

Crazy Wife 2821

Chapter 2821 Caught \(1\)

When Mu Sheng heard this, she immediately drooped her head, her body exuding a faint sorrowful aura. Seeing this, uncle long didn't know what to say except to sigh in sympathy.

This matter! Mu Sheng was quite unlucky, but what could she do now that it had already happened? He could only accept it!

Patting Mu Sheng on the shoulder, uncle long consoled her, ""Your dark family Alliance should perform well in the future! As time passes, perhaps the people of Demon City will forgive you and act as if nothing had happened. "

"Will you?" "Uncle long?" Mu Sheng asked, looking at uncle long with hope.

"We will!" Uncle long promised. In fact, he was not sure, but he could only say this to comfort his old friend.

With uncle Long's assurance, Mu Sheng's gloominess was greatly reduced. At least, he could still see hope, right?

In reality, he was in a hurry to form an alliance with Demon City. Other than Demon city's extraordinary strength, the existence of ice soul, the former clan leader of the Qilin clan, was one of the reasons why he was so proactive. As an expert who had lived for a long time, how could Mu Sheng not see the potential of Leng ruoxue and the others? Demon city's future was limitless! Therefore, he really hoped to become the dark family's ally before Demon City was fully developed. That way, the dark family Alliance would be able to obtain great benefits! This would be of great benefit to the future development of the dark family Alliance.

But now ...

Al! Thinking of the things the Hong family had done, Mu Sheng was in a bad mood again.

After staying in Demon City for a few days and getting to know uncle Dragon, master ning, and the others better, Mu Sheng left Demon City with a large group of people from the dark family Alliance.

After watching Mu Sheng and the others leave, master ning turned to uncle long and asked curiously, ""You guys ..." Good gay friends?

"What about us?" Uncle long was bewildered. There was something wrong with the old man's eyes! He was secretly on guard.

"Nothing, I just feel that your relationship seems to be quite unusual." Master ning was afraid that uncle long would be angry, so he naturally wouldn't say anything, so his words were very subtle.

"Our relationship is very ordinary." Uncle long looked at master ning and said calmly.

F*ck! He knew that this old man would let his thoughts run wild! This old bastard! Uncle long really wanted to beat him up! However, he didn't make it clear, so uncle long felt that he had no reason to do so.

"You bastard!" For Xue 'er's sake, he had to endure it!

"That means he treats you differently." Master ning could feel that uncle long was a little angry, but he couldn't stop gossiping, so he changed the topic.

Uncle long was silent. He resisted the urge to beat someone up and shouted, ""You're wrong, he just can't bear to part with you!"

Slander! This was definitely slander! Master ning was furious! You can't wrong people like this! The one Mu Sheng couldn't bear to part with was obviously uncle long, but now uncle long was pouring dirty water on her!

This was really too much! Master ning wanted to cry, but no tears came out. He couldn't help but shout in his heart, Xue 'er! Someone is bullying your Godfather!

Uncle long was happy to see master ning's face fall because of what he had said.

He deserved it! Who asked him to gossip! He was bored! Uncle long felt that he had vented his hatred.

But then, he was also worried.

With Xue 'er in closed-door cultivation, they really didn't have anything to do!

Al! How should he spend this time?

Uncle long was conflicted and suddenly fell silent.

Then, uncle long and master ning sat in the room and stared at each other.

A few days later, uncle long and master ning received the news that Ming GE and the others had arrived.

Uncle long and master ning were both shocked by the news.

Mingge and the others had arrived, but had that demon returned?

With a trace of curiosity, the two immediately went to see Ming GE and the others.

In the living room, besides Dongfang Yue and Dongfang Lin, there were only the four of them.

"Didn't the Dark Lord come?" Master ning said disappointedly as he didn't see the monster.

"How could the Lord be here? With the obstruction of the laws of heaven and earth, he can't come here openly. However, we did receive mu Li's voice transmission. His Lord has some words for us to pass on to miss Leng. " Mingge said, a look of struggle on her face.

"Uh! What did he mean by receiving mu Li's voice transmission? Didn't you go back to the netherworld jail?" Master ning asked in confusion.

"No, I didn't! Without master breaking the void, the price we have to pay to return is very high, so we simply stayed." Mingge said matter-of-factly.

After hearing Ming GE's words, master ning, uncle long, and the others were all depressed. Ever since the evildoers had been sent back to the nine nether nether prison by the laws of heaven and earth, the four of them had disappeared without a trace. At that time, they had thought that they had also been teleported back. Who knew that the four of them had not left the divine world at all?

"If you didn't leave the divine realm, then where were you all during this period of time?" Uncle long couldn't help asking.

"Let's go for a walk." Ming GE replied with a smirk.

Such an answer made uncle long and the others even more speechless. These four Heartless Bastards! Their master had already been sent back, but these four guys still had the mood to wander around! It was really too hateful!

It had to be said that the four of them were very good at pulling aggro! But Ming Song didn't seem to care, and continued to ask, "Where is miss Leng? His Lord has a message for me."

"Xue 'er has gone into seclusion." Uncle long replied indifferently.

"Then ... This?" Mingge was at a loss.

"Let's wait for Xue 'er to come out and tell her! Before she went into seclusion, Xue 'er said that no one or anything was to disturb her." Uncle long said honestly.

"Alright then! Ah! It's really too unfortunate." Mingge said with a look of regret.

"Xue 'er is also working hard on her cultivation!" Master ning said with a smile.

"Yes." Ming GE nodded. Only by cultivating hard could she meet her Lord as soon as possible. Therefore, he was very supportive of Leng ruoxue's closed-door cultivation. But he was afraid that his Lord would be disappointed, but he believed that his Lord would definitely understand. "We found two people, are you interested?" he asked with a mysterious smile.

"Who is it?" Uncle long and the others immediately asked. With Cher in seclusion and Demon City gradually getting back on track, everyone was so bored that when they heard Ming song's words, they were all extremely excited.

"Hehe! If you're interested, you can come with us and you'll know!" Mingge said, keeping him in suspense.

"Then let's go take a look!" Uncle long and the others said helplessly when they saw that Ming GE refused to tell them. Of course, they couldn't all go, so after some discussion, they asked Dongfang Yue to stay at home.

Although Dongfang Yue was reluctant, what could he do when his younger brother had already abandoned him by obeying the majority?

Chapter 2822 Caught \(2\)

As for uncle long and the others, who were so bored that they were panicking, after deciding on the candidates to stay behind, they immediately pulled Mingge and the others along and set off.

After walking for a long time, Mingge's group of four finally brought uncle long and the others to the edge of a cliff that no one knew about.

"This is the place!" Mingge pointed to the cliff not far away and said to uncle long and the others.

"This place?" Uncle long and the others were puzzled. What were they doing in the wilderness? Didn't they say that they found two people? Could the two of them be at the bottom of the cliff?

Seeing the thoughts of uncle long and the others, Mingge nodded and said, "He's down there. "

"Then what are we waiting for? let's go down and take a look." Master ning said immediately.

After saying that, he was the first to jump down.

Uncle long and the others followed closely behind.

When they reached the bottom of the cliff, uncle long and the others were depressed to find that the bottom of the cliff was so dark that they couldn't even see their fingers. In order not to alert the enemy, they didn't dare to light a fire.

"Follow me closely, it's over there." At this time, Mingge sent a message to uncle long and the others. Then, uncle long and the others quietly followed Ming GE.

Fortunately, everyone's night vision ability was not bad, and they were all reverent-god level cultivators, so their spiritual sense had a wide range. Otherwise, in this place where they couldn't even see their own fingers, even walking would be a problem.

After a long time, Mingge stopped again, pointed to a spot of light in the distance, and said, "It's the place with light in front. The person is there. "

Upon hearing this, uncle long and the others instantly became 120000% alert and quickly approached the target.

When they were about 100 meters away from their target, Mingge stopped again and continued to transmit his voice to everyone, "You guys stay here for the time being, I'll go get the person out."

Uncle long and the others nodded, but they were more and more curious about the person Ming GE was talking about!

However, they didn't have time to think for too long before they saw a fire rising from the ground. Then, a ball of fire flew into the sky.

Then, there was another golden light.

This was ...

"You bastard!" Aren't they the Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King?

After a long observation, the crowd finally confirmed the identity of the two people mentioned by Ming GE.

They had been looking for these two guys, both openly and secretly. Now that they had found them, they naturally couldn't let them escape. With the same thought, Uncle Long and the others leaped into the air and surrounded the Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King.

The Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King, who had been planning to join forces to deal with Ming GE, were a little flustered when they saw so many people suddenly appear around them. However, they quickly pretended to be calm and said with disdain, "What, you guys plan to gang up on me?"

"A group fight? Good idea." Uncle Long touched his chin and smiled evilly.

"Dragonwhale, you're also an expert. How can you collude with the humans?" Hearing this, the Dragon Emperor immediately raged.

"What do you mean by colluding with humans? You're still in cahoots with that foggy bitch! Why didn't you say anything?" Uncle Long said with a smile.

"Hahaha! Of course he wouldn't say it. He's a man who relies on women to get to his position, how could he have the nerve to say it?" Dongfang Lin chimed in. The Dragon Emperor was so angry that he almost vomited blood!

F*ck! That detestable dragonwhale! Despicable humans! One day, I'll take care of you all! The Dragon Emperor secretly complained, but what about now?

The Dragon Emperor did not have the slightest confidence that he could escape from these people. However, it was clearly even more impossible for him to surrender without putting up a fight.

After thinking for a while, he gave the Phoenix King a look, hoping that the Phoenix King would make the first move. However, the Phoenix King, who did not trust the Dragon Emperor, did not move at all. She only looked at the Dragon Emperor.

The Dragon Emperor was furious. Suddenly, his and the Phoenix King's eyes met.

Uncle Long couldn't stand the two of them being so affectionate. "Aiyaya! Can you guys restrain yourselves? You're casting amorous glances at us in public, won't we get a needle's eye if we see it?"

Eyes?

The Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King felt a chill and quickly turned their heads away, no longer looking at each other. However, their actions were also maliciously seen by Uncle Long as a cover-up!

"You're really shy! Was there a need for that? Although you're from different races, true love is not a sin! I'll definitely support your love!" Uncle Long glanced at the other party and smiled.

"Dragonwhale! 'Damn it!' You shut up!" The Phoenix King Fire roared.

"Why should I shut up? Even if you're the Phoenix King, you can't stop my freedom of speech, right?" Uncle Long was not happy to be yelled at.

At this time, master ning said, "Uncle long, why are you wasting your breath on them? just take them down and take them back!"

"Detestable! Who do you want to take care of?" As soon as master ning finished speaking, the Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King became even angrier, and they questioned him in unison.

"Besides the two of you, is there anyone else here?" Master ning said with a smile.

"Dammit! I won't let you off!" Seeing that the other party had already named him, the Phoenix King could no longer control her anger and directly transformed into her original form, pouncing towards master ning.

"Heavens! The Phoenix King has gone crazy!" Master ning saw this and shouted exaggeratedly. Then, he dodged the attacks of the Phoenix King in all directions.

Master ning's movements were extremely flexible, and every time the Phoenix King's attack was about to touch him, he would be able to Dodge it. This fact also made the Phoenix King extremely depressed!

How detestable! She didn't believe that she couldn't hit him!

The Phoenix King was furious!

Before she attacked, she turned to the Dragon Emperor and roared, "What are you waiting for? come and help!"

"I'm coming!"

The Phoenix King was just about to nod in satisfaction when she realized that it was not the Dragon Emperor who had spoken, but uncle long.

Then, uncle long also joined in the fight between master ning and the Phoenix King.

The Phoenix King, who already had a headache, almost spat out a mouthful of blood when she saw that she had another opponent.

F*ck! Why didn't men know how to be tender to women these days? She was a woman! But uncle long was still ruthless! And master ning was responsible for angering her. The two of them divided the work and cooperated with each other, and their cooperation was called tacit understanding!

However, the Phoenix King, who accidentally caught a glimpse of the Dragon Emperor's current state, instantly felt balanced. This was because the Dragon Emperor was currently surrounded by four reverent-god level experts! In comparison, she was extremely lucky!

But she didn't want to be so lucky!

She couldn't even wait to avoid these people, so why would she be willing to get entangled with them? However, the current situation clearly did not allow her to leave even if she was unwilling.

It didn't take long for the Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King to be exhausted to the point of panting.

Uncle long and the others were taking turns to rest. The Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King were so angry that they almost fainted.

In the end, the Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King, who were exhausted from the torture, had no choice but to become each other's prisoners.

When the Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King were captured and brought back to Demon City, they immediately became negative examples and were put in cages for display.

Meanwhile, Demon city's residents had long since heard of these two famous players. Now that they saw one of them alive, they naturally wanted to take a good look at them.

Chapter 2823 Caught \(3\)

The Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King, who felt the crowd pointing at them, wished they could just faint. But now, they couldn't just faint as they wished.

Hate! The hatred they had for uncle long and the others was like a raging river that would never stop!

But uncle long and the others obviously didn't mind the fire in his eyes. In order to keep the two of them company, uncle long even brought The White Tiger King along.

This time, the three brothers and sisters were finally gathered together.

The White Tiger King, who thought that it was innocent, was resentful of the treatment it had received! Because before the Phoenix King and the Dragon Emperor came here, he had the authority of a Tiger aside from doing some heavy physical work. But now, he had really become a tiger to be admired. How could he bear this?

Instantly, he began to hate the Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King!

In fact, the people he wanted to hate the most were uncle long and the others, but he didn't dare to hate them, so he could only blame his anger on the Dragon Emperor and the Phoenix King.

Not long after, the three beast Kings, who all had hatred in their hearts, began to fight in the huge cage.

When they saw the three beasts killing each other, the crowd was stunned for a moment. When they came back to their senses, someone immediately went to inform uncle long and the others.

However, when uncle long and the others heard this news, they didn't think much of it.

Fight! Fight! It's healthier to fight! And keeping the three of them in the same cage was to make them kill each other!

In the end, uncle long and the others heard that the three Beastie fought very fiercely and were all injured quite badly. However, no one cared how badly they were injured.

Time passed.

Three months after the Dragon Emperor, the Phoenix King, and The White Tiger King were locked up in cages, ice soul received the news and went to see them with Bing Yao.

One couldn't blame him for not having access to information. The main reason was that he had also brought his son into closed-door cultivation recently. After all, his son's strength was too low now, and the ice Phoenix was a Beastie that didn't really like to cultivate. Thus, he could only force his son to cultivate hard.

However, he didn't dare to push his son too hard. Otherwise, little Ice Phoenix would disown him as a father in a rage. Where would he go to cry then?

Holding the ice Phoenix in front of the giant cage, Ice Spirit took a look and shook his head.

These three guys had betrayed their King, and didn't they end up like this now? Originally, as Beastie himself, he did not want to see Beastie being treated like this. However, facing these three people, he could not sympathize with them at all.

He brought this upon himself!

"Father, why have they been locked up?" Bing Yao blinked her clear blue eyes, looking at the three people in front of her and asking in confusion. It had not been long since it was awakened by Leng ruoxue, so it was not clear about the grudges between Leng ruoxue and the others and these three fellows. No one had told it about it, so it was extremely curious at this moment.

"If you do something wrong, you'll be locked up." Ice Spirit said.

"Oh! So they had done something wrong? However, wouldn't it take up a lot of space to lock him up? it was better to just kill him directly! It's good to save effort. " Bing Yao tilted her head and seemed to be talking to herself.

Upon hearing this, Ice Spirit broke out in a cold sweat.

He didn't expect his son to have violent genes! However, this was more like the son of Ice Spirit! Ice Spirit said narcissistically.

The conversation between the father and son had successfully alarmed the three dejected people in the cage who had long been tortured to the point of losing their temper.

The Dragon Emperor and the other two were stunned the moment they raised their heads.

"You, you ... " After coming back to his senses, the Dragon Emperor stammered. This person, this person is not ...

"What about me? What, you want to pretend you don't know him?" Ice Spirit sneered. In fact, he had seen the three little fellows in the cage before. They were once considered his juniors, but ever since they betrayed their old friends, they had become thorns in his eyes.

"You're ... Senior ice soul?" The Phoenix King could not believe it and asked carefully.

"I'm an Ice Spirit. As for your senior, I'm not worthy of it. " Ice Spirit did not give the Phoenix King any face.

"Senior, we ... We were forced to do so back then." The Phoenix King knew what the ice Spirit was angry about, so she could only speak pitifully in an attempt to gain the ice Spirit's sympathy.

Unfortunately, Ice Spirit hated betrayal the most in his life, so it was impossible for him to forgive the three of them. It was not up to him to decide whether he would let them go or not. Therefore, the Phoenix King had expressed the wrong feelings.

However, when Bing Yao heard this, she asked curiously, "You have no choice. Who forced you?"

"It's rime ice. She's forcing us, and if we don't do as she says, she'll kill us. " The Phoenix King thought that there was a way to turn the situation around and said to Bing Yao with tears in her eyes. If she didn't hear wrongly, this little Qilin was the son of Ice Spirit, right? If she could win the sympathy of this little Qilin, she felt that she should still have a chance to get out of this cage.

However, who knew that Bing Yao would only say with a face full of regret, "What a pity. Why didn't that old woman say that I would kill you if you did as I said?"

What was the meaning of this? The Phoenix King was dumbfounded.

Then, she heard Bing Yao say fiercely, "Bastard! My father abandoned me so that he wouldn't be threatened by that old woman, but you cowards did unforgivable things just to live! Why don't you all just go to hell! In little xuexue's words, it's a waste of food for you dead things to live!"

"Father! Destroy them! I don't want to see them!" Bing Yao turned around and said to Bing po with a bitter expression.

"Alright!" Ice Spirit wouldn't refuse his son's request. He knew that his son probably felt the same way and felt wronged.

How detestable! The father-son relationship that he had tried so hard to mend must not be worsened by these three idiots!

Seeing more and more divine power gathering in Ice Spirit's hand, the Phoenix King and the other two's hearts started to beat wildly.

The Phoenix King had never even dreamed that because of a few words from him, that little Qilin would want to kill him. The White Tiger King and the Dragon Emperor, who had been innocently implicated by her, were also extremely depressed.

For the first time, the three of them realized that they were so close to death!

A heavy pressure slowly enveloped the three of them, making them feel as if their breathing was heavy. A deathly silence and suffocating atmosphere pressed down on the three of them.

"Senior, please spare the beast!" Just when the three of them felt that they were about to die, a familiar and hateful voice rang in their ears.

"What, you don't want to kill them?" Ice soul asked in a bad tone as she glanced at uncle long.

"Senior, you misunderstand. How could I not want to kill them? "It's just that Xue 'er needs beasts to train her beast taming skills, so ..."Uncle long quickly explained. He only finished half of his sentence, but he believed that Ice Spirit would understand.

"Alright! Then I'll spare their lives for now. I'll kill them after Xue 'er is done using them. " Ice Spirit said considerately.

"That's not a problem," Uncle long promised.

Just like that, the fate of the Phoenix King and the other two were decided.

They would first train Leng ruoxue with the beast taming technique. After the beast taming technique was used up, they would be handed over to Ice Spirit. When uncle long and ice Spirit decided the fate of these three, they did not even consider the thoughts of their respective clans.

When the Phoenix King and the other two heard this, their faces instantly turned as pale as paper. The White Tiger King couldn't take the shock and fainted.

Ice soul shook his head even more violently.

Such a person who was afraid of death actually dared to do something like betraying. It was really unimaginable!

Sighing, ice soul held her son in disgust and left quietly.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue, who was cultivating hard in her bracelet, had no idea that uncle long and the rest had captured the Dragon Emperor and Phoenix King and were preparing to let her tame them.

However, she couldn't pay attention to that right now. At this time, she was fully absorbing the spiritual energy in the bracelet that was so dense that it was almost solid, in order to feed her huge appetite.

However, after absorbing it for nearly three months, she found that the spiritual energy in her body was only a little thicker than a strand of hair. This fact made her extremely depressed.

She could not help but summon green vessel. Leng ruoxue asked gloomily, ""Green vessel, with this absorption method, I think it will take at least a thousand years to store enough spiritual Qi."

She had long known that she needed an enormous amount of spiritual energy, so even if she was not yet perfect in alchemy and other aspects, she had decided to save enough spiritual energy first, and then specialize in other things. But now, it had only been three months, and she was depressed!

"Sister, calm down! You have the chaotic body, so it's normal for you to need a lot of spiritual energy. The heaven defying Arts is no ordinary technique, so it's only natural that you need even more. Besides, this is a path that you must take. Once you've cultivated the heaven-defying art to the great circle of the ninth stage, not only can you go to the nine nether nether prison to find the demonic man, but you can also take revenge for your old master!" Qing Jue's face was filled with anticipation.

He believed that these two reasons were enough to support his sister's will and make her work harder in her cultivation.

As expected, after hearing Qing Jue's words, Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes shone with determination. Then, she said in frustration, "Qing Jue, I will work hard in my cultivation! I won't let my thoughts run wild!"

"That's more like it! Sister, you can do it!" Qing Jue clenched his small fist and encouraged.

Leng ruoxue nodded and closed her eyes to absorb the spirit Qi.

Qing Jue only nodded in satisfaction and left when he saw the large amount of spiritual energy in the bracelet rushing into his sister's body from all directions.

At the same time, the evildoers in the nine nether nether prison also learned that Xue 'er was cultivating in seclusion. Although Ming GE didn't pass on his words, he still felt excited when he knew that Xue 'er was working so hard to cultivate so that she could come to see him as soon as possible.

He also needed to work hard! He would try his best to find trouble with the laws of heaven and earth!

"You bastard!" Since he dared to separate him and Xue 'er, he had to be mentally prepared for his revenge! Although he had been quiet for a while, it didn't mean that he had forgotten what the laws of heaven and earth had done to him!

Chapter 2824 Chaotic World \(1\)

Since he couldn't see Xue 'er, it seemed like he could only go and accompany the laws of heaven and earth.

With this thought in mind, the demon's smile became even more brilliant, but the dark purple lightning in the distance couldn't help but shiver. The laws of heaven and earth in the chaos further away also began to feel uneasy for no reason.

However, the uneasiness in its heart was transmitted back by the lightning that he had arranged to monitor the evildoer. This made it wonder if that guy had come up with some kind of trick again.

It secretly opened a window in the vast chaos and looked down. When it found that everything was normal, it heaved a sigh of relief.

It was still alright! It was still alright! Although the demonic man often insulted it, at least he had not lost his mind and done anything irredeemable. It was relieved.

In fact, it didn't want to be a villain and break up a couple! However, as a rule that was born from chaos and was responsible for executing the laws of heaven and earth, it had to do so. Who asked that guy to be a dangerous person with a strong dark attribute? If he was really allowed to wander around, the whole world would probably be paralyzed! In order to prevent this from happening, it could only control the movement of the dangerous people within the nine nether prison, which was the most suitable place for the evil man to live.

Thinking about it carefully, the laws of heaven and earth felt that everything they did was based on a good reason and that it was only natural.

Unfortunately, the evildoer would not think this way, nor would he be grateful for its dedication!

After summoning mu li, the demon didn't say anything. He just quietly looked at mu li. Mu li, who was originally calm, became uneasy, but he didn't say anything.

In the end, mu li couldn't help but ask, "My Lord, did I do something wrong?"

When mu li asked this question, his little heart trembled and he tried to recall his recent performance. Finally, he confirmed that he had not done anything to make his Lord unhappy! He was sure!

Then what was his Lord trying to do now?

Mu li thought about it gloomily. Could it be that some blind person had offended his Lord? But something was wrong! Recently, his Lord was going through menopause, and as his subordinates, they all tried to stay as far away as possible. When there was nothing, they absolutely did not dare to appear easily to make his Lord unhappy. So, he really couldn't think of what kind of temper his Lord was having.

Could it be that her menopause had worsened?

Thinking of this possibility, the worry in mu Li's heart increased. He deeply felt that without Leng ruoxue, that demon, to restrict his Lord, everything would be bad for them!

Sob ... Leng ruoxue, quickly appear! Otherwise, they would have a mental breakdown because of their master's menopause! But now, mu li felt that he was developing in the direction of mental illness.

After the demon sized up mu li, he asked indifferently, "How's your life recently? How's your life?"

What was the meaning of this? His Lord was actually concerned about their lives? Most of the time, his Lord was like a sheep to them. Unless it was necessary, he never cared about their life and death, not to mention now, he was so caring for them!

This was not normal! This was definitely not normal!

With this thought in mind, mu li carefully and sneakily sized up the evildoer with the corner of her eyes.

Oh! Just by looking at his appearance, his Lord was as usual! Inside! It couldn't be seen with the eyes! Based on his understanding of his Lord, his Lord's words today were definitely abnormal.

'Master ... Could it be that he missed Leng ruoxue so much that he went crazy?'

This ... Could this be a sign of the initial stage of mental illness?

He peeked at mu li, who was letting his imagination run wild, and he was deeply worried about the health of his Lord.

Shouldn't we find an Alchemist to take a look at his Lord's illness? Mu li thought to himself, but then he realized that there was no Alchemist in the netherworld prison! Could it be that he had to sneak through the divine realm? However, he believed that no Alchemist would be willing to come here!

Al! Mu li was so conflicted that he sighed.

Facing such a worried expression from his subordinate, the demon asked in confusion, "What's wrong? life hasn't been going well recently?"

Which aspect? The demon was laughing evilly in his heart!

When mu li heard this, the hidden bitterness on her face deepened.

It would be a wonder if it could go as he wished! One must know that they were on tenterhooks every day, afraid that their Lord would flip out for no reason! Mu li secretly complained in his heart, but he definitely did not dare to say this in front of his master.

Seeing mu Li's bitter and constipated expression flashing on his face from time to time, the demon deliberately misunderstood and put on a good master's posture. He asked with concern, "Do you want me to arrange a few women for you?"

Why would he arrange for a woman? Mu li was confused when she heard this!

Could it be that the Lord was trying to match a couple randomly? That's not right! His Lord had never liked to meddle in this kind of thing!

"Don't be embarrassed, it's normal for men and women to be in love. " Seeing that mu li just widened her eyes and looked at him in disbelief, the demon thought that mu li was embarrassed and consoled her very considerately.

Who knew that after mu li heard this, she wanted to kneel down in front of her Lord.

"My Lord, I'm not embarrassed." Mu li wanted to cry, but no tears came out. She was wailing in her heart. Don't misunderstand!

However, the demon had obviously misunderstood, and the misunderstanding was very deep. He nodded and said, "Since that's the case, I'll make the arrangements and find you a few good ones! Al! You're not young anymore, but you're still alone. I can't bear to see you like this!"

"..." Don't be heartless! My Lord, you should be as cruel as before!

Mu li deeply felt that he was more used to the previous master. The current master who was so caring and considerate to his subordinates was definitely abnormal!

Could he have been switched?

Thinking of this possibility, mu li carefully observed the demon again. But after sizing up his master, he finally confirmed that his master was still the original master, but the way he did things was a little different!

"My Lord, I, I don't want a woman!" Seeing that his Lord had not been switched, mu li had to bite the bullet and refuse.

"It's fine even if it's a man. " The demon looked at mu li deeply and said.

"..." He didn't want men either!

"My Lord ..." Mu li burst into tears. My Lord, don't be so considerate! He really couldn't afford it.

"You're welcome. This is something I should have done for you!" Sighing, the evildoer said with an 'I've failed my duty' expression.

"Master, you've already done very well. As for the personal life of this subordinate, let us arrange it ourselves!" Mu li carefully suggested.

"But I've been very bored recently. If you don't let me handle this matter, what else can I do?" The demon looked at mu li with a face full of resentment and said sadly.

Uh ...

Mu li was a little annoyed!

Chapter 2825 Chaotic World \(2\)

He thought to himself, master, you're bored because you're pushing everything to me! If his Lord was willing to take over jiuyou city, he could guarantee that his Lord would not have the time to be bored! However, he didn't dare to say it out loud, so he could only suggest, ""My Lord, do you want me to hand over jiuyou city's Affairs to you?"

"Don 't! I'm not interested in the affairs of jiuyou city!" The demon refused without even thinking.

Upon hearing this, mu li wanted to cry to death!

He knew it!

Looking at the situation, his Lord was determined to interfere in his private life! Mu li was extremely depressed and racked his brains to think about what other way to make his Lord give up interfering in his life.

However, no matter how much he thought about it, he could only think of Leng ruoxue.

Unless Leng ruoxue appeared in an instant, no one would have the ability to attract his Lord's attention! Sob ... Was he destined to be chased and blocked by a group of annoying women in the future? Thinking of this possibility, mu li couldn't help but shudder!

Women are Tigers! After witnessing Leng ruoxue's Valiance, it could be said that he no longer had any thoughts about women! She even thought that being single was pretty good! After that, would he still have the chance to continue doing whatever he wanted?

The thought of one or more women interfering in his life and pointing fingers at him in the future made him feel disgusted!

No! He would never allow such a thing to happen to him!

After thinking for a while, mu li forced a smile and asked patiently, ""Then what else is the Lord interested in?" Other than arranging a woman or man for him?

"I'm also quite interested in finding trouble with the rules of the heaven and earth. However, compared to finding trouble with the rules of the heaven and earth, I think it's easier to arrange a few women for you. So, which one do you think I should choose?" The demon asked with an evil smile.

"My Lord, I will definitely support you in finding trouble with the laws of the world! It was true! I swear on my loyalty that I will absolutely support your actions!" After listening to his Master's words, mu li immediately broke out in a cold sweat. However, in order to not die, he had to fearlessly sell out the rules of heaven and earth. Otherwise, he would be the master's toy!

"Support me? How do you want to support me?" The demon asked with a smile.

"This, this ..." Mu li was a little speechless. How could she support him? His small arms could not twist the thigh of the law of heaven and earth, so he could only support his Lord with words. However, he had already realized that what his Lord wanted was not just verbal support.

For a moment, mu li felt a deep pain in her balls again!

He felt that he had been tricked! I'm afraid this is the Lord's ultimate goal! All those things about caring about his life and finding a few women for him might just be a smoke bomb that his Lord had thrown out. Sob ... His Lord was too bad!

It had to be said that mu li was right! The demon had gone through so much trouble just to lure mu li into his trap, although he could also use his authority to force his subordinates to agree with his decision. However, he believed that he was a Democratic Lord, so he could not force his subordinates to do something dangerous.

At the same time, he also knew that once his plan was known by mu li, who was occasionally a little old-fashioned, it would inevitably cause strong opposition from the other party. Moreover, mu li was his left and right arm, so he naturally had to consider the other party's opinion.

As such, he picked the thing that mu li was most afraid of and attacked! Mu li had fallen for the trap.

After thinking for a long time, mu li sighed and asked, ""My Lord, how do you plan to find trouble with the laws of heaven and earth?"

Mu li believed that his Lord would not just scold the rules of heaven and earth like he did in the past. Otherwise, his Lord would not scheme against him like this.

Wu ... His Lord has been corrupted!

Mu li especially missed the Lord of the past N the Lord of the past was so obedient! But now, the master was very, very bad! And this was definitely led astray by that human, Leng ruoxue! Otherwise, why would his Lord have so many thoughts!

"I plan to bring you all to the nest of the laws of heaven and earth," the demon said.

When mu li heard this, she blinked and blinked again. Seeing that her Lord had a serious expression the whole time, he felt a headache again! My Lord! Isn't the law of the heaven and earth's lair also your birthplace? Where could small fries like them go?

His Lord's thoughts made mu li speechless for a while. In fact, he was too lazy to even ridicule her. As a matter of fact, to the people of nine nether nether nether prison who were born and raised there, that place was undoubtedly mysterious. The laws of heaven and earth were a rather high and mighty existence to them. Now, his Lord actually said that he would take them to the lair of the laws of heaven and earth. This, this ...

Mu li felt a mouthful of blood stuck in his throat. He couldn't swallow it down, and his face turned red. In the end, he finally swallowed the mouthful of blood. After taking a long deep breath, he finally calmed down and looked at his master helplessly. He said faintly, "My Lord, I'm afraid we can't go there."

"Don't worry, as long as I'm here, you guys can go. " The demon said calmly.

"But ..." They won't get hurt? Wouldn't he lose his life? Although mu li really wanted to ask this, he swallowed these questions when he saw his Lord's confident expression.

As a loyal subordinate, since his Lord wanted to go, he naturally had to accompany his Lord at the risk of his life. When he secretly disclosed the news to the city Masters who were guarding the nine nether nether prison, he was surprised to find that those bastards were more excited and expectant than him! He was even more eager and eager to try.

These bastards! Was he in such a hurry to find trouble with the laws of the heaven and earth? Weren't they afraid that the laws of heaven and earth would take revenge?

Of course, this was because the muli was oversensitive.

The laws of heaven and earth were the beings that were given by chaos to control Order. They were extremely self-disciplined and naturally wouldn't do whatever they wanted like the demons! And if it really used public office for private revenge, it would probably be the first to be obliterated by the laws! Therefore, as the representative of the laws of heaven and earth, even in the face of the provocation of a monster, he could only silently endure it! More importantly, it would never have thought that the evildoer would bring his subordinates to its territory in such an aggressive manner.

That's right, the only living being in the chaotic world was itself. The evildoer and the others who were born from the chaotic world also had their own missions. Therefore, they had always regarded the chaotic world as their own home. When they first saw the evildoer leading a large number of people here, their surprise was self-evident!

"W-why are you here?" Filled with shock and uneasiness, the laws of heaven and earth transformed into a ball of dark purple lightning and floated in front of the demon and the others, sizing them up.

The large group of people in front of him, other than the demon's ruddy face and his refreshed complexion, all of them were pale and weak. However, this was normal! After all, this was no ordinary space. This place was a stretch of Primal Chaos, and it was not a place where these fellows could survive. Since they had come here, they would naturally have to pay a certain price.

Chapter 2826 Chaotic World \(3\)

This was similar to altitude sickness when ordinary people went from a low altitude to a high altitude. Of course, this was not something that could be compared to altitude sickness. If the demonic man in front of him had not protected his subordinates with his divine power, they would have been killed by the violent chaotic Qi!

"Can't I come?" The demon asked with a smile that was not a smile.

"Uh!" In the face of the demon's hostility, the rules of heaven and earth were ruthlessly choked. Then, they explained, "You've been away for a long time. I thought you wouldn't come back."

"I didn't want to come back at first, but I've been bored recently, so I gave my subordinates some benefits and went to the chaos World for a tour!" The demon laughed.

Hearing this, the rules of heaven and earth wanted to curse!

F * ck! A swim? To bring a large number of subordinates here, you must be lying to a ghost! The regulations of the heaven and earth did not believe the demon's words at all. After all, its intelligence was not low, so how could it be deceived by a demon with a few words?

"This place isn't suitable for them." After a long silence, the laws of heaven and earth finally said.

"I know, but with me around, they can still stay here for a while." The demon replied with a smile.

F * ck! Alright, your sister! The regulations of the heaven and earth were enraged. This guy clearly wanted to set up camp here! It knew that the despicable man in front of it had brought all his elite subordinates here, and those who were left in the nine nether prison were just some small fries! It was hateful that the other party was too mysterious. It had only discovered everything when they were at its door!

Sob ... The laws of heaven and earth are very sad!

If it had tears, it really wanted to cry!

You can't bully people like this, okay? No, you can't bully the rules of the world like this, okay?

In fact, even though it could sometimes use the rules of heaven and earth to restrain the man in front of it, most of the time, it could not do anything to this guy. After all, it was at the same level as the guy in front of him. However, it was in charge of the rules of heaven and earth, and all living creatures in the world were restricted by the rules. Therefore, it had some innate advantages when facing a demon. However, these innate advantages were only useful when the demon violated the rules. Usually, it could only pretend to be a grandson in front of this guy! Who asked this guy's destructive power to be unparalleled?

At this moment, he had come to the chaotic world. It couldn't refuse him. After all, this was the place where the Dark Lord was born. However, it really couldn't say "welcome". After all, the other party did not come with good intentions!

"That ... How long do you guys plan to stay?" After a long time, the laws of heaven and earth asked.

"We'll see! Perhaps he'll stay here until Xue 'er becomes a Divine Master!" The demon laughed in a particularly carefree manner. At this moment, he was sure that the laws of heaven and earth must be very depressed. After all, he did not violate the laws of heaven and earth when he returned to the chaotic world. Therefore, the laws of heaven and earth could do nothing to him.

As expected, after hearing these words, the laws of heaven and earth became extremely worried. It even wanted to kneel in front of the demon and beg him to leave quickly! However, it didn't have a physical body. As long as the other party didn't violate the rules of heaven and earth, it couldn't use the power of the rules. This kind of thing made it secretly vomit blood.

How detestable! How could there be such a hateful guy in the world, and this guy had an inexplicable and inexplicable relationship with it?

They were considered brothers! But how could there be such a detestable brother in this world? At this moment, it missed the gentle Yu very much. Unfortunately, that guy ...

After a moment of worry, the regulations of heaven and earth said helplessly, "Since that's the case, you can stay here! However, don't say I didn't warn you that your subordinates won't be able to stay here for long. Their bodies are too weak to withstand the violent energy here!"

Since he couldn't drive him away, he would just accept it! Sobs ... The heaven Earth Law that had to compromise for the sake of the greater good really wanted to cry.

"I know, I won't let them stay here for too long, but I'm definitely going to stay! With me by your side, we can be considered as companions. Otherwise, you'll be so lonely living here!" The demon said kindly.

Unfortunately, the regulations of the heaven and earth did not appreciate it at all. They only looked at the demon with hidden bitterness before it turned around and floated away.

"Is that the true body of the laws of the world? It's a lightning ball?" After the heaven Earth Law left, the pale-faced mu li asked in a low voice.

Just now, when the superior laws of heaven and earth were present, he didn't even dare to breathe loudly, nor did he dare to look around for fear of angering the laws of heaven and earth. However, as soon as the other party left, he couldn't control his gossiping heart. The uneasiness he had when he came here before had disappeared without a trace. At the same time, he began to look around.

Seeing the thick gray fog in front of him, mu li sighed. This is the chaotic world? Was it a place where their master, Divine Master, and the laws of heaven and earth were nurtured?

It was really too cold and desolate! There was no popularity at all! Mu li really couldn't understand. How could the laws of heaven and earth tolerate tens of thousands of years of loneliness and live here alone? At this moment, he even sympathized with the law of the heaven and earth that had once been high and mighty in his heart! It seemed that it was not necessarily a good thing to obtain an ability that others could not!

However, despite his sympathy, he still felt that there was a considerable distance between the rules of heaven and earth and himself, so he still did not dare to make a loud noise.

When the demon heard mu Li's words, he only smiled faintly and said, ""True body? I guess so! However, that's no ordinary lightning ball. "

Seeing mu Li's blank expression, the demon laughed evilly and said, ""If you don't believe me, you can try to attack me!"

He didn't dare to!

Mu li glanced resentfully at his master, who was so bad, and his heart was already full of tears! Wu ... What kind of rotten idea did his Lord come up with! Asking him to attack the laws of the heaven and earth, wasn't this asking him to court death? He would probably die without an intact body.

"You also know that the Mistress of the Dark World is very bad?" Suddenly, a voice rang in mu Li's ears, and he was shocked. Wasn't this the sound of the laws of heaven and earth? What, you want to sow discord?

Mu li instantly raised his vigilance, and then he peeked at his Lord, who had a faint smile on his face. He sincerely prayed that he was the only one who heard this! Otherwise, his Lord would skin him alive!

However, his thoughts were obviously wishful thinking, because the rules of heaven and earth were said in front of everyone. Suddenly, except for the demon, everyone's expression became strange. They couldn't help but look at each other, their eyes filled with doubts. Who said that the Lord is bad?"

When mu li saw this, she lowered her head guiltily, not daring to look into the demon's eyes. However, the demon obviously did not take the words of the rules of heaven and earth seriously. He laughed very lewdly and said, "So what if I'm bad? Xue 'er loves my bad side!"

Nauseating! Narcissism!

This was the same reaction of everyone present, including the laws of the world.

When the laws of heaven and earth saw that his instigation had failed, they left quietly, just like when they came.

As soon as the heaven Earth Law was gone, the demon directly said to his subordinates behind him, ""You idiots, be careful of whatever you're thinking! You have to know that this place has already been dominated by the laws of heaven and earth, so you can't hide your thoughts from it. Besides, that guy is also a famous Peeping Tom! So, you'd better be more alert!"

"Yes!" His subordinates replied gloomily. It seemed that they couldn't let their thoughts run wild while they were here! Otherwise, they would be provoked by the shameless laws of the heaven and earth ... At the thought of this, everyone couldn't help but shiver. Mu li immediately retracted his thoughts and didn't dare to complain.

Sob ... This place was really not safe! Mu li really wanted to say that he wanted to go home! However, when he saw how excited the people around him were, he couldn't bring himself to say such useless words.

Al! I'll stay here for the time being! Mu li thought helplessly.

At this moment, the demon waved his hand and said to his subordinates, "Alright! Let's not waste any more time, everyone, get to work!"

As soon as they heard the word "start," all of his subordinates immediately took action. Countless types of wood, stones, and forging tools were moved out of their storage rings, and they were quickly piled up into a mountain.

Upon seeing this, the laws of heaven and earth that had already disappeared couldn't help but appear again to make their presence known. They asked in a dumbfounded manner, "Mistress of the Dark World, what are you guys doing?"

"Of course we're going to build a Palace. Otherwise, how are we going to live with so many people? Moreover, with this Palace, my subordinates can also stay here with me for a while longer." The demon explained calmly, but after hearing the rules of heaven and earth, he was in a mess!

Your sister! It was already a light punishment to say that they were going to set up camp! This was the rhythm of a dove occupying The Magpie's Nest! Although this was once the birthplace of the Mistress of the Dark World, that guy's territory was no longer here. This place now completely belonged to him. But now, this despicable man in front of him had come back to the chaotic world to fight for territory with him!

This was really something that uncle could tolerate, but aunt couldn't!

The laws of the heaven and earth felt that if it could even swallow this, then it would be too cowardly, right?

The laws of heaven and earth, who didn't want to be bullied like this, immediately roared in anger, "Mistress of the Dark World, aren't you being too much of a bully? I didn't say anything when you brought your subordinates here, but now, you actually want to build a Palace here. Do you still have my existence in your eyes? Do you think I'm easy to bully?"

After saying these words, the dark purple ball of lightning floating in the chaos began to tremble violently to show its anger ...

Chapter 2827 Don't Leave Any Regrets In Life \(1\)

As it raged, the entire chaotic world trembled. Mu li and the others were the first to suffer. The weaker ones among them spat out blood. Seeing this, the demon waved his hand and covered his subordinates with his protection. Only then did mu li and the others realize that they had saved their lives!

Sobs ... That kind of existence was indeed not something they could fight against! At this moment, they deeply experienced it. However, they didn't regret coming here. After all, such an opportunity was too rare, especially when they saw their master's magnificent feat of angering the regulations of heaven and earth to the point that smoke was coming out of his seven orifices. It was probably a rare opportunity in their lifetime.

It was worth it! He could die in peace!

Many loyal subordinates thought to themselves. Under the protection of his master, they also had the opportunity to observe the law of heaven and earth of wrath up close.

Unfortunately, no matter how they looked, they could only see the dark purple ball of lightning jumping up and down in front of them, looking extremely excited.

At this moment, mu li and the others heard their master's indifferent reply, ""Are you even human?"

"I ..." It really wasn 't!

The regulations of the heaven and earth were ruthlessly choked. It stammered for a long time, but it could not lie with its eyes open and say that it was human! More importantly, lying was a very serious crime for it, so it couldn't just lie!

Wuwu ... Bad guy! Scoundrel! Those who bullied the laws of the world were all bad guys! At this moment, the law of heaven and earth, which was originally high and mighty in everyone's eyes, could no longer pretend to be high and mighty, because at this time, his heart and body were surrounded by deep resentment, and mu li and the others saw the beautiful dark purple lightning ball in front of them turn dark black.

This was ...

Your sister! It could actually change color!

Mu li and the others were shocked. It was said that creatures like chameleons existed in all realms. He did not expect that even the laws of heaven and earth had such abilities! Could it be that ... The laws of heaven and earth were related to chameleons?

Everyone couldn't help but let their thoughts run wild again. The laws of heaven and earth that could clearly sense their thoughts roared in anger, "You bastard! You're The Chameleons, your entire family are chameleons!"

'Damn it!' It couldn't do anything to the Mistress of the Dark World, but it could deal with a few small fries. The laws of heaven and earth did not believe in this! One had to know that in the entire chaotic world, the number of people who could bully it could be counted on one finger. A mere life form from the nine nether nether prison dared to laugh at it! This was preposterous!

When mu li and the others heard the cursing of the laws of the heaven and earth, they were completely stunned.

They ... Were being spied on again!

Sobs ... The laws of heaven and earth! How could he do such a shameless thing! Mu li and the others were quite worried, but the demon did not sympathize with them at all.

He had already warned them, but they still let their thoughts run wild.

However, since they were his subordinates, the evildoer would not allow others to bully them. Therefore, after his subordinates were scolded, he only smiled and asked the regulations of the heaven and earth, ""Little Tian, don't change your target and ignore my existence. Otherwise, I'll be angry."

Little Tian ...

Your sister! It was not called little Tian! The laws of heaven and earth were enraged. However, the demon did not think much of it and returned to the question,""Little Tian, you still haven't told me, are you even human?"

"I'm not, alright!" Hearing this, the laws of the heaven and earth roared in anger. The lightning ball that was not much bigger than a palm also trembled even more violently.

"It's not like that! Why do you sound so aggrieved? it's as if I've wronged you!" The demon said indifferently.

"You didn't wrong me ..." The heaven Earth Law gritted its teeth and whispered.

"Then I'm relieved. By the way, since you're not a human, you naturally don't need such a big place. I should be able to build a Palace here, right?" The demon asked with a smile.

"Build it! Let's build!" The laws of the heaven and earth roared helplessly before disappearing in a fit of anger.

After it left, mu li was still worried and asked,""My Lord, has that fellow left?"

"Let's go! Also, it's not called that guy. Please call it little Tian!" The demon cautiously reminded.

Mu li and the others were silent. Could they call him that? According to their senses, someone who was called little Tian by their master obviously didn't like this title!

However, since his Lord had said so, they naturally did not dare to not call out. However, mu li still asked carefully,""Master, can we build the palace now? Will that little Tian come out to stop us?"

"No, I understand little Tian. It usually only does this once. If it doesn't succeed, it will naturally give up. However, it should be able to find another way to create trouble for you. " The demon replied after thinking carefully about the nature of the laws of heaven and earth.

Mu li and the others were silent again.

Could he still continue to build like this? According to his Master's words, the rules of heaven and earth would appear again and be obstructed by all means!

"Don't be afraid, I'm here!" Seeing that his subordinates seemed to be a little frightened by his words, the demon quickly comforted them.

Alright! Mu li and the others nodded when they heard this. There was still his Lord! They were not afraid!

However, after they started, they realized that it was extremely difficult to build a Palace in the chaotic world! First of all, the foundation was a big problem.

The reason was that the foundation could not be fixed. The entire Foundation was floating in the air and could not be fixed.

Although experts would not build houses like ordinary people, who had to lay the foundation in the earth, the house floating in the air was located in the chaotic world where energy was unstable. If the spiritual Qi here went berserk, the palace would be crushed into pieces by the Furious spiritual Qi. Therefore, it would be best if the foundation could be fixed. It couldn't be fixed, and it definitely couldn't be like now, where the foundation was randomly floating in the chaosworld. If this continued, it was very likely that the palace that they had worked so hard to build would be gone when they left and came back ...

Thinking about the consequences, it was really a waste of manpower and money!

Mu li, who felt that no matter how much money he had, he couldn't waste it like this. He immediately reported this problem to his master. When the demon learned about it, he just smiled and said, "Stop your work for now. I'll have a heart-to-heart talk with Xiaotian."

After saying that, the demon disappeared, leaving behind a dumbfounded mu li.

Having a heart-to-heart talk with Xiaotian at this time?

My Lord! They were talking about the foundation! How can you not do your proper work? In a moment of anxiety, mu li secretly felt his stomach churn again. At the same time, the demon found the location of the laws of heaven and earth in the depths of a thick black fog.

At this moment, the laws of the world were secretly pleased with themselves. However, when it turned around and saw the demon standing behind it with an inexplicable expression, it was still shocked.

"What, feeling guilty?" Upon seeing this, the demon revealed an alluring smile.

"What do I have to be guilty about? um ... Why are you here?" The laws of heaven and earth asked calmly.

"I'm here to talk to you," The demon replied.

Chapter 2828 Don't Leave Any Regrets In Life \(2\)

"Do we have anything to talk about?" The laws of the heaven and earth were acting dumb.

The demon obviously didn't want to waste his breath on the rules of heaven and earth, so he warned them directly, "Do you think I don't know what you're doing? Little Tian, it's impossible for you to stop me from building a Palace here, so you'd better not play any tricks. Otherwise, if you anger me, you'll definitely not be able to bear the consequences!"

"You, what do you want?" After hearing the demon's words, the regulations of heaven and earth were a little afraid. However, it still asked, unwilling to give up.

"If you dare to stop me, I'll destroy this place!" The demon said coldly, his cold eyes shooting out a sinister aura.

"You, you can't do this! This is also where you were born, how can you?" The laws of heaven and earth roared in disbelief, and their voices were unusually sharp. It was really frightened by the evil man's ruthlessness.

"Why can't I? Although this is still the chaosworld, you should know that this place is no different from the divine world or the netherworld. It is a chaosworld that can not breed life, so it is not worthy of its name! The chaotic world at this time was at best a space that could accommodate you! Tell me, what do I not dare to destroy?" The demon laughed evilly.

"But, but this is where you were born ..." The regulations of heaven and earth emphasized in a low voice.

"That's why I've come back. I'm going to build a Palace here and come back to stay for a while when I'm free. Unfortunately, you don't want me to come back. You even want to occupy everything here for yourself. Tell me, what else can I do besides destroying this place?" The demon said with a helpless expression.

The evildoer at this moment was like an unlucky child whose parents' property had been robbed by his brother, and the laws of the world were the bad guys who wanted to monopolize his parents' inheritance. The fight between the two brothers was naturally not like that of ordinary people. The evildoer even wanted to destroy the place as soon as he made his move!

Seeing that he was speaking so seriously, those who also understood the rules of heaven and earth were also afraid. They had no choice but to compromise and promise, "I'll agree to let you build the palace!"

"That's a good girl! It would've been better if this had happened earlier. It wouldn't have been a waste of our time. " The demon reached out and touched the dark purple ball of lightning as if he was touching the head of the laws of heaven and earth. After touching it, he disappeared.

As soon as the demon left, the laws of heaven and earth became extremely sad again! Sob ... Why was it so useless? That scoundrel was so scared that he compromised!

The regulations of the heaven and earth were very depressed, so much so that they didn't appear for a long time.

The demon returned to where Mu li and the others were and directly told mu li, ""We can continue with the construction!"

After mu li and the others heard this, they couldn't believe it at first, but they also knew that their Lord wouldn't play with them with such a thing, so they began to work with great interest.

After the actual construction, they were surprised to find that the foundation could actually be fixed in a certain place! Although it was still not as stable as the real ground, at least he would not float randomly!

With this discovery, everyone was even more excited! In less than a month, a Grand Palace that was exactly the same as the main hall in Jiuyou city was completed in the chaotic world.

In order to bring joy to the gray chaotic world, they chose a festive red color as the main color of the palace. Of course, it was not the bright red, but a rather deep red that gave people a high-end atmosphere.

The monster even named the palace 'snow Palace' in a nauseating manner!

Originally, this Palace should have been called love snow Palace. However, mu li and the others felt that it was too mushy and that Leng ruoxue might not like a name like love snow Palace. Hence, they mustered up their courage and suggested to their master to remove the word "love". Fortunately, the evildoer accepted their suggestion in the end, and they heaved a sigh of relief.

Otherwise, they would feel a little uncomfortable if they had to go in and out of the love snow Palace every day and even stay there.

After the palace was completed and the name was hung up, mu li and the others naturally had to follow the tradition and celebrate. The demons who were in a good mood also let them be.

When everything was ready, everyone celebrated in their hearts. However, in the thick fog in the distance, a dark purple lightning bolt flickered with electric sparks. It was in a bad mood.

Needless to say, this bolt of lightning was the embodiment of the laws of heaven and earth. Although it had not appeared for a while, its every move was under his control.

At this moment, the regulations of the heaven and earth felt depressed and even more desolate as they listened to the bustling noise in the distance.

It was so envious and jealous!

Although it was the representative of the laws of the world, it had never had the chance to enjoy everything that humans enjoyed. It was only because of the constraints of the laws that it was unable to transform. As the Supreme law of the world, it knew everything about humans, including food, clothing, and all kinds of recreations. However, it had no way to experience it personally!

At this moment, it truly felt the imbalance in its heart.

After all, they were all born from chaos. Although they had different duties, why could the demonic man enjoy delicious food and live in a spacious and gorgeous Palace, while he could? He spent his entire life wandering in every corner of the chaos World, exposed to the wind and the sun ...

Thinking of this, the heaven Earth law's heart was filled with tears!

It was not fair! This was too unfair!

At this moment, the laws of heaven and earth were extremely resentful, so much so that the demon and the others in the palace could clearly feel the chaos World shaking again.

The living room of the main hall began to shake.

"My Lord, is this an earthquake?" Mu li couldn't help but ask with a pale face.

When the demon heard this, he helplessly rolled his eyes at mu li, whose IQ had obviously dropped, and said, "There's no earthquake here. If there's really an earthquake, I'm afraid the entire world will be destroyed!"

"Then why is it shaking so badly! Wu ... My Lord, I haven't lived long enough! I don't want to die like this!" Hearing this, mu Li's face was full of tears.

"Don't worry! With me here, you won't die. " Hearing this, the evildoer really wanted to say that it was too embarrassing for him to not know this subordinate.

After saying this, mu Li's face finally calmed down. Then, the demon shouted into the distance,""Xiaotian, I know you're lonely. Do you want to eat something?"

Little Tian? Was Xiaotian throwing a tantrum again? Mu li was stunned.

Who knew that just as the demon asked this question, the entire chaosworld would tremble even more violently. Clearly, little Tian was angry! He was still cursing in his heart, your sister! Could it eat it? Could it eat it?

"Master, I'm afraid little Tian is angry." After a long time, mu li couldn't help but remind him in a low voice.

"I know!" The demon smiled faintly.

Why are you still provoking me when I know you? Mu li was speechless and didn't know what to say. This was obviously a love-hate relationship! As soon as he thought of this, the dark purple ball of lightning suddenly appeared in front of him and shook it violently. It roared,""Your sister! Who would love to kill him!"

Chapter 2829 Don't Leave Any Regrets In Life \(3\)

After saying that, the dark purple Thunderbolt ball hit mu Li's head with all its strength, as if it didn't hate him. It hit him so hard that he saw stars.

Mu li, who was shining with golden light, only had one thought in his mind. He had been scolded and beaten by the laws of heaven and earth! Wu ... Little Tian wouldn't use public office to take personal revenge, would he? Mu li was very worried.

His thoughts were naturally seen through by the laws of heaven and earth. Then, the roar of the laws of heaven and earth rang in his ears again,""Your sister, I want to take revenge for a private matter, Hmph! You're lucky!"

After roaring, the law of heaven and earth floated in front of the demon again. It glared at him fiercely and disappeared in anger.

"Al! I've already warned you not to let your thoughts run wild. " Seeing that his subordinate was still in a daze, the evildoer said with a face full of disappointment.

"Master ..." Mu li touched the swollen bump on his head and looked at his master with tears in his eyes, who was obviously gloating. His heart was full of tears.

He was definitely caught in the crossfire! If it wasn't for his Lord's words, how could he have let his thoughts run wild? Mu li was quite worried. He didn't say a word during the celebration, and he became mute. He was really too sad. Why was everyone bullying him?

At the same time, the laws of heaven and earth were also very sad. It even felt that they were bullying it! It had finally endured the end of the celebration, but it still couldn't feel happy.

Wu ... Look at the place where they live, the Golden walls are so magnificent and high-end! But what about him? Not only did it not have a fixed residence, but it could only float in the gray space. With such a comparison, its heart felt more and more unbalanced.

After thinking for a long time, it finally gathered its courage and appeared in front of the demon. When the demon saw it, he obviously showed a rather surprised expression.

"Is there something you need?" The demon smiled faintly.

"A little." The regulations of heaven and earth suddenly became awkward and started to circle around the demon.

"Tell me about it." The demon laughed evilly.

"Can you give me a room to stay in?" The laws of heaven and earth discussed. It naively thought that although it couldn't taste the delicious food, it could at least stay in a room and experience the fun of the human world, right? Otherwise, wouldn't it have lived in vain for so many years?

Al! Don't leave any regrets in life!

"You can, but you can't live here for free." The demon said with a smile.

"You want to take money?" The laws of the heaven and earth asked, already prepared. It had long guessed that this fellow would not let it off for no reason.

"I don't want money! What's the point of having money to people like us?" The demon said directly.

"Then what do you want? Other than letting you see Leng ruoxue and not going against the laws of heaven and earth, I can agree to anything else. " The laws of the heaven and earth stated their bottom line.

"After so many years, you should have collected a lot of good things, right? Those things aren't of much use to you, so how about you give them to me?" The demon clearly knew that this guy would rather not let him see Xue 'er, so he naturally would not be so insensible as to wait for rejection. More importantly, Xue 'er was currently in closed-door cultivation. Even if he went to the immortal world, he would probably not be able to see Xue' er. Thus, he would naturally not waste this rare opportunity to extort the laws of the world on something that she would not agree to.

However, when the regulations of heaven and earth heard the demon's words, they were still stunned. They could not help but say, "I did collect some things, but you can't use them. What's the use of them?"

"I can give it to Xue 'er! So, do you agree?" The demon asked calmly.

"Sure, but I want a fixed residence here. The kind that I can stay whenever I want." The laws of the heaven and earth said. It truly felt that those things were of no use to it. If it could use them to exchange for a room, it would not be a good choice.

"No problem. There will be a fixed room for you here. You can stay or leave whenever you want. " The demon said in a good mood, but he couldn't help but secretly complain in his heart. Where else could he find such a good thing like a butler who could look at a house for him without spending money? Moreover, the person who showed him the house was the famous law of heaven and earth that countless people wanted to curry favor with but could not!

Just like that, the two of them, each with their own thoughts, became roommates!

After that, mu li and the others also learned of this news. When everyone first heard that the lofty laws of the world were about to become their roommates, they were quite shocked and couldn't calm down for a long time. Later, when they finally calmed down, they didn't know how to get along with the existences of the laws of the world.

Even after the laws of the world had moved in, they were still in a state of confusion.

Sensing everyone's uneasiness, the regulations of heaven and earth only said one sentence, ""Let's get along in harmony! There's no need to treat it as a law of the world!"

With the other party's words, everyone truly relaxed.

However, in the beginning, no one dared to be presumptuous at all. Later on, when they saw that the laws of the heaven and earth were not as terrifying and unapproachable as the legends said, they gradually let down their guard. Mu li, in particular, was practically calling the laws of the heaven and earth his brother, and he even called them little Tian.

At first, when the laws of heaven and earth saw him like this, they were really quite annoyed. In fact, this was not what it meant by 'getting along'. However, after things were obviously developing in an abnormal direction, it suddenly felt that this feeling was quite novel, so gradually, it also showed signs of being assimilated by the muli.

When the demon saw that mu li had successfully infiltrated the enemy's camp, he privately instructed mu li to tell more love stories to the rules of heaven and earth when he was free in order to influence the unromantic guy.

After receiving this mission, mu li had a headache for a while. Who asked him to be a Hierarchy-level otaku? other than following his Lord, he had no interest in the opposite sex at all. If he were to tell love stories to the rules of heaven and earth, who also did not understand what love was, wasn't this the same as asking for his life?

However, he had no choice but to obey his Lord's orders. So, after he was so worried that his hair was about to turn white, he finally forced out a love story. He had even adapted this story based on his Lord and Leng ruoxue's matter!

After he explained it to the laws of the heaven and earth, the first reaction of the laws of the heaven and earth was to be at a loss.

He didn't understand a thing!

Later, after mu Li's many explanations, he finally understood the rules of heaven and earth a little.

After understanding it, the biggest sigh of the rules of heaven and earth every day was that love was not easy! It was a hundred times more difficult than cultivation.

Every time mu li heard it say this, she also felt the same way. ""That's right. So, we should all understand the relationship between his Lord and miss Leng.""

However, even though they understood, the laws of heaven and earth were still unwilling to let the two of them be together. At least not now! Seeing that the laws of heaven and earth were so stubborn, mu li could only sigh helplessly.

My Lord! I've tried my best!

Of course, the demon knew that mu li had tried his best. After all, the interaction between mu li and the laws of heaven and earth was under his eyes. Naturally, it could not be hidden from him! However, he did not get any results. This fact made him feel deeply conflicted.

Although he had thought of fixing the rules of the world more than once before coming here, it was quite difficult to implement. It was because that guy couldn't hit him, and it was useless to scold him. He didn't care about it at all, and he couldn't really destroy this place. So, other than threatening the rules of the world, he had no other way. Later on, he finally had the opportunity to lure the laws of heaven and earth, but he made no progress.

Not only that, but it also made the rules of heaven and earth have the habit of listening to stories. Now, that guy pestered mu li every day and asked mu li to tell him stories on purpose, causing mu li to hide here.

Looking at mu li, who was sitting on the chair carefully and looking scared, the demon helplessly asked, "How long are you going to hide? Do you really think that Xiaotian doesn't dare to come to me to find you?"

"My Lord, save me! I'm out of ideas, there's nothing more to say. Can you find someone else?" Mu li begged with tears in her eyes.

"It's not a problem to switch to another person, but you can't keep hiding from it, right? As far as I know, it is the closest to you, so I think it still likes to listen to your stories the most." The demon said after thinking for a while.

"My Lord, save me!" Mu Li's face turned pale when he heard that.

"How?" The demon asked with an evil smile.

"I ... I want to go home." Mu li said directly.

"Go home? You want to be a deserter? Or do you think that the laws of heaven and earth won't be able to find you after you return to jiuyou city?" The demon really didn't know what to say about mu Li's naivety. Sigh! How could he have such a stupid subordinate?

"Then, then what should we do?" After hearing the demon's words, mu li really had no idea. Little Tian would definitely be able to find him. Who asked him to be the law of heaven and earth?

Mu li wanted to cry but had no tears.

At this time, the demon looked at mu li deeply and said, "How about I send you to the divinity?"

"Divine realm? Little Tian can find me there too, right?" Mu li quickly reminded him.

"Xue 'er is there, it might not dare to appear." The demon also reminded.

"This ..." Mu li was out of ideas. With her master around, she was not afraid of the rules of heaven and earth. Why would she be afraid of Leng ruoxue?

Seeing through mu Li's thoughts, the demon explained, ""The laws of heaven and earth dare to appear in front of me because they have laws that can restrain me. But Xue 'er, unless Xue' er falls into their hands, it will be difficult for them to restrain me."

"Then I'll go!" Mu li said with determination. In reality, he was very clear that the reason his Lord had arranged for him to head to the divine world was largely related to Leng ruoxue. In order to be the messenger between his Lord and Leng ruoxue, he had long planned to head to the divine world. After all, he had a contract with his Lord, and their relationship was not something that others could compare to. It was only because he had been worried about his Lord and was afraid that his Lord would take it too hard that he had not been able to go. But now, in order to avoid little Tian, who loved to listen to stories, he had no choice but to go.

Chapter 2830 New Trend \(1\)

More importantly, even if he were to leave now, he would feel more at ease with his Lord, because his Lord was no longer as angry as before. His Lord was much calmer, and it seemed that he wanted to have a long battle with Xiaotian.

Thinking of this, mu li carefully said, ""My Lord, I'm leaving. If you have anything that makes you unhappy, please let me know at any time! Your subordinate will do his best to help you solve your problems!"

"I know." Mu Li's words made the demon quite speechless. Did he look like such an impulsive and unreliable person? Why would he need this wishy-washy Butler to remind him?

At this moment, the evildoer felt that the other party was treating him like a three-year-old child, and this fact made him quite helpless. However, the other party was concerned about him, so he could not blame her. Thus, he could only bear with it.

Hearing his master say this, mu li was truly relieved.

Not long after, the demon personally broke open the void and sent mu li away. The moment he broke through the void, the laws of heaven and earth immediately appeared with great vigilance. When it saw that it was not the demon who had left, it finally heaved a sigh of relief. However, when it saw that it was its good friend, mu li, who had left, it was still very worried.

Sob ... The best friend he could get along with was actually going to abandon him. The regulations of the heaven and earth were heartbroken. Seeing this, the demon smiled and comforted, ""There is no banquet that doesn't end, just like him and Xue 'er. Temporary separation is inevitable."

After hearing this, the regulations of the heaven and earth were deeply suspicious. Was this guy using public office to take revenge for private matters? However, mu li was his subordinate and not under his jurisdiction. He really couldn't interfere.

After some thought, the regulations of the heaven and earth carefully suggested, ""Mistress Dark, you have so many subordinates, can you give me a few?"

"Give you a few? Who do you like?" The demon asked directly, his tone was a little ambiguous.

"Mu li is not bad." The heaven Earth Law said with a guilty conscience.

"He can 'T. He's my right-hand man. If I give him to you, I'll lose a lot!" The demon shook his head and refused.

"I can use something to exchange for it!" The heaven Earth Law probed.

"That won't do either!" The demon still refused.

"There's no room for discussion?" The laws of heaven and earth asked, unwilling to give up.

"To be honest, mu Li's importance to me is second only to Xue 'er' S. So, do you think there's any room for discussion?" The demon asked with a faint smile.

Hearing him say this, how could the laws of heaven and earth not understand? In the next moment, the laws of heaven and earth turned around and left.

As he watched the law of heaven and earth leave, the demon summoned his subordinates and instructed them to come into contact with the law of heaven and earth more often. The benefits would naturally be great!

When his subordinates heard this, they were instantly excited.

From then on, the laws of heaven and earth no longer had the time to be lonely ...

At the same time, after Leng ruoxue went into closed-door cultivation, uncle long and the others in the God Realm had nothing to do other than to develop the demon City.

During this period, the dark family Alliance would be the most frequent visitors.

However, even so, Dongfang Yue and the others rarely showed any respect to the people from the dark family Alliance. Bing po had not even shown his face because he had to accompany his son in his closed-door cultivation.

One day, uncle long and the others were drinking tea and chatting in the garden as usual.

Suddenly, the sky changed color. It was pitch-black as if a storm was about to fall at any time. But strangely, uncle long and the others looked up at the sky for a long time, but not a single drop of rain fell.

At this moment, an incomparably powerful pressure suddenly appeared and pressed down heavily on everyone's hearts. Everyone could not help but feel their hearts sink.

'Who ... Who is this?'

What a powerful pressure. This sudden pressure made everyone want to kneel down and worship it. More importantly, this pressure gave them a familiar feeling.

Could it be the Dark Lord? The people present couldn't help but secretly guess.

"It's my Lord. " Ming GE, who had rushed over after hearing the pressure, said with certainty.

"The Mistress of the Dark World is here?" Uncle long and the others couldn't help but be overjoyed when they heard this, and they immediately became excited.

If the Mistress of the Dark World had really returned, then Xue 'er would definitely be very happy to see him after she came out of seclusion!

"I don't know," "I'm not sure," said Mingge as she looked up at the gloomy sky, which looked as if it could split open at any moment.

The sky was still gloomy. After waiting for a long time, the dark sky was like a monster that opened its mouth, tearing a hole that was half the width of a person.

An object suddenly fell from the monster's mouth and fell into the beautiful and clear Lake in front of uncle long and the others.

"....."

This scene immediately left everyone dumbfounded. They didn't know what to say. This object definitely wasn't the Mistress of the Dark World. The Mistress of the Dark World couldn't have fallen from the sky in such a sorry state.

When the thing in the lake stood up in an extremely sorry state and turned around, everyone was once again amazed.

This ... This person's style was simply too ... Natural. This person was mu li, whom they knew.

At this moment, mu Li's whole body was soaked. There were two clusters of seaweed hanging on his shoulders. On his head was a big golden fish that was constantly blowing bubbles. He could also vaguely see two huge crab pincers on mu Li's thighs ...

Basically, most of the creatures in the lake were here.

When mu li climbed ashore, everyone found a turtle the size of a millstone lying very steadily on his feet.

"Hey! Long time no see. " Seeing the crowd, mu li, who didn't realize how amazing his current appearance was, took the initiative to wave and greet everyone.

"Long, long time no see," Seeing that the crowd was still in shock, uncle long, who was the first to recover, could only stutter and greet them.

After saying that, he quickly lowered his head and laughed secretly.

Seeing that everyone present had lowered their heads and only their shoulders were twitching, mu li also felt that something was wrong. He asked with an innocent face, ""What's wrong with you guys? why are you so excited to see me?"

"Yes, yes, we're so excited!" Mingge couldn't hold it in any longer. As soon as he finished speaking, he held his stomach and laughed wildly. When his laughter reached its limit, he fell to the ground and rolled around.

"Then Why are you laughing?" Mu li asked without shame.

"Look at your image." The kind uncle long reminded.

After hearing this, mu li lowered his head and looked at it. He exclaimed, ""Argh! Oh my God! How could it be like this?"

Then, he hurriedly sent the big fish back into the lake, and then kicked the giant turtle into the lake. Finally, he paid attention to the two crabs.

However, the two big crabs were quite difficult to deal with. No matter what mu li did, they would not let go of his legs. In the end, mu li could only use his hands to break the pincers of the two crabs.
