Chapter 41: 41. Golden Crystal Sand Desert

Golden Crystal Sand Desert, a landscape bathed in shimmering beauty. As far as the eye can see, undulating dunes of golden-hued crystal sands stretch into the horizon, resembling an endless sea of precious metal. Under the relentless gaze of the sun, the desert radiates an ethereal glow, casting a mesmerising spectacle upon travellers who dare to venture into its depths. Each grain of sand gives a vibe that it seems to hold a secret, glinting with the promise of untold treasures buried beneath the surface.

Journeying through the Golden crystal Sand Desert is akin to navigating a realm of dreams, where reality merges with fantasy. The shifting sands whisper tales of ancient civilizations and forgotten legends, their echoes carried by the wind. Despite its harsh and unforgiving nature, the desert exudes a sense of otherworldly tranquillity, drawing wanderers into its embrace with an irresistible allure. Beneath the golden sheen lies a world teeming with life, where resilient flora and fauna carve out an existence amidst the arid expanse.

Yet, amid the breathtaking beauty of the Golden Crystal Sand Desert, danger lurks in every shadow. Sandstorms rage across the landscape, engulfing unwary travellers in a swirling vortex of golden dust. Hidden beneath the dunes lie treacherous traps and mysterious ruins, remnants of civilizations long past. Only the most skilled and daring adventurers dare to explore its depths, seeking the fabled treasures said to lie buried beneath the sands. These are stories and rumours about the Golden Crystal Sand Desert.

Golden Sand City is the only Town near the Golden Crystal Sand Desert. People simply called it Outer City. Because there is another City with the same name inside the Golden Crystal Sand Desert. That's inner City, where tired travellers would stay.

Outside the outer city a Golden Carriage which reflects the same shiny colour of the Golden Sand Desert arrived.

"We finally arrived near the Gold Crystal Sand Desert." Tyler said as he looked at the two gluttons who were fighting for food. He couldn't understand why they are fighting for food when they can just copy as many as they want.

Also he couldn't understand why Mana is in her grown up form. She sometimes changes into this form but never speaks a word. Actually Tyler prefers this Young Lady Mana because the Loli Mana with cat ears and devil tail is totally a pervert. Even though it's the same person he couldn't understand why she has a different personality.

"Zuzia is a good girl." Tyler said.

Mana ears perked up. She divided into Tyler's body. Her head popped out from his chest and looked at him.

"Alright, Mana is also a Good Girl." Tyler said. Mana nodded in satisfaction before entering inside him. No pun intended.

Tyler looked at the city. As a city near the desert it has a unique blend of architectural styles, with buildings designed to withstand the heat and occasional sandstorms. Tyler is able to see a lot of earthy tones in the buildings and landscaping, and there are also palm trees and other desert-adapted flora. Sand dunes and rocky outcrops are visible on the outskirts of the city, emphasising its proximity to the desert.

Behind this small city is a vast desert and it is stretched far away. According to history these deserts were once a giant sea. But it was many centuries ago. Even prehistoric Beast Bones can be found in this vast desert.

Tyler stopped the carriage at an inn. The temperature outside was so high. Even Cultivators are sweating profusely. There are no mortals in this city, so everything is paid in Spirit stones. Tyler just rented a courtyard because the Inn is not up to his liking. Then he installed a small cooling formation in his room. He paid the Carriage Driver for his job, he even paid a little more. The Driver left happily after receiving the payment.

Tyler then took out the communication talisman and contacted his senior brother Chen Xi. Chen Xi soon arrived at Tyler's house with his teammates. He also saw Chi in that group. The others are also outer disciples of the Frozen Heart Sect. They greeted him politely. Tyler is little famous for his wealth so they are not surprised by him renting a whole courtyard.

"There is still a year for the competition. Are you here to practise the Body Refinement Method?" Chen Xi asked. Tyler mentioned to him before that he will reach the city faster and practice there for a few months.

"Yes. My Elemental Body Refining Method has reached a threshold, as well as my Lake View art. I will probably reach 7 th stage of Qi Refining Realm in 6 months." Tyler said.

"Wow.. Fast." Chen Xi exclaimed.

After talking about random topics Chen Xi and his team left. They still have a mission to complete. Tyler left the courtyard and brought Mana to explore the city. Due to the sun shining highly, the Yang Energy in the desert is high. Mana doesn't like it so she enters his body and refuses to come out.

The night came, Tyler didn't sleep. Instead he walked towards the edge of the desert. The Moon shone on the desert which reflected the Golden Crystal Sands making the whole desert beautiful. Mana also popped out in her young lady form. She looked at the beautiful sight and memorised it.

The following days are just Tyler training.

A month later,

Tyler is wearing a conical hat and travelling on a war horse in the desert. He stopped in a place and walked towards an empty ruin. These ruins were already explored, but people love to visit as sight seeing. Tyler was casually looking at the ruins, and suddenly Mana warned him.

"You are surrounded." Mana said.

"Huh... I failed to notice." Tyler said, "but my spiritual senses are suppressed inside the ruins."

"Hand over all your wealth." Five to six People surrounded Tyler.

"They are just at the 3rd stage of the qi refining realm." Mana's voice reached his ears.

Tyler's eyes shined because he always wanted to fight a real battle. Today he didn't expect to be lucky.

He excluded his 6th stage of Qi Refining Realm aura. But the bandits didn't panic. Because it's 1 vs 6. As long as they work together and make him lose energy it's their win.

Tyler used his footwork to dash forward. He reached one of the bandits easily. He grabbed his face and shouted, "Freeze."

His face turned into ice. Instead of panicking, the other bandits showed a happy face.

"He is an ice cultivator. The water vapour in the air is less. His Cultivation Art is weakened." One of the bandits said. The remaining five bandits stood in a formation. A fire beast image was formed in the air.

Tyler didn't care about the attack; he touched his ring and poured some water out. Looking at the storage ring, the Bandits' eyes turned even greedy. They used all their power to attack him.

The heat emitted from their spell made the water turn into vapour. The of the fire beast rushed towards Tyler. They decided to attack him with everything they got.

The fire hit Tyler, who is standing as a statue. Half of his body broke.

"We got him." The bandits rejoiced.

But suddenly their laughter stopped because what broke was just a statue of Tyler made of ice.

"How is it? It is a combination of Elemental Body Refining Technique and all of my movement art. I will call it After Image or Ice Image or After Ice Image? Well I will decide the name later." Tyler's voice sounded behind them.

The Bandits already used their energy so they can barely fight against him.

Tyler stomped his left leg first and made a stance. Then he stomped his right leg and made the ground tremble. Then he launched his fist which was shining in red colour. Three people got hit and were thrown away. Two people managed to dodge.

"That attack is so powerful but also easy to dodge. I should come up with an extra step along with a good name." Tyler touched his chin and pondered.

Two remaining bandits were running away from the ruin. But one of the bandits suddenly stopped and punched his comrade.

Mana emerged from his body and disappeared. The Bandit who was possessed by Mana looked at his fist in confusion. Why did he attack his friend?

He then saw the floating girl behind him. He sat on his butt in frozen fear.

"Hiyah." Mana made a round kick in the air and made him faint.

"Don't casually go inside other people's bodies." Tyler said.

"Oh Oh... Are you jealous?" Mana winked at him.

"Me? Jealous? Never!" Tyler said confidentially. He is a little jealous but he heard about her possession skill. There is a chance she might get backlash if that skill didn't work. So he doesn't want her to take risks.

"For me, Taking Risk, is like Eating Rusk." Mana said when she guessed his thoughts. She also took a Rusk from the ring and ate it.

"Let's Go back. It almost time for me to breakthrough. After that we will meet our teammates." Tyler then hopped on the horse and travelled back to his rented courtyard.

Chapter 42: 42. Lan Couples

Tyler is sitting in the middle of a rocky area in the desert. Mana is flying around him while chasing a black shadow. It was night time so the black dragon Zuzia was barely visible. This is one of the broken ruins a little far away from the city. Since the spiritual senses are suppressed in these ruins, Tyler decided to let her out to play a little.

Tyler looked at them while drinking wine. After becoming a Cultivator, ordinary wine has barely affected him. So he bought many of the best so-called immortal wines and stored them in the ring.

While Tyler was drinking and eating, Mana, who was suddenly flying stopped and disappeared. And Zuzia turned into a streak of black light and hid inside Tyler's ring. The alarm formation Tyler setup outside has given him an alert. So he turned around and looked at the entrance.

A man in a white robe and a woman dressed in blue attire walked side by side in their direction. The man who appeared to be twenty five or thirty had a tall build, elegant features, and a fascinating charm like that of jade. He was beautiful enough to make any sexually awakened girl who yearned for love, become completely infatuated.

And that woman beside him was even more so, beautiful enough to make one's heart tremble. She seemed to also be twenty five to thirty with a pair of beautiful sparkling eyes, and cherry coloured lips with the lustre of a smooth seashell. Her elegant eyebrows were crescent shaped as well, but the most touching was the light smile that graced her lips that was as heartwarming as the smell of incense in a gentle breeze. She gives an 'ara ara' vibe. You know what that means.

The two were like a perfect couple that had just stepped out of a painting; the moment they appeared, all the brilliance between heaven and earth was taken away.

"Hello junior brother. You must be Tyler White. My name is Lan Yi and this is my wife Lan Xuero." Tyler bowed to them. It is normal for a wife to take husband's surname. Tyler thought inwardly. Because Mana who is hiding in the shadows is already running hundreds of incest simulation in her mind.

Soon a bonfire was lit up. Tyler and Lan couples sat opposite.

"Why were you staying in the dark, junior brother?" Lan Xuero asked. Her voice was so charming even Tyler almost lost control. He took a breath and controlled his intrusive thoughts.

'This woman did it on purpose.' Mana in the shadows thought. She clearly saw her using a low level charming skill. Even Tyler, who has a powerful spiritual consciousness in the 9th stage of the Qi Refining realm almost got affected.

Lan Yi pinched her thigh, which made her moan. Even Lan Yi suddenly felt a little dazed.

"Stop teasing Junior." Lan Yi said seriously.

Lan Xuero stuck out of her tongue and cancelled her technique. She apologised to Tyler but still sent him some seductive wink. Three of them drank the wine while talking about Cultivation cc.

"You don't have to worry about her. She was just surprised that you were able to suppress her charm." Lan Yi said as he drank the wine. Then the topic turned randomly before reaching the competition.

"The preliminaries will be in 4 months. You are already at the 7th stage of Qi Refining Realm. But you don't have to worry. Me and my wife can carry you to the Top 10. I will get straight to the point I just want you to be our sponsor and pay us well. That's all." Lan Yi was so straightforward he said his thing.

Tyler just broke 7th Stage of Qi Refining Realm. He already stayed in the outer city for months. And practising daily. He was able to break through without any bottleneck.

Soon the wine emptied. Lan Yi was laying flat on the ground. Lan Xuero, who also looked drunk, came near Tyler.

"Do you want to taste more wine?" She whispered near his face. Her breath smelled like a sweet fragrance with the aroma of wine mixed in it. Which made Tyler stare at her lips a little longer.

Tyler shook his head. With her posture he already knows what she is hinting at. He moved back a little and said, "I am not really a good guy. But I don't have a habit of touching other people's wives."

Lan Xuero, who was looking drunk with a red flush face, suddenly regained her composure. Lan Yi, who is lying flat on the ground, raised his right hand and gave a thumbs up.

Lan Yi then stood up and said, "Good. You passed the test. We will stay with you and decide to help you."

Tyler's mouth twitched. These guys were testing his character but why? And who in the world will use his wife to get closer to another man like this. Tyler was confused.

"Don't mind us. We are always like this. But most of the people would get knocked out by us before they could make a move. We are going to stay together for the next few months. So we just wanted to see your character. Most people show their true character only when they are desperate or when they are too comfortable." Lan Xuero said. There was no flirtatious in her tone this time. But Tyler felt this was more charming.

"In the end, Mana didn't get to see forbidden scenes, adultery and all." Tyler heard Mana's disappointed voice. She was watching them while eating melon seeds. She is always the perverted Lady Ghost.

Tyler woke up from his room. He went outside the garden area where Lan Couples are practising. Lan Xuero is using a sword while Lan Yi is using a blade.

Lan Xuero used a sword to attack Lan Yi while Lan Yi parried them. Both of them looked so elegant. Tyler couldn't help but look at them with envy. There is a reason for that. They both stopped their practice. Lan Yi sat on the side and greeted, "Good Morning."

Lan Xuero and Lan Yi are both sweating. Even still they looked so elegant. Tyler asked a servant to serve them Tea. While they were talking, the topic somehow changed into teaching how to use sword and blade to Tyler.

"Learning Swords are not difficult, come I will teach you." Lan Xuero said confidentiality.

Half and hour later

"You will never be able to use a sword. Even a Three year-old can use a sword better than you." She said madly then ran into her room.

Tyler and Lan couples become so friendly. So he got used to her rants. He prefers this type of Lan Xuero instead of the seductive type. Well he might prefer the seductive type Lan Xuero if she is not already married.

Lan Yi laughed and said, "My turn now. You might not have talent in swords, but you might be a saber genius."

Half and hour later

"You will never be able to use a saber. Even a Three year-old can use a saber better than you." Lan Yi said the same thing as his wife and left.

Tyler has this problem. He was never able to learn sword, saber, spear, lance or any other weapon. It's like he is never talented in anything. The only thing he can use is a bow and arrow but he is pretty average.

Later that night,

The sound of seductive moans started.

"They started again." It is not the first time hearing these sounds. It's from the couple room. They deliberately didn't use sound proof formation and their voices always leaks out. Especially Lan Xuero voice almost made him wanna listen whole night.

Tyler felt strange, these couples are deliberately doing this. He has no idea what they are trying to do. Are they mocking him as a single dog? Even though he is single doesn't mean he is a virgin.

Mana went back to his body as the sound started.

"Why are you always running away, when they start this? I thought you love these kinds of things." Tyler couldn't help but ask.

"Mana only likes to see you doing it with Girls. Mana is not interested in some random men mating." Mana said with a serious tone.

He doesn't know why. But somehow he was surrounded by perverts.

Tyler activated the sound proof formation and went to sleep.

Inside the Lan Couple room. Lan Xuero who was moaning, suddenly stopped. Lan Yi who was in midst of battle said, "Looks like Junior Brother activated the sound proof formation."

"Yeah. But Why is Junior Brother a tough nut to crack? Am I not appealing?" Lan Xuero asked while feeling that her pride was hurt.

"I think I may be the problem. Let me leave you with him for a while. I am pretty sure you will be able to get what we wanted from him when you get closer to him." Lan Yi said while affectionately touching her hair.

These two couples decided to form a team with Tyler because they have ulterior motives.

Chapter 43: 43. Riding

Another month passed.

Lan Yi announced that he had things to do and left the house. Lan Xuero was in close door Cultivation so she didn't accompany him.

Tyler White felt that something was wrong. Few hours after Lan Yi, Lan Xuero ended her close door Cultivation. Tyler felt like a herbivore preyed on by a carnivore when he met with Lan Xuero's gaze. Her charming technique becomes restless.

Tyler couldn't stand anymore and asked her directly. Lan Xuero acted like she was offended and had a pitiful appearance with tears in her eyes. Her appearance made Tyler almost lose his control.

Those who walked the path of immortal cultivation did not necessarily do it for longevity. For most of the immortal cultivators, it was simply a means to enjoy life.

After all, even if they tried their best, most immortal cultivators would not be able to build their foundation. Thus, most of them had the tendency to devote less time to cultivation and more time to happiness.

Tyler thought that these two are the same type of people. He ignored her and continued his practice. While practising Lan Xuero didn't even dare to disturb him. It's common sense not to disturb a Cultivator while they are Cultivating.

In a few days when Lan Yi returned, Tyler was able to sigh of relief. Lan Yi and Lan Xuero practised combat. Lan Yi is already at the Ninth stage of Qi Refining Realm and Lan Xuero is at the eighth stage of Qi Refining Realm.

"We should definitely win the top five." Lan Yi said.

"Oh I heard of it. Top 5 will get into an underground spring cave." Tyler said.

Underground Spring Cave is in the hands of Continental Alliance where they initially started to discuss how to improve Cultivators life, reform financial institutions, and increase cooperation on trade between sects in continental level. Sect like soaring cloud sect, frozen cloud sect and many sects also joined this alliance. They won't give opinions on war or meddle with it.

"Twelve years ago, I had already broken through to the ninth level of the Qi Refinement Realm. Although the progress of the last level of the Qi Refinement Realm is slow, I am almost at the peak of this realm. The biggest hurdle now is the Foundation Building Realm. If I can get a chance to visit the Underground Spiritual Cave, I will have my chance to break through." Lan Yi said with fist clenched.

Life expectancy of qi realm Cultivator is just 125 years. And Life expectancy of Foundation Building Realms is 250 to 300 years depending upon the Cultivator. It can be even extended only if they were able to find treasures, herbs or pills that extend one's lifespan. But those treasures, herbs and pills are rare even Tyler couldn't find those things. Many monsters in Foundation Building Realm who are at the end of their life were madly collecting those. Even though he is rich, without strength he can't do anything.

Tyler hired some servants in the courtyard. Now he is leaving he called everyone and gave lots of spirit stones before sending them away. He could see the burning gaze of Lan Xuero from time to time. He thought she would stop when her husband came, he didn't expect she still continued to shoot flirtatious glances as teasing. Lan Yi said that this is her way of practising her charming technique. Tyler is pretty sure they are hiding something. He looked at the Talismans he had. Apart from feeling a little annoyed, Tyler didn't hate these couples. He hoped that they wouldn't turn into enemies.

Tyler opened the shed revealing a shiny Golden Carriage. Both Lan Couples' eyes shone. These two war horses are the best pick to ride this desert.

"The carriage driver I hired didn't arrive due to something coming up. So I have to hire someone else later. So we will depart tomorrow." Tyler couldn't help clicking his tongue.

"It's ok, Junior Brother Tyler. I know the way to Inner City. I will ride this babe. You ride with my wife inside the carriage." Lan Yi's eyes shined.

"Why do I have to say that?" Tyler couldn't help mumbling.

The Outer City i.e. Golden Crystal Sand City is filled with a lot of cultivators already. Many of them are travelling in groups. Some hired a carriage, some walked on the endless desert alone.

The crowd's gaze was attracted by a Golden Carriage which seemed to blend one with desert. Even the carriage driver is in the 9th stage of Qi Refining Realm so they couldn't help but wonder who is the big shot inside the carriage. Maybe a foundation building realm Cultivator? Most of the people are speculating but nobody dares to block their path.

There are some people who are courageous and ask for a lift. But they were thrown away by the swing of a whip by Lan Yi. Lan Yi turned on the cooling formation which made refresh. He tried to scan inside the carriage but couldn't.

"Such an advanced formation. I hope you succeed and find out his secret." Lan Yi mumbled.

While Lan Yi is riding the carriage, inside the carriage Tyler is riding something else. He clearly saw that even Lan Yi doesn't care about this matter. So why should he.

Even though there is a cold formation installed inside the carriage the scene inside the carriage was so hot. Two naked bodies already went into a fierce fight. Unlike other women Tyler enjoyed, this is totally a different experience for him. Because she is late stage qi refining realm Cultivator.

While they were doing, Tyler whispered in her ears, "Tell me what are you two planning?"

"As expected Junior brother you noticed." She said while being a good carriage.

"I don't believe a woman like you would simply throw yourself to me. Your husband is more handsome." Tyler said while riding that good carriage from behind.

"We heard that you are rich. Tyler, Just treat me as your secret concubine and give me something to help me build my foundation. I also know many fairies- .. " Lan Xuero began to say many things.

The carriage stopped in the afternoon, near the ruins. Lan Yi knocked on the carriage door. The door opened, the naked Lan Xuero with white liquid sticking in her mouth popped her head out.

"Husband, We still have not finished our dao discussion. Can you please not disturb us for a day." Then she closed the door.

Lan Yi was frozen in shock. Even though he allowed his wife to do those things. Even though he was prepared for this mentally. He felt like something inside him was awakened. This is the first time seeing his wife in another man's arms.

"They have been doing it for three hours." Lan Yi mumbled and left to rest on the carriage driver seat.

The night arrived.

Inside the carriage,

"Go to the snow peak city near our sect. There is a mansion I own. You can have that mansion. There are also lots of spirit stones inside the mansion. The password to open the formation is-" Tyler said those things. Lan Xuero was so happy. She almost wanted to leave Lan Yi and become Tyler's property seeing how nouveau rich he is.

Lan Xuero left the carriage with satisfaction. She had a deed of a mansion in her hand.

"Did it work?" Lan Yi asked. He couldn't help looking at his wife. She looked more charming.

"I was able to break his defence. Don't worry, in a few days the spell will work after that."
" Lan Xuero smiled evilly.

Lan Yi was mesmerised by the smile as he moved forward to kiss her. Lan Xuero dodged the kiss and said, "Not now. Let's not be lovey dovey in front of him till that spell works."

"What is that?" Lan Yi asked.

"It's just mansion deed." Lan Xuero didn't tell about the spiritual stones to Lan Yi.

Lan Yi nodded. They ate some food and Lan Xuero went back to the carriage to sleep. This time she is just gonna sleep because she is too tired. But Lan Yi's imagination is running wild outside.

Both of them didn't notice Mana who popped out from nowhere. She had a serious expression on her face as she transmitted her thoughts to Tyler.

Tyler, who is meditating, suddenly opened his eyes. He used spiritual sense to scan his body. He couldn't find any curse or spell mark in his body.

"Should I kill both of them?" Tyler asked.

"Don't. Mana understood something. But Mana has to confirm it. Don't care about the spell, Mana will take care of it. If possible get her laid a lot. There is a chance to counter attack." Mana said.

Then she looked at the sky and said to herself, "There is a strange fate covered Tyler. No matter where he goes, an unusual disaster pops up. But these disasters come with fortune."

Mana smiled and looked back at the carriage. She disappeared and entered Tyler's body. Unlike Tyler she was able to see the curse mark in his kidney.

"Body Subduing seal and a pinch of slave seal" Mana muttered, "Looks like she will send multiple types of seals little by little to Tyler's body."

Chapter 44: 44. The Culprit

Tyler looked at the beautiful woman in a white chiffon dress in front of him. According to Mana, these Lan couples have ulterior motives to get closer to him.

"Thank you so much, Junior Brother White! I love this dress." The woman in the white dress is naturally Lan Xuero. She smiled brightly. She quickly walked to Tyler's and bowed to thank him.

A wisp of perfume suddenly entered Tyler's nose, and the woman's neckline was lowered, inadvertently catching Tyler's eyes.

"Ah!" Lan Xuero quickly covered her chest and turned to leave with a slightly red face.

"What just happened?" Tyler couldn't help but ask. He already saw everything yesterday, so why is she acting like this?

"So they are doing this huh." Mana mumbled as she watched Lan Xuero walking towards her husband.

Tyler's mood was also in turmoil.

Almost a week passed,

"Six Days have passed. We are about to reach the inner desert city." Tyler transmitted his voice to Mana while stroking the head of Lan Xuero.

"Right Right." Mana replied.

"Stop with 'Right right' and tell me how many seals are in my body." Tyler asked. It is a lie if he said that he is not even a little bit worried. 107 seals have been placed on his body for the past week by this succubus in his embrace. He didn't take action because Mana told him to wait.

"Today. She will insert her last seal. Mana will explain to you at that time." Mana replied.

Night arrived. This time Tyler was lying in the middle of a ruin naked. The ruins are glowing by the moonlight. Above him is Lan Xuero, who is in her costume that the newborn baby uses, placing the last seal inside him.

Mana appeared out of thin air and said, "This is Soul Seed Seal. This seal is extremely ruthless. The caster could plant a seed into the soul of the target, completely monitoring their every move. The soul was the most mysterious and fragile part of a cultivator. After being implanted with the seed, the caster could directly destroy the soul of the person being implanted, turning them into a slave on the spot."

Tyler's mouth twitched. If it is so dangerous then why did you say not to resist?

"Now you totally belong to me." Lan Xuero said. She successfully placed the last seal. She moved forward and kissed him. Her husband Lan Yi walked towards them. He knelt before his wife and sat there.

"Now I will activate the seal. We got ourselves an expensive slave." Lan Xuero said as she activated the seal.

Tyler's mind becomes muddled for a second, he was able to see a complex seal formed in his kidney before it began to spread everywhere in his body. But suddenly Mana floated inside his body and ate all the seals.

Lan Yi spat out of blood and fell to the side. Lan Xuero was even more miserable, she fell unconscious. Two purple succubus-like souls got ejected from Lan Couples.

"They are really succubus?" Tyler couldn't help but say. Even though they are souls, they looked like twins with the same face, same size. They looked similar to Lan Xuero but with pink horns, bat wings and devil tails. Tyler almost fell for their charm.

"How could you do this to us? Cruel." One of the succubus said.

"I thought you loved us. Hmph." Another one said.

"The way they speak." Tyler was in dazed and said, "You both took turns in occupying Lan Xuero?"

"Hehe.. you know us the best." They laughed at the same time.

Mana appeared before Tyler and waved her hand. An invisible tentacle was reflected back.

"So you have a Ghost spirit. And one that has own will." One succubus said.

"Don't you know. Ghost spirits should not have their own will, they should be like a clone to oneself." Another succubus said.

"One day, she might occupy your body. It would be a waste. Give us your body." Both of them flew towards Tyler.

Tyler used his fist to connect the punch to the succubus but it passed through her body.

"Use your Dragon Fist." Mana said. Scales began to form in Tyler's fist as he punched the succubus, she rolled on the air a few times before stopping.

"That hurts. Hmph" She pouted and acted like nothing happened. Looking at Mana and Tyler for one lost second, she dragged her twin sister and escaped.

"Remember my name is Nova and my sister's name is Nixie. We will be back." Her Voice resonated as she disappeared.

Tyler sat on the ground with heavy panting. Even though he landed only one punch, he felt like some kind of force absorbed almost half of his energy.

"What the hell are those?" Tyler asked.

"Mana don't know how they got here. They are succubus demons that live in Abyss. They love to occupy people's bodies and live with their identity while doing unscrupulous stuff. If they live with someone they will try to turn them into slaves and make them toys.

Tyler couldn't help but shiver. He almost become Boy toy for those succubus.

"What is Abyss?"

"It is a realm where Demons and Devils reside. From what Mana knows, their passage shouldn't be able to connect in this lower world. They must have arrived here by accident." Mana said.

"This lower world?" Tyler noted that word.

"You don't have to worry. As long as Mana is with you no one can make you their slave." Mana said proudly.

Tyler gave her a side eye before looking at the Lan couples.

"Are they ok? Are they still in danger? Are they dangerous?" Tyler asked.

"They will wake up tomorrow. But they won't remember anything when their body is occupied." Mana said.

Tyler sighed in relief. He quickly carried Lan Couples to his carriage. He cleaned Lan Xuero and dressed her up. Then he placed the husband and wife inside the carriage. He then slept outside.

The dawn arrived. Both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero were confused. They walked out the carriage and saw a man was roasting some food.

"Huh.. Who are you?" Lan Yi asked.

"Huh? Senior brother Lan Yi, you are awake? Looks like you really didn't remember." Tyler put on an act said with regret.

"Remember what?" Lan Yi became vigilant and asked.

"Oh By the way. I am Tyler White. Your teammate at Cultivation cc." Tyler introduced himself.

Lan Yi became lessened his guard because he already heard about Tyler, so he tried to introduce himself "I am Lan-"

"I know I know. It's just you don't remember." Tyler said while sighing.

"What exactly happened junior brother?" Lan Yi asked. He still feels a little soggy in his mind.

"You guys were possessed by something. And it was occupying your bodies for a month." Tyler said.

"Is it because of the ruins my husband and myself explored last time?" Lan Xuero couldn't help but wonder out loud.

Lan Yi and Lan Xuero were on a mission inside the ruins. They found an antique twin succubus statue. It broke into many pieces when Lan Xuero touched it. After that their memories became blurred. They can't remember anything that much. When they woke up from this state, they were with their Junior brother.

"Those two tried to kill me. But I used an expensive talisman and drove them away." Tyler said.

"Thank you. Junior brother." Both of them thanked him.

"Don't mention it. Even I would have not noticed if they suddenly didn't attack me." Tyler said.

"Are you okay? Because we are strong." Lan Xuero asked worriedly.

"It was a tough battle. Especially Senior sister Lan Xuero battled with me for whole week." Tyler couldn't help but sigh.

Mana, who is invisible, is laughing so hard.

"I am sorry Junior brother." Senior Sister Lan Xuero held his hands and said with a serious expression. When she saw his face closer, she couldn't help but blush.

There is an urge inside her. She wanted to kneel before him or wanted to push him down and mount him or pull him over and have him mount her. It was like muscle memory. Her whole body is reacting and urging her to do it.

Lan Yi, who saw his wife holding another man's hand and blushing, felt shocked. But strangely he didn't feel angry or jealous. His body immediately wanted to move away from them and give them some space. He felt a little excited for some reason.

Both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero looked at each other. Lan Xuero took her hand back and went inside the carriage.

"I will drive the carriage." Tyler said. Because they both are exhausted, Tyler decided to let them rest.

Lan Yi, who walked towards the carriage driver seat in reflex, stopped and said, "Thank you."

Lan Xuero heartbeat loudly when she heard the carriage door opening. But soon she felt disappointed for some reason when she saw her husband.

Both of them felt tired so they slept separately. Lan Xuero couldn't help but feel that something is missing. Same goes for Lan Yi too.

Chapter 45: 45. Inner City

Tyler White, who is riding the carriage looked at the wild camels that looks more massive than a normal camel. The Golden Crystal Sand Desert shines brightly and the heat rays gets reflected by the crystal sands. Most of the beasts in the desert avoided the carriage. Due to the carriage colour it almost looked like it blended into the desert. At Least no -one from the distance can spot the carriage easily.

Tyler enjoyed the view. He doesn't care about the heat because of the pre-installed cooling formation on the carriage driver seat. He admired the view which he couldn't do before because of the continuous fight against senior sister Lan Xuero inside the carriage for the past few days.

"Succubi are real. I only read them in novels. I was expecting to fight those twin succubus. But I didn't expect they would run away when you showed up. I wanted to know what my power levels are." Tyler muttered.

"They tried to enslave you. But when the plan failed they decided to occupy your body. They are definitely attracted to your wealth. They must have learned about you from Lan Couples memories. They don't dare to re-occupy the Lan Couples because of Mana." Mana, who hates the Yang Qi in the desert during the day time, doesn't want to come out. So she stayed inside Tyler's body and said.

Suddenly the ground shook, a huge snake appeared from the ground and tried to gobble up the carriage. But it couldn't get past the carriage's formation. The snake is only at the Ninth stage of Qi Refining Realm.

"Desert Snake monster." Tyler's eyes shined. His hand turned red. It is finally time to test his strength. But suddenly two figures flew past Tyler, with sabres and swords in their hands respectively. It's the Lan Couples.

Tyler's eyes twitched. He looked at the sky in a bored expression. He wanted to fight but he is pretty sure these both will finish the snake in no time. Just as Tyler expected they killed the snake with few strikes. They spun around and sat beside Tyler instead of going back into the carriage.

The weird feelings Lan Couples had as totally gone by now. They were able to converse normally with Tyler White.

Soon Tyler and the Lan Couples saw something that was impossible to exist in the desert. A city which has lots of plants, lakes and even humidity in the middle of the desert.

They could see a small rocky mountain where many murals were drawn. Near that mountain is a lake and surrounding the lakes are grasses.

"Grass in the centre of a desert." Tyler couldn't help but blurt out. They saw a huge city past the lake without any city walls made of many rocky buildings. Each building has plants, vines and even trees on it.

The carriage reached near the lake and stopped.

"Where are you going Junior Brother?" Lan Xuero asked.

"To Touch Some Grass," Tyler replied. He sat and touched the Grass to see if they were real.

"They are real."

Deep within the shimmering expanse of the Golden Crystal Sand Desert lies a sanctuary known as Golden Crystal City. It is also known as the inner City. Tyler finally reached his destination.

Tyler and Lan couples walked towards the city. While the horses dragged the carriage behind them. It was clearly a sin to sit in the carriage instead of admiring the scenery.

Soon they reached the city, there were no city gates, only patrolling guards walking leisurely. Unlike the loney desert the city is bustling with many Cultivators.

Due to the preliminaries of cultivation cc. Tyler can see lots of Qi realm Cultivators here. Soon they met with a problem. It is not easy to find a place to stay.

Finally they found a luxurious inn that had one vacancy left.

"Well well well. Enemies do meet on narrow paths." A man appeared while excluding a rich merchant aura.

"What nostalgic words" Tyler looked around.

"I am Ximen, Ximen from Dragon Phoenix Auction House. Also an outer disciple of Soaring Cloud Sect." The man is naturally Ximen. He was afraid that Tyler forgot about him again so he quickly introduced himself before he could say anything.

"Oh you are that guy who swings that way." Tyler remembered him. He met him twice before. He always speaks some arrogant words before disappearing.

Ximen's mouth twitched, he ignored Tyler and said to the receptionist, "I will take the last room."

"Sorry sir, that customer came first." The receptionist said.

Tyler knows that a drama is about to start. But he is too bored to do the drama. So he asked something to the receptionist in sound transmission. The receptionist was shocked she quickly called the Inn manager.

"Sir, are you sure you wanna rent the whole inn for two months?" The manager asked to confirm.

Everyone including Ximen and his people, the Lan Couples' jaw dropped. This guy is super rich.

"I will also double the money and refund the people who are already staying here." Tyler said.

After some haggling under the astonishing gaze of everyone who was present there, Tyler quickly bought the inn.

The inn owner was also staying in the city. He wanted to refuse, but the price was too good so he sold it. Tyler then gave lots of spirit stones to the manager and left the work of compensating guests to him.

He chose the best room and stayed in there. The Lan Couples still couldn't snap out of daze.

Lan Xuero looked at her storage pouch. She saw a mansion deed inside. She clearly knows that this is from Tyler when she got possessed. She tried to return it to him but he said that it belonged to her and also gave a password to open a secret formation inside the mansion. She told her husband about this. He was also deep in thought.

Tyler strolled around the city. This time Mana didn't come out, because even though the city is not hot outside, the Yang Energy is still present.

Tyler bought many local items and stored them inside his ring. Mana occasionally tells Tyler to buy this and that along the way.

"All the participants in Cultivation cc, listen carefully. In a month and a half, those who have cc tokens will be taken to another place for the competition. Remember not to lose the token. And those who stole the token can forget about joining the competition." A voice resonated throughout the city.

After finishing the shopping Tyler walked towards the inn. While walking through an alley he was surrounded by Ximen and his men.

Tyler's eyes shined, "Finally."

Finally he got an opportunity to fight.

"Tyler White. You humiliated me again and again. Don't I am gonna teach you if you meant to disrespect others." Ximen rolled his sleeves.

"You don't even have proper screen time. I don't even remember you that much." Tyler said.

Ximen's face twitched in anger. He was about to lunge forward and a big hand caught him from behind.

It's the patrol squad of the city.

"You are under arrest for causing disturbance in public and trying to assault others." Soon Ximen and his men were surrounded by Patrol guards and were dragged away.

I just wanted to fight someone. Why is it happening like this? Every single time.

Tyler went back to the inn and started his daily practice. He had been neglecting it for a week.

Soon he finished his combat practice, movement practice and finally he studied some books about formations.

"I am a Basic formation Master." Tyler said as he showed the badge.

"Nice. You can also try entering a formation competition." Lan Yi said.

"Can I enter the competition?" Tyler asked.

"Cultivation cc is to find the best of everything. As long as you have the token you can enter any competition." Lan Yi replied.

"Don't worry about our preliminaries. We will carry you to the Top 10. Leave it to seniors." He patted his shoulder and left elegantly.

Tyler looked up in daze. Looks like he can't fight in the competition too.

Lan Yi who exited the training room looked at his wife Lan Xuero.

"Did you ask him what happened when our bodies got occupied?" Lan Xuero asked.

Lan Yi smiled bitterly and said, "I am afraid of asking him. My intuition tells me not to hear that."

Lan Xuero couldn't help but be disappointed. She will definitely find time to ask Tyler.

A Flying boat just left the Frozen Heart Sect. Inside the Flying Boat are Priscilla and Yu Meixue.

"Are you sure you want to find him?" Yu Meixue asked.

"Senior Sister Meixue. I have to find him and warn him. He is my cute junior brother after all." Priscilla replied. She is eager to meet Tyler.

Yu Meixue shook her head. This girl has completely fallen

Chapter 46: 46. A Gift

"Were you dropped on your head as a baby?" Tyler couldn't help but ask.

"Trust Mana. Mana just found that it is delicious." Mana asked.

Mana is asking the Cultivation cc token to eat. She said that there is a different energy in it that she wanted to taste.

Thankfully Tyler can copy almost anything. He gave the copied tokens to Mana. Mana slurped in front of the token. A purple energy got devoured by her.

Tyler, who is connected to mana, didn't feel anything. Mana didn't stop even after finishing 100 tokens. So he left her alone in the room and went to the hall.

The Lan Couples are already waiting for Tyler.

"Senior Brother Lan Yi, is there something you need me for?" Tyler asked.

Lan Yi nodded. He sat down with Lan Xuero and stared at Tyler for a long time before he suddenly chuckled. "Junior Brother Tyler, this time I'm looking for you because of what happened before. Can you tell us what really happened when we got possessed?"

Tyler was stunned. However, he immediately reacted and said in a low voice, "Do you recall something Senior brother?"

Lan Yi shook his head. Tyler looked at Lan Xuero, but she blushed a little and shook her head. Everytime she tries to remember, her body unconsciously becomes hot. Tyler's attitude toward Lan Xuero was very difficult. Everytime he talks to her, he can only remember that blissful week.

Lan Yi misunderstood that Tyler was not trusting them that much because they tried to kill him before. But in truth Tyler was just feeling guilty so he tried his best not to get between them again.

He tried to talk about different topics to eventually gain his trust. He talked about their past.

Lan Yi and Lan Xuero were from a normal mortal village called Lan Village. Before they both attended a sect selection. The disciple of that sect got greedy of Lan Xuero's beauty and wanted to force him on her. But both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero escaped with the help of villagers.

After escaping Lan Yi and Lan Xuero tried to join other sects, but their luck was not good. When they were in the city, they heard news of Lan Village getting destroyed by the local sect.

With vengeance in their heart, They decided to cultivate as individual Cultivators. Maybe because of blessings of the dead, a few hours after receiving the news, they got selected by Frozen Heart Sect. The Frozen Heart Sect won't meddle in personal affairs. Both Lan Couples are trying their best to cultivate.

The sect that attacked their village is just a third rate sect. The sect master is just Golden core Realm. The disciple who caused all these is the son of that Golden Core Disciple.

"So that revenge is your goal?" Tyler asked.

"No. We just want to live happily till old age. Vengeance tastes good, but never let them consume us. Even if someone takes care of that sect for us. We will be happy." Lan Xuero said.

Tyler also talked about his life as a mortal. Unlike their stories, Tyler's story was not very interesting. He doesn't have any vengeance. His life was simple and plain.

"My intuition told me that something happened between us, Junior Brother." Lan Xuero jokingly said before leaving.

Tyler was in deep thought then he decided to be ruthless. He took a communication jade from his pocket. Someone gave it to him when Tyler's wealth was growing steadily.

"Huh... Shadowveil Cult? I have an assignment." Tyler said.

20 days have passed since Tyler arrived in the inner city at Golden Crystal Sand Desert. Today Tyler and Lan couples are waiting outside the city. A carriage arrived and stopped before them.

"Hello Mister White. Thank you for choosing our service." The carriage driver said as he opened the Carriage.

Lan couples were confused because they have no idea why they are here.

Two middle Aged men were tied up. They looked so miserable. Their Cultivation was sealed and was tied up by chains.

Both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero mouth opened wide when they saw both. They could never forget one of the middle aged men. He is the one who lusted after Lan Xuero and brought calamity to her village.

"Junior brother Tyler this-" Lan Yi wanted to say something. But Tyler stopped him from saying anything and asked the carriage driver, "What about the sect?"

"There is no sect anymore. As long as you don't leave these two bastards alive." The man said proudly.

Tyler nodded and said , "Alright, the remaining payments are here."

Tyler gave him a few Storage bags. The carriage driver didn't even check it and kept it. "I believe in Mr. Tyler." He said before leaving.

After the man left, Tyler looked at the Lan Couples and smiled , "These are my gift to you two."

Both Lan couples are too shocked to say anything. Tyler hired an assassin to obliterate the sect that Lan Couples had vengeance with.

"Do you remember us?" Lan Xuero snapped out of daze and looked at the middle aged man and asked.

"Huh... Huh... Who are yo- It's you! Bi¥$çç aaahhh" First he was confused, then he identified her. When he was about to curse her, Lan Xuero's foot stomped his mouth.

"Who are you?" Another middle aged man asked.

"You must be the sect master right? And this trash's father " Lan Yi asked and he sat down beside the tied up man.

"Your son lusted after my wife. He then used your sect's power and destroyed my village. We were practising so hard just to exterminate your sect. But fate gave us a rich junior brother who decided to help us and here we are." Lan Yi continued.

"Because you can't control your lower half and your temper. Our life is gone. Our sect is gone. I failed as a sect master. I failed as a father." the former sect master wailed miserably. He looked at Tyler who spent a lot of spirit stones to obliterate his sect. Where did they find such a nouveau rich person?

"Don't look at me as a peace loving guy." Tyler said and looked at the Lan Couples, then asked, "So, wanna torture them?"

The former sect master coughed out of blood. Lan Xuero laughed. She took her sword and placed it on her enemy neck. Lan Yi took his saber and did the same on the other man.

"Father, Mother and everyone in the village. We have avenged you." Before they could even beg, the sword and saber sliced their head off swiftly. There is not even a trace of blood on the sword.

"Such a smooth and fast sword." Tyler became envious, he has no talent on sword or sabre.

While Lan Yi was searching for a desert snake to throw the corpse, Lan Xuero stood beside Tyler and stared at him.

"Huh? What? Is there anything on my face?" Tyler asked while touching his face.

"Hehe.. yes. But it left. " Lan Xuero laughed.

"Huh?" Tyler was confused.

"You look less guilty now." Lan Xuero laughed as she moved her face near Tyler's face and whispered, "I can understand that something unspeakable happened between us due to an accident. But don't worry, since we can't remember, then that thing never happened. You spent lot of money just to ease your guilt. To be honest I am impressed. Too bad I am already married."

Her orchid breath fragrance made Tyler's nose twitch. It reminds him of how that succubus tried to seduce him when they met for the first time. Tyler almost got suspicious if she got possessed again.

"Thank You so much Junior brother. Me and my Husband will definitely repay you." Lan Xuero bowed before him.

Lan Yi who just came back saw that and also bowed towards him. They got their Revenge but they didn't feel anything at all.

"Lets go Junior brother Tyler, we will definitely reach top 10. Let us carry you." Lan Yi said as he hopped on the carriage driver seat.

Tyler went inside the Carriage. Lan Xuero reflexively followed him inside.

Both of them looked at each other awkwardly. And turned around. Lan Xuero sat in a meditative position to calm her heart.

Tyler smiled while looking at her. He was still in doubt whether she got possessed again. But he sighed in relief when she acted normal.

Tyler also noticed something, that charming effect is not Lan Xuero's technique. But the innate ability of those succubus. He couldn't help but wonder where those two twin succubi were.

"Isn't that Ghost Cultivator aura in that Ghost beside Tyler? There should be no ghost Cultivators in this world right?" Nova said.

"I heard that ancient Ghost Cultivators are slumbering beneath some ghost villages. Maybe she is a Ghost who got inheritance from that place." Nixie replied.

"Tsk. We have to find a way to go back to Abyss. I hate the human world." Nova said.

"We should find the inferno realm passage or the netherworld passage first. Before that we have to occupy a body." Nixie sighed

"Also if we become stronger. I wanted to see Tyler White as a slave." Nova gritted her teeth.

"Oh oh.. you want him in our harem?" Nixie teased her which made Nova blush. Succubi are creatures that love to collect men as toys. Both Nova and Nixie always shared their toys. This time they have eye on Tyler White.

"I have a feeling that we will meet again. At that time I will make him mine." Nixie said.

"Huh?" Nova looked at her.

"Ours. Make him ours." Nixie smiled.

Chapter 47: 47. Abnormal Luck

There are still two days left for cultivation cc. Today Tyler was confused because Mana is deep in thought. For Tyle, Mana is a mysterious ghost. He only knows little about her past. But her knowledge is very vast.

Today Mana is sitting beside a chess board and looking at the chess pieces. She is not playing with anyone but she is thinking about something.

Mana noticed Tyler and told him to sit across from him.

"You seem very happy," Mana asked.

Tyler smiled and said, "Today I accidentally learned the first stage of Chess Spell. I can summon a black square. If I cover the enemies with black squares, their mental power will weaken. Now I just have to find a spiritual sense of attack. By the way what are you thinking?"

"That's the problem. How you accidentally learned that spell." Mana said. She is wearing a green yukata. It is something he bought for her in the city. She looked like a doll in that dress.

"Remember how you comprehend that spell?" Mana asked.

Tyler recalled it. Tyler and Lan Xuero were playing chess. Tyler didn't expect Lan Xuero to be so smart. He is not the best at Playing chess, but he is still good at playing chess. When he was about to lose, he unconsciously made a small black chess square under the table. It was completely unexpected.

"It's just luck. I think chess Spell got activated unconsciously when playing chess. " Tyler said.

"Yub. That Luck is the one thing Mana is worried about." Tyler said.

"My memories of the New Moon Phantom Festival are still intact because of you." Tyler said and continued, "It was you who helped me understand the basics of that spell."

"What kind of name is Yohoo? Is he a genius." Mana asked in confusion.

"No. I mean it's You, Y.O.U who helped me learn that spell's basics." Tyler laughed and said.

"Oh... Mana sang that song out of sorrow. It was a coincidence. Or maybe not" Mana replied

When Tyler was comprehending the spell for the first time, Mana's singing helped him comprehend faster.

"These kinds of coincidences are scary. Ok... Tell Mana about everything from how you started cultivating." Mana asked.

Tyler slowly told her about his past. He was an archeologist when he was mortal. He travelled to many places and ruins in the mortal kingdoms. He also tried to join the Cultivation sect, but he doesn't have any spiritual roots.

When he reached the age of 40, Tyler decided to retire and form a family. But one day a girl came with a copper pot and a hair pin. That day changed Tyler's Life. He was able to buy Never Melting Ice and copy them to get spiritual roots. After that Tyler talked about his Auction Hall and other business. Then how he obtained a Dragon egg from the fallen immortal dragon. Then about the village of fallen Ghost and New Moon Phantom Festival.

"That City and that Village was normal until you stepped in it." Mana said.

Tyler was silent for a moment and said, "It was a coincidence."

"A Wise Tortoise once said 'There is no coincidence'." Mana floated across the room slowly. She is now spinning around Tyler.

"Nothing happened in this city. Also I have travelled to many cities before. Only these are exceptional." Tyler said.

"The succubi on Lan Couples." Mana said.

"What do you mean is I attract disasters?" Tyler asked.

"Nope. You attract fortune. Whatever happened in these places you are the one who benefited a lot." Mana then stared at Tyler.

Let's see. Those dragon scales, dragon egg, chess Spell, Ghost spirit and ... a week with Lan Xuero. Tyler thoughts ran wild.

"Don't forget that you used the Elemental Body Refining Method right after you got the dragon scale. The timing was so perfect." Mana said.

"What are you trying to say?" Tyler couldn't help but ask. He is feeling a little tired. He still couldn't get the point.

"Your Luck is abnormally high. You are like the protagonist of a novel. The ice elemental roots, the dragon physique, Mana and even the woman you fancied. You got everything very easily. Why don't we test your luck."

"Isn't my luck abnormally high because I got the copper pot?." Tyler asked.

"Your Copper Pot doesn't even have a hint of fortune. It probably doesn't even have karma tainted. Mana is not an expert in Karma. It's just a guess. But Mana does know a little about sensing luck. Your luck is dropping little by little. But you still have lot of luck left."

"Wait, what do you mean my luck is dropping?", Tyler asked.

"Maybe a disaster is coming. Your Gabella is dark with a tint of Gold. "

Tyler had this premonition before. But with Mana's words he was panicking a little.

Tyler shook his head and cleared his mind. There is nothing he can do if he panicked, "Mana, how can you test my luck?"

Mana's lips curled up and said, "You studied the chess Spell, right? But it is useless if you didn't learn a spiritual sense attack or mental attack or Whatever it is called here. So don't try to buy a Spiritual sense attack"

Tyler nodded. He didn't understand why, but he decided to follow Mana's suggestion.

Mana suddenly disappeared. The Lan Couples entered the inn.

"Junior brother. This is a small gift from us. Don't refuse or I will get angry." Lan Xuero said jokingly and gave the gift to Tyler.

Tyler looked at the old slab. There are ancient words written in it.

"It is something we got from the ruins. If you inject your Spiritual Sense into it, It will grant you a random Spiritual Sense technique." Lan Yi said with a smile.

"It can be used only three times. We already used it twice. There is still one quota left." Lan Xuero said.

Tyler was speechless. Now He is more confused.

"Abnormal Luck huh." Tyler mumbled.

"What junior brother?" Lan Xuero asked.

"Nothing. I just need a spiritual sense attack." Tyler smiled and replied.

"That's great. We are glad it is helpful to you. But it depends on luck if you can get a spiritual sense attack from that slab. It gives random art." Lan Yi said with relief. They still don't know how to repay Tyler so they are happy that they can help a little.

"Senior Sister You don't have to come with me." Priscilla said.

"Since the prediction says A disaster will befall on him. Let me help him too. I owe him a favour." Yu Meixue said. The ring he gave benefited her a lot. So she decided to pay back the favour.

Their flying boat already reached near the outer city. Due to abnormal energy fluctuations and magnetic field in the desert, the flying boat won't be able to fly fastly above the desert, so they have to rent a carriage to the inner city.

Two Young Girls walked past them. Yu Meixue stopped for a moment and glanced at the two girls before leaving.

"Does anything matter, Senior Sister?" Priscilla asked.

"Nothing. I thought I sensed something." Yu Meixue shook her head.

Meanwhile the two young girls sighed in relief.

"Nova, she almost found us "

"Nixie, The Cultivators in this world are crazy geniuses. Thank goodness they might have never seen demons before, so even if she noticed something wrong, she was unable to point it out."

These Young girls are Nova and Nixie the succubi who escaped from Tyler and Mana. They occupied a new body. To be safe they destroyed their consciousness completely.

"We should be careful not to provoke anyone until we reach the pinnacle of this world." Nixie said.

Nova nodded, "We should also get Tyler."

Nixie laughed, her sister is obsessed with Tyler.

'Should I make a copy?' Tyler thought.

"Don't copy. Your abnormal luck won't get activated if you use the copper pot. It is the same as never melting ice. If you didn't use that copper pot back then you would have formed spiritual roots on the first try."

However this Stone slab is extremely precious. If possible Tyler wanted to make many copies. So he decided not to test Luck. He thanked the Lan couples and went to his room.

He was about to copy the stone slab but he stopped. Mana's lips curled up. Just as she guessed Tyler is hesitating to copy the stone slab. Because he still wanted to test this Abnormal Luck.

There is definitely a mystery behind this and Tyler feels like he is a puppet of fate. Tyler sighed and didn't make a copy and injected his spiritual sense inside. Soon he went into a meditative state.

After an hour, Tyler opened his eyes.

"How is it?" Mana asked eagerly.

Tyler bitterly smiled and said, "I Got Attack type spiritual art called Ice Needles. It is a mental attack that directly attacks spiritual consciousness."

Both Mana and Tyler looked at each other and blinked, "Abnormal Luck."

Chapter 48: 48. The Arena

Chen Xi and his teammates arrived at the city. Since Tyler owned a whole inn he decided to let them and other Frozen Heart Sect disciples for free. Chen Xi was regretting his choice for not travelling with Tyler. Though he is a Cultivator, he almost had heat stroke while travelling. He couldn't help but feel envy of Lan Couples when he saw the Carriage with inbuilt cooling formation.

"Junior brother, Let's go to the Arena." Lan Yi said while knocking the door. Both him and Lan Xuero are wearing some expensive dresses. Because they are gonna meet Cultivators all over the continent they decided to show off.

Lan Xuero eyes lit up when she saw Tyler. He is wearing an hanfu. His outer robe is crafted from luxurious blue silk, intricately embroidered with silver thread, depicting delicate patterns of flora and mythical creatures.

The inner robe is in whitish silver colour. The wide sleeves of the robe are gracefully extended, adorned with intricate designs and embellishments that shimmer under the light.

The outfit is cinched at the waist with a beautifully ornate belt, decorated with detailed metalwork and tassels, adding to the overall opulence. His hair is styled elegantly, adorned with hairpieces that include blue and silver accents, matching the thematic colours of his attire.

The first thought people would get after seeing Tyler is Rich. Extremely Rich Master.

Tyler smiled at them and they decided to walk towards the Arena instead of using the carriage. Because it is already crowded in the Arena. It is faster to walk. Another thing is they wanted to show off.

The Arena is located in the centre of the city. They reached faster by walking, it was already bustling with crowds. Many of them are Qi Refining Realms and few Foundation Establishment Realms.

It is a big Colosseum in the centre of which a group of formations were placed and Golden Core Cultivators are standing beside each one.

Tyler and Others' Cultivation cc Token shined. They took it out. It showed a number. For Tyler and Lan Couples it showed 212. Tyler and Lan Couples quickly found the formation that has the number 212.

It is a teleportation formation. After checking the tokens, the Golden Core Cultivator let Tyler and Lan Couples along with 30 people to step on the formation.

Tyler felt slightly dizzy before his head became clear. He is now standing in a vast white space. He can see many teleportation formations arranged in a row. There is a number in each Formation.

"There should be more than Thousand teleportation formations." Tyler said as he looked around.

Tyler and Lan Couples moved along with the crowd. They exited the white building. Tyler looked back and the white building looks definitely small from outside.

"What a marvellous formation." Tyler admired these types of things.

"Oh No!... We missed him." Priscilla pouted her lips in dissatisfaction. Yu Meixue found it cute. But she had to maintain the senior sister image, so she chose to say nothing.

"Senior sister~" seeing Priscilla sulking, Yu Meixue opened her palm and showed two tokens.

"Visitor Tokens. Senior sister is the best." Priscilla happily hugged her.

Visitors Tokens are for the audience who want to view the matches. These tokens are Very expensive but with the ring Tyler gave, she was able to buy one token. Another is from an elder, who suddenly went into seclusion. Both of them went to the Arena.

"This place is called Blue Dot hideout, a secret realm that belongs to the Eternal Sect. It is located in the centre of our continent. People from all over the continent are teleported here." Lan Xuero loves explaining things so she took initiative.

Blue dot Hideout got its name because in ancient times there was a thief called Blue Dot. He loves to paint himself fully blue. One day he found a secret realm and decided to make it his hideout. Due to his lack of knowledge he doesn't know that he was sitting above one of the best Cultivation techniques and inheritance in the continent. One day he tricked a young man to buy his 'useless' secret realm. That young man was none other than Eternal Sect's Ancestor who found the Eternal Sect.

The only flaw in this secret realm is everything is so expensive. Even a Tea costs 10 low grade spirit stones. Most of the participants are Prodigy and don't mind spending some spirit stones. It is also forbidden for outsiders to sell anything.

Tyler booked two rooms in the most expensive inn. As sponsor for Lan Couples he also paid for them. Even though they know that Tyler is Rich, they were shocked by his talent of spending money.

"Tyler, there is a formation competition going to take place this evening. Want to participate?" Lan Yi asked.

"Oh I am very confident in my Formation Knowledge." Tyler said proudly.

Tyler's talent for formation is average. But Tyler easily copied materials again and again. Then practise again and again till he can do it perfectly. With good spiritual consciousness he can even rival intermediate formation masters.

Tyler activated his token and thought of attending the formation preliminaries. The participants can participate in any competition as long as they have a token. When he sent his thoughts to his token he instantly got teleported.

This secret realm is built by an ancient advanced civilization. Formation Masters are still trying to unravel the mystery of these formations.

"How many rounds do you think Junior Brother Tyler can pass?" Lan Yi asked.

"I don't know about Junior Brother's level in formation. " Lan Xuero shook her head. They didn't care that much. Participating in an event like this also counts as good experience.

Half an hour later. Tyler was teleported back. Lan Yi and Lan Xuero were surprised. Tyler came back so fast.

Both of them were about to say something but when they saw Tyler's face they froze. Tyler's face is full of disbelief and despair.

"The Heck... The Heck... The heck " Tyler repeated the words again and again.

"Junior brother Tyler. Don't get sad just because you lost." Lan Xuero thought Tyler was like this because he lost so tried to console him.

"Lost? I mean... Yeah I lost. But I don't really care about winning or losing." Tyler said as he raised his head, "The first round was one on one battle between formation masters. We have to create an attack formation and a defence formation. Then attack the opponent with my attack formation and defend their attack from their formation."

"What happened?" Lan Yi asked and Lan Xuero also looked at him curiously.

Tyler sighed and said, "I got totally obliterated. I can't even let a single scratch on his formation and he broke my defence formation into pieces."

"Don't worry Junior Brother Tyler. You just started learning formation, right?" Lan Xuero said.

Tyler's face turned despair again and said, "My opponent is a 12 year old kid."

"Huh?"

Lan Yi : (@_@)

Lan Xuero: (☘◉◉)

Tyler White: (‘;~;’)

"You know what, he is almost an advanced level formation master." Tyler said.

The room turned silent.

"Huh... Xuero you said you wanted to participate in alchemy, right?" Lan Yi asked.

"No thanks. The world is so vast. I don't wanna compete with a 12 year old." Lan Xuero smiled bitterly. She is average in alchemy but decided to give it a try. But she didn't expect there to be little monsters like this. She completely gave up the idea of participating.

No matter how skilled or accomplished one becomes, there is always someone better. This timeless truth humbles and drives us to keep improving. In every field, from sports to academics, the presence of superior talent is a reminder of our own potential and limitations. The saying "there is a mountain beyond the mountain and a sea beyond the sea" encapsulates this idea perfectly. It signifies that no matter how high we climb or how far we sail, there are always greater challenges and depths to explore, pushing us to strive for continuous growth and excellence.

"If 12 year old Geniuses participate in combat competition. I am gonna beat their ass." Tyler mumbled, which made both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero chuckle.

The formation in the white building shone when another batch of people arrived. Yu Meixue and Priscilla arrived at the secret realm. Unlike the participants they were only able to teleport into the audience's seat, unable to participate in any competition. They can also bet on people.

"Let's find that rich guy, first. The communication Talisman is not working. Can you guess where might he be staying?" Yu Meixue said. Priscilla eyes lit up. Tyler never shied on spending money. He would probably now booked the most expensive room he available.

Just as Priscilla predicted they found Tyler easily. She froze when she entered the hall. She saw a beautiful girl patting Tyler's back, laughing and consoling him.

Priscilla's mouth twitched a little.

Chapter 49: 49. Gathering of Beauties and the Competition Begins

"Isn't this Inner disciple Senior Sister Priscilla?" Lan Xuero who noticed Priscilla said.

"Senior Sister is here?" Tyler looked at her.

"Oh you know me?" Priscilla ignored Tyler and stared at Lan Xuero. Lan Xuero is no doubt a great beauty. She reflexively felt wary of her.

"You are that popular Bijin from the inner sect. I am Lan Xuero from the outer sect." Lan Xuero cupped her hands and introduced herself.

"Ah... I know you too. You are the popular Bijo from the outer sect." Priscilla raised her guard to level 2.

"Hehe... " Lan Xuero laughed shyly.

"You are?" Priscilla asked. She can feel this person has almost reached the perfection of Qi Refining Realm. After that step he could try to attack Foundation Building Realm.

"This is my husband Lan Yi." Lan Xuero said.

"Huh? Husband? Hello, nice to meet you." Priscilla's guard totally dropped. She became cheerful for no reason when she learned that Lan Xuero is already married.

"Junior Brother Tyler always speaks about you." Lan Xuero said.

Lan Yi was perplexed.

What was wrong with what she had just said? Why did Senior Sister suddenly look so shy?

Unlike Lan Yi, Lan Xuero noticed senior sister's eyes glancing at Tyler from the side. She also understood why the Senior Sister showed a little hostility towards her. She couldn't help but smile. If she was not married, she would have teased senior sister more.

Tyler suddenly stood up and walked towards them. Priscilla, who was looking shy, glanced at him. She felt her heartbeat up when he walked closer.

Tyler walked past her leaving her dumbfounded and cupped his hand, "Senior Sister Yu Meixue."

Only then lan couples noticed Yu Meixue standing a little farther away like a stranger. Both Lan Couples became serious and greeted her.

Yu Meixue is wearing a veil and her Phoenix-like eyes blinked at them and nodded. Everyone in the room felt refreshing. Tyler, Priscilla, Lan Yi and Lan Xuero had the same thoughts in their mind.

'The Famous Core Disciple Bijo.'

They don't have the nerve to say it loudly. Even with her face closed with a veil , she still shines brightly.

"So, This is a gathering of three great beauties of the Frozen Heart Sect." Tyler didn't even know how to control his mouth.

"So according to that seer. There is a big catastrophe coming towards me?" Tyler's eyes twitched. He already has a premonition of imminent disaster. With Priscilla's words, he confirmed it. His eyes already looked like panda's eyes, because YuMeixue gave a gentle fist for his comment.

"There is nothing we can do about it. Thank you for informing Senior Sister Priscilla." Tyler said.

Priscilla just went straight to the point. She also said Yu Meixue is also her to help. Yu Meixue already left saying that she has an acquaintance to meet. But told them to call her via cc tokens if something came up. People can only communicate through cc tokens in this secret realm, ordinary communication talismans won't work.

Priscilla and Tyler had dinner together. Both Lan Couples were shocked by how casual Tyler is with Senior Sister.

At the same time, Mana who never showed her face said, "What do you think will win? Your imminent disaster or your unusual luck?"

"I don't know. I don't want either to win. The Luck you mentioned gives me even worse premonitions than the disaster." Tyler replied through sound transmission.

"It's time for competition." Tyler said. He is already wearing a black and red combo coloured armour. Lan couples are wearing white armour. They both have same type of armour which looked like a couple set.

"All the best Junior Brother." Priscilla laughed.

Tyler and Lan Couples used their tokens to teleport to the competition. In a vast white room , Tyler, Lan Xuero and Lan Yi got teleported. Tyler looked around and saw many people in a group of three were teleporting one by one.

<< Welcome to the first preliminary round of combat in Cultivation cc. >> A girl's voice resonated throughout the massive white room.

<< The first round is simple. You will get a random team to fight with you. As long as you defeat your opponents you win. Remember even if one person in your team got eliminated. Then the whole team is eliminated. Each team will have to complete 3 rounds. >>

"Don't worry Junior brother, we will carry you." Lan Yi gave a smile with a thumbs up.

Tyler just laughed it off. He is not weak. He just Doesn't know what his power levels are.

<< All the best. >>

The White light shone and engulfed them. It almost blinded their eyes. They are now in the middle of a rocky plains.

<< Round 1 starts >>

They heard the voice again.

<<Round 1>>

Tyler and Lan Couples looked around. They couldn't see anyone. Suddenly Tyler and Lan Couples dodged to the side. The place they were so standing exploded.

"Huh.. it's a miss... They dodged it." A girl with a whip appeared. She looked at Tyler Team with annoyance.

"I told you to wait." A man spoke as he walked out from a giant rock.

"Shut Up." The girl has a short temper.

Suddenly the giant rock floated. Nope, another man lifted the giant off-shaped rock and threw it towards Tyler Team. Tyler's hand turned red. When he was about to punch the rock, the rock split into four parts by two shining lights cutting it clean.

Lan Xuero held her sword while Lan Yi held his saber.

"Damn they are strong." The guy who threw the rock mumbled.

The girl raised her whip and swung towards Lan Xuero. The latter dodged it easily and lunged forward. Lan Yi used the blade to attack both men.

"He is so strong. He can handle two men at the same time." Mana said via spiritual sense.

Tyler's mouth twitched and said, "Can stop saying that in a sussy way."

Tyler found a clean stone to sit on and watched them fight. It looks like both teams forgot about him.

"Why don't you jump and join the fight." Mana asked.

"Nope. It seems like they can handle it easily." Tyler said.

Lan Xuero qi had condensed into a true river; which flowed ceaselessly, and her sword was unimaginably strong! Lan Yi is even stronger than her. Tyler could only watch them in envy. Their footworks is elegant.

Whenever the whip touches the ground it creates an explosion.

"Bltch. Don't dodge and fight properly." The girl with a whip said.

"uh oh.." Lan Yi who heard that mumbled.

Lan Xuero speed increased. She made a turn. Her back lifted off the ground as she rotated. She then extended her beautiful legs straight back towards the girl's face.

It all happened so fast. The heel of her foot kicked her mouth and was sent flying backwards. The girl flew like a ragged doll while spewing a mouthful of blood.

"Amber." One of the men shouted and wanted to rush towards Lan Xuero to attack her in rage. Lan Yi took the chance at his moment of distraction

The Sword lights dashed against him. He got a clean cut on his body. Lan Yi held back and didn't want to injure him.

"Wow." Tyler really liked the flashy moves. His most powerful move is just a punch. It doesn't look flashy at all. Tyler was thinking about trying a new type of weapon. As long as he finds one he will also be able to display cool flashy moves.

While Tyler's thoughts were running wild. Suddenly the voice sounded again.

They registered their name as Team White42 because they couldn't come up with a name and the name was already taken so it randomly generated this name.

<< Round 2 will start in an incense of time. >>

Both Lan Couples came back and sat beside Tyler. Tyler looked at the sky ignoring the both. He is now like a little brother sulking at older siblings who didn't let him play.

The time passed. Tyler couldn't open his ring. Neither Lan Couples their storage bag. It looks like these objects are banned in the competition.

Thankfully they are not hurt, so they decided to sit and wait while replenishing the spiritual energy.

<< Round Two starts in 3... 2.... 1 >>

Lan Yi and Lan Xuero readied their weapons. Tyler is still sitting on the rock while looking up.

"Alright alright, You can fight an enemy in this round." Lan Xuero said finding Tyler sulking was cute.

Tyler's eyes brightened, " I am gonna freeze my enemy."

Suddenly the familiar white light shone. When the light disappeared , Tyler and others saw Lava.

"The @#$% ... " Tyler couldn't help but want to shout. But Lan Xuero quickly covered his mouth. And pointed at the other side. There are 6 people still fighting.

"Wanna go and freeze them, junior brother?" Lan Xuero whispered which made his ears tickle. Her sweet scent mixed with sweat entered his nose.

"Lol. Pervert." Mana made a comment who sensed Tyler's thought.

"Looks like they still didn't finish the fight." Lan Yi who is observing the fight said.

"Thank goodness we finished our fight faster." Lan Xuero said and looked at Tyler.

"Do you wanna fight Tyler?" Lan Yi asked.

Tyler tried to summon ice. But only vapour came.

"Nah I am good. I will be cheering you guys on." Tyler smiled shamelessly. He couldn't use his best elemental movement in this environment.

Author note:

Bijo or Bijin means Beauty or Beautiful Woman.

Chapter 50: 50. Chaos in the Lava Tube

Anything in the cultivation world is not an ordinary thing. Even a random rock might have tainted with spirit energy. Just spirit plants, spirit lakes. This Lava is also filled with spirit energy. Tyler looked around, it doesn't look like he was in the centre of the volcano, instead a massive Lava Tube.

Tyler is just unlucky to get teleported here in the second round.

"Huh... Did my Abnormal Luck go?" He felt happy for some reason. He really doesn't feel good about abnormal luck.

"Nah it looks like you can handle it somehow. That's why you didn't activate your abnormal luck." Mana said.

Tyler and Lan Couples sneaked slowly behind a boulder. They could clearly see the 6 Cultivators. The one with fire attributes have the upper hand, due to territorial advantage. This Lava Tube is filled with fire qi.

"Okay. I have an Idea, let's wait till both sides get- " Before Tyler could even finish what he was saying Lan Yi already took his saber and divided it down.

Tyler: "..."

Tyler : (๖_๖)

Soon the battle pattern changed. The fire element Cultivator fought with Lan Yi and Lan Xuero is fighting with a giant man with a hammer. Both Lan Yi and Lan Xuero chose one guy from each team. So the 3 vs 3 changed into one 2 vs 2 and two 1 vs 1...

Tyler looked up. But there is no sky for him to look at in daze. He just looked for a good place. He noticed a small lava collecting on the ground beside another huge boulder. Tyler decided to sit on the boulder. His body was able to handle the heat. His expensive armour has a little heat resistant function too.

Tyler took a concealing talisman, this is the most expensive one he has. Apart from erasing his presence, It can even conceal his Cultivation level from the Cultivators middle stage of foundation building realm.

<< Using External Items are prohibited. >>

A voice sounded in his head. It is the same voice who manages the competition.

"Are you the spirit of this secret realm?" Tyler asked but there was no reply.

Tyler tried to activate the talisman again.

<< Using External Items are prohibited.>>

"They are using Hammer, armour, sword and saber, why am I not allowed to use it. How about this, I won't use any Talisman to attack." Tyler said and after a pause he continued, "Also your voice is so cute."

After a moment of silence, the voice resonated again.

<<Alright, you are not allowed to use any attack talisman or defence talisman.>>

"Thank You sweet voice." Tyler said.

<<...>>

Tyler then looked at the small lava collected and lost in thoughts. He took a small flower and activated it. It is an artefact called water spring flower. He kept all these inside his armour. This artefact just gives him water. Tyler placed the flower near his lips and activated using spiritual sense. Water flowed out which satisfied his thirst.

The battle Between three teams is getting intense. The time flowed Tyler looked so bored he was just pouring the water out from the flower and Letting it flow on the lava. Before it could even reach the lava it evaporates instantly.

The place he is sitting looks like a small enclosed cave. Tyler noticed a small route which could help him escape if something happens.

Lan Xuero suddenly became a little weak as she was pushed back. A hand suddenly appeared behind Lan Xuero and a flower was placed before her. She felt a little dehydrated. A normal mortal would die in a minute if he was brought into this environment

"Senior Sister catch." A flower-like artefact was thrown towards her. She reflexively caught it. She smiled as she activated the artefact and drank the water. This made the opponent so envious. He wanted to run past and kick that guy who helped her.

Tyler nodded in satisfaction as he took another rose. He then threw it to Lan Yi. But the fire Cultivators who are observing everything while fighting made a swift move. He moved like a fire lion and caught the flower artefact. He laughed mocking at Tyler's direction as if he already saw that coming.

The fire Cultivators guessed that this must be their 3rd team mate. It is great that he didn't participate. Because he couldn't even sense the other party's Cultivation which made him wary. Even though he was sitting there, he couldn't even sense his presence.

Tyler had a shocking expression on his face, suddenly it turned into a smile. The fire Cultivators who were just about to drink the water stunned when he saw that. He was about to throw the artefact away, but it suddenly exploded. Tyler nodded in satisfaction. Lan Yi used this chance to suppress him.

<<...>>

<< Don't use any exploding artifact again. This competition is about using your strength.
>>

The voice warned him slightly.

..... ◆ ● ◆ .....

Just like Eternal Sect's Secret realm. Other continents are also having preliminaries. The cultivation cc is happening in western Zi continent's one of the top sects called Vajra Buddhist Sect.

Inside the secret realm of Vajra Buddhist Sect, many participants of Western Zi Continent are participating. Without the cultivation cc, There is no way one could enter the secret realm. But today a green jade flying carriage suddenly streaked across the sky of the secret realm.

Soon many powerful aura emerged one by one and stood before the flying carriage. They are sect masters and elders of the powerful Sect in Western Zi Continent.

A middle-aged man walked out of the carriage along with two puppets.

Everyone felt slightly pressure while facing him. The middle aged man ignored them and flicked his finger. A picture of Young Tyler White flew towards the Cultivators.

"I want all of you to search the whole western Zi continent and find out where he is." He simply commanded.

"Why should we do this? Who do you think you are? " One of the evil sect leaders lost his temper and started shouting.

The middle aged man just stood there and slowly raised his palm. The puppet near him gave him a heart.

The evil sect leader who was shouting looked at the man in horror, then he looked below and saw a hole in his chest. He died. The puppet was so fast it instantly killed him.

"We will help you. We will help you." Another leader of the sect hurriedly said. Even though they are strong on the continent they have never seen someone this strong. In this world strength is everything. In the face of absolute strength, they could only shut up and obey.

Tyler White doesn't even have an idea that whole Western Zi Continent is looking for him. He is still looking at the fight in a boring mood. While the flower artifact is pouring water into the Lava.

Suddenly both enemy teams came up with a tacit understanding. The six of them suddenly faced Lan Couples. The situation turned into 6 vs 2.

Looking at the situation, Tyler's body turned red and the scales began to form. He is going to join the fight.

<<Round 3 Begins>>

Tyler already noticed the pattern, after the Round ends, the participants will get teleported to another arena or other participants will get teleported here. It is up to one's luck if the upcoming opponents are just a team or 2 teams that are still fighting. If luck is so bad. There is a chance, four teams might get teleported.

"Should I hide and ambush the new team?" Tyler thought. But suddenly the white light shone and a team got teleported right next to him.

The situation got even more messy. But he sighed with relief when he saw it was just one team. But he also felt a little wary because it means they are so strong and defeated two teams already or even three teams.

"Ahh.." one of the girls in the team suddenly shouted.

The opposing team members also noticed Tyler. He is just sitting comfortably there.

"Ah.. I got scared because my spiritual sense couldn't sense him. And he was sitting there like a ghost."The girl said.

"I can't sense his cultivation. Is it some sort of concealing art or concealment talisman"
The Young man in the team said.

Tyler just looked at them without saying anything.

Tyler observed them. This team consists of two young girls and a young boy. It looked like a Harem team. One girl has short hairstyle, looks like a tomboy and another one is cute who has waist length dark brown hair, with a pink hair-clip.

The man in the centre looked at Tyler. He felt like he had seen him somewhere. Tyler also felt like he had seen him somewhere. But this is not the time to think about it.

Both of them started for a few seconds before Tyler opened his mouth.

"Juniors. Staring at this old man is extremely rude." Tyler said with a profound voice.

The three people gulp loudly.

"S-sorry Senior." The girl with the pink hair clip said.
