell me what you're feeling," Meg whispered.

"It feels... good," I responded, somewhat vaguely. But she wasn't satisfied.

Chapter 1769 Her Presents: EP1

She had a number of surprises for him...

We had just gotten back from a friend's wedding. They had a nice ceremony on a golf course under some trees and then a party afterwards inside the club house. It was an open bar and they had hired a band. We spent most of the night making the rounds saying hello and visiting with both families. After several

I pushed my cock into her deep. I got up on my arms and thrust into her with such power. It was mind blowing. We were both moaning and groaning from the incredible sensations going between us. It was like we were on a different planet.

I felt myself getting dangerously close to orgasm and pulled out. I wasn't about to let this end. I spun her around
