

CRAZY PLEASURE

Chapter 17 Cousins In A Room 2

As far as mom and me doing things together, we did a few things together like when it came to seeing other family members that we were close to, like Aunt Julie and Cousin Helen. Mom and Julie were sisters with no other siblings and Helen was Julie's only child and I was mom and dad's only child.

Dad and I were not close what so ever and didn't do anything together at any time. He never came to any of the high school games that I played in. Any time I wanted to go camping it was all ways mom and me that went without dad. Julie and Helen would go with mom and me most of the time before they left the country to live in some other country.

Eleven hours after leaving home mom and I pulled into town that Aunt Julie and Cousin Helen lived in now. With one stop for dinner and four stops for bathroom breaks and gas on a couple of stops is what turned a nine hour drive into an eleven hour drive.

As we drove into town where Julie and Helen lived I was doing the driving to give mom a break from driving since she was the one that started out driving the first half of the trip.

"Take the next exit up here and we'll stop at the restaurant up there and I'll give Julie a call to let her know where we are."

"Okay."

When I got to the exit where the restaurant is located off from mom used her phone to make a call to Aunt Julie and Helen. As I got toward the bottom of the exit ramp, "Hello, Helen?" then I turned since the light had turned green for me to go on through the intersection.

"This is Kandy. Is Julie there?"

After a short pause, "Okay, tell her that Roger and I are at the restaurant just off the two twenty exit. We're going to eat a bite of supper here and if you two want to join us for supper come on out then we can follow you guys back to your place there."

After another short pause, "Okay we'll be inside waiting for you to get here before we order then."

"Okay, see you in a few then. Bye."

Mom put her phone away as I pulled into the parking lot to the restaurant, "Julie and Helen are on their way here to meet us for supper. They said to give them about fifteen minutes to pull in here."

"Okay. Do we sit here and wait for them or do we go on inside and wait for them?" as I pulled into a parking spot.

"Let's go on in so I can use the restroom and get something to drink while we wait for them."

While mom went on to the restroom the hostess showed me to our table and as mom came to the table, the waitress brought our drinks to the table and when mom was seated, I went to the restroom and five minutes after I got reseated, we saw Julie and Helen pulling into the parking lot to park two spaces over from where mom and I had parked.

Looking at Aunt Julie and Cousin Helen walk toward our table I noticed that Julie had on a sleeveless button up light blue blouse that was sheer, with a medium blue bra on under it and a short blue print skirt, which stopped mid-thigh, with shoulder length light brown hair.

Helen had on a light tan pull over shirt with spaghetti straps without a bra on and her nipples were trying to poke a hole in the shirt, they were sticking out so far. She had on a sort short skirt that hugged her hips and butt just barely covering her butt cheeks. As I stood to let her slide in on the bench seat I was sitting on, I swear I did see the very bottom of her cheeks as she bent to sit and slide over, with Julie sitting next to mom on the bench seat across from me. Helen's hair was a dark brown that she had pulled back into a ponytail that looked to be long enough to reach the middle of her back if it wasn't in the ponytail.

As we finished with our greetings to each other the waitress took their drink order and when she brought the drinks back to the table, we all gave her our order as we then made small talk just before our meal came out to the table.

With our meal ate and at Julie's and Helen's house, we all sat down in the living room visiting with Helen and me drinking a beer and Julie and mom drinking wine, we all got everyone caught up to date with all that has happened in our lives.

When Aunt Julie and mom had finished off the second bottle of wine, "Where is the closest hotel for Roger and I to sleep at while we are here?" I noticed that mom's words were a bit slurred from the wine she has drunk.

"Why go to a hotel when you two can stay here for the week that you're here? We decided that you and I can sleep in my bed and Roger, and Helen, can sleep in her bed since we both have a king size beds for us to sleep in. Besides you two don't need to be driving after drinking."

"Aunt Julie has a point mom. I'm not twenty one yet which would mean we both end up in jail if we happen to get stopped for any reason at all."

"True and I have had a bit much to be driving too."

"Then it is settled. You two will stay here for the week and that way we can have more time to visit more too. Helen and I both talked about how much we have missed seeing you two for the past three years now."

"Roger and I have talked about us missing you two as well."

"I'll go out to the car and get our luggage then, for when we're ready to turn in for the night."

"I'll help you bring them in if you don't mind me helping you out." Helen said as she stood up with me.

"I don't mind one bit." turning toward the front door,
"But you don't have to though."

As I opened the door I let Helen go out in front of me and when I had the door closed behind us, "I want to spend more time with you and let mom and Aunt Kandy have more time together alone." taking a hold of my arm.

"Julie I ask how many guys are hitting on you for a date out with you?" I couldn't believe I just asked that out of the blue like that.

"Not a one, which I care about going out with. Why do you ask? Do you want to take me out on a date?" in a flirting voice.

"I just might. You are so sexy hot it's hard to not want to be seen with you. I just wanted to make sure you didn't have a jealous boyfriend if I did take you out on a date."

"You don't have to worry about any jealous boyfriend. I don't want a guy that is going to be jealous over my favorite cousin taking me out on a date of any kind."

"I wonder what our folks will think if we were to start dating each other?" in a joking way but making it sound like I was serious about it.

"To be honest about it, I wouldn't give a rat's ass what they thought about it if we were able to live close enough to date each other."

As I got the trunk opened up I looked at Helen for a moment to see she was serious about us dating each other. To verify what I saw in her eyes, "You are serious about it right?"

"Yes I am. Why, were you just pulling my leg about wanting to date me?"

I was but since you put it that way, I would love to date you for the fact you are so beautiful. The only problem other than our folks is, I have no idea as to where to take you out at, not being from around here. Now in my home town I would know of a couple of places to take you out on a date at. The thing about being in my home town is there would be people to know who you are and how we're related to each other." picking up an overnight case that mom had put stuff in and in handing it over to Helen I picked up to larger suitcases that mom had filled, I can come back out and get my duffle bag in a moment."

Helen picked up my duffle bag, "True. Now here no one would know and we could introduce each other as boyfriend and girlfriend. I can give you some ideas as to where I would like to go out on a date with you and direct you to the places that you decide to take me to."

"Now that would work. That don't tell me how our mom's would take it if we were to date each other though."

"Well my mom wouldn't have a problem with it since we know you don't like anything to do with drugs as far as dealing in it like dad did. Some guy or boy I would happen to date outside of you Julie be dealing in drugs behind my back till he decides to try and get me to help in dealing it. Sense I will not do any such thing, which it could get me killed, and not knowing he's dealing in drugs could get me killed as fast as knowing can get one killed."

"You are so right about that. I had what I thought was a friend dealing in drugs and his parents didn't know that he was dealing and before I could let them know about him dealing drugs they both got shot and killed because he didn't pay the dealer that he got the drugs from. As soon as I found out he was dealing I tried to talk him into quitting with the dealing of them but he didn't want to stop, so I stopped going around him for any reason at all and tried to contact his folks but they were shot and killed, before I got home to call them and let them know what I knew."

Stepping into the living room with the luggage, "Put your mom's things on the foot of the bed for now." Aunt Julie stood up and lead the way to her bedroom. Turning toward Helen, "Is one of them your mom's or are they all yours?" to look at Helen as she was following with my duffle bag and mom's overnight case.

"That small case is mom's overnight case."

"I'll take it as you take Roger's stuff to your bedroom baby."

"Okay."

When Aunt Julie had the small case in her hand Helen turned to head back across the living room toward a hallway as Julie led the way to her bedroom.

Once in the bedroom Aunt Julie put the small case down on the side of the king size bed, "Put those two cases there on the foot of the bed babe." pointing at the foot of the bed as she turned and watched me step to the foot.

I laid the two suitcases down on the bed across the foot to have Aunt Julie step up next to me as I started to turn back toward the bedroom door, "I haven't got to properly say hello to you Roger." taking my face into both of her hands.

Before I could say anything Aunt Julie kissed me on the mouth just as my mouth opened to say something and after a short time of kissing me with open mouth she stuck her tongue into my mouth and without thinking about it, my tongue met hers as we French kissed for a moment. When we broke the kissing off, "Oh wow babe, you sure know how to kiss a woman for sure. Helen is so lucky if you're willing to love her as your girlfriend. She told me she wants to be a couple with you and you're all she thinks about. How do you feel about her?"
