Chapter 1912 A Perilous Inheritance: 6

"There's a dojo that I've been hearing about in Manaus, Brazil, Cia Amazonense Jiu-Jitsu," Zach replied. "Here's a perfect excuse for me to not be here and go there for some training."

"But isn't wrestling your strong suit?" Krista asked.

"Yes, but American collegiate wrestling," Zach replied. "Any good brown or black belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu would beat me in a straight wrestling match. If my ground game were just a bit better, I'd be even more dangerous."

"I hope they teach defense," Krista said.

"It's all about defense and submissions," Zach explained.

"I know," Krista said. "But where would you live?"

"How much is the rent?" Zach asked.

"About $150 American a month," Rui replied. "But that includes everything; rent, water, electric, internet. I'll need to get the wireless protocols for you."

"Shit, that's half of what I was paying back in the States," Zach said, shaking his head.

"Since Mr. Johnson is paying for it, you could have gotten somethi

"I was in the locker room after the fight, taking a shower," Zach said. "My trainer came to me to tell me that there was some hot chick that wouldn't take no for answer to being able to see me. I told him to send her in. I figured that if she was that determined, why not while I was taking a shower. Well, she went all wide-eyed when she saw me and

Zach felt charged the next morning when he met Rui and the others at the dojo just as the sun was breaking the dawn. There was César, a middleweight, Jose, a lightweight, and Aldo, a featherweight. Zach found it interesting that Rui chose to introduce them by weight class. There were also Rosa, a short, muscular, almost breastless, dark-haired feat

"Only a saint could resist her," Rui said, shaking his head. "She's crazy hot."

"How was your run?" Krista asked when Zach showed up at the apartment.

"I had to walk the last bit and everyone left me in their dust," Zach replied with a sigh.

"Oh, my," Krista said, smiling. "Maybe I am too much for you."

"You're probably too much for anyone," Zach r

"There you are," a naked Krista greeted Zach and Juliana when they arrived all sweaty after their run. "You should take a shower," she said, kissing Zach long and deep. "You should join him," she said to Juliana, shocking Zach when she also kissed her, Juliana's arms going around Krista's body, her hands sliding down to cup her ass cheeks and hold

Zach made it through the morning, though desultorily doing his sets while telling himself that he needed to get serious about training, despite the temptations of the flesh that seemed to surround him.

To Krista's delight, lunch was at Mamacita's, around the corner from the dojo, and they were introduced to pirarucu de casaca, a popular dish widely eaten in the region. It is made with the pirarucu, a famous Amazonian fish, one of the largest fresh-water fish in the world, olive oil, cassava flour, and many other ingredients, and it was delicious.

"I-I'm going to cum," Rui gasped.

"Yes, yes," Krista panted, jamming her tongue into the slit of Zach's cock.

Zach couldn't control himself when he saw the cum seeping from around the head of Rui's cock, the only part in her pussy as he came, his own cock exploding in Krista's mouth, cumming almost painfully as she sucked him off. When Rui finally finished cumming and moved back, a river of cum cocktail flowed from Krista's gaping pussy as she lowered it onto his mouth, almost choking him as he gulped it down, then feasted on her juicy quim.

"Oh, Zach, you are just the sexiest man," Krista said after completely sucking him off and reversing herself, leaning down to kiss him, tasting herself and Rui's cum on his tongue as he tasted his own on hers.

"Man, you are one crazy hot woman," Rui said when Krista looked up from kissing Zach and sucked his gooey cock into her mouth, sucking him clean.

"Now you know why I'm having so much trouble focusing," Zach sighed.

"No way am I going to feel sorry for you," Rui said, laughing. "Man, you are in a world of trouble," Rui said to Zach. "If ever there was a woman who could fuck you to death, I'd put my money on Krista."

"No, it was a one-way deal, all about her pleasure," Krista replied, shaking her head. "But I didn't care. For the next almost two years I played the game with her and learned to enjoy it for what it was and never to take it seriously. I also learned not to be ashamed of anything to do with sex. For all of her public prudishness in a predominantly
