Suddenly he reached up and shoved me off him roughly. I gasped in surprise as I fell off his lap and plonked onto the mattress. Tristan rose to his knees, his massive cock sticking proudly out from him like a weapon. His eyes were filled with primal lust that was both arousing and terrifying.

He let out a horny growl and without a word, he grabbed

It had been over a day since Tristan had forced me to do anything sexual with him and I was starting to think that he'd gotten it all out of his system. He had me do his share of the chores around the house but that was all. Until Friday night.

Friday night was movie night at our house. Mom and Dad insisted that every Friday we sat down as a family

I felt Tristan's hands on my ass, groping and massaging. Then, taking me by complete surprise, he tore my pajama pants at the seams, creating a back entrance for his fingers to wander through.

"No panties. You little slut," he whispered gleefully. As he enjoyed the bare flesh of my backside. "It's like you wanted this."

I lifted my head to tell him

When my parents said they were going away for the weekend I knew that Tristan would take full advantage. However, nothing could have prepared me for his true intentions.

"I'm inviting Chris over to hang out and I want you to be my obedient little slut while he's here," Tristan said as if it was the most normal request ever. Of course, I knew that d

At first, I felt violated by his explorations, but as his hands moved over my boobs I started to feel a strange hunger for more. He rubbed and squeezed me with increasing confidence whilst my brother watched from beside us.

I closed my eyes and felt my nipples harden against Chris' fingers as I started to become aroused. Tristan took my hand and gu

Sunday morning I woke up and wandered down to Tristan's room. It had become a part of my morning ritual to wake him up with a blowjob and now I did it automatically. I don't know how I got to this point where I was waking up and sucking my little brother's dick with barely any hesitation, but here I was. I didn't even get grossed out by it anymore.

I listened to their footsteps as they left the room and then the creaking of the stairs. Tristan stood up, pulling his cock from my mouth with a wet plop.

"You did a good job, Erin. You like sucking my cock, don't you?" he asked.

I looked up at him, still on my knees under the table. I slowly nodded, ashamed to admit such a thing.

"Come out from

Sister's best friend moves in and things get interesting.

My sister Carly and I are a year apart, almost to the day. When all this started, she was freshly 18 and a senior in high school. I had turned 19 the week before. I am taking a few classes at the local community college. I really don't want to continue with college, but

That moan shocked me back into reality. I eased the door closed. I stood there in my room, facing the closed door in awe, unable to move. What was really only a momentary glimpse, lasting barely a second, maybe two, seemed like an eternity. A glorious, wondrous, fantastic eternity. That sight would be burned in my memory banks forever. Easily the m

I let the warmth stream over me. I focused the spray on the back of my neck and let it give me a mini massage, relaxing me to the point I lost some awareness of where I was or how long I was in there. Between that and the post-ejaculation wave of calm, I was feeling very relaxed at the moment.

And then I heard the little click of the glass door ope
