"Oh, shit," Sean shakil

His cock was harder than a rock and felt thick through the fabric of his pants. Moving slowly, as though worried that any sudden movements might break the spell we were under, I grabbed the waistband of his pants and slowly pulled them down. Freed from constraints, his cock came into view.

It was big. Really big. Much bigger than any cock I'd ever

The next morning I wondered if I'd made a terrible mistake. I'd had sex with my own dad, and whilst it had felt phenomenal, it was still incredibly wrong. And incredibly illegal. I stumbled through the front door, a bit drunk but still trying to be as quiet as possible. I didn't want to wake up my Step-Dad. He'd told me to be home by 9 which was stupidly early, so I'd ignored him. It was now 11:55. I didn't want him to know that I'd disobeyed him so I needed to get into bed without waking him up.

My parents weren't home when I got home from college. I let the door slam behind me as I dropped my bag at the base of the stairs and went straight through to the kitchen. I grabbed a can of coke and then jogged up the stairs, my short skirt flapping around my ass as I went.

I pushed open my bedroom door only to see that I was not home alone after

I closed my eyes again and wondered how long it would take for him to be content. Then I felt warm wetness over one nipple and my eyes flew open.

He'd taken my nipple in his mouth and he was sucking on it. I couldn't believe it. My own brother was sucking my nipple. It was wrong on so many levels. And yet it did feel pretty good.

The next morning I'd forgotten that my little brother Tristan had found out my secret and was using it to blackmail me. That was until I picked up my phone and read the text message he'd sent me last night after I'd fallen asleep.
