Chapter 541 Reinforcements Arrive

Geoffrey's POV:

Things were getting out of control.

Title of the document

The first she-wolf who rushed out to attack the vampire was wearing a beautiful dress. It was obvious that she came from inside the wall. Tears rolled down her cheeks uncontrollably as she stabbed the blonde vampire's stomach with the spear again and again.

"Give my mate back to me!" she shrieked. It seemed that the male werewolf the blonde vampire had K*ll'd just now was her mate. No wonder she acted so desperately.

I wanted to stop her. But this she-wolf's behavior was the straw that broke the camel's back. The public no longer sat still and waited for death.

More and more werewolves rushed towards the blonde vampire, one after another. They pulled her hair, pinched her face and attacked her in all kinds of ways to vent their anger.

Rufus and I wanted to stop him, but we were too late. The ball of flames in the vampire's hand was about to explode any second now.

Just then, a giant white wolf with red flames under its feet showed up and leaped forward. It opened its jaw wide and bit down on the vampire's neck, smashing him into the ground in the blink of an eye. The vampire struggled hard and tried to use his special power, but Leonard quickly turned into his human form and stepped on his hand hard.

With a gut-wrenching crack, the vampire's bones shattered into pieces. The vampire screamed then fainted from the pain, without even a chance to beg for mercy.

Chapter 545 Reconstruction

Sylvia’s POV:

The huge wall took three days to finally come down. From that moment on, there would be no more distinction between the inside and outside of the wall.

Title of the document

Soon, the army also began to engage in the reconstruction work. Together, Flora and Warren were assigned to clear the debris of the wall.

Meanwhile, Rufus and I decided to visit and comfort the bereaved families of those who were tragically K*llled in the riot.

Many of the dilapidated buildings outside the wall had also been demolished in order to be rebuilt. Because of this, the amount of labor and resources needed was huge.

As expected, Rufus and I found Alva in the abandoned children's park with Felix. Together, they were eating Alva's favorite tiramisu cake at the stone table.

As soon as Alva heard my voice from afar, she instantly put down her fork and hopped off the bench, making her way to me.

"I'm here, Alva!" I smiled. I crouched down and caught her in my arms.
