Chapter 601 A Hidden Place

Sylvia's POV:

Harry and I followed John to a hidden cave with vines shrouding its entrance.

"You're awesome, John!" Harry exclaimed. "I didn't expect you would find such a place to hide. I thought you had run away, leaving me all alone."

I realized why Harry looked aggrieved when I asked about John earlier. It looked like he had thought John had abandoned him and run for his own life.

John didn't say a word. He stood away from Harry, keeping a safe distance from him. Although he looked calm, his eyes gleamed with desperation as if he wanted to escape but couldn't.

Chapter 602 The Task

Harry's POV:

After a discussion, the three of us finally came to the decision for one of us to go out first and create a disturbance to distract the vampires. The other two would escape in the ensuing chaos. They would then make a commotion as well so that the first one could also get away.

I had no interest in eating and sleeping with a female K*ller who dressed as a man. And I had to keep her secrets! This was mad! Her social network account was nearly blank. The only post she had liked was about fighting sk*lls. I opened her contact list and found that it had only three contacts, one of which was me.

All of a sudden, I felt touched. I actually occupied a third of Joanna's world. However, she had stored my name weirdly. It was just a string of messy numbers. Obviously, she had casually typed it in.
