

Crazy Wife 131

Chapter 131: Criminal? Are You Referring To Me? (2)

"Relax, I won't forget you." ?How can I not use the labor that comes knocking on my door!

"Elder Qiu, should we leave at night or tomorrow morning?" Leng Ruoxue wanted to set the time so that she could make other arrangements.

"Let's go tomorrow morning!" Elder Qiu said after some thought.

"Then let's have a good meal tonight. Tomorrow, I'll get Quill to take us back to Phoenix City," Leng Ruoxue said generously. Now, she just wanted to go home quickly and then prepare to cultivate properly.

"Hehe, isn't that too much trouble? How can I accept this!" Elder Qiu said with a smile, his expression not the slightest bit embarrassed.

"Since you're embarrassed, treat us tonight." Leng Ruoxue glanced at Elder Qiu lightly. Then she gave Freak a look and left the reception room.

"Don't! I'm joking!" Elder Qiu chased after them. How could he have the money? ?Boohoo... isn't this killing me!

...

In the evening, more than 30 people from the Heavenly Phoenix Academy gathered in the reception room. They chose this place to have dinner mainly because it was big enough and no one would come to disturb them.

"Wow! Miss, there's so much food tonight! Miss, I really love you to death." Feng Da was beside himself with joy. He hadn't eaten such sumptuous food in a long time.

"What did you say?" A cold voice sounded behind Feng Da, startling him into breaking out in cold sweat.

"N-nothing. Hehe, Deputy Leader Ye, you heard wrongly. I didn't say anything, anything at all!" Feng Da waved his hand in denial. ?Boohoo... I was too excited and forgot about Deputy Leader Ye's jealousy.

"I heard it. He said he loves the girl to death," a shiny purple butterfly said very honestly as it flew over.

"You heard it wrong, you damn butterfly!" Feng Da felt hatred in his heart. ?Why does this fellow like adding oil to the fire so much!

"I didn't hear it wrong. He really said it," the butterfly emphasized.

"Freak, what are you doing? Come and help quickly," Leng Ruoxue said unhappily. Everyone else was helping, but they still had the time to chat.

"Coming, Xue'er!"

"Coming, Miss!"

"I'm coming too, girl!" the butterfly mimicked them both.

“What are you doing here? I didn’t call you. Go play somewhere else,” Leng Ruoxue said disdainfully to the butterfly that flew to her side. This little fellow had only followed her for less than a day, but it had given her a lot of trouble.

“Girl, how can you dislike me!” the butterfly said sadly, tears welling up in its small black eyes, looking extremely aggrieved.

“Because you only know how to cause trouble!” Leng Ruoxue said bluntly. She really didn’t know where this butterfly had learned its bad habits.

Take today as an example. When she strolled the streets with Freak, the butterfly insisted on following. But whenever it saw a woman with a bit of beauty, it would tease her, and it had even lifted the skirts of several women. Moreover, it even complained that some of their figures weren’t good... She really wanted to strangle it at the time!

“I’m telling the truth.” It was an honest butterfly. Was it wrong to tell the truth?

“You are a sprite. What does a woman’s beauty and good figure have anything to do with you?” Leng Ruoxue asked. When she had time, she had to teach this lecherous butterfly what it could and couldn’t say!

“B-but women are meant to be looked at by men!” The butterfly didn’t think that it was wrong to be picky about women. That was what the elders at the Lunar Shadow Academy had told it!

“Which bastard taught you this? Who said that women are meant to be looked at by men? I say that men are meant to be looked at by women!” Leng Ruoxue was angry. “This is too disrespectful to women!”

“Besides, are you a man?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“My mentality is that of a man!” the butterfly stressed. Although it didn’t have a gender yet, it would have one when it grew up, and it had already decided to be male.

“So? Behave yourself now, or else I won’t let you follow me.” Leng Ruoxue gave an ultimatum to this unrepentant butterfly.

“Oh!” The butterfly nodded reluctantly. “This is so unfair! It’s not my fault for having such high standards. Boohoo... I just have good taste!”

“Xue’er, everything is ready. We can eat now.” Feng Moran walked over.

“Okay.”

“Elder Qiu, do you have anything you want to say to everyone?” Leng Ruoxue asked when she saw that everyone was seated. In addition to the 30-odd students, everyone had also released their spirit beasts, so the entire reception room was basically full.

“Then let me say a few words. It’s all thanks to everyone’s efforts that our academy was able to achieve such good results in this year’s Academy Competition. I thank everyone on behalf of the academy! Let me toast everyone!” Elder Qiu said very emotionally, then raised his wine cup and drained it in one gulp.

“Great, Elder Qiu! Another cup!” someone hooted.

“Okay.” Elder Qiu finished another cup. His round cheeks were already red after two cups.

“Okay, stop getting Elder Qiu to drink.” Leng Ruoxue knew that Elder Qiu couldn’t hold his liquid well and quickly stopped everyone.

“We’re leaving tomorrow. Everyone, drink less,” Feng Moran said. It had been a long time since they gathered like this, so they were a little too excited.

“Don’t worry, Deputy Leader Feng. Everyone knows,” Feng Da said quickly.

Everyone chatted and ate. The meal finally came to an end very late at night. Moreover, some students were drunk and even fell asleep on the floor of the reception room...

“Don’t we need to care about them?” Leng Ruoxue asked worriedly while looking at the people lying on the floor.

“Don’t worry about it. They’re all men. What does it matter if they sleep on the floor for a night?” Freak had no sympathy.

“Then let’s go to bed. It’s late,” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. Her grandfather and the others had already returned to their rooms to rest.

“Okay.”

The next morning, Leng Ruoxue came to the reception room and saw that everyone who was drunk the previous night had woken up. Moreover, they looked to be in good spirits. It seemed like the constitution of spiritualists was indeed different!

Chapter 132: Criminal? Are You Referring To Me? (3)

“Pack up and get ready to set off,” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“Miss, we packed up yesterday morning,” Lin Yuan said. They wouldn’t have dared to get drunk last night otherwise!

“Then go and settle the bill. Ask everyone to gather downstairs,” Leng Ruoxue ordered. She took out an amethyst card and handed it to Lin Yuan.

“Okay.”

After leaving the reception room, Leng Ruoxue went straight to her grandfather’s room.

“Grandpa, are you ready? We’re leaving,” Leng Ruoxue said after knocking on the door.

“Ready.” Leng Qingtian opened the door.

Then Leng Ruoxue called her brother and Freak. They met Feng Moran in the corridor and went downstairs together.

After arriving downstairs, Leng Ruoxue and the group from the Heavenly Phoenix Academy were surrounded by officers and soldiers.

“What’s the meaning of this?” Leng Ruoxue pushed aside the crowd. The cold light in her eyes was intimidating, and killing intent flashed past.

“By the decree of Noble Consort Xu, we are here to arrest the criminal who harmed the princess,” an officer who looked like the leader said very formally.

“Criminal? Are you referring to me?” Leng Ruoxue said indifferently with a light smile. “No wonder Noble Consort Xu hadn’t done anything the past few days. So she was waiting for the Academy Competition to end!”

“The person we’re going to arrest is Leng Ruoxue,” the officer said calmly. He knew that Leng Ruoxue wasn’t to be trifled with, but he dared to go to the Elegance Lagoon Pavilion to capture her because of Noble Consort Xu’s support.

“Does the emperor of the Southern Dusk Empire know that you’re here to arrest me?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“Erm... Erm, the imperial decree of the noble consort is of course His Majesty’s will,” the officer said while forcing himself to be calm, but his words weren’t confident.

“Is that so? I really didn’t know that this is the way the Southern Dusk Empire treats guests. Everyone here has their own opinions about what happened that day. Think of a better reason if you want to arrest me!” What Leng Ruoxue implied was that it was impossible to make her stay with such a reason.

“Grandpa, Elder Qiu, let’s go!” Leng Ruoxue said, ignoring the soldiers surrounding them. It was really unbecoming of her status to bicker with such a small fry.

“Okay.” No one cared about such a small character.

“None of you are allowed to leave. Arrest all of them,” the officer hurriedly ordered when he saw that he couldn’t keep them any longer. Noble Consort Xu wouldn’t let him go if this matter went wrong.

Leng Ruoxue impatiently raised her white hand, and a huge stream of fire-attribute spiritual power flew toward the officers and soldiers. Immediately, they were all sent flying several meters away, and their bodies were burning with purplish-red flames...

“Aaahhhh! Aaahhhh!” They screamed in pain as they rolled on the ground...

“Miss Leng, we’re so sorry for startling you,” Huangfu Lian apologized as he walked to Leng Ruoxue.

“What? Your Highness the Crown Prince is also here to capture me?” Leng Ruoxue said mockingly.

“Of course not. I’m here on Imperial Father’s orders to see Miss Leng off,” Huangfu Lian quickly said. “Alas! Imperial Mother was right. Miss Leng is really angry.”

“Your Southern Dusk imperial family is really interesting. The imperial consort wants to arrest me, but the emperor wants to send me off. Who is the decision maker in the end?” Leng Ruoxue asked with curiosity and puzzlement on her face, seemingly wanting to know more.

“Of course it’s my imperial father.” Cold sweat rolled down Huangfu Lian’s forehead. His imperial father would be so angry if he heard this!

"Oh, that's good. Then can we go now?" Leng Ruoxue asked.

"Of course you can. I'll send you off," Huangfu Lian said with a gentle smile on his face.

"Grandpa, we can go now. With the crown prince protecting us, we don't have to be afraid. I don't think anyone will dare to stop us," Leng Ruoxue said to Leng Qingtian with an innocent expression.

"That's good. Grandpa is getting old, and I really can't take being scared," Leng Qingtian said very cooperatively while pretending to touch his heart.

Everyone was flabbergasted upon hearing this. ?Please, you are a Spiritual Supremacy! I've never heard of a Spiritual Supremacy being scared!

"Grandpa, don't be scared. The crown prince will protect us," Leng Ruoxue comforted.

"Yes. Xue'er, let's go quickly. Otherwise, who knows what might come and stop us later," Leng Qingtian said fearfully, as though he couldn't wait to leave right away.

"Then let's go!" Freak stepped forward and held Leng Qingtian's arm.

"Wait! Wait for me." Just as everyone was about to leave, they heard someone shouting in the distance...

There really was something else! Hearing this voice, everyone couldn't help but worry in their hearts. Even General Leng was about to become a diviner.

A flying spirit beast landed beside them, and Huo Qing jumped off.

"Wait for me. I'll go with you," Huo Qing said while panting slightly.

"Why are you following us? We don't welcome you," Freak roared while cursing Huo Qing in his heart. ?This person is too annoying.

Huo Qing ignored Ye Chen's unfriendly demeanor and said with a faint smile, "I will also be a student of the Heavenly Phoenix Academy in the future. Of course I have to go with you!"

"What?" Freak was angry! He couldn't stay calm anymore! ?Why does this guy keep haunting us?? He was so angry.

"I've decided to transfer to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy. Elder Qiu, may I?" Huo Qing directly asked Elder Qiu, ignoring a certain person's anger.

"Erm... Erm, you have to ask the principal. I'm only an elder, so it's not up to me. Besides, will the Rising Dragon Academy agree to it?" Elder Qiu said spinelessly under Ye Chen's threatening glare. ?Boohoo... I'm just an elder. Why make things difficult for me?

"Ruoxue, you will welcome me, right?" Huo Qing set his sights on Leng Ruoxue. He wanted to transfer schools because of her.

"No," Leng Ruoxue said lightly.

"Why?" Huo Qing was a little confused. ?Am I that unpopular?? Moreover, Ye Chen's smug expression made him uncomfortable.

Chapter 133: Criminal? Are You Referring To Me? (4)

"You're too troublesome!" Leng Ruoxue said while looking at the sky.

Another flying spirit beast descended...

"Big Brother Qing, wait for me!" Shui Xinran immediately stuck to Huo Qing's side as soon as she got off the spirit beast.

"Why did you follow me?" Huo Qing said with some displeasure.

"I..." Shui Xinran looked at Huo Qing aggrievedly, tears welling up in her eyes.

"Let's go!" Leng Ruoxue said to everyone. She really wasn't interested in such a drama.

Everyone soon left the Lunar Capital.

"Your Highness, please return!" Leng Ruoxue said very courteously to Huangfu Lian at the city gate, and then she let Quill out.

"Okay, then I'm going back." Huangfu Lian held in his amazement as he looked at the enormous flying spirit beast.

Seeing that everyone was already sitting on Quill's back, Leng Ruoxue sat on him as well. "Quill, let's go!"

"Yes, Master." Quill slowly flew up and disappeared into the sky with a strong gust of wind.

Huangfu Lian stood foolishly outside the city gate for a while until he could no longer see the shadow of the spirit beast. Then he turned around and walked back.

"Crown Prince, where are the people from the Heavenly Phoenix Academy?" Huo Qing stopped Huangfu Lian at the city gate.

"Already gone."

"How long ago?"

"There's no need to chase. You can't catch up," Huangfu Lian said kindly. But before he could finish speaking, he saw Huo Qing release his spirit beast and fly away.

...

In the imperial study of the imperial palace of the Southern Dusk Empire...

"Your Majesty, I just wanted to avenge Yu'er." Noble Consort Xu knelt in front of the emperor's desk, weeping uncontrollably. Her appearance was truly endearing.

"I told you that we have to consider this matter at length. Have you forgotten?" Huangfu Zhen said furiously.

"But they're leaving today. I was anxious, so... Please don't take issue with me on the account that I love our daughter so much, Your Majesty." Noble Consort Xu pleaded. But in her heart, she was cursing the emperor to death. Hmph! What a useless man. He doesn't even dare to provoke Leng Ruoxue and has concerns about this and that. I hate him so much!

"You want to stop them from leaving? Do you want to offend the Heavenly Phoenix Academy and the Artificer Association?" Huangfu Zhen roared. The Artificer Association had already informed all the top factions that Leng Ruoxue was an important guest of their Artificer Association.

"I know my mistake."

"Confine Noble Consort Xu to the Soaring Phoenix Hall. No one is allowed to see her without my consent," Huangfu Zhen ordered the eunuch beside him.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

After the eunuch brought Noble Consort Xu away, the emperor was the only one left in the imperial study.

"Empress, you can come out now."

"Your Majesty, are we just going to let this matter rest?" the empress asked in puzzlement as she emerged from the secret room.

"What else can we do? The Xu family is ambitious, and now is not the time to do anything to her." Huangfu Zhen shook his head, looking helpless.

"Empress, do you think Leng Ruoxue will..." Huangfu Zhen was worried.

"Probably not. I've already sent Lian'er. Hopefully, nothing big happens." The empress was also very worried.

"Hehe, Empress, there won't be any big trouble. That girl Leng Ruoxue will never suffer a loss. I'm just worried that she might think that it was my idea." Huangfu Zhen was a little uncertain. That girl was too smart.

"Your Majesty, I've said it before. We can only be on good terms with Leng Ruoxue. The people of the Leng family don't like to be used by others, so if we want to cooperate with her, we have to show our sincerity," the empress said with certainty.

"You're right, Empress."

"Your Majesties the Emperor and Empress, His Highness the Crown Prince has returned to the palace," a eunuch reported.

"Imperial Father, Imperial Mother, I'm back." Huangfu Lian walked into the imperial study and bowed.

"Lian'er, there wasn't any big trouble, right?" the empress hurriedly asked, her expression exceptionally nervous.

"I guess not!" Huangfu Lian didn't know how to explain it to his parents. He couldn't say that Leng Ruoxue was already a little unhappy!

“But Imperial Father, the young master of the Huo family, Huo Qing, plans to study at the Heavenly Phoenix Academy,” Huangfu Lian said after some thought.

“Huo Qing wants to go to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy?” Huangfu Zhen was in disbelief. The relationship between the Huo family and the Rising Dragon Academy was extraordinary, yet Huo Qing wanted to study at the Heavenly Phoenix Academy. Would the Huo family and the Rising Dragon Academy agree?

“Yes. Moreover, Huo Qing has already chased after the people from the Heavenly Phoenix Academy,” Huangfu Lian added.

“Empress, what do you think?” Huangfu Zhen turned to the empress beside him.

“Your Majesty, in my opinion, Huo Qing is most likely targeting Leng Ruoxue,” the empress said cautiously with a slight frown. She had heard that the Huo family proposed marriage to Leng Ruoxue, but she rejected them. Could it be true? Thinking of this, she was a little hesitant.

“Your Majesty, should we let our son study at the Heavenly Phoenix Academy as well?” the empress suggested.

“Erm...” Huangfu Zhen hesitated. If Lian'er went to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy, the Lunar Shadow Academy would definitely be displeased, and he didn't want to fall out with the academy yet.

“Your Majesty, with the Huo family around, we can't count on the Lunar Shadow Academy at all. Instead, we might as well put all our efforts on Leng Ruoxue!” the empress said understandingly. She knew the concerns in the emperor's heart, but she believed that Leng Ruoxue was their best choice.

“Alright, let's do as you say, Empress!” Huangfu Zhen trusted the empress very much. He knew that only the empress cared for him wholeheartedly in this world.

“Lian'er, prepare to go to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy as well!” Huangfu Zhen showed the demeanor of an emperor and was full of boldness. There was no need to hesitate since he had already decided.

“Yes, Imperial Father.”

...

At an altitude of ten thousand meters in the sky, Leng Ruoxue and the others had been flying for nearly two days.

“Xue'er, are you tired?” Freak took the initiative to pull Xue'er into his arms and let her lie against him while taking some advantage of her.

“I'm not tired. It's Quill that's tired.” Leng Ruoxue's beautiful face was full of heartache and concern. Quill had been flying for two days and refused to rest. Fortunately, they were almost at Phoenix City.

Chapter 134: Uninvited Guests (1)

“Master, I'm not tired.” Quill was in a good mood and said honestly upon hearing his master's concern. He was a flying beast, and flying was his instinct, so how could he be tired? Moreover, he had his master's pills, so flying was very easy.

“Master, divine beasts aren’t so weak. You don’t have to worry too much,” Charm, lying in Leng Ruoxue’s arms, comforted. He knew that his master cherished them beasts, and they also cherished her. Quill knew that his master wanted to go back early, so he didn’t want to stop.

Leng Ruoxue gently caressed Charm’s soft and smooth fur and relaxed her heart. She knew that her beasts were all very strong, but no matter how strong they were, they were still her beasts! Moreover, in her heart, her beasts were as important as her family.

“Master, we’ve entered the borders of the Eastern Lagoon Empire,” Quill said as he looked down.

“Quill, thanks for your hard work.”

“Master, it’s okay. We’ll be home in a few hours.” Then Quill accelerated and flew at full speed.

“Elder Qiu, are there any arrangements by the academy after we return?” Leng Ruoxue’s beautiful eyes glanced at the excited Elder Qiu. ?I really don’t know why this old man is so excited!

“I have to go back and ask the principal. I don’t know either.” Elder Qiu scratched his head, slightly embarrassed.

“Oh.” ?I thought the principal already made plans!

“Elder Qiu, Huo Qing wants to come to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy. What do you think about this matter?” Leng Ruoxue asked again. ?That Huo Qing is really troublesome.

“Erm... I think he’s here for you.” As soon as Elder Qiu finished speaking, he immediately felt a cold glare shooting at him, and he couldn’t help but shrink his neck. ?Boohoo... I’m telling the truth. Why are you scaring me like this!

Elder Qiu felt aggrieved. ?I am a Spiritual Supremacy. How can I actually be afraid of my own student! Boohoo...

“Well, you’re right. He’s treating me as a sparring partner.” Leng Ruoxue was depressed thinking of it. ?Was I asking for it?

“Xue’er, what should we do then?” Freak’s eyes burned with jealousy, and he wanted to extinguish the fire in them right away.

“Freak, I will focus on cultivating after I go back. I shouldn’t be going to the academy anymore,” Leng Ruoxue said comfortingly after thinking.

“Oh, then I have to focus on cultivating too,” Freak quickly said. But he was still very happy when he heard Xue’er say that she wouldn’t go to the academy. ?Hmph! Huo Qing can keep his wishful thinking to himself.

“Lass, how can you not go to the academy? Our academy can’t live without you!” Elder Qiu couldn’t help feeling a little anxious when he heard Leng Ruoxue say that she wouldn’t go to the academy anymore.

“Elder Qiu, my main purpose for going to the academy was to compete in the Academy Competition. Now that I’ve completed my task, there’s naturally no need for me to go to the academy. Moreover, do you think there's anything the academy can teach me?" Leng Ruoxue raised her beautiful eyes slightly and glanced at Elder Qiu lightly.

"Erm... Lass, you'd better tell the principal yourself." Elder Qiu was helpless. ?Hopefully, the principal can persuade her to stay!

"Okay, I'll tell Grandpa Lin."

"Master, we're at Phoenix City," Quill reminded after flying for a few more hours.

"Quill, find a place to let them down!" Leng Ruoxue ordered. Everyone was tired, so they should go home and have a good rest!

"Yes, Master." Quill found a wide and flat place to land.

"Miss?" Liu Yan and the others were bewildered.

"Go home and have a good rest. Three days later, come to the general's mansion to look for me. I have other arrangements," Leng Ruoxue explained while looking at the rich expressions on everyone's faces. She couldn't help finding it funny. ?Do these people think that they've been abandoned?

"Yes, Miss." Liu Yan and the others were overjoyed. They thought that their young lady didn't want them anymore!

"Quill, let's go home!" Leng Ruoxue said with her pink lips after watching Liu Yan, Elder Qiu, and the others leave.

A moment later, Quill descended in the garden of the general's mansion.

"Old Master, Miss, and Young Master are back!" a servant shouted excitedly when he saw them.

"Old Master, Miss, Young Master." The steward hurriedly ran out of his room after hearing the shout.

"Steward, what is this?" Leng Qingtian asked in puzzlement. ?We've only been away for a month. Is there a need to be so excited?? He had often been away for months, but they hadn't been so enthusiastic when he returned!

"Hehe, Old Master, Miss is in the limelight this time. Now, there are many more people visiting our general's mansion," the butler said excitedly, as if he was the one in the limelight.

"The people of Phoenix City found out so quickly?" The news spread really quickly. It had only been around four days.

"We've known about it for a few days. Oh right, Master, the emperor also sent people to say that he wants to hold a banquet for Miss and the others to celebrate." The butler began to report one by one.

"Grandpa, let's go back to our rooms to have a good night's sleep. Let's talk after we wake up," Leng Ruoxue reminded while glancing at the steward, who was in a hurry to report. They hadn't had a good rest for the past three days.

"Xue'er is right. Everyone, go back to your rooms and rest!" Leng Qingtian waved his hand, displaying his prestige as a general.

After hearing what Leng Qingtian said, everyone returned to their rooms. Even Freak was very obedient and didn't pester Xue'er to chat with him.

"Steward, let's go to my study!" Leng Qingtian said to the stunned steward.

"Old Master, you should go back to your room to rest first. These are trivial matters. There's no hurry," the steward said awkwardly.

Leng Qingtian glared at the steward imperiously. ?No hurry? No hurry, and yet you reported in the garden?? Then he turned and walked to his room.

...

After Leng Ruoxue and the others had a good night's sleep, it was already afternoon the next day when she woke up.

Leng Ruoxue got up, washed up, and left her room.

"Grandpa." Leng Ruoxue walked into the study. Only her grandfather and the steward were here.

Chapter 135: Uninvited Guests (2)

"Xue'er, you're awake." Leng Qingtian's mood immediately improved when he saw his precious granddaughter.

"Grandpa, why didn't you sleep a little more?" Leng Ruoxue said with displeasure. ?Grandpa just came back. Why didn't he rest well?

"Hehe, Grandpa is used to it and can't stay idle," Leng Qingtian said with a fawning face. He didn't want his granddaughter to be angry with him!

"Grandpa, is there something important?" Leng Ruoxue noticed that her grandfather didn't look too good.

"It's okay. Grandpa will take care of it." Leng Qingtian didn't want his granddaughter to worry about him.

"Grandpa, you have to tell me if anything happens!" Leng Ruoxue reminded. She really wanted to share the burden with her grandfather, but he refused to tell her, and she couldn't force him.

"Hehe, don't worry. Grandpa won't be polite with you if there's really something that I can't solve," Leng Qingtian promised.

"Okay, Grandpa. Xue'er is hungry. Go eat with me!" Leng Ruoxue hugged her grandfather's arm affectionately.

"Alright."

Leng Qingtian and his granddaughter entered the dining room, only to find that they were the last to arrive.

"You stinky brats aren't as caring as my precious granddaughter." Leng Qingtian put on a stern face and pretended to be displeased.

“Grandpa, that’s because we all know that Xue’er would look for you!” Leng Ruohan hurriedly stood up and walked to Leng Qingtian’s side to curry favor.

“Yes, Grandpa. Aren’t we all waiting for you? How can we dare to eat if you don’t come!” Freak came over as well, his beautiful face full of flattery.

“Hehe, you stinky brats, I’m just teasing you! You must be hungry, right? Hurry up and eat!” Then the two of them sat down in their respective seats.

“By the way, what do you think of the banquet in the imperial palace?” Leng Qingtian asked his granddaughter and the others after breakfast.

“I don’t want to go.” Leng Ruoxue was the first to express her opinion. The imperial palace was too dark, and she didn’t know what the emperor was thinking, so it was better not to have anything to do with him.

“I’ll listen to Xue’er.” Freak followed Xue’er in everything. He was the twenty-four-hour-a-day exemplary obedient fiancé.

“Grandpa, I don’t want to go either.” Leng Ruohan’s handsome face looked thoughtful.

“What about you?” Leng Qingtian turned to Feng Da and the others.

“Since Miss isn’t going, we aren’t going either,” Feng Da said without hesitation. The palace wasn’t his cup of tea.

“No, they can choose not to go, but the few of you must,” Leng Qingtian said domineeringly. Wouldn’t they be disrespecting the emperor if they didn’t go? He was still the empire’s general after all.

“Why?” Feng Da said gloomily with a long face.

“Because if you don’t go, no one will,” Leng Qingtian said matter-of-factly.

“...” So they were just going to make up the numbers!

“General, socializing isn’t my forte. Really, don’t make me go. I might embarrass you, our elderly,” Feng Da said pitifully, almost crying.

“Elderly? Am I that old?” Leng Qingtian glared at Feng Da.

“No, no, you’re not old at all. See. I’m not good at talking, so don’t make me go!” Seeing that the volcano was about to erupt, Feng Da hurriedly put out the fire and gave a suggestion.

“You must go.” General Leng made the final decision, leaving no room for resistance.

“Miss.” Feng Da looked at Leng Ruoxue with a bitter face.

“Be good and eat more for us.” Leng Ruoxue patted Feng Da’s head and comforted him like she was comforting a puppy with a bright smile on her face.

“Freak, accompany me to the academy!” Leng Ruoxue turned to Freak. She should go and see Grandpa Lin.

“Okay.”

...

It was already evening when they arrived at the Heavenly Phoenix Academy. They entered the academy and went straight to the principal’s office.

“Grandpa Lin.” Leng Ruoxue knocked on the door.

“Ruoxue, why are you here so late?” Lin Liang was surprised to see Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen.

“I have something to tell Grandpa Lin.” Leng Ruoxue went straight to the point.

“Oh. Do you want to talk about not attending the academy?” Elder Qiu had already reported to him after returning.

“Yes, we’ve finished our task. Our focus will be on cultivating from now on, so we shouldn’t be going to the academy anymore,” Leng Ruoxue said very tactfully.

“Yes, you should cultivate diligently.” Lin Liang approved of this point. Moreover, he also knew that it was unlikely that this girl would be restrained by the academy.

“By the way, Ruoxue, Huo Qing...” Lin Liang looked awkward and hesitant to speak.

“Grandpa Lin, I know that he wants to transfer to the Heavenly Phoenix Academy.”

“He’s not the only one. There are others.” Lin Liang was very helpless.

“Who else?” Leng Ruoxue was puzzled.

“There’s also Southern Dusk’s Crown Prince Huangfu Lian, Shui Xinran, Northern Frost’s Princess Ximen Ya, and Ye Xiao. All of them want to transfer here,” Lin Liang said with a slight headache. If the two best geniuses of the Rising Dragon Academy transferred to their academy, that old fellow at the Rising Dragon Academy would definitely hate him to death.

Leng Ruoxue and Freak exchanged glances and said in unison, “Grandpa Lin will have a way.”

“I have no choice!” He had a headache over this for the past two days.

“Ruoxue, Huo Qing and the others are here for you. You can’t just leave them alone.” Lin Liang looked expectantly at the cunning girl.

“Grandpa Lin, they didn’t come for me. I’m not going to the academy anymore. Even if they came for me, there’s nothing I can do!” Leng Ruoxue made it clear that she was irresponsible and didn’t want to care about this matter.

“Ruoxue, can you give Grandpa Lin a good idea?” Lin Liang said expectantly. He really didn’t want to take in those people. Taking them in would mean trouble, but not taking them in would...

“Grandpa Lin, as long as you can convince Huo Qing, the others are nothing to fear,” Leng Ruoxue reminded kindly.

“Alright, I’ll try!” Lin Liang really had no other way.

"Oh, right. Grandpa Lin, did the Fu family and Vice Principal Chen do anything in the past month?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

Chapter 136: Uninvited Guests (3)

"Chen Jian has been much more well-behaved recently. As for the Fu family, I heard they were robbed. Moreover, Fu Mingyuan has been looking for the whereabouts of Fu Mingzhu and the others," Lin Liang said after some thought.

"No one looked for trouble with Vice Principal Chen?" Leng Ruoxue found it unbelievable. ?It seems he has a powerful background!

"A little at first, but they were all small families and didn't have much power. They became well-behaved after making a fuss once or twice," Lin Liang explained, knowing what Leng Ruoxue wanted to ask.

"Oh.

"Grandpa Lin, it's getting late. We're going to get going." Leng Ruoxue and Freak stood up and prepared to leave.

"Alright."

After leaving the principal's office, Leng Ruoxue and Freak walked along a quiet path toward the entrance of the academy.

"I want to talk to you," Xu Na'er said softly as she suddenly appeared in front of them.

"There's nothing much to talk about between us." Leng Ruoxue refused without hesitation, not even bothering to look at the pretentious Xu Na'er.

"I'm begging you. I really have something very important to discuss with you." Xu Na'er was so anxious that she was about to cry. Tears flashed in her eyes, and her pitiful appearance was really pitiful.

Unfortunately, the two people in front of her were both hard-hearted.

"Get lost," Freak roared in displeasure. ?What does this woman want? Why is she so annoying like a fly?!

"Senior Brother Ye, I really want to have a good talk with Ruoxue. I mean no harm," Xu Na'er said aggrievedly as two streams of tears rolled down her cheeks.

"What do you want to talk about with me?" Leng Ruoxue said impatiently, not wanting to see her continue acting. She actually wanted to know why Xu Na'er suddenly showed weakness, but she caught the viciousness and jealousy that flashed by in Xu Na'er's eyes.

"Ruoxue, I know that I did many things wrong in the past. Please forgive me and don't be angry with me anymore," Xu Na'er pleaded with a sincere expression on her face.

"What else? Continue," Leng Ruoxue urged.

"I won't snatch Big Brother Yu away from you anymore. Really, I promise that he will only belong to you from now on. I won't appear again. Wuuu wuuu..." Xu Na'er said while sobbing.

"Na'er, I won't allow you to say that." Suddenly, a furious roar sounded in their ears.

“Leng Ruoxue, I will never marry you. Give up on this idea!” The seventh prince appeared by Xu Na’er’s side like a white knight. He hugged Xu Na’er and glared at Leng Ruoxue fiercely.

“Seventh Prince, did you take the wrong medicine? Did I say I want to marry you?” Leng Ruoxue frowned, a little annoyed. What are these two good-for-nothings doing? She didn’t have time to watch them put on this star-crossed lovebirds act in front of her.

“Seventh Prince, Xue’er is my fiancée. She has had nothing to do with you since a very long time ago. Stop flattering yourself,” Freak said with displeasure, his eyes shooting out a sharp glare.

“Do you think you can still marry her now?” The seventh prince looked at Ye Chen mockingly.

“What do you mean?” Leng Ruoxue asked coldly.

“Hmph! Miss Leng is now very popular, and ordinary people can’t marry you,” the seventh prince said a little unpleasantly. His words seemed to carry a tinge of jealousy, but even he didn’t realize it.

“Big Brother Yu, don’t talk about it anymore. I won’t make things difficult for you,” Xu Na’er said very understandingly. However, she hated Li Yu for coming out at this time to disrupt her plan. She secretly glanced at Ye Chen.

“Na’er, I said before that I won’t marry anyone but you. You have to believe me,” Li Yu promised with a solemn expression on his face.

“Big Brother Yu, don’t be like this. Na’er isn’t blessed. You just have to treat Ruoxue well in the future,” Xu Na’er pleaded, but she kept shouting in her heart, Agree! Agree now! As long as she could get rid of the seventh prince, she could shift her target to Ye Chen. She only wanted to marry this heavenly man now.

“Na’er, I only want you. I don’t want anyone else but you,” Li Yu vowed solemnly.

“Take your time acting. We’re leaving.” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t stand watching any longer. She directly summoned Quill, jumped onto his back with Freak, and flew away.

The two of them stared blankly at the black eagle that suddenly appeared and didn’t come to their senses for a long time. By the time they reacted, Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen were long gone.

“Big Brother Yu, you’d better listen to your father. Let’s not be together anymore.” Xu Na’er only felt that she had nowhere to vent her anger, so her tone was especially cold. After speaking, she left without looking back.

“Na’er...” Li Yu watched Xu Na’er leave and couldn’t help thinking of Leng Ruoxue, who was as dazzling as a goddess. He felt mixed emotions and was even more lost.

After returning to the general’s mansion, Leng Ruoxue and Freak immediately went to the study.

“Grandpa, what do you think about this?” Leng Ruoxue asked Leng Qingtian after telling him what happened just now.

“Hehe, Xue’er, this was expected. It’s not surprising.” Leng Qingtian was very calm. Seems like the imperial family is eyeing Xue’er again. Hmph! Do they really think that Xue’er is still the Xue’er of the past? Seventh Prince Li Yu is no longer worthy of my precious granddaughter.

“Grandpa...” Ye Chen looked at Leng Qingtian aggrievedly, as though he wanted Leng Qingtian to uphold justice for him.

“Ye Chen, don’t worry. Grandpa will only acknowledge you as my grandson-in-law,” Leng Qingtian promised.

“Grandpa, if I’m not mistaken, the emperor will mention this to you tomorrow,” Leng Ruoxue guessed.

“Xue’er, even if the emperor doesn’t mention it, others will. Don’t worry. Grandpa knows how to deal with it.”

“Then I’ll leave this matter to Grandpa. I won’t care about it,” Leng Ruoxue said mischievously.

“Then what benefits will Grandpa get?” Leng Qingtian asked cunningly. He happened to have a request for Xue’er.

“What benefits does Grandpa want?” Leng Ruoxue asked doubtfully. She knew something was bothering her grandfather. Is he finally willing to tell me?

Chapter 137: Uninvited Guests (4)

“Xue’er, Grandpa just wants you to help me think of a solution.” Leng Qingtian explained the matter and looked at Leng Ruoxue expectantly.

“Grandpa, don’t look at me like that. I’m going back to my room first. I’ll tell you immediately when I think of something.” Leng Ruoxue turned and left. Freak naturally followed closely behind.

...

The next night, Leng Ruoxue, her brother, and Freak sat in a pavilion in the garden, enjoying a hotpot while chatting.

“Big Brother, Grandpa and the others should be there already, right?” Leng Ruoxue asked casually. She had never been to the imperial palace of the Eastern Lagoon Empire, nor did she want to go.

“Yes, they should be there soon. Xue’er, I’m sure many people will be very disappointed that you didn’t go today,” Leng Ruohan teased. He had also heard about what happened yesterday.

“Big Brother, I just want to be happy. How can I have the time to care about irrelevant people!” Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly.

“Xue’er, I’ve cooked this for you. Eat it.” Freak kept feeding Xue’er.

“Miss, someone is looking for Young Master Ye.” The steward walked over to report.

“Who is it?” Freak said with some displeasure. Who would look for me?

“They are Young Master Ye’s parents,” the steward said anxiously. The visitor claimed to be Young Master Ye’s parents, so he had no choice but to disturb them.

“Parents? My mother died when she gave birth to me. How can I have a mother?” Ye Chen’s eyes were like ice, and his expression suddenly became very vicious.

“Steward, ask them to wait in the living room,” Leng Ruoxue ordered.

“Yes, Miss.” The steward was frightened by Ye Chen’s ferocity, and he immediately dashed away after hearing Leng Ruoxue’s instructions.

“Freak, what happened?” Leng Ruoxue asked in puzzlement. Even though he had been with them so long, Freak had never mentioned anything about his family, and she had never asked about it. In fact, she wouldn’t have asked if not for the guests who suddenly came to visit. Every family had its difficulties, so she respected his privacy.

“Xue’er, accompany me to take a look first. Send them away, and I’ll tell you later,” Freak said with a cold face.

“Okay.”

Leng Ruoxue and Freak came to the living room together. When they entered the door, they saw a middle-aged couple sitting in chairs.

“Where’s your young lady? Doesn’t she know we’re here? Why is she so rude?” A good-looking middle-aged woman was being picky with displeasure.

The steward standing beside her didn’t even frown and directly ignored her words.

“Be quiet,” the middle-aged man sitting beside her scolded.

“Husband, it’s clear that they’re neglecting us. Is this how the general’s mansion treats guests?” the middle-aged woman retorted, not taking the man’s words seriously.

“Are you looking for me?” Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen walked into the living room casually.

When the two people sitting in the chairs saw Leng Ruoxue, they were clearly stunned for a while before coming back to their senses.

While they were lost in thought, Leng Ruoxue carefully examined the two. The man was handsome, and Freak did look a little like him. But his temperament was much worse, and his figure was a little chubby.

As for the woman, her skin was slightly yellowish. She was good-looking, but she looked like a mean and bitter person.

“You are Leng Ruoxue?” the middle-aged beauty said with a displeased face.

Leng Ruoxue sat down on the main seat and said flatly, “Yes.”

“Then do you know who we are? How dare you treat us so lightly!” the middle-aged woman rebuked, her nose almost flying into the sky.

“I heard you are my fiancé’s parents?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a faint smile.

“It’s good that you know.”

"But so what?" Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly.

"Leng Ruoxue, what do you mean?" The middle-aged woman stood up from her chair angrily and glared at Leng Ruoxue.

"Exactly what I said." Leng Ruoxue's eyes turned cold. She was getting impatient.

"Husband, look at Leng Ruoxue. What's with her attitude! We are her elders, yet she treats us like this. Husband, our Ye family can't have someone like this as a daughter-in-law!" The middle-aged woman wailed at the man beside her.

"Nonsense. Do you think it's up to us? His Majesty bestowed the marriage. We can't refuse even if she's not good." The middle-aged man sounded a little helpless, but the corner of his eyes couldn't help sneaking a glance at his son. The guilt in his heart disappeared in a flash. For the sake of the family, he could only let his son down. Alas, he have no choice!

Leng Ruoxue watched the two act with a faint smile, but she kept sneering in her heart. She didn't know why these two people suddenly came today, but she knew that nothing good would come of it.

"Then I'll go and beg His Majesty to cancel the engagement. Our Ye family can't afford to have such a daughter-in-law." The middle-aged woman thought for a while and seemingly suddenly made up her mind. In fact, this was the main reason why they came today.

"You want to break off the engagement?" Leng Ruoxue couldn't help interrupting.

"Yes, the Ye family can't afford to have a daughter-in-law who doesn't respect her elders like you. We have to cancel the engagement," the middle-aged woman said loudly. No matter what, the engagement had to be broken today, or she wouldn't be able to explain it to her elder sister.

"What if I refuse?" Leng Ruoxue's cold, beautiful eyes looked at the couple indifferently, and her tone was emotionless.

"I refuse as well," Ye Chen said with undisguised disgust on his face. What do these two think I am? They want to manipulate me? Hmph!

"You don't have the right to refuse. Marriage matters must be left to your parents to decide," the middle-aged woman roared, her eyes full of contempt.

"Is that so?" Ye Chen said indifferently, but his eyes were on his father.

"Chen'er, listen to us on this matter. Leng Ruoxue really isn't suitable for you. I'll find you a better one in the future," the middle-aged man coaxed, but he said these words without much confidence. Alas! I hope Chen'er listens to me. I didn't expect Leng Ruoxue to be a beauty who can topple nations.

Chapter 138: We Want to Break Off the Engagement (1)

"Find a better one? Can you find someone better than Xue'er on the Ling Feng Continent?" Ye Chen laughed in anger.

"Erm... Erm..." The middle-aged man stammered.

“So what if she’s good? She’s so disrespectful to her elders. If you really marry her, won’t we need to serve her as though she’s our ancestor?” The middle-aged woman was obviously much more glib-tongued.

“So, you’re saying that you want to cancel the engagement?” Leng Ruoxue was annoyed. Why do these people always want to cause trouble for me?

“Yes, the engagement must be broken,” the middle-aged woman said determinedly.

“And then? Is the emperor going to arrange another marriage again?” Leng Ruoxue said casually. In fact, she had already sorted out the cause and effect after they revealed their intentions.

“H-how should I know?” the middle-aged woman quickly denied, but her expression was a little flustered.

“What do you think, Freak?” Leng Ruoxue turned to ask Freak, who was sitting beside her.

“Arranging and dissolving engagements as you please. What do you take us for?” Freak said in an unfriendly tone. In fact, he knew very well that he and Xue’er weren’t people who liked to be controlled. Those people were really targeting the wrong people.

“Did you hear that? His words are exactly what I want to say.” Leng Ruoxue’s cold gaze swept over them, and the two of them immediately felt a chill run down their spines.

“Steward, see the guests out!” Leng Ruoxue ordered.

“Yes, Miss.”

“Please.” The steward’s tone was very unfriendly. What kind of parents were they? He had never seen such people in his long life.

Seeing that they didn’t achieve their goal, the two were embarrassed. Moreover, they were being asked to leave, so they instantly felt ashamed and were about to walk away.

“Wait!” Ye Chen suddenly called out to them.

“Chen’er.” The middle-aged man looked at his son expectantly.

“Don’t call me Chen’er. I don’t have a father like you. From today onward, I, Ye Chen, announce that I am leaving the family. I won’t be a member of the Ye family anymore.” Ye Chen looked at the middle-aged man coldly.

“Chen’er, do you know what you’re saying?” the middle-aged man said furiously, his face alternating between blue and white, clearly extremely angry.

“Husband, don’t stop him. If he wants to leave, let him leave. Let’s see how he can gain a foothold on the Ling Feng Continent without the protection of our Ye family.” The middle-aged woman pretended to be angry, but she was overjoyed from the bottom of her heart. This thorn in her heart had finally gotten rid of himself. This was great. No one in the Ye family would snatch anything from her son in the future.

“I’ve thought about it very clearly, and I know what I’m saying. Leave and don’t come back. I have nothing to do with all of you from now on,” Ye Chen said coldly.

"Please leave!" the steward said disdainfully.

"Xue'er, let me hug you," Freak said pitifully when the two of them were alone in the living room.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue was a little speechless as she allowed Freak to hug her, but she couldn't help feeling puzzled. For some reason, I always feel like I'm being taken advantage of...

"Xue'er, actually, I don't have much feeling for that so-called father. If he didn't marry that woman to establish his position, my mother wouldn't have died, and I wouldn't have been poisoned since I was a child. You wouldn't have seen me if I hadn't been saved." Freak acted coquettishly again as he spoke.

"So pitiful." Leng Ruoxue caressed his head as though she was petting him. To be honest, she really couldn't imagine that he was sad given his tone! She wondered if she was being too unsympathetic.

"Xue'er, you have to treat me better in the future. I don't have any other family apart from you," Freak said pitifully. His eyes welled up with tears, as though the water might spill out at any moment as long as Xue'er didn't satisfy his request.

"Yes, yes. I will be good to you," Leng Ruoxue coaxed helplessly. Isn't Freak going to tell me about his past? What's going on now?

"Oh, Freak, didn't you say that you wanted to tell me about your past? Continue!" Leng Ruoxue urged. She was being wheedled on! She felt that this was dangerous because she was afraid that she would have no choice but to sign countless unfair treaties.

"I'm done! What else can I say?" He looked at her with a face full of confusion.

"That's it?" Leng Ruoxue was dumbfounded.

"Yes, and after I was saved, I continued to pretend to be sick. It wasn't easy for me to grow up safely!" Freak's shiny black eyes looked at her with a few big words written in them: I'm pitiful. Come and pity me! He didn't care at all and pretended to be pitiful in front of the person he loved.

"Who saved you then?" she asked curiously.

"I can't tell you now. You will know in the future." He kept her in suspense.

Seeing how smug Freak was, Leng Ruoxue really wanted to bite him. But she was relieved to see that what happened just now didn't affect him.

"Freak, let's continue eating!" She changed the topic.

"Yeah, I'm not full yet!" Freak said with some dissatisfaction. He really didn't want to be disturbed by irrelevant people.

When Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen returned to the garden pavilion, Leng Ruohan was almost done eating.

"Xue'er, Ye Chen, is everything okay?" Leng Ruohan asked as they ate.

"It's okay. I've left the Ye family," Ye Chen said calmly. He casually picked up a piece of meat and cooked it in the hotpot.

“What? How did this happen? What happened?” Leng Ruohan was surprised. Leaving your family was not a small matter. Moreover, leaving your family would mean that the family had given up on you, and you wouldn’t be protected by the family in the future.

“They were here to cancel the engagement,” Leng Ruoxue explained.

“...”

“Xu Na’er came to look for you yesterday, and today, the Ye family came here to break off the engagement. This is really...” Leng Ruohan was speechless. When did the people of our Leng family become so easy to manipulate?

Chapter 139: We Want To Break Off The Engagement (2)

“Xue’er, did they say they want to break off the engagement directly?” Leng Ruohan was very curious. Their Leng family shouldn’t be pushovers, right?

“No, they said that I was disrespecting my elders.” Leng Ruoxue was speechless. What an excuse...

“Seems like this should be the emperor’s idea. Xue’er, some people are really unscrupulous in order to marry you!” Leng Ruohan couldn’t help teasing. But he could also see that Xue’er and Ye Chen didn’t seem to be affected.

“Yes. They must pay the price for scheming against me,” Leng Ruoxue said unhappily.

“Hehe, Xue’er, how do you plan to deal with them?” Leng Ruohan was a little curious. Those people really didn’t have eyes!

“I’ll discuss it with Grandpa when he comes back.”

...

After dinner, Leng Ruoxue’s group of three waited until late at night, but Leng Qingtian and the others still weren’t back.

“Big Brother, why aren’t they back yet? Could something have happened?” Leng Ruoxue was a little worried and regretted not attending the banquet with her grandfather and the others.

“Don’t worry. Nothing will happen. Grandpa is now a Spiritual Supremacy, and Thunder Night is a divine beast. There really aren’t many people who dare to touch Grandpa in the Eastern Lagoon Empire now,” Leng Ruohan comforted.

“Yes,” Leng Ruoxue agreed.

“Big Brother, let’s go back to our rooms to rest first!” Leng Ruoxue continued. How long should they wait?

“Then let’s go back to our rooms and sleep!” Leng Ruohan said. He was also a little sleepy.

“Okay.”

...

The next day, after waking up, Leng Ruoxue washed up and planned to go to the study to find her grandfather.

"Miss." Leng Ruoxue met Feng Da as soon as she entered the garden.

"Feng Da, why did you come back so late last night?" Leng Ruoxue asked in puzzlement.

"The banquet ended very early. But later, the emperor and the general spoke alone for a long time," Feng Da complained.

"Miss, the general seems to be in a very bad mood!" Feng Da reminded softly after thinking about it.

"Oh." She had expected it long ago.

"Grandpa." Leng Ruoxue knocked on the door of the study.

"Xue'er, come in!"

"Xue'er, was Ye Chen alright last night?" Leng Qingtian asked with concern when he saw his granddaughter walk in. The steward had already told him.

"He's fine. But Grandpa, I heard you're not in a good mood!" Leng Ruoxue probed.

"Xue'er, the emperor really wants you to marry the seventh prince. He had a long chat with Grandpa yesterday." Leng Qingtian was speechless. The emperor even brought up the late emperor in order to convince him.

"It's his business what he wants. I won't let him tell me what to do." Leng Ruoxue was a little angry. Am I too weak? That damn stinky emperor really needs to be taught a lesson.

"Grandpa, don't meddle in this matter. Just leave it to me."

"Uh, Xue'er, what do you intend to do?" Leng Qingtian was really curious.

"Grandpa, it's better if you don't know!" Leng Ruoxue said with evil intentions.

After leaving Leng Qingtian's study, Leng Ruoxue went to find Freak. Hmmm, it's still better to cooperate with Freak to do something bad.

"Xue'er, where are we going?" Freak held Xue'er's slender waist with one hand and took advantage of her openly on Quill's back.

"The Heavenly Phoenix Academy!"

"Why are we going there? Didn't we agree not to go there anymore?" Freak was slightly displeased. Huo Qing was there, so he didn't want to go there!

"Go and settle the score with the seventh prince. I want to beat him up ruthlessly," Leng Ruoxue said wickedly. It would be difficult for her to dispel her anger if she didn't beat him up.

"Yes, yes, beat him up! Beat him up hard!" He raised both hands in approval of this idea, but...

"Xue'er, is beating him up enough?" Freak said after some thought.

“What else?” Leng Ruoxue looked at him with clear eyes.

“Castrate him!” he proposed. “Hmph, that way, there’s no way he can marry Xue’er and become the emperor.”

A few drops of cold sweat dripped down Leng Ruoxue’s forehead. “Why does Freak always like doing something so hardcore?”

“What I mean is, let him be the same as the Huo family patriarch. He can see it but not eat it,” Freak explained. This was the worst punishment for men.

“Okay then!” Leng Ruoxue approved.

“Quill, land at the back door!” Leng Ruoxue ordered. There were few people at the backdoor, so no one would notice.

“Yes, Master.” Quill went to the back door of the Heavenly Phoenix Academy, found an open space, and descended.

“Rise, cast an invisibility spell on us!” Leng Ruoxue summoned Rise.

“Yes, Master. Count me in on doing bad things,” Rise volunteered, looking eager.

“Master, I want to go too,” Dazzle said excitedly through voice transmission from the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

“Dazzle, you can’t. Your claws are too obvious, and someone will discover you,” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. She was very afraid that Dazzle would use his claws to scratch someone like Darling had. She only wanted to trip the emperor up in the dark now and didn’t want to face him directly.

“Master, I’m not that stupid fox,” Dazzle said aggrievedly while screaming in his head that he wanted to do something bad!

“Fine!” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t stand his pitiful appearance and had to let Dazzle out as well.

After the two humans and two beasts became indivisible, they went straight to the unlucky seventh prince.

When they found Li Yu in the main hall, no one else was there. Ye Chen rushed up to him and began beating him up as though Li Yu had killed his father. The seventh prince was beaten unconscious before he could even realize what was going on.

“So weak,” Freak complained, not yet satisfied. He took out a pill and stuffed it into the seventh prince’s mouth, then clapped his hands and returned to Xue’er.

“Xue’er, let’s go!” he said ingratiatingly. He felt much better.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded, and the two walked toward the door.

“Xue’er, where are we going?” This wasn’t the way back to the Leng residence!

“The imperial palace.” She had yet to visit the imperial palace of the Eastern Lagoon Empire!

“Alright, let’s go and give that damn emperor some inhumane medicine,” Freak said fiercely. These matters were caused by that damn emperor. If he didn’t teach him a lesson, he would write his name backward.

Chapter 140: We Want To Break Off The Engagement (3)

Still that hardcore!? Leng Ruoxue complained.

“Xue’er, where does the emperor live?” Freak asked after they landed in the imperial garden. He wasn’t familiar with the imperial palace!

“I’m going to meet the empress first.”

“Meet the empress?”

“Yes, doesn’t the emperor want the seventh prince to be the next emperor? I won’t let him get his way.” Leng Ruoxue knew that the empress and the crown prince had to hate what the damn emperor was doing now. As the saying went, the enemy of the enemy was a friend, so cooperating with the empress was the best choice.

Relying on the map she got from her grandfather, Leng Ruoxue quickly found the Phoenix Algae Palace where the empress lived.

“Freak, wait for me here. I’ll go by myself.” Leng Ruoxue motioned for Rise to dispel his invisibility spell and walked into the Phoenix Algae Palace openly.

The empress kept a very low profile. Apart from the guards outside the palace, there wasn’t a single maidservant or guard in the entire palace.

“Who are you?” The empress, who was sitting and reading a book, forced herself to calm down and look at the girl who suddenly appeared in her palace. But she was startled in her heart.

“I am Leng Ruoxue,” Leng Ruoxue said her name directly. It was obvious that this empress was smart, or she wouldn’t be so calm.

“You are Leng Ruoxue? You are indeed a rare beauty,” the empress said appreciatively. Her eyes kept looking up and down at the absolutely beautiful girl in front of her. With her alluring beauty, cold and noble temperament, and extraordinary strength, the seventh prince simply wasn’t worthy of such a stunning woman. Seems that the emperor’s wishful thinking won’t be possible.

“Empress, you are also a rare beauty,” Leng Ruoxue said honestly. The woman in front of her was indeed very beautiful, and it was a kind of intellectual beauty. As for her strength, this beautiful woman was unexpectedly a Spiritual Sovereign. This empress was really like a fresh flower stuck in cow manure!

“May I ask why Miss Leng is looking for me?” the empress asked frankly with a smile.

“Why are you asking the obvious? I’m sure you know why I’m here.” Leng Ruoxue threw the question back.

“Miss Leng, did you come because of the marriage with the seventh prince?” the empress asked with certainty.

“Yes.”

“Miss Leng, this matter was decided by the emperor. It’s useless to look for me,” the empress said helplessly. She was also thinking of ways to stop this matter, but she didn’t have any good ideas. In fact, she was the most unwilling person to see the seventh prince marry the Leng family.

“You are mistaken, Empress. I came for this matter, but not entirely. I’m mainly here to find you to cooperate against our common enemy,” Leng Ruoxue said candidly. Since they were going to cooperate, they needed to be sincere.

“How do you want to cooperate with me, Miss Leng?” the empress asked directly. Smart people wouldn’t lie, and they indeed had a common enemy.

“I wonder how far you’re willing to go, Empress?” Leng Ruoxue probed.

“I don’t understand what you mean.”

“I’m sure you can see that the emperor plans to abolish the crown prince and establish the seventh prince,” Leng Ruoxue said bluntly.

“Yes.” She had long seen through it. The emperor had been brewing such thoughts for quite some time. But the seventh prince’s mother’s family didn’t have much power, so the emperor had never dared to act rashly.

“Since you know about it, why didn’t you take precautions earlier?” Leng Ruoxue really couldn’t understand this woman’s thoughts.

“He’s my husband after all...” the empress said helplessly.

“But he doesn’t treat you as his wife. He’s a man who spoils his concubines and neglects his wife, yet you still indulge him. Do you have to wait until he makes the first move before you wake up?” Leng Ruoxue hated women who valued their husbands above all else. She was obviously a very smart woman, but she couldn’t figure out emotional issues.

“You are right. I really have indulged him too much. In fact, when we first got married, we were happy, so I’ve always...” The empress choked with emotion.

“Men are fickle-minded. I’m afraid he doesn’t remember,” Leng Ruoxue said mockingly. She had already learned about the damn emperor’s character.

“What do you want me to do?” the empress asked after calming herself down. It was time for her to plan for her son.

“Empress, you can express your disapproval of this matter,” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“But...” the empress hesitated. If her objection was useful, she would have objected long ago.

“Empress, although your maiden family isn’t comparable to the Five Great Families, it’s still the number one family in the Eastern Lagoon Empire. As long as you object, the emperor will more or less take note of it.” Leng Ruoxue analyzed.

“I’ll try!” the empress said after some thought.

“Then...” Leng Ruoxue whispered her plan into the empress’s ear.

“T-this won’t do. It’s too risky.” The empress widened her eyes and looked at Leng Ruoxue in disbelief. ?This girl actually wants me to...

“Miss Leng, I think you still don’t know about the old patriarch’s existence yet, right?” the empress asked, her heart racing.

“I know. Every imperial family has a Spiritual Supremacy behind them.” She heard from her grandfather that the old patriarch of the Eastern Lagoon Empire was also a Spiritual Supremacy.

“Then how dare you want me to...”

“Empress, if you don’t even have the courage, then just wait to be eaten!” Leng Ruoxue reminded lightly. She knew that the empress was afraid of the so-called old patriarch, but she didn’t think that the old patriarch would start a killing spree over such a small matter. After all, the struggle for the throne was always bloody, and the old patriarch must have done similar things back then.

“Let me think about it!” the empress said thoughtfully.

“Okay. When you’ve thought it over, send someone to look for me.” Then Leng Ruoxue turned and left the Phoenix Algae Palace.

Not far away from the Phoenix Algae Palace...

“Where did that damn Freak go? Didn’t we agree that he would wait here?” Leng Ruoxue muttered to herself. ?How disobedient. He should be spanked!

“Xue’er, are you thinking about me?” Just as Leng Ruoxue finished thinking this, Freak’s enchanting voice sounded in her ears, and his face was full of excitement

“Master said she wants to spank you for being disobedient,” Dazzle gloated while lying in Leng Ruoxue’s arms.