Chapter 571 The Rainy Night

Sylvia's POV:

Rufus' l*st was undisguised. I could see my reflection in his eyes. His slender fingers pressed against my lips and scratched them lightly.

Title of the document

I would've been lying if I said my body wasn't drawn towards him. I couldn't help but bite his fingers, licking them.

As soon as the sparks of l*st were ignited, Rufus' expression darkened. His Adam's apple bobbed as he swallowed excitedly. Then he pushed me down and got on top of me.

Outside the window, I could see that it had begun to rain. Rufus' kiss became more and more passionate.

I was in a daze. My vision grew more and more blurred the longer he kissed me. When he finally pulled away, I saw that there was still crystal thin liquid on his lips.

I reached out and stroked his Adam's apple. Then I raised my head to lick it gently.

Chapter 573 Rufus Learned to Lie

Sylvia's POV:

At the thought of Edwin, I lost my interest in the conversation and slipped into a long silence. Rufus wrapped his arms around me lovingly and said, "All right. Let's talk about the potted plant."

"What's wrong with the potted plant?" He successfully managed to change the topic. I fixed my gaze on him.

Chapter 574 The Consequences of Lying

Rufus' POV:

Hearing my announcement, Sylvia went silent. Her eyes fell to the ground and she dejectedly said, "I've already been preparing myself mentally."

"Don't be sad, Sylvia. You still have me. If Edwin has no interest in recognizing you as his daughter, he will regret it in the future." I awkwardly patted her on her back, but she stepped away from me.

Her voice was chilly, and she refused to even look at me. “Even if you were worried that I’d be upset, you shouldn’t have tried to deceive me, let alone keep something so big from me.”

Leonard’s POV:

I handed a bag filled with potatoes to Rufus and said, “The residents have sent these for you. These potatoes are round and big. They are a local specialty.”

Title of the document

Rufus accepted the potatoes and welcomed me inside. “An inventory of the armory has been taken. Take a look at this list when you have time. Geoffrey has a huge secret collection.” I placed the list on the table and swept my eyes around the room, but didn’t spot Sylvia. “Where is your mate? It’s still quite early in the morning. Did she go out to get something again?”

“No. She’s in the bedroom.” Rufus’ face colored with embarrassment and even a little puzzlement, a look I had rarely seen on him before.

Leonard's POV:

I hurriedly dropped the gem pendant, feeling surprised. Why was it so hot? How could it be worn? Was it just a showpiece? But it was really gorgeous. This rare pink gem was worth collecting.

Title of the document

As I mumbled to myself, I placed the gem pendant back into the box and shut it.

The room was quiet. I sat on the sofa and took out some chocolate chips, popping them in my mouth while waiting for Rufus to return. It would have been wonderful if I could have some milk tea right now. Edwin made excellent milk tea.

Sylvia's POV:

As I lay on the bed, my mind practically went blank from anger. Even worse, the pillows and quilt all around me smelled like Rufus.

I got out of the bed and wanted to sit on the couch. But even the couch was filled with piles of his things. There was a watch of his, a belt, and some condoms. It was as if he and his things were scattered everywhere. Discouraged, I sat on the floor and bit my lip.

Chapter 578 The Furtive Wolf

Sylvia's POV:

"Let's be real, Yana. Alina is also Leonard's biological daughter," I shrugged.

Title of the document

When I said this, I felt Yana's thought bubble burst. "You're right. Never mind. Alina is not someone to cross." "So, we just have to face the truth. Like it or not, Edwin is our father." I sighed deeply.

For a few seconds, Yana also remained silent. She then spoke up, "What about Rufus? When will you be able to forgive him?"

I thought for a while. "I think I have to stay angry with Rufus for a little longer than usual. I need him to know how serious this is. He cannot deceive me again."

But when I remembered that I should be still angry, I immediately restrained myself and shifted my eyes away. The giant wolf tilted its head and looked at me curiously for a few seconds. Its forelimbs quietly stepped towards me, but I simply looked at it coldly without saying anything.

Chapter 580 Flora Fainted

Sylvia's POV:

Clutching the phone in my hand tightly, I was a little stunned. How could Flora, who was as strong and hardy as a cow, suddenly faint? Was this Noreen's doing?

Title of the document

Harry, who was on the other end of the line, also sounded confused. "I have no idea what's going on. She was working hard in the city when she suddenly fainted out of the blue. Warren has taken her to the hospital, but we don't know the results yet."

"Okay. I'll go there right now. Send me the address." "Okay."

Sure enough, after hanging up the phone, Harry texted me the address. I quickly got dressed as Omar squatted next to the bed, waiting for me patiently.
