Chapter 491: The Chance to Become Famous

The reporters wondered, "The... missing girl, this little-known crew and director, could invite so many top-level characters?" It was not an exaggeration to say that the entire cast and crew of the "Missing Girl" was not as famous as those film critics! It was surprising that a crew like theirs could invite these big shots.

"Am... am I seeing things?" The reporter in a vest rubbed his eyes. He said in disbelief, "to be able to invite these people. It must be the ability of those top directors in the industry, right? Could... could it be that Zheng Youcai is hiding his abilities?"

"Who knows," The reporter in the hat was also shocked. After the shock, he straightened his body and elbowed the reporter wearing the vest. "Bro, don't daydream. That is big news!" Fortunately, they had come today. If they had not attended the premiere, they would not have encountered such a great scene, not to mention publishing such big news. Their chance to become famous was today! The reporter wearing the vest also snapped out of his daze. He exchanged a glance with the reporter wearing the hat. The two of them instantly became energetic!

Zheng Youcai's "Missing Girl" was worthy of his years of experience and training, the suffering the crew had gone through with him, and the investments Shen Hanxing and Wang Qin had invested in. When the lights came back on, the theater was silent. Many people had tears in their eyes and could not hold back their emotions for a long time.

The reporter in the vest and the reporter wearing the hat sat in the back row, crying like two children. The editor of Time Magazine, who had initially come to attend the premiere for the sake of Ji Yan, was now wiping his tears with a tissue. He lamented, "This trip was worth it. This trip was worth it!" He did not expect to see such a good movie today. Whether it was the depth of the script, the arrangements, the director's filming methods, or the actors' acting skills, the arrangements made by the director were all impeccable. It made everyone laugh and cry at the same time. As they cried, they thought about the meaning of family and reality.

After the movie ended, everyone could not stop recalling the scenes.

As the director, Zheng Youcai should be in the screening hall at this time, talking to the film critics and reporters to socialize. However, after he had watched half of the movie, he ran to the entrance of the screening hall and squatted down. He cried until he was out of breath. He did not know what he was crying about. He just felt that there were many things in him that he wanted to vent out. Someone had finally seen his movie.

At this moment, the door of the screening room next door was pushed open, and a commotion could be heard. Wu Yuchun proudly brought the media reporters out and laughed loudly. "Thank you for your support. Everyone, don't be in a hurry to leave. It's still early. Let's have a meal together. It's on me."

Everyone chimed in, "Director Wu Yu, you don't have to do that."

"Thank you, Director Wu Yu! Director Wu Yu's movie is as touching as always!"

After a series of flattery, the smile on Wu Yu's face grew wider. Just as he was feeling extremely pleased with himself, his eyes suddenly swept across Zheng Youcai, squatting at the entrance of the next-door screening room. His eyes lit up. He raised his voice and laughed, "Hey, isn't this Director Zheng Youcai? I heard that your movie is also having its premiere today. Why are you squatting here alone?" He gloated deep inside but leaned over and patted Zheng Youcai's shoulder, "Director Zheng, what's wrong? Why are you crying? Could it be that the premiere didn't go well?" It was right that it didn't go well! It was not in vain that he had planned for so long, deliberately hiding the news that they had the same premiere on the same day and only released it at the last moment, all for this scene. Wu Yu was pleased to see Zheng Youcai crying loudly at the door.

"Zheng Youcai thought he would have no worries after Shen Hanxing backed him up." Wu Yu thought as he wanted to trample Zheng Youcai under his feet for the rest of his life!

As the female lead, Shen Sisi was also in the crowd. When she saw Zheng Youcai. An innocent smile appeared on her pure face. "Director Zheng Youcai, are you here alone because no one attended the premiere of your movie? How pitiful. This movie is your hard work, right?"

Shen Sisi constantly paid attention to Shen Hanxing's news, so she knew who had invested in Zheng Youcai's movie. She looked concerned, shook her head, and said somewhat disapprovingly, "I heard that Shen Hanxing invested in Director Zheng Youcai's movie. Why would your premiere be so..."

Chapter 492: Who Told You It Didn't Go Well?

After a pause, Shen Sisi sighed. "Maybe sister thought that movie investment was investing money. It's not her fault. She has never come into contact with these things before, so she doesn't know that investing requires plenty of effort." On the surface, she looked like she felt sorry for Zheng Youcai. But in reality, she was trying to sow discord and push all the blame for the bad premiere onto Shen Hanxing.

Zheng Youcai was originally quite embarrassed when he was caught crying by a group of people. However, he did not expect these people to become more and more ridiculous. It was as if they had helped him to imagine a tragic scene in a short moment.

"Who said that my premiere ceremony did not go well?" Zheng Youcai wiped off his tears. He stared at Wu Yu and said, "My premiere ceremony went well! I was touched that I could not help but come out and cry to vent. How did it become that it did not go well? It went well!" As he said that, he couldn't help but glare fiercely at Wu Yu. It was this fatty! Wu Yu had provoked him repeatedly, and now he was coming in front of him to say something about whether it was going well. He was vicious to wish for the worse! To think that he had treated Wu Yu as his good friend in the past. He was simply blind.

Seeing Zheng Youcai's appearance, Wu Yu was even more convinced that Zheng Youcai's premiere ceremony was not going well. He even knew that he was the one who caused trouble. That was why he was so angry. He couldn't even hide his emotions on the surface and couldn't control his hatred. Unfortunately, Zheng Youcai did not know that the more furious he was, Wu Yu would be happier. Wu Yu was almost overjoyed. He patted Zheng Youcai on the shoulder and said with a smile, "Zheng Youcai, I know some people anyway. I'll introduce some media critics to help you promote your movie. It's okay."

Wu Yu's words sounded hypocritical. He was mocking Zheng Youcai. At this moment, the theater door behind Zheng Youcai opened wide. The people who came out just heard Wu Yu's words, and the scene instantly became awkward.

Shen Hanxing looked at Wu Yu with a faint smile and did not say anything. The person standing next to Shen Hanxing was the editor-in-chief of Time Magazine. When he heard this, he could not help but laugh. "Oh? It seems that director Wu Yu is not very satisfied with us. He introduced other media outlets to Director Zheng Youcai."

"This is what he said, not what I think," Zheng Youcai quickly explained. He shook his head desperately. "I have no intention of being dissatisfied with you guys. It is my honor for you guys to be able to attend the premiere of my movie. I am more than happy. How could I not be satisfied?"

The editor-in-chief of Time magazine laughed. "Alright. Please do not forget to send us tickets if you are filming any more movies, Director Zheng Youcai. And this time... your movie is wonderful. When your movie is officially screened, I'll take my wife to watch it again."

"Sure. There are movie tickets in the gift I gave you. You can watch it at any time," Zheng Youcai's face flushed as he replied.

Wu Yu was shocked when everyone came out of the theater. He was like a rooster whose neck was being strangled. He stood there with a pale face and a face full of disbelief! Only then did he come back to his senses and call out, "Chief Editor Chen? Director Zhao? Chief Editor Liu... you guys..." He thought, "How was this possible? How did Zheng Youcai manage to invite these people? In this circle, who didn't know the importance of the media representatives behind these people? A few of them even represented the official position. How could they possibly attend Zheng Youcai's movie premiere?"

Wu Yu looked shocked. However, Chief Editor Chen and the others only glanced at him indifferently. Without saying a word, they turned their heads to shake hands with Shen Hanxing, Ji Yan, and the others politely and left soon. They left in a carefree manner, but Wu Yu was about to explode in anger! It was not just Wu Yu. The media and film critics behind Wu Yu had long since regretted their actions. They wished they could slap themselves. Many of them had received Zheng Youcai's invitation! At that time, they had been moved by Wu Yu's bribe. Not only did they not go to Zheng Youcai's movie premiere, but they also did not inform Zheng Youcai that they were not going! What a huge loss! That was such a good opportunity. Chief Editor Chen and the others were someone they would seldom meet. It was very rare to have a chance to get in touch with them! But they just missed it!

For a moment, the feelings of the media and film critics were very complicated.

Chapter 493: Make Your Words Clear

If they missed this opportunity, they had missed the opportunity to get promoted! How could the regretful media and film critics still have the mood to have dinner with Wu Yu? All of them left dejectedly. The lively screening hall was instantly emptied by more than half.

Zheng Youcai finally heaved a sigh of relief and spread his hands toward Wu Yu with a smile. "See, I told you my premiere ceremony went smoothly, but you still didn't believe me."

Smoothly? If it went smoothly, why the f*ck were you crying?" Wu Yu's expression was twisted. He gritted his teeth and said, "I didn't expect you to be so unpredictable!" He had taken every precaution. He did not expect Zheng Youcai to have such good luck!

Other than Wu Yu, there was another person who was so angry. That was Shen Sisi. Shen Sisi clenched her teeth. There was an unspeakable hatred in her heart. She thought, "Why? Why does Shen Hanxing always go against me?" When she entered the entertainment industry to film, Shen Hanxing invested in a movie. Now, she didn't even give in to the movie's premiere. Shen Hanxing couldn't stand her?

Shen Sisi's eyes filled with monstrous hatred. Her vicious gaze passed through the crowd and landed on Shen Hanxing. When she looked over, a pair of cold black eyes looked over. It was murderous and ruthless. Shen Sisi's entire body stiffened. It was as if a dangerous creature was targeting her. She didn't dare to move. She thought, "It is the Ji Yan, damn it! Why? Why does Shen Hanxing have Ji Yan's protection and lead a happy life? All of this should have belonged to me!"

Shen Sisi suppressed the unwillingness in her heart and forced a smile. Her voice was gentle as she said, "Sister, you have never come into contact with the entertainment industry, but you were able to invite many top media and film critics. You must have put in a lot of effort, right? Although I haven't been in the entertainment industry for a long time and am not very familiar with the industry, I know that these people can not be invited casually."

Shen Sisi's words sounded interesting. It was a little like she was flattering Shen Hanxing. If it were someone else who said such words, they would probably be trying to curry favor with Shen Hanxing. But Shen Sisi... it was almost as if asking Shen Sisi to die to say something nice about Shen Hanxing. Shen Hanxing could not figure out what Shen Sisi meant, so she only nodded lightly. "Hmm."

Shen Sisi saw Shen Hanxing nod, so she turned to look at Zheng Youcai. Her expression was a little gloomy. "I'm so envious of you, Director Zheng Youcai. My sister has a cold personality. As her sister, I rarely feel my sister's concern and care. However, my sister can work hard for you, contribute money and effort, and even spend a lot of effort to hire those media people... I'm so envious of you to be able to make my sister pay like this..." She stared with her big, watery eyes. An envious and yearning expression appeared on her face as if she was jealous that Zheng Youcai could receive Shen Hanxing's special care. However, Shen Hanxing, familiar with Shen Sisi's nature, felt nauseous. She plastered a smile and looked coldly at Shen Sisi. "I don't understand what you mean. Make your words clear."

Shen Sisi's words sounded harmless on the surface. But in reality, every word was harsh. It implied that Shen Hanxing's character was unwilling to take care of her family, yet she was ready to pay for Zheng Youcai. Wasn't this insinuating that the relationship between them was unclear?

"I, I didn't mean anything else," Shen Sisi looked at Shen Hanxing mockingly. She did not believe that Ji Yan trusted Shen Hanxing that much. As long as there was even the slightest doubt, the seed of jealousy she planted would grow rapidly in the fertile soil of her heart, becoming an irreparable rift between Shen Hanxing and Ji Yan. She never believed that there would be people in this world who trusted each other to the extent of not having any doubts. Shen Sisi gloated, but she looked pitiful on the surface. "I'm just saying what I'm thinking."

“Then explain what you mean,” Shen Hanxing’s gaze was cold. She stared at Shen Sisi and asked, “I’m busy because of Zheng Youcai’s movie, and I refused to take care of you. What’s wrong? Do you have a problem with that?”

“I...” Shen Sisi wanted to say something but hesitated as if she didn’t know what to say. In the end, she could only smile helplessly and speak in a low voice, “If sister thinks there’s no problem, then there’s no problem.” As she said that, she even used that meaningful gaze to look deeply at Ji Yan beside Shen Hanxing. But this glance made her whole body stiffen, and she almost couldn’t maintain the expression on her face.

Shen Sisi felt something fishy between Shen Hanxing and Zheng Youcai. Now that she had pointed it out, Ji Yan didn’t seem to be angry at all. Instead, he even looked at Shen Hanxing seriously with a gentle gaze she had never seen before. There was a faint amusement and appreciation in his eye.

Chapter 494: Good Acting Skills

“Is Ji Yan crazy? What kind of voodoo did Shen Hanxing give him to make him ignore her so much that he didn’t even care about being cuckolded?” thought Shen Sisi.

“Of course, I think it’s fine,” Shen Hanxing sneered and said coldly, “If I don’t care about the movie I invested in, who should I care about? You? Who do you think you are!” Her attitude was sharp. She didn’t care about Shen Sisi.

Shen Sisi’s face was pale, and she bit her lips, “Sister, you... If you’re unhappy about what I said, I won’t say it anymore. But we’re sisters. Why do you have to say such harsh words?”

“Say whatever you want to say. I’ve never asked you not to say anything,” Shen Hanxing’s gaze was cold. She said coldly, “Shen Sisi, you can say whatever you want, but what do you mean by saying only half of it? Do you think you are filming a movie to make it sound suspenseful?” What she hated the most was Shen Sisi’s secretive attitude. Shen Hanxing had been honest and unashamed all her life. She did not need Shen Sisi to act like she had to compromise and not dare to say anything. She could say whatever she wanted to say!

“Sister, your personality is strong, and you have a bad temper. No wonder your relationship with Daddy is so bad,” Shen Sisi looked away as she shook her head as if she couldn’t do anything to Shen Hanxing. Her gaze even contained some doting and yielding. It was as if she was the one who was tolerant of Shen Hanxing. She sighed softly. “I know you have a problem with me, so you don’t like to listen to anything I say and always go against me. But Mr. Ji likes you so much. You have to cherish it... I don’t have the fortune like you to get such love, so I hope that you can live a happy life and don’t let down the people around you.” She glanced at Ji Yan, and he said dejectedly, “If... I mean, if... If I had a husband like Mr. Ji, who loves me so much, I would cherish him. I would not let him think I’m paying too much attention to other men.”

At this point, Shen Sisi did not expect to win Ji Yan’s heart anymore. She just wanted to give Shen Hanxing a hard time.

"I thought Wu Yu would lose money finding you to film his movie," Shen Hanxing lifted her eyebrows. She looked at Shen Sisi curiously and asked, "can I ask if your acting skills in the movie directed by Wu Yu are as good as now?"

Shen Sisi's face froze. "Sister, what do you mean?"

"I don't mean anything," Shen Hanxing shrugged, "I think that if your acting in this movie is as good as it is now, it will be exciting. I will go and support you and contribute to the movie's profit." Shen Sisi was a hypocrite. She was so engrossed in acting! If Shen Sisi's acting skills were at this level, she deserved the title of an actor.

Shen Sisi's expression instantly turned gloomy before Shen Hanxing could finish her sentence. She smiled at Shen Sisi and reminded her, "You know that I have a strong personality and a bad temper, yet you still say those weird things in front of me. Aren't you afraid that I'll hit you?"

Shen Sisi, who had been hit by Shen Hanxing a few times, knew that Shen Hanxing was someone who would beat her whenever she wanted. She shivered, and her cheeks hurt reflexively. However, she quickly realized that Shen Hanxing did not dare to do so.

Today was the premiere of two movies. Shen Sisi and Shen Hanxing belonged to different film crews. One was the female lead, and the other was an investor. There were many people here and many reporters and cameramen who had not left yet. If Shen Hanxing attacked her, the media would post the photos on the internet. Unless Shen Hanxing did not care about the popularity of "Missing Girl" being suppressed by others and did not care about the box office, she would not dare to attack her.

After thinking this through, Shen Sisi heaved a sigh of relief. She bit her lip and looked at Shen Hanxing. "Sister, I'm doing this for your good. Can you not be so rude? I'm afraid that you will hurt Mr. Ji's heart..."

"What do you mean?" Zheng Youcai couldn't take it anymore. He glared at her and retorted, "Mrs. Ji and I are innocent. I'm warning you not to talk nonsense!" He hadn't lived long enough! If there were rumors between him and Mrs. Ji, Ji Yan, who had never been kind to him, would kill him on the spot!

Chapter 495: Annoying

Zheng Youcai did not dare to offend Ji Yan now, nor did he dare to offend Shen Hanxing. In the future, he still wanted to get Shen Hanxing to invest in his other movies. Even if it were not get Shen Hanxing's investment, it would depend on how ardent Wang Qin was towards Shen Hanxing. He also did not dare to have any improper thoughts toward Shen Hanxing!

"Director Zheng Youcai, I didn't say anything," Shen Sisi pretended to cover her mouth and innocently widened her eyes. "You're overthinking."

It was annoying. Shen Hanxing lowered her eyes, and her gaze turned cold.

At this moment, Ji Yan, who had been silent the whole time, looked at Shen Sisi coldly and said, "You don't have to worry about it, Miss Shen." His eyes were deep, dark, bottomless, and had a faintly dangerous aura. When he looked at Shen Sisi with a hint of threat and disgust, he said, "I invited these media and film critics here as a gift for Miss Shen to invest in the first movie. I don't care if Miss Shen has dirty thoughts in her heart, but if you accuse my wife..." His eyes turned colder. He warned her in a deep voice, "I won't give you another chance." The aura around him was shocking and filled with terrifying killing intent. It was as if he could snap Shen Sisi's throat the next second.

Shen Sisi's face instantly turned pale. She opened her mouth, but she couldn't say a word. The only thing she could do was clench her fingers that were holding her bag tightly. Her face was pale, and she couldn't tell whether she was jealous, dissatisfied, or angry and embarrassed! Shen Hanxing had only invested in a small movie. Not only had she attended the premiere with her at the Ji Yan, but she had also even found a high-profile media reporter and film critic for her. Shen Sisi thought, "Why? Who is Shen Hanxing to get all these?"

However, no matter what Shen Sisi was thinking, the people here did not care. Shen Hanxing did not want to continue wasting time with her. She still had to discuss the next step of the publicity plan with the crew. The news media that were invited were different. Their publicity plan had also changed. There was no need to waste any more time with Shen Sisi.

After Shen Hanxing and the others had all left, Wu Yu shifted his eyes away from the phone screen with a gloomy look. His fat face was ferocious and twisted. With an official background, the media was not someone he could get on good terms with. However, he still had the right to speak to the few cameramen in the venue. He asked a few of the cameramen and asked the media and film critics present about their reactions to Zheng Youcai's movie. The answer he got almost made Wu Yu go crazy. He did not understand what they meant by saying everyone cried. Those media and film critics had been in this industry for many years. What movie had they not seen? Tear-jerking, funny, realistic, and magical. What would it look like if they could sit quietly in their chairs and watch a movie that would make them unable to snap out of it for a long time?

Zheng Youcai was trash. He could still be a genius who fished for fame in university. After graduating, he could only live in poverty and rely on his support to survive. After graduating for more than ten years, he had not produced a single work. Zheng Youcai was useless. But now, someone was telling him that Zheng Youcai, that piece of trash, would rise again and make a movie that would amaze everyone. He did not accept it!

"Director Wu Yu, do you know how Shen Hanxing's movie is?" Shen Sisi suppressed her anger. She stomped her feet and growled, "I don't care. The movie I'm making is my first show on the screen. I absolutely won't allow anyone to suppress my limelight. I won't allow any mistakes to happen! The only person who can become famous is me!" She entered the entertainment industry to raise her status and increase her chance of entering the wealthy class. She didn't want to become someone else's stepping stone. She absolutely wouldn't allow it!

"Don't you know your acting skills? If you ask me now, who am I going to ask?" What surprised Shen Sisi was Wu Yu, who was trying his best to be respectful to her no matter how annoying she was at the set and could still maintain a smile, exploded with anger. His fat eyes were filled with viciousness. With a ferocious expression, he roared, "If you want to stand out, then go do your publicity and suppress Shen Hanxing and the others! I'm the director, not your nanny. What's the point of telling me all this!" After he finished speaking, he fiercely threw his phone.

With a loud bang, the phone that Wu Yu threw out smashed into the wall. The screen shattered. Wu Yu, who usually smiled, finally revealed his true colors. He roared, "If you don't work hard, who can you beat defeat? Find your financier or boyfriend, and do something to improve the view. Don't you have a lot of fans? Ask them to go to the cinema and watch the movie!" With that, he panted heavily, turned around angrily, and left in a hurry. He stumbled when he walked past the corner, revealing how madly desperate he was.

Chapter 496: I Can't Lose to Her

Shen Sisi felt uneasy in her heart. She forced herself to be angry and said, "What kind of attitude is Wu Yu showing me?"

"Director Wu Yu and Zheng Youcai are old enemies. Now that he has seen Zheng Youcai's glory, it's normal for him to be unhappy," Lei Bing frowned thoughtfully and then quickly switched to an earnest smile. She comforted Shen Sisi, "Director Wu Yu is angry because of the movie's box office earnings. Don't take it to heart, Sisi." As Shen Sisi's manager, Lei Bing, knew that Shen Sisi and Zhuang Li were still lovers, they had been dating behind the back of Miss Wei. That was also why Lei Bing's attitude towards Shen Sisi was friendly.

"Wu Yu can't compete with Zheng Youcai because Wu Yu isn't capable enough. Why is he throwing a tantrum at me?" Shen Sisi pursed her lips, feeling displeased. She clenched her fists and said in a deep voice, "I don't care about anything else. Lei Bing, you're my manager. You have to help me think of a way. I can not lose to Shen Hanxing!"

Shen Sisi's confident attitude made Lei Bing angry. Where did this woman get her confidence from? Did she think that the whole world revolved around her? She also did not want Zheng Youcai's movie to surpass their film. However, she was only a manager and not a superhero. She could not make Wu Yu's movie better than Zheng Youcai's!

"Sisi, whether this movie is popular or not, whether the box office is good or not, it's not up to me to decide," Lei Bing suppressed her anger and chuckled awkwardly, "this still depends on whether the audience buys it or not..."

"If the audience doesn't buy it, let them watch only our movie!" Shen Sisi's eyes flashed with viciousness. "If we could not be better than them, destroy a movie that's better than us. Do you need me to teach you even this? I don't know how you got your title as a top manager!" During this time, everything that Shen Sisi did was not going smoothly, causing a monstrous fury surge in her.

Lei Bing hesitated and thought, "Why don't Shen Sisi do it herself if it was as simple as she said?" But when she thought of Zhuang Li, who was behind Shen Sisi, she could only suppress all kinds of negative emotions and feelings for a solution. "Sisi, you mean..." Lei Bing frowned. Her brain was working quickly. "Should we let the audience reject 'Missing Girl'?" So naturally, they would not buy tickets to watch the movie in the cinema.

"Of course, it's best if we can do that. Find more people to promote negative reviews about 'missing girl' and then promote how good our movie is," Shen Sisi put on her sunglasses. She sneered. "Don't you know how to create such a simple hype? If you don't, then don't come and look for me!"

Before the crew released the movie, they posted some snapshots of the filming process to attract the audience. It was a standard promotional method. However, when Shen Sisi was filming, she used a stunt double whenever possible. She couldn't get up in the morning, had to go to bed early at night, and couldn't stay up late. She was busy sending Zhuang Li tonic soup every day. She also had to take leave to go on a date. How could she promote the movie? Wait a minute... Lei Bing looked at Shen Sisi's beautiful face. She suddenly thought of a promotional point. "Among the actors in 'Missing Girl', other than Han Yin, the rest are average-looking. Then, we can use your make-up photos and good-looking extras as promotional points. We can use your beauty to bring heat to the movie."

After saying that, Lei Bing was the first to laugh. Looking at Shen Sisi's pure and innocent face, she was satisfied with Shen Sisi for the first time. "This is not an exaggeration. You are indeed good-looking, right?"

Shen Sisi was happy to be praised for her good looks. She showed Lei Bing a rare smile. She said calmly, "Alright, do whatever you think is best."

That meant that she had agreed. The movie was going to be released tomorrow. There was no time to do anything else, but this was not troublesome. Lei Bing immediately contacted Wu Yu and planned to pick out a few scenes that highlighted Shen Sisi's beauty overnight and use them to promote the movie. Fortunately, Shen Sisi cared about her image. It was not necessary if she did well during the filming. The most important thing was to make her look beautiful. To cater to Shen Sisi's aesthetic standards, Wu Yu strived to make every frame look good.

While Lei Bing was busy with the publicity, the film critics who had finished watching "Missing Girl" had already started to write their reviews online. Among them was a big shot in the film critics' circle. He was famous for his evil tongue and had a good personality. He would never fall for power and would criticize a movie as it was.

Chapter 497: The Biggest Surprise

After the movie critics left the theater, they wrote their movie evaluation in less than half an hour. "When I walked into the theater, I never thought I would see such a great movie. Zheng Youcai put in a lot of effort. The actors' acting skills and the director's filming methods were all amazing. I thank director Zheng Youcai for letting us see a visual feast in this impetuous era. It's been a long time since I've laughed because of a movie and cried because of their emotional fluctuations. This movie is not funny and touching. It's a satire of the heavy reality, but there's warm dawn hidden in the desolation. This reminds me of a saying: Don't be afraid of the dark because there will be dawn after the dark. I look forward to everyone entering the movie theater and watching "Missing girl" Together. We'll experience bitterness and happiness together. Oh, right, there's a huge surprise in the movie. I won't spoil it for you. I hope you won't be too surprised when you see it! I look forward to everyone participating in the discussion after watching the movie."

Besides this film critic, almost every media outlet and film critic gave the highest rating to "Missing Girl." Most importantly, these media outlets and film critics were authoritative and even linked to the authorities. The netizens were all stunned. Some people felt that Shen Hanxing had manipulated the Ji Corporation and thought that these people were making a false evaluation. Some people were curious and wanted to book tickets to the movie theater to watch it. Unknowingly, “Missing Girl” caused a small group of people commotion. Many people tried to book tickets and wanted to see how many authoritative figures praised this movie. Shen Hanxing did not miss this opportunity. She took the opportunity to invest and continued to expand the movie’s influence.

Unfortunately, the main lead of “Missing Girl” was not a famous star. Zheng Youcai was also a new director and did not have much influence. On top of that, “Missing Girl” was a movie with a sad and heavy reality. Many people looked forward to a funny and warm youth movie during the summer vacation. So in terms of purchasing power, the film Shen Sisi starred in was more popular.

Zheng Youcai had been waiting nervously, and the movie was officially released. As the first batch of audiences walked into the movie theater, Bingxin Entertainment also began to put in the effort. Someone posted a group of beautiful photos of Shen Sisi on the internet. Shen Sisi was good-looking. These photos were carefully selected and refined by Lei Bing overnight. She looked delicate and innocent. The movie she starred in was about school love. Shen Sisi wore a school uniform and had long black hair. She looked like the dream girl of many men.

After seeing this group of photos, countless people began to book tickets for the movie starring Shen Sisi. Seeing the netizens’ comments, Lei Bing was about to go crazy with joy. She smiled as she looked at Shen Sisi, sitting on the sofa and playing with her hair. She said happily, “Sisi, a lot of people booked the movie tickets because you’re too beautiful. The cinema has just received news that the booking for the next movie has increased by 30%!” Usually, the feedback would not come so quickly. However, with Zhuang Li’s reputation and Wu Yu was also a well-known director in the industry, the cinema they were familiar with gave them the data promptly.

Shen Sisi felt proud. But she said disdainfully, “What about ‘Missing Girl’?”

“Far from it!” Lei Bing beamed. “‘Missing Girl’ is nothing compared to us at all. Sisi, you’re going to be popular!”

“Isn’t that a matter of course? But that’s not enough...” Shen Sisi laughed, and the viciousness in her eyes became even more intense. “I want ‘Missing Girl’ to be doomed and Shen Hanxing to lose everything!”

Shen Sisi was now Lei Bing’s cash cow, so Lei Bing naturally fully supported her idea. She laughed lightly and with a face full of confidence. She said, “Don’t worry. I just bought the first-hand news. Shen Hanxing’s movie won’t live much longer!”

At this moment, the little assistant at the side looked at her phone and suddenly exclaimed, “Sisi, sister Lei Bing, quickly go online and take a look!”

In this era where beauty was justice, being good-looking would attract the attention of countless people. Shen Sisi was beautiful, but Shen Hanxing was even more gorgeous. After watching “Missing Girl”, the audience sent a post: “Sob, “Missing Girl” is touching and warm. Everyone, go and watch it! Also, Shen Hanxing is a goddess. The biggest surprise in this movie is Shen Hanxing!”

Chapter 498: Turned the Tables

The audience sent out a long paragraph of text, "Even though Shen Hanxing only had a few scenes, it made me remember her for a long time! I know it's not right, but I couldn't help but take a photo of Shen Hanxing's beauty. I hope that everyone can enjoy Shen Hanxing's beauty together!" The attached picture was of the dim cinema. It was some blurry pictures of the big screen.

The picture was of a female college student played by Shen Hanxing. She took Han Yin to play the second female lead role and escaped from the village. Under the firelight, she looked back and smiled. Her face was like a painting. Her eyes filled with starlight. She was gentle and firm, and her beauty was moving. That was a beauty that had incredible destructive power. Countless netizens joined the discussion. Some people even compared Shen Hanxing's blurry photo with Shen Sisi's high-definition photo. In the end, Shen Sisi's ending was tragic. Shen Hanxing defeated her instantly.

No one could reject beauty. Because of Shen Hanxing's photo, the tickets for the next "Missing Girl" slot were immediately sold out. That had turned the table! Lei Bing, who had been extremely excited just a moment ago, was now dumbfounded. She could not react until her phone rang. She lowered her head to look and said hesitantly, "Sisi, the theatre just sent a message. Almost all the audiences who booked our tickets for the next movie slot have already refunded their tickets." They had initially come for the sake of Shen Sisi's beauty. Now that Shen Hanxing, who was even more stunning, had appeared, naturally, they would choose her.

The little assistant was trembling with fear at the side. Shen Sisi's expression was gloomy. In her anger, she threw her phone out. She swept all the things on the table onto the floor. "B*tch! B*tch! Shen Hanxing, that b*tch! She dares to make things difficult for me! This b*tch, why doesn't she die!" Shen Hanxing was the film investor. She not only humiliated her at the premiere ceremony, she even went to participate in the movie. Shen Sisi wondered why Shen Hanxing had to go against her all the time and block her from success. Shen Hanxing deserved to die! She should not have suggested to her Daddy to bring Shen Hanxing out of the slums first! A person like her should be in the slums for the rest of her life, fall into the mud, and rot for the rest of her life!

Shen Sisi had gone berserk. Unlike her, Zheng Youcai smiled so much that his mouth could not close. He stood up and ran around the room three times to vent the excitement in his heart. "Mrs. Ji, you are the lucky star of our production team!"

Zheng Youcai looked quite manly. But in fact, he was very emotional. He wanted to give Shen Hanxing a hug to express his gratitude. But when he thought of Ji Yan's face, he decisively hugged Wang Qin beside him. He looked at Shen Hanxing and choked while he sobbed. "Mrs. Ji, if it weren't for you, this movie wouldn't exist. There wouldn't be so many people coming to the cinema to watch my movie."

Wang Qin, who Zheng Youcai had hugged again, rolled her eyes. "If you want to thank Mrs. Ji, then thank Mrs. Ji. Why are you hugging me?" She thought, "Hug Mrs. Ji if you dare!"

Zheng Youcai didn't dare. He could only hug Wang Qin for a while and then wipe his tears as he sat on the sofa. He knew how difficult it was for him to get to this point. The investors were also businessmen. To put it bluntly, it was all for profit. Shen Hanxing only needed to take the money. There was no need to waste her energy to solve his problems repeatedly. In addition, he also provoked a big director like Wu Yu, which made their movie a lot more complicated. He was already prepared for the dismal box office results.

Their movie was suppressed during the promotion process. There was no need to delay the scheduling of the movie. During the premiere ceremony, the media and film critics stood up for them. Even when someone made groundless accusations and wanted to make their film crew suffer, they endured all these difficulties during this period. Now that so many people had walked into the theatre, it was all for the sake of Shen Hanxing's few minutes of footage. However, he shouted, "Mrs. Ji, don't worry. The audience walked into the cinema on account of your good looks. Leave the rest to the movie. I believe that 'Missing Girl' will be able to keep them!" Zheng Youcai believed in his work and strength! At this moment, Zheng Youcai's heart surged with boundless pride and his blood boiled. He believed that 'Missing Girl', which he had put in all his effort to shoot, would be able to move the audience who walked into the cinema!

Zheng Youcai's chest thumped loudly as he made bold words, "Mrs. Ji, 'Missing Girl' will not let you lose money!"

Chapter 499: Slander

When Zheng Youcai said this, he wasn't confident. At this time, "Missing Girl" was just a rising star. It was already good enough to recoup the investment money, so Zheng Youcai didn't dare to think about it. His first movie made a profit of 1.5 billion at the box office! It became the biggest star this summer break and Shen Hanxing's current project with the highest return on investment! "Missing Girl" won countless awards, opened up a new direction in the movie market, and became a new model and start.

Zheng Youcai became a famous director in one go. The actors who participated in this movie also gained fame! At this moment, not only did Zheng Youcai not let down Shen Hanxing and Wang Qin's investment, but he did not let down their trust. He also did not let down the hard work of the entire crew. They were so happy that they shed tears.

The audience who walked out of the cinema did not hold back their praise. The Internet seemed filled with discussions and praises for "Missing Girl" overnight.

Many people were attracted to the cinema by Shen Hanxing's beauty. However, when they walked out of the cinema after watching the movie, the shock and emotion of the plot remained in their hearts. Fewer people were discussing Shen Hanxing's beauty. More people were discussing the plot and the life of the characters in the movie. They were immersed in the film and could not extricate themselves for a long time.

Shen Hanxing was also paying attention to the reactions of the audience. She saw their comments on the Internet. She could not help but let out a sigh of relief. "Congratulations, Director Zheng Youcai. You have succeeded. You have handed over an answer that the market and the audience are satisfied with."

Wang Qin covered her mouth at the side. Tears could not help but flow down her face. She was both excited and touched. Zheng Youcai was already dumbfounded. He only knew how to hold his phone and giggle. If this was a dream, he hoped he would never wake up. Just as they were happy, no one knew that a new storm was approaching.

An anonymous report on the Internet said Han Yin had fallen in love with the rich man, Mo Kaicheng. It also showed the scene of Mo Kaicheng wooing Han Yin at the entrance of the production team, giving her flowers and gifts. It was a photo of him waiting for Han Yin outside the set.

The playboy, Mo Kaicheng, was used to being on the tabloids and entertainment news. He did not hide his pursuit of women at all. He was not afraid of being photographed by the reporters and paparazzi, but he did not care about the impact it would have on Han Yin. He flaunted his fiery red roses time and time again. It was as if he was afraid that others would not know what he was there for. It was alright if it was anything else. Han Yin was still a high school student!

In the eyes of the netizens, Han Yin should be focusing on her studies at her age and not dating a playboy like Mo Kaicheng. In addition, the news had spread Han Yin wasn't on good terms with Ji Ning, and many netizens indiscriminately treated Han Yin as a greedy, vain, and bad girl who was not well brought up at such a young age. In addition, someone had created rumors, causing Han Yin's popularity to plummet. Even the box office earnings of "Missing Girl" were affected.

Many people scolded Han Yin on the Internet, scolding her for not learning well at such a young age. They thought she should study at her age instead of filming a movie. They even said she was fooling around with men, wanting to follow Shen Hanxing's footsteps and marry into a wealthy family, changing her lifestyle. The more they scolded her, the more they went overboard. It was as if they had seen Han Yin do something terrible with their own eyes.

Han Yin was the second female lead in "Missing Girl". If a scandal broke out at this time, it would undoubtedly impact the movie's box office earnings. Han Yin had become a typical example of puppy love and incompetence overnight. Countless people blamed herself. Many people went to Han Yin's personal social media platform and said that she was still young. They said she should focus on her studies, not use her body and rely on men.

Han Yin was furious. "I study every day on the set. What right do these people have to judge that I don't study hard?" She did have the intention to drop out of school and film in the past, but Shen Hanxing stopped her!

"Use our social media account to post photos of Han Yin studying on the set and clarify the scandal between Han Yin and that rich man Mo Kaicheng," Zheng Youcai said without hesitation. "These people are too much. They don't know anything and spread rumors!" Everyone on the set knew Han Yin didn't have a good impression of Mo Kaicheng! If not for Mo Kaicheng's son of Bingxin Entertainment's boss, Han Yin wouldn't have met Mo Kaicheng in the first place. People were twisting the truth, saying that she was making use of Mo Kaicheng, which angered the crew more!

These things on the Internet were all rumors, and it wasn't challenging to clear them up. Han Yin first posted her final exam results on her social media account.

Chapter 500: Helping Her

Although Han Yin wasn't as smart as Shen Hanxing, she was at least hardworking. Even though filming took up most of her time, she still managed to stay in the top 10 in her class. That was a pretty good result. After posting her report card, Han Yin seriously stated that she had never accepted Mo

Kaicheng's advances. Her priority was her studies, and she would not consider dating before going to university. Soon after the post, the crew of "Missing Girl" also posted a snapshot of Han Yin while she was studying. Although the crew of "Missing Girl" was small, small, and poor, the atmosphere was good. The crew got along very well. As the youngest actor in the crew, Han Yin was doted on by everyone. Without Zheng Youcai's order, everyone took the initiative to clear up the rumors about Han Yin, testifying that Han Yin was only acting and studying in the crew. She was not in the mood to fall in love at all.

Han Yin was currently sitting in the living room of the Ji family's house, discussing the celebratory banquet with Shen Hanxing and the others. Previously, their cast was too poor, and the value of the actors was not high. So everyone just gathered casually and did not eat anything nice. The box office had been rising all the way and was clearly on the verge of exploding. Shen Hanxing was prepared to hold a celebratory banquet and give everyone a red packet as a token of appreciation. However, she did not expect something to happen online halfway through the discussion.

Han Yin pouted and fiddled with her phone unhappily.

"Don't look anymore. These netizens are unreasonable," Wang Qin felt bad for Han Yin as she hugged Han Yin and comforted her gently, "You don't have to care about them. We don't need to look at these things." Wang Qin often visited the production team. Naturally, she knew how hard Han Yin had studied to film. Now that she saw that she was being spread rumors on the internet. She could not help but feel a little angry.

Only those who had experienced online violence would know how painful it was.

"Okay," Han Yin responded, but she couldn't shift her gaze away from her phone screen. As she looked at the curses of the netizens, she felt a little breathless. With the popularity of "Missing Girl", she also gained fame. This also caused a lot of people to scold her. It was overwhelming, and even Shen Hanxing was scolded. Han Yin was worried that she had brought this to Shen Hanxing. It made her wonder if filming a movie was a good choice. Han Yin's eyes filled with confusion and sadness.

Han Yin could not understand. A few minutes ago, she had been praised for her excellent acting skills and looked lively. Then, they suddenly cursed her. What did she do wrong?

At this moment, a social recommendation popped out on Han Yin's phone. It was from Ji Ning. "There's no conflict between Han Yin and me. We, young ladies, are jealous of each other to get sister-in-law's attention." Even though Ji Ning's personality was different, she was still shy and introverted. She rarely spoke on the internet but was Maestro Lin Ran's student. She had performed at the F Nation's Grand Theatre at a young age and even played the violin live on social media platforms, so she had a certain fan base. The moment she sent the post, it attracted many people to watch the comments. Countless people agreed. "That's right! If I had a sister-in-law like Shen Hanxing, I would also want to stick to Shen Hanxing daily. No one can snatch her from me!"

Han Yin and the others handled the scandal promptly. Coupled with Ji Ning's voice, public opinion gradually changed. Han Yin lifted her head in surprise and looked at Ji Ning beside her. She opened her mouth, not knowing what to say. She had always understood how the Ji family's brothers and sisters ostracized her. The feeling was not strong, but they feared she would snatch Shen Hanxing away.

Although she did not have any grudges against the Ji family, she was still surprised that Ji Ning could clarify things for her.

Ji Ning put her phone away and noticed Han Yin's gaze. Her face flushed red. She was straightforward and sensitive, so she could easily understand others' feelings. For the sake of others, she was the most caring little angel among the Ji family's children.

"I, I'm just telling the truth," Ji Ning pursed her lips. She opened her eyes wide and said softly, "But that doesn't mean I like you. You still can't snatch sister-in-law away from me!" She didn't like how people on the internet twisted the truth and didn't want her sister-in-law to worry! As she spoke, Ji Ning couldn't help but feel guilty. It was as if she had betrayed Ji Qian and Ji Mo's advice and betrayed the united front of the siblings.

"That's my sister Hanxing. You guys are the ones snatching her away from me. It's been a long time since I've met her..." Han Yin retorted subconsciously.
