Sylvia's POV:

When I arrived at my residence, I happened to see Rufus walk out of the room.

“Alina wants to take over the position of Alpha? I didn’t see that coming. Rufus nodded, adding an ice cube to the coffee. After taking a sip, he said, “Leonard didn’t leave anything in writing before his death and now Alina wants the position for herself. She contacted some of the elders of the pack in private and managed to gain their support. Her claim for the position is legit.”

My head started spinning and dizziness overcame me. I had no idea that Alina had secretly planned a campaign in just a few days. However, it didn’t surprise me because it was natural for her to pave the way for her future.

Flora chatted with me for a while before reluctantly hanging up. It looked like all our business in the Silver Moon Pack had come to an end.
