Chapter 1011 Sneak Away

Crystal's POV:

Ever since Flora left, I had been restless. It had been for a long time, but there was still no sign of her coming back. Something must have gone wrong, I thought, otherwise I would have heard from her already.

Title of the document

Anxious, I started pacing in the room. Arron was also affected by my anxiety that he skipped breakfast and sat quietly on the sofa to keep me company.

Just as I was ready to bolt out the door to go look for Flora, someone suddenly knocked. I quickly opened the door and saw Flora and Joanna walking towards me, talking and laughing.

Crystal's call for help came as no surprise to me. On the day Crystal came back to the capital city, I had thought this might happen, but I didn't expect things to turn out so troublesome.

Even more surprisingly, Rufus' sensitivity caught me off guard. He was readily swayed by Crystal's charms even though he had lost his memories.

He pledged to pick a partner at the ball just two days ago, but he didn't give the women there so much as a glance. He paid no attention to anyone else but Crystal.

I sighed helplessly. They were star-crossed lovers.

Laura's POV:

After finishing the glass of milk, Beryl lay down and closed her eyes obediently. I leaned forward to kiss her forehead and then tucked her in. She drifted off after a few minutes.

Title of the document

I stroked Beryl's head sorrowfully since I didn't know when we would meet again.

Crystal had informed me that Rufus was already suspicious of her, so he would certainly monitor her for some time. He might even put all her communications under surveillance.

For this reason, I couldn't contact her anymore. I could only wait till Rufus' doubts died down and he gave up his investigation of her.

Chapter 1015

Crystal's POV:

As I looked at Beryl's innocent but mischievous eyes, I knew that she had hoodwinked Laura.

My little girl had probably noticed something off with Laura. She only pretended to cooperate and see what Laura was up to.

Title of the document

This was how Beryl operated at home too. She would often pretend to be obedient so she could secretly tag along with me. As soon as I left, she would secretly follow me.

When confronted with Beryl's pleading, I couldn't let out a word. It was as if a lump was stuck in my throat.

"Are you leaving? Mommy, please don't go. I promise I will listen to you and won't be naughty anymore." Then she cupped her hands around my face with her pleading eyes.

My eyes welled up with tears as I said in a broken voice, "Baby Beryl has always been a good girl. Mommy loves you."

"So Mommy, you will not leave anymore?" Beryl eyed me expectantly.

Crystal's POV:

"What're you all doing here?" I looked at them in surprise, but I couldn't suppress how happy I felt. We hadn't gathered together like this in a very long time... "It's a pity that we weren't able to say goodbye to you five years ago. So all of us had to come to see you off this time around!" Flora walked over with a bright smile and held my hand.

Title of the document

"Yeah! Five years ago, you just took off without saying goodbye! We even misunderstood you!" Harry yelled huffily.

"Oh, Harry, I remember Joanna telling me that you cried so hard that your snot was all over the place." Flora made a face at Harry, sticking her tongue out at him.

Harry snorted indignantly. "Me? What about you? I still remember that on your wedding day, your veil was blown away by the wind!"

Chapter 1018 The Way To Comfort Each Other

Joanna's POV:

We reluctantly said our goodbyes. To avoid drawing too much attention, Harry, Flora and I didn't send Crystal off. Instead, we went straight back to our palaces.

Title of the document

When we got back to our place, Harry and I also got ready to leave. We were no longer needed in the capital as soon as the military parade ended, so it was time for us to go.

While packing, I found that Harry looked very sad. I knew that it was because we had parted with our friends once again.

I sighed, cupped his cheeks, and nibbled on his lip. "We'll see them again. Don't be sad, Harry."

Harry's puppy-like eyes looked at me sadly, but he eventually nodded and kissed me back.

I smiled and wrapped my arms around his neck, pulling him closer to me.

Harry took this as an opportunity to bite the tip of my ear, whispering, "I'm fine now, babe."

He slipped a hand around my waist and tucked my hair behind my ear with the other. Then he lowered his head and licked my neck.

Joanna's POV:

I shrank back when Harry's hot breath hit my neck. My quivered slightly as I said, "I don't want..."

"What?" Harry groaned and played with my nipples, gently pinching my stiff tips.

The high surged up like a tide. I grabbed the sofa cushion, my nails digging deep into it. I moaned with pain and pleasure, "Harry... No... Honey..."

After a dozen thrusts, he slowly pulled out of me and lifted me up.

I hurriedly wrapped my arms around his neck and asked, "What... What are you doing?"

He placed a chaste kiss on my forehead and said in a deep voice, "I'm taking you to the bathroom. You're completely drenched."

In the car, Arron sat beside me and looked out of the window with great interest. I patted him on the head and also looked out of the window quietly.
