Chapter 281 Erotic Day With Strangers 1

It had been a while since Steve and I had been out for a drink because of work commitments so as it was a really nice day I suggested that we go for a leisurely afternoon walk to a local beauty spot it would take us around a small lake through a wooded area and onto a quiet pub where we could spend an hour or so before making our way home.

I dressed in a cool linen blouse and a sheer white gypsy skirt that never fails to get Steve going a hint of my small peach panties showing through the skirt against the contrast of my tanned skin.

The day was unseasonably hot but a cool breeze blowing off the lake and the shade of the wooded area made it more than pleasant. As we strolled along Steve playfully cupped a buttock through my thin summer skirt and squeezed I turned into him and our mouths crushed together his tongue slipped past my lips and now gently caressed my own one hand rested on the small of my back the other lay along the top of my buttocks his fingers gently caressing.

He broke free and turned me away from him his arms encircling me as he placed little kisses along the side of my neck. He knows this drives me crazy and as he gently bit my ear I could feel the heat building in my belly and the wetness between my legs as I pushed back and ground my ass against his hardness.

My legs became jelly as he trailed his fingers gently along the inside of my thighs the cool breeze causing Goosebumps on my exposed skin skirt pushed almost up to my waist his fingers tickled across my panties.

Lost in the moment she started to breathe rapidly Steve gently took his hand off hers but she didn't loose go or stop stroking.

As her strokes increased in length and intensity the edge of her hand touched the wetness of his knob she pulled her hand away rubbing the sticky precome on her skirt she was flushed and looked a little shocked at herself

He turned to face where she was kneeling stroking his cock with firm slow movements the shaft glistening with our combined juices the end was red and swollen as he slid the foreskin back and forth.

He told her to carry on touching herself if she wanted to.

Without saying a word she moved a hand up under her skirt the other hand gathering it up at the hem to keep her intimate area covered.

That just made it all the more sexy her movements obvious as she matched Steve stroke for stroke so turned on that her inhibitions were melting away.

It was such an erotic sight that I began to touch my sopping fanny.

Then I had a wicked idea.

I whispered to Tracy that she would be more comfortable lying down she looked hesitant at first then lay back careful to arrange her skirt so that she was covered up.

I positioned Steve so that he was between her feet she looked startled but I said it was ok he was only going to let her see him come as agreed but it would be much better this way.

Steve was very close now Tracy's eyes were wide she was biting her bottom lip in anticipation as she watched his hand moving in short rapid strokes squeezing his swollen penis legs and buttocks tense I knew he was about to come.

Very gently I moved her skirt up over her legs to where her hand lay between her thighs Tracy started to sit up but I placed a hand on her shoulder and said relax everything's fine but would it be ok if Steve could have a little look to help him come.

Chapter 284 Shy Wife Fucks Stranger For Husband 1

Introduction: A modest wife enjoys fulfilling her husband's fantasies.

*****

I suppose this story starts with the love of my life; my sweet wife, Claire. She is truly the most amazing woman I have ever met. Everybody loves Claire. And aside from being a great wife and mother to our three kids, she also has an amazing libido- always eager to have sex. She is 34 years old, and even after having three kids, still has rocking body. She is 5'4", has great legs, and beautiful "C" cups. We have been married for five years and have enjoyed amazing sex from day one. You would never guess it by her modest appearance, but she's that rare woman who gets turned on as easily as a guy. Even if she isn't in the mood, I can always get her there by grabbing her tits or touching her pussy. She can also fuck just for the sake of fucking, having orgasms with ease. There is usually a point in our fucking when I think I could probably get her to do anything. It was that thought that really turned me on. I would fantasize about all kinds of scenarios involving my wife losing control during sex and doing pretty much whatever my heart (or cock) desired.

I couldn't believe what was going on. Was this my wife? Holy cow, this was awesome. I said, "I'm going to cum. I need to slow down, Sweetie."

"No way! You can hang on a little longer... Give me that cock." She whispered, "Is he watching? Oh fuck... Fuck, fuck, fuck... This is so fucking hot!"

And with that, I buried everything I had into her tight little pussy. Unfortunately, it only took a few thrusts before I was ready to blow. I pulled out, straddled her face and she eagerly took my cock in her mouth, just as I exploded with my load. I came so hard I thought my balls might come out too. She sucked me dry, swallowing every drop. There was nothing new about that, though. Claire was always a champ when it came to swallowing. But this time she swallowed with a sense of urgency. She wanted more.

I was now finished, but she hadn't cum yet. She was crazy with lust, begging me to eat her pussy. As I was licking her sweet box and sliding a couple fingers into her, it occurred to me that if I could keep her from cumming, I could own her sweet ass for the entire night. She wouldn't like it, of course. When my Claire wants to cum, Claire cums. But I was in the power position here. I kept licking and finger fucking her, but every time she got close, I would stop. She knew I was teasing her and begged me to finish what I had started. "Pleeeeeeease! Please let me cum!"

Paul worked his cock all the way in and out of her. Very quickly he was slamming the length of his meat deep inside of her, with the slap, slap, slap of his balls keeping time. You haven't lived until you've seen a well-hung stranger balls-deep in your wife while she's screaming for more. I didn't want this night to end.

Chapter 287 It's A Dick Big Brother 1

"Are you sure?" I asked my sister.

"I'm sure, you're my brother."

"What's that got to do with it?"

"Everything, again you're my brother."

"What if I told you I've thought about this for years."

"Years?"

"Yea, years. I think you're really hot."

"But again, you are my brother."

"So you're saying because I am your brother, there's not a chance in hell that this could happen?"

"I don't think so," my sister told me. "I've never thought of you that way."

"Never?" I asked her.

"Well maybe never is too strong of a word."

"Ahhhh," I thought to myself, maybe there is a chance this could happen.

We had been sitting around all day by her pool drinking. I think I was on my fourth or fifth rum and coke. My sister Kay was on her third. I'd been mixing them pretty strong. We both had been sitting around in our bathing suits. She had a two piece on. It fit her well. It was a little suit, but to my disappointment covered everything. Even when she bent over I wasn't able to see down her top, and I really wanted to see her tits. Even at forty she was hot. She was tan with long shapely legs. She didn't have big tits, but they were more than a mouth full. Her skin was real smooth. I don't know how many times I thought about her with no clothes on.

I had been visiting her now for about two weeks. Her husband was out of town on a business trip. I planned my visit with her because of that. My wife didn't mind. I'm retired and I think she just wanted me out of her hair. The trouble is I haven't made any headway towards fucking her. I was running out of ideas.

I reached over and picked up her swim suit bottoms. "I really don't think you will walk out of the water more. I don't think you would show me your body totally naked. That would shock me."

She lowered her hands back into the water. "You don't think I will, huh?"

"Nope."

She started walking again. I watched as she kept walking toward the shallow end. Now I could see her belly button. I thought she would stop again, but she didn't. She kept walking. I saw her hips. She took another step and I could almost see her pussy. Another step, now her pussy was exposed to me. I realized she shaved down there. It was as bald as a baby's ass. She was still walking toward the steps in the shallow end. She didn't stop. She climbed the steps and walked out of the pool. She walked right over and stood in front of me. I watched the water run off her naked body.

"Oh my god sis, you're perfect. I really mean that." All I had to do was reach out and I could touch her tits. That's how close she was standing to me. I watched the water rolled off of her body. I could barely make out any tan lines.

She bent over toward me. Her tits were less than six inches from my face. I thought she was going to put them on my mouth. I was wrong. She bent over to pick up her swim suit from the table.

"I don't want you to tell me to stop."

"I haven't yet, have I?"

"No," I answered and started pulling down my swim suit. I rose back up and put my arms around my sister's lower back. She didn't resist me. I felt my now very hard and straight up dick against her skin.

She put her arms around my neck. "Now let me understand this game. Third base is you feeling my....my...." she laughed, "My who, who."

"Your what?"

"My who, who." She laughed.

"Yea, third base is me feeling your "who, who." I laughed.

"And home run is you putting your....your..."

"Its called a dick, what the matter, can't you say it?"

"I can say it, dick, see dick. Now home run is you putting your dick in me?" Right?"

"Right."

"Can I say stop at any time, still?"

"Anytime, you say stop, sis, I'll stop."

"Even if you don't get to make a home run?"

I felt disappointed. "Even if I don't get to make a home run," I answered.

"OK, but lets go inside to my bedroom." She took her hands off from around my neck and started walking into the house. I watched her ass as I walked behind her. I really wanted to get a home run.

She lay down on her bed. I stood there just looking at her.

"What's the matter?" she asked me.

"Nothing, nothing, Sorry I was staring at you, but I never thought I'd get to see you naked. Sis, you are really hot. I mean hot. Your body is perfect."

"Thanks, are you going to kept staring at me or climb in bed with me?"

Chapter 290 Eva Started It All: EP1

INTRODUCTION: SISTER BEGS DISGUISED BROTHER TO FUCK HER ON HALLOWEEN

Ever since I was just learning to speak I have called my sister Evie, pronounced like the letters E V. At first I guess she thought it was cute, but as she grew older she lost her fondness for the moniker. Any how, I still called her that and she started acting like I was a royal pain in her ass. Maybe it had a lot to do with the two year (well, 1 ½ years actually but two grades) difference in our ages. When she was a senior in high school I was just a sophomore. I hated to admit it but Evie was the hottest girl in school, probably the entire town! That meant all the other hot girls hung out with her. You know ... birds of a feather ... that sort of thing.

And I SO wanted to date one of the hot girls in school, but that just pissed off Evie as she thought I was trying to horn in on her fun. She was wrong but looking back I can see her point. It was a wedge that pushed us further and further apart as she wanted to be with her friends without having to 'baby sit' her LITTLE brother! That pissed me off since I was horny, not in need of a baby sitter! Once I discovered girls as objects of desire -- and boy did I DESIRE them -- my sister tossed me out of at least five parties per year.
