

After leaving Elder Yao's residence, Su Yang went straight to the mission hall to find himself a new mission.

Now that he has the Sect Master's approval to leave the sect, Su Yang no longer bothered with the missions meant for Outer Court Disciples, as they were all restricted within the sect.

When the disciples noticed Su Yang looking at the section meant for Inner Court disciples, a few of them went up to him and said, "Junior apprentice-disciple, you are looking at missions meant for Inner Court Disciples since they require you to leave the sect. The missions for Outer Court Disciples such as yourself are over there."

Su Yang thanked them for their reminder before saying, "I am aware. I received permission to leave the sect from the Sect Master herself."

"The Sect Leader?! How did you manage to do that?!" The disciples were shocked to hear such information.

"I asked nicely." Su Yang smiled.

After returning to the missions, Su Yang found several that piqued his interest.

(High Priority: This female client is looking for a highly skilled Dual Cultivator to relieve her of stress without intercourse. Disclaimer: 17 disciples have failed so far.)

(High Priority: This female client is looking for a highly skilled Dual Cultivator who can please her without skin-to-skin contact. Disclaimer: 21 disciples have failed so far.)

Su Yang focused mostly on the missions with a high priority, as they would give him more rewards and contribute points. However, most of these high-priority missions are incredibly difficult because the clients are usually those who wish to preserve their purity and prohibit sexual intercourse, so they are more often than not never fulfilled.

'High priority missions, huh... How nostalgic...'

Su Yang reminisced about when he was still a mere disciple at the Boundless Yin Yang Sect when the Sect Leader would essentially force all of the high-priority missions onto him because he was the only disciple who was skilled enough to fulfill these clients.

However, because of these missions, his skills only became increasingly better. It even reached a point where almost all of the missions sent to the Boundless Yin Yang Sect requested Su Yang and only Su Yang's talent.

The number of missions requested for Su Yang was enough to keep him busy for a decade even if he worked every day, and it caused the sect countless headaches, as the other disciples would constantly complain about having no missions.

The sect tried to fix this by refusing any more requests that were specifically requested for Su Yang, but that didn't change anything since people stopped requesting services entirely.

In the end, the sect gave up and changed their entire system so that disciples no longer needed to do missions to be promoted and earn Pleasure Points, and things wouldn't go back to normal until a thousand years later when Su Yang left the Boundless Yin Yang Sect to explore the world on his own.

Once he was finished reminiscing about his past, Su Yang picked three high-priority missions and walked to the front desk with them.

When the Sect Elder working on that day saw Su Yang holding three pieces of paper, he raised an eyebrow. Although it wasn't against the rules to accept more than one mission at a time, many disciples that take more than one mission at a time usually never finish all of them, and since a mission can only be assigned to one disciple at a time, it wasted time for both parties.

The Sect Elder didn't say anything at first. However, when he realized that these missions were meant for Inner Court Disciples and Su Yang was wearing an Outer Court Disciple's robe, he became annoyed and slightly angry.

"These missions require you to leave the sect." The Sect Elder said to Su Yang, trying his best to be patient.

"I am aware." Su Yang calmly responded.

"Then are you aware that unless you have permission from the Sect Leader herself, Outer Court Disciples such as yourself are prohibited from leaving the sect?"

"I am."

The Sect Elder's patience ran out at this point, and he angrily slammed the desk, "Then why the hell are you wasting my time bringing me these missions that you clearly cannot do?!"

Su Yang casually pulled out a medallion and placed it on the desk right beside the Sect Elder's fist.

"But I can do them."

The Sect Elder's eyes widened with shock when he saw the medallion, and he didn't believe what he was seeing at first.

"T-This is real?" The Sect Elder asked in a shaky voice.

"Of course. You can check it yourself." Su Yang nodded.

The Sect Elder held the medallion with trembling hands as he carefully inspected the medallion.

Although he has heard and studied about the Sect Leader's medallion, this is his first time actually seeing one since he joined the sect 1,500 years ago.

"I-It's real..." The Sect Elder muttered in disbelief before looking at Su Yang with a sense of wonder.

"How did you get this?"

"How else? The Sect Leader gave it to me." Su Yang calmly said.

Of course, it was handed to him by Elder Yao when he went to give her more Yang Qi right before going to the mission hall.

"I meant what did you do to get it!"

"It's nothing worth mentioning. But if you really interested, you can go ask the Sect Leader." Su Yang showed him an innocent smile while essentially telling him that he didn't deserve to know the details.

The Sect Elder swallowed nervously. As curious as he was about the medallion and what Su Yang did to acquire it, he was aware that he didn't qualify to know such information.

Thus, he stopped talking about the medallion and handed it back to Su Yang.

"Give me a minute to officially assign you these three missions... It will only take a few minutes." The Sect Elder said in a low voice as he began writing in his book.

Su Yang didn't say anything else and patiently waited for the Sect Elder to finish.

A few minutes later, the Sect Elder handed Su Yang three different jade slips and said, "All of the information you need to know about each mission will be inside these jade slips, and the client's instructions will also be in there. Each client will have different instructions for how and when they want to meet, so do not try and do all three at once. Finish one before you start another. Do you have any questions?"

"No, I do not."

"Also, you will be given a month to complete each mission, so you must return to the sect before the three months are up. If you are even half a day late, you will be punished by the sect. Do you understand?" The Sect Elder handed Su Yang a piece of talisman and continued, "The talisman will warn you every month and a week before your time is up. Good luck out there, and stay out of trouble."

"Thank you." Su Yang gave a courteous bow to the Sect Elder before leaving the mission hall and returning to his living quarters.

Chapter 1057: Three Months

After returning to his living quarters, Su Yang called for both Mei Xing and Mei Ying.

"What's the matter, Manager? Did something happen?" Mei Xing asked him.

"No, at least not yet." Su Yang shook his head.

"Not yet?" Mei Ying raised an eyebrow.

"I will be leaving the Sect shortly to do a few missions. Unfortunately, I won't be able to take the two of you with me, so you will have to stay behind by yourselves."

"Eh?! What about Big Sister Xiao Rong?!" Mei Xing asked.

"She has to come with me since we cannot be too far from each other."

"How long will you be gone for?" Mei Ying then asked.

"At most three months, but I will most likely return way before then. These missions aren't difficult in general. The most difficult part is getting there. Don't worry, this building has multiple powerful formations protecting it, so as long as you stay inside the building, no harm will come to you. I will also ask a friend to check up on you two once in a while."

"Three months..." Mei Xing mumbled.

Although that amount of time may seem like nothing to Su Yang, it was still a lot of time for mortals like Mei Xing and Mei Ying.

Su Yang could tell what they were thinking, and he said, "If you're going to follow me, you need to get used to this. I cannot be with you at all times, after all."

"Don't worry, Manager. It's only three months. If we can't even survive that long without you, we don't deserve to follow you." Mei Ying said with a confident smile on her face.

"R-Right! Although it will be a little lonely, we will survive!" Mei Xing quickly followed, fearing that Su Yang might abandon them if she couldn't handle it.

Su Yang smiled and said, "If you cultivate diligently, you won't even realize it when I am back."

"When do you plan on leaving?" Mei Ying asked a moment later.

"Once I finish some preparations— probably tomorrow."

Sometime later, Su Yang left the house again and made his way to the Inner Court. As for his destination, it was Luo Li's living quarters.

However, Luo Li did not appear to be at home after Su Yang knocked on her doors for several minutes.

Thus, Su Yang left to do something else for the time being.

He made his way to the Treasure Exchange Gallery, where he would purchase some supplies for Mei Ying and Mei Xing so that they wouldn't need to worry about running out of supplies while he was gone.

After that, he made his way back to Luo Li's living quarters to see if she had returned. Su Yang pondered about visiting Lin Xinyi as he made his way to Luo Li's place since she hasn't visited him for another massage since their last one, but he ultimately decided to give her some more time.

Fortunately, as Su Yang reached Luo Li's place, Luo Li was returning herself and was at the doorstep.

"Senior apprentice-sister!" Su Yang called out to her.

"Xiao Yang? What are you doing here?" She was pleasantly surprised to see him.

"I came here to talk to you, and I'm going to ask for a favor."

"Is that so? Let's talk inside." Luo Li invited him into her house.

Su Yang nodded and followed her inside, but instead of going to the living room, Luo Li guided him straight to her bedroom.

Once they entered the bedroom, Luo Li sat on the bed and patted the space beside her, "Sit here."

Su Yang didn't refuse and sat beside her.

"Alright, let's hear it. What kind of favor are you looking for from me?"

Su Yang then explained to her that he would be leaving the Sect for three months to do some missions and that he wanted her to check up on Mei Ying and Mei Xing.

"W-Wait... You can leave the sect already? But you appear to be an Outer Court disciple still..."

Su Yang showed her the Sect Leader's medallion and said, "I managed to receive permission from the Sect Leader."

"No way... I didn't know that was even possible..."

"I will owe you if you can help me." Su Yang then said.

Luo Li shook her head and smiled, "You don't need to owe me anything. You have already done enough for me. I will make sure that your servants are taken care of while you are away from the sect."

"Thank you."

"With that being said, I would appreciate it if you could fill me up one more time before you leave..." Luo Li said as she gazed at him in a starving manner, almost as though she was a prey before her meal.

Su Yang smiled, "Then I will make sure that you will be satisfied for the next three months before I leave this place."

"Eh?" Luo Li immediately had a baffled look on her face.

But before she could even ask him how he would manage such a thing, she was already naked on the bed with Su Yang on top of her.

Several hours later, Su Yang left Luo Li's house with a slight smile on his face. Meanwhile, Luo Li was lying on her bed with her entire body still twitching, her whole bed soaked in Yin Qi, and her hole overflowing with hot Yang Qi.

If someone were to walk in on Luo Li at this moment, they might mistake her as possessed by something by the euphoric expression on her face.

After returning to his living quarters, Su Yang would spend the night filling Mei Ying with his Yang Qi, enough to satisfy her for the next three months. By the end of their session, Mei Ying looked just like Luo Li did after their session—completely exhausted and drained.

The following day, Su Yang said his goodbyes to Mei Ying and Mei Xing before leaving the sect with Xiao Rong

Chapter 1058: Meeting His First Client

After leaving the Boundless Yin Yang Sect with Xiao Rou, Su Yang went to a secluded area before creating a concealment formation around himself.

Once Su Yang had meticulously ensured that he was completely shielded from any prying eyes, he retrieved a small, intricately crafted appearance-altering pill from his spatial ring, and with an unwavering resolve, he raised the pill to his lips and ingested it without the slightest hint of hesitation.

In the immediate aftermath, his transformation began to unfold with astonishing changes. His formerly modest stature grew taller, the proportions of his physique shifting to create a more harmonious balance. However, the most profound metamorphosis took place upon his countenance, where his ordinary face underwent a dramatic transmutation, becoming incredibly handsome.

In the blink of an eye, Su Yang went from an ordinary-looking scholar to a handsome young man who gave off an experienced aura, almost as though he'd lived for longer than he appeared.

Su Yang took out a portable mirror and inspected his new face.

"This should be good enough."

In stark contrast to Dual Cultivators, whose focus leaned more towards skill than appearance, the clients of Boundless Yin Yang Sect comprised mostly of ordinary cultivators who cared greatly about their partner's appearance, demanding nothing less than perfection.

Because of this clear preference, Su Yang couldn't risk approaching them in his ordinary guise, knowing full well they would likely dismiss him outright before he could even get a chance to display his abilities. Thus, he had no choice but to abandon his ordinary appearance and adopt a more fitting persona for a disciple of the Boundless Yin Yang Sect—a strikingly handsome young man who could easily captivate with a simple wink.

Once he was prepared, Su Yang removed the concealment formation and made his way to the nearest city with a transportation device.

Several days later, he arrived at a medium-sized city. When the guards at the front entrance noticed his disciple robes, they greeted him with respect before allowing him to enter the city without any entrance fees.

Once inside the city, Su Yang noticed many glances being tossed in his direction. Naturally, all of them were women who were fancied by his handsome appearance. However, what attracted them the most was his clothing. Since the Boundless Yin Yang Sect was very close to this city, it was important for the city to keep good standing with the sect in case they ever needed assistance from them.

And due to how often the Boundless Yin Yang Sect disciples show up to this city to use their teleportation device, it has become a thing where lustful women would seek them out for pleasure or other opportunities.

"Hey, handsome brother. Are you free right now?"

A group of women approached him from multiple directions seeking his company.

Su Yang greeted them with a warm smile, but he still refused their company, "Sorry, but I am currently on a mission. Perhaps when I return, we can have some fun."

"Don't take too long, or I will die of loneliness!" The women stopped bothering him afterward.

However, another group of women would approach him after he entered a new block.

This continued until Su Yang reached the teleportation device.

"Where would you like to go, Esteemed Disciple?" The man working the device asked him.

"Near Luminous Harbor." Su Yang said.

"The closest city to Luminous Harbor would be Clodtop City. Would that be fine with you?"

Su Yang nodded.

After his confirmation, the man gave him a price for the transportation.

"Because you are a disciple of the esteemed Boundless Yin Yang Sect, we will give you a 10 percent discount."

Once Su Yang handed him the money, he waited to be transported to his destination.

Sometime later, Su Yang teleported to Clodtop City, and from there, he made his way towards Luminous Harbor, where he would meet his first client.

However, before he entered the city, Su Yang changed into a new set of robes that did not scream his identity as a disciple of the Boundless Yin Yang Sect.

Upon arriving at the highly populated Luminous Harbor, which was located right next to a vast sea, Su Yang began asking the pedestrians there about a certain building.

"Hello, would you be able to point me in the direction of 'Gleaming Waterfront Hotel'?"

"That place is located right by the water, near the boats. Just walk straight in that direction and you should arrive in about an hour." A married woman gladly gave Su Yang directions to his destination.

"Thank you very much." Su Yang handed the woman a couple of spirit stones before leaving, which greatly shocked her.

"P-Please wait a moment!" The woman called for him, but Su Yang did not stop walking and casually said, "Have a good rest of your day."

The married woman was speechless. When she snapped out of her daze, she immediately hid the spirit stones and power-walked away.

An hour later, Su Yang arrived at his intended destination, the Gealming Waterfront Hotel. This upscale establishment stood as one of the more luxurious hotels in the city and had been specifically instructed by his client as the designated meeting point.

Upon entering the hotel, Su Yang walked straight to the front desk.

"Hello, how may I help you today?" The receptionist greeted him with a smile.

"Good morning. I am 'Ming Ye', and I was told that I could look for 'Madam Ruby' here."

The atmosphere around the receptionist changed a little when he heard Su Yang's words, and he quickly said, "Of course. I will notify Madam Ruby of your arrival. Please wait in room 3F."

The words he spoke to the receptionist were a coded phrase that his client 'Madam Ruby' had instructed him to say. Since most clients preferred to keep their identity a secret for obvious reasons, it was common practice for them to use covert speeches to communicate with each other.

A moment later, Su Yang headed to room 3F after acquiring the room's key. Then, he proceeded to wait inside for Madam Ruby's arrival.

Chapter 1059: Madam Ruby

Somewhere in Jade Heaven, a beautiful woman sat comfortably behind a luxurious marble table piled high with paperwork.

In the midst of her work, she noticed a certain communication jade slip trembling and immediately picked it up.

"Good morning, Madam Ruby. 'Ming Ye' has arrived," the receptionist of Gleaming Waterfront Hotel dutifully informed her.

Madam Ruby, absorbed in her tasks, responded with a calm composure, "Is that so? Tell me your first impressions of him."

"Of course. I don't think I need to delve into his appearance, as those hailing from the esteemed Boundless Yin Yang Sect are invariably graced with an exceptional countenance. He has short, raven-black hair that frames his countenance, and his eyes, obsidian in hue, possess a gaze of such intensity that it seems to pierce through one's very soul," the receptionist continued with a touch of fascination. "Yet, what's truly impressive about him is the enigmatic aura that envelops him, defying any attempts at description. He's unlike the others I've encountered— that's what my instincts tell me."

Madam Ruby privately contemplated the receptionist's glowing appraisal and couldn't help but muse, 'This is the first time he's praised someone this highly.'

With her curiosity piqued, her fingers paused momentarily over her work, as she awaited the receptionist's further insights into this mysterious guest.

"So, do you think he'll be able to satisfy my needs?"

"I cannot say for sure, but he definitely seemed very calm and confident, almost as though he's a real master. Even if he cannot satisfy your desires, I truly believe that it will be the best attempt yet."

"Thank you for your input," Madam Ruby acknowledged with a gracious nod. "I shall meet with 'Ming Ye' once I've concluded my current tasks. Anticipate that it may take several days, perhaps even a week at most."

With a sense of purpose, Madam Ruby returned to her work, her mind already occupied by thoughts of the intriguing visitor who had captured her attention.

Meanwhile, the receptionist made his way to Su Yang's room, gently knocking on the door to deliver the news that Madam Ruby's arrival might be delayed by up to a week.

Su Yang, his demeanor marked by a tranquil composure, graciously acknowledged the information. "Thank you for letting me know. I will remain here until her arrival," he replied calmly before returning to his cultivation.

Despite Madam Ruby's delay, Su Yang didn't mind it one bit. After all, the Boundless Yin Yang Sect had given him a whole month for each mission for a reason—they knew this kind of thing happened all the time.

Time slipped by unnoticed, and before Su Yang knew it, two weeks had flown by without a trace of Madam Ruby. Still, Su Yang did not bother to inquire about Madam Ruby's delay and continued to cultivate inside his room.

If a client doesn't show up within a month, he would simply make his way to the next client. And if he had time to spare afterward, he would return and continue waiting until he had to return to the sect.

Exactly at the start of the third week, Su Yang opened his eyes when someone knocked on his door.

"Is Ming Ye in here?" A soothing voice asked from outside.

Su Yang stood up and walked to the door, opening it to greet the woman on the other side.

"Good morning, I am Ming Ye. Please, come inside." Su Yang welcomed her into the room even before confirming her identity.

The woman who stood before Su Yang was a statuesque beauty, her frame exuding an alluring grace. Her long, ebony waves cascaded down to caress her ample curves and round buttocks, while her eyes sparkled like polished onyx. Her lips, a tantalizing temptation, beckoned with their beguiling allure.

As she entered the room, Su Yang closed the door behind her. The woman spoke with an apologetic tone, "I apologize for the delay. An unexpected matter arose, and I had to attend to it first."

Su Yang responded with a charming smile, shaking his head playfully. "I wouldn't mind waiting a hundred years for someone as beautiful as you, Madam Ruby."

Madam Ruby, though flattered by his words, remained composed, her focus now on inspecting Su Yang closely. She thought to herself, 'He's just as described—handsome, exuding that inexplicable aura, and his gaze is undeniably powerful. My heart is already racing.' Her emotions remained hidden behind a calm exterior as she continued to assess the intriguing man before her.

"What's your name?"

"Xiao Yang."

"Then, Xiao Yang, before we begin, even though you should've already seen it from my request, I will repeat the rules just in case. One, you are only allowed to use your hands. This means there will be no sexual intercourse. Two, we will begin with my clothes on. If I deem your skills to be insufficient, we will stop there and then. Last but not least, there will be no kissing."

"Of course." Su Yang calmly nodded, acknowledging her rules.

"Whenever you are ready," she said a moment later as she sat on the large bed.

"Then, if you would, please lie on the bed with your back facing the ceiling."

"My back?" Madam Ruby was a little puzzled by his request. After all, what could he possibly do to please her while she was lying on her stomach?

With Madam Ruby comfortably lying on the bed, Su Yang positioned himself beside her and began a simple arm stretch, his movements fluid and deliberate.

"I will begin now." Su Yang warned her as he approached her back with his fingers.

Not expecting anything, Madam Ruby remained nonchalant.

"Ah!?"

Madam Ruby, in a moment of unforeseen revelation, involuntarily surrendered a startled moan as an unanticipated wave of sensation cascaded through her being, unveiling realms of feeling previously uncharted in her existence.

"Y-You! What did you just do?!" she exclaimed, swiftly swiveling her head to apprehend the source of this unexpected enchantment, only to discover, to her profound astonishment, that Su Yang was merely giving her a normal massage— or so it seemed.

"Just a massage," Su Yang replied with a calm smile on his face.

Chapter 1060: Sweet Nectar

"Please, lie back down and try to relax your body." Su Yang said to her.

"..."

Madam Ruby silently laid back down and waited for the sensation return.

A moment later, the tingling sensation returned, assaulting her entire body, and it felt as though there were dozens of hands massaging her at once.

Madam Ruby didn't turn around again, but she used her divine sense to see what Su Yang was doing, but to her surprise, he didn't seem to be doing anything out of the ordinary.

'The way he moves his fingers, it's as if each of his fingers have their own consciousness, allowing them to move independently!' Madam Ruby quickly noticed his hand movements, as they stood out the most.

'Oh! This is it! This is it!!!' Madam Ruby subconsciously rolled her eyes back when Su Yang pressed at just the right location with the perfect strength.

It's been a long time she experienced anything close to a climax, yet Su Yang was able to make her feel even better than that with just his fingers alone. This made Madam Ruby fantasize about something else, but she quickly cleared her mind.

'No, I cannot do that. Even though my husband is always busy and won't even look at me nowadays, I am still a married woman! My pride! I will not lose to my lustful desires!'

Sometime later, she asked, "When are you going to massage other places?"

Since Su Yang had been focused on her back this entire time, her other areas had been itching for attention for a while now.

"If you think you are ready, I will start working on the lower area now." Su Yang calmly said.

'If I think I am ready? He's underestimating me!' she gritted her teeth and said, "Go ahead."

Su Yang immediately began caressing his fingers down her back until it reached her round buttocks that had the perfect softness and firmness, squeezing it with some might.

"Ah~!" Madam Ruby released a startled cry, as the tingling sensation between her legs suddenly soared.

However, Su Yang did not give her the chance to recover and continue to knead her round buttocks like bread.

'Oh heavens! This is making me go crazy!' Madam Ruby's buttocks trembled violently as her underwear become so soaked it was leaking onto her clothes.

Su Yang worked his way from her buttocks to her calf and back, leaving not an inch of her legs untouched.

Ten minutes later, Su Yang's calm voice resounded again, "You can turn around now."

"Eh?" Madam Ruby was so absorbed in pleasure that she forgot she was still lying on her chest— that the best part had yet begun!

Using what little strength she had left in her body, Madam Ruby flipped her body around, allowing her large breasts to breath.

"Then I'll begin now." Su Yang warned her before moving his hands toward her breasts.

However, Su Yang did not immediately touch her breasts, only massaging the area around it, causing her large peaks to shake ever so slightly.

Any men would go mad from lust over such a spectacular scene, yet Su Yang's face remained completely calm, almost as though it was just another ordinary day for him.

"More... I want to feel your hands better..." Madam Ruby suddenly mumbled as she lowered her upper clothing, revealing her smooth skin and pink peaks.

Seeing the lustful expression on Madam Ruby's face, Su Yang couldn't refuse and began working on her snowy mountains.

"Oh~!" Madam Ruby subconsciously lifted her body into the air as Su Yang teased the pink tips on the mountains that were oozing with milk.

Not wanting it to go to waste, Su Yang moved his lips to seal one of the pink peaks, sucking out Madam Ruby's sweet nectar.

"Aaaaah~!" Madam Ruby's moaning immediately became louder and sharper.

It has been several hundred years since she last allowed someone to taste her sweet nectar— since her last son grew up.

A few moments later, Su Yang moved to suck on the other pink tip that was stiff from anticipation.

Of course, he didn't forget to massage her while he sucked on her breasts.

In the midst of sucking her breasts, Su Yang suddenly moved one of his hands toward the region between her legs and began massaging her little sister while she was still fully clothed.

Madam Ruby could feel her entire body burning with passion, even rubbing her own body against Su Yang's lower hand.

Su Yang knew that he could have Madam Ruby fully undress without even needing to ask in her current state, but he wanted to let her make the final decisions. After all, she was his client, and he didn't want to be too forceful.

Eventually, Madam Ruby couldn't endure it any more and removed all of her clothes, revealing perfect body and neat bush between her legs.

"I can't...! You're making my mind go blank and I cannot endure it any longer! I want your thing inside me!" she demanded.

However, to her surprise, Su Yang shook his head, refusing her demand.

"W-What? Why?!" she asked, her face filled with bafflement.

"Because it's against your terms," he calmly explained.

"Huh?! Screw the terms! You've already broken one by using your mouth even though you are only allowed to use your hands, even sucking on my motherly breasts! So what if you break another? And these are my terms! I should be able to change them whenever I want!" she said.

"I know, but unlike sucking on breasts, intercourse is more serious. If you want us to go that far, I will need your written consent before we start— as this is our sect's rules. Please don't make things difficult for me."

Su Yang learned from past experience that doing anything without proper proof will only cause him trouble in the future. For example, there had been many times when a client who did not want intercourse at first ended up changing their mind mid-session. However, after their session ended and he returned to the sect, he would learn that the very same client who changed her mind had made a complaint against him, putting his reputation at jeopardy.

"F-Fine! Give me a minute!" Madam Ruby immediately retrieved a piece of paper and pen from her storage ring and wrote down the change of terms, even signing it.

"There! Are you happy now?" she shoved the paper in his face.

Su Yang nodded with a smile, and he immediately loosened his robes, showing Madam Ruby the dragon between his legs.

"Good heavens..." Madam Ruby's eyes widened with shock, her heart and little sister throbbing with excitement.
