Chapter 2341: Good Behavior

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

"She caught a cold when she came back yesterday, but she's pregnant, so she can't take any medicine. She can only endure it." Mrs. Jiang brought out the dishes for everyone. Then, she revealed a somewhat awkward smile and said, "It's okay. She's a doctor, so she'll take good care of herself. Everyone, eat and drink more tonight. I don't know if the dishes I make are to your liking. If you have anything you want to eat, you can tell me. I'll make them for you. If anyone likes spicy food but can't eat spicy food, I'll make something else too."

"Auntie, don't cook too much. We can't even fit all the dishes on the table. How can we finish all of them?" Zhou Junmin pulled Mrs. Jiang to sit down and then stuffed a bowl and a spoon into her hands, saying, "Let's eat. Don't worry about feeding us."

"That's right, that's right. None of us are picky with our food. Besides, Auntie, your culinary skills are so good that everything you cook is delicious!"

One by one, the young brats spoke sweetly, making Mrs. Jiang laugh. However, Mrs. Jiang did not feel at ease eating either. In the end, she still went to the kitchen; halfway through, she cooked more soup and dishes for everyone. She was pleased to see that everyone else was having a good time.

Mrs. Jiang prepared some fruits when she realized there was nothing else for her to do. She placed a large bowl of fruits on the table outside before entering Jiang Yao's bedroom with a small plate.

There were no loud voices from the people drinking and chatting outside because they cared for Jiang Yao, who was resting in the bedroom. After applying makeup, Jiang Yao's face was as white as paper. Mrs. Jiang would have been heartbroken if she had not watched Jiang Yao gradually change her complexion when she saw Jiang Yao lying on the bed with a sickly look.

"Eat some fruits," Mrs. Jiang said. "Ask Xingzhi to get a durian for you tomorrow. Zhou Junmin got you two durians when he went to the city for a meeting yesterday. That child is very thoughtful. He looks lively and honest. I wonder if he has a partner yet."

"Who do you want to introduce him to?" Jiang Yao took the fruit plate and asked with a smile.

"Xiaoxiao, that girl is very likable," Mrs. Jiang said.

"Xiaoxiao seems to be dating someone," Jiang Yao said. "As for Zhou Junmin, I really don't know. He always said he was alone, but it seems that he once dated someone in Jin City, but it probably did not last long before they separated." "Well, forget it. It's useless for me to worry about other people's children."

Jiang Yao's mother shook her head helplessly. "Actually, Xiaoxiao's father wouldn't be willing to let Xiaoxiao marry a soldier. Being a military wife is too hard. Seeing you like that, your father and I sometimes regret it."

"Mom, if I don't regret it myself, then why do you regret it? Xingzhi is very good, better than anyone else." Jiang Yao threw herself into her mother's arms and acted coquettishly. "Have you ever seen a husband spoil his wife as much as Xingzhi dotes on me?"

"That's true. Your father and I have lived for so many years and have never seen anyone as blessed as you. You don't know how envious the people in our village are when they talk about you and Xingzhi. In the past, people laughed at parents raising a daughter like you—a loser. Now, they compliment us when they see your father and me walking around."

"That's right! The man I have is the best in the world." Only Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao could say such unscrupulous words.. If he were there, if he heard those words, Lu Xingzhi would shoot up into the sky!

Chapter 2342: How Many People?

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

In the room, the mother and daughter talked for a while. Mrs. Jiang held Jiang Yao in her arms and fed the fruits on the fruit platter to Jiang Yao, just as she used to hold her daughter when she was a child.

At that moment, Lu Xingzhi was chatting happily in the living room. In the room, Mrs. Jiang and her daughter were in a scene of motherly love and filial piety.

Mrs. Jiang cherished that peace because she could not guarantee when Jiang Yao would return after she left the army base.

Mrs. Jiang had a lot of worries in her heart, but she did not dare to say a word. She was afraid that if she said anything, it would only add more psychological burden to Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi, so she could only act as if nothing had happened. Just like an elder who trusted in Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi's abilities, she only did her best to take care of them. She gave her children the best care that an elder could give. As for the rest, it seemed like she could only leave it to fate.

If it were possible, she would be willing to face that danger on Jiang Yao's behalf. However, that was not something she could simply replace because she wanted to.

Mrs. Jiang lingered in the room with Jiang Yao before leaving. She would go outside to warm up the soup for the guests who were drinking and eating outside as it was cold. However, just as Mrs. Jiang was about to leave, a soldier ran in anxiously.

While running, that soldier yelled, "Colonel Lu, something bad has happened! Something bad has happened!"

When the soldier shouted, everyone in the room stopped drinking. The young soldier panted. "A group of people said they were the family members of those on the cruise ship," he said, pointing to the door. "They gathered at the entrance and asked the troops to exchange their family members for Mrs. Lu."

"How many people came?" Lu Xingzhi frowned.

"More than a hundred people came. The elderly, the weak, women, and children accounted for the majority. Only 30 to 40 percent of them were young and strong. Our people guarded the entrance and did not let them in. They did not force their way in either. However, they kept standing at the entrance and shouting random things as if they wouldn't leave until they saw Mrs. Lu."

"Aren't they being rude? They even forced their way here like that? They want his wife to go and exchange for their family members?" Zhou Junmin was instantly enraged. "Who's the leader? He's bold enough to cause trouble at the entrance, so let's kill him with a single shot as a spy!"

"There are so many hostages' family members in the city?"

Lu Xingzhi sneered, "I'll go and take a look. You guys continue drinking."

"Colonel Lu, the Chief is already there. You should wait." The young soldier pulled Lu Xingzhi back and was worried that Hades Lu would really pull out his gun and kill the person once he went there.

Jiang Yao walked out of the bedroom. While putting on her coat, she said, "Xingzhi, I'll go with you."

"Go! Go! Let's all go!" Zhou Junmin finished the remaining wine in his cup in one gulp and said, "I'd like to see which one of them is pretending to be a victim here!" There were no victims from Luo City. The passengers on that cruise ship were mostly from the north. There were a few victims from Nanjiang City, the closest city to Luo City. Where did those people come from?

After saying that, Zhou Junmin turned to Jiang Yao and said, "Don't go if you're not feeling well.."

Chapter 2343: Stood Forward

"I'm involved in this, so why shouldn't I go? Besides, with all of you here, why should I be afraid? I know the army will protect me from those 100 people."

Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi's suspicions were the same. Someone had arranged for them to go to the army base to cause trouble. Ordinary people would not have the courage to cause trouble there.

Furthermore, not all the troops that had gone missing were there. Even though the news of her disappearance had spread from the city and some reports stated that she was a military wife, they did not mention which base she was at. Those people had gone to that place so accurately, which meant that someone had guided them.

In the end, only Mrs. Jiang was left at home alone. A large group of people supported Jiang Yao as they marched toward the main entrance. More and more soldiers came after hearing the news. They followed Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao all the way to the main entrance. They only had one goal. No one was allowed to bully one of them in the army base.

When Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao arrived, the chief had just arrived and tried to reason with everyone. However, the group of people was still shouting and cursing non-stop. They did not take the chief seriously at all.

From afar, Jiang Yao could clearly see that the people who kept cursing non-stop were all young and strong men hiding behind the crowd. On the other hand, the elderly, children, and women in front quietly listened to the chief's words.

"I believe that all of you who have read the newspapers know that although the military wife is the student of the Divine Doctor, she is only a young wife. She is only 20 years old. She went missing for a few days and returned to the base two days ago. However, her physical condition is very poor. As you all know, she is currently pregnant. However, even under such circumstances, she still agreed to exchange herself for the return of your loved ones. However, some conditions still have not been negotiated with the other party. Therefore, I hope all of you will not gather here to threaten and cause trouble."

The chief's words were honest and sincere. He spoke of Jiang Yao as a great person who would sacrifice herself for others. He also told everyone about Jiang Yao's current situation. He hoped everyone would remember Jiang Yao's difficulties and how much she would sacrifice for everyone.

"We don't care about her condition. We just want our family members! Who knows if you're lying when you say that her health isn't good? Maybe you're just stalling for time!"

"That's right. What conditions are we talking about? If the kidnappers won't agree to those conditions, wouldn't they use our family members as punching bags? If something happens to our family members, who will be responsible for it?"

Even though the lighting was poor in the middle of the night, and the person who spoke was hidden in the crowd, Jiang Yao remembered that person's appearance at a glance.

She stood forward. Her voice was so soft that the wind could blow it away. Then, she said, "Whoever kidnaps your loved ones will be responsible. I have already promised to trade my own and the child in my womb's safety for the chance for your loved ones to return. The country is also doing everything it can to help them. We are all working extremely hard. So, how about you? What are you all up to?"

Jiang Yao's voice became more and more listless as she spoke. "Some people did not believe my current state just now. Alright, if you don't believe what you were told, stand at the front to take a good look. If you still don't believe me, then go and find doctors to diagnose my condition.."

Chapter 2344: Once Discovered

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

"I am gambling with my child's life and my life. What is your motivation for stirring trouble here? Use my poor health to enrage me to my death? It is a good thing I am enraged. At the very least, my child and I will not perish in a foreign land."

After using both soft and hard tactics, Jiang Yao could see that some elders' expressions had changed. Perhaps one or two of them felt sorry for her, a pregnant young woman, or maybe they were worried that she would die of anger and no one would be able to bring their loved ones back. However, at least they were silent. Even their hearts were quiet.

"None of the hostages are from Luo City; only two are from Nanjiang City. Most of them are from the north. However, the news about my return had only been reported. So, I'd like to know how you knew I was here? And who persuaded you to come here to force my hand? You are a large group, and you're gathering at the army base entrance to cause trouble. Maybe there are spies among you? Or maybe the kidnappers are among you? They brought you here to make things difficult for me so that I would be forced to accept their terms. The ultimate beneficiaries will be them.'

After saying that, Lu Xingzhi walked up and pulled Jiang Yao behind him. His tall body blocked everyone's gaze from Jiang Yao.

"The country punishes spies severely. Once they are discovered, they will be executed immediately!" Lu Xingzhi's words were powerful and pierced through everyone's eardrums. "Now, none of you are allowed to leave. We will begin to examine and verify the information. If we discover that you are not related to any of the hostages, you will be treated as spies. You will be sent to a military court and executed immediately!"

After saying that, Lu Xingzhi gestured for the soldiers guarding the entrance to open the gate. He acted as if he would lead his soldiers to control everyone outside.

However, when Lu Xingzhi's hand touched the gate, there was a commotion. Even though the night was dark, one could still see many people trying their best to push the people who were blocking their way and escape.

Lu Xingzhi gestured for his people not to go out. He stood there listening to the commotion. The children were pushed to the ground, and they cried loudly. Some people were trampled and scolded loudly. However, when everyone returned to their senses in just a few minutes, less than half of the initial crowd remained.

The remaining people looked left and right and immediately understood they had been used. Those who had escaped were the kidnappers' subordinates. Even if they were not subordinates, they still worked for them.

"I did not expect there would still be so many scourges left in society." Zhou Junmin clicked his tongue.

"Everyone, the country does not treat the lives of your loved ones as a joke. Everyone is working hard to save them. Therefore, I hope that you can maintain your rationality and calmness in the future. You must not be used by others again." The chief stepped forward promptly and said, "We will conduct an audit now. After the audit has confirmed that there are no other problems, the army will arrange for a car to send you to the downtown area. If there are any doubts in the audit, they will be sent to the police station for verification. If they are confirmed to be spies, they will be sent to the military court."

Those words were nothing more than an attempt to coax those commoners who did not know the law. However, it was indeed useful. A few people ran away when they saw the chief bringing people out..

Chapter 2345: Capture Them

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“Don’t let any of them go!” The chief took the lead and chased after them. There were only a few of them, so it was best to capture and interrogate them properly. It would be best if they could get something out of them. If they could not get anything out of them, then they would just have to make an example out of them.

They were not good people, so teaching them a lesson would be considered a societal contribution.

The farce appeared out of nowhere and was quickly put down. Jiang Yao shivered as she hid behind Lu Xingzhi. The wind was too cold at night, and her coat was much thinner.

With the makeup on Jiang Yao’s face, Lu Xingzhi could not see her true appearance, so when he was done, he went to hold Jiang Yao’s hand. He quickly removed his coat and draped it over her shoulders, sensing the coldness in her palm. “You don’t even know how to talk when you are cold,” he reprimanded her quietly.

“I just came back to my senses.” Jiang Yao quickly saw her body shrinking into Lu Xingzhi’s coat. The coat still carried his warmth. He was tall, so his clothes were big as well; wearing them on her body was like a child stealing an adult’s clothes.

“Oh, right! Some of them hid in the bushes by the roadside. They don’t have any weapons on them. They must be greedy for money to be here. Will they be arrested as well?” Jiang Yao asked.

“I’ll inform the police. We’ll catch them all,” Lu Xingzhi said.

“Those unruly people!” Zhou Junmin walked to Jiang Yao’s side and whispered, “Colonel, time to bring Mrs. Lu home to rest. It’s late, so we won’t go back to drink. We’ll hide the rest of the wine and wait for your return and continue drinking.”

Everyone knew the reason Lu Xingzhi wanted to go with Jiang Yao. After Zhou Junmin finished speaking, he rubbed his palms and said, “Why don’t you bring me along too? One more person to take care of you.”

Very few people were willing to put their lives in the hands of others, so Jiang Yao was sincerely grateful for Zhou Junmin’s care.

They came in a group, but only Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao went back. When there was no one else, Lu Xingzhi carried Jiang Yao in his arms and quickly went home.

Mrs. Jiang had been waiting at the gate. When she saw Lu Xingzhi carrying Jiang Yao, she was so scared that she almost cried.

“What’s wrong? What happened to Yaoyao?” Mrs. Jiang’s voice was choked with sobs.

“Mom, Yaoyao is fine. She’s just cold, so I carried her back to save her from catching a cold,” Lu Xingzhi hurriedly explained. “The people outside ran away. The chief brought some men to chase after them. The rest were arranged to verify their identities. My wife and I did not step out of the entrance.”

Mrs. Jiang patted her chest repeatedly and said, “Right, Yaoyao’s phone kept ringing not long after you guys went out. It’s that old phone. It’s an unknown number, so I did not pick it up.”

Lu Xingzhi carried Jiang Yao to the living room sofa before he put her down. He threw a blanket on Jiang Yao and went to the bedroom to get her phone. He looked at the phone. There were a few missed calls, but the numbers were all unknown. Obviously, the person had used extraordinary means to block the phone numbers.

Lu Xingzhi had a hunch that that call was not from an ordinary person. When the phone was in Jiang Yao’s hands, Jiang Yao looked at it and dialed back. Lu Xingzhi sat beside Jiang Yao and listened closely..

Chapter 2346: Non-negotiable

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

As expected, the call did not come from an ordinary person but from the organization’s boss.

“Doctor Jiang, don’t you like the gift I gave you tonight?”

Jiang Yao snorted after she heard it. “It seems that you’re not well-informed either. Don’t you know that your useless subordinates were scared out of their wits and ran away?”

The other party suddenly fell silent. His breathing became heavy. It was obvious that he had not expected that. He did not know that what he had intended to show off and threaten had suddenly become a joke, so he was a little angry.

His breathing became heavy and then slowly calmed down. It was apparent that he had adjusted his emotions.

“Doctor Jiang, I can only agree to one of your three conditions. That is to have your husband and two of your bodyguards come with you.”

“I won’t go if any of the three conditions are not met.” Jiang Yao’s attitude was not very good, but her tone was very determined. “There’s no room for discussion. When you return my roommates and Qian Yunen, I will leave the army base with my husband and go to you.”

Without giving the other party a chance to speak, Jiang Yao quickly followed up and said, “At worst, I won’t save anyone. I won’t care about my roommates, nor will I care about the 300 hostages. Similarly, I won’t treat the people you want me to treat. If you’re worried that people will condemn you and you’ll be forced to compromise, then you’re worrying too much. I’ve been out of contact for so many days, but no one has found me, right? Didn’t I have to rely on myself to come back? I saved people and became their benefactor. Do you think I need them to protect me? I have great medical skills. Do you think anyone will not welcome me as their doctor?”

“If my husband is willing to follow me, then I will bring my husband and all my family members and leave. If my husband is unwilling to follow me, I will divorce him and bring my closest family members with me. After ten years, who will remember this? When that time comes, I will live an incognito life.”

Jiang Yao’s words blocked the words that the other party had yet to say. Did they not take her roommates and those 300 hostages? Everyone knew about that. If she did not go, everyone would scold her.

Jiang Yao told him that she and her family had a stable escape route. If she was ruthless, she could also live her own life without any worries.

Therefore, Jiang Yao let the other party know that her three conditions were not open for discussion. If they could not meet them, then she would drop everything.

Sure enough, the other party was silent for a long time. Then he suddenly hung up the phone. Before that, Jiang Yao could still hear the other party cursing in a low voice.

Lu Xingzhi took Jiang Yao’s phone and placed it on the coffee table. He pinched

Jiang Yao’s nose and said, “My wife is really smart.”

“Do you think he will believe me?” Jiang Yao asked uncertainly.

“He will believe you.” Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao in his arms. “Just wait and see. He will call you again in two days.”

Lu Xingzhi overestimated the other party because the other party called back after only five minutes. When Jiang Yao saw that, she was immediately amused.

“Have you thought about it?” Once she picked up the phone, Jiang Yao asked arrogantly.

“Are you sure that you can cure all diseases? What if I agree with your conditions and you can’t do it?”

Chapter 2347: Turn Off Your Phone

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“So it depends on whether or not you want to bet on it. You were certain that I could cure the person, right? How can you expect me to be certain if you are not sure? But I can tell you with certainty that my teacher, the Divine Doctor, is no longer alive, but I have inherited most of her medical knowledge. If I can’t cure it, then no one will be able to cure it in the next few years. Of course, I am not a god; I am just a doctor. I can’t cure all diseases.”

“It’s easy to say that you’re not a god. Then, wouldn’t it be easy for you to take back your roommates and Qian Yunen and then say that you don’t have a cure?”

“But aren’t my people already in your territory? Aren’t there more than 300 lives in your hands? Do you think I’m easy? I’m a doctor. It’s my duty to save lives. If I can save them, why won’t I save them? Are you trying to ruin your own reputation? Are you trying to ruin your own life? Are you trying to ruin the lives of more than 300 people?”

Jiang Yao’s smile spread like wildfire. “You went to look for Du Chen in Jindo City. Since you know to look for Du Chen, you should understand how bad his condition was, right? He had seen almost all the doctors in the world, but did anyone give him hope? Everyone told him he would be like that for the rest of his life, but I made him stand up again. Isn’t that enough?”

The other party was obviously an arrogant person. He hung up the phone without saying anything. Obviously, no matter how arrogant Jiang Yao was, he could be even more arrogant than her.

“Turn off your phone and go to bed.” Lu Xingzhi pointed at the clock on the wall. “If he calls again and can’t get through, it’ll make him anxious.”

Why was he always the one who hung up on his wife?

"Smart. I can't let others think that I'm in a hurry. I also have to make him think that his schemes do not suffocate me. If I turn off my phone, he'll think I don't care about him. It's only about treating a patient." Jiang Yao agreed with Lu Xingzhi's suggestion, so she quickly turned off her phone and followed him to the bedroom.

Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi understood what that call meant. They would soon leave the army base.

"Have a good rest." Lu Xingzhi kissed Jiang Yao on the forehead and said good night. Then, he gently hugged her in his arms.

The night was cold and windy. The next day, she opened the window. The sky was so low that he could reach the dark clouds in the sky.

"It's going to rain soon." Jiang Yao retracted her hand from the window. In the next second, a pink scarf fell on her shoulders. She did not need to guess to know that it was Lu Xingzhi.

"Do you want to wear a hat and gloves?" Lu Xingzhi shook the other two pieces in his hand and asked.

Jiang Yao quickly shook her head. It was too exaggerated to wear gloves and a hat at that time.

Mrs. Jiang was calling the two of them out in the living room for breakfast. Jiang Yao answered and slowly opened her phone. There was a text message with an unknown sender number in the inbox.

Jiang Yao finished reading it in one glance. Then, she tugged at Lu Xingzhi's clothes and handed the phone to him. There was not a hint of joy in her voice.

"We can leave soon."

The text message said that they would release her roommates within 24 hours. They wanted Jiang Yao to leave within 48 hours. Otherwise, even a one-hour delay would result in the death of one person.

The text message was sent at around three in the morning. It was then seven in the morning, and nearly four hours had passed. Therefore, Lin Qiaoyu and the others would be back in 20 hours. Qian Yunen would also be sent back with them..

Chapter 2348: Perfect Timing

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“Okay, let’s go see what Mom made this morning.” Lu Xingzhi put Jiang Yao’s phone into his pocket and led her out of the bedroom.

The dishes on the breakfast table were very sumptuous. Mrs. Jiang was a person who could not stay idle. Early in the morning, she picked some vegetables in the yard and made a few dishes. She hoped that Jiang Yao could eat more.

Halfway through the meal, Jiang Yao suddenly placed her spoon on the table and told Mrs. Jiang about her departure. Mrs. Jiang’s initially smiling face suddenly froze. Then she nodded slowly and acknowledged her.

“I guess it’s unlikely that Qian Yunen will be sent back intact, so we have to make a trip to Jindo City first,” Jiang Yao said. “We can also meet Qiaoyu and the others.”

“Okay.” Mrs. Jiang was like a machine that only knew how to nod repeatedly. Her lowered head covered her slightly red eyes.

“Mom, I am always lucky. I will definitely come back in one piece.” Jiang Yao stood up and went to Mrs. Jiang’s side. She put her hands around Mrs. Jiang’s waist. “Didn’t you say you found someone to read my fortune when I was young? The fortune-teller said that I had a rare good fate. So no matter what, I can always turn the situation around.”

Jiang Yao’s mother was comforted by Jiang Yao’s words, and her tears started to fall. She patted Jiang Yao’s arm heavily, and her tone was filled with heartache. “You and Xingzhi always make us worry. You will only make our hearts ache.”

Of the three children in the family, Jiang Yao was the youngest and the one Mrs. Jiang was most worried about. The older her daughter got, the more worried she got for her.

“Mom, I’m sorry,” Lu Xingzhi said. He was very sorry. He married Jiang Yao, but he always put her in danger. He was not a good husband and son-in-law.

“You did not let me down. I know. You have been working hard and doing your best. You did not let anyone down.” Mrs. Jiang shook her head and wiped her tears.

Lu Xingzhi had sacrificed his life for the army. He did not let down the country or the army. At home, he had given all his love to his wife, Jiang Yao.

Therefore, he did not let down Jiang Yao. He was also very filial. He also did not let down his elders.

Mrs. Jiang knew that many things could not be perfect in that world.

"I'll keep an eye on the house for you. When you come back, the house will be clean. I'll tidy up the yard for you, and when you come back, you'll be able to eat the vegetables I planted for you," Mrs. Jiang said. "So the two of you must come back together and let me continue to take care of you. I still have to take care of my grandson. Lu Chenyang, my grandson, will be very good-looking."

The news that the Divine Doctor's student's three roommates and the real murderer in the vicious murder case in Yuan City were released spread very quickly. The local radios began broadcasting that matter non-stop as soon as they were sent out.

Lu Xingzhi brought Jiang Yao to look for the chief while Mrs. Jiang helped the two pack up their clothes at home. She did not know where they were going or what season it was, so Mrs. Jiang packed up several sets of clothes.

"Colonel, Mrs. Lu!"

Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao did not go out for long before they met a soldier who called out to them from afar. He smiled and said, "Perfect timing! Two people from last night wanted to see you. They wanted to apologize to Mrs. Lu.."

Chapter 2349: Sorry About Last Night

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

After a pause, the soldier said, "It's a young woman who brought her son to the city alone." The mother and son are currently at the chief's office."

"That's great. Your colonel and I are also looking for the chief to discuss some matters." Jiang Yao pouted her lips in the direction of the office building.

"Mrs. Lu, have you felt much better after resting for a night? Why didn't you rest a little longer?" Jiang Yao's health was probably the biggest concern of the entire army. When the young soldier spoke, he paid more attention to Mrs. Lu's expression, but it did not seem much better than the previous day.

However, that was also very normal. After the previous day's incident, no one was in a good mood.

"Oh, right! The chief said that that organization had already agreed to your conditions. He asked you to set off in two days." The young soldier sighed. They were about to set off. Those who were mentally weak would probably be so afraid that they would not be able to get out of bed. However, Mrs. Lu could still force a smile and talk to him. Her voice was still as gentle and soft as before. It was truly rare.

The young soldier looked at Lu Xingzhi and saluted him. "Colonel, we will wait for you and your wife to return triumphantly to the army! Colonel, you must take good care of her. You must also take good care of yourself, Colonel!" Lu Xingzhi returned the military salute and smiled. Then, he held Jiang Yao's hand and strode away.

Just as the young soldier had said, when Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao's hand and brought her to the chief's office, there was indeed a young woman and a five-year-old child inside. Judging from their clothes, they were probably from an ordinary family.

"That is the Divine Doctor's student you're here to see. You can call her Doctor Jiang. That is her husband, the most outstanding soldier in our army. He has made countless contributions." When the chief mentioned Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao, he was very proud. That couple could be said to be the model couple in the army. Lu Xingzhi had been in the military for many years and had performed countless meritorious deeds. As his wife, Jiang Yao had also performed many meritorious deeds.

If the chief had to describe Jiang Yao, she could be described as a woman who was not inferior to a man. Even though she did not know how to fight, she was quick-witted and had a body of medical skills. She had also performed many meritorious deeds for that country's army.

"Doctor Jiang." The young woman immediately held her son's hand and stood up to look at Jiang Yao. She quickly said, "I'm sorry for last night. I was provoked by others and brought my child here to cause trouble. I thought about it all night and still felt that it was our fault. I can't feel at ease if I don't apologize to you."

"Doctor, I'm sorry." The five-year-old boy also apologized very seriously.

The two were full of worry. Such an undisguised expression made Jiang Yao's heart move slightly. It was a little soft but also a little warm.

Before she left, those two gave her a sense of positive energy and made her feel warm.

"Which of your family members was kidnapped?" Jiang Yao asked.

"My mother," the young woman explained, blushing.

"My mother went with her master's family. She was supposed to take care of her master's family, but she did not expect that to happen."

Jiang Yao nodded. From the woman's words, she guessed that her mother should be someone's servant who was there to take care of her master's family. She did not expect something like that to happen.

"I grew up with my mother. My mother brought me up by working as a servant in other people's homes to earn money. Unfortunately, my life was not good. My husband had an accident shortly after I got married, and I was still pregnant. After that, I was chased out by my husband's family. When my child was still very young, my mother was also the one who worked hard to take care of me. So when I heard that my mother had an accident, I couldn't calm the anger in my heart, so I was inspired to come here..”

Chapter 2350: Good Intentions

The young woman's eyes slowly reddened when she spoke of her mother. She nervously rubbed the corner of her clothes with one hand and held her son tightly with the other. She seemed to have made up her mind. Then, she looked at Jiang Yao. She said, “Doctor Jiang, if you can, please try your best to save them. But please don't make things difficult for yourself. If there's no other way, please take care of yourself, and take care of yourself and your child. My mother's life is important, and so are yours and your child's life. We can't be so selfish as to ask others to exchange their lives for others.”

She was a mother, so the young woman knew better than anyone that her child was more important than anyone else. She wanted her mother to come home; however, she could not selfishly ask a pregnant woman to sacrifice her life and that of her soon-to-be-born child for her family.

After the young woman finished speaking, she bowed toward Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi. “On behalf of all the victims and their families, I would like to thank both of you for your efforts. I believe the country is working hard, and both of you are working hard. Even if they do not return, my child and I still believe that our country will protect its citizens.

“Doctor, my teacher said that the army is all about self-sacrifice, and doctors are all about saving lives and helping the wounded. You are all heroes! Thank you!” Those were the purest and truest words in the world.

The young woman took the child and left. The child looked back at the people in the office, and the child's young voice still reached the ears of the people in the office.

“Mom, I want Grandma, but I don't want anything to happen to the uncle and the doctor. The doctor is going to have a baby, and I don't want anything to happen to the baby. How come there is no superhero in this world? If only we have a superhero.”

They had walked too far, so Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao could not hear the mother's reply to her child. However, unlike the previous night's anger, all the negative emotions were gone at that moment.

"Xingzhi, those people are worthy of our protection, right?" Jiang Yao sniffed. She could not hide how touched she was.

"Not everyone is a troublemaker," the chief said with a sigh. "There are still people with good intentions. We should try not to disappoint them."

After sighing, the chief asked the two of them why they were there. The chief immediately nodded when he heard they were preparing to leave that day.

"When we receive the notice, we will arrange for a military plane to send you to Jindo City."

"My mother-in-law is unwilling to return to her hometown. Before my wife and I return, please help us take care of her. I will ask my mother to accompany her, so she doesn't have to stay home alone and let her imagination run wild." Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao originally wanted to send Mrs. Jiang back to the countryside; however, Mrs. Jiang was unwilling, so Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao did not insist.

The chief readily agreed. The three talked about the matter in the office for nearly half an hour before Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao returned home. When they returned, Mrs. Jiang was on the phone. When she saw that Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi had returned, Mrs. Jiang happily put down the phone. She said, "Your father called. He said he wanted to stay with me in the army base and wait for the two of you to return. Oh, right! Your elder brother and sister-in-law also said that your father would bring the child along. They want us to help take care of the child in the army base during this period.."
