

Crazy Wife 221

Chapter 221: Breakthrough, Advancement (1)

"Beloved Master, I am a level nine holy beast!" Darling jumped up and shouted excitedly. He ignored the angry mink and embraced Leng Ruoxue.

"Okay, eat this!" Leng Ruoxue caressed Darling's soft fur and handed him a green pill.

"Thank you, Beloved Master. Darling is going to become a divine beast!" Darling hugged Leng Ruoxue excitedly and spun around several times. He even stole a kiss on her beautiful face...

But his sneaky act had utterly infuriated the little silver mink and Baby. These two extremely possessive fellows would definitely make life miserable for Darling in the future.

"Beloved Master, I'm going to advance." Darling reluctantly put down his beloved master and sat back on the large rock. He then ate the green spirit pill and waited quietly.

Leng Ruoxue's beautiful eyes were indifferent as she glanced at the peeping eyes in the sea. ?Hmph! They better not act rashly, or I won't mind getting rid of them.

It took relatively longer for Darling to advance from level nine holy beast to divine beast because he advanced two ranks in a row.

After they waited for about six hours, the spiritual energy between heaven and earth became increasingly dense and flowed steadily toward Darling's body...

Sitting cross-legged, Darling instinctively absorbed the rich heaven and earth spiritual energy until he felt that the spiritual energy within his body had reached saturation and could no longer absorb any more. He then poured all his energy into attacking the barrier to becoming a divine beast...

After a while, heaven and earth laws descended on this uninhabited sea once again.

The stream of heaven and earth laws that descended this time was obviously much larger and took longer than the previous time...

After the heaven and earth laws slowly disappeared, Darling finally completed his advancement.

"Beloved Master!" After advancing, Darling immediately transformed and walked toward Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue looked at the stunningly beautiful man with boundless charm in front of her. She couldn't help admiring him in her heart. ?He is really too pleasing to the eye.

Darling had transformed into a drop-dead gorgeous man. He was tall, had beautiful purple hair resembling purple orchids, and had dazzling silver eyes similar to stars shining with enchanting light. His temperament was noble and extraordinary, and every move he made was full of the demeanor of a king...

"Beloved Master, do you like Darling's current form?" Darling asked shyly and a little nervously, his starry silver eyes full of anticipation.

"Like," Leng Ruoxue said unabashedly. Who wouldn't like such an attractive and beautiful man? Just looking at him made her feel pleased.

"Hehe, Darling knew that my beloved master would definitely like it." A little smug, Darling stretched out his long arms and hugged Leng Ruoxue tightly.

"Aaahhhh!" A cry of pain immediately rang out. Darling held his beautiful face and angrily looked at the little silver mink. ?Damn it. He kicked me just now, and now he's actually scratching my face with his claws. Boohoo... I'm now disfigured!

After scratching Darling, the little silver mink proudly showed his sharp little claws and looked provocatively at the fox in human form. ?Hmph! How dare you hug my woman after becoming a human. You're really courting death!

Leng Ruoxue's face darkened. She looked speechlessly at the little silver mink and then at Darling, who was covering his face. She asked with concern, "Darling, uh, how is it?"

"Beloved Master, your Darling's face is disfigured!" Darling said aggrievedly, tears rolling in his silver eyes but not falling.

"No, it won't. Let me see." Leng Ruoxue comforted him and removed Darling's hand covering his face. *?Uh, really ruthless. ?*There were five deep claw marks on Darling's face, and blood was flowing out from the wounds non-stop.

"Take this." Leng Ruoxue took out a pill and stuffed it into Darling's mouth. The injuries on his face immediately healed, but the five claw marks were still on his originally stunning face.

"And this." Leng Ruoxue took out a bottle of crystal honey and handed it to Darling.

"Beloved Master, boohoo..."

"Don't cry! Your face will recover within three days at most," Leng Ruoxue hurriedly consoled. At the same time, she glared fiercely at the little silver mink. ?How can you be so ruthless!

"Xue'er!" The little silver mink looked at Leng Ruoxue aggrievedly. ?Boohoo... I'm just jealous that stinky fox actually dared to hug you!

"Let's go back!" Leng Ruoxue said to Darling, completely ignoring the little mink.

"Okay." Darling nodded obediently and looked at the little silver mink with some pride. ?Hmph! How dare you scratch me in front of Master. You only have yourself to blame for Master not caring about you.

Leng Ruoxue brought Darling and the two little beasts back to the wooden house.

"Eh? Xue'er, who is he?" Leng Qingtian, sitting in the living room, couldn't help asking curiously when he saw Xue'er bringing another man back.

"Master's grandfather, I'm Darling!" Darling interrupted Leng Ruoxue before she could answer.

"Uh! You're Darling? You've become a divine beast!" Leng Qingtian said in pleasant surprise. Darling also advanced to divine beast. This was great. Their strength increased again.

"Yes, Master's grandfather." Darling was excited too.

"But what happened to your face?" Leng Qingtian looked at Darling with pity. How could a stunningly beautiful man be disfigured?

"My face..."

"Grandpa, I plan to enter seclusion for a few days," Leng Ruoxue suddenly interrupted them. When Darling advanced just now, she had gained a lot of benefits and was already showing signs of breaking through. She wanted to strike while the iron was hot to see if she could break through.

"You're going into seclusion at this time? What if someone from the Phoenix clan looks for you?" Leng Qingtian asked. He didn't believe that the Phoenix clan really just invited them as guests.

"I shouldn't be in seclusion for too long. If the Phoenix King wants to see me, ask him to wait!" Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. She hadn't had a breakthrough in a long time. This was a rare opportunity that she didn't want to miss.

"Okay, then go into seclusion at ease!" Leng Qingtian hurriedly urged. He knew that his granddaughter must have gained something from the advancement of Darling. Otherwise, she wouldn't have chosen this time to enter seclusion. Xue'er's advancement was a huge deal! It couldn't be delayed.

Chapter 222: Breakthrough, Advancement (2)

Leng Ruoxue nodded. She returned to her room and directly entered the Heaven and Earth Bracelet. Of course, she also brought Darling, Baby, and the little silver mink along with her.

"Qing Jue, I'll leave them to you. Don't let them fight," Leng Ruoxue said to Qing Jue while also warning the three beasts.

"Big Sister, don't worry. They won't be able to fight with me around," Qing Jue promised as he looked at the three seemingly well-behaved beasts.

"Okay. Big Sister is going into seclusion. Don't let anyone disturb me for the next few days," Leng Ruoxue ordered and walked straight toward the purple bamboo house.

"Did you hear what Big Sister said? Be good, or I'll have to lock you up," Qing Jue warned. Then he ignored them and ran along to take care of his herbs.

"Xue'er!" The little silver mink lay on the ground, crying out softly in dejection. More tears welled up in his eyes. ?Boohoo... Xue'er is really angry with me.?He felt so wronged!?Boohoo... I hate my small body.?In fact, he also wanted to pull Xue'er into his arms, but he couldn't do it now.?Boohoo...

In the purple bamboo house, Leng Ruoxue was completely unaware of the little mink's conflicted thoughts. Right now, she was fully focused on breaking through.

The Heaven Defying Art had a total of nine levels. She had broken through the first level with the help of her master, and she had only cultivated to the second level now.

But she really hadn't expected the second level of the Heaven Defying Art to be so difficult. The amount of spiritual power required to break through was unimaginable.

After accumulating for a period of time, the spiritual power in her body was almost saturated. With Darling's advancement just now, she had vaguely touched the edge of a breakthrough. Therefore, she believed that she should be able to break through in a few days.

To be honest, she had been waiting for this day for a long time. Otherwise, she would have been able to advance to Spiritual Supremacy a long time ago with the amount of spiritual power in her body. But her current cultivation was mainly based on the Heaven Defying Art. If she couldn't break through in the Heaven Defying Art, she wouldn't be able to advance to Spiritual Supremacy. Alas! This was probably the overbearing nature of high-level cultivation techniques!

Leng Ruoxue sat cross-legged and gathered all the spiritual power in her body to her dantian. She quietly circulated the Heaven Defying Art in her heart. Now, she could only wait...

After an unknown period of time, the spiritual power in Leng Ruoxue's body suddenly became restless. Immediately after, it started flowing crazily along the meridians in her body. Moreover, the spiritual power was very disorderly and was running around everywhere...

At this moment, Leng Ruoxue had an abnormally painful expression on her face. Her forehead was covered with cold sweat, and her face was slightly pale...

Slowly, as the spiritual power in her body became more and more orderly, her expression gradually returned to calmness...

After a long time, the spiritual power that seemed to be guided by someone began to concentrate in one direction. The originally massive amount of spiritual power gathered and became smaller and smaller until it condensed into a liquid sphere the size of a baby's fist. The liquid sphere of spiritual power slowly circulated along the meridians of her body...

At first, the circulation was very slow. Gradually, it became faster and faster. After several cycles, the liquid sphere of spiritual power crashed violently against the barrier that prevented her breakthrough again and again...

After countless collisions, the barrier that had become as thin as a cicada's wing shattered with a bang! Leng Ruoxue's Heaven Defying Art finally broke through the second level and entered the third level.

After her breakthrough, Leng Ruoxue was in no hurry to get up. Instead, she continued to sit on the spot and absorb the rich spiritual power in the space.

After entering the third level of the Heaven Defying Art, the massive amount of spiritual power stored in her body instantly emptied. Her body became like a bottomless pit again and began to absorb the spiritual power of the outside world frantically...

After her spiritual power was almost restored twice over from before, Leng Ruoxue stopped absorbing and left the purple bamboo house.

"Xue'er!" The little silver mink, who had been guarding outside the purple bamboo house, rushed into Leng Ruoxue's arms when he saw her.

Uh! Why was he so passionate? I only went into seclusion for a few days, right?? Leng Ruoxue looked at the little mink lying in her arms and unwilling to get up. Did this little guy make a mistake again?

"What's the matter?" Leng Ruoxue raised the little mink with both hands and looked into his eyes.

"Xue'er, I missed you so much. Don't be mad at me anymore, okay?" the little silver mink begged as tears welled up in his eyes...

"Okay, but you can't be so barbaric anymore." Leng Ruoxue's heart softened as she looked at the little mink's pitiful appearance and reminded him.

"Yes, yes." The little silver mink nodded repeatedly, but he was thinking that he would never teach Xue'er spirit beasts a lesson in front of her again in his heart.

"That's more like it." Leng Ruoxue caressed the little mink's soft fur.

"Big Sister, quickly unlock my seal!" Qing Jue said impatiently as he stood in front of Leng Ruoxue. Every time she broke through, she would unlock another level of the seal of the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, and he could recover another ability.

"Alright." Leng Ruoxue began unlocking the Heaven and Earth Bracelet's seal.

"Qing Jue, what ability did you obtain this time?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

"Big Sister, Qing Jue won't tell you first. You'll know later." Qing Jue smiled mysteriously and kept her guessing.

"You've become a bad apple, little fellow." Leng Ruoxue pretended to be displeased. Seeing Qing Jue being so smug, she couldn't help stretching out her fingers to pinch his soft little face gently. ?Wow, it feels really good!

"Big Sister." Qing Jue looked at Leng Ruoxue aggrievedly.

"Alright, Big Sister will go out first. I won't fool around with you anymore." Leng Ruoxue smiled gently. She was really afraid that her grandfather and the others would get anxious if she didn't go out now. Moreover, she still had to find a place to advance to Spiritual Supremacy!

After speaking, Leng Ruoxue left the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and went directly to the living room, where everyone happened to be.

"Xue'er, you're finally out." Leng Qingtian finally felt relieved when he saw her.

"Grandpa, what's wrong? Did something happen?" Leng Ruoxue asked with a puzzled expression. She had only been in seclusion for a few days, right? Why did her grandfather look so anxious?

Chapter 223: Breakthrough, Advancement (3)

"Little Girl, you've been in seclusion for five days. How was it? Did you break through?" Old Man asked with concern.

"Yes, I can advance now." Leng Ruoxue nodded.

"That's good."

After hearing this, Leng Qingtian and the others were relieved.

"What happened to you?" Leng Ruoxue looked at their troubled expressions and became a little nervous.?Did something really happen? Was it Feng Da?

"Don't be nervous. It's nothing. It's just that Feng Ling'er has been looking for you every day for the past few days, but she didn't tell us why. That's why we're a little worried," Leng Qingtian explained while wiping the cold sweat off his forehead. It seemed that their nervousness scared Xue'er.

Leng Ruoxue sighed in relief and complained, "Grandpa, you guys can't scare me like this."

"Hehe, Little Girl, we were just worried about you," Old Man said somewhat embarrassedly.

"By the way, Little Girl, did anything happen in your space after you broke through?" Old Man whispered curiously into Leng Ruoxue's ear. Alas, he really wanted to go in and take a look. Unfortunately, it wasn't convenient now.

"I'll bring you in to take a look later, and you'll know," Leng Ruoxue said mysteriously but was sweating profusely in her heart. In fact, she was afraid that her grandfather and the others would be anxious, so she directly ran out without observing.

"Okay. I haven't been there for a long time. I was just missing it!" Old Man was excited. The space was really a good place. But what was more magical was that every time Xue'er broke through, the space would change as well. He was really looking forward to it!

Leng Ruoxue shot a look at her grandfather and the others, and the old men tacitly found an excuse to leave the living room. However, they didn't return to their rooms but slipped directly into Xue'er's room.

After a while, Leng Ruoxue also returned and sent the three anxious old men into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

"Wow, Little Girl, the area here has become bigger again," Old Man said with surprise. The spiritual energy was also more intense and was even showing signs of liquefying.?Th-this is really too unbelievable.

"Not only that. After Big Sister broke through, two more fields appeared, and I can plant even more things now." Qing Jue's beautiful little face was full of pride as he constantly thought about what to plant.

"Qing Jue, you are an artifact spirit. Why are you so passionate about farming?!" Leng Ruoxue was a little speechless. She really couldn't understand. Moreover, it seemed like having two more fields actually made Qing Jue happier than unlocking the seal.

"Big Sister, although I am an artifact spirit, planting is also my talent!" Qing Jue said endlessly. He only had three original abilities, and planting was one of them. During the years he was sealed, he had relied on planting to pass the time. Therefore, planting had already become an indispensable joy for him.

"Farming is good. If Qing Jue didn't take care of all the fields, how could we have so much delicious food?" Leng Qingtian praised with a smile, not thinking that Qing Jue was wasting his talents at all.

"Grandpa understands me," Qing Jue echoed.

"In that case, quickly go and plant your fields. Big Sister is going to advance," Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. Alas, these old men would spoil Qing Jue sooner or later.

After leaving the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and then the wooden house, Leng Ruoxue deliberately found a remote place to advance.

"This should do, right?" Leng Ruoxue murmured to herself. This place was very far from the Phoenix clan's territory, and there were mountains all around it, so no one should notice. In fact, she didn't want others to know that she had so many beasts.

Leng Ruoxue released all her beasts from her space. Immediately, thousands of beasts crowded the entire mountain stream...

"I am about to advance. Prepare yourselves," Leng Ruoxue said to the beasts, but her eyes were on the little silver mink. ?Oh, I've yet to contract with this little thing.

"Little thing, we have yet to establish a contract, right?" Leng Ruoxue asked the little mink.

"Xue'er, you advance first. We can't contract now." The little silver mink's eyes darkened. ?I don't want to become Xue'er's contract beast. Boohoo...

"Okay then!" Leng Ruoxue didn't want to make things difficult for the little mink, nor did she ask him why because a voice in her heart kept telling her that this little mink would not hurt her.

Leng Ruoxue randomly found a place to sit cross-legged, and then she mobilized the spiritual power in her body to break through the barrier to becoming a Spiritual Supremacy.

After a while, heaven and earth laws descended on the mountain stream and shrouded Leng Ruoxue...

She absorbed the heaven and earth laws without any qualms. It was a reward bestowed upon the cultivator. After a long while, the heaven and earth laws slowly dissipated, and she completed her advancement and became a Spiritual Supremacy.

Immediately after, heaven and earth laws descended once again.

After their master, Leng Ruoxue, advanced, her beasts also began to advance one after another...

Dazzling lights flashed in the mountain stream for a long time.

Except for a few that were already divine beasts, all the silver wolves advanced. The one who advanced the most advanced three levels. The silver wolf king directly advanced to a level nine holy beast. This was a pleasant surprise for Leng Ruoxue.

"Silver Wings, advance directly to divine beast!" Leng Ruoxue looked at the majestic silver wolf king.

"Yes, Master." Silver Wings began to wait after eating a green spirit pill...

Several hours later, heaven and earth laws finally descended, and Silver Wings officially advanced to divine beast. Leng Ruoxue's divine beasts expanded in numbers again.

Even in human form, Silver Wings still fit his identity as the silver wolf king well.

He had a tall and robust body, cold and handsome facial features, flowing silver hair, chilling and intimidating silver eyes, and the temperament of a king. This was the true king of the wolves!

After her beasts advanced, Leng Ruoxue sent them all back into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet. She then strolled back to the Phoenix clan's territory with the little silver mink in her arms.

"Little Sister Ruoxue, you're finally back." Feng Ling'er was waiting anxiously for Leng Ruoxue at the entrance of the Phoenix Clan's territory.

Chapter 224: The Way to Bring Freak Back to Life (1)

"Big Sister, are you looking for me?" Leng Ruoxue looked at Feng Ling'er doubtfully.

"Little Sister Ruoxue, Royal Father wants to see you," Feng Ling'er said anxiously.

"Oh? What is it?" Leng Ruoxue was surprised. Is Feng Zhan finally going to reveal his purpose?

"I'm not sure either. Royal Father refuses to tell me," Feng Ling'er said helplessly. This was why she was so anxious!

"Then take me to see the Phoenix King, Big Sister!" Leng Ruoxue frowned slightly. Feng Zhan was really mysterious. He didn't even tell his daughter.

"Okay, let's go!" Feng Ling'er pulled Leng Ruoxue toward the Phoenix King's resting palace.

"Royal Father, Little Sister Ruoxue is here," Feng Ling'er whispered outside the palace when they arrived at the entrance.

"Let Miss Leng in!" The Phoenix King's elegant voice came from outside.

"Little Sister Ruoxue, go in by yourself. Big Sister won't accompany you," Feng Ling'er said meaningfully. Her father wanted to see Ruoxue, so she wouldn't be a third wheel.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue pushed open the palace door and walked in directly.

The Phoenix King's resting palace looked like an enormous sycamore tree from the outside, but it was a completely different world inside.

After entering the Phoenix King's resting palace, Leng Ruoxue looked up slightly. The decorations here were very similar to a human's room. It was mainly red with a golden background, and there were many phoenix totems on the walls and pillars.

"Miss Leng." Feng Zhan walked out of the inner room and blocked Leng Ruoxue with his tall body.

"Hello, Phoenix King," Leng Ruoxue greeted politely.

"Miss Leng, you broke through. Congratulations." Feng Zhan's dark red phoenix eyes sized Leng Ruoxue up.

Leng Ruoxue nodded slightly and then asked, "May I ask why you are looking for Ruoxue, Phoenix King?"

"Miss Leng, please sit. I'll tell you a story." Feng Zhan pointed at a chair not far away.

"Tell me a story?" Leng Ruoxue sat down in the chair and looked at Feng Zhan in bewilderment. She couldn't help wondering what the Phoenix King was up to. Did he look for her so frantically just to tell her a story?

"Yes, a very important story." Feng Zhan sighed softly and helplessly.

"Oh, please start then, Phoenix King!" Leng Ruoxue said impatiently. She was not very interested in the Phoenix King's story, but she very much wanted to know Feng Zhan's purpose.

"It seems like Miss Leng is still an impatient person," Feng Zhan teased with a smile.

"Yes, my companion is still with the Dragon clan. I'm very worried," Leng Ruoxue explained. What she implied was that he should quickly tell her his purpose. After that, she would go and save someone.

"Don't worry, Miss Leng. Your friend's life is not in danger in the Dragon clan," Feng Zhan said with confidence, his face full of mystery.

"I'm afraid he will be tortured," Leng Ruoxue said. Of course, she knew that Feng Da's life wouldn't be in danger. After all, Feng Da had a dragon as his contract beast. If the Dragon clan wanted to kill Feng Da, it was equivalent to killing one of their own. This wasn't something the Dragon clan, who claimed to be the most united, would do.

"I'm afraid physical pain is unavoidable," Feng Zhan said honestly.

"So, Phoenix King, just tell me directly. Stop keeping me in suspense," Leng Ruoxue said a little impatiently.

"Alright. Actually, I hope Miss Leng can stay in the Phoenix clan," Feng Zhan said, shocking her.

"What?" Leng Ruoxue asked uncertainly. Uh, did I hear right?

"I hope Miss Leng can stay with us," Feng Zhan repeated patiently, his dark red phoenix eyes full of anticipation.

"I'm sorry, but that's unlikely. I still have important things to do. I can't stay in the same place forever," Leng Ruoxue explained implicitly. Although she didn't know why the Phoenix King said that, she didn't want to anger Feng Zhan, lest he destroyed all of them in a fit of anger.

"Miss Leng, if you are willing to stay in the Phoenix clan, you will be the king of the Phoenix clan from now on, and you can choose any handsome man in our Phoenix clan." Feng Zhan threw out a big bait. He believed that no one could refuse such a generous offer.

Leng Ruoxue's face darkened, and she was at a loss for words. What does the Phoenix King mean? I can choose any handsome man I want? Do I look like a pervert?

The little silver mink, who had been acting as a pet in Leng Ruoxue's arms, heard what Feng Zhan said and hated him! Damn it. He could understand wanting to keep Xue'er in the Phoenix clan, but he couldn't tolerate the idea of giving her a man of the Phoenix clan. Hmph! Xue'er can only be mine!

"What do you think, Miss Leng?" Feng Zhan couldn't help asking when he saw Leng Ruoxue not responding for a long time.

"I appreciate your kindness, Phoenix King. But I really can't stay in the Phoenix clan. Erm, as for the handsome man, I think I should leave him to the women of the Phoenix clan!" Leng Ruoxue replied after choosing her words carefully for some time.

"Miss Leng, don't make your decision too hastily. Let me finish telling you the story!" Feng Zhan said leisurely and sighed softly. At first, he thought that his bait would be enough to attract Leng Ruoxue, but she unexpectedly remained unmoved. He had no choice but to tell her honestly in hopes of convincing her. To be honest, he really didn't want to tell anyone about it if possible. After all, it was considered a humiliation to the Phoenix clan.

"Okay. Pray tell, Phoenix King!" Leng Ruoxue urged.

"Miss Leng, actually, our Phoenix clan doesn't belong to this world. There are many spirit beasts in this world that didn't once belong here. We came from an extremely distant place. That place is a holy land that all humans and beasts have yearned for for a long time," Feng Zhan said softly, as if he had fallen into a trance, lost in his memories.

"Then why are you here?" Leng Ruoxue didn't deny that the Phoenix King's words piqued her curiosity. ?Seems like Feng Zhan really has a secret.

"That's because our Phoenix clan, the Dragon clan, and even other beasts were exiled here after a great war one hundred thousand years ago," Feng Zhan explained with deep pain in his eyes.

Chapter 225: The Way to Bring Freak Back to Life (2)

"Exiled?" Leng Ruoxue was puzzled. ?Only criminals would be exiled, right? Did the Dragon and Phoenix clans of the Ling Feng Continent commit crimes?

"There was a traitor in the Phoenix clan, and the Phoenix King bloodline was exiled. I was only an egg when I was sent to this world.

"Back then, the Phoenix King was sealed, and the clan members who supported him were all exiled to various worlds. I was the youngest son of the Phoenix King, and after I was born, the clan members of this world supported me to become king.

"We live in this world. However, not only are our strengths limited, but we are also unable to ascend to the Upper Realm. However, the high priest of the Phoenix clan once prophesied that 'Our Phoenix clan will have a new master, and she will also be the savior of our Phoenix clan'. You are our new master," Feng Zhan explained.

"Are you sure?" Leng Ruoxue asked lightly, but she kept communicating with Qing Jue in her heart.

"Qing Jue, do you know about the great war one hundred thousand years ago?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

"Big Sister, the great war one hundred thousand years ago should be referring to the time Old Master died," Qing Jue said sadly. ?Old Master has been dead for one hundred thousand years. Boohoo...

"In that case, it's possible that this Phoenix King was from the same world as Master?" Leng Ruoxue couldn't be sure if what Feng Zhan said was true.

"The Phoenix clan is a very large race and was very powerful in the world where Old Master was. They were one of the four kings under the Beast God. But I'm not sure as to whether or not there was a traitor among the Phoenix clan," Qing Jue said after carefully recalling.

"Qing Jue, do you think the Phoenix King's words are trustworthy?" Leng Ruoxue asked.

"The Phoenix King should be telling the truth," Qing Jue said after tilting his head in thought for a while.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue severed the connection after communicating with Qing Jue in her head.

"The high priest once said that a woman would save our Phoenix clan." Feng Zhan looked at Leng Ruoxue and nodded with certainty.

"Phoenix King, there are many women in this world. Are you sure that it's me?" Leng Ruoxue asked coldly.

"Miss Leng, there are indeed many women in the world, but not all of them can come to the Phoenix clan." Feng Zhan smiled mysteriously.

"Phoenix King, stop keeping me in suspense. I won't agree unless you tell me clearly," Leng Ruoxue said coldly. She didn't want to be used by others.

"Miss Leng, I'm telling the truth. The new master mentioned in the high priest's prophecy is indeed you!" Feng Zhan said with certainty.

"Many people don't know why the Phoenix clan and the Dragon clan rarely travel on the Ling Feng Continent. Does Miss Leng want to know?" Feng Zhan asked with a smile.

"Could there be something else?" Leng Ruoxue guessed.

"Yes, because there is a barrier outside Grief Remedy Forest that limits our movement. Uh, what I mean is that the members of the Phoenix clan who have advanced to divine beasts are unable to appear alone on the Ling Feng Continent unless they have a master. Similarly, people outside are unable to come to the Phoenix Nest. Even if someone passes through the barrier, they are unable to pass through Grief Remedy Forest safely. Miss Leng and the others are the only humans who have been able to come to the Phoenix Nest for the past tens of thousands of years," Feng Zhan explained the reason to Leng Ruoxue.

"But you can't just assume that I'm your new master, can you? Doesn't the Phoenix clan exist in every world?" Leng Ruoxue continued asking her doubts.

"I was exiled to this world with the mission of finding the new master of the Phoenix clan because the high priest said that the new master of the Phoenix clan would appear in the lower dimensions." Feng Zhan sighed. He had waited for so long before she finally arrived. But this new master seemed to be of strong character and was determined not to be moved by temptation.

"Since your high priest is so powerful, why didn't he predict that there would be a traitor in the Phoenix clan?" Leng Ruoxue asked in puzzlement. She had never believed in prophecies; she only believed in herself.

"No prophecy can predict what is related to you or things beyond your authority, so the high priest was helpless. After all, the people involved in the war back then had extraordinary identities," Feng Zhan said simply. Even though he was not born yet, he knew a little about the war.

"You are limited by the barrier. What about the Dragon clan? Why can they go to the Ling Feng Continent to capture someone?" Leng Ruoxue was puzzled. Wasn't the Dragon Clan exiled like the Phoenix clan?

"The Dragon clan is different from us. The barrier is much less restrictive on the Dragon clan than on the Phoenix clan," Feng Zhan said with some indignation. It was really too unfair. They were kept here and not allowed to leave just because they could spit fire, while the dragons could leave, even though there was a restriction on the time and number.

"Phoenix King, you said that I'm your new master, but I'm only a Spiritual Supremacy and weak now. I'm afraid..." Leng Ruoxue hesitated. She didn't want the Phoenix King to have too much hope and treat her as their savior, so she decided to give him forewarning.

"Master, we're not in a hurry. We have waited for so long. Moreover, time is nothing to the Phoenix clan," Feng Zhan consoled hurriedly. Of course, he knew that Leng Ruoxue definitely wouldn't be able to lead them in rebuilding their glory with her current strength. But they had plenty of time, so they could wait.

"That's good." Leng Ruoxue seemed to be at ease, but she couldn't help worrying in her heart. He already started calling her master even though she didn't seem to have agreed?

"Master, then let's choose a time to contract!" Feng Zhan said impatiently.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue felt like she was being forced into a corner. But she knew that contracting with the Phoenix clan would be very beneficial for her, but nonetheless...

"Phoenix King, I don't want to contract with the entire Phoenix clan," Leng Ruoxue said after some thought.

"Master, why is this so?" Feng Zhan asked with a bitter face. Did some idiot from the Phoenix clan offend her? He had already warned his clan that Leng Ruoxue was a distinguished guest, so they had to treat her well!

"I want some of the Phoenix clan to contract with my subordinates." Leng Ruoxue revealed the plan that she had been brewing.

"Master, how about this? You contract the entire Phoenix clan first. As for the contract beasts for your subordinates, I'll take care of it," Feng Zhan said after some thought. It was not that he disliked his master's subordinates. But he thought that it would cause some of the clan members to feel that their master despised them if she didn't contract with all of them. As the king of the Phoenix clan, he naturally had to consider the interests of his own clan.

Chapter 226: The Way to Bring Freak Back to Life (3)

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue agreed readily. She also knew that beasts like dragons and phoenixes would not casually contract with humans, so she didn't want to make things difficult for Feng Zhan.

After settling the matter with Feng Zhan, Leng Ruoxue returned to the wooden house.

Inside the Heaven and Earth Bracelet...

"Grandpa, did you hear what Feng Zhan just said to me?" Leng Ruoxue asked the three old men in front of her.

"Oh, Xue'er, so that's what the Phoenix King wants. That's fortunate. I was still worried that he would harm us!" Leng Qingtian said with a sigh of relief.

"Little Girl, your luck is really infuriating! Even the Phoenix clan came knocking on your door to contract with you. Alas, why don't I have such good luck?" Old Man said with a sigh.

"Yes, even I am jealous of you." Lin Liang's tone might be complaining, but his expression was not the least bit that way. Instead, his face was full of joy, as if he had contracted with them himself.

"Xue'er, contracting the Phoenix clan will be very beneficial for you now. But Grandpa is a little worried about the traitor of the Phoenix clan," Leng Qingtian said worriedly. He didn't want his granddaughter to suffer any harm. Contracting with the Phoenix clan had both pros and cons. He was afraid that the Phoenix clan would become a time bomb.

"Grandpa, even without the Phoenix clan, there are some things that I can't avoid," Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. The matter of the Phoenix clan involved the great war 100,000 years ago, and that war was obviously related to her master, so she couldn't avoid it at all. Instead of running away, it was better to start accumulating her strength now.

"Xue'er, what do you mean?" Leng Qingtian was puzzled.

"Yes, Ruoxue. What do you mean?" Lin Liang and Old Man were equally puzzled.

"I have to begin by explaining about my master..." Leng Ruoxue explained everything in detail to Leng Qingtian and the others.

After listening to her, the three of them fell silent...

"Xue'er, Grandpa will definitely help you no matter how formidable your future enemy is," Leng Qingtian said calmly with a serious face after a while. Xue'er's words were beyond his expectations. No wonder Xue'er has never taken the Xu family seriously. The Xu family is just a small fry compared to that enemy. Alas! It seems we've set our sights too low.

"Little Girl, even though my strength is limited, I am also very willing to help you as long as you are willing to accept me." Old Man also expressed his attitude very seriously.

"Hehe, how can I miss out on this kind of thing!" Lin Liang chimed in as well, taking on the responsibility as well. Being together with young people really made him so energetic! It seemed like he had to cultivate harder in the future and not be outdone by this little girl!

Leng Ruoxue looked at Old Man and Lin Liang, a little touched. She wasn't surprised that her grandfather said so, but she didn't expect these two to say the same. In fact, she could understand even if they didn't help.

"Little Girl, don't look at me like that. I am too old and can't take it!" Old Man said with an exaggerated expression on his face.

"You old fart! What nonsense are you saying?" Leng Qingtian glared at him.

"Ruoxue, I have decided. I want to enter seclusion here and cultivate diligently, lest I become a burden later on." Lin Liang revealed his plan after thinking about it.

"I can't fall behind Brat Lin. I want to enter seclusion as well," Old Man hurriedly said.

"No! If both of you are in seclusion, what should Xue'er say if someone asks?" Leng Qingtian disagreed, directly denying their thoughts.

"Old Man, Grandpa Lin, wait for me to save Feng Da and destroy the Spiritual Deities of the Xu family before you enter seclusion!" Leng Ruoxue said with a slight frown.

"Alright. Time can accelerate here anyway, so a few more days won't hurt." Old Man and Lin Liang nodded.

"I'll send you out first. We've been here for a long time," Leng Ruoxue said to the three old men.

"Okay."

After sending the three of them out of the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, Leng Ruoxue entered the purple bamboo house.

"Freak, are you doing okay?" Leng Ruoxue put the little silver mink aside and murmured to herself while staring at Freak's frozen body.

"I miss you so much," Leng Ruoxue said softly, choked up as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"Xue'er," the little silver mink called softly. He wanted to jump into Leng Ruoxue's arms, but Xue'er ignored him. Boohoo...

The little silver mink hated Xue'er for neglecting him. Boohoo... He was so jealous of the big ice block lying on the bed, even though he knew that his idea was ridiculous because it was actually him. But he really...

Xue'er, do you know how much I want to tell you that I am your Freak? But... but...

Boohoo... He felt so inferior now, and he was even more unwilling to let Xue'er know that he was now a little mink who couldn't even transform into a human...

"Xue'er." The little silver mink calmed down and gently tugged on Leng Ruoxue's sleeve.

"Uh, what's wrong?" Leng Ruoxue looked at the little mink with tears in her eyes, her face full of confusion.

"Xue'er, don't cry. He... he isn't dead!" the little silver mink comforted. Boohoo... Seeing Xue'er's tears made him both happy and distressed. His mood was conflicted.

"What did you say? How do you know?" The little mink's words exploded in Leng Ruoxue's ears like a bomb!

Leng Ruoxue picked up the little silver mink in disbelief and raised him in front of her eyes to look directly into those incomparably beautiful blue eyes.

"He's not dead," the little silver mink repeated, but he was very nervous. Xue'er wouldn't see anything, would she?

"How do you know?" Leng Ruoxue asked anxiously, her heart racing.

"My inherited memories told me. Moreover, I know how to dispel the Frosty Palm's poison," the little silver mink suddenly said confidently. He was really too smart to think of such a reason.

"Tell me quickly," Leng Ruoxue said anxiously.

Chapter 227: The Way to Bring Freak Back To Life (4)

"Uh, Xue'er, you're hugging me too tightly. You're going to strangle me. Relax," the little silver mink said with some difficulty. He didn't want to die again before he was revived.

"Ah! I'm sorry. I didn't do it on purpose." Leng Ruoxue relaxed her hands. She was relieved to see the little mink breathing more smoothly.

"Xue'er, his injuries are too serious. That's why you thought he was dead. In fact, he can wake up as long as the Frosty Palm's poison is cured," the little silver mink explained.

"Really? How can I cure the poison?" Leng Ruoxue asked anxiously. She didn't doubt what the little mink said at all. After all, even though everyone said that the Xu family's Frosty Palm was incurable, there seemed to be many secret techniques in the inherited memories of beasts. So it was normal for the little mink to know.

"You need a thousand-year fire lotus." The little mink was a little hesitant. No matter which world fire lotuses were in, they were rare and precious, let alone a thousand-year-old one. In fact, the reason why fire lotuses were difficult to find was mainly because of their stringent growing environment.

"I will think of a way to find a thousand-year fire lotus," Leng Ruoxue said resolutely. Since she now knew that Freak wasn't dead, she had to think of a way to save him. She said before that she wouldn't let Freak leave her.

"Little mink, thanks for telling me this information," Leng Ruoxue said gratefully as she hugged the little mink tightly.

"Xue'er, fire lotuses love fire. It's possible to find traces of them in places with rich fire element or in volcanoes," the little silver mink reminded. Fire lotuses were heavenly treasures and earthly materials, and they were born from heaven and earth spiritual energy. It was very possible that fire lotuses more than a thousand years old had already developed intelligence and knew how to avoid danger, so they were not easy to find.

"They like fire? I'll ask the Phoenix King." Leng Ruoxue thought about it. The Phoenix clan also liked fire, so would the Phoenix clan have fire lotuses?

Actions spoke louder than words. With this in mind, Leng Ruoxue immediately left the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and greeted her grandfather before heading straight for Feng Zhan.

After arriving at the Phoenix King's resting palace, Leng Ruoxue explained her purpose.

"Fire lotus?" Feng Zhan frowned and pondered for a long time...

"Master, I am sure that there are no fire lotuses in the Phoenix clan. But there's an active volcano in our territory. There may be a fire lotus there," Feng Zhan guessed after thinking for a while. Although the Phoenix clan was of the fire attribute, they didn't know much about alchemy and artificing, so they were not too interested in these things.

"Really? I'll look then." Leng Ruoxue was about to leave when Feng Zhan stopped her.

"Master, don't be hasty. It's very dangerous there. I'll go with you after the master acknowledgment ceremony tomorrow," Feng Zhan said helplessly. Master is really impatient.

"Okay!" Leng Ruoxue knew that she indeed needed a guide. Moreover, there were guardian beasts wherever spirit plants grew. It would be a waste not to use him since he was willing to be a fighter for her!

"Oh right, have you heard of essence restoration grass?" Leng Ruoxue continued asking. Feng Zhan had lived for so long, so he should have heard of it, right?

"Essence restoration grass? What does Master want essence restoration grass for?" Feng Zhan asked curiously. Although the Phoenix clan wasn't good at alchemy and artificing, their understanding of herbs and minerals was unparalleled.

"My brother is injured and needs a pill concocted from essence restoration grass," Leng Ruoxue explained simply.

"Essence restoration grass isn't something precious, but there aren't many in this world." Feng Zhan smiled gently with a mysterious expression.

"You know? Then tell me. Where can I find it?" Leng Ruoxue hurriedly asked. She had always been worried about her brother's matter, and she had never forgotten it.

"The Dragon clan should have some," Feng Zhan directly said, not beating around the bush. But that essence restoration grass...

"I'll go to the Dragon clan the day after tomorrow," Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. She planned to visit the Phoenix clan's underground volcano tomorrow.

"Then I'll go with Master." Feng Zhan's handsome face was full of cunning. The Dragon clan! I have to teach that stinky dragon a lesson.

Leng Ruoxue nodded in agreement.

The next day, the Phoenix King led all his people to acknowledge Leng Ruoxue as their master formally in the Phoenix clan's chamber hall. After the master acknowledgment ceremony, Feng Zhan brought Leng Ruoxue to the active volcano.

"It's so hot here." Leng Ruoxue felt the blazing heat before reaching the entrance of the volcano. It rushed at her face and grilled her body uncomfortably.

"Master, come closer to me," Feng Zhan said to Leng Ruoxue and used his spiritual power to protect her body.

"Uh, much better." Leng Ruoxue felt much better, and her body was not as uncomfortable as before with Feng Zhan's protection. Although she also had fire-attribute spiritual power, the temperature here was a little unbearable.

"Master, we can reach the interior of the volcano from here." Feng Zhan pointed at a small cave.

Leng Ruoxue looked at the small cave. The entrance was very small, and only one person could enter each time. After the two of them entered the entrance, the space inside suddenly became spacious.

"Be careful. There are many poisonous bugs here," Feng Zhan whispered to Leng Ruoxue.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue nodded and looked around carefully at the environment in front of her. The light was very dim, but she could still see clearly that the place closest to the entrance of the cave was very dry. The entire cave was dark red, and the stone walls and ground were covered with volcanic ash, which had already condensed into blocks because it had been so long.

The two of them walked in carefully. The farther they went, the darker it became. At this moment, Feng Zhan lit a torch that illuminated the entire cave...

"Aaahhhh!" Leng Ruoxue covered her mouth and threw up uncontrollably. It was so disgusting. The mountain walls were densely covered with red bugs that resembled spiders, making her hair stand on end.

"Charm." Leng Ruoxue quickly let Charm out and hugged him tightly.

"Master, don't be scared." Charm quickly comforted her and released his ice spiritual skill, freezing the entire mountain walls into thin ice. The temperature of the volcano immediately dropped significantly.

"Purple-eyed snow fox!" Feng Zhan was surprised. He looked at the snow-white little fox in Leng Ruoxue's arms and felt somewhat uncomfortable. ?I'm also Master's beast, okay? Why doesn't she hug me?

Chapter 228: The Strange Encounter in the Volcano, Feng Zhan vs. Long Hao (1)

"Fire phoenix!" Charm narrowed his beautiful purple eyes as he sized up Feng Zhan. Even though the status of purple-eyed snow foxes among beasts was inferior to that of phoenix races, it was still difficult to say who would emerge victorious if they really fought.

"Let's go in!" Leng Ruoxue urged, ignoring the sparks flying between the two beasts.

"Master, follow me closely," Feng Zhan said softly as his gaze turned to Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and slowly walked behind Feng Zhan.

After walking for about an hour, they finally arrived at the center of the volcano.

Leng Ruoxue looked up at the scene in front of her with astonishment. It was really too spectacular. She saw fiery red magma slowly flowing on the walls of the mountain and finally gathered together and flowed into a natural pool. The magma in the pool was like boiling water, bubbling and gushing around non-stop!

"Master, this is the center of the volcano. If there is a fire lotus, it should be here," Feng Zhan explained. Fire lotuses liked to grow in places with the densest fire element.

"Let's look for one!" Leng Ruoxue nodded. This area wasn't small, so she hoped she could find one.

"Then let's split up and search. Master, be careful," Feng Zhan said worriedly.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and began looking around.

"Be careful!" Suddenly, Feng Zhan's exclamation sounded from behind Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue instinctively turned her head and saw an ugly fiery red monster rushing at her. She was shocked, and Charm in her arms had already pounced at the monster...

Feng Zhan hurriedly walked to Leng Ruoxue's side and asked with concern, "Master, are you alright?!"

"I'm fine," Leng Ruoxue said calmly. She was just shocked. After all, no woman would like something so ugly.

"What is this?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously. The monster fighting Charm had the exact same head and tail, and it was impossible to distinguish what was what. Its body was more than ten meters long and as thick as a water bucket, and its skin was red but transparent. Moreover, she could vaguely see the blood vessels inside and the liquid flowing slowly in its body.

"It is a fire earth dragon. It is born in magma and eats magma," Feng Zhan explained to Leng Ruoxue while staring at the two beasts fighting. This fire earth dragon actually had the strength of a holy beast. It was really unbelievable. Fire earth dragons were known to be very weak and having very short lifespans. Could there have been some kind of mutation in this dragon?

"Are you sure?" Leng Ruoxue looked at Feng Zhan doubtfully. Why was this fire earth dragon so strong?

"Yes, it must have mutated. I'll go help that fox," Feng Zhan guessed and then flew toward the fire earth dragon.

"What are you doing here?" Charm, who was fighting with the fire earth dragon, asked with slight displeasure when he saw Feng Zhan appear.

"I'm here to help! This is its territory. Even if you're stronger than it, you won't be able to show your superiority," Feng Zhan said very kindly as he released his Southern Spirit Flame.

"Stop arguing. End this quickly!" Leng Ruoxue said helplessly.

Just as she finished speaking, she heard a painful howl coming from the fire earth dragon. Its body was on fire...

"Are you sure your fire is effective?" Charm asked deliberately, not wanting to see this man being too smug.

"Of course. My fire isn't something that can be devoured by just anything," Feng Zhan said confidently. Even though fire earth dragons fed on magma, they could also consume flames.

But he was soon dumbfounded!

"How... could this happen?" Feng Zhan muttered in disbelief. His eyes had to be playing tricks on him because the mutated fire earth dragon actually slowly absorbed the flames on its body, and its strength instantly increased by several levels...

"This fire earth dragon is very strange." Charm was also in disbelief. None of the fire earth dragons he knew were so strange. Moreover, fire earth dragons couldn't be considered spirit beasts at all. Even at the holy beast level, they were unable to develop intelligence or speak. But this fire earth dragon could actually devour the Southern Spirit Flame, which was abnormal in itself.

"Let me try." After speaking, Leng Ruoxue directly released the heaven-level spiritual skill Feather of the Fire Phoenix. This fire earth dragon was not afraid of the Phoenix clan's Southern Spirit Flame. Would it be afraid of her divine flame?

"Master's flame..." Feng Zhan's thoughts raced as he looked at the small and cute feather. Although the entire feather was fiery red, on careful look, people would notice that the center of the flame feather was deep purple with the outermost edge golden. Moreover, the temperature was extremely high.?Could this be the legendary...

While Feng Zhan was thinking, the small fiery red feather had already begun to disintegrate into countless feathers and entangle the body of the fire earth dragon. Immediately, painful howls resounded from the fire earth dragon...

*I wonder if this fire earth dragon can swallow my divine flame as well??*Leng Ruoxue couldn't help thinking. She was really curious. Moreover, she specially added her natal divine flame into the Feather of the Flame Phoenix. She hoped that this fire earth dragon wouldn't disappoint her!

Unfortunately, the fire earth dragon still disappointed Leng Ruoxue because it only took ten minutes before her divine flame burned it to ashes.

"Huh? What is this?" Leng Ruoxue picked up a fiery red translucent crystal that resembled a diamond from the ashes.

"Master, this is something good! You're rich!" Feng Zhan said excitedly.?Heavens, how can this thing exist in this world? No wonder that fire earth dragon mutated. With this thing around, all fire-attribute spirit beasts would benefit greatly.

"What is this?" Leng Ruoxue's face was full of question marks.?Is this a diamond?

"This is a fire crystal core! Countless fire crystals can be produced as long as it is around. Fire crystals are very important to fire-attribute cultivators," Feng Zhan explained simply. In his hometown, crystals of various attributes were used to assist cultivation.

"Master, it's enough to absorb spiritual energy from heaven and earth to cultivate in this dimension. But when you reach a higher dimension, you'll need crystals of various attributes to assist your cultivation.

Uh, it's a little early to tell you all this now. You'll understand more when you go to a higher dimension," Feng Zhan continued.

Chapter 229: The Strange Encounter in the Volcano, Feng Zhan vs. Long Hao (2)

Leng Ruoxue nodded. She understood what Feng Zhan meant. The higher your level, the more heaven and earth spiritual energy you required. Therefore, various methods that could assist in cultivation would be very important at that time.

"Continue searching!" Leng Ruoxue stored the fire crystal core in the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and handed it to Qing Jue for safekeeping. After some thought, she released Quill.

"Quill, can you see with your X-ray vision in here?" Leng Ruoxue asked.

"Master, heavenly materials and earthly treasures cannot be seen through," Quill said helplessly. Heavenly materials and earthly treasures had their own spirituality, and only those who were fated could obtain them.

"Oh, take your time then," Leng Ruoxue said indifferently. In fact, she had already guessed this. Otherwise, Quill would have come out to help long ago.

"Master, we want to help too," Dazzle said from the bracelet.

"Alright, all of you come out!" Leng Ruoxue let out the other beasts.

The more beasts there were, the more hands they would have. After coming out, they each occupied a spot and searched carefully.

"Master, there's a flower here," Rise suddenly called out.

"Where?" Leng Ruoxue came to Rise's location and looked around. There was nothing except a large rock.

"Under the rock." Rise lowered his head and motioned Leng Ruoxue to look down.

Leng Ruoxue squatted down and looked at the large rock under Rise. There was indeed a small flower in the gap under the rock, but it was still a small bud. The flower was entirely fiery red, slightly smaller than an adult's palm, and exuded a faint lotus fragrance.

"Found it!" Leng Ruoxue shouted excitedly.

Feng Zhan immediately came to Leng Ruoxue's side, glanced at the small fire lotus, and said honestly, "Master, this isn't a thousand-year-old fire lotus."

"I know, but it's better than nothing," Leng Ruoxue said happily. She had the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, so as long as she could find a fire lotus, even if it was not a thousand years old, she could plant it and make it into a thousand-year-old fire lotus.

"Uh! That's true, Master. I'll dig it out," Feng Zhan volunteered.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue gave her spot to Feng Zhan.

Feng Zhan first moved the rock away, then squatted down and carefully dug out the fire lotus from the ground. He then handed it to Leng Ruoxue.

After receiving the fire lotus, Leng Ruoxue directly sent it into the bracelet and handed it to Qing Jue.

"Let's go back!" Leng Ruoxue knew that only a single heavenly material and earthly treasure would grow in a place, so there was no need to continue looking.

"Okay." Feng Zhan nodded, and the few beasts also jumped onto Leng Ruoxue's arms or shoulders.

Following their original route, Leng Ruoxue, Feng Zhan, and the other beasts left the active volcano and returned to the Phoenix clan's territory.

In the wooden house...

"Xue'er, you're back! How was your harvest?" Leng Qingtian asked curiously. He already knew that Freak had not really died, but a thousand-year fire lotus was not easy to find!

"It's not bad. We found a small one." Leng Ruoxue was very satisfied. After all, fire lotuses were very difficult to find, so she didn't expect to find one in one try.

"That's good." Leng Qingtian was relieved.

"Yes, Grandpa. I'm a little tired. I'll go back to my room to rest first," Leng Ruoxue said.

"Go quickly!" Leng Qingtian hurried his granddaughter upon hearing that she was tired.

The moment Leng Ruoxue returned to her room, the little silver mink she left in the room jumped into her arms.

"Xue'er, Boohoo... How could you abandon me?" the little silver mink complained aggrievedly, tears welling up in his blue eyes.

"You were the one who said you don't like fire," Leng Ruoxue said speechlessly. ?Why is this little mink complaining first!

"But... but you can't leave me at home!" the little silver mink said gloomily. He meant that Xue'er could put him in the bracelet, but she actually directly left him in the room.

"Oh, I misunderstood. I thought you didn't want to go!" Leng Ruoxue giggled. Actually, she did it on purpose since this little mink always threatened her with tears.

"You have to compensate me!" the little silver mink said, pushing his luck. He was definitely going to take advantage of Xue'er since she couldn't do anything to him anyway.

"How?" Leng Ruoxue was speechless. ?Why is this little mink so similar to Freak? They're both unwilling to suffer any loss!

"I haven't thought about it yet. I'll tell you when I think of it," the little silver mink said slyly.

"Alright!" Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. Then she entered the Heaven and Earth Bracelet with the little mink in her arms.

"Big Sister, I've already planted the fire lotus. I also placed the fire crystal core near it to accelerate its growth," Qing Jue hurriedly reported his labor results to Leng Ruoxue after seeing her enter.

"Qing Jue, you've worked hard." Leng Ruoxue picked up the beautiful and cute toddler. She actually felt a little guilty looking at Qing Jue's small arms and legs. ?Is this considered exploiting an underage child?

"Big Sister, you're letting your imagination run wild again." Qing Jue, who knew what Leng Ruoxue was thinking, rolled his eyes, his pinkish face full of helplessness. He was an artifact spirit, not an underage child!

"Uh, Qing Jue, when will this fire lotus reach a thousand years?" Leng Ruoxue was embarrassed and quickly changed the topic.

"Big Sister, it should take at least a hundred years, adding on the accelerated time and the fire crystal core!" Qing Jue said after thinking with a frown.

"A hundred years?! That long?" Leng Ruoxue was depressed.

"Big Sister, a hundred years is fast. For cultivators, a hundred years passes by in the blink of an eye," Qing Jue said nonchalantly. In his opinion, a hundred years was really nothing. For example, his old master could enter seclusion for more than a hundred years at a time.

"Yes, Master. Hundreds of years will pass by every time we sleep," Rise couldn't help consoling.

"Big Sister, you just have to cultivate diligently if you want it to grow into a thousand-year fire lotus quickly. If you reach Old Master's level, not to mention a thousand years, even ten thousand years will pass by in the blink of an eye," Qing Jue encouraged. He hoped that his big sister could improve her strength quickly so that he could help her even more.

Chapter 230: The Strange Encounter in the Volcano, Feng Zhan vs. Long Hao (3)

Cold sweat dripped down Leng Ruoxue's forehead. ?In the blink of an eye? Who takes years to blink?

"Big Sister, I'm just making an analogy!" Qing Jue pouted his pink lips in dissatisfaction. ?Big Sister is really too bad.

"Erm, Qing Jue, can you not eavesdrop?" Leng Ruoxue said awkwardly while wiping the cold sweat off her forehead. She didn't even have the right to privacy anymore.

"Big Sister, there's no need to eavesdrop with soul contracts. I'm listening openly." Qing Jue covered his small mouth and smiled secretly. ?Hehe, Big Sister is so cute.

"..."

"I'm going out first." Leng Ruoxue quickly fled after speaking. ?Boohoo... I'm such a failure as a master.

"Haha!" Qing Jue and the beasts in the bracelet couldn't help laughing out loud.

Leng Ruoxue got out of the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, laid on her bed, and had a good night's sleep. When she woke up, it was already the next day.

After leaving her room, Leng Ruoxue casually ate something, greeted her grandfather and the others, and went to look for Feng Zhan.

As soon as she arrived at the door of his palace, she saw him waiting for her outside.

"Master." Feng Zhan dashed to Leng Ruoxue's side when he saw her.

"Let's go!" Leng Ruoxue said impatiently.

Feng Zhan nodded, and the two of them walked toward the entrance side by side.

"Big Sister, wait for Inflammation." Inflammation's voice sounded behind them just as they reached the entrance.

Leng Ruoxue stopped and looked helplessly at the little vermilion bird who had run into her arms.

"Inflammation, Big Sister is going to do serious business. Stay in the clan obediently!"

Since coming to the Phoenix clan, Leng Ruoxue had rarely seen this naughty little guy. She heard that Big Sister Ling'er had put this little thing in solitary confinement. Why did he sneak out today?

"Little Sister Ruoxue, I said I would accompany you to the Dragon clan. Why didn't you tell me you were going today?" Feng Ling'er appeared in front of Leng Ruoxue with a displeased face and looked at her in annoyance.

Leng Ruoxue looked at the handsome man beside Feng Ling'er and said teasingly, "Uh, Big Sister, didn't I do it for your own good?"

"Master." Feng Miao, Feng Ling'er's husband, bowed respectfully.

"Uh, you don't have to be so polite. My beasts are all very naughty," Leng Ruoxue said uncomfortably.

"That's right. Ruoxue is my little sister," Feng Ling'er echoed casually.

"You're going too?" Feng Zhan stared at them.

"Royal Father, I promised Little Sister Ruoxue that I would accompany her to save her friend. How can I go back on my word!" Feng Ling'er hugged Feng Zhan's arm and acted coquettishly.

"Then let's go together!" Leng Ruoxue glanced at Feng Zhan. Even though she hadn't spent much time with Feng Ling'er, she knew Feng Ling'er's fiery nature very well. Feng Miao would probably be the unlucky one if she didn't let this violent fire phoenix follow.

"Yes. I won't cause any trouble," Feng Ling'er promised like an obedient child.

"As if." Feng Zhan didn't believe her words at all. He threw down these two words coldly, turned around, and walked in the direction of the Dragon clan.

They chatted as they walked, and they soon arrived at Dragon Island.

"Sister Ruoxue, do you see that island? Those stinky dragons live there." Feng Ling'er pointed at a small island not far away.

Leng Ruoxue looked in the direction Feng Ling'er pointed and saw a small island floating on the sea. Thick fog surrounded the island, so she could not see the surroundings clearly. But how many dragons could live on such a small island?

"How do we enter?" Leng Ruoxue's beautiful eyes stared at Feng Zhan. This Dragon Island was surrounded by water on all sides, so they probably had to fly there!

"Master, don't worry. That old dragon will send a dragon to fetch us," Feng Zhan said mysteriously with a cunning face.

"Really?" Leng Ruoxue was a little skeptical. She heard that dragons and phoenixes were enemies. Would the Dragon clan really treat them as distinguished guests?

Feng Zhan didn't answer Leng Ruoxue but expressed it directly with his actions.

Feng Zhan quickly returned to his original form and flew around the sky of Dragon Island. After flying a few rounds, he spat out raging flames. Immediately, flames surged into the sky from the sea surrounding the island.

Uhh...? Her forehead full of black lines, Leng Ruoxue looked at the incomparably enormous fire phoenix shining with colorful lights in the sky. Arrogant, too arrogant. This was the first time she had seen someone knock on another's door like this in her life. She really felt that she was too kind compared with Feng Zhan.

After releasing the fire, Feng Zhan immediately transformed into a human and stood beside Leng Ruoxue with an innocent face. It was as if the arrogant fire phoenix just now had nothing to do with him.

"Who dares to cause trouble on Dragon Island? You must be tired of living." An angry roar sounded from Dragon Island, and several huge dragons flew out.

"Ah! Damn it! It's the Phoenix King! Go and report to the Dragon Emperor. The Phoenix King is here to cause trouble again!" Several mighty dragons flew out and retreated in fright when they saw Feng Zhan standing on the beach.

Holding back her smile, Leng Ruoxue looked Feng Zhan up and down again and again. No wonder Feng Zhan is so arrogant. It turns out that these dragons are like mice seeing a cat when they see him.

"Master, they are too cowardly. It's not my fault." Feng Zhan's expression was very innocent.

"Yes, Little Sister Ruoxue, the Dragon clan is timid and afraid of trouble. They only know how to bully the weak and fear the strong, so we have to deal with them forcefully," Feng Ling'er explained. She had come to Dragon Island frequently to cause trouble and even beat up many dragons as she grew up, so she didn't care about those stinky dragons at all.

"Makes sense," Leng Ruoxue agreed helplessly. She had to beat up those who bullied the weak and were afraid of the strong. Perhaps she should find a few of them to beat up later?

"Damn Feng Zhan, why are you here again?!" an angry roar sounded deafeningly in the ears of Leng Ruoxue and the others. Then a gigantic purple-golden dragon flew out of Dragon Island.

The dragon was about a hundred meters long and covered in purple-golden scales. They were as beautiful and translucent as the finest amethysts. A pair of enormous wings stretched out, covering half the sky.
