

Crazy Wife 39

Chapter 39: King Kong Great Ape

“May I ask your good name, Miss?” Zhang Jian asked, thinking he was being very polite and authentic. He couldn’t help but convince himself that only he deserved to have such a stunning beauty.

Leng Ruoxue looked at the young master of the Anaconda Mercenary Group. He looks okay, but his character isn’t very good. Because she did not have a good impression of him, she did not plan to talk to him.

“Wife, who is this person?” Ye Chen said with a look of jealousy and dissatisfaction. Hmph, how dare he have any ideas about Xue’er. He must be tired of living.

“I don’t know!” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. This man insisted on calling her his wife whenever there were many people around.

Zhang Jian couldn’t believe that such a great beauty was actually married. But since she was married, she wasn’t worthy of him even if she was so beautiful.

Leng Ruoxue glanced at Zhang Jian with a bit of disgust, and she then looked at the young masters of the other two major mercenary groups. These two young masters were superior in both appearance and demeanor. It seems that this Anaconda Mercenary Group will be destroyed in his hands sooner or later.

Seeing Leng Ruoxue’s gaze on them, Ju Ri and Cang Ran nodded friendly.

“Miss, your tent is set up.” Feng Da walked over.

Leng Ruoxue nodded. She completely ignored the fuming Elder Xu and went directly into her tent to rest.

Not long after entering, a purple shadow jumped into her arms. “Beloved Master, your Darling is back!”

Leng Ruoxue gently touched the thick, fluffy fur on Darling’s body. Ahh, it feels really good.

“Did the ape agree?” Leng Ruoxue asked. Any spirit beast with wisdom would agree to exchange a green spirit pill for a purple pearl fruit. It was not a loss.

“With Darling going into action, how could that stupid ape dare not to agree!” Darling said proudly. Hehe, his strategy was to exchange his cute master’s green spirit pill for the purple pearl fruit.

“However, that stupid ape has another condition!” Darling said a little uncomfortably. Even though he had always called that guy ‘stupid ape’, the ape wasn’t stupid. On the contrary, he was really smart!

“What condition?” Leng Ruoxue asked, a little baffled.

“He wants to acknowledge you as his master.” Darling was a little annoyed. After that stupid ape knew that his beloved master was an alchemist, he wanted to be with her too. Wuuu... It’s all my fault. I shouldn’t have told that stupid thing.

Leng Ruoxue was speechless. Why are the spirit beasts I meet all so savvy?? But I really don't want to have an ape as my spirit beast. She felt terrified just thinking about having a huge ape following behind her. It would really become Beauty and the Beast!

1

“Go and tell him that I won't accept him as my spirit beast. However, if he's willing, let him acknowledge Big Brother Feng as his master. I won't treat him badly,” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. Big Brother Feng was the weakest among them. His strength would improve a lot if he contracted with this ape.

“What's the matter?” Ye Chen walked in and asked. He just saw that stinky fox come back. Why did he go out again?

“He went to look for the ape,” Leng Ruoxue explained.

“What? The matter isn't resolved yet? Didn't he say it's easy!” Ye Chen said gloatingly.

“The ape said he wanted to acknowledge me as his master, but I didn't agree. I asked Darling to tell him to acknowledge Big Brother Feng as his master,” Leng Ruoxue said. There were so many people here, so it would be really inconvenient if they were to go negotiate with the ape in person. She didn't want to become everyone's target.

“Xue'er, you are being biased. You don't share good things with me,” Ye Chen complained, looking at Leng Ruoxue with pitiful eyes.

“Don't tell me you want that ape.” Leng Ruoxue didn't believe he was interested in that ape!

“Regardless, you are being biased,” Ye Chen said aggrievedly. He wasn't interested in the ape, but he just couldn't stand seeing Xue Er caring so much about other men.

“We'll have earth python meat for dinner tonight.” Leng Ruoxue didn't say anything useless and directly threw out food as bait.

“Okay, give it to me!” Ye Chen directly stretched out his hand to ask for the meat so that Xue'er would not regret it. During this period, he had been asking for it for a long time, but Xue'er was reluctant to take it out to eat.

What a glutton. Leng Ruoxue reluctantly took out dozens of pieces of earth python meat and put them in front of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen unceremoniously collected the meat hurriedly into his ring, for fear that someone would snatch it from him.

“Big Brother Feng, come with me,” Leng Ruoxue whispered to Feng Moran.

“Xue'er, where are we going?” Feng Moran was puzzled. Xue'er was bringing him quite a distance away.

Leng Ruoxue led Feng Moran around randomly to make sure that no one was following them, and then they went into a cave. The cave was very small, and they had to bend down to get in.

“Darling, which way should we go?” Leng Ruoxue asked Darling, who was lying in her arms, after they entered the cave.

The two walked for about half an hour and finally came to a very spacious cave.

Leng Ruoxue looked at the king kong great ape. He was about ten meters tall and covered with long black hair, and his body was strong and resembled a mountain. She couldn't help but be impressed. What an ape. He's probably the tallest and most robust spirit beast I've seen.

“Big Brother Feng, this ape will be your spirit beast from now on,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Huh, Xue'er? No, this isn't good.” Her words shocked Feng Moran. This was a level nine holy beast, a level nine holy beast! There were only two such beasts in the Feng family.

“Acknowledge your master!” Leng Ruoxue said directly to the king kong great ape. This gorilla was unexpectedly also a spirit beast with an ancient noble bloodline.

The king kong great ape nodded and directly initiated the process. After a while, the contract array disappeared, and he successfully acknowledged his master.

“Master.” The king kong great ape's voice boomed. His master's current strength was now very low. But with such friends, he believed that following his master was definitely the right choice.

“Uhh...” Feng Moran was obviously still a little dazed. But he felt the connection between his soul and the ape's and knew that the ape had already acknowledged him as his master.

“Xue'er...” Feng Moran looked at Xue'er and didn't know what to say. Xue'er treated him better than his family did, and he really didn't know how to repay her.
