John was filling his mother's ass at the same time, his balls emptying as his mother's talented ass muscles milked him. When they all finished cumming, Karin suggested that it was time to get home or they'd have to explain to Jason why they were so late, also that Tom and Becky probably needed to talk. Kelly kissed Tom goodbye, and Becky too, and t

Bob eagerly began to eat Kelly's pussy as his daughter bent and began sucking on his cock for the first time. It wasn't long before Bob felt his cock beginning to respond and then he was at his fullest size and hardness. They could all hear John's cock sluicing in and out of Kathy's pussy and her grunting each time he slammed into her. Then Sara stopped sucking on her father's cock and climbed up onto his lap, grabbing his cock and holding it to the entrance to her own pussy, slowly lowering herself onto it.

Finally Saturday arrived, and not an hour after Jason left for his golf game the guests started arriving. First to show up was Tom Henderson, who shocked John by bringing his wife and her sister with him. As he shook hands with John, Tom slipped him an envelope with $30,000 in it, a big smile of anticipation on his face. Next to arrive was the Adam

He almost died when he felt her mouth open and his cock was sucked into a warm, velvety suction machine. He felt Adele gasp as she sucked him, and reaching behind himself he satisfied his curiosity that the girl was now sucking Adele's very tasty pussy. This when on for a couple of minutes until he felt the soft hand on his shoulder gently pulling

"Oh, I can tell," Kelly said, sighing as she felt Susie Henderson's tongue and lips finally begin to explore and eat her pussy. "Go on, eat her pussy and get her going," she commanded Henry.

"No problem," Henry said, crawling up between Susie's spread legs and replacing his finger with his tongue.

Immediately Susie began to moan and writhe on the b

Chapter 1876 A Preacher's Daughter: 1

Summary: Sheri makes an unusual career choice for a preachers daughter.

"We are so proud of you, Charles," Amy Goodness told her 19-year-old son, beaming a scintillating smile at him.

"It really is quite an accomplishment," Reginald Goodness added.

"I can't believe you got a scholarship for a film study of the sex life of the monarch butterfly," Sheri, his 18-year-old sister said.

"I sure didn't plan on it," Charles said with a laugh. "It was just an assignment for my videography class that was supposed to demonstrate understanding and use of various focal lengths and film speeds. The professor is the one who submitted it. I didn't even know he had done it until I got this letter," he said, holding up an envelope. "To me, it was just a great chance to work with really good equipment and experiment with macro videography and macro photography."

"I have to admit that I'm a bit surprised at your choice of subject matter," Reginald said.

"Oh, Dad, I can't believe you're still so hung up about any mention of anything sexual," Sheri said. "It's only butterflies! If it weren't for sex, there wouldn't be any life, including us."

"Now, Sheri, you know very well that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints frowns on any mention or display of anything sexual," Amy said.

"Mom, the Mormons are so out of touch with the here and now," Amy said, exasperation in her voice.

"What was that all about?" Charles asked his sister when they left their parents.

"I'm sorry, Charles," Sheri said. "I didn't mean to rain on your parade."

"You didn't," Charles assured her, smiling down at her from his 6', his grey eyes smiling beneath the same head of dark hair as his father. "I just never realized that you felt like that. You sure blew Mom's mind."

"To me, Mom is the worst," Sheri said. "Sometimes I think that she's a brainless nothing, just parroting the bullshit that she's been fed."

"Wow!" Charles said, laughing as he entered his bedroom, Sheri following.

"You didn't say anything," Sheri said, sitting on the edge of his bed as he sat in his computer chair.

"No, I thought it might be a good time to be invisible," Charles agreed. "If I told them what I thought, they might disown me and kick me out of the house."

"What!" Sheri exclaimed.

"I've had a lot of the same thoughts that you expressed," Charles told her.

"Is that it?" Sheri asked.

"Between us?" Charles asked, invoking their private, secret agreement.

"Always!" Sheri assured him.

"I think the whole religion thing is pure bullshit," Charles told her. "I see it as nothing more than a regressive attempt to control people. It's the most successful mass mind-control scam ever perpetrated."

"I cannot believe that I am hearing this from you," Sheri said, truly shocked. "You've always been so...so...so establishment."

"What do you see?" Charles asked after quickly typing and replacing the four photos on the monitor.

"I don't know," Sheri replied after studying for a minute. "A tree or a log with a branch or plant growing out of a knot in the wood?"

"All of them?" Charles asked, smiling as she carefully examined them all closely.

"I think so," Sheri said, shaking

"I have the photos ready for you to look at if you want," Charles said to Sheri a few days later in relation to her request to see all of the photos that he took of one of his models. He had needed a day to go through and make sure that her face wasn't identifiable in any of the photos and he knew that Sheri had never met her and probably never wou

Charles now had an unobstructed view of his sister's pussy from behind as she watched the slide show, her long pussy lips literally dripping with her juices as they gaped apart, her unusually large clit glistening with her starred rosebud over it all. The view plus the slide show had its effect and Charles felt his cock at full size, straining up a
