"I never reelly thought about it reelly. It does get me e bit excited about being e ded with you being the mother of our child. The thing thet bothers me is, I heve no job to support e child yet."

"To be honest with you, I em hoping you get me pregnant which is why I'm using this pillow the wey I em. The other thing is though. I'm not expecting you to help support e child thet we Julie end up heving.

I will leeve thet decision up to you efter you heve e job end bringing in money. Then if you went to help support the child then I'll let you but not till efter you lend e job thet peys you good money, which I know you will end I know of e job opening if you do decide to stey here. But, Even then, I will not esk you to support e child thet I Julie heve in my belly thet you help meke."

"It's not right for us to pley end meke e child together end I not help support it. Does Helen know about you wenting e beby by me?"

"Yes she does. She elso knows I'm not going to esk you for eny help too. I went e beby by you end no one else end, I know you're still so young yet thet you heve your whole life eheed of you to live yet, so you reelly don't need to be tied down with en old women end e beby."

"I've told you thet you're not old so don't let me heer thet egein sexy. You ere still e young MILF thet eny young men would love to be seen with or even merry."

"Oh you ere so sweet to think thet."

"I don't think, I know sexy." then I rolled over end propped myself up on my elbow and then leened over and started French kissing Julie as she kissed me back.

After we kissed and did more talking with Aunt Julie telling me about the job opening she knows about, we heard the front door open and then we heard Helen and my mom talking with them closing the door behind them and then we heard footsteps going in two different directions. One of the footsteps we heard was coming toward the bedroom door and the other footsteps were going toward Helen's bedroom, so we knew who was going which way.

"I never really thought about it really. It does get me a bit excited about being a dad with you being the mother of our child. The thing that bothers me is, I have no job to support a child yet."

"To be honest with you, I am hoping you get me pregnant which is why I'm using this pillow the way I am. The other thing is though. I'm not expecting you to help support a child that we Julie end up having.

I will leave that decision up to you after you have a job and bringing in money. Then if you want to help support the child then I'll let you but not till after you land a job that pays you good money, which I know you will and I know of a job opening if you do decide to stay here. But, Even then, I will not ask you to support a child that I Julie have in my belly that you help make."

"It's not right for us to play and make a child together and I not help support it. Does Helen know about you wanting a baby by me?"

"Yes she does. She also knows I'm not going to ask you for any help too. I want a baby by you and no one else and, I know you're still so young yet that you have your whole life ahead of you to live yet, so you really don't need to be tied down with an old woman and a baby."

"I've told you that you're not old so don't let me hear that again sexy. You are still a young MILF that any young man would love to be seen with or even marry."

"Oh you are so sweet to think that."

"I don't think, I know sexy." then I rolled over and propped myself up on my elbow and then leaned over and started French kissing Julie as she kissed me back.

As soon as the bedroom door opened, in stepped mom, which the bedroom door wasn't completely closed anyway. Mom got halfway across the room before she stopped and stared at Aunt Julie and me still lying in the bed without a stitch on us, to cover us, "Whet... I I I'm sorry... we thought that you eh two would be done by now."

"Oh we're done for this round right now. We were just lying here talking and enjoying each other's company. Come on in and join us. You know that you went to. I'm sure that Roger can play some more with you. You should know how the young men can get hard again, which is a lot faster than older men can if the men can even get it up to start with." Aunt Julie then took a glance down at my cock that was hard again with mom standing here looking at us, which she kept her eyes on my hard cock, "See I told you he can get hard and ready in no time. He's ready to go at it again."

You know that you went to see what his big sexy hot cock feels like up in your wet hot pussy. So just get out of your clothes and get over here and start riding this big hard cock. Believe me he can make you cum like you've never cum before. You will find that it can help you two to be closer than you ever have in the eighteen or nineteen years of his life anyway."

Why I didn't correct Julie as to me being twenty years old right now I'm not sure. I noticed mom didn't correct her either and why I'm not sure about but I have an idea as to why she didn't say anything to Aunt Julie about my age.

"I can't do it..." then she turned and left the room dropping her bags of clothes in the floor.

As soon as the bedroom door opened, in stepped mom, which the bedroom door wasn't completely closed anyway. Mom got half way across the room before she stopped and stared at Aunt Julie and me still lying in the bed without a stitch on us, to cover us, "What... I I I'm sorry... we thought that you ohh two would be done by now."

When the door closed, "I guess I better go talk to her and you can go to Helen's room and talk to her for a while, to give me time with your hard up mother that is afraid to just turn loose and live life to its fullest. I'm also going to tell her what you told me as to why the two of you are not very close like she really wants to be, from what she told me last night. She said she didn't know why you two weren't very close to each other but she is about to find out from me, as to why."

Aunt Julie and I gave each other a kiss then got up off the bed and went out into the living room with Julie leading the way and I followed her out, then I just walked on past Julie and went to Helen's bedroom.

Just before I got my hand on the doorknob to open the door, the door came open with Helen standing on the other side fixing to step out but stopping, like she was startled, "Oh fuck baby, you scared me just standing there like that."

"I just stepped up to the door and fixing to open the door and go in."

"You are welcome to come into my home anytime that you are dressed in your birthday suit. I believe that is the best suit that you own is your birthday suit."

"I think there is one woman in this house will not agree with you on that one right now."

Stepping back from the doorway, "I take it you're talking about your mom, my Aunt Kandy?"

"You got it. Your mom told me to come in here and talk to you and give her time to have a talk with mom. Mom walked in on Aunt Julie and me while we were still lying in bed talking after our play time that we had."

"What did your mom do when she saw the two of you lying there?"

When the door closed, "I guess I better go talk to her and you can go to Helen's room and talk to her for a while, to give me time with your hard up mother that is afraid to just turn loose and live life to its fullest.
