Chapter 721 The Baby

Rufus' POV:

My heart clenched painfully as I held Sylvia, who was on the verge of breaking down, in my arms.

The doctor's words ran through my mind. The good news was that Sylvia was pregnant, but the bad news was that the fetus was weak. Keeping this baby might be difficult. She had to be careful.

I sighed, wrapped my arms around her tightly, and rubbed her back to comfort her.

After a while, she finally calmed down. My body sagged with relief and I dried her face with a handkerchief. The crying seemed to have exhausted Sylvia. She just let me do what I wanted and stared blankly out of the window.

Sylvia's POV:

That evening, Rufus actually took me to the mourning hall where Leonard's body had been placed. Alina was not there.

I didn't know how Rufus had made her leave, and I didn't care about it anymore. I was just happy she wasn't here to disgust me again.

Chapter 724 Eating Flowers

Rufus' POV:

I quietly waited by the door for Sylvia to come out. No one was around since I had sent all the guards away. I absent-mindedly fidgeted with the ring on my finger as I fretted that Sylvia would lose control of her emotions.

Surprisingly, I could sense that the atmosphere in the room was constantly peaceful. I had a nagging feeling that something was wrong.

I stood up and went closer to the door, wondering if I should go in and check what was happening. However, I recalled that Sylvia had specifically requested some alone time.
