This meant that, between carrying the food from the kitch

Strangely, though these words might have been delivered with venom, Stephanie's tone was more curious than coarse.

Tired of fiddling with my torn button-up, I removed it and sat down on the couch. "It started a few years ago," I said.

Slowly, Stephanie nodded. She sat down in the opposite chair. "And you guys just kept at it?"

"No," I said. "I stop

Stephanie crawled down to where our bodies met. As my cock slid out of my sister, she gently grabbed hold of my cockhead, closed her eyes, and guided it into her own mouth. I groaned as Stephanie lapped at my shaft, her tongue swirling up the vein. She let me thrust a few more times, harder each time, into her mouth, and then she let me pull it fre

"Does she know?" she said frantic

Courtney was now sitting with her head and neck more or less aligned with my lap. Her raven hair trailed down over her shoulders. She stared at my penis as it wagged before her nose. Her tits were inches from brushing against my balls. "Let's get this over with," she said.

I was happy to. I moved forward on the chair and took her left shoulder in m

Tara and I were making love. It was a Thursday night and about a month since I'd cum all over her sister's face and tits. My blackmail had worked in a faithless and uninterrupted way and by the time Tara had returned from the grocery store Courtney and I had both cleaned up and pretended like nothing had happened (Courtney did spend the rest of the

"Whatever you want," Courtney said, grasping her thin belt between her fingers and pulling it loose from her waist. "Whatever you make me give you," she went on, dropping the belt on the floor and reaching under her shirt. My breath caught in my throat as she pulled her blouse over her shoulders and stretched it over her arms. Her jet black hair

I looked down at Courtney. Her nose and mouth were buried against my neck. She glanced up at me, squinting. "You know that promise is no good," I said.

"Prick," Courtney groaned. She pushed forward, pushing me out of the way. All of her black hair tumbled forward from her shoulders and neck and I leaned back on the balls of my feet. I traced my han
