

Crazy Wife 64

Chapter 64: Establishing the Supreme Hall (1)

"Found."

"What about Feng Da?"

"The captain is eating spirit fruits in his room," Lin Yuan said. Before the young lady left, she said that she wanted the captain to finish the spirit fruits. How could he dare not listen!

Leng Ruoxue walked into Feng Da's room and happened to see him eating a spirit fruit in his hand with a pained expression. He kept muttering, "This is meat, this is meat!"

Leng Ruoxue smiled helplessly. ?Just look at how gluttonous he is!

"Feng Da."

"Miss." Feng Da hurriedly stood up and looked at her with an ingratiating expression.

"I see that you like these fruits. Eat more!" Leng Ruoxue teased.

"Miss, please don't make me eat anymore. I really can't take it anymore!" Feng Da was so scared that he was about to cry. ?Boohoo... Miss is too evil!

"Alright, don't eat then."

"Ah... I really don't need to eat anymore. Great!" Feng Da said happily. He had never known that eating too many spirit fruits, which everyone dreamed of, would actually be so painful. In fact, if he were merely one step away from advancing, just one spirit fruit would have been enough. But since he was really lacking in spiritual power, eating one was like a drop in the bucket and simply not enough. So he ate spirit fruits every day, so much so that he felt like vomiting.

"Establish a contract!" Leng Ruoxue said to the fire dragon as she let it out of the ring.

"M-Miss, this is?" Feng Da stared in bewilderment and disbelief at the spirit beast that suddenly appeared in front of him. ?Is... is this a dragon?

He wasn't the only one. Everyone who came to watch the excitement was stunned. ?What is this? It looks like a dragon. Where did Miss get it?

"Xue'er, is this a fire dragon?" Leng Qingtian was also surprised. ?Is this the level nine holy beast Xue'er found??He was speechless. ?Isn't Xue'er a little too bold? Can dragons be provoked?

"Yes, it's a big lizard.

"Why are you in a daze? Hurry up and establish the contract!" Leng Ruoxue said indifferently and kicked the big lizard.

"Oh!" The fire dragon looked at Leng Ruoxue aggrievedly. ?This jinx is so crude. ?Then it looked at its future master with tears in its eyes and chanted the contract. The contract array came as scheduled and enveloped the two of them. After the contract was established, the contract array disappeared.

“Hello, Master, please take care of me,” the fire dragon said politely.

“Uh, please take care of me as well,” Feng Da said quickly. He was still in disbelief, but the mental connection between his and the fire dragon’s souls was real.

“Miss.” Feng Da looked at Leng Ruoxue gratefully. He didn’t know what words to use to express his gratitude to her.

“Take it and find a place with few people to advance!” Leng Ruoxue gave Feng Da a green spirit pill.

“Yes, I will definitely not disappoint you, Miss,” Feng Da said grandly. Then he flew out of the city on the back of the fire dragon.

...

“Miss, we are back!”

Leng Ruoxue and the others were eating in the garden when they heard a sound coming from the sky. They looked up in unison.

One person and one dragon landed in the garden. Feng Da ran toward them excitedly, and the fire dragon transformed into human form and approached them.

“Miss.”

“Boss, you’ve finally advanced. You don’t have to eat fruits anymore,” Lin Yuan said with a grin.

“Stinky brat, how dare you laugh at me! See if I don’t spank you!” Feng Da also grinned. In the past, he advanced to Spiritual Monarch and was already very satisfied because he chanced upon good fortune. How could he dare to hope to become a Spiritual Sovereign! But he was a Spiritual Sovereign now!

“Thank you, Master’s Miss,” the fire dragon said respectfully. He didn’t expect a small pill would allow him to advance to divine beast, especially since he had been cultivating for so many years without breaking through.

“Since you are now Feng Da’s spirit beast, you are naturally also a part of my group. Of course, I will treat you well,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Huo Ao will definitely protect Master,” the fire dragon promised.

Leng Ruoxue nodded in satisfaction. She looked at Feng Da, Lin Yuan, and the others, who were still fooling around in the garden, and turned around to leave.

...

“Grandpa Lin, what’s the matter?” Leng Ruoxue asked in bewilderment. She had just arrived at the academy when Elder Qiu informed her that the principal was looking for her.

“Can’t I look for you if there’s nothing?” Lin Liang said with feigned sternness.

“Of course you can,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. “This old man used to be quite rational, but why is he becoming more and more like a child now?”

“Ruoxue, I have something to tell you,” Lin Liang said awkwardly.

“Grandpa Lin, just say it.”

“His Majesty sought me out yesterday to speak up for those students,” Lin Liang said. Even though he was a Spiritual Supremacy and not bound by the imperial family, the Heavenly Phoenix Academy was in the Eastern Lagoon Empire after all, so he had to give the emperor some face.

“And?” Leng Ruoxue waited for him to continue.

“The emperor said that since it’s impossible for them to return to the Sacred Hall, then we should establish a Supreme Hall of equal status to the Sacred Hall. One Sacred Hall and one Supreme Hall. This way, there will be friendly competition between each other, which can also promote the improvement of the students. After all, those students all have excellent aptitudes. We can’t let them drop out of school, nor can we let the other academies benefit!” Lin Liang said, telling Ruoxue the emperor’s exact words.

“What does Grandpa Lin think?”

“I also think we can try this idea. If the two halls can really play a benign competitive role like the emperor said, it will also be a good thing for the academy. But I’m afraid it will have the opposite effect!” Lin Liang said a little worriedly. Those people were restless!

“Grandpa Lin, if you establish the Supreme Hall, then the Academy Competition...” She didn’t expect the emperor to bring the art of balance into the academy. It was probably for the Academy Competition.

“The emperor proposed to choose the best talents from both halls to participate in the competition,” Lin Liang said. If this happened, the competition would be very intense.

“Grandpa Lin, of course I don’t dare to have any objections if the academy wants to establish a Supreme Hall. After all, I am only a student. But they better not provoke me!” Leng Ruoxue said coldly.

“Lass...” How could Lin Liang not know that this girl was a little displeased.